Jews, Arabs Accept UN Plea For Four-Weeks Armistice; Cease-Fire Hour Uncertain

DETAILED REPORT EXPECTED TO BE SUBMITTED TODAY

Doubt Exists on Whether the Acceptances Are Unconditional.

FIGHTING CONTINUES

Jewish Planes Blast Amman; Heavy Battling Reported Near Tel Aviv.

LAKE SUCCESS, June 1—(AP) The Jews and Arabs today announced acceptance of a United Nations plea for a four-weeks armistice in Palestine.

However, their replies to the UN left unanswered such questions as when the shooting would stop.

Israel's acceptance was handed to Secretary-General Trygve Lie approximately four hours ahead of the security council's 6 p. m. (EST) deadline for reply. The Jews followed this up by issuing cease-fire orders to their troops, effective at that hour (3 a. m., Wednesday, Israeli time), on condition the Arabs took the same step.

No Mention of Cease-Fire Order

The 7-nation Arab League's decision to accept the UN plan was given to Lie two hours ahead of the deadline but it made no mention of a cease-fire hour. The council had asked the two parties to agree to the proposals by the appointed hour. The Arab reply left open the actual time of laying down arms.

Also unanswered were the diplomatic and political questions as to whether the acceptances were unconditional. The Arabs said a detailed reply would be sent to the security council.

An Israeli spokesman insisted that his government's acceptance was unconditional. However, the Jews stipulated that they were making five assumptions about the plan, including one that the food supply route to Jerusalem would be opened.

Faris El Khoury of Syria, the leading Arab spokesman here, took over the presidency of the council today under a monthly rotation plan. A study of the replies indicated the terms still would have to be fought out under his gavel in the council.

Details to Come Later

Charles Malik, delegate of Lebanon, read the initial Arab reply to reporters after handing it to Lie. He refused to answer questions as to whether it could be considered conditional but said the details would come along later. The Arab note said:

"The political committee of the Arab League which met in Amman (Trans-Jordan) accepted the security council's request for a cease-fire for the indicated period (four weeks). The political committee will communicate its detailed reply to the secretary-general and to the president of the security council.

"The acceptance by the Arab governments (Egypt, Lebanon, Syria, Trans-Jordan, Iraq, Saudi Arabia and Yemen) of these proposals proves once more their genuine desire to see peace restored in the Holy Land and a just solution to the Palestine problem arrived at."

A British spokesman said his government has made new appeals to the Arabs over the week-end to accept the council plan unconditionally.

The Jews accepted the peace plan a few hours after Israeli airmen bombed Amman, the Trans-Jordan capital, where Arab League leaders were debating the UN appeal for an end to hostilities.

The Israeli reply was handed to Secretary-General Trygve Lie approximately four hours before the deadline. No advance copy was given to Faris El Khoury of Syria, this month's president of the security council.

Five Jewish Assumptions

The Jewish reply listed these assumptions:

1. That the ban on importing arms in the Middle East also should apply to the delivery of arms from stores owned and controlled by foreign powers in the territories involved. A spokesman said this referred to British stores that might be supplying the Arab field armies of Egypt, Iraq and Trans-Jordan under treaty obligations.

2. That the Arab and Jews should maintain the positions held at the time of the council cease-fire (3 a.m., Israeli time, Wednesday, June 2).

3. That food supplies would be assured for Jerusalem and normal civilian entry and exit would be guaranteed. A Jewish spokesman said his government would regard any attempt to stop food supplies for Jerusalem as a violation of the cease-fire.

4. That any attempt to stop normal transport of goods assigned to Israel and other states concerned would be regarded as an act of armed force. This was understood as a reference to efforts of some Arab states to put into effect a sea blockade against the Jewish state.

5. That Israel's freedom to admit immigrants would not be impaired.

Under the UN plan, the sixth effort here to stop the war, an arms embargo would be instituted against the Jews and the seven warring Arab nations.

The security council meets tomorrow (1:30 p.m. EST) to receive the replies officially.

While reiterating that acceptance was unconditional, a Jewish spokesman said his government would have to reconsider its position should the council refuse to agree to the five assumptions laid down.

The council cease-fire plan, submitted by Britain and amended by the United States, Canada, and France, was passed by the council last Saturday night. It calls for a concerted effort during the four weeks to bring a peaceful settlement of the Palestine problem.

Settlement efforts in Palestine would be carried out by Swedish Count Folke Bernadotte, the UN mediator. He already is on the scene and conferred with King Abdullah in Amman today.

U.N. To Receive Formal Reply On Decision

HARRELSON

Lake Success, June 1 (AP)—The state of Israel announced today it had accepted the United Nations' appeal for a Palestine cease-fire.

A spokesman for Israel described the acceptance as unconditional. He said, however, the communication from Tel Aviv contained a Jewish interpretation as to what Israel understood the cease-fire to mean.

The deadline for replies from the Jews and Arabs is 7 P.M. (E.D.T.) today. Arab League leaders were meeting at Amman, Trans-Jordan, to decide on their course.

"It Is Unconditional"

The Israeli spokesman said:

"Our acceptance is being communicated to the secretary general of the United Nations as soon as possible. It is unconditional. It does contain our understanding of the terms of the cease-fire."

The cease-fire appeal was voted by the Security Council last Saturday.

Jewish Planes Hit Amman; Ground Fighting Is Heavy

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The acceptance by the Jews and Arabs of the UN plea for a truce in the Holy Land came as dispatches gave details of the fighting in Palestine yesterday.

Jewish planes dropped high explosive and incendiary bombs on Amman. It was the first strike of Israel's air force at an Arab capital.

Amman officials said six Arab civilians were killed. The British army in Haifa said the Jewish planes also bombed an R.A.F. airfield near Amman. The British announcement listed the casualties as 12 Arabs killed and 30 wounded.

Ground fighting in the Holy Land was particularly heavy on the front south of Tel Aviv. The Jews were reported to have been compelled to heed the Egyptian threat to their capital.

An Israeli communique located the Egyptian spearhead near Yibna, in Jewish coastal territory only 14 miles from Tel Aviv. The last previously announced position of the Egyptian troops was at Isdud, six and a half miles south of Yibna.

The Jews said their troops slashed at the 20-mile inland flank of the Egyptian column and took Beit Tima, three miles from the Egyptians' supply road and 18 miles below Yibna.

Field guns of Trans-Jordan's legion pounded modern Jerusalem's commercial center. Both the legion and the Iraqi army moved men and artillery into the 40-mile line extending north and west of Jerusalem.

The Arab and Jewish decisions to accept a cease fire came as Israel's army appeared to be at a low ebb of its fighting fortunes.

Paul J. Ruegger, president of the International Red Cross committee, told newsmen in Amman that Jewish authorities are evacuating 80 wounded Arab soldiers and more than 400 Arab civilians to Arab lines in Jerusalem. He said the action was in return for the "generous way" the Arabs carried out the evacuation of Jewish noncombatants from the old city last Friday and Saturday.

A Jerusalem dispatch said Wayne Swedenberg, a U. S. consulate guard, was wounded. A shell fragment struck him in the left arm and shoulder while he was on duty at the main gate of the consulate.

Palestine Truce Move Pleases U.S. Leaders

WASHINGTON, June 1. — (AP) American officials said privately tonight that they were deeply pleased by Jewish and Arab acceptance or the United Nations proposal for a four weeks truce in Palestine.

There was no immediate formal comment from the White House or State department.

However, authorities handling American policy had been greatly concerned lest one side or the other in the Palestine fighting throw over what appeared to be the last chance for stopping the strife.

These authorities pointed out that agreement with the truce actually solved none of the basic issues. The Arabs still have not recognized the existence of the new Jewish state. Elements among the Jewish extremists are still unreconciled with the concept of a Jewish state which would occupy only a part rather than all of the Holy Land.

According to diplomatic experts it appeared probable that two major problems would develop as a result of acceptance of the truce plan.

One will be to make the truce completely effective and to keep down incidents and outbreaks on both sides which could give rise to the claim that the truce was being violated.

The other problem will be to find a basis for a more permanent settlement aimed at enabling the Jews and Arabs to live peacefully together.

JEWISH PLANES BOMB AMMAN

Syrians Retaliate With Raid On Port Of Nahariya

By DANIEL DE LUCE

JUN 1948

Amman, Trans-Jordan, June 1 (AP)—Jewish airmen bombed Amman with high explosives and incendiaries today in the first attack on an Arab capital. Arab officials said six Arab civilians were killed in the surprise attack.

Tonight the Syrians announced that their Air Force had struck back in an attack on the port of Nahariya, setting big fires and sinking two boats in the harbor north of Acre. The Syrians said they also raided the settlements of Dan and Kafar Geladi in the north.

[The British Army said in Haifa that the Israeli planes also bombed an RAF airfield near Amman, damaging a number of grounded aircraft. The British announcement listed the casualties as twelve Arabs killed and 30 wounded.

Other Bombing

[A pooled dispatch from the Jewish side of the lines in Jerusalem quoted an official source as saying the raid was made with a small number of bombers operating with fighter escort. This was the most active day of the war for Israel's air force. Jewish planes bombed Arab troop concentrations in Lydda, Tulkarm and Jenin.]

The air raid caught Amman by surprise. Street lights were burning when the first of four Jewish flights appeared over Trans-Jordan's little capital in the early morning darkness. No air raid precautions had been taken.

Bernadotte, Abdullah Confer

A short time later Count Folke Bernadotte, the United Nation Mediator, arrived in Amman from Haifa for talks with Arab leaders on the proposed truce. During the afternoon Count Bernadotte conferred with King Abdullah and then returned to Cairo by plane.

Bitterness over the raid was at a high pitch when the Arab League's political committee met to discuss the United Nation's cease-fire proposal. Some Arab quarters said the raid was a deliberate attempt by the Jews to frighten the committee.

Great indignation was expressed at the royal palace, where the raid was described as an indiscriminate attack against the civilian population.

Magnitude Of Forces

Members of the Arab League's political committee consulted during the morning with high military officers of Trans-Jordan, Iraq and Egypt. There is fresh evidence in military quarters that the Arab states are awakening to the magnitude of the forces required for an effective assault on the Jews.

Amman is the second capital to undergo air attack in the Palestine war. Tel Aviv, main city of Israel, has been bombed by Egyptian planes almost daily since May 15. Arabs say these attacks up to now have been against outlying military targets. (However, the Jews have listed a bus station in the heart of Tel Aviv as one of the building wreckage.)

Correspondents Watch

The Israeli raid on Amman consisted of a series of about four flights over the city. Only one plane was seen each time. Officials said the only building struck was the home of a workers' family near the ancient Roman amphitheater.

At the Philadelphia Hotel, chief ressidence of foreign correspondents, guests watched the air activity from the windows and doorways. Most of them took cover when a bomb exploded 300 yards away.

The cries of civilian wounded mingled with the sound of gunfire. One plane flew over the city with its running lights on.

About ten explosive and incendiary bombs in all were dropped. The explosive bombs were estimated at 50 pounds each. The incendiaries failed to start any fires.

Fighting South Of Tel Aviv

[Unconfirmed reports in Tel Aviv said the Jews had been compelled to heed the Egyptian threat to the Jewish capital from the south and that full-scale fighting had broken out in that direction.

[The Israeli army announced that its troops slashed into the 20-mile inland flank of the Egyptian column moving up the Palestine coast above Gaza. The communiqué said the Egyptian spearhead was near Yibna, in Jewish coastal territory only 14 miles from Tel Aviv. The last previously announced position of the Egyptian troops was at Isdud, 6½ miles south of Yibna. The Jews said they took Beit Tima, 3 miles from the Egyptian supply road and 18 miles below Yibna.]

No Orders To Halt Fire

Guns of Trans-Jordan's Legionnaires pounded modern Jerusalem's commercial center intermittently. Jewish small arms fire there was directed at the Old City's Jaffa Gate. The Legion commander said he had received no orders from Amman by this afternoon to cease firing.

Both the Legion and the Iraqi army continued moving large forces of men and artillery into the 40-mile line extending north and west of Jerusalem. Military observers predicted, however, that the anticipated Arab drive against Tel Aviv and the Jewish coastal strip might be delayed during the conferences now being held in Amman, a Jerusalem dispatch said.

JUN 1948

Israel Planes Raid Amman

Cairo, June 1 (AP)—Jewish airmen bombed Amman, Trans-Jordan, a few hours before Arab League leaders met there today on a cease-fire proposal for the Palestine war.

Dispatches from King Abdullah's little capital across the Jordan from Palestine said the bombing aroused bitterness. Observers there said the raids may have blasted away the faint hope of a United Nations truce.

Jewish headquarters in Tel Aviv announced "Planes of the Israel Air Force bombed military targets at Amman during the night." The communiqué gave no details.

The British announced in Haifa that an RAF field near Amman also was struck. Arab officials in Trans-Jordan said six Arab civilians, including two children, were killed. The British put the total dead at twelve and the wounded at 30. Officials in Amman said only one plane was sighted in each of four runs over Amman, the last just at dawn.

Ten Bombs Dropped

They said about ten bombs, some of them incendiaries, were dropped but that the only property damage was to a building housing a worker's family. The British said several grounded aircraft at the field were damaged.

A high official Arab League source in Cairo said that "it is impossible that Arab countries will accept the Security Council cease-fire proposal without conditions." These conditions, the informant said, were likely to be:

Halting of all Jewish immigration; halting of all shipments of arms to Palestine; Arab supervision to see that truce terms are observed; repudiation of partition and the Jewish state.

To Continue Siege

The Arabs will continue the siege of Jews in Jerusalem even if the cease-fire order is accepted, the informant said, and "nothing will be allowed to reach them."

The Amman raid came just a short time before Count Folke Bernadotte, the United Nations mediator, was to arrive in Amman from Haifa for talks with Arab leaders on the proposed truce.

Israel's Government in Tel Aviv called the Council of 37, provisional legislature of the Jewish state, into session last night to hear a report on the truce talks.

Great Indignation

At the Royal Palace the raid was described as an indiscriminate attack against the civil population.

Street lights in Amman shone brightly when the raid began. Amman had not changed its peacetime habits since the war began, and no raid precautions had been taken.

Amman is the second capital to undergo air attack in the Palestine war. Tel Aviv, main city of Israel, has been under attack by Egyptian planes almost daily since May 16. Arabs say these attacks up to now have been against outlying military targets. [However, the Jews have listed a bus station in the heart of Tel Aviv as one of the buildings wrecked.]

Deadline Draws Near

Some Arab quarters expressed belief the raid was a Jewish attempt to frighten the Arab League committee meeting here. The deadline for the United Nations cease-fire order is 7 P.M. (E.D.T.) tonight.

The league committee has formulated a number of conditions certain to meet Zionist objections. Arab sentiment appeared to be consolidating behind advocates of all-out prosecution of the military campaign against Zionism as quickly as possible.

There is fresh evidence in military quarters that the Arab States are awakening to the magnitude of the forces required for effective assault on the Jews and that they are revising upward their previous commitments of men and armaments.

The leaders — the Premiers of Syria and Lebanon, the Foreign Minister of Egypt, the Deputy Foreign Minister of Iraq, a Cabinet Minister from Saudi Arabia, a Prince from Yemen and Trans-Jordan representatives—held a preliminary meeting yesterday and later dined with King Abdullah.

Prior to today's air-raid most sources in Amman felt it extremely unlikely that the Arabs would reject the United Nations request for a four-week armistice.

Key Factors Cited

Arab sources said powerful factors were bound to influence the final Arab decision:

1. Vehement public demand in the Arab states for pursuing the Holy Land campaign until the Jews are brought to their knees.
2. Possible world repercussions if the Jews accept the cease-fire appeal and the Arabs turn it down.

Some Arab statesmen were said to be pleading for acceptance of the truce, while others were described as convinced that early military success now is likely for the Arabs and that stopping the fighters would rob them of their impetus.

Arabs favoring the truce were said to be fearful that arms embargos would be lifted, to the benefit of the Jews, if the onus of rejecting the armistice proposal falls on the Arabs alone.

Baghdad Claims Iraqi Troops Circle Tel Aviv

BOYD

Baghdad, Monday, May 31 (AP)—The Defense Ministry asserted in a special communiqué tonight that Iraqui forces "are now encircling Tel Aviv in the form of a circular arch with a 7-mile radius."

The communiqué announced the capture of Ras al Ain, 9 miles east of Tel Aviv. The Ministry, however, placed the distance at 7½ miles. [Jewish fighters of Irgun Zvai Leumi said Sunday they had been forced from the village.]

Another Iraqui column was said to have taken Kefr Yona, halfway through the coastal strip of Israel and 4 miles east of Nathanya, on the sea. [The Arab Higher Committee in Cairo said Nathanya had fallen.]

Wrecked And Occupied

The Iraqi Ministry said Kefr Yona was "wrecked and occupied." A Jewish counterattack was reported beaten off with artillery. The retreating enemy was said to have left "a great number killed, including the commander of the Haganah attacking force."

Iraqi forces were reported to have rescued Arab volunteers in Tairah village from an attack of Jewish forces.

The Iraqi Air Force bombed Affulah and set it afire with incendiaries, the communiqué said. It said the Almirhabah settlement also was bombed and a Jewish armored column suffered heavily.

The Jews acknowledged in Palestine that Iraqi troops, moving south, are only 9 miles from Tel Aviv at one point.

A dispatch from Natanya said an unidentified ship cruising along the coast fired two shells into the city yesterday, but caused no damage.

Yesterday's battle west of the Holy City was one of the sharpest thus far fought in the sixteen-day-old war, an Amman communiqué

The Arab communiqué said Jewish troops made their effort to break Arab control of the road in the same area where the Jews reportedly suffered a defeat last week.

Some Arab observers said they believe yesterday's battle may have ended Jewish hopes of opening the road, unless Israeli forces can muster a tougher offensive.

News correspondents with Jewish forces in Jerusalem said in a pooled dispatch that Haganah troops moved toward the Arab stronghold of Jenin. Jenin is the northern apex of the Nablus-Jenin-Tulkarm triangle in north-central Palestine.

Jewish leaders said that in the southern region Egyptian troops rolled up 500 infantry-carrying armored vehicles in the Isdud area. Isdud is 23 miles south of Tel Aviv, and just inside the boundaries of Israel.

Lebanon Bombed

Haganah officers said their airplanes bombed several villages on the Lebanese side of the frontier near Malkieh and Kajesh. Haganah troops reportedly blew up several police posts on the Syrian frontier.

Jewish and Arab infantry was reported grouping in the lower Galilee area, but there was no report of fighting.

The Jews said their planes bombed four Sherman tanks on the Tulkarm road, and Arab police barracks in Tulkarm.

A dispatch from Tunis said hundreds of Tunisian Arabs are leaving to get into the Palestine fight.

The Egyptian Interior Ministry reported its order requiring special exit visas has prevented about 500 persons from leaving the country. They said these persons were preparing to leave when the order was issued. In order to get visas, they must satisfy the Government they need to go abroad for business or health reasons.

Jerusalem Shelled Anew

JERUSALEM, June 1 (AP)—Firing in Jerusalem continued late today as the deadline of the latest United Nations cease-fire order neared.

Both the Trans-Jordan Arab Legion and the allied Iraqi army continued to move large forces of men and artillery into the front extending north and west from the Holy City. Military observers said a drive toward the coast might be delayed during political conferences being held in Amman.

A Legion area commander said he had no orders to cease firing in conformity to United Nations instructions.

Legion guns pounded modern Jerusalem's commercial center, from which Israeli small-arms fire was directed at the Jaffa Gate of the Arab-held Old City.

Both Arab and Israeli forces, however, observed a cease-fire agreement south and east of the Old City while the Red Cross transferred fifty wounded Arabs from Beit Safafa, south of the Holy City, to the Austrian hospice inside the walls.

Cairo Spearhead Threatened

TEL AVIV, June 1 (AP)—Israeli troops slashing behind an Egyptian coastal spearhead, have captured a town only three miles from the Egyptians' supply road, a communiqué announced today.

Israeli sources said they took Beit Tima, a village in southern Israeli territory. It is eighteen miles south of Yibna, where the communiqué placed the Egyptians' spearhead. Yibna is thirteen miles south of Jaffa and is south of Tel Aviv.

The ground forces' communiqué indicated a tightening of the Israeli positions along the twenty-mile flanks of the Egyptian column, which observers say is heavy in armor and numbers from 4,000 to 5,000 men.

There is only one coastal road through Arab territory to Israel—the Gaza-El Majdal highway. The Egyptians have moved up slowly, presumably aiming to consolidate the advance and protect their flanks.

Israeli positions, at least down to the east-west road between Beersheba and Gaza, lie along a parallel highway three to five miles inland from the coastal artery.

Cease Fire Ordered

TEL AVIV, June 1 (AP).—The government of Israel sent a cease-fire order to all its forces in Jerusalem today in compliance with the appeal of the U. N. Security Council. The government's order was to become effective at 3 a. m., Tel Aviv time, tomorrow (6 p. m. Eastern standard time, Tuesday).

A Jewish communique announced that Israeli troops, slashing behind an Egyptian coastal spearhead, captured Beit Tima, a village only three miles from the Egyptian's supply road. It is eighteen miles south of Yibna, where the communique placed the Egyptians' spearhead. Yibna is thirteen miles south of Jaffa, Tel Aviv's neighbor city.

Along the southern rim of the Valley of Esdraelon (Armageddon) to the north the Jews were reported beating off a strong Arab counter-attack against the village of Lajjun—once a Roman legion garrison. The Jews took Lajjun Sunday.

Desecration Charges Argued In Jerusalem

Jerusalem, June 1 (AP)—Jerusalem was quiet from a military standpoint today and attention turned to arguments about the desecration of sacred places in this holiest of cities.

The arguments were touched off late last night when Greek consular sources said thirteen mortar bombs had fallen i the area of the Holy Sepulchre, some within six yards of the church.

Haganah, the Jewish army, replied promptly that Jews had not fired any shells in the Old City since the Jews there capitulated last Firday.

Christian Union Charge

Fuel was added to the argument today with publication of a manifesto by the Christian Union in Palestine which accused Jewish forces of having used deligious and humanitarian institutions in the Old City as military bases.

A Jewish Agency spokesman replied that "in the entire country, Jews have neither damaged nor occupied any holy place, Christian or Moslem, unless that place was previously occupied and used by the Arabs as a military base."

He said the Jews attacked and occupied Katamon Monastery which was being used by Arabs and that they intended to stay there.

The virtual blackout on military new continued here.

Artillery Positions

A Jewish Agency spokesman said that after the destruction of the Latrun police station, Haganah forces blew up Arab bases in the Latrun Monastery compound. These were artillery positions placed behind the church which sheltered the Arabs from Jewish fire, he claimed.

The spokesman said there was no confirmation of the report that the monastery was destroyed.

From Bab el Wad the road to Jerusalem is in British hands, the spokesman said. Haganah reports indicate, he said, that Arab casualties in the last 48 hours in the Latrun battle are 150 dead and wounded. Jewish casualties, he added, are "about one-tenth of that figure."

Arabs Behind Appeal

Referring to the Christian Union's manifesto, the Jewish Agency spokesman said "you are aware of the fact that the people behind this appeal are all Arabs rather than neutral Christian bodies in this town. So-called humanitarian and religious institutions, such as the Moslem Supreme Council, were used as arms arsenals on the Arab side before May 15."

"I don't need to repeat the list of holy places, hospitals, clinics, schools and so forth which were damaged in shelling which is certainly none of our doing and which had no direct military advantage to the attackers," he added. "Most of the victims of these shells were children and non-combatants."

Jews Evacuating 480 Arabs In Jerusalem

Amman, Trans-Jordan, June 1 (AP)—Paul J. Ruegger, president of the International Red Cross Committee, said today Jewish authorities are exacuating 80 wounded Arab soldiers and over 400 Arab civilians to Arab lines in Jerusalem.

He said the action was in return for the "very generous way Arab authorities carried out the evacuation of (1,500) Jewish noncombatants from the surrendered Jewish quarter in the Old City last Friday and Saturday."

Bedouin Tribe Joins Army, Jews Report

London, June 1 (AP)—The Jewish Agency said today it has received a report that a Bedouin tribe in Galilee now is fighting as part of the army of Israel, Jewish state in Palestine.

The agency said the Bedouins, desert-wandering Arabs, have been equipped with Jewish arms.

Iraq Suspends Recruiting

BAGHDAD, Iraq, June 1 (AP)—The Iraqi Government has halted the recruiting of volunteers and irregulars for the Palestine war pending settlement of the United Nations' truce efforts, it was learned tonight.

LONDON, June 1 (AP)—Saudi Arabia's Foreign Minister, Emir Feisal al-Saud, arrived in London from New York today. Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin arranged a conference with him for tomorrow.

A Foreign Office spokesman said a general exchange of views on Palestine and the general Middle East situation probably would take place.

6-Power Study Of W. Germany Near Accord

ALEX SINGLETON

London, June 1 (AP)—A six-nation conference on western Germany's political and economic future put its special drafting committee to work today polishing final recommendations.

The discussions have been conducted for more than a month by the United States, Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

A plenary session was called, but there is no certainty the conference will end today. American sources reported there existed a slim possibility that delegates may be able to wrap up the recommendations before nightfall.

Phrasing Still Remains

The chief difficulty remaining is to obtain agreement upon phrasing of the document.

The London Times commented on the talks, and said they demonstrated a need for closer union between the United States and western Europe.

"The talks have brought into the open divergencies and doubts which will have to be examined soon or late and are better examined now," the Times said.

"Another lesson," it continued, "is that closer liaison between the United States and western Europe has now become an essential to real agreement."

"By calling for a hard and fast military guarantee, the French are asking the Americans to go faster along the unaccustomed path of European affairs than they are going already, and their present pace is far from slow. To attempt to force the pace from the outside might easily arouse American fears and resentment, and disturb the broad movement for associating the United States with the Brussels pact . . .," the Times concluded.

Election Is Question

Barring a last-hour decision, the conference may leave unsettled for the moment the question of whether delegates should be elected or appointed to a German Constituent Assembly. This will be called about September 1 to draft a constitution for western Germany.

The French have insisted on appointment of delegates. The United States has advocated elections.

Chief among the decided issues is the agreement to set up an international control board or "authority" for the Ruhr Valley's coal, coke and iron ore. The control board will have broad powers of allocations.

The political recommendations are aimed at giving western Germany a large measure of self-government early next year.

POLL ISSUE IS LEFT TO WEST GERMANY

London, June 1 (A. P.).—The Six Power Conference on the political and economic future of western Germany today compromised a deadlock over the question of how the German delegates should be selected for a Constituent Assembly. The conference decided to let the west German states themselves decide the question individually.

The United States had advocated a general election; the French had preferred that the delegates be appointed.

The Germans chosen will meet on September 1 to draft a constitution.

The conference, attended by Britain, Belgium, Holland and Luxembourg as well as the United States and France, put its drafting committee to work, meanwhile, at framing final recommendations. There had been a report earlier that the talks might end today.

Confidence Vote Given

Paris June 1 (AP)—The National Assembly voted confidence in the Government tonight, 402 to 183. Comunists opposed. The issue was a cabinet decision to discharge 150,000 temporary state employés for economy.

Belgian Premier Confers With Leopold

Brussels, Belgium, June 1 (AP)—Premier Paul-Henri Spaak talked with Belgium's exiled King Leopold in Switzerland over the week end, a communiqué issued by Spaak's offices announced today.

Spaak will tell the Government the details of his two-day conversations with King Leopold at a Cabinet meeting Friday, the communiqué added.

In political circles it was believed Spaak talked with Leopold about the return to Belgium of Prince Baudoin, the King's eldest son, when he becomes 18 in September. According to Belgian custom the Prince, on reaching 18, would take his seat in the Senate and enter officers' training college.

These circles believe the King is unwilling to allow Baudoin to go home without him, and the Government's attitude up to now has been opposed to Leopold's return. ADD

More Food Due For Part Of Bizonia

Berlin, June 1 (AP)—For the third successive month, normal consumers in some areas of Bizonia will get a boost in food rations, Gen. Lucius D. Clay's semi-monthly Military Governor's report said today.

The normal consumer ration in Hesse, Wuerttemberg-Baden, Bremen and Hamburg will be lifted from 1,593 calories daily in May to 1,655 calories a day for June, the report said. The main improvement will be a boost to 500 grams of fat a month for consumers over the age of 10. Cereal and dried fruit rations will also be upped.

The other areas of Bizonia—the British and American occupation zones—will receive a normal consumer ration of 1,495 calories a day, the report said, adding that these areas defaulted on their full quotas of foodstuff collections and deliveries. Normal consumers in these regions will get only 8,500 grams of bread, instead of 10,000 elsewhere.

Grain deliveries by farmers up to the end of April reached 87.5 per cent of quota, the report said. It also noted that the influx of Czechoslovak refugees had decreased, following strengthening of border controls.

JUN 1948

Berlin, June 1 (AP)—Twenty thousand Berlin transport workers are to strike for 24 hours tomorrow for more wages and food. Only the elevated railway will run.

City garbage collectors are on strike now for wages and food.

American Upholds Baron

Former Diplomat Says He Urged Weizsaecker to Work for Hitler

NUERNBERG, June 1 (AP).—A German diplomat accused of war crimes introduced evidence today that he was urged by an American diplomat to take the job which caused his trial.

In support of his contention that he worked for Adolf Hitler only to combat him, Baron Ernst von Weizsaecker submitted a written statement by Ferdinand Lathrop Mayer, of Bennington, Vt., former counselor of the American Embassy at Berlin.

The statement said Mr. Mayer suggested to Weizsaecker that "he might be able to exert some moderating influence" on Hitler's foreign policies if he took the job as Foreign Office State Secretary which was being offered him. ADD

Czech Official Of Red Party Assassinated

Prague, Czechoslovakia, June 1 (AP)—Police disclosed today that Augustin Sram, colonel of a Partisan group and an official of the Communist party, was assassinated Friday night. Police said they are investigating.

Sram was summoned to the door of his home in Prague, the official report said, and there shot down by a man with a pistol. His wife gave the alarm immediately, but the killer escaped, police said.

Papers Print Little

Only a bare announcement of the killing was published in the Prague newspapers. Communist party headquarters refused to answer any questions about the case, declining even to give Sram's age or his role in the party.

Conscription Period Increased

Bucharest, Romania, June 1 (AP). The conscription period in the Romanian army has been increased from eighteen months to two years, it was announced today.

Greek Government Claims Guerrilla Peace Offer

Athens, June 1 (AP)—The Greek Army general staff said today a guerrilla radio broadcast last night offered rebel peace overtures. The broadcast quoted the "Provisional Government of Greece" as saying it did not aim to prevail by force.

The radio message, said the general staff, declared Markos Vafiades, leader of the guerrillas and head of the so-called provisional government, is "always ready to accept and encourage any initiative coming from anywhere" which would lead to peace.

Such a peace, it went on, would be only under the condition there would be no "foreign interference."

Message In Code

The broadcast—in Morse code—included demands for the "democratic rights of the people," and "national independence." These latter demands are frequently used in routine Communist propaganda.

"We are trying to stop the blood which is being shed in Greece because it is our own blood," the general staff quoted the broadcast. "If, however, monarcho-fascists in Athens do not show they are stopping bloodshed in the country then we have the power to impose upon them and their American and British patrons the interests of the people of Greece."

The broadcast reportedly cautioned that "traitors in Athens would be mistaken if they presented these proposals as a sign of weakness."

Concessions Are Offered

In addition, the guerrilla broadcast was reported as saying that the "provisional democartic government is always ready to make every possible concession which national and popular party interests would permit."

Observers expressed curiosity over the release of the guerrilla statement in Morse code and not in a regular voice broadcast. Some believed Morse was used expressly for Government interception and reaction, and that it was not intended for the followers of Vafiades until the Greek Government reaction is known.

Greek nationalist forces are reported poised to launch the biggest offensive of the war against the guerrillas.

Early Victory Is Seen

Both Allied and Greek military leaders have expressed confidence that the back of rebel resistance will be broken by the end of the summer or by early fall. This feeling was given strength by recent successes against guerrillas.

There was continuing speculation that the guerrillas are being gradually abandoned by their neighbors to the north. The volume of supplies across the northern borders into Greece reportedly has dwindled during the past few weeks.

The broadcast may be a guerrilla attempt to obtain the best peace terms possible. If terms are not satisfactory, observers said, the guerrillas may move into Yugoslavia, Albania and Bulgaria, creating a temporary truce.

Observers also believe that it is almost a certainty the Government will not negotiate with Vafiades, since it is convinced its American supplied equipment is sufficient to suppress the rebellion.

Freed of Aiding Greek Leftists

ATHENS, June 1 (AP).—Two wealthy Greeks charged with giving financial aid to the Leftist guerrillas have been acquitted by a military tribunal and released, it was announced today. They are John Papastratos, whose family has a tobacco fortune, and John Yannopoulos, a tannery owner.

GREEK REBELS ASK FOR PEACE

Conditional Offer Not Expected To Be Accepted

Athens, June 1 (AP)—The Greek Army general staff said today Communist-led guerrillas have broadcast conditional peace overtures.

A Morse broadcast by the rebel radio station, picked up by the general staff last night, said Markos Vafiades, guerrilla chieftain, "is always ready to accept and encourage any initiative coming from anywhere" which would lead to peace.

This, however, could be done only on condition that there be no "foreign interference," the broadcast said. It also included routine Communist propaganda demands for what the Leftists refer to as the "Democratic rights of the people" and "national independence."

Not Intended For Followers

Vafiades heads the self-proclaimed provisional Greek Government set up by the rebels last December 24. The broadcast quoted that regime as saying it did not "aim to prevail by force."

The fact the guerrillas transmitted their statement by Morse code and not by a regular voicecast aroused curiosity among observers here. Some expressed the belief the statement was not intended for Vafiades's own followers until the reaction of Greek authorities in Athens is known.

Recent Successes

Sophoulis told newsmen tonight he had "absolutely nothing" to say about the purported peace feeler.

The observers believe it is virtually certain Premier Themistokles Sophoulis's Government will not negotiate with Vafiades. The broadcast came as Greek Army troops, supplied with American equipment, were reported poised to launch their largest offensive into guerrilla territory.

Both allied and Greek military leaders have expressed considerable confidence that the back of the rebel resistance will be broken by the end of the summer or early fall. Recent army successes have strengthened this feeling.

There was continuing speculation that the guerrillas are being gradually abandoned by Greece's pro-Soviet northern neighbors.

At the time Vafiades's so-called Government was formed it generally was expected in Athens and elsewhere that Yugoslavia, Bulgaria and Albania and possibly other states of Eastern Europe would grant recognition to the rebel regime. This has not happened.

May Leave Greece

Recently there have been reports of a dwindling in the amount of supplies reaching the rebels from across the northern borders.

The broadcast was viewed by some observers as an indication the guerrillas may be attempting to make the best deal possible. If satisfactory terms are not received the rebels may be pulled into Yugoslavia, Albania and Bulgaria, creating a temporary truce in Greece, these sources predicted.

Armenians In U.S. 'Eager' To Go Home

Moscow, June 1 (AP)—Tass quoted an Armenian leader in Moscow today as saying that 1,200 Armenians living in the United States have expressed an "eager desire" to emigrate to Soviet Armenia.

In an interview published in Izvestia, Patrick Selyan was quoted as saying that American Armenians wishing to return to their homeland are "encountering bitter resistance in reactionary circles in the United States."

Tass identified Selyan as "one of the leaders of the Armenian Progressive League of America" and said he is en route to Soviet Armenia to take up permanent residence.

JAPAN OBTAINS COTTON

Pakistan Agrees to Sell 15,000 Bales to Board of Trade

JUN 1948

30.24- 18197

KARACHI, June 1 (AP)—The Pakistan Government has agreed to sell 15,000 bales of cotton to the Japanese Board of Trade, W. R. Eaton, leader of a Japanese trade mission, disclosed here today.

Japan, Mr. Eaton said, was prepared to buy 300,000 bales of cotton from Pakistan, and in return could sell cotton textile and yarn silk and machinery, but Japan's worry was a shortage of raw material.

Speaking at a tea party given by Karachi's Moslem Cotton Merchants Association, Mr. Eaton said the Japanese Board of Trade would buy cotton from any and every merchant who could give them goods.

The association's secretary said more than 60,000 bales of cotton were stored with the association and that more could be obtained, provided Pakistan's government permitted the export of cotton to Japan.

Pakistan Agent Shot to Death

KARACHI, Pakistan, June 1 (AP).—P. T. Duncan, Pakistan's political agent in South Waziristan, was shot and killed yesterday, it was announced by the Foreign Ministry today. No details were given.

Although a Red offensive in Shantung could isolate Tsingtao, most persons agreed there was little likelihood of an assault on that city so long as the United States Navy remained there.

At least 50 foreigners, including Americans and Canadians, were reported trapped in Tsinan. All members of the staff of the mission-supported Cheloo University recently returned to Tsinan.

In the north, rail and highway communications have been re-established to Jehol province, where a battle which may decide the future of North China is building up.

Supplies Reach Chengteh

The Government reported supply trains were running today on the Peoping-Jehol railway as far as Kupeikou, 70 miles northeast of here. Chinese Communists had battered the railroad in that section.

National forces said a fleet of more than 1,000 trucks also is carrying reinforcements and supplies to Chengteh, where refugees have put an extra drain on food supplies.

SPELLMAN IN SHANGHAI

Shanghai, June 1 (A. P.).—Cardinal Spellman of New York celebrated a Pontifical High Mass in Zikawei Cathedral today before a congregation of devout Chinese and foreigners. He arrived with a party of thirteen church leaders last night from Manila and Amoy, China.

They were met by Archbishop Paul Yupin and a crowd of officials and priests. Stepping from his plane Cardinal Spellman listened, smiling, to a Chinese boys' band playing in his honor. When they had finished, he called for three cheres for the band, and led the cheering personally.

He was invited to Nanking for a three-day visit as the official guest of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, and will leave for the capital on Thursday, going on to Hankow and Peiping on Saturday.

2. Appointment of a liaison committee to contact the United Nations Korean Commission, "inasmuch as this commission was appointed for the purpose of facilitating and expediting establishment of an independent Korean government."

3. That the assembly "avoid precipitant action in adoption of any constitution providing a form of government which may not be suitable to Korean needs and psychology."

The letter also congratulated assemblymen on their election.

Rhee said the assembly has appointed a committee to consider the letter.

Stock of Grenades Found

Communist opposition to the May 10 election of the assembly was marked by sporadic violence. Police, investigating such incidents, announced yesterday they had discovered a stock of 12 000 Japanese hand grenades and had arrested 17 Koreans.

Police Director P. O. Chough said the grenades were found in an ironworks at Tairkyu (Taegu), 150 miles southeast of Seoul. Two such grenades were used in recent attacks against Tairkyu police officials.

S. Korea Seizes Grenade Cache

WM. MOORE

Seoul, June 1 (AP)—A cache of 12,000 Japanese hand grenades, possibly a central supply for saboteurs, has been seized at Taikyu, Korean national police announced today.

Police Director P. O. Chough said the grenades were found in an ironworks in the South Korean city, and evidently had been left there by Japanese troops. The Korean ironworks manager and sixteen others were arrested for questioning.

Grenades from the cache were used in two recent attacks on police officials in Taikyu, Chough said. Such attacks were numerous before the May 10 election in American-occupied South Korea.

Number Taken Unknown

"We do not know how many grenades may have been taken from the supply before it was discovered," Chough said. Only part of those left contained explosives.

Opening of the National Assembly yesterday evoked little or no violence. However, Chough said a dozen persons were arrested in Seoul for distributing handbills urging "do away with the National Assembly."

Police are furnishing a bodyguard for each assemblyman, and spectators entering the hall are searched for weapons.

The Assembly is at work on procedural matters.

India, Japan to Trade by Sterling

TOKYO, June 1 (AP)—India joined the sterling bloc today to carry on private and government trade with Japan under the supervision of Allied Headquarters. India's entry was announced by the Allied Headquarters Economic and Scientific section.

Communists Lose In Chile

Santiago, Chile, June 1 (AP)—Three senate commissions jointly approved in prinoiple today a Government proposal to outlaw the Communist party. The vote was 10 to 2, with the two Communist members in opposition.

Senate Defeats Ratio Plan for Admitting D.P.s

40-to-31 Vote Insures Half Will Be From the Baltic; Final Vote Is Due Today

WASHINGTON, June 1 (AP).—The Senate tonight beat down, 40 to 31, an effort to put the admission of displaced persons into the United States on a proportional basis.

The vote keeps in the bill a requirement that not less than 50 per cent of the 200,000 persons to be admitted during the next two fiscal years shall be refugees "whose place of origin or country of nationality has been annexed by a foreign power."

In effect, this means that at least 100,000 displaced persons from the former Baltic states of Lithuania, Latvia and Esthonia, and from eastern Poland, shall be admitted if they meet the eligibility requirements.

The alternative, strongly urged by Senator Homer Ferguson, Republican, of Michigan, and others, would have provided that visas be issued to each "element" or "group" in the same proportion that the element or group bears to the total number of displaced persons. The elements or groups would be those designated by the International Refugee Organization as of Jan. 1, 1948.

China Reds Threatening Drive To Seal Tsingtao

MOOSA

Peiping, June 1 (AP)—A Red offensive threatened today to isolate the American naval forces at Tsingtao on the Shantung Peninsula.

The Communists were reported set to assault Tsinan, the provincial capital, around which a strong ring already has been thrown.

The Nationalist commander, Gen. Wang Yao-wu, called an emergency meeting of his commanders in Tsinan, Most observers agreed, however, that with most of his troops transferred to other fronts, Wang could do little should the Communists decide to sweep the city and push on to the sea.

Reds Estimated At 200,000

Conservative estimates put the Red armies under Gen. Chen Yi in Shantung at perhaps 200,000, far more than Wang could muster.

Red Envoy Meets Chiang

Nanking, June 1 (AP)—Gen. N. V. Roschin, new Soviet Ambassador to China, presented his credentials to President Chiang Kai-shek today. The ceremony, under the Foreign Office's new streamlined diplomatic policy was limited to reading of the credentials and Chiang's formal inquiry as to the health of Premier Stalin.

Korean Assembly Protests U.S. Leader's 'Suggestions'

WM. MOORE

SEOUL, Korea, (Wednesday,) June 2 (AP)—Assembly Chairman Syngman Rhee said today the American military command here has aroused "widespread resentment" by making suggestions to the assemblymen.

A letter containing three suggestions, signed by Lt. Gen. John R. Hodge, was handed to assemblymen yesterday. The general emphasized that "there is no dictation" in his letter. Assemblymen were elected in South Korea's May 10 election to set up a democratic government.

Says Move Aids Foe

Rhee said Hodge's letter "played into the hands of Korean factions" which predicted the new government would be "only a puppet" of the Americans.

"It means," Rhee added, "that have to do political patching to restore confidence in American intentions."

The letter suggested:

1. An assembly resolution stating a proportion of seats would be open to North Koreans (from the Russian-occupied zone) "when their representatives have been duly chosen."

"We do not know how many grenades may have been taken from the supply before it was discovered," said Chough.

There were numerous grenade attacks against police boxes throughout South Korea preceding the May 10 elections, at which national assemblymen were chosen. South Korean communists opposed the election, which was boycotted by Russian-occupied North Korea.

The assembly conducted its first business session in Seoul yesterday without incident—except for the arrest of a dozen persons distributing handbills which urged: "Do away with the national assembly."

Each of the 198 assemblymen has been provided with a bodyguard. Spectators are searched before entering the assembly chambers.

Quirino Signs Bill For 88-Million Loan

Manila, June 1 (AP)—Legislation authorizing the Philippines to seek a foreign loan to finance an $88,000,000 power development for the islands was signed by President Quirino today.

The loan will be sought from the United States Export-Import Bank, the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development, or directly from the United States Government.

Plans for the hydroelectric development were developed by the American Westinghouse Company. They contemplate three huge dams (two on Luzon and one on Mindanao), extensive irrigation works and construction of a huge sodium-nitrate fertilizer plant.

Senator Leverett Saltonstall, Republican, of Massachusetts, who acted as floor leader for the amendment, said that "elements and groups" are technical classifications used by the refugee organization. Balts, he said, would be considered an element, and Lithuanians a group.

The vote climaxed more than four hours of debate on the controversial measure prepared by the Senate Judiciary Committee.

Senator Kenneth S. Wherry, Republican, of Nebraska, acting Republican floor leader, told the Senate after the count that he is going to try to obtain final action on the bill tomorrow. If it is not obtained during the regular six-hour session, he said, he will hold the Senate into the night and that, he warned, "means quite late."

Senate Group Seeks To Defeat D.P. Bill

Washington, June 1 (AP)—A minority combination of Southern and mid-Western senators threatens possible defeat for the bill to admit 200,000 displaced persons from Europe.

Senate leaders called for extra hours of debate today in an effort to speed a decision. The session was called an hour earlier than usual, with a night session under consideration.

But with the calendar already crowded and the adjournment goal less than three weeks away, opponents are in a strategic position to block the bill merely by prolonging debate.

They are among the 33 senators who failed to defeat the move by Senator Ferguson (R., Mich.) and others last week to double the number of persons to be admitted in the next two years.

The Senate Judiciary Committee had voted to allow 50,000 the first year and the same number the second, a total of 100,000. But Ferguson and others raised this to 200,000 for two years by a 40-to-33 vote.

Next up for decision was a proposal by Senator Saltonstall (R., Mass.) to revise the method for selecting those to be admitted. Saltonstall said the committee bill might not be fair to Jews and Roman Catholics.

Admission Of D.P.'s Asked

Seattle, June 1 (AP)—The general assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America recommended today legislation to admit more displaced persons from Europe into the United States.

The highest national body of the Northern church urged Presbyterians, if Congress should admit more war refugees, to help the immigrants become economically and socially adjusted as Christian Americans.

The Rev. Dr. Harry T. Scherer, of Webster Groves, Mo., chairman of the committee on national missions, told the delegate that the church plans to spend $1,000,000 for new church development next year. He said it made 60 grants totaling $649,342 to help build churches during the past year.

To Include Statement

The assembly voted to refer to a special committee a proposed amendment to write "the brief statement of the reformed faith" into the church constitution.

Dr. Fred G. Holmes, retired physician of Phoenix, Ariz., explained to the nearly 900 commissioners that the statement was adopted by the 1902 general assembly as church doctrine but never was inscribed in the consittution. It is printed in the official church hymnal.

U. S. PRODS RUSSIA ON PLAN TO RETURN TRIESTE TO ITALY

WASHINGTON, June 1 — (AP) The United States made another attempt today to get talks going with Russia over a trouble spot. It renewed a demand that Trieste be given back to Italy.

Officials who helped draft the Trieste note—fourth on the subject—told a reporter it would test Russia's newly proclaimed desire to reach an understanding with the west.

Last week the United States suggested a conference on Danube river navigation. A reply has not been received. On May 17, Premier Stalin said that a "peaceful settlement" of differences between the two countries is desirable.

Tries to Speed Up Answer

Today's Trieste note, delivered to the Russian embassy, tried to hurry an overdue answer from Moscow to British-French-American proposal to turn the free territory of Trieste over to Italy.

JUN 1948

The State department said it understood Britain and France have sent similar notes, making it plain they stand firm with the United States view on ths troublesome question.

The free territory is a strategic 305-square mile area on Italy's northeastern border. Under the Italian treaty, itw as to have been placed under United Nations control.

British and American troops now occupy the northern zone and Yugoslavian troops the south. Those forces have been marking time there because Yugoslavia and the west have been unable to agree on a governor to rule the internationalized area.

The U. S., Britain and France have suggested that they and Russia meet with Italy to change the treaty provision regarding Trieste.

Early Solution Urged

In today's note, the State department said thep rotection of the interests of the inhabitants of the area requires "a very early resolution of the problem."

"It is hoped that the Soviet government will communicate its views at an early date concerning the procedure to be followed for the joint consideration of the matter by the powers concerned," the note added.

In its only note on the subject, April 13, Russia said a five-power meeting about Trieste would violate "the elementary principles of democracy" since the original proposal to make Trieste a free territory was agreed to by 21 nations at the Paris peace conference.

American government officials have maintained this dodges the real issue—whether Trieste should be returned because the other proposal is unworkable.

U.S. Prods Russ For View On Trieste

Washington, June 1 (AP)—The United States prodded Russia a third time today for a new reply to the American-British-French proposal to return the Free Territory of Trieste to Italy.

The State Department said in a note delivered to the Russian Embassy that the problem requires a "very early resolution."

State Department Press Officer Michael McDermott said he understood the British and French governments are sending similar notes to the Soviet Government.

Russia never has rejected the principle of returning Trieste to Italy. But it has objected to amending the Italian peace treaty as suggested by the three Western powers. The Soviets claim this would constitute a "private conference" which is unacceptable to Moscow.

The American note sent to Ambassador Alexander S. Panyushkin just as he was preparing to leave for consultations in Moscow on the lend-lease question said:

"It is hoped that the Soviet Government will communicate its views at an early date concerning the procedure to be followed for the joint consideration of the (Trieste) matter by the powers concerned."

Port On Adriatic

The Free Territory of Trieste, an important port on the Adriatic bordering Yugoslavia, is occupied jointly by British and United States troops on the one hand and Yugoslavian forces on the other.

Under the Italian peace treaty, Trieste and the surrounding territory were to become a free territory under United Nations' control. But this plan has been held up by the inability of Yugoslavia and and the Western powers to agree on a suitable governor for the territory.

Senate Unit for Supercarrier

Armed Services Group Backs Navy Plan, Despite Air Force Opposition.

Washington, June 1 (A. P.).—The Senate Armed Services Committee today backed the Navy's plans to build a superaircraft carrier. It also made known that the Air Force doesn't like the idea.

The committee approved a bill which would permit the Navy to stop work on thirteen warships and use the money for a supercarrier of 65,000 tons or more and to cost $124,000,000. At 65,000 tons, the carrier would be half again larger than the Navy's present biggest carriers. Navy men say it may turn out eventually as the biggest ship ever built.

Chairman Gurney (R.-S. D.) told reporters that Defense Secretary Forrestal had advised that Gen. Omar Bradley, Army Chief of Staff, and Admiral Louis Denfeld, Chief of Naval Operations, favor building the massive carrier, but that Gen. Carl Spaatz, retiring Air Force chief, is opposed.

Gurney did not say just what was the basis for Spaatz's opposition. However, a carrier such as is proposed could launch big, multiple-engine planes for long-range bombing missions. In the past, the Air Force has taken the view that long-range strategic bombing should be the Air Force's job.

Gurney made public a letter from Spaatz in which the Air Force general took issue with some statements made by Denfeld before the House Armed Services Committee recently. Denfeld said then that the joint chiefs of staff had approved in his leter, "I wish had approved plans for the giant carrier.

"Specifically," Spaatz said in his letter. "I wish to make this perfectly clear: the Air Force action did not include approval of new larger type aircraft carriers. I am sorry that Admiral Denfeld has interpreted the action taken in a different sense."

Red Bill Foes May Stage A Demonstration

Washington, June 1 (AP)—Opponents of the Mundt-Nixon anti-Communist bill threatened today to lead a protest demonstration at the Capitol tomorrow.

Len Goldsmith, of New York, executive secretary of the Committee for Democratic Rights, said "thousands of people" will be on hand to demand a hearing before the Senate Judiciary Committee.

There were angry shouts from the audience when the committee closed public hearings yesterday on the House-passed bill to force registration of Communists. A group of about 30 men and women were waiting to testify.

"We're tired of being shoved around," Goldsmith shouted. "We demand the right to be heard."

But Senator Wiley (R., Wis.), committee chairman, had already left the room. Acting Chairman Ferguson (R., Mich.) said he had no authority to continue the hearings.

Wiley's committee will meet Thursday, it was learned, to decide what to do about two witnesses who refused to say whether they are Communists.

One committee member said: "There is no question in my mind that something has to be done to control Communists."

"The question," he added, "is whether the remedy is worse than the disease."

BILL TO AID LATINS PASSED

Senate Acts on Increased Lending Involving $500,000,000

WASHINGTON, June 1 (AP)—The Senate passed today a bill designed to help Latin-American countries in their economic development.

The measure increases the lending authority of the Export-Import Bank by $500,000,000. It now goes to the House, where no opposition is expected. Latin-American countries have applied for loans totaling more than $400,000,000.

A report from the Senate Banking and Currency Committee says: "Loans will be made, as at present, to assist in financing well planned development projects which are economically justified and which will directly or indirectly create dollar exchange in the borrowing countries."

The Export-Import Bank's lending authority would be increased from $3,500,000,000 to $4,000,000,000 by the bill.

Snyder Is Opposed To Debt Moratorium

Washington, June 1 (AP)—European countries must continue to pay their debts to the United States even though they are receiving aid in the European Recovery Program, Secretary of the Treasury John W. Snyder said today.

Snyder told the Senate Appropriations Committee it "would not be wise" to declare a moratorium on debt.

Such a move, he said, "would impair the credit standing of these countries and so make it more difficult for them to secure finance from private sources now or in the future."

HOUSE GROUP OK'S WIDER SCOPE FOR SOCIAL SECURITY

WASHINGTON, June 1—(AP) Old age insurance for 3,500,000 more workers was approved unanimously today by the House Ways and Means Committee.

The legislation falls far short of President Truman's request to Congress last week that 20,000,000 persons be added to the 30,000,000 now participating and that benefits be increased at least 50 percent.

The new bill would make no general increase in benefits and requires no increase in payroll taxes, now one percent on employer and worker alike, Mr. Truman asked for a tax hike next year.

New Definition of "Employe"

A new definition of an "employe," previously approved by the House in separate legislation, was written into the bill. Its effect is to exclude from the insurance program certain outside salesmen usually working on commission and over whom an employer exercises little if any control.

Mr. Truman complained that Congress has taken steps to remove persons from the program rather than expand the coverage.

Rep. Dingell (D-Mich) said the Republicans put the provision in the general social security revision bill "because they know the president will veto it if they send it to him in a separate bill."

The new bill would permit employes of state and local government bodies to join in the old age insurance, if such governments approve. Employes of certain nonprofit organizations now outside the program would be allowed to participate on approval of such organizations.

These groups account for the greater portion of the 3,500,000 that would be added, if the House and Senate pass the bill.

New Groups Designated

Rep. Reed (R-NY) listed the following as employes among other small groups who could participate:

Certain employes of TVA; domestic employes of college fraternal organizations and college clubs; employes in agricultural and horticultural organization; employes of American owned international air carriers; workers for farm loan and farm credit institutions; farm employes in processing and handling of fruits and vegetables; and civilian employes in military post exchanges.

The bill would permit elderly persons to earn up to $40 a month without disqualifying themselves for old age insurance payments. This was one specific recommendation by the President that the committee followed. The limit now is $15.

Reed, chairman of the subcommittee which drafted the bill, told reporters: "we have gone as far as time will permit. This does not mean we will not do more when we have time. We are trying to protect the soundness of the program as we go along."

Rep. Doughton of North Carolina, senior ways and means Democrat, agreed that the bill is about all that can be done with Congress nearing adjournment. Dingell said that while the bill "does not go far enough" he will support it.

Borgia Testifies He Was Ordered To Write Cheap Comedy for 'Voice'

WASHINGTON, June 1 — (AP) A writer of the radio stories about America that made Congress hopping mad said today that National Broadcasting Company officials compelled him to put "cheap comedy" into them.

The writer, Rene Borgia, 52-year-old Venezuelan, told senate investigators that he wanted to turn out "beautiful" scripts but officials of NBC, which employed him, made him write the way they wanted under threat of discharge. His superiors, he observed, lacked culture.

Borgia testified at an investigation of "Know North America" broadcasts which NBC beamed in Spanish last winter to Latin America under contract with the State department. He wrote many of the scripts for the series.

He has been in this country off and on since 1916, Borgia said, but hasn't asked for citizenship. He has been writer, translator and adapter of books and radio programs.

"Amazement" was expressed to reporters later by two senators, Smith (R.-N. J.) and Ferguson (R.-Mich.), because Borgia was entrusted with the series. Smith said he couldn't understand how anyone could have thought that a man of Borgia's background could have reflected what America is.

Smith, presiding, said the object of the hearings is to strengthen the Voice of America against mistakes or misuse. He made this observation as testimony began before subcommittees of the foreign relations and expenditures committees.

For the State department, George V. Allen, assistant secretary of state, said the department had "overall responsibility" for the Know North America series. But, he said, it doesn't have funds or people for close supervision.

Allen requested Congress to clarify the department's responsibility for overseas broadcasts. He said the service could expand if a requested $27,000,000 for the year beginning July 1 is approved.

Investigations quickly were ordered last week when senators heard portions of the Know North America series read. They contained such expressions as "New England was founded by hypocrisy and Texas by sin."

Most of his source material was drawn from WPA guide books and a book about the United States by John Gunther, Borgia said. He wrote the series from one broadcast last Nov. 24 through one which went out Feb. 16, he added.

Borgia was critical of his NBC superiors. His immediate supervisor, Alberto Gandero, he characterized as "just another announcer or something—not very intellectual."

He observed, however, that the broadcasts "were not offensive" in Latin America.

TAFT AND CLAYTON CLASH AT HEARING ON TRADE SETUP

WASHINGTON, June 1 (AP)—Senator Taft (R-Ohio) tangled today with Will Clayton, the former undersecretary of state, over the reciprocal trade law.

Taft said congress has a "constitutional duty" to spell out the standards for making tariffs.

Clayton said it is impossible to tell in advance whether any tariff change will cause damage to domestic commerce. For that reason, he argued, congress shouldn't try to write such standards into the law.

Hearings Open

Clayton appeared as a witness before the Senate Finance Committee of which Taft is a member. The committee opened hearings this morning on a house-approved bill extending the reciprocal trade law one year, with an amendment which would give congress a veto over tariff cuts which go deeper than recommended by the United States tariff commission.

Clayton wants the present law extended for three years without change. That is what President Truman has recommended, too. Secretary of State Marshall has said he would rather do without the reciprocal trade law than try to make it work as amended by the house.

The law actually will expire a week from next Saturday unless congress acts.

It has been in force since 1934. Under it, the president, working through the state department, can negotiate tariff reductions with other countries on a tit-for-tat basis. An agreement might be worked out with nation "A" to cut our import duty on her carpets if she agrees to reduce her tariffs on U. S. plows. All this can be done without congress having to pass on the transaction—just so the reductions don't exceed specified percentage limits.

Taft, Clayton Clash

Clayton, who now is a special adviser to Secretary Marshall, said that tariffs should not be fixed solely on the basis of protection to American industry.

Taft replied that congress would be setting up only "a very mild standard" if it forbade tariff reductions that would do serious injury to domestic industry.

"Surely congress has a constitutional duty to write a standard," he said.

When Clayton said he didn't know what it could be, Taft contended that Clayton wanted for the administration "the power to say that 'although this will destroy American industry, we want that power.' "

"That is your position," Taft said.

"With all due respect to you, Senator, I know my position better than you do, and that is not my position," Clayton replied.

The tall, white-haired Texan told Taft that it may be necessary to take "some calculated risks" but that the influence of tariff changes on commerce cannot be known until they have been in effect some time.

Clayton added that the United States' economic leadership is at stake; that commercial policy cannot be separated from our lending program, recovery assistance, "or from any part of our foreign economic policy."

Draft Bill Is Placed On Congress 'Must' List

JUN 1948

Taft Announces Decision After Conference of G.O.P. Leaders.

WASHINGTON, June 1—(AP) A peacetime draft went on Congress' "must" list today.

Chairman Taft of the Senate Republican Policy Committee announced the decision after a conference of GOP leaders in the senate and house. That means passage by June 19 if the party leaders have their way, for they also determined to stick by their plan to adjourn on that date.

The precise form of the draft measure, however, is still to be worked out.

Substantially similar bills are now awaiting action at both ends of the capitol.

Both provide for conscripting men from age 19 through 25, for two-year hitches. Both would start conscription immediately upon becoming law. The main difference is that registration under the senate bill would be for men 18 through 25 and under the house version the range would be 18-30.

Today, however, shortly before the congressional leaders made their "must" announcement, the House Armed Services Committee decided it wants to put the responsibility for an actual start on conscription up to President Truman. On May 7 the committee approved the pending draft bill 28 to 5. Today it decided on an amendment which would put off the start of draft calls until 75 days after the effective date of the law, and start the calls then only if the President certified that the services cannot get the men they need through enlistment.

Chairman Andrews (R-NY), author of the measure awaiting action, will offer the committee amendment when—and if—the House takes the bill up. Rep. Vinson (D-Ga), ranking Democrat on the committee, sponsored the proposed change.

It was generally assumed that the Republican leaders' decision today means the house will get a chance at the bill, but the real decision has not been made. The house's order of business is fixed by the rules committee, which has been a road block in the path of draft legislation. That group has scheduled hearings tomorrow to listen to opponents of the draft. After that it will decide about putting the bill before the house.

Senate Action to Come First

The senate is expected to take up the draft question this week.

"The house feels that if we pass the selective service legislation, it can pass it," Taft told reporters today.

Speaker Martin (R-Mass), another of the leaders in the conference, said he thinks the house will pass the bill.

The "must" classification was put on the draft measure shortly after:

1. The Senate Armed Services Committee approved a navy project to build an aircraft carrier big enough for planes that could carry atomic bombs, and disclosed that the air force objects.

2. The House Armed Services Committee approved a measure which would require both the army and the navy to cut their rosters of full generals and admirals down to five each by Jan. 1, 1950. Each now has eight. The bill also would require five-star Admirals Ernest J. King and Chester W. Nimitz to retire by July 1, though they would still retain full rank and pay for life.

3. The senate passed unanimously and sent to the house a bill to put 254 war plants into a reserve pool.

The reserve plants, which originally cost the government more than $3,000,000,000 would be kept in condition to turn out war material. If they could not be sold or leased under such provisions, the federal works agency would take them over and keep them up. At present the War Assets Administration has 133 of them, 53 are under lease, 37 are still in government production, and 31 have been sold under the security provisions which would permit the government to take them back quickly if needed.

The Senate Armed Services Committee action on the huge aircraft carrier came in approval of a bill which would permit stoppage of work on 13 other ships and diversion of money to the super-carrier.

The great ship is planned at at least 65,000 tons, half again as big as any carrier now afloat. Its cost is estimated at at least $124 000,000.

Naval officers said the ship might evolve finally into the biggest vesel ever built.

Senators Not Apt To Press Call To M'Arthur

Washington, June 1 (AP)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur's not-now-please response to a home-coming invitation goes before the Senate Appropriations Committee today with little indication that the matter will be pressed.

Chairman Bridges (R., N.H.), to whom the Far Eastern commander addressed his reply to the committee invitation last week, said he expected no outright demand for the General's return. He added:

"If anything should happen while he was away, I certainly wouldn't want the responsibility of having him back here."

The committee had asked MacArthur to testify on conditions in Japan and other Far East areas.

Offers To Return Later

The General, however, said any such journey in advance of the Republican National Convention opening June 21 at Philadelphia would be misunderstood as "politically inspired." He offered to return later if the committee still wants to question him then.

Gen. Jonathan M. Wainwright, leader of a MacArthur-for-President movement, wired Bridges last night suggesting that the committee reword its motion to change it from a "mere invitation" to a "formal committee request."

Wainwright said he thinks MacArthur would come home at once if that were done.

Europe War Waif Deported Without 'Any Sob Stuff'

Mobile, Ala., June 1 (AP)—A homeless European war waif was being returned to Italy today after living the life of an American boy for more than a month.

Immigration officers didn't announce until today that Marco Botta, 15, had been placed aboard the freighter Alexander Woollcott, which sailed yesterday.

"We Didn't Want Any"

"We didn't want any sob stuff," one said.

Botta arrived here as a stowaway April 20. He said he had a sister in Texas. A young guard service operator took him into his home until the Immigration Service decided whether or not he could stay.

When Marco learned he was to be deported, he took off the new clothes which his friend, William J. Awalt, had bought and packed them in a small bag.

Before he went on board the ship he put on the once-white sailor suit he was wearing when he came to Mobile.

Sister Not Heard From

He said good-by and left sobbing.

Immigration officials said they had not been contacted by the sister Marco claimed he had in Texas. And they said Catholic organizations had not been able to locate relatives at the addresses Marco gave in Italy. He said he had lived in Bari.

DOUBTS POWER OF U.N.

Memphis, June 1 (A. P.).—The United Nations is not capable of insuring world peace, Senator J. W. Fulbright of Arkansas said in the course of an address prepared for delivery at the commencement exercises at Southwestern College here today.

"The logical ultimate objective . . . for the maintenance of peace is the establishment of a worldwide organization with the power to make and enforce law," but the U. N. "is not such an organization," he said.

"Nevertheless," Fulbright continued, "the United Nations is a step toward the ultimat objective of using reason and persuasion . . . instead of force for the solution of differences among peoples."

He knew of few responsible men in the Government who believe that a worldwide organization with law enforcement power is possible within the foreseeable future, he added.

Red Educational Leader Arrested by FBI in N.Y.

Jacob Stachel, Communist Party Director, Faces Deportation.

NEW YORK, June 1—(AP) Jacob Abraham (Jack) Stachel, Communist Party educational director, was arrested today to face deportation proceedings and later freed on $3,500 bond.

Stachel is accused of entering the United States illegally in 1931 and of joining a subversive organization after his entry.

He was held at Ellis Island most of the day by immigration and naturalization service officials, but released on bond late in the afternoon, pending a hearing on his case.

The $3,500 bond was posted by the American Committee for Protection of the Foreign Born, which protested his arrest to Attorney General Tom C. Clark.

Declines to Comment

Stachel, after his release, declined to comment on the proceedings. He told newsmen he was going to his home at 203 West 94th Street. He had been arrested in front of his home by FBI and immigration agents.

Stachel, 49, is the latest of a dozen top figures in the Communist Party to be arrested for deportation.

The Justice department said he is a member of the Communist Party's national committee and of the communist national board as well as education director.

Stachel, a native of Horosimoff, Galicia, now a part of the Soviet Union, is married and has one child.

The warrant said he last entered the United States at an unknown port in November 1931, when he came in without an immigration visa.

Communist party national headquarters had no immediate comment and referred inquiries to the Committee for Protection of the Foreign Born, which a communist spokesman said was "handling the case."

Abner Green, executive secretary of the committee, said in his telegram to Clark that "Mr. Stachel's arrest is an obvious attempt to promote political persecution and to terrorize the American people. We condemn your attempt to carry off deportation proceedings in violation of the law."

30 Film Writers Sue To Block Red Ban

New York, June 1 (AP)—Thirty writers, who said they were not Communists, today filed suit to prevent motion-picture producers from barring Communist screen authors from the film industry.

The suit in Federal Court seeks to enjoin an alleged conspiracy by producers and producers' groups in violation of Federal anti-trust laws.

The action was brought by the Screen Writers Guild, Inc., and members of the Authors League of America, Inc., against the Motion Picture Association of America, Inc., the Society of Independent Motion Picture Producers and a group of producers.

Griswold Optimistic On Greek Situation

New York, June 1 (AP)—Dwight Griswold, chief of the American Mission for Aid to Greece, says he is "very optimistic about the Greek situation."

Leaving for Athens by plane last night after conferring for two weeks with United States' Government officials, Griswold said there is no change in American policy toward Greece as a result of the visit.

B19 (Q) --17-- NIGHT LEAD GERMAN (400)

BY ALEX H. SINGLETON

LONDON, JUNE 1-(AP)-A SIX-NATION CONFERENCE HAMMERED OUT TONIGHT A REPORT ON ITS PLANS FOR SPURRING WESTERN GERMANY'S ECONOMIC RECOVERY AND GIVING ITS PEOPLE A GOVERNMENT OF THEIR OWN BY EARLY NEXT YEAR.

THE REPORT BY DELEGATES OF THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN, FRANCE, THE NETHERLANDS, BELGIUM AND LUXEMBOURG, MAY BE ISSUED TOMORROW. IT PROBABLY WILL BE A TERSE COMMUNIQUE SUMMING UP MAJOR ACCOMPLISHMENTS IN NEARLY SIX WEEKS OF ALMOST DAILY SESSIONS. A MORE DETAILED REVIEW OF THE CONFERENCE'S RECOMMENDATIONS MUST GO TO THE SIX CAPITALS FOR APPROVAL BEFORE BEING ISSUED LATER.

THE CONFERENCE IS REPORTED TO HAVE BROKEN THE AMERICAN-FRENCH DEADLOCK OVERHOW TO PICK GERMAN DELEGATES WHO WILL BE CALLED TOGETHER SEPT.1 AS A CONSTITUENT ASSEMBLY TO DRAFT A NEW WESTERN GERMAN CON-STITUTION. IN A COMPROMISE, IT IS REPORTED, THE CONFERENCE DECIDED TO LET EACH GERMAN STATE DECIDE FOR ITSELF HOW TO CHOOSE THE DELEGATES. THE AMERICANS WANTED THE DELEGATES ELECTED, THE FRENCH WANTED THEM APPOINTED.

THE CHIEF ECONOMIC ACCOMPLISHMENT APPEARED TO CENTER AROUND PLANS FOR SETTING UP AN INTERNATIONAL CONTROL BOARD, CONSISTING OF REPRESENTATIVES OF GERMANY AND THE SIX COUNTRIES PARTICIPATING IN THE CONFERENCE, WITH AUTHORITY OVER ALLOCATION OF RUHR COAL, COKE AND IRON ORE PRODUCTION.

UNDER PRESENT PLANS THE BOARD WOULD START FUNCTIONING SOON AFTER THE SIX COUNTRIES HAVE APPROVED THE CONFERENCE RECOMMENDATIONS. THE BOARD'S EARLY OPERATION WAS IN PART A CONCESSION TO THE FRENCH WHO WANTED COMPLETE INTERNATIONALIZATION OF THE RUHR.

THE FRENCH WON, TOO, A STIPULATION THAT THE BOARD'S ALLOCATION OF KEY RAW MATERIAL WILL NOT CUT INTO THE REQUIREMENTS OF FRENCH STEEL FACTORIES. THIS DEMAND STEMMED FROM FRENCH FEARS THAT AMERICAN PLANS FOR TOOLING UP GERMANY'S INDUSTRIAL MACHINE AS PART OF GENERAL EUROPEAN RECOVERY WOULD MAKE GERMANY DOMINANT IN EUROPE'S ECONOMY AGAIN.

DIPLOMATIC OFFICIALS REPORTED THERE WILL BE CONTINUED INTERNATIONAL INSPECTION OF GERMANY'S HEAVY INDUSTRY AND RESTRICTIONS AGAINST GERMAN ARMS PRODUCTION.

THE FRENCH HAVE EXPRESSED CONCERN OVER THE POSSIBILITY GERMANY'S ECONOMIC REBIRTH WOULD BE ACCOMPANIED BY A RESURGE OF THREATENING MILITARY POWER. IT IS LIKELY THE FRENCH WILL PRESS AGAIN FOR FORMAL AMERICAN GUARANTEES OF U.S. MILITARY SUPPORT FOR THE WESTERN EUROPEAN MILITARY ALLIANCE. THIS FRENCH DEMAND HAS BEEN BASED ON THE ARGUMENT THAT A WESTERN POWER PLAN ON GERMANY MIGHT PRODUCE A SHARP RUSSIAN REACTION. THE AMERICANS HAVE REPLIED, HOWEVER, THAT THEY WERE UNABLE TO MAKE ANY COMMITMENTS NOW.

A SPECIAL CONFERENCE DRAFTING COMMITTEE WAS IN SESSION TODAY FROM EARLY MORNING UNTIL DUSK. SAMUEL REBER, KEY AMERICAN DELEGATE, WILL LEAVE FOR HOME TOMORROW ON THE QUEEN MARY.

PRAGUE, JUNE 1-(AP)-THE CZECHOSLOVAK GOVERNMENT, WHICH GOT ITSELF REELECTED BY AN 89.2 PERCENT MAJORITY SUNDAY, UNANIMOUSLY HAILED THE VOTE TODAY AS POPULAR APPROVAL OF ITS FEBRUARY MANEUVERS AND ACTIONS SINCE THEN.
CABINET MINISTERS ISSUED A SERIES OF STATEMENTS INSISTING THAT THE PEOPLE NOW HAVE SPOKEN IN FAVOR OF THE FEBRUARY REVOLT IN WHICH THE COMMUNISTS TOOK CONTROL OF THE GOVERNMENT. THIS WAS A DEVELOPMENT WHICH EVEN ORDINARY OBSERVERS PREDICTED WEEKS BEFORE THE ELECTION, WHEN THE HANDPICKED SINGLE GOVERNMENT TICKET WAS ANNOUNCED.
NEARLY 11 PER CENT OF THE VOTERS WERE RECORDED AS CASTING BLANK (OPPOSITION) BALLOTS DESPITE A LACK OF SECRECY SURROUNDING THE ACTIONS OF VOTERS. THEY CAST THEIR BALLOTS AND THREW AWAY THE TELL-TALE DISCARD IN WATCHED WASTE BASKETS.
THE NUMBER OF MUTILATED BALLOTS WAS NOT ANNOUNCED.
IN AT LEAST ONE ELECTION PLACE THE COMMISSION WAS INSTRUCTED TO COUNT ALL EMPTY ENVELOPES AND ENVELOPES CONTAINING PHOTOGRAPHS OF PRESIDENT EDUARD BENES AS VOTES CAST IN FAVOR OF THE GOVERNMENT.
THIS WAS A DAY OF SOBER SECOND THOUGHT FOR THOSE WHO VOTED THE WHITE PROTEST BALLOTS WITH THE KNOWLEDGE THEIR IDENTITIES MIGHT BE KNOWN OR CHECKED.
BUT AFTER ALL THE CAMPAIGN THREATS AGAINST POTENTIAL WHITE BALLOT VOTERS AS TRAITORS, THE PRESS TODAY GAVE THEM ONLY FLEETING ATTENTION.

JUN 1948

SOME CZECH POLITICAL OBSERVERS SPECULATED WHETHER PRESIDENT BENES WILL GO ALONG WITH PREMIER KLEMENT GOTTWALD'S GOVERNMENT NOW, OR RESIGN.
TWO REASONS HAVE BEEN SUGGESTED FOR SUPPOSING THE 64-YEAR-OLD PRESIDENT MAY QUIT. HE IS REPRESENTED AS HAVING BEEN OPPOSED TO THE SINGLE TICKET ELECTION, AND IS KNOWN TO BE AGAINST SIGNING THE NEW CZECH CONSTITUTION ADOPTED BY THE COMMUNIST-LED PARLIAMENT MAY 9. HIS SIGNATURE IS REQUIRED.
MEN WHO HAVE BEEN CLOSE TO BENES GENERALLY BELIEVE A STORY CIRCULATED LAST WEEK IN LONDON: THAT HE WILL RESIGN AND THAT "GRAVE ILL HEALTH" WILL BE GIVEN AS THE REASON. HE HAS BEEN SUFFERING FROM HARDENING OF THE ARTERIES SINCE LAST SUMMER.
THE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR SAID THE TOTAL VOTE SUNDAY WAS 7,204,256 OUT OF A REGISTRATION OF 8,005,887. THE COMMUNIST-LED NATIONAL FRONT GOT 6,429,145, THE MINISTRY SAID. A TOTAL 806,041 VOTERS DID NOT CAST BALLOTS OR HAD THEIR BALLOTS DECLARED INVALID.
THE ELECTION REPORT SHOWED THAT BLANK PROTEST BALLOTS RAN AS HIGH AS 39 PER CENT IN SOME LOCALITIES. OTHER AREAS VOTED AS HIGH AS 96 TO 100 PER CENT FOR THE NATIONAL FRONT TICKET, ACCORDING TO THE REPORT.

BALLOTS WERE DELIVERED TO HOMES OF THE VOTERS BEFORE THE ELECTION. EACH VOTER WAS GIVEN A SINGLE TICKET CLOSELY PRINTED ON BOTH SIDES, AND A WHITE BALLOT WHICH WAS BLANK EXCEPT FOR A HUGE CROSS MARK ON ITS BACK.

EACH VOTER WAS CHALLENGED AT THE POLLS. HIS VOTER'S TICKET WAS CHECKED AGAINST THE REGISTRATION BOOK. HE ALSO WAS CHECKED TO DETERMINE IF HE HAD BOTH BALLOTS. IF HE LACKED EITHER, THE VOTER WAS GIVEN THE MISSING BALLOT. THE ELECTION JUDGE HANDED THE VOTER ONE ENVELOPE IN WHICH TO PLACE HIS VOTE. THE REJECTED BALLOT HAD TO BE DISCARDED IN AN OPEN BASKET IN FULL VIEW OF THE JUDGES.

TEL AVIV,ISRAEL, JUNE 1-(AP)-THE LAST 24 HOURS BEFORE THE SECURITY COUNCIL'S DEADLINE FOR A TRUCE IN THE HOLY LAND FOUND THE ARMY OF ISRAEL AT WHAT APPEARED TO BE THE LOW EBB OF ITS FIGHTING FORTUNES THUS FAR AGAINST THE FORCES OF FIVE ARAB STATES.

THAT WAS NOT REGARDED HERE AS ANY INDICATION, HOWEVER, THAT THE JEWS WERE WILLING TO MAKE ANY BUT THEIR OWN TERMS.

FROM THE ORDINARY SEMI-MOBILIZED CIVILIAN IN THIS NEW STATE, TO HIGH COMMANDERS OF THE ARMY, THERE IS NO LACK OF CONFIDENCE IN THE OUTCOME OF THIS BATTLE TO TEST THE STRENGTH OF THE JEWS.

THAT MIGHT BE ASCRIBED PARTLY TO THE FACT THAT THROUGH A STEADILY TIGHTENING SECURITY CENSORSHIP THE PUBLIC IS GETTING ONLY PART OF THE STORY. BUT MOSTLY IT STEMS FROM THE BELIEF THAT THE PRESDENT STATE OF THE BATTLE IS DUE TO THE JEWS' INITIAL DISADVANTAGES OF EQUIPMENT AND POSITION AND THAT IT CAN AND WILL BE REVERSED BY DECISIVE VICTORIES ON THE NOW TOUCH-AND-GO CENTRAL AND SOUTHERN FRONTS.

BATTLES NOW ARE DEVELOPING WITHIN 15 MILES OF THE HEART OF TEL AVIV FROM THE SOUTH, WHERE THE IMPETUS OF ATTACK HAS SHIFTED FROM JEWS TO ARABS.

TO THE EAST, ALTHOUGH ISRAEL NOW HAS THROWN ITS ARMOR INTO THE BATTLE FOR LATRUN, IT HAS NOT YET ACHIEVED A BREAKTHROUGH THAT WOULD OPEN THE WAY TO JERUSALEM.

IN THE NORTH, THE JEWS STILL HELD THEIR EARLY-WON VICTORY THAT CLEARED THEIR UPPER JORDAN VALLEY AND THE SYRIAN AND LEBANESE FRONTIERS OF ARAB TROOPS.

TURNING SOUTH, THESE FORCES NOW HAVE STRUCK THEIR FIRST BLOWS OUT OF THE GREAT VALLEY OF ESDRAELON, CAPTURING MEGIDDO, BIBLICAL ARMAGEDDON AND VILLAGES IN THE MOUNTAINS OF GILBOA.

CORRESPONDENTS COULD NOT SPECULATE ON THE EVENTUAL FORCE OR INTENT OF THIS THURST. BUT IF IT WAS INTENDED TO HELP SAVE JERUSALEM IT CAME TOO LATE.

FOR THE OLD CITY WITH ITS JEWISH QUARTER THAT WAS A SHRINE TO THE WHOLE HEBREW WORLD WAS LOST. THE NEW CITY WAS UNDER TERRIFIC ATTACK. AND TWO WEEKS OF UNCEASING BATTLE AT LATRUN AND BAB EL WAD HAD NOT ACHIEVED A MAJOR BREAKTHROUGH.

IT DID SEVE TO PIN DOWN THOUSANDS OF ARAB TROOPS WHO OTHERWISE MIGHT HAVE BEEN USED AGAINST JERUSALEM.

CAIRO--FIRST ADD PALESTINE ROUNDUP (A12) X X X REASONS.
CONFLICTING INTERPRETATIONS OF THE NEW CEASE FIRE REQUEST OF THE UNITED NATIONS MADE THE FUTURE OF 24,000 JEWS INTERNED AT CYPRUS UNCERTAIN.
A BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN SAID THE INTERNEES' CASE WAS UNDER CONSIDERATION BECAUSE OF THE U.N. DECISION PROHIBITING BOTH JEWS AND ARABS FROM SENDING FIGHTING PERSONNEL INTO PALESTINE.
THE U.S. DESTROYER O'HARE ARRIVED AT FAMAGUSTA, CYPRUS, YESTERDAY.
MAURICE ROSETTI, JEWISH AGENCY SPOKESMAN, SAID JEWISH AUTHORITIES WILL GO AHEAD WITH SHIPPING ARRANGEMENTS TO TAKE THE JEWS OFF CYPRUS. ROSETTI SAID 500 HAVE BEEN REMOVED ALREADY AND THAT TWO TRANSPORTS ARE LYING IN A CYPRUS PORT. HE SAID THE AGENCY'S INTERPRETATION OF THE ORDER MADE IT CLEAR THAT IMMIGRANTS COULD GO TO PALESTINE.
HE SAID THE ORDER KEPT OUT SOLDIERS, NOT IMMIGRANTS.
THE MAJORITY OF CYPRUS JEWS CAME FROM EUROPEAN DISPLACED PERSON CAMPS. MANY HAVE BEEN HELD FOR MONTHS SINCE FAILING TO SLIP PAST THE BRITISH BLOCKADE BEFORE MAY 15.
A BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN SAID EGYPT AND SYRIA ARE CONSIDERING SETTING UP THEIR OWN PALESTINE BLOCKADE.
PRIME MINISTER CLEMENT ATLEE DENIED IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS THAT BAD FEELING DEVELOPED BETWEEN THE U.S. AND BRITAIN OVER PALESTINE. UNDERSECRETARY OF STATE CHRISTOPHER MAYHEW TOLD THE HOUSE OF COMMONS IT IS IMPOSSIBLE TO CALCULATE THE COST TO THE BRITISH TAXPAYER OF ESTABLISHING A JEWISH NATIONAL HOME IN PALESTINE.
HE SAID BRITAIN ADVANCED ABOUT 10,000,000 (M) POUNDS $40,000,000) TO PALESTINE IN GRANTS-IN-AID DURING THE 26 YEARS OF BRITISH MANDATE. IN ADDITION, HE SAID, THERE HAD BEEN A BIG MILITARY COST INCURRED.
MAYHEW ALSO REPORTED THE BRITISH HAVE PAID THE TRANS-JORDAN GOVERNMENT 3,790,000 POUNDS ($15,160,000) DURING THE PAST TWO YEARS UNDER TERMS OF THE BRITISH-TRANS-JORDAN TREATY OF ALLIANCE. UNDER ITS TERMS, BRITAIN EQUIPS AND TRAINS THE 12,000 TROOPS OF THE TRANS-JORDAN ARAB LEGION.

JERUSALEM, MONDAY MAY 31-(AP)-WAYNE SWEDENBERG, 22, OF SALINA, KANS., A UNITED STATES CONSULATE GUARD, WAS WOUNDED IN THE LEFT ARM AND SHOULDER TODAY BY A SHELL FRAGMENT.
SWEDENBERG WAS ON DUTY AT THE MAIN GATE WHEN THE SHELL HIT A TREE IN THE CONSULATE GARDEN AND EXPLODED.
DOCTORS AT THE JEWISH-OPERATED ENGLISH MISSION HOSPITAL SAID THE "WOUND IS SERIOUS BUT HIS LIFE IS NOT IN DANGER."
SWEDENBERG IS THE FOURTH U.S.CONSULATE CASUALTY HERE. CONSUL GENERAL THOMAS C.WASSON, AND HERBERT M.WALKER, A NAVY MAN, WERE KILLED BY SNIPERS DURING THE JERUSALEM FIGHTING, AND THOMAS GANNON, A CONSULATE GUARD, WAS SHOT IN THE BACK EARLIER ON MAY 14.

AMMAN, TRANS-JORDAN, JUNE 1-(AP)-JEWISH AIRMEN DROPPED BOMBS AND INCENDIARIES TODAY ON AMMAN A FEW HOURS BEFORE THE ARAB LEAGUE POLITICAL COMMITTEE WENT INTO SESSION ON THE UNITED NATIONS PLEA FOR A FOUR-WEEK TRUCE IN THE PALESTINE WAR.
THE ARABS SAID SIX CIVILIANS, INCLUDING TWO CHILDREN, WERE KILLED. THE ATTACK AROUSED BITTERNESS. BUT THREE HOURS AFTER THE LEAGUE'S POLITICAL COMMITTEE CONVENED IN THE PARLIAMENT BUILDING, IT WAS REPORTED UNOFFICIALLY THAT THERE WAS A SHIFT OF OPINION IN FAVOR OF A CLEAN CUT ACCEPTANCE OF A CEASE FIRE.
PREVIOUSLY THE ARABS WERE BELIEVED TO BE FIRM AGAINST ANYTHING BUT A CONDITIONAL TRUCE, WITH ABANDONMENT OF THE STATE OF ISRAEL AS ONE CONDITION.

(THE BRITISH ARMY IN HAIFA ANNOUNCED THAT THE JEWISH WARPLANES ALSO BOMBED AN RAF AIRFIELD NEAR AMMAN. THE BRITISH SAID 12 ARABS IN ALL WERE KILLED AND 30 WERE WOUNDED IN THE RAIDS, AND THAT A NUMBER OF GROUNDED CRAFT AT THE FIELD WERE DAMAGED.)
MUCH INDIGNATION WAS EXPRESSED AT THE ROYAL PALACE AGAINST THE AIR RAID, AND SOME HAD SAID IT BLASTED AWAY THE POSSIBILITY OF A CLEAN-CUT ACCEPTANCE OF THE CEASE FIRE ORDER.

THE MORNING SESSION OF THE LEAGUE'S POLITICAL COMMITTEE WAS DEVOTED ALMOST EXCLUSIVELY TO DISCUSSION OF ARAB CONDITIONS FOR A CEASE FIRE. THE COMMITTEE MET AGAIN IN THE AFTERNOON, FOLLOWING THE ARRIVAL OF BERNADOTTE AND BUNCHE. SOME SOURCES SAID BERNADOTTE MAY HAVE BROUGHT THE JEWISH ANSWER TO THE CEASE FIRE PROPOSAL FROM TEL AVIV.

IN COMMITTEE CIRCLES THE UNOFFICIAL REPORT CIRCULATED THAT EGYPTIAN AND IRAQI AIR FORCES BOMBED THE CENTER OF TEL AVIV AT NOON TODAY, IN AN ANSWER FOR THE JEWISH BOMBING OF AMMAN BEFORE DAWN.

MEANWHILE, THERE WAS NO INDICATION THAT THE FIGHTING IN JERUSALEM MIGHT STOP TONIGHT.

THE AMERICAN VICE COUNSEL AT JERUSALEM, WELLS STABLER, ARRIVED HERE AFTER CROSSING SAFELY FROM JEWISH TO ARAB LINES.

The 80 wounded Arabs are scheduled to be handed over to the Arabs from the French hospital in Jerusalem. Arab civilians, including women, childre and the aged, are being collected at a concentration point first before the evacuation. "That is difficult because of snipers," Ruegger said.

Ruegger is flying to Cairo tomorrow and then returning to Geneva, Switzerland. He said the question of withdrawing the International Red Cross from Palestine had been raised prior to his arrival there May 28 because of disregard for the Red Cross flag. S nce then, Ruegger said, both sides have taken steps to respect the flag as a humanitarian symbol.

Dr. Roland Marti, chief of the Red Cross medical section in Jerusalem, accompanied Ruegger to Amman for a news conference today. Marti gave this account of the situation of the Hadassah Hospital [redacted] [redacted] "Haganah (Jewish Army) positions encircle the Hadassah Hospital on Mount Scopus. The hospital has 27 wounded and 35 medical personnel. The Jews first asked the Trans-Jordan Legion to permit the evacuation of all wounded and the medical staff with Haganah remaining in the positions. This was refused, the Legion demanding the surrender of the fighters as prisoners of war.

JUN 1948

"After a second Jewish request the [redacted] Legion offered to permit everyone to be evacuated to the Jewish lines including the fighters. Arms were to be left behind for the Legion. These terms were not accepted by the Jews.

ARAB OPINION WAS REPORTED UNOFFICIALLY LATE TODAY TO BE SHIFTING TOWARD A CLEAN CUT ACCEPTANCE OF THE UNITED NATIONS PLEA FOR A CEASE FIRE IN PALESTINE.
ISRAEL ACCEPTED THE LATEST PEACE PLAN UNCONDITIONALLY EARLIER, A FEW HOURS AFTER ITS FLIERS HAD BOMBED AMMAN IN TRANS-JORDAN, WHERE THE ARABS DEBATED PEACE OR CONTINUED WAR.
THE PLAN CALLS FOR A FOUR-WEEK ARMISTICE DURING WHICH AN ARMS EMBARGO WILL BE ENFORCED ON THE JEWS AND SEVEN WARRING ARAB STATES ALIKE.
DEADLINE FOR THE ARAB ANSWER IS 6 P.M. E.S.T. IT IS THE SIXTH EFFORT OF THE U.N. TO STOP THE WAR. THE ARABS AT AMMAN DEBATED MORE THAN THREE HOURS.
COUNT FOLKE BERNADOTTE OF SWEDEN, U.N.MEDIATOR, FLEW IN FROM HAIFA AND CONFERRED WITH WARRIOR KING ABDULLAH AND THEN LEFT, POSSIBLY FOR THREATENED TEL AVIV OR CAIRO.

THE IRAQI DEFENSE MINISTRY ASSERTED IRAQI TROOPS "ARE NOW ENCIRCLING TEL AVIV IN THE FORM OF A CIRCULAR ARCH WITH A SEVEN-MILE RADIUS. THE IRAQIS ANNOUNCED THE CAPTURE OF RAS AL AIN, NINE MILES EAST OF TEL AVIV. IRGUN ZVAI LEUMI SAID SUNDAY IT HAD BEEN CHASED OUT. THE "ENCIRCLEMENT" CLAIM APPEARED TO BE RATHER LOOSE AND PREMATURE.
AN ISRAELI COMMUNIQUE SAID THE JEWS CAPTURED BEIT TIMA, 33 MILES SOUTH OF TEL AVIV AND A SCANT THREE MILES FROM A SUPPLY ROAD TO LARGE EGYPTIAN FORCES DEPLOYED AT YIBNA, 15 MILES SOUTH OF THE JEWISH CITY. SOME 4,000 TO 5,000 EGYPTIANS, MANY OF THEM ARMORED TROOPS, WERE REPORTED ON THIS SOUTH FLANK OF TEL AVIV.
THE JEWS SAID THEIR PLANES BOMBED NOT ONLY AMMAN BUT CONCENTRATION POINTS FOR ARAB TROOPS IN PALESTINE. THE ATTACK ON AMMAN WAS THE FIRST JEWISH AIR BLOW AT AN ARAB CAPITAL.
THE BRITISH SAID THE JEWISH WARPLANES ATTACKING AMMAN ALSO BOMBED AN RAF FIELD NEARBY AND THAT 12 PERSONS WERE KILLED AND 30 INJURES.
THE ARABS SAID TWO CHILDREN AND FOUR OTHER CIVILIANS WERE KILLED, BUT THAT PROPERTY DAMAGE WAS SLIGHT. AMMAN IS THE CAPITAL OF TRANS-JORDAN, THE HOME OF WARRIOR KING ABDULLAH, WHO LEADS FIVE OF THE SEVEN ARAB ARMIES ARRAYED AGAINST ISRAEL.
ABOUT TEN 50-POUND BOMBS WERE DROPPED DURING FOUR SINGLE FLIGHTS. NO FIRE WAS STARTED. NO AIR RAID PRECAUTIONS HAD BEEN TAKEN. THE ARABS DEMANDED THAT TEL AVIV BE BOMBED AGAIN IN REPRISAL.
HAGANAH, THE ARMY OF ISRAEL, WAS REPORTED DRIVING ON STRATEGIC JENIN IN NORTH-CENTRAL PALESTINE. JENIN IS THE APEX OF THE NABLUS-JENIN-TULKARM TRIANGLE, A KEY TO ARAB STRENGTH.
THE ARAB HIGHER COMMITTEE IN CAIRO CLAIMED THE CAPTURE OF NATANYA, 18 MILES NORTH OF TEL AVIV AND CUTTING OF THE COASTAL ROAD FROM TEL AVIV TO HAIFA. THE CLAIM WAS UNCONFIRMED FROM ANY OTHER SOURCE.
IF TRUE, IT REPRESENTED A TIGHTENING OF THE LOOSE ENCIRCLEMENT THE ARABS SAY THEY ARE FORGING AROUND TEL AVIV. TO THE SOUTH, THE JEWS SAID 500 ARMORED INFANTRY CARRIERS HAD BEEN ROLLED UP BY THE EGYPTIAN ARMY TO ISDUD, 23 MILES BELOW TEL AVIV AT THE BORDER OF ARAB-JEWISH PALESTINE.
OTHER ARAB FORCES WERE AT LYDDA, 12 MILES SOUTHEAST OF TEL AVIV. THE PLACE WAS BOMBED YESTERDAY BY JEWISH PLANES. THE JEWS SAID IRAQI TROOPS WERE WITHIN NINE MILES OF TEL AVIV AT ANOTHER POINT.
BESIDES THE AIR BLOW AT TRANS-JORDAN'S CAPITAL, THE JEWS CARRIED THEIR POCKET WAR INTO LEBANON AND SYRIA. HAGANAH OFFICERS SAID SEVERAL LEBANESE VILLAGES NEAR THE FRONTIER WERE BOMBED AND THAT GROUND FORCES BLEW UP SEVERAL POLICE POSTS ON THE SYRIAN SIDE OF THE FRONTIER.
THE JEWS ASSERTED THEY KILLED AT LEAST 150 ARABS BY WEDGING INTO LATRUN, 22 MILES SOUTHEAST OF TEL AVIV, ON THE ROAD TO JERUSALEM, WHICH ARAB FORCES SURROUND. THE TRANS-JORDAN LEGION CLAIMED A SHARP VICTORY AT LATRUN, WHERE THE JEWS WERE REPORTED MAULED IN A LARGE BATTLE LAST WEEK.
DEADLINE FOR THE SIXTH UNITED NATIONS EFFORT TO BRING A TRUCE TO PALESTINE ENDS TONIGHT AT 6 P.M. EST. THE U.N. PROPOSED A FOUR-WEEK ARMISTICE AND ARMS EMBARGO. THE JEWISH PROVISIONAL LEGISLATURE WAS CALLED INTO SESSION AT TEL AVIV LAST NIGHT TO HEAR REPORTS ON THE TRUCE COUNT FOLKE BERNADOTTE, U.N. MEDIATOR, LEFT HAIFA FOR AMMAN IN AN EFFORT TO FURTHER PEACE. THE PRIME MINISTER OF EGYPT SAID THE ARAB REPLY TO THE U.N. WILL BE "MODERATE, REASONABLE AND ACCEPTABLE.
THERE STILL WERE VEHEMENT PUBLIC DEMANDS IN THE ARAB STATES FOR BRINGING THE JEWS TO THEIR KNEES IN PALESTINE. THE ARABS ALSO WERE APPREHENSIVE OF WORLD REPERCUSSIONS SHOULD THE JEWS ACCEPT PEACE TERMS AND THE ARABS TURN THEM DOWN. ONE RESULT MIGHT BE THE LIFTING OF THE ARMS EMBARGO TO PALESTINE.
THE ISRAELI ARMY SAID IT WAS BEATING OFF A STRONG ARAB ATTACK ON LAJJUN ALONG THE SOUTHERN RIM OF THE VALLEY OF ESDRAELON (ARMAGEDDON.) THE JEWS TOOK THE VILLAGE SUNDAY. JEWISH ARTILLERY WAS SAID TO HAVE INFLICTED HEAVY CASUALTIES ON EGYPTIAN COLUMNS AT ISDUD BELOW TEL AVIV.
ARAB ARTILLERY KEPT HAMMERING JEWISH POSITIONS IN NEW JERUSALEM, WHERE UP TO 90,000 JEWS WERE BESIEGED. SOME SUPPLIES MUST BE REACHING THE JEWS THERE FOR THE ARAB LEGION SPOKE OF ATTACKING JEWISH ARMORED CONVOYS.

CINCINNATI, JUNE 1-(AP)-THE WESTERN EUROPEAN NATIONS HAVE APPROACHED,
IF NOT EXCEEDED, THEIR PRE-WAR PRODUCTION LEVELS, PRESIDENT JOHN J.MCCLOY OF THE INTERNATIONAL BANK FOR RECONSTRUCTION AND DEVELOPMENT SAID TONIGHT.
MCCLOY, IN A SPEECH BEFORE THE FOREIGN POLICY ASSOCIATION, SAID
THOSE NATIONS HAVE MADE AMAZING STRIDES IN THEIR POSTWAR REHABILITA-TION.
THESE STRIDES HAVE BEEN SO GREAT, HE SAID, THAT THE PRODUCTION LEVELS WESTERN EUROPE CAN REACH WITH THE HELP OF THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM "ARE NOT SO VASTLY ABOVE THEIR PRESENT LEVELS AS WE ARE PRONE TO THINK."
"THEY HAVE DONE THIS IN THE FACE OF SOME VERY SEVERE HANDICAPS," HE DECLARED, "A MUCH DISTRUBED POLITICAL SITUATION, BAD CROPS AND AN EXTREMELY DEEP CUT IN GERMAN PRODUCTIVITY WHICH PRIOR TO THE WAR WAS THE HUB OF EUROPEAN ECONOMY."
HE CONTINUED:
"IF CONFIDENCE IN CURRENCY IS REGAINED; IF RESTRICTIONS ON TRADE
ARE REMOVED; IF BORDERS ARE MADE EASIER FOR THE BUSINESS MAN TO CROSS AND RECROSS; TRADE, WHICH IS THE MULTIPLIER OF PHYSICAL CAPACITY, WILL CONTRIBUTE FACTORS THAT NO FIGURES CAN FAITHFULLY APPRAISE."
MCCLOY SAID THE BANK HAD GRANTED LOANS TO FOUR EUROPEAN COUNTRIES.
FRANCE GOT 100 NEW LOCOMOTIVES, AND EARTH MOVING EQUIPMENT FOR THE WORK
ON THE GENESIAT DAM IN THE RHONE CALLEY. THE NETHERLANDS RECEIVED 50
NEW CARGO SHIPS AND AGRICULTURAL EQUIPMENT WAS MADE AVAILABLE TO DEN-MARK. LUXEMBOURG IS BEING FURNISHED WITH NEW STEEL MILL EQUIPMENT,
HE ADDED.
ABOUT $50,000,000 (M) OF THE $300,000,000 (M) DRAWN DOWN ON THE BANK'S LOANS HAVE BEEN TRACED TO SOUTH AMERICA, MCCLOY SAID.
HE ADDED HIS RECENT TRIP TO SOUTH AMERICA HAD CONFIRMED HIS BELIEF, "THAT HERE IS AN AREA BOTH FOR ITS OWN WELFARE AND THE WELFARE OF THE WORLD SHOULD BE BROUGHT AS RAPIDLY AS PRACTICABLE TO FULLER PRODUCTIVITY."

PHILADELPHIA, JUNE 1-(AP)-A MEMBER OF THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE SAID "AT THE RISK OF INFRINGING ON THE LIBERTY OF A FEW IN DEFENSE OF THE LIBERTIES OF ALL, THE COMMUNIST PARTY SHOULD BE PROMPTLY OUTLAWED."

REP.DONALD L.JACKSON (R-CALIF) TOLD THE CLOSING SESSION OF THE POLISH - AMERICAN CONGRESS YESTERDAY "PRESENT LEGISLATION PROPOSES TO PUT THE SPOTLIGHT ON THE REDS. IT IS NOT ENOUGH."

HE ADDED:

"DRIVE THE COMMUNISTS UNDERGROUND, YES, AND THEN FILL IN THE HOLE."

JACKSON, WHO WITNESSED THE RIOTING THAT INTERRUPTED THE INTER-AMERICAN CONFERENCE AT BOGOTA EARLIER THIS YEAR, SAID THE REDS HAVE "RECEDED FOR THE MOMENT," BUT ADDED THEIR "MARK IS ON THE CAPITAL CITY OF AN AMERICAN REPUBLIC."

THE CALIFORNIAN ASSERTED "AT ONE TIME I WAS OPPOSED TO OUTLAWING THE COMMUNIST PARTY, BUT MY MIND IS NOW ABSOLUTELY CLEAR ON THE ISSUE."

EARLIER, DELEGATES TO THE CONGRESS APPROVED A RESOLUTION ASKING GEN.DWIGHT D.EISENHOWER, PRESIDENT OF COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY, TO TURN DOWN A POLISH GOVERNMENT DONATION OF $5,000.

A TELEGRAM SENT TO EISENHOWER AFTER THE DELEGATES' ACTION SAID THE GIFT WAS BEING OFFERED BY JOSEPH WINIEWICZ, "SO CALLED REPRESENTATIVE OF THE NOW SOVIET-CONTROLLED NATION TO ESTABLISH THE ADAM MICKIEWICZ CHAIR IN POLISH LITERATURE" IN THE SCHOOL'S SLAVIC DEPARTMENT.

IT DESCRIBED THE OFFER AS AN "INFILTRATION OF THE COMMUNISTIC VOICE" AND ASSERTED ACCEPTANCE OF THE GIFT IS "NOT COMPATIBLE WITH THE HIGH PATRIOTIC IDEALS OF THE AMERICAN STUDEN OF POLISH DESCENT."

THE ORDER APPLIES TO CHILDREN OF SOVIET DIPLOMATS, COMMERCIAL REPRESENTATIVES AND OTHER OFFICIALS, THE NEWSPAPER SAID.

ZOT J. CHEPURNYKH, RUSSIAN VICE-CONSUL IN NEW YORK, WAS QUOTED AS SAYING THERE HAVE BEEN DIFFICULTIES IN FINDING EDUCATIONAL FACILITIES IN NEW YORK CITY FOR THE RUSSIAN CHILDREN.

"IT HAS BEEN A NUISANCE AND A HEADACHE TRYING TO EDUCATE THE CHILDREN HERE," HE SAID. "WE USED UP ALL OUR ENERGY AND TIME TRYING TO FIND A SUITABLE BUILDING FOR A SCHOOL."

CHEPURNYKH SAID AN EVICTION SUIT BROUGHT BY OWNERS OF A BUILDING OCCUPIED BY A SOVIET SCHOOL HERE PROBABLY PROMPTED THE PLAN TO RETURN THE CHILDREN TO RUSSIA, THE HERALD TRIBUNE REPORTED.

THE STORY SAID RUSSIAN CHILDREN UNDER SCHOOL AGE OF PARENTS HERE ON OFFICIAL BUSINESS WILL BE ALLOWED TO REMAIN IN THIS COUNTRY UNDER THE PLAN.

NEW YORK, JUNE 1-(AP)-DEBATING THE MUNDT-NIXON BILL ON THE RADIO LAST NIGHT, REP.KARL E.MUNDT (R-S.D.) SAID HIS MEASURE AIMS TO DRIVE THE COMMUNISTS "INTO THE OPEN" WHILE COMMUNIST LEADER WILLIAM Z.FOSTER ARGUED IT SEEKS TO "OUTLAW" HIS PARTY.

DEPARTING FROM HIS PREPARED TEXT, FOSTER SAID HENRY A.WALLACE, THE NEW PARTY (CAPS) PRESIDENTIAL ASPIRANT, COULD BE JAILED UNDER THE BILL BECAUSE COMMUNISTS SUPPORT HIM.

FOSTER, NATIONAL CHAIRMAN OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY, DECLARED: "WE COMMUNISTS REFUSE TO BE GAGGED. WE WILL NOT REGISTER UNDER THE MUNDT BILL OR ANY OTHER COMMUNIST REGISTRATION BILL. WE REFUSE TO HELP SCUTTLE THE BILL OF RIGHTS."

IN REBUTTAL, MUNDT SAID THAT IF FOSTER REFUSED TO REGISTER AFTER THE BILL IS ENACTED, HIS ACTIONS "SOONER OR LATER ARE GOING TO LEAD HIM TO JAIL."

THE DEBATE ON THE BILL, PASSED BY THE HOUSE AND PENDING IN THE SENATE, WAS CARRIED ON THE ABC NETWORK. MUNDT, CO-AUTHOR OF THE MEASURE, SPOKE EXTEMPORANEOUSLY FROM YANKTON, S.D., AND FOSTER FROM NEW YORK. FOSTER HAD CHALLENGED MUNDT TO THE DEBATE.

MUNDT, DENYING HIS BILL "EVEN REMOTELY" AIMS TO OUTLAW COMMUNISTS, SAID ITS PURPOSE IS TO "DRIVE THEM FROM THE DARK INTO THE OPEN".

ONLY PERSONS SEEKING TO ESTABLISH "A TOTALITARIAN GOVERNMENT HERE CONTROLLED FROM ABROAD" WOULD BE SUBJECT TO JAIL UNDER THE BILL, MUNDT SAID.

THE CONGRESSMAN DECLARED THAT IF FOSTER BELIEVES HIS PARTY WOULD BE OUTLAWED, HE "ADMITS THE COMMUNIST PARTY QUALIFIES" AS AN ORGANIZATION SEEKING TO OVERTHROW THE U.S. GOVERNMENT BY FOREIGN DIRECTION.

FOSTER, CONTENDING THE BILL "AIMS TO OUTLAW THE COMMUNIST PARTY," DECLARED THAT "ACTUALLY THE COMMUNISTS ARE ONLY THE SECONDARY

30.24- 18211

OBJECTIVE."
THE BILL'S REAL PURPOSE, FOSTER ARGUED, IS A "DEADLY BLOW TO THE LABOR AND PROGRESSIVE MOVEMENT, AMERICAN DEMOCRACY AND WORLD PEACE."
OUTLAWING THE COMMUNIST PARTY, FOSTER SAID, WOULD "KNIFE ORGANIZED LABOR, UNDERMINE AMERICAN DEMOCRACY, CLEAR THE WAY FOR A POLICE STATE AND SPEED US INTO WAR."
HE SAID PASSAGE OF THE MUNDT-NIXON BILL, "LIKE OUR BARBAROUS TREATMENT OF THE NEGRO PEOPLE, WOULD EXPOSE THE WEAK STATE OF OUR DEMOCRACY AND WOULD RUIN AMERICAN PRESTIGE ABROAD." ALSO, THE COMMUNIST CHIEF DECLARED, IT WOULD BRING "RUIN X X X TO YOUR UNIONS AND LIVING STANDARDS, TO YOUR LIBERTIES AND TO WORLD PEACE."

B25 (C-E-G-S)
JUN 1948
MUNDT, WHO ASSERTED THAT "FOSTER CAN'T REFER YOU TO ANY SIMILAR DEBATE IN RUSSIA," POSED TWO QUESTIONS WHICH THE COMMUNIST LEADER DID NOT ANSWER. THEY WERE:
"NAME ONE OPPOSITION LEADER IN RUSSIA WHO IN THE LAST TEN YEARS HAS X X X CRITICIZED THE GOVERNMENT X X X AND LIVED TO TELL HIS STORY."
"NAME ONE INSTANCE WHEN THE COMMUNIST PARTY IN THE UNITED STATES HAS CRITICIZED THE FOREIGN POLICY AND ACTIONS OF RUSSIA."
ALTHOUGH HE MADE NO REFERENCE TO MUNDT'S TWO CHALLENGES, FOSTER SAID IN REBUTTAL: "I'D LIKE TO KNOW WHAT WE ARE DISCUSSING--THE MUNDT BILL OR THE CONSTITUTION OF SOVIET RUSSIA."
DENYING AN ASSERTION BY MUNDT THAT A "MAJORITY" OF ORGANIZED LABOR SUPPORTS THE BILL, FOSTER SAID LEADERS OF THE CIO, THE BROTHERHOOD OF RAILROAD TRAINMEN AND A "WHOLE HOST OF OTHER TRADE UNION LEADERS HAVE GONE ON RECORD AGAINST" THE MEASURE.
FOSTER SAID "HITLER, LIKE THE SPONSORS OF THIS BILL, ALSO MADE WILD CHARGES AGAINST COMMUNISM, AND FOR THE SAME PURPOSE--TO PLUNGE HIS COUNTRY INTO FASCISM AND WAR."
AMERICA, THE COMMUNIST LEADER SAID, "IS CARRYING ON THE BIGGEST CAMPAIGN OF IMPERIALIST EXPANSION IN THE HISTORY OF THE WORLD," AND ONE OF THE PURPOSES OF THE BILL IS "TO PUSH OUR COUNTRY INTO THE DISASTROUS WAR THAT WALL STREET IS NOW ORGANIZING."
MUNDT AND FOSTER EACH SPOKE TEN MINUTES AND MADE A BRIEF REBUTTAL.

SECOND LEAD DAY UNITED NATIONS
JUN 1948
BY MAX HARRELSON
LAKE SUCCESS, JUNE 1-(AP)-THE JEWS AND ARABS TODAY ACCEPTED THE UNITED NATIONS APPEAL FOR CEASE-FIRE IN PALESTINE.
ISRAEL ACCEPTED THE APPEAL FOR A FOUR-WEEK ARMISTICE IN THE HOLY LAND APPROXIMATELY FOUR HOURS BEFORE THE 6 P.M. (EST) DEADLINE FOR REPLY.
THE ARABS ANNOUNCED THEIR ACCEPTANCE TWO HOURS LATER. IT WAS COMMUNICATED TO THE U.N. BY CHARLES MALIK, DELEGATE OF LEBANON.
THE ISRAEL ANSWER ALSO WAS HANDED FORMALLY TO SECRETARY-GENERAL TRYGVE LIE. A JEWISH SPOKESMAN SAID IT WAS UNCONDITIONAL.

MALIK SAID IN AN ANNOUNCEMENT TO REPORTERS THAT THE ARAB LEAGUE HAD ACCEPTED. HE SAID A DETAILED REPLY WOULD BE SENT TO THE SECURITY COUNCIL LATER. HE REFUSED TO ANSWER QUESTIONS AS TO WHETHER THE ARAB STEP WAS CONDITIONAL.
THE ARAB NOTE SAID:
"THE POLITICAL COMMITTEE OF THE ARAB LEAGUE WHICH MET IN AMMAN ACCEPTED THE SECURITY COUNCIL'S REQUEST FOR A CEASE-FIRE FOR THE INDICATED PERIOD (FOUR WEEKS). THE POLITICAL COMMITTEE WILL COMMUNICATE ITS DETAILED REPLY TO THE SECRETARY-GENERAL AND TO THE PRESIDENT OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL. (FARIS EL KHOURY OF SYRIA IS COUNCIL PRESIDENT FOR THE MONTH OF JUNE).

JUN 1948
"THE ACCEPTANCE BY THE ARAB GOVERNMENTS OF THESE PROPOSALS PROVES ONCE MORE THEIR GENUINE DESIRE TO SEE PEACE RESTORED IN THE HOLY LAND AND A JUST SOLUTION TO THE PALESTINE PROBLEM ARRIVED AT."
FARIS EL KHOURY, THE SYRIAN DELEGATE, SAID HE HAD RECEIVED A BRIEF MESSAGE FROM AMMAN, TRANS-JORDAN, SAYING MERELY THAT THE ARAB LEAGUE'S POLITICAL COMMITTEE HAD ACCEDED TO THE SECURITY COUNCIL'S APPEAL.
EL KHOURY SAID HE DID NOT KNOW WHETHER THE ACCEPTANCE WAS UNCONDITIONAL. HE SAID THE MESSAGE INDICATED DETAILS WOULD BE COMING LATER.

A17UN
THE MESSAGE WAS SENT AT 12:30 P.M. (TRANS-JORDAN TIME) AND RECEIVED IN NEW YORK AT 3 P.M. (EST).
REPORTS FROM AMMAN SAID LEADERS OF THE SEVEN-NATION ARAB LEAGUE CONTINUED IN SESSION AFTER THE MESSAGE WAS DISPATCHED AT NOON.

SECOND LEAD UNITED NATIONS
BY MAX HARRELSON
LAKE SUCCESS, JUNE 1-(AP)-THE STATE OF ISRAEL NOTIFIED THE UNITED NATIONS TODAY IT ACCEPTED THE U.N. APPEAL FOR A FOUR-WEEKS CEASE-FIRE IN PALESTINE.
THE CEASE-FIRE WOULD BE EFFECTIVE AT 6 P.M., EASTERN STANDARD TIME THE DEADLINE SET BY THE SECURITY COUNCIL LAST SATURDAY FOR ACCEPTANCE OR REJECTION BY THE JEWS AND ARABS.
NO REPLY HAD BEEN RECEIVED FROM THE ARABS UP TO MID-AFTERNOON.
WHILE THE CEASE-FIRE WAS ACCEPTED UNCONDITIONALLY, THE ISRAELI COMMUNICATION SAID THE ACCEPTANCE WAS BASED UPON THE FOLLOWING ASSUMPTIONS:
1. THAT THE BAN ON THE IMPORT OF ARMS INTO THE MIDDLE EAST SHOULD ALSO APPLY TO THE DELIVERY OF ARMS FROM STORES OWNED AND CONTROLLED BY FOREIGN POWERS IN THE TERRITORIES INVOLVED.
2. THAT THE ARMED FORCES OF BOTH ARABS AND JEWS WILL MAINTAIN THE POSITIONS HELD WHEN THE CEASE-FIRE BECOMES EFFECTIVE.
3. THAT FOOD SUPPLIES WILL BE INSURED IN JERUSALEM, AS WELL AS

NORMAL CIVILIAN ENTRY AND EXIT.

4. THAT ANY ATTEMPT TO STOP THE NORMAL TRANSPORT OF GOODS ASSIGNED TO ISRAEL AND OTHER STATES CONCERNED WILL BE REGARDED AS AN ACT OF ARMED FORCE.

5. THAT ISRAEL'S FREEDOM TO ADMIT IMMIGRANTS, REGARDLESS OF AGE, WILL NOT BE IMPAIRED BY ACCEPTANCE OF THE COUNCIL RECOMMENDATION THAT PERSONS OF MILITARY AGE SHOULD NOT BE MOBILIZED OR SUBMITTED TO MILITARY TRAINING.

ARAB LEAGUE LEADERS WERE MEETING AT AMMAN, TRANS-JORDAN, TO DECIDE ON THEIR COURSE.

A BRITISH SPOKESMAN SAID BRITAIN HAD MADE A NEW PLEA TO THE ARABS OVER THE WEEK-END TO ACCEPT THE COUNCIL'S APPEAL UNCONDITIONALLY. #

JUN 1948

U.N.

LAKE SUCCESS, JUNE 1-(AP)-UNITED NATIONS DELEGATES HOPEFULLY AWAITED ANSWERS TODAY TO THEIR SIXTH APPEAL TO JEWS AND ARABS FOR A CEASE FIRE IN PALESTINE.

THE SECURITY COUNCIL GAVE THE ARABS AND JEWS UNTIL 6 P.M., E.S.T., TONIGHT TO SAY WHETHER THEY WILL ACCEPT AN ARMISTICE OF FOUR WEEKS, PLUS AN EMBARGO ON SHIPMENTS OF ARMS AND MEN INTO PALESTINE AND THE SEVEN ARAB COUNTRIES.

THE COUNCIL THUS FAR HAS NO DEFINITE PLANS BEYOND THE MEETING ON PALESTINE SCHEDULED FOR TOMORROW AT 1:30 P.M. E.S.T.

BUT THE RESOLUTION APPROVED LAST SATURDAY WARNED THAT IF THE ARABS OR JEWS REJECT THE CEASE FIRE, THE COUNCIL MAY CONSIDER STRONGER STEPS UNDER THE U.N. CHARTER.

WARREN R.AUSTIN, CHIEF UNITED STATES DELEGATE, IS IN WASHINGTON TODAY TALKING WITH STATE OFFICIALS. THE DELEGATION HERE HAD NO WORD ON AMERICAN PLANS FOR THE IMMEDIATE FUTURE.

U.N.--PARODI (350)

BY FRANCIS W. CARPENTER

LAKE SUCCESS, JUNE 1-(AP)-ALEXANDRE PARODI, OF FRANCE, IS A MAN WITH A SINGLE PURPOSE.

HIS PURPOSE IS TO GET THE UNITED NATIONS TO DO SOMETHING TO STOP THE ARAB-JEWISH WAR IN PALESTINE AND SAVE THE HOLY SHRINES OF JERUSALEM.

PARODI WAS PRESIDENT OF THE U.N. SECURITY COUNCIL DURING MAY. IN THAT OFFICE HE KEPT THE COUNCIL RIGIDLY TO A STIFF SCHEDULE OF MEETINGS, ALWAYS BATTLING AGAINST TIME TO STOP THE KILLING AND THE DESTRUCTION OF ANCIENT SHRINES.

A FORMER RESISTANCE LEADER UNDER GENERAL DE GAULLE IN THE DAYS OF WORLD WAR II, PARODI HAS BEEN CHIEF FRENCH DELEGATE TO THE U.N. FOR TWO YEARS. BESIDES THE RUSSIANS, HE IS THE ONLY MAN EVER TO CAST VETOES IN THE COUNCIL, INVOKING ONE IN THE FRANCO SPAIN CASE AND THE SECOND IN THE INDONESIAN CASE.

HE SAYS HE HAS BEEN ACCUSED OF BEING TOO LOGICAL. BUT DURING MAY HE SHOWED ZEAL AND DETERMINATION WHICH WON FOR HIM THE ADMIRATION OF HIS FELLOW DELEGATES.

DURING THE SPECIAL ASSEMBLY ON PALESTINE, PARODI BEGAN POUNDING AT THE DELEGATES TO SAVE JERUSALEM. FINALLY THE ASSEMBLY APPROVED APPOINTMENT OF A NEUTRAL MAYOR FOR JERUSALEM BUT THE SITUATION CHANGED BEFORE THE MAYOR ARRIVED. NOW THE NEUTRAL, HAROLD EVANS, PHILADELPHIA QUAKER, IS IN THE MIDDLE EAST TRYING TO BRING ABOUT A TRUCE.

THE ASSEMBLY ADJOURNED LATE ON FRIDAY MAY 14.

THE DELEGATES NORMALLY EXPECTED SOME REST BUT THEY DID NOT RECKON WITH PARODI. HE CALLED AN EMERGENCY MEETING OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL FOR SATURDAY, MAY 15 TO RESUME DISCUSSION OF PALESTINE.

HE PRESIDED FOR THE REMAINDER OF THE MONTH OVER LONG AND WEARY ROUNDS OF DEBATE, NEVER LOSING HIS TEMPER OR HIS DIPLOMATIC COURTESY. BUT TO OBSERVERS IT WAS EVIDENT HE WAS PURSUING HIS PURPOSE.

THE COUNCIL'S APPEAL ON MAY 22 FOR A CEASE-FIRE WAS NOT HEEDED.

ZIONISTS REVOKE CEASE-FIRE EDICT, RESUME FIGHTING

Israeli Troops Told to Continue Firing Until UN Sets 'Stop-Shooting' Hour.

MAJOR BATTLE RAGES

Arabs Move More Men Into Battle; Egyptians Claim Capture of Key Point.

CAIRO, June 2 — (AP) The Israeli government revoked its cease-fire order tonight. It ordered its troops to resume fighting on all fronts in Palestine where bombing, artillery and infantry attacks were reported in a half-dozen sectors.

The Jewish government said the order which, it claimed, caused its soldiers to withhold all unprovoked fire since 6 p.m., (E.S.T.), Tuesday, was issued under a misunderstanding.

The United Nations Security Council asked Arabs and Jews to notify it by 6 p.m., Tuesday, whether they would abide by a UN appeal for a four-week truce. The Jews said they mistook this deadline—and accepted it—as the actual time for ceasing fire.

Major Battles In Progress

The Arabs realized the UN had not set a specific deadline for halting the three-weeks-old war and, apparently, did not slacken their fighting pace. The Jews, under their earlier misapprehension, bitterly accused the Arabs of violating the supposed order.

At Lake Success, the Security Council late today instructed its Palestine mediator to set a cease-fire time and suggested it begin within three days.

Meanwhile, both sides reported major battles were in progress in the Holy Land.

The Egyptian defense ministry said tonight in a communique that Egyptian infantry attacked a heavily fortified Jewish stronghold in the Negba area, 30 miles southeast of Tel Aviv, and occupied a "large number of positions there."

Jews Counterattack

The Jews counterattacked in the strongest such thrust yet experienced by the Arabs in the coastal plain, the communique said. Arab infantry and artillery and Egyptian planes smashed the counterattack, it added, and "the enemy retreated in disorder." Jewish casualties were reported heavy.

An Amman dispatch said a column of several hundred Jews struck 18 miles into Trans-Jordan before King Abdullah's Arab Legionnaires and allied Arab planes killed 40 and beat them back in a battle that lasted until noon today.

The Arabs moved more troops toward the battle area. Motorized Iraqi infantry streamed through Amman to the cheers of thousands of Abdullah's subjects. The units were moving along the main highway to Palestine.

Arab commanders continued building up their 40-mile line north and west of Jerusalem with guns and fresh men. This front is aimed at Tel Aviv, capital of Israel.

The Israeli high command said the Jews military position was much better than two or three days ago. Last night Israeli troops drove within three miles of Jenin and four miles of Tulkarm, the Jews said. Both cities are anchors of the strategic Arab triangle in central Palestine.

Jenin now is virtually encircled by the Jews, Tel Aviv informants said. Mukbeile, Sandale and Arana, the latter less than three miles from Jenin, were reported seized by Jewish troops.

RESUME FIRE, TROOPS TOLD BY TEL AVIV

Israel Orders Fighting Until U.N. Fixes Time

For Cease-Fire

Tel Aviv, Palestine, June 2 (AP)—The Government of Israel tonight ordered its troops to resume firing until a definite day and hour to stop shooting is fixed by a United Nations mediator.

A statement issued after a day of confusion said its decision to cease fire at 3 A.M. this morning was based on a misunderstanding.

The Government said it had learned since that the 3 A.M. deadline was for telling the United Nations whether it would accept a four weeks' truce—and not actually putting down arms.

The Government said the Arabs had continued their attacks since the deadline in at least five places along the Palestine fighting front. Presumably each of these attacks was met by Jewish return fire.

Palestine Unity Vital To Truce, Arabs Say

Cairo, June 2 (AP)—Arab nations informed the United Nations today that any truce which does not provide for a unified Palestine has no chance of success.

The detailed reply was an acceptance of the four-week armistice asked by the United Nations, but it left the time of the cease fire to be decided.

Issued By Egypt

The Egyptian Foreign Ministry issued the text which said:

1. Any solution which does not maintain Palestine's political unity will have no chance of success.

2. Continued Jewish immigration into the Holy Land would constitute the gravest threat to Arab countries.

3. Arab states should be allowed to co-operate with the United Nations mediator, Count Folke Bernadotte, and the truce commission to supervise compliance with conditions of the cease fire.

The Arab reply did not make clear whether the Arab acceptance of the armistice is conditional on the Security Council's agreeing with these "explanations."

The text of the reply:

"1. The Arab governments, in their reply to the first invitation addressed to them by the Security Council May 22, expressed their eagerness to see peace restored in Palestine and said they looked forward to the day when all Palestine inhabitants—Arabs and Jews—would live side by side in complete understanding. They also explained the reasons for which they rejected the invitation, and drew the Council's attention on guarantees without which a cease-fire in Palestine would be only a temporary lull to wider-scale disturbances and more terrible terrorism.

"2. We were pleased to see that our remarks were taken into account by the Security Council. A cease-fire is only a means toward finding a just and long-awaited solution of the Palestine question. Arab countries are pleased to note that the Security Council charged the United Nations mediator to approach all parties following the cease-fire order to carry out the mission assigned by the United Nations General Assembly according to its decision May 14.

For "Just Solution"

"3. The most important duty concerning this mission is to reach a just and peaceful solution of the Palestine question. The governments of the Arab countries are convinced that the United Nations' mediator and truce committee appointed by the Security Council April 23 will find by themselves that any solution which does not maintain Palestine's political unity and does not take into consideration the will of Palestine's people will have no chance of success.

"4. But there is no doubt that what contradicts the aim for which the cease-fire is being asked that the doors of Palestine now in the hands of the Zionists should be open to admit immigrant Jews who are of military age and who are waiting for the first opportunity to enter Palestine in convoys coming from various ports of Europe and Africa. The majority of these people have been trained for fighting and have no other objective in entering Palestine than to join terrorist gangs. This is the biggest threat to the existence of Palestine Arabs and stability and security in Arab countries and the Middle East.

Ban On Entry

"5. It is not possible that the Security Council envisages to permit Zionists to use the cease-fire period to increase their contingencies. Though pretending to enter Palestine as immigrants, those people are in fact trained fighters to whom should apply Article II of the Security Council's decision concerning a ban on entry into Palestine of fighting forces during the cease-fire period.

"6. The Arab governments would favor a body to be appointed to supervise with every care and attention the carrying out of the Security Council's cease-fire decision and that this body be given authority enabling it to fulfill its important mission.

"7. The Arab governments consider that the decision to appoint this body would give them assurances that the second party shall respect the conditions of the cease-fire. In their capacity as members of the recognized regional organization responsible for the maintenance of security in their area, the Arab governments consider they should co-operate with the United Nations mediator and truce committee in supervising the compliance with truce conditions.

"8. In the light of these explanations, the Arab countries, which are aware of the necessity of stability and peace in Palestine in order to reach a just solution of the Palestine question, agree to comply with the Security Council's invitation to cease fire for four weeks beginning from a date to be set.

The Arab countries' compliance with the Security Council's cease-fire invitation, coming after the failure—due to the Zionists—of all attempts to date to reach a just settlement of the Palestine question, is striking proof of the Arab countries' desire to co-operate with the United Nations toward reaching such a settlement, and this in spite of the fact the Arab countries' armies hold the initiative in Palestine."

Bomb Falls In Amman Near Abdullah's Palace

Cairo, June 2 (AP)—The Trans-Jordan Legation here said today that bombs dropped by Jewish planes on Amman yesterday fell in the square before King Abdullah's Palace. The announcement gave no details.

The British-controlled Near East Broadcasting Station quoted King Abdullah as saying:

"I don't care if my palace is destroyed by enemy raids. We Arabs have been accustomed to live without palaces."

The same broadcast said the Arab Legion has blown up Hebrew University in Jerusalem. It said the action was taken because Jewish fighters continued firing from the university despite a warning by the Arabs through the Red Cross.

Firing Continues In Jerusalem

Jerusalem, June 2 (AP)—The cease fire in Jerusalem is ineffective.

Most of Jerusalem was hoping that the 3 A.M. (local time) Security Council deadline for an answer to its cease-fire order would end hostilities early this morning, but heavy shelling continued in Jerusalem.

Now it has become clear that because both the Arabs and Jews accepted a cease fire with conditions, fighting may continue until the Security Council takes further action or until the Jews and Arabs agree on conditions through the mediator, Count Folke Bernadotte.

Fire Diminishes

This morning, the Jewish Agency in Jerusalem communicated with the chairman of the Truce Commission, Belgian Consul Jean Niewenhuys, and listed its charges of Arab breaches in the cease-fire order.

From 3 A.M. local time, the Jews observed the cease-fire and in some isolated places the Arabs were observed to hold their fire.

The Jewish Agency later had informed the chairman of the Truce Commission that unless Arab fire in Jerusalem ceased by 11 A.M., Jewish forces would be compelled to reply.

Violations Alleged

The Jews charged the following instances of Arab violations of the cease-fire:

3 A.M. — Arab firing at Jewish areas of Ramat Rachael and Talpioth.

3.15 A.M.—Arabs fire from Old City against Jewish settlement of Yemin Moshe.

3.25 A.M.—Arab fire against Kiryat Anavim.

5.45 A.M.—Twenty-five pounder shells fell on Ramat Rachel.

6.25 A.M.—Shells fell in the Beit Israel quarter from the Damascus gate.

7.40 A.M.—Sniping against Jewish position in Notre Dame from the Old City.

8.40 A.M.—Incendiary shells fell on Beit Israel quarter.

10.10 A.M.—Firing from Sheik Jarrah against Beit Israel.

The Jewish Agency, discussing the cease-fire, emphasized that in the past two and a half weeks of fighting, the Jews have held the borders of the Jewish state, which is the object of the Jewish war effort.

JEW REPORTS LOSS BY ARABS

Third Of Their Palestine Zone Taken, Spokesman Says

By CARTER L. DAVIDSON

Jerusalem, June 2 (AP)—A Jewish spokesman said today Israeli forces have taken about a third of Arab Palestine.

He said that in the nineteen days of total war with Arab armies of five nations, the Jews have held all but a 2-mile wedge of their own state. The spokesman reviewed what he called the first phase of the war ending with both sides agreeing to accept a four-week cease-fire.

"Our object has been achieved and more," the spokesman said. "Our frontiers have been held. We have fought the enemy in his own lands and not in ours."

4 Settlements Lost

The Israelis have fought the combined strength of units of armies of Trans-Jordan, Iraq, Syria, Egypt and Lebanon, supported by Palestine Arab volunteers and polyglot outsiders of Fawzi Bey al Kaukji's "Liberator Army."

The spokesman said the Israeli forces have managed this balance sheet:

Lost In Battle—Four settlements of the Kfar Etzion bloc near Hebron, Yad Mordecai in the Negeb Desert and Haharaim in the north, all in the part of Palestine given to the Arabs by United Nations partitioners. Also lost was the Jewish quarter in the Old City of Jerusalem, slated to be an "international" area.

Yielded To Consolidate Lines—Beth Haarava at the Dead Sea, Neve Yaacov and Ataroth between Jerusalem and Ramallah, and Hartov, southwest of Jerusalem, all in Arab Palestine.

Conquered—All of west Galilee, stretching from the Jewish state north beyond Haifa to the Lebanese frontier; a large area at Megiddo, north of the Jenin-Nablus-Tulkarm triangle; the city of Jaffa; the Judean mountain expanse along the Jerusalem-Tel Aviv road, except for a 4-mile stretch at Latrun; and all but a small section of modern Jerusalem.

Iraqi Push Blocked

The only place the Arabs have managed to penetrate the frontier of Israel is a 2-mile wedge driven in the coastal plain between Nathanya and Haifa, where an Iraqi push has been blocked, the spokesman said.

Arab military communiqués emphasize the "conquest" of parts of Palestine and refer to distances their armies are from Tel Aviv. Scoffing at such communiqués, the spokesman pointed out that it is possible to be even closer to Tel Aviv than 10 miles and still not cross the frontier of Israel.

He said the part of Palestine the Arabs say they have "captured" so far have been Arab cities such as Gaza, Beersheba, Hebron, Bethlehem and Jericho where no Jews have lived for a decade.

Artillery Ineffective

He said Arab artillery has been completely ineffective against Jewish Jerusalem save for a somewhat demoralizing effect on civilians and for restrictions in normalcy. Damage is superficial and only about two dozen lives have been lost in 2½ weeks of shelling frequently with incendiaries, the spokesman said.

"If this is intended as saturation shelling of Jerusalem, it is far from saturation," the spokesman added, "artillery has no effect on military effectiveness of Jewish forces."

Jewish artillery has been a considerable factor in the Israeli war effort. Unused yet in Jerusalem, it is credited with holding the Iraqis and Syrians at bay in the north and with driving the comparatively puny Lebanese expedition back across its borders.

Air Force Active

Israeli aircraft has been matching the Arab aerial raids in the past week with bomb attacks on Trans-Jordan's capital of Amman and on the Arab Legion and Egyptian troop concentrations in Arabic Palestine.

The spokesman said the Jewish victory so far is "not altogether surprising, despite the fact we are one small nation against five. Our forces with supporting or auxiliary units probably number 90,000. We frankly doubt the Arabs can match it."

Jews Charge Arabs Violate Palestine Truce 5 Times

JAS. M. LONG

Tel Aviv, Israel, June 2 (AP)—Israel's army headquarters, which holds that the United Nations cease-fire order was to be effective at 3 A.M. (7 P.M. Tuesday, E.D.T.), charged the Arabs with five violations today.

[Arab nations said the deadline was for replies to the United Nations, rather than for cessation of shooting, and that the time of the cease-fire is yet to be set.]

The Israel Army said the Arabs violated the cease-fire in shelling modern Jerusalem throughout the night, by attacking on both the northern and southern battle fronts, and by bombing the village of Hulda, on the central front.

Israel Action Not Stated

It was not disclosed here whether Israeli forces resumed combat at the scene of these attacks. But the chief of operations of the Israeli general staff said last night commanders had been ordered to cease firing "only if the Arabs did likewise."

The army announcement, made at midmorning, said the Trans-Jordan Arab Legion opened artillery fire on the Jewish quarter of the New City of Jerusalem last night from batteries in the Sheik Jarrah quarter, intensified the shelling at 3 A.M. and still was firing at 9.30 A.M.

At Amman- Trans-Jordan, the Arab Legion said today Arab artillery had scattered an Israeli force attacking Romena and Givat Shaul, and killed 100 Jews. Eighty other Jews were declared killed in Jerusalem.

[Romena apparently is the Arab name for Rummana, a village 7 miles northwest of the Arab stronghold of Jenin.]

Old City Is Attacked

"The Jews launched a heavy attack on the Old City of Jerusalem, supposedly using some of their best fighters of Palmach," the communiqué said. "The attack was repulsed and the Jews retreated, leaving on the battlefield 80 dead."

An unofficial report said Jewish armored cars with mortars penetrated 8 miles into that Arab country early today and killed eight policemen at Ghores Safi. The site is near the southern end of the Dead Sea. The report said surviving police still were resisting the attack at midmorning.

Jenin Reported Circled

The Israel Army said Jewish forces had virtually encircled the town of Jenin, one point in a strategic Arab triangle in northern Palestine, before the 3 A.M. deadline.

It said Arab forces later counter-attacked.

Mukbeile, Sandale and Arana, the latter less than 3 miles from Jenin, were reported seized by Israeli troops in tightening the ring about the Arab stronghold before operations halted last night.

Al Assas, a newspaper supporting the Egyptian Government, said Egyptian artillery was throwing 25-pound shells this morning at Rehovot, 12 miles southeast of Tel Aviv.

The Government of Israel announced last night that it had sent a cease-fire order to all its fighting forces in compliance with a plea from the United Nations Security Council for a four-weeks truce in the Holy Land.

The announcement said the order was to be effective at 3 A.M. (Israel Time) this morning, or 7 P.M. Tuesday (E.D.T.).

[Both sides announced before that hour yesterday that they would accept an armistice, but there has been no indication from any Arab source that they have issued a cease-fire order to match that which the Israeli Government said it issued.]

Irgun Zvai Leumi broadcast a report last night that Jews penetrated and blew up a big Trappist monastery at Latrun.

Irgun, an arm of the Israeli fighting force, said the monastery—home of monks pledged never to speak—was a strongpoint which the Arabs had seized and were using as a main block on the bitterly contested Tel Aviv-Jerusalem road.

Earlier, before the announcement of the Egyptian attacks, the Jewish chief of operations said the cease-fire came at a difficult time. The Israeli Army, he claimed, had just mounted two offensives in the north—against the Arab triangle—and had gone over into the offensive in the south against the Egyptians.

"We were not knocking, but pounding, on the two main doors to the Jenin-Nablus-Tulkarm triangle," he declared. "A very big force is surronuding Jenin itself. Another assault had just been opened directly against Tulkarm."

[The Arabs have said their troops in this triangle, midway between Nazareth and Jerusalem, were aimed at Tel Aviv.]

Other new offensive operations scheduled for Tuesday night were called off barely in time, the spokesman said. He added it was difficult to do so without damaging the Israeli position.

No Soil Of Israel

He gave this version of the Jewish position at 3 A.M.:

"In the eighteen days since Israel proclaimed its independence, nowhere did the Arab forces succeed in occupying any part of the soil of Israel. At the places they had penetrated, they were repulsed.

"We lost some settlements that were outside Jewish territory, but not even in the Negeb (Southern desert) has the enemy occupied a single settlement inside the boundaries of Israel."

BEVIN SPEAKS UP FOR LEGION

Says Trans-Jordan Commits No Aggression In Palestine

London, June 2 (AP)—Ernest Bevin, Foreign Secretary, told the House of Commons today he did not consider Trans-Jordan's Arab Legion participation in Palestine fighting was an act of aggression.

"She has been invited into territory by her fellow Arabs," Bevin told a questioner.

He said he understood the Legion had not "invaded anywhere" but was operating in Palestine territory allocated by the United Nations to the Arabs.

Bevin said Britain would furnish its "utmost assistance" to Count Folke Bernadotte, the United Nations' Swedish mediator in the Holy Land, in seeking a "peaceful adjustment of the whole situation."

He said "amongst both Arabs and Jews are a large majority of moderate and peaceful men and women who would welcome nothing more than the prospect of a lasting and just peace."

Earlier, an authoritative source said Britain was not likely to agree with the Israeli assumption that unrestricted Jewish immigration into Palestine could continue during the four-week truce period.

In accepting the truce the Jews said they assumed such immigration would be continued. The truce called for a stop to introduction of "fighting personnel" into the Holy Land during the truce.

PALESTINE TRUCE DATE IS ORDERED

U.N. Tells Mediator To Set Time For Cease-Fire

Carpenter

Lake Success, N.Y., June 2 (AP)—The Security Council told the United Nations' Palestine mediator tonight to fix the hour for a four-week armistice accepted by Arabs and Jews.

The Council agreed this should be done as soon as possible.

Warren R. Austin, United States delegate, and others suggested giving the mediator three days to impose the cease-fire order.

Instructions drafted by the United Nations secretariat and cabled to the Middle East set no time limit, however.

Cease-Fire Canceled

Major Aubrey S. Eban, representative of the Jewish Agency here, said after the Council meeting that the Jews had canceled their third cease-fire and were fighting again. But they were committed to observing the Council's four-week armistice whenever the mediator, Swedish Count Folke Bernadotte, fixes the time.

There was no objection to the Council action, which was taken without a vote. However, Russia and the Ukraine announced they abstained from approving the instructions to the mediator. Soviet sources said this was done because they had abstained from approving appointment of the mediator in the recent special United Nations Assembly on Palestine.

Order On Its Way

The instructions to Bernadotte were signed by the June Council chairman, Faris el Khoury, of Syria, before el Khoury arose from the table.

As he left the crowded chamber, el Khoury told reporters the order already was on its way.

He called a special meeting of the Security Council for tomorrow at 1.30 P.M. to discuss controls provided under the cease-fire resolution.

Some Jewish spokesmen here adopted what they acknowledged to be a cynical attitude to the performance.

Only Reasonable Decision

"Once again we are put in the position where the Security Council virtually tells us to go on shooting," a spokesman for the Israeli Government said.

For the Arabs of Palestine, Jamal Husseini, of the Arab Higher Committee, said the council took the only reasonable decision. He said it would be at least four or five days before the cease-fire could be made effective.

El Khoury ruled without objection that the Arabs and Jews had accepted unconditionally the cease-fire request made by the Council last Saturday night.

Cable From Bernadotte

Then the Syrian read out a cable from Count Bernadotte suggesting that a limited interval must be allowed between the time the Arabs and Jews accepted the cease-fire and the time it is applied.

Bernadotte said this might take some days but Austin insisted it should be done in three days.

Austin was backed by George Ignatieff, of Canada, and Dr. Alfonso Lopez, of Colombia. There was no objection.

Truce Time Up To Council

Lake Success, June 2 (AP)—Warring Jews and Arabs insisted today they are ready to lay down their arms in Palestine under a four-week armistice.

They left this big question still before the United Nations Security Council: When does the shooting stop?

Both sides made reservations in their acceptance of the Council's truce appeal. But they contended here—while fighting went on in the Holy Land—that they were not conditions.

Hope For Action Soon

The Council hoped by tonight to arrange a cease-fire hour. A spokesman for a big-power delegation said this step would be possible only if the Council could avoid long wrangling over terms. It was possible the fixing of the hour for cessation would be left to Swedish Count Folke Bernadotte, the United Nations mediator for Palestine.

Commenting on Israeli charges that the Arabs had violated the Council's appeal for a promise to cease fire, a British spokesman said the Council never had set an hour for laying down arms. He said the Council decision—taken on a British resolution—provided only that the Jews and Arabs should accept the armistice proposal by 6 P.M. (E.S.T.) yesterday.

Called Misunderstanding

The spokesman added that the Jewish interpretation under which orders were issued to Israeli troops to stop firing at that hour (3 A.M., Israeli time) was a misunderstanding of the terms.

The Jews have posed what they called five assumptions on armistice terms; the Arabs filed what they described as explanations of their acceptance.

The Council faced another round of debate on these explanations and assumptions.

Several delegates indicated tentative approval of an Arab demand for a specil commission to supervise carrying out of the armistice terms.

Faris el Khoury, of Syria, June President of the Council and senior Arab diplomat, told the Associated Press today that the Arab truce acceptance was unconditional. He emphasized, however, as did the Arab League reply, that the Council must set up a commission to establish safeguards. He said the American-French-Belgian consular truce commission plus Count Bernadotte might be formed into a four-man commission to assume these duties.

6-Nation Policy Set On Future Reich Rule

Shape Reich Future

London, June 2 (AP)—A six-nation conference on western Germany's political and economic future reported officially today it has reached agreement on recommendations covering the whole field.

That was the heart of an 80-word communiqué summing up the results of six weeks of talks which brought together high-ranking diplomats, financial and production experts from the United States, Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxemburg.

Gains Not Listed

It mentioned directly none of the major accomplishments of the talks—among them the recommendation to establish a separate western Germany early next year, plans for creating an international control board over the Ruhr's key minerals, or long-range methods for preventing rebirth of German aggression.

But it did say that a report on its recommendations will shortly be made public. Diplomatic officials here said this probably would not come before another two weeks—after the recommendations have been reviewed in detail by the governments concerned.

Text Of Document

The text of the communiqué:

"The informal discussions on Germany between representatives of the United States, the United Kingdom, France and the three Benelux countries, which began in London on February 23 and which, after a recess beginning on March 6, were resumed on April 20, have resulted in agreed recommendations over the whole field.

"These recommendations are being submitted for approval to the governments concerned, as envisaged in the communiqué issued on March 6. A report of these recommendations will shortly be made public."

Caution Is Stressed

The cautious wording of the summary and the decision to delay official disclosure of the recommendations emphasized the anxiety of the delegates to prevent any slip in the fulfillment of the decisions.

This procedure was insisted upon by France, in particular. The idea was to allow the French delegation a chance to furnish Paris officials the details of the plan and thus balance its advantages to France against concessions the French made during the talks.

Occupation May Go On

Although there has been no official confirmation, a plan to prolong military occupation of the Ruhr and Rhineland for an indefinite period after the end of general occupation was counted upon by the French.

The delegations went home without achieving one of the preconference's major objectives—unification of the British-American and French zones of occupation. Officials reported, however, a close accord for increasing economic cooperation between the areas.

Goals Of Parley

The major accomplishments of the conference, as disclosed by diplomatic sources during the sessions:

1. Creation of a German constituent assembly—probably in Frankfurt—on September 1 to to draft a new German constitution. The western German states will decide themselves upon a method for naming their own delegates—by appointment or election.

2. Formation of an international Ruhr authority just as soon as the general western German plan has been accepted by the six governments. It will have control over allocation of coal, coke and iron ore. On the board will sit representatives of the six conference countries and Germany. Initially, the German representative probably will be named by the military governors of the Western occupying powers; later by the Germans themselves.

ALLIES STUDYING FUTURE ROLE OF GERMAN PEOPLE

ALEX SINGLETON

LONDON, June 2 — (AP) A blueprint for Western Germany's political and economic future was sent today to the governments of the United States, Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

It represented the product of six weeks of intensive talks and compromises by delegations from the six countries.

An 80-word communique, the only official report from the conference, official report from the conference, designed to put Western Germany back on its feet financially, give it a major role in European recovery and its people a government of their own.

Contents A Secret

Officially, the blueprint is a secret. The communique said the recommendations will be made public shortly. This probably will be in about two weeks after the six governments have given their formal approval to the decisions reached here.

The unpublished major accomplishments of the conference however are reported to include:

A general agreement to keep the Ruhr and Rhineland under military control for an indefinite period after general occupation of Germany ends. This was a concession to the demands of France and the Benelux countries (Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg) that Germany's giant industrial potential be kept under chains at least partially.

Broader powers than originally contemplated by the British and Americans for an international control board which will allocate Germany's iron ore, coke and coal and indirectly control heavy industry.

General agreement to discuss later French demands for American military support of the western European alliance against aggression.

The French sacrificed their demand for complete internationalization of the Ruhr, and also submerged their reluctance to fix a definite date—now set for Sept. 1—when a constituent assembly will meet to draft a constitution for a Western German government scheduled to be set up early next year.

Britain Frowns on Immigration

LONDON, June 2 (AP)—An authoritative source said Britain was not likely to agree with the Israeli assumption that unrestricted Jewish immigration into Palestine could continue during the four-week truce period.

In accepting the truce the Jews said they assumed such immigration would be continued.

CZECH ATTACHE QUITS DENMARK ENGAGEMENT

COPENHAGEN, Denmark, June 2—(AP) Felix Koeppl, economic attache of the Czechoslovak legation, said in a statement today he was resigning as a protest against political developments in Czechoslovakia.

Pope Pius And Social Reforms

JOHN P. McKNIGHT

Vatican City, June 2 (AP)—Pope Pius today put the weight of the Catholic Church behind social reforms in the postwar world.

The pronouncement was an advance over the famous "Rerum Novarum" (Of New Things) encyclical of Leo XIII in 1891 which proclaimed a modern social outlook for the Nineteenth Century-old church.

Today Pius warned the world's rulers they must heed the cries and go to the rescue of "wayward and embittered hearts" which have gone astray in the "ruin and revolution of the war and its aftermath."

Fine Projects Not Enough

"Good intentions and fine projects," he said, are not enough; the world's 350,000,000 Catholics must "proceed courageously to put them into practice."

The "urgent need," he added, is "to provide the poorer classes with housing, bread and work."

The Pope spoke on his saint's day, the day consecrated to the memory of Pope Eugene I who died in Rome June 2, 657, and who subsequently took his place in the calendar of Catholic saints.

He addressed seventeen cardinals who had called to pay their respects, but the speech was broadcast to a far wider audience.

World Still "Faltering"

Saying the world was still "faltering between peace and war," he declared world peace still the No. 1 political problem awaiting solution, and expressed the "profound consternation of all Christendom" that the flames of war had been lighted in Palestine, as well as Greece and China.

The acceptance of the United Nations truce in the Holy Land, "however temporary," he hailed as a "dawn of hope."

"Allow the holy places to be completely devastated?" he exclaimed. "Reduce the 'Great Sepulchre of Christ' to a mass of rubble? God grant that the danger of so terrible a scourge may be finally dispelled."

Goes Beyond 1891 Encyclical

In the encyclical of 1891 Pope Leo set forth that labor had grievances meriting adjustment, that wages ought to be the result of agreement between workers and employers and that the wage earner was entitled to "reasonable and frugal comfort."

Pius, the "modern pope," went further. "Merely distributing the products of social economy more equitably," is not the sole answer, he said.

Bound with that requirement, he continued, especially in view of the destruction of war, are "the prudent organization of production," the inter-relation of agriculture and industry in individual nations' economies, and the share of each nation in world markets.

"It is clear that there can never be sufficient distribution where there is not sufficient production," he said.

Warns On Exploitation

But he warned that nations which "boast of productive capacity" that production must not be the result of "unbridled competition" and "unprincipled expenditure of wealth" on the one hand, nor on the other of "oppression and despotic exploitation of labor and the needs of individuals on the part of the state."

"Every worker is endowed with human dignity and freedom," he declared, and "immoderate exploitation of genuine human values usually keeps step with that of nature's treasures, especially of the land, and leads sooner or later to decadence."

"It was the Pope's first address since the Communist challenge in Italy was turned back in the April elections, and he spoke of the present as a truce "between two battles."

It must be utilized, he said, "for the work of rescue, constructive work which will give substance and form to the glorious hopes of victory."

"Just And Necessary"

It was at this point that he called for "just and necessary reforms" and urged an effort to reclaim "those many wayward souls" who he said had parted company with the church and joined in movements which "de-Christianize every phase of private and public life."

Even to these, he said, the word "Father forgive them for they know not what they do," should be valid.

To Italians the Pope's words held prime interest. Only yesterday, the Catholic Premier Alcide de Gasperi, appeared before Parliament and urged a program of land, labor and currency reform. De Gasperi's aides have disclosed that one of their big worries is that the right wing of his Christian Democratic party may bring powerful pressure to impede or water down the program. But on the basis of the Pope's speech today, it seemed de Gasperi could count the Pope on his side.

Pope Makes Appeal For Social Reforms

Rome, June 2 (AP)—Pope Pius XII called today for "just and necessary social reforms" to solve problems "growing out of the ruin and revolution of the world and its aftermath."

Not otherwise, he said, could "wayward and embittered hearts" be won back to the "true concepts and sound ideas about the world and God."

He invoked "earnestness, loyalty, energy and fairness" of "all men of right principles" for the task, citing especially the "urgent need to provide the poorer classes with housing, bread and work."

Greets 17 Cardinals

The speech, which was in Italian and lasted 25 minutes, was the Pontiff's first major address since a Communist-led challenge was turned back in Italy's election April 18 and 19.

It was in reply to greetings from seventeen cardinals of the Holy College on his saint's day. The Pope's name is Eugenio Pacelli. His saint is St. Eugene.

The address came, coincidentally, on the second birthday of the Italian republic. Italian Air Force planes roared above in aerial maneuvers to mark President Luigi Einaudi's assumption of command of the armed forces.

Deplores Holy Land War

Once again showing concern for peace, the Pope said that it still was the No. 1 problem three years after a world war's end.

He spoke sadly of "the profound consternation of all Christianity" that war, flaming already in Greece and China, had broken out in the Holy Land. But he said the truce concluded last night, though provisional, yet must be greeted "with a sigh of relief as a dawn of hope."

Meanwhile, Italy's Catholic Premier Alcide de Gasperi had taken before a new Parliament his four-party Government's program for land, labor and currency reform, which the Communist Left hooted.

Pleads For Social Reforms

The Pope said:

"It is not a question today of merely distributing the products of social economy more equitably, in closer correspondence with the labor and the needs of individuals. . . . Every social reform is strictly bound up with the question of a prudent organization of production. . . . For it is clear that there can never be sufficient distribution where there is not sufficient production.

"Yet unlimited production is of no benefit if attained as a result of unbridled competition and of an unprincipled expenditure of wealth, or by oppression and despotic exploitation of labor and the needs of individuals on the part of the state."

He told Catholics everywhere that they should not limit their activity to the purely religious—that, on the contrary, Catholics are involved on the civil, national and international plane, in every question where moral interests are at stake. They should, of course, he added, reserve their freedom of action in the face of political currents, thus to stop the advancement of religious nihilism and profanation of the person and dignity of man."

The Pope's voice was strong and forceful, and he spoke more slowly than usual, as though he wanted to drive home every point of this annual review of the state of the world.

Cites Holy Year Outlook

The broadcast was carried by the Vatican short and medium-wave stations and by the Italian Government radio system.

In announcing the church's twenty-fifth holy year would be held in 1950, the Pope referred obliquely to the defeat of the Communist-led Popular Front in the April Italian election. He said that "the elevation of orderly justice in Italy" had "dissipated all doubt and removed the foundation of all fear."

Discussing world peace, he cited his having sent a special envoy to the recent Western European Congress in The Hague to encourage "the union of peoples."

Text of Pope Pius XII's Address to Cardinals

VATICAN CITY, June 2 (AP).—The English-language text of Pope Pius XII's address today to a group of Cardinals follows:

The shining figure of Pope St. Eugene!

For the tenth time, Divine Providence allows us to receive, venerable brothers, your greetings on the feast of our holy patron and to express to you our appreciation for your close and loyal collaboration as well as our reliance on the aid of your prayers. But today, for the first time, we enjoy the consolation of accepting your earnest good wishes as expressed with such delicate feeling by the revered and most worthy new dean of your Sacred College.

It was only a few months ago at Christmas time that we listened to the voice of the venerated and lamented Cardinal Gennaro Granito Pignatelli di Belmonte. The Lord has called him to Himself in the evening of a long and fruitful lifetime. To serve for his eulogy and to put into words our gratitude in his regard there springs immediately to our mind a phrase that fits him perfectly and describes him completely: He was "the good and faithful servant" of the church of Christ and of his apostolic see.

Today we naturally turn our thoughts to the holy Pontiff whose name our deeply devout parents gave us and whose patronage they assured us when we were born, never guessing its hidden meaning for us. And we, who for a goodly ten years have been steering the barque of Peter through the squalls of the tempest and the furious buffeting of the storm, tossed about without rest or respite amid the reefs, find it heartening now to recall the story of him who was really here below the "sacerdos magnus, qui in diebus suis placuit Deo et inventus est justus" and who today from Heaven's glorious and eternal rest sends down upon the latest of his successors a gentle and brilliant ray of light which fills our heart with comfort, courage and confidence.

Terrena non metuit! He feared nothing on earth!

Characteristic Trait

The sacred liturgy depicts, in the forceful final words of a brief antiphon, the figure of a sovereign Pontiff according to the mind and heart of the Divine Master, wholly wrapped up in the gravity of his mission and his responsibilities: "Dum esset fummus Pontifex, terrena non metuit": "While he was sovereign Pontiff he was afraid of nothing on earth!"

"Terrena non metuit! He feared nothing on earth!" There is the characteristic trait which sums up the life and activity of all the great Popes; there is the feature which the Church has seen fit to make the title of honor for all the Popes who are saints. From the very first moment when, in spite of our unworthiness, we were called to follow in their footsteps we have considered this as a constant directive for our conduct. We have made this the ideals toward which we ought to advance with all our feeble forces. In excited and exciting days like ours, at a time when truth and error, faith in God and denial of God, the primacy of the spirit and the predominance of matter, human dignity and its abandonment, the order born of reason and the chaos following its misuse, confront each other everywhere over the face of the world in a decisive struggle, the mission of the Church and of her visible head cannot develop and mature with Heaven's blessing except beneath the motto: "Terrena non metuit!"

To be afraid? Of what? Are we then, not strong? Is the clash between the followers and the foes of Christ after all insuperable?

The Church suffers to think of the harm that her enemies are doing to themselves, of the evil they bring to so many little, frail, ignorant souls to whom they are a cause of scandal and of ruin. For herself she rekindles the ardor of Christ's disciples, and to burn into them a keener and deeper realization of their strength.

Healthy Reawakening

In the shadowy half-light the line of division between the two camps would seem almost shifting to the superficial eye. The full light of truth has marked it clearly at the very points where it appeared most uncertain. Now is the moment when every one who still treasures in the depths of his soul a spark of Christian spirit must wake up. This awakening may painfully disturb the smug tranquillity of those to whom the daylight of reality points inexorably to sacrifices and changes to which, in their slumbers, they had not given a thought, and from which they can no longer escape. But it is a healthy reawakening, too, because it releases energies hitherto pent up and, as it were, benumbed, with grevious harm to individuals and to all mankind.

The attitudes, the resolutions and the acts which are the fruit of this awakening are not confined, as an erroneous slogan would have it, within the sphere called "purely religious," meaning by the phrase exclusion from any penetration into public life. The contrary is true. On the civic, national, international plane they are involved in every question where moral interests are at stake, in every question where the issue is to form ranks for God or against Him, in every question, briefly, which explicitly or implicity touches religion.

In these attitudes, in these resolutions, in these acts, Catholic forces, while reserving their freedom of action in face of political currents and alignments, may sometimes follow a road parallel to theirs, in so far as it may be suggested by common interests; parallel, but no more, without merging or subordination.

Solid Front Formed

These attitudes, these resolutions and these acts form the solid front of the Christian conscience which is determined, at the proper time and place, to put a stop to the advancement of religious nihilism to the violence of brute force, to the profanation of the person and dignity of man, to the assaults against society or to society's misdeeds.

Hence, in the name of God made man, we address our paternal gratitude to each and every one of our beloved sons and daughters spread over the world who is enrolled in the army of Christ and sworn to battle for the coming of His kingdom of peace; while at the same time we express our most ardent hopes that, perservering faithful unto death, they may be found on the great day of eternal recompense among the number of the "conquerors" for whom are reserved the magnificent and inscrutable promises of the revelation full of mystery.

We are sure they will not feel offended if, to the expression of gratitude which rises from the depths of our heart, we add a new and urgent "vigilant"—watch.

In the brief pauses between two battles this unflinching vigilance is more than ever needed, because great is the danger then of resting on one's laurels, of becoming unnerved and allowing the enemy to retake the ground so laboriously conquered. The days of truce are often no less important than those of battle. They should not be days of empty and idle interruption, but of useful work; work of rescue, constructive work which will give substance and form to the glorious hopes inspired by victory.

Work of Rescue

The work of rescue should be extended also to those many wayward souls who, although remaining—as they think, at least—united to our devoted children in the faith, have parted company with them to join in movements which actually tend to laicize and de-Christianize every phase of private and public life. Even though the divine word "Father forgive them for they know not what they do" should be valid for them also, this would not change at all the objective wickedness of their conduct. They provide themselves with a double conscience; for while they pretend to remaain members of the Christian Community, at the same time they fight as auxiliary troops in the ranks of those who deny God. This very double dealing or this cleavage threatens to make of them, sooner or later, a poisonous tumor in the very bosom of Christianity. These people remind us of those of whom the Apostle Paul spoke "weeping," flens"; they draw tears from our eyes also, because they are acting like enemies of the Cross of Christ, "inimicos Crucis Christi."

The Maternal Warning of the Church

As long as it is possible we seek, with kindness and patience to open their eyes, to lead them back to Him who alone is the way, the truth, the life. Also to the just and salutary solutions of temporal problems—in conformity with divine and eternal principles—the prayer of the Church contributes its aid:"... Grant to all those who profess themselves Christians to reject those things which are contrary to that name and follow such things as are agreeable to the same" (Collect, 3d Sunday after Easter).

While we thus pray for those in danger, we beseech them at the same time to heed the warnings of the Church which still today exhorts and prays like a loving mother, that she may not be obliged to apply to them the severe judgment of the Divine Master: "And if he will not hear the Church: let him be to thee as the heathen and the publican." (Matt. 18, 17)

Social Reforms

But the reconquest of so many wayward and embittered hearts, who have lost the true concepts and sound ideas about the world and God and themselves, will depend essentially on the earnestness, loyalty, energy and fairness which all men of right principle will bring to the solution of the fundamental problems growing out of the ruin and revolution of the war and its aftermath. As everybody knows, at the heart of these issues and controlling them entirely, lie the just and necessary social reforms, and particularly the urgent need to provide the poorer classes with housing, bread and work.

Yet it would be dangerous, since it might lead to bitter disappointment, if fantastic hopes and expectations of a fully satisfactory and speedy solution were to be based on these reforms. It is not a question today of merely distributing the products of social economy more equitably in closer correspondence with the labor and the needs of individuals. Important as this requirement may be, still under present conditions, especially in view of the enormous destruction and fluctuation caused by the war, every social reform is strictly bound up with the question of a prudent organization of production.

The relations between agriculture and industry within the single national economies, and of those later with the economy of other nations, the manner and extent that each nation is to share in the world market; all these difficult problems present themselves today afresh and under aspects different from those of previous times. Upon their rational solution depends the productivity of the several nations, and consequently the welfare of individuals as well; for it is clear that there can never be sufficient distribution where there is not sufficient production.

Exploitation Warning

There are nations, of course, who can boast today of a productive capacity, which, they point out, is constantly increasing from year to year. But if this productivity is attained as a result of unbridled competition and of an unprincipled expenditure of wealth, or by oppression and despotic exploitation of labor and the needs of individuals on the part of the state, it cannot be sound and natural, because social economy is an organizing of workers, and every worker is endowed with human dignity and freedom. The immoderate exploitation of genuine human values usually keeps step with that of nature's treasures, especially of the land, and leads sooner or later to decadence.

Only on the principles of Christianity and in accord with its spirit can the social reforms, called for imperatively by the necessities and aspirations of our times, be carried out. They demand from some the spirit of renunciation and sacrifice, from others the sense of responsibility and endurance, from everybody hard and strenuous work.

Wherefore, we turn to the Catholics of the whole world exhorting them not to be satisfied with good intentions and fine projects but to proceed courageously to put them into practice. Neither should they hesitate to join forces with those who, remaining outside their ranks, are none the less in agreement with the social teaching of the Catholic Church and are disposed to follow the road that she has marked out, which is not the road of violent revolution but of experience, that has stood the test, and of energetic resolution.

The War in Palestine

Among the political problems which still await an adequate solution, it is unnecessary to say that world peace takes first place. And behold instead, to the profound consternation of all Christendom, the flames of war which were already smoldering in noble Greece and China's ancient land, have been rekindled in the very places where nearly 2,000 years ago the divine message of peace had resounded, ushering in the work of salvation.

The truce, however temporary, announced this very night, must be hailed with a sigh of relief, as a dawn of hope. How could the Christian world look on unconcernedly or in fruitless indignation, as that sacred ground which every one approached with reverence most profound to kiss it with warmest affection, was being trampled by troops of war and bombed from the air? Allow the holy places to be completely devastated? Reduce the "great Sepulchre of Christ" to a mass of rubble? God grant that the danger of so terrible a scourge may be finally dispelled!

The Work for Peace

Since in this fashion the world has been languishing for three years under a strange uneasiness and is wandering along divergent paths, faltering between peace and war, far-seeing and courageous men are searching unceasingly for new avenues that open the way to safety. Through repeated attempts at reconciliation, they are devoting themselves to set on her feet again a Europe shaken to her very foundations and to make of this source of recurring upheavals a bulwark of peace and the Providential champion of a general calm over the whole face of the world.

Hence, though without wanting to involve the Church in the tangle of purely temporal interests, we deemed it opportune to appoint our special representative to the Congress of Europe recently held at The Hague, in order to show the solicitude and to offer the encouragement of this apostolic see for the union of nations. Neither have we any doubt that our faithful children will realize that their position is always at the side of those generous souls who are preparing the way for mutual understanding and for the re-establishment of a sincere spirit of peace among nations.

The Coming Holy Year

The more the world of today exhibits the disheartening spectacle of its dissensions and contradictions, the more compelling is the duty of Catholics to give a shining example of unity and cohesion without distinction of language, nationality or race.

In the light of this ideal of concord, we welcome with gratitude to God and with confidence in His assistance, the approach of the Holy Year. There was a moment when it might have been doubted whether the Eternal City would be materially and spiritually in a position to guarantee a worthy setting for an event of such far reaching import. But the vigor, the high-mindedness and the strong feeling for order, justice and peace of the people of Rome and of Italy have made such a profound impression on the Catholic world as to dispel all doubt and to remove the basis of any fear whatever.

With deep joy and tender emotion then, venerable brothers, do we give notice to you and to the whole Catholic universe that in the year 1950 the twenty-fith fifth Holy Year in the history of the church will be celebrated, if so pleases the Lord, according to the prescriptions sanctioned by sacred tradition.

After the sad times that have just passed, filled to the cup's brim with sorrow and anguish, may this really Holy Year, by the grace of the Most High, and through the intercession of the august mother of God, of the princes of the Apostles and of all the saints, be for the human family a harbinger of a new era of peace, prosperity and progress!

That is our most dear wish, the object of our most fervent prayers.

May the days of the Holy Year bring the answer from Heaven to the prayer which, with a single heart, pastor and flock, Rome and the Catholic world, address to God: "Laetifica nos pro diebus quibus nos afflixisti, pro annis quibus vidimus mala." (ps. 29, 15).

"Give us joy for the days in which Thou hast humbled us, for the years in which we have suffered misfortune."

Looking forward to this consolation, venerable brothers, upon you and upon all our beloved sons and daughters who have listened to this message of ours, we bestow with particular affection our apostolic benediction.

Soviet Zone Hit As Police State By British

RICHARD KASISCHKE

Berlin, June 2 (AP)—An official report of the British Military Government said today the Russian occupation zone is a police state where "Soviet ruthlessness" has eliminated virtually all political opposition.

The report said so hopeless has become the position of Germans opposing Russian policies there is "apprehension that nothing short of force will improve conditions."

This report, issued to the Allied and German press, was the most devastating ever made here by one occupying power in criticism of another. It followed by less than a week a British attack in Berlin's Allied Kommandatura on economic conditions in the Soviet zone.

Peril In Opposition

The British exposés apparently were designed to take the steam out of Communists' efforts to extend their influence through such maneuvers as a current "people's plebiscite for German unification."

The British said that after eliminating the Social Democratic party in their zone the Russians had reduced the two remaining non-Communist parties (Liberal Democrats and Christian Democrats) to stooges.

"Organized opposition to the Soviet plans has been virtually eliminated and opposition by individuals has become increasingly dangerous," the report said.

"Any isolated cases of resistance which now occur are almost invariably followed by the arrest or flight of the persons responsible for them."

Methods Are Listed

The British said some oppositionists who escaped to Berlin or Western Germany have given medical proof of secret-police torture.

The memorandum listed these Russian pressure methods to get subservience:

1. Open interference by Soviet officers to enforce Russian policies on the lowest levels of German governmental machinery.
2. Pressure through the Soviet-sponsored, Communist - dominated Socialist Unity party (SED) and its block committees, which defame and intimidate opponents.
3. Soviet control of newspapers with heavy censorship of the eastern zone press and seizure of publications from the United States and British zones.
4. Dismissal of political opponents as "unacceptable to the Soviet Military Administration."
5. Economic pressure, including withholding raw materials from non-Communist manufacturers.
6. Indirect pressure of espionage, "which seems to be something of a phobia with the Soviet Military Administration."
7. An informer system involving "Soviet blackmail."
8. The MVD (secret police), which has instituted "Gestapo conditions."

The British report said these methods had reduced German parliamentary government in the East to a farce. It noted that those who refuse to follow the Communist line are called reactionaries and Fascists.

SOVIET PROTESTS U.S. 'ESCORT' FOR RUSSIAN PLANE

BERLIN, (Thursday,) June 3 (AP)—The Russians have protested to American authorities concerning the alleged action of U. S. Air Forces fighter pilots in providing a "protective escort" for a Soviet plane, the official Soviet news agency said today.

The Russian transport plane was bound from Berlin to Zurich, Switzerland, April 28 when the alleged incident occurred.

Lt. Gen. M. I. Dratvin, deputy Soviet commander in Berlin, told Maj. Gen. George P. Hays, the American deputy, in a letter that the American action was a "violation of all laws" and "could have led to serious consequences," the news agency said.

"Only through the splendid discipline, experience and self-control of the Soviet fighter could misfortune be averted," the Russian officer was quoted as telling Hays.

Dratvin said the Russian plane was on the prescribed flight route between Berlin and Zurich and that American authorities had been advised of the flight. American military authorities, he said, "ignored the elemental rules for flight safety over the Soviet occupation zone."

American officials could not be reached immediately for comment on the Russian protest.

Only three weeks before the incident complained of by Dratvin, a British transport crashed in Berlin's outskirts after a Soviet fighter plane collided with it. Fifteen persons were killed. A British spokesman said the Russian pilot was "frolicking" around the British plane before the crash.

The incident had wide repercussions and led to British and American threats to employ fighter escorts on transport flights between Berlin and Western Germany.

Berlin Transport Strike Starts

Berlin, June 2 (AP)—About 20,000 Berlin transport workers began a 24-hour strike today for higher wages and more food.

Nearly 4,000,000 passengers who normally use streetcars, subways or busses daily had to stay home, walk to work or take the elevated railway, which was not affected.

The strike was carried out in all Berlin zones—Russian, American, British and French.

The American Military Government's bus lines were among those struck. Army trucks picked up German employés.

The British Control Commission closed its schools for lack of transportation.

Many German factories sent busses to elevated railway stations or designated central places to pick up workers.

600 Refugees On Way To U.S. And Canada

Bremerhaven, Germany, June 2 (AP)—Officials said today that one of the busiest periods since the end of the war in the shipping of displaced persons out of Germany has begun.

The American ship Ernie Pyle sailed for Halifax with 600 Poles and Balts. Half will go to Canada and the remainder to the United States, disembarking at New York.

The transport General Black will sail during the week end for Canada with 860 persons of varied nationalities from Austria. When the Marine Shark sails Monday there will be 600 miners, farmers and construction workers aboard bound for Canada.

On June 14 the General Steward will sail with family groups for Argentina.

4 NAZI DOCTORS, 3 SS OFFICERS DIE ON GALLOWS

LANDSBERG, Germany, June 2 —(AP) Four German doctors and three SS (Elite Guard) officers were hanged today for killing and maiming thousands of people in medical experiments on Nazi concentration camp inmates.

SS. Gen. Karl Brandt, 43, top medical officer of the Nazi state and Adolf Hitler's personal physician, was among those executed. He was the only one who scorned religious aid at the scaffold.

It took 62 minutes to complete the executions. The men died on two black gallows erected in the courtyard of the prison where Hitler wrote Mein Kampf while confined after his 1923 Munich putsch.

Convicted Last August 20

The men were convicted last Aug. 20 in the first of a series of trials conducted at Nuernberg by U. S. war crimes courts. Several died protesting their innocence and complaining against the American system of justice.

Brandt made a final speech so long that after he ignored admonitions to cut it short the black hood was thrown over his face in midsentence.

He called his conviction "nothing but political revenge" and said: "It is no shame to stand on this scaffold. I served my fatherland as others before me."

Brandt once boasted that he was "one German the Americans will never hang." He had attempted to beat the gallows by offering his living body for medical experiments like those the court found he had conducted. U. S. authorities rejected the offer.

Joachim Murgowsky, 42, chief SS hygienist, shouted defiantly from the scaffold: "I die as a German officer sentenced by a brutal enemy and conscious I never committed the crimes charged against me."

Karl Gebhardt, 50, special physician of Heinrich Himmler and head SS surgeon said: "I die without bitterness but regret there is still injustice in the world." Gebhardt formerly was president of the German Red Cross.

Others Executed

Others executed were:

Wolfram Sievers, SS colonel and director of the military research institute.

Victor Brack, SS colonel and chief administrative officer under Martin Bormann.

Waldemar Hoven, chief medical officer at Buchenwald.

Rudolf Brandt, adjutant to Himmler and chief of the SS hygienic institute.

Five other defendants convicted at the trial were sentenced to life imprisonment. Four received lesser prison terms. Seven were acquitted.

The doomed men were accused of participating in experiments in which: victims were frozen to see how much cold they could stand; lungs were collapsed in high altitude tests; pieces of bone, muscle or nerves were cut out and transplanted, permanently mutilating the victims; thousands were sterilized by surgery, X-ray or drugs; many were fed experimental poisons, shot with poisoned bullets, burned with poison gas or infected with deadly diseases.

4 Nazi Doctors, 3 SS Officers Are Hanged

Landsberg, Germany, June 2 (AP). Seven German doctors and SS (Elite Guard) officers died on American gallows today for war crimes.

They were convicted of killing and maiming thousands in medical experiments in concentration camps.

They were the first to be hanged of 25 Germans sentenced to death by United States war-crimes courts at Nuernberg.

Two Black Gallows

All walked firmly to death on two black gallows in the courtyard of the prison where Adolf Hitler wrote "Mein Kampf" while confined there after his Munich putsch 25 years ago.

Four of those hanged were doctors. The court, headed by Judge Walter Beals of the Washington State Supreme Court, which convicted them said they had perverted their science into a murderous practice on helpless living persons.

The other three executed men were SS officers convicted of directing the Nazi "research program."

Some Of Experiments

The experiments described in court included high altitude tests in which human guinea pigs were crushed and strangled. There also were malaria, mustard gas and sterilization tests which killed many—most of them dying in agony.

Gen. Karl Brandt, 43, the top medical officer of the Nazi state, was the first to die. He once boasted:

"There is one German the Americans will never hang."

Speech Cut Short

Brandt made a final speech so long that after he ignored admonitions to cut it short the black hood was thrown over his face in midsentence.

He scorned religious solace, as did the others. The others who died were:

Karl Gebhardt, 50, once president of the German Red Cross, head surgeon of the Elite Guard and personal physician to Heinrich Himmler.

Joachim Murgowsky, 42, chief Elite Guard hygienist.

Wolfram Sievers, SS colonel and director of the Military Research Institute.

Bormann Aide

Victor Brack, SS colonel and chief administrative officer under Martin Bormann.

Waldemar Hoven, chief medical officer at Buchenwald.

Rudolf Brandt, adjutant to Himmler and chief of SS Hygienic Institute.

Defense Likens Farben To du Pont Industry

NUERNBERG, Germany, June 2 —(AP) The defense in the I. G. Farben war crimes case today likened the chemical combine's activities to those of British, American and Italian concerns.

A defense statement presented the all-American court on behalf of Dr. Karl Krauch, one of the 23 Farben directors on trial here, said:

"What I. G. (Farben) did, other countries and other people did the same way.

"Replace I. G. with I. C. I. (Imperial Chemical Industries) for England, du Pont for America and Montecatini for Italy and the similarity will be clear."

The defense statement asked why German scientists were criminals when they worked for Germany and not when they worked for the United States.

Prof. Eduard Wahl, German law expert, told the court:

"The trial here is overshadowed by the Russian ideology and by the Russian fight against the old and revered legal traditions of the civilized world . . ."

Developing his theme, Wahl said a Russian professor, A. N. Trainin, influenced the Western Allies in drawing up the basis for war crimes trials at the international conference in London in 1945.

Jap Is Killed In Marshall Isle Hideout

Pearl Harbor, June 2 (AP)—Marines on Monday shot and killed a Japanese who had been hiding on one of Kwajalein atoll's tiny islands since the American capture of that Marshall Island base in February, 1944. And there may be another, still living, the Navy said.

The Navy announcement said the Japanese was killed after he opened fire on Marines sent to capture him on Hene Island. It is 8 miles from the Navy's operating base at Kwajalein.

Marines were ordered to search for him after a group of Marshallese had tried to land on Hene and had been driven off by rifle fire. Found near the body of the Japanese were his army rifle and a few cartridges. The Navy said there was evidence that another Japanese might also be hiding on the normally uninhabited islet. Marines are continuing the search.

TRADE TREATY DRAWN

Canberra, Australia, June 2 (A. P.).—Australia may scrap her present bilateral trade agreement with Japan for a wider arrangement aimed at a more balanced trade between Japan and the whole sterling area, Prime Minister J. B. Chifley said in a statement today.

He said a plan by which all payments would be made in sterling, effective May 31, had been completed between the British Government and the Allied Supreme Command in Japan.

The new arrangement obviates an interim arrangement agreed upon last September by Japan and all members of the sterling area who wanted to participate.

It covers all government and private transactions, Chifley said.

For the present, however, trade on cotton textiles is excluded. The Supreme Allied power in Japan has reserved the right to require dollar payments for cotton textiles, at least in part, because raw cotton from which textiles are manufactured might have to be supplied from the United States under different credit arrangements, Chifley said.

WASHINGTON, June 2—(AP) The biggest peacetime budget for the Army and Air force in American history sped through the House today and went to the Senate.

Another record peacetime defense money bill—for the Navy—is set for debate tomorrow.

Together the two total $10,196,672,250 for spending during the fiscal year beginning July 1.

The House Appropriations committee today approved both, and the House promptly followed through on one of the bills. It voted 348 to 2 for $6,509,939,000 for the Army and Air Forces.

The Navy bill calls for another $3,686,733,250. Congressmen predict it too, will roll through the House with ease.

Only 2 Opposing Votes

The only two opposing votes today were cast by Reps. Marcantonio and Isacson, both of the American Labor Party, New York.

In another move dealing with defense, the House today approved a compromise bill to accept women as regulars in the armed forces. The hotly debated measure, finally passed 206 to 133, continues the Women's Army Corps (WAC) for one year to provide for a transition from the temporary wartime basis to a permanent peacetime program.

The WAC bill already has passed the Senate and now goes to the White House. It will allow the services to have 18,500 enlisted women and about 1,500 officers in the next two years and up to two per cent of their authorized strengths after that. Those who favored the bill said it will cut down the total number of men that may have to be drafted.

The military budget now being acted on is in addition to about $3,000,000,000 which Congress already has voted the services to buy aircraft.

All told, outright defense costs will soar to around $14,000,000,000 in the coming fiscal year as the U. S. military establishment is built up to back American foreign policy in the "cold war" against communism.

Senate Passage Predicted

After the House acts, the Senate must vote. Congressional leaders have promised these measures will get top priority and predict passage before the planned adjournment June 19.

The $10,196,672,250 funds for the Army, Navy and Air force are $505,000,000 more than the services are spending this year, and more than three times as much as the regular 1941 military budget.

The committee cut 6.1 per cent, or $241,005,450 from the original budget asked for the Navy, and nine per cent, or $647,903,000 from the amount President Truman asked earlier this year for the Army and Air forces.

Many of the cuts, however, were aimed at civilian personnel. And the committee said more money will be provided later if necessary.

The money is to support an Army and Air force of 1,234,500 and a Navy and Marine Corps of 552,000. This [illegible] with a reported Russian military strength of 4,000,000, which Gen. Omar N. Bradley, chief of the army staff, has called "an alarming menace to the security of the United States."

The bill also gives the Navy money to start work on the world's largest ship a 65,000-ton aircraft carrier; one a "killer ship" to combat submarines, two high-speed submarines, and two submarines of "an entirely new character." Russia is believed to have at least 250 submarines.

'Mystery' Subs Not Described

The American Mystery submarines were not described further.

Money already approved—and separate from the current appropriations measures—provides the Air force with funds to start work on what is planned as the world's largest air force.

The Appropriations committee, in sending the money bill to the House floor, also released testimony it had heard during lengthy studies.

For one thing, it revealed that the United States fleet is now in the Mediterranean as a direct warning to Russia not to try to overrun any more free European nations.

Admiral Louis E. Denfeld, chief of naval operations, in testimony to the committee, added that forces now in that area could be augmented quickly if necessary.

"All the ships we have in the forward areas are manned with sufficient men to act in any emergency," he said.

Testimony taken during hearings also revealed that the Army plans to use 272,000 of its men overseas and 518,000 in this country.

The army's mobile striking force in the United States will include three infantry divisions, an armored division, an airborne division, two regiments of armored cavalry, four regimental combat teams, 12 field artillery battalions, 40 anti-aircraft battalions, two chemical mortar battalions and supporting forces.

The 1,234,500 manpower goal for the Army and Air Force is 302,500 more than they expect to have in uniform at the end of June. Broken down by service, this means 790,000 for the Army and 444,500 for the Air Force.

The Army expects to have 540,000 men by July 1, the Air Force 392,000. Peak will be reached one year later.

The number of planes the Air Force expects to have is not mentioned.

Bradley said that if war came, the forces provided in the bill would be "only a plug in the dike until we rallied sufficient and effective reserves."

The Army told the Appropriations committee it plans to induct 30,000 men a month if Congress passes a draft law. This number would be in addition to voluntary enlistments. The Navy said nothing about its draft plans.

SENATE PASSES BILL TO ADMIT 200,000 D.P.'S

Vote Taken After Eleven Hours Of Continuous Debate

JUN 1948

Washington, June 2 (AP)—The Senate, after more than eleven hours of continuous debate, tonight passed legislation to admit to the United States up to 200,000 European war refugees in the two years starting July 1.

The bill, one of three tagged "must" legislation by Senate and House Republican leaders today, now goes to the House. A somewhat similar bill has been approved by the Judiciary Committee there.

The Senate passed the bill after defeating, 50 to 27, a substitute offered by Senator Kem (R., Mo.) which would have cut the two-year admission figure to 140,000 and would have charged them against regular immigration quotas.

Vote Is 63 To 13

The vote was 63 to 13.

The bill the Senate passed is designed to admit war refugees over and above the immigration quotas.

It provides, however, that at least one half the persons admitted must have followed agricultural pursuits and follow that vocation in this country.

It also stipulates that one half of those admitted come from countries which have been annexed by a foreign power—Estonia, Lithuania, Latvia and eastern Poland.

Debate on the measure, which has been in progress intermittently since May 19, cut across party lines.

Discrimination Charged

Shortly before the vote on passage, Senator Pepper (D., Fla.) told the Senate that it "discriminates against the Jews."

He called the provision of the bill requiring that at least 50 per cent of those admitted be farmers "discrimination."

Senator Taft (R., Ohio) opposed the Kem substitute. He said he felt "very strongly" that this country ought to admit at least 200,000 refugees.

The debate was spirited. Senator McGrath (D., R.I.) complained bitterly that there were too many restrictions in the bill. "The mountain has labored and brought forth a mouse," he said.

He expressed hope that the House would pass a less restrictive bill in that case a conference committee would compromise the differences.

Eastland Opposes Bill

Senator Eastland (D., Miss.) also attacked the Senate bill, but for a different reason.

The immigration laws are being destroyed, he shouted. The refugees, technically called displaced persons, are not wanted or needed here, he said. But, he added, manpower is badly needed in wrecked Europe.

"Backers of this bill have flooded the country with propaganda on an unprecedented scale," he said.

Before the final vote, 20 amendments had to be approved or disapproved.

After sharp debate, the senators rejected, 49 to 29, an amendment to broaden the definition of displaced persons. The original definition stands: A displaced person is one who fled into Germany, Austria or Italy on or before December 22, 1945.

Senator Ferguson (R., Mich.) and others wanted to make the deadline April 21, 1947.

Senators Revercomb (R., W.Va.), Eastland (D., Miss.) and Russell (D., Ga.) argued, however, that such a change would make it easier for Communists to enter the United States.

Revercomb said Communists had moved into the displaced persons camps after the end of the war, "waiting the time until they can reach their destination (America) and do their nefarious work."

Senator Smith (R., N.J.) supported the proposed change to 1947. He said that date would recognize, as eligible for admission to the United States, persons who had entered the displaced persons camps because they feared religious or political persecution in their former homes.

Smith told his colleagues that Gen. Lucius M. Clay, governor of the American zone in Germany, suggested the April 21, 1947 date.

Special Committee Rejected

Next, the Senate rejected another proposal by Ferguson which would have concentrated authority over the refugees from their selection to resettlement—in the hands of a special commission. The vote was 50 to 35.

The bill as approved by the Judiciary Committee provides that a commission appointed by the President shall lay down rules with respect to the displaced persons, but that the rules shall be executed by the regular immigration officials.

Revercomb said the amendment would cause "endless confusion," result in greater costs, and ignore experienced Government personnel already trained to handle immigration problems.

An amendment establishing a priority for displaced persons who fought against the Axis was adopted by a voice vote. Senator Brooks (R., Ill.), the author, said it was aimed principally at aiding the Poles who, after the fall of Poland, joined the armies of other allies and now are unable to return to their homes for fear of prosecution.

Army To Call 30,000 A Month If Draft Wins

Washington, June 2 (AP)—Army plans to draft 30,000 men a month if Congress passes a selective service law were disclosed today.

They were made public by the House Appropriations Committee as it sent to the House floor the annual Army-Air Force money bill for the year starting July 1.

The Army told the committee during closed-door hearings on the bill that it had hoped to start inductions around July 1, but might be delayed until September or October.

"We will be prepared to receive 30,000 inductees a month, in addition to the volunteer enlistees," said Maj. Gen. H. R. Bull of the organization and training division.

Goal Of 790,000 By March

"We are going to operate all of our installations to the maximum capacity and, therefore, we would reach our requested strength of 790,000 by March, 1949."

There was no disclosure of navy draft plans.

If war should come, the Army will have a lot of ammunition to get started with.

It told the committee it has on hand 8,500,000 tons of ammunition of various kinds, compared with practically none in 1939; 2,500,000 M-1 (Garand) rifles, and 7,900,000 tons of tanks, trucks, vehicles, guns and other equipment. Some of the equipment is growing obsolete, but most of it can be serviced and used in a pinch.

Swears, But Apologizes

Gen. J. L. Devers, chief of the army field forces, doesn't approve of profanity, although he admits to a little cussing himself.

Asked about efforts to hold down profanity in the Army, the General told the committee he seeks to discourage it. But, he added:

"I swear. I cannot help it some of the time. It just blurts out. I would not be a balanced individual, if I did not, but I do not swear at people. If I do, I apologize."

Cost Of Ration Rises

The high cost of living has hit the Army, too.

The average cost of the daily army ration, quartermaster officers said, was estimated at 79.36 cents last year and 97.96 cents this year.

The Army's 1949 budget estimates include $70,000 for rubber erasers.

Representative Albert J. Engel (R., Mich.) did a bit of quick calculation and came up with the discovery that "that is about two rubber erasers for everybody you are going to have in the Army."

Beer-Can Bug Bombs

Army scientists have hit upon a development which may put the bug-bomb business "in the beer-can industry."

By using low-pressure chemicals instead of high-pressure, they said, the insect-killing bombs now can be housed in ordinary beer cans instead of heavy metal containers. One result is a price reduction from $1.40 to 60 cents a bomb.

All Stars And No Bars

Engel has given up his hunt for an air force second lieutenant in Washington and has decided that things have reached the point "where we have a Mexican army"—all stars and no bars.

The chairman of the Appropriations subcommittee handling army funds complained to army and air force "brass" that there are too many high-ranking officers.

"I have walked the streets of Washington day after day waiting to see that little gold bar on a man's shoulder which used to signify a second lieutenant," Engel moaned.

An army budget officer chimed in with the observation that "I saw one Easter morning."

Engel said he missed that one.

New Look For GI's

If the Army has its way, GI's soon will wear dapper blue dress uniforms when they go visiting.

Officers told the committee the Army wants to retain khaki as "our work uniform," but provide a snazzy blue outfit for social occasions.

Committee members indicated, however, that it may be a long time before any funds are furnished for the "new look."

Navy Denies Charge U.S. Sub Was Bombed By Air Force Flier During Pacific Flight

Happened During 'Russian Scare 2 Months Ago,' Rep. Scott Tells House.

WASHINGTON, June 2—(AP) The Navy denied quickly and emphatically tonight a congressman's charge that an air force flier bombed the U. S. submarine Carp recently, putting 50 sailors in the hospital.

The congressman, Hugh D. Scott, Jr. (R-Pa.), said he got the story from a newspaper editor who had it from a signed statement of a sailor who claimed to be one of the victims.

Scott, told of the Navy's denial, said he acted on information he believed correct. If it didn't happen, he'll be delighted to know it, he said.

Shortly after Scott's statement on the House floor during heated debate on naval appropriations, Navy denials began to fly.

Vice Admiral Arthur W. Radford, vice chief of naval operations, said in reply to reporters:

"This is absolutely not so."

Scott's story to the House was that during the "Russian submarine scare two months ago" an air force pilot on routine flight sighted the Carp, off San Diego, Calif., failed somehow to recognize it, and let go depth bombs. The sub lay on the bottom 12 to 24 hours before it could be lifted, he added.

A fifth of the crew, he later told a reporter, went to the naval hospital at San Diego, presumably suffering from poisonous battery fumes.

He said he had been trying to learn from the Navy about any disciplinary action and the extent of damage to the Carp.

Navy experts said air force planes don't carry depth bombs at present.

Officials recalled that the family of a sailor aboard the Carp had an account from him six weeks ago of being depth-bombed and spending 24 hours under the sea as the oxygen slowly gave out. The Navy checked the story, officials said, and found it just a tall tale. They so informed the parents.

In San Diego, a Navy official denied both the bombing and that any men from the submarine had been hospitalized there.

At San Francisco and Honolulu; Navy officials said the Carp has been in shipyards near San Francisco since April 12 undergoing routine overhaul and is due out July 20.

Scott's statement was made during debate on Navy appropriations. He elaborated to newsmen that the incident of which he spoke was one of "the so-called Russian submarine scare two months ago."

Scott said the plane "laid a pattern of depth-bombs" around the submarine less than 200 miles off San Diego.

He told the house the bombs weer dropped ::by a pilot who did-not know his recognition."

The story, he said, has been kept secret.

Scott said that according to his information, the bomb-battered submarine lay on the bottom 12 to 24 hours before repairs could be made to bring it to the surface.

Scott's statement to the House came after Rep. Hinshaw (R-Calif) spoke critically of the Navy during debate on a proposal to establish an airport at the U. S. Naval academy at Annapolis, Md.

Hinshaw said caustically that it was high time naval cadets learned "something" about aviation.

Scott replied:

"It wouldn't hurt at all if there were a body of men trained in naval aviation so they could tell a submarine when they see one.

"I refer to the recent bombing of the submarine Carp, a Navy submarine, by an air force plane off the West Coast which resulted in the hospitalization of 50 Navy boys."

Later, Scott told reporters:

"The air force plane was flying off the coast on a routine maneuver when the pilot sighted the submarine."

"Either he failed to get a proper recognition signal from the submarine or he failed to recognize it. At any rate, he let his bombs go. The sock sent the sub down in a hurry."

Scott said he has been trying to find out from the Navy department whether any "disciplinary action" has been taken and the extent of the damage to the submarine.

The Pennsylvanian said he had been "sitting on the story" for more than a week, waiting to get more details before disclosing it to the House.

3,169 Mundt Bill Opponents Picket The White House

Washington, June 2 (AP)—The White House today was picketed by 3,169 marchers who are opposed to the Mundt-Nixon Anti-Communist bill and who want civil-rights legislation.

Marching four abreast, the pickets slowly moved the two blocks in front of the White House, and then back again.

Towering over all the others was Paul Robeson, singer, who told the Senate Judiciary Committee last Saturday he would rather go to jail than answer a question as to whether he is a Communist.

Many Wore Wallace Buttons

Many of the marchers wore buttons saying "Henry Wallace for President."

They carried signs reading: "Defeat the Mundt Bill," "Pass the Anti-Lynching Bill, the FEPC and the Anti-Poll Tax Bills," and "Full and Adequate Hearings on Mundt Bill."

Nearly all the signs were carefully lettered, and most of them had a sign compny's name stamped in the lower right-hand corner. Only a few signs—such as the "Brooklyn Consumer and Tenants Council"—were home lettered.

Crowd Marched Orderly

The crowd marched orderly and without incident. They once started to chant "Jim Crow must go," but White House police quickly stopped that because it's against the regulations to chant.

Thereafter many of the marchers put handkerchiefs over their mouths—as a sign that they were being gagged.

The number of marchers—3,169—was supplied by a Secret Service man who counted them.

The demonstrators also held mass meetings and buttonholed members of Congress.

Meanwhile, the leadership of the CIO United Auto Workers, which also opposes the Mundt-Nixon bill, sent a telegram to Capitol Hill accusing Henry Wallace of trying to "provoke" Congress into passing the bill.

Warned Against Being Suckers

Addressed to the Senate Judiciary Committee, the telegram said:

"Don't be suckers for the left hook of Henry Wallace and his Communist collaborators, who seem to be trying to provike you and the Senate into passing the Mundt-Nixon subversive activities control bill.

"Let's keep the Communist party and its front organizations, its stooges and dupes above ground and out of the cracks in the woodwork so that they can be dealt with by facts, reason and existing law under the Constitution, including the Bill of Rights."

It was signed by Emil Mazey, acting president of the union.

Robeson previously had told a news conference that the decision to picket the White House was made because President Truman had refused to see members of their delegation.

Promises But Nothing Happens

Robeson said the President had asked for a civil-rights program, but—

"Since then nothing has been heard from him."

"We've had promises from this party and that party, but nothing ever happens," Robeson said.

Originally two separate groups were organized. One was to argue for civil-rights legislation. The other was to oppose the Mundt-Nixon bill. But they quickly got together once they got here.

Most of the protesters came down on three special trains from New York. But backers of the demonstration said that delegates came from as far South as Mississippi and as far West as Chicago.

The protesters spent most of the day buttonholing congressmen and in mass meetings.

The demonstrators were greeted by Jerry J. O'Connell, former Montana congressman, who is backing Henry A. Wallace for President. O'Connell told them they are "patriotic defenders of our ancient American liberties."

Hearings Are Closed

The protest group was organized after the Senate Judiciary Committee closed out hearings on the Mundt-Nixon bill Monday. O'Connell declared its passage would "wreck the Bill of Rights." The House already has approved it overwhelmingly.

Senator Wiley (R., Wis.), Judiciary Committee chairman, was out of the city, but Senator Ferguson, a member, declared that he himself will not be "pressured" into reopening the hearings. He said if the group wants to, it can give its views in writing to the committee.

The bill, drawn by Representatives Mundt (R., S.D.) and Nixon (R., Cal.), was indorsed by the House Committee on Un-American Activities, of which they are members.

Provides Fines, Prison Terms

It would provide heavy fines and imprisonment for persons advocating the establishment of a foreign-controlled dictatorship in this country. It aslo would require the registration of all Communist party members, would bar them from holding non-elective Federal jobs, and would deny them passports.

Aside from the demonstration, the pressure of pre-adjournment business makes Senate approval of the bill doubtful, in the opinion of some members. Republican leaders have set their sights on a June 19 adjournment, and a mass of other legislation, including the draft and reciprocal trade bills as well as the big appropriation measures, awaits action.

100 Marylanders Among Pickets

Approximately 100 Marylanders were among the 3,169 persons who picketed the White House yesterday, according to Dr. John E. T. Camper, Progressive party candidate from the Fourth district.

Dr. Camper said that about 50 of the Marylanders were Baltimoreans, and the others were from the various counties.

The group converged on Washington in busses and private automobiles.

Dr. Camper said the march convinced him of one thing, namely, "That there will be no civil-rights bill passed this session of Congress."

TWO GROUPS RAP TRADE ACT ACTION

WASHINGTON, June 2. — (AP) Labor and business groups banged away today at the House-adopted one-year extension of the reciprocal trade act.

For the C.I.O., Secretary James B. Carey said the legislation would throw the country back "to the log rolling and tariff bickering of the old days."

For the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, Clem D. Johnston of Roanoke, Va., said the present law should be extended unchanged to June 12, 1951. This is what the administration wants.

They testified before the Senate Finance committee on the bill which would amend the present law to give Congress a veto power over tariff reductions if they exceed limits recommended by the tariff commission.

As it is now, the President can put into force tariff reductions up to 50 per cent without congressional approval. The cuts are negotiated with other countries who agree to make a balancing reduction.

Committee Chairman Millikin (R-Colo) told reporters he would be agreeable to dropping the veto idea if the tariff commission is given "an effective role" in making the tariff treaties.

Other Republican leaders have looked critically at the veto provision. Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich) said he doesn't want it. Senator Taft (R-Ohio) thinks it isn't necessary, but that congress should set some binding rate fixing standards. Vandenberg favors letting the President exceed commission figures, in the national interest, and make it clear he has done so.

U. S. AIDE IS ORDERED HOME FROM GUATEMALA

WASHINGTON, June 2—(AP) The army, acceding to a request by Guatemala, has withdrawn Col. Mark A. Devine as military attache to that country.

The army acknowledged today that Devine has been withdrawn, but gave no details.

Guatemala reportedly complained that Devine was "too friendly" with persons opposed to the present government there. Army sources said Devine already has returned to this country, but he could not belocated for comment.

TRUMAN RENEWS PLEA FOR ACTION ON HOUSING BILL

WASHINGTON, June 2—(AP) President Truman asked Democratic leaders in Congress today for their best efforts to get three programs made into law at this session. They are: housing, reciprocal trade and Federal aid to education.

The President made his plea at an hour-long White House conference with House Democratic Leader Rayburn of Texas; Senator McGrath of Rhode Island, Democratic National chairman; and the two party whips, Senator Lucas of Illinois and Rep. McCormack of Massachusetts.

Rayburn told reporters later that Mr. Truman also discussed—"strictly in a non-partisan way"—some of the things he plans to say in major speeches during the cross-country tour he plans to begin Thursday night.

Of the Taft-Ellender-Wagner long range housing program, which has been passed by the Senate but not by the House, Rayburn said Republican leaders seem "more interested in adjourning than they are in passing legislation."

He referred to the G.O.P. leadership's drive for adjournment by June 19. A reciprocal trade bill is on the Republican list of "must" legislation but housing and aid to education are not. However, the "must" list is tentative and incomplete.

House Democrats launched a drive today to get the housing bill out of the hands of the Banking committee and called up for an early vote.

Rep. Helen Gahagan Douglas (D-Calif.), who filed a petition to "discharge" the committee, said 147 members have signed it. She predicted that the necessary 217—a majority of the House—would sign up.

...enators Accept MacArthur's Stand

...ommittee Makes No Move to Order Return Now

WASHINGTON, June 2 (AP).—...he Senate Appropriations Com...ittee discussed today General ...f the Army Douglas MacArthur's ...ish to remain in Japan for the ...resent and made no new move to ...ecall him.

Senator Stiles Bridges, Republican, of New Hampshire, chairman, told reporters after a closed committee meeting that no one moved to make the group's request of last week an order.

The Senators had asked the supreme allied commander to return to testify on military needs in the Pacific. General MacArthur replied that he prefers not to come back until after the Republican convention starting June 21. He has said he would accept the Presidential nomination, if offered.

Senator Bridges declined to say that the question of recalling the general had been abandoned, but he did say the MacArthur reply "was accepted without any new move on the part of the committee."

State Department Optimistic

WASHINGTON, June 2 (AP).—The State Department said today that the London agreements "seem to offer the prospect of constructive achievement in solving the problems facing us in Germany."

Press officer Michael McDermott issued this statement:

"The department is gratified that agreement has been reached on all points of substance at the London conference on Germany . . .

"The conference results will be submitted as agreed recommendations to the respective governments for their approval. The delegations are putting the finishing touches to their reports to their governments, and it is understood a more complete account will be made shortly.

"Until this information is officially available, the department is unable to add anything further to the London communique except to express the hope that the governments themselves will be able to agree at an early date to the program drawn up at London, which seems to offer the prospect of constructive achievement in solving the problems facing us in Germany."

HOOVER LASHES U. S. SPENDING

WASHINGTON, June 2—(AP) Herbert Hoover said, in effect, today that the American standard of living is threatened by the high cost of government.

"The budget three years after the first World War was about four billion dollars per annum," he said, whereas three years after the second World War it is 40 billion dollars.

"There are insufficient savings left in the hands of the people to repair, maintain and improve the tools of production and distribution upon which our standard of living depends.

"These figures obviously indicate the necessity for important structural changes in the government to secure the maximum efficiency and economy."

The former president made his remarks in a letter to Senator Lodge (R-Mass). Lodge had asked for a progress report on the work of a non-partisan 12-man commission on organization of the executive branch of the government. Hoover heads the commission.

Hoover told how the commision is going about its task, but said that findings should not be made public until after the election.

"Only by keeping our effort entirely removed from the political field will the final report be recognized, as congress intended, as truly non-partisan," he said.

Truman Nominates Huddle

WASHINGTON, June 2 (AP).—President Truman today nominated J. Klahr Huddle, Ambassador to Burma, to be United States representative on the United Nations Security Council's Kashmir Commission.

WASHINGTON, June 2. — (AP) Congressmen irate over Voice of America cracks at their home states were challenged today by a broadcasting official to lay down a policy to prevent such things.

The offending scripts—beamed in Spanish last Winter to Latin America—slipped through because responsibility was split up, Congress was told.

The witness, Charles R. Denny, vice president of the National Broadcasting Company, urged Congres to adopt complete government operation of the programs to end divided responsibility.

Denny testified before a Senate investigating group which seeks ways to forestall such incidents in the future.

NBC broadcast the criticized "Know North America" scrips under contract with the State department. Denny said a language specialist made spot checks on foreign language programs, but because of the volume of the work, he had not read the disputed series.

Anyway, he said, NBC understood that the State department was making a review of its own from scripts furnished it well in advance of broadcast, but he is now advised this was not done.

Denny said "strong centralized control" is needed. NBC is willing to quit international programming and hand over its three 50-kilowatt shortwave stations to the government if our world broadcasting is unified under a government-controlled foundation, he said.

Denny said NBC handled thousands of programs for the Voice and that only six have been found objectionable.

He denied yesterday's testimony by Rene Borgia, who wrote the six scripts, that Borgia wrote as he did under strict orders of NBC officials.

Borgia, fired by NBC some time ago, had said some of his NBC supervisors lacked culture and required him to put "cheap humor" into his programs.

Denny said that NBC officials told Borgia to make his product interesting in a light vein.

NBC Official Urges Government To Take Over 'Voice' Programs

JUN 1948

Voice' Broadcast Described N. E. 'As Yeast of the United States'

WASHINGTON, June 2 — (AP) Voice of America broadcasts to Latin-America, some of which irked members of Congress, describe New England as "x x x the yeast of the United States."

Translations of three scripts in the series produced in Spanish by the National Broadcasting company —one on Boston and two on New England generally—were made public today by the State department.

The first program on New England purportedly is given from a train traveling through the region. A narrator and two unidentified voices tell the story:

VOICE: Is New England important?

NARRATOR: Not important, indispensable, this region is small compared with the rest of the country, but nevertheless New England is the yeast of the United States.

By question, answers and comments the three radio characters weave the story of the first English settlement of New England, going back to the time the Pilgrims left England for Holland and ultimately came to this country.

"Everything gerat that this country has—religion, culture, industry, democratic government, etc.,—had its origin in New England, which was the dominant center of the country till the end of the civil war," the narrator related, "It was then that the country felt of age and liberated itself from the tutelage of the Boston aristocrats."

VOICE: Were they also tyrants?

NARRATOR: On the contrary, they were ultra liberals. It was here the idea of abolition of slavery started and there is nothing strange about that, since these states that we are traversing were the birthplace of Emerson, Thoreau, Ticknow, Edgar Allan Poe, Longfellow, the Russells, Harriet Beecher Stowe, Emily Dickinson and a multitude of prominent men and women x x x."

The narrative brought in the accomplishments of Bostonian Eli Whitney in forming the first labor union, of Paul Revere in forging the first copper plate used on ships.

Said the narrator:

"Today, over the 14,480 square miles of New England there are more than 17,700 factories that manufacture watches, jewels, candy, typewriters, sewing machines, locomotives, airplanes, cosmetics, cannons, and even crucifixes."

The narrator said further that of the 100 most important cities in the United States 35 are in New England.

VOICE: And it seems like they all work.

NARRATOR: Of course, they do; this is truly a beehive.

The voices commented that New England cities appeared different from those in other sections of the country—"here squares, streets, parks, buildings, in other words everything, have the aspect of something completely finished."

The narrator explained this by saying: "It is that New Englanders, although ultra modern, are faithful to their traditions. It is for that reason exactly, that the products of New England are famous all over the world. Here the work is done with the same precision and craftsmanship of 300 years ago, without rush and without too much avariciousness."

The narrator said that despite being the most industrial region of the country New England had no fabulous fortunes, commenting "the capital is very well distributed."

2 Stowaways Face Return to Palestine

Baltimore, June 2 (A. P.).—Two stowaways were detained here yesterday for deportation to Palestine, after Bernard J. Flynn, United States Attorney for Maryland, declined to prosecute.

Jacob Ereza and Chaim Marmor, both 23, entered Baltimore recently on the American steamship Exford, which they boarded at Haifa. Flynn said he decided to return them to the ship when he learned it was their first attempt at illegal entry.

CHURCH URGES RUSSIAN PACT

Northern Presbyterians Want U.S.-Soviet Understanding

Seattle, Wash., June 2 (AP)—Calling for "patience in the face of provocation," Northern Presbyterians today urged the nation's leaders to renew and intensify efforts for an understanding with Russia.

"As a nation, we must be prepared to spend years, if necessary, seeking equitable solutions to the multitude of problems dividing Russia and the Western world," said a resolution adopted at the closing session of the one hundred and sixtieth General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A.

"We must, at all times, maintain an attitude of patience in the face of provocation and attempt to excel Russia in constructive statesmanship, rather than in toughness."

Military Training Opposed

The assembly expressed opposition to compulsory military training and the peacetime draft.

The assembly also went on record in opposition to the Mundt-Nixon bill as a denial of civil rights.

It acted against the bill after the Rev. Dr. Robert Worth Frank, president-elect of McCormick Theological Seminary in Chicago, and chairman of the social legislation committee, asserted:

"We already have sufficient laws which can be used to control subversive and treasonable activities."

The assembly also called on President Truman to withdraw his personal representative from the Vatican.

Negro Elected To Council

A Negro was elected to the General Council of the church for the first time today. The assembly bestowed the recognition on Municipal Judge Herbert E. Millen, of Philadelphia. He will be one of approximately 30 members on the planning and supervisory body. Judge Millen is a long-time practicing attorney and former assistant director of Philadelphia's Department of Public Safety.

The churchmen previously gave their support to a New Mexico court action seeking to bar Catholic teaching orders from New Mexico schools.

WAR BRIDE DEPORTED, CONVICTED IN SLAYING

NEW YORK, June 2 (AP)—Mrs. Bridget Waters, the 27-year-old Irish bride who served 15 months in a Nevada jail in the slaying of her husand, sailed for home today.

"I am happy I am going home," she told newsmen as she was taken from Ellis island for deportation.

The war bride served a portion of a one-to-five-year term for manslaughter. The Las Vegas, Nevada, jury which convicted her recommended deportation.

Her three-year-old son, Frank, Jr., sailed with her.

She parried most questions with "no comment," but said at one point:

"I think it's most unfair to drag the child through this mud."

PRO-AID PRESS SUBSIDY STORY GETS DENIALS

Washington Paper's Report Cited By Rankin Called 'Distortion'

New York, June 2 (AP)—A newspaper report that a "selected few" concerns would share a $15,000,000 press and movie subsidization under the Marshall plan was met tonight with denials or charges of "distortion" from several organizations involved.

Five publications — Newsweek, Time, Life, Readers Digest and the New York Herald-Tribune—denied they were to get subsidies or had asked for them.

There was no immediate comment from the New York Times, also mentioned in the "subsidy" report, published in the Washington Times-Herald.

Paris Edition Mentioned

The Herald Tribune's Paris edition was named in the story as a recipient of the "subsidies."

30.24- 18223

Representative Rankin D.-Miss.), waving a copy of the Times-Herald with a headline "Pro-Marshall Plan Press, Films To Get 15 Millions," shouted on the House floor:

"If this is true, it is certainly an outrage and should be investigated at once."

The Times-Herald story carried the by-line of Willard Edwards of the Chicago Tribune's Washington staff—The Times-Herald receives the Tribune's news service—and claimed the $15,000,000 would be used to "subsidize and boost" foreign circulation of the publications and films. It termed the publications "a selected few . . . which shouted the loudest" for the Marshall plan.

Called "Complete Error"

A Time and Life spokesman termed the story "a complete error." Newsweek put it in the category of "completely distorted and sensational" stories.

The Readers Digest said it now publishes editions in nine of the sixteen Marshall-plan nations and that "all these editions have been and will continue to be financed privately by the Readers Digest."

Edgar Baker, general manager of Time and Life international editions, who issued the statement in their behalf, said "we have not asked and will not ask for any kind of outright government subsidy," but that the Marshall plan included a $15,000,000 appropriation "to encourage publishers to extend their foreign distributions."

"This would be done by having the government purchase from publishers limited amounts of frozen currencies earned from future distribution of their magazines," Baker said.

"Inaccurate, Misleading"

Newsweek said in a prepared statement that "the possibility of freeing small amounts of frozen currency to enable a broader distribution of Newsweek and other publications now in the international field has been suggested by responsible sources in Washington.

The statement added that these reports "apparently . . . are the basis for the completely distorted and sensational stories."

Other recipients of the money, according to the story, would be all movie producers who sold or exhibited films abroad.

The Herald-Tribune said tonight it "seeks no 'subsidy' nor would it accept one." The newspaper characterized the story as "inaccurate and misleading."

The Marshall plan provisions, the Herald-Tribune said, "Provided that up to $15,000,000 could be used to convert 'soft' European dollars to meet the production costs of publishers and of motion picture producers."

Largest Postwar Air Armada Feigns Attack On Selfridge

Detroit, June 2 (AP)—The Strategic Air Command's mightiest attacking force assembled since the war—about 350 planes in a single mass formation—struck at the Selfridge Field air base here today in a powerful mock bombing raid under simulated war conditions.

About 200 big B-29 bombers and their escort of 150 fighters (P-51 Mustangs) smashed at Selfridge Field from an altitude of 25,000 feet, too high to be seen in the haze. But the roar of their engines was audible for miles.

Pilots of the 56th Fighter Group, based at Selfridge, raced from recreation areas, mess halls and even their bunks to defend the area with about 50 jet fighters armed with gun cameras.

Must Await Films

Results of the mammoth mock attack win't be known until the pictures are studied.

The defense fighter squadrons at Selfridge were kept in ignorance of the attack until about an hour and a half before the first big wave swept over the field at 3.06 P.M.

The interceptors contacted the lead force of B-29's about 15 miles west of Goshen, Ind., about 2 P.M. and "worked them over pretty well," pilots told Major Stuart McLeod, public information officer at the field.

From the ground here there was no evidence of the appaling might overhead other than the deafening roar of the engines. Then, as suddenly as they had arrived, the big warbirds turned and zoomed away. Their orders were to return nonstop to their nine bases, scattered from Spokane, Wash., to Tampa, Florida.

3 Bombers Landed

The mass formation was more than double the size of the fleet of 101 big bombers that engaged in a similar practice strike at New York city May 16, 1947.

Today's raiders assembled at 11.45 A.M. over the Fairfax Army Air Base at Kansas City and made the 640-mile run to Selfridge Field together. En route, the mammoth force, carrying a theoretical bomb load of 1,125 tons of explosives, skirted this huge industrial center.

Three of the bombers from the Salina contingent landed at Selfridge Field because they were low on gas.

LONDON, JUNE 2-(AP)-FOREIGN SECRETARY BEVIN SAID TODAY BRITAIN WILL FURNISH HER UTMOST ASSISTANCE TO THE UNITED NATIONS MEDIATOR IN SEEKING "A PEACEFUL ADJUSTMENT OF THE WHOLE SITUATION" IN PALESTINE.

HE EXPRESSED HOPE IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS THAT NEITHER JEWS NOR ARABS WILL RAISE DETAILED CONDITIONS WHICH WOULD PREVENT THE U.N. CEASE FIRE ORDER FROM OPERATING. THE U.N. MEDIATOR IS COUNT FOLKE BERNADOTTE OF SWEDEN.

"WE ARE CONVINCED THERE IS, AMONGST BOTH ARABS AND JEWS, A LARGE MAJORITY OF MODERATE AND PEACEFUL MEN AND WOMEN WHO WOULD WELCOME NOTHING MORE THAN THE PROSPECT OF A LASTING AND JUST PEACE," BEVIN SAID.

JUN 1948

BEVIN REFUSED TO BE DRAWN INTO A DISCUSSION OF WHETHER BRITAIN WILL CONTINUE THE ANNUAL GRANT OF £2,000,000 ($8,000,000) TO FINANCE TRANS-JORDAN'S ARAB LEGION. ASKED IF HE CONSIDERED TRANS-JORDAN'S PARTICIPATION IN THE PALESTINE FIGHTING AN ACT OF AGGRESSION, BEVIN REPLIED:

"CERTAINLY NOT. SHE HAS BEEN INVITED TO GO INTO THE TERRITORY BY HER FELLOW ARABS."

HE SAID HE "UNDERSTOOD" KING ABDULLAH'S FORCES HAVE BEEN OPERATING IN PALESTINE TERRITORY ALLOCATED BY THE UNITED NATIONS TO THE ARABS.

BEVIN SAID BRIG.JOHN CLUBB PASHA, THE BRITON WHO COMMANDS ABDULLAH'S LEGION, HAD RESIGNED FROM THE BRITISH COLONIAL SERVICE MAY 15, THE DAY BRITAIN SURRENDERED THE PALESTINE MANDATE, TO REMAIN IN THE EMPLOY OF THE TRANS-JORDAN GOVERNMENT. HE HAD BEEN LENT TO TRANS-JORDAN BY THE COLONIAL OFFICE'S PALESTINE ADMINISTRATION.

LONDON, JUNE 2-(AP)-BRITISH PACIFIC FLEET UNITS, FIGHTING IN THE OKINAWA AREA IN 1945, FIRED ON THEIR OWN AIRCRAFT WHEN THEY MISTOOK THEM FOR JAPANESE SUICIDE PLANES, AN ADMIRALTY REPORT SAID TODAY.

THE REPORT OF ADM.LORD FRASER, THEN COMMANDER IN CHIEF OF THE BRITISH PACIFIC FLEET, WAS PUBLISHED TODAY AS A SUPPLEMENT TO THE LONDON GAZETTE. IT INCORPORATES A REPORT OF THE OPERATION, IN SUPPORT OF AMERICAN TASK FORCES, BY VICE ADM.H.B.RAWLINGS, THEN SECOND IN COMMAND OF THE FLEET.

RAWLINGS WROTE THAT WHEN A "BOGEY" (UNIDENTIFIED AIRCRAFT) WAS SIGHTED, BRITISH FIGHTERS WERE SENT TO INTERCEPT. SOMETIIMES THE ENEMY PLANES AVOIDED THE FIGHTERS. THEN, LATER, THE FLEET WOULD SIGHT WHAT IT TOOK TO BE THE ENEMY AND "OPENED FIRE, SOMETIMES IT IS REGRETTED, AT FRIENDLY FIGHTERS."

"WITH THE SUICIDE ATTACK AND AS IS INEVITABLE, WITH OUR OWN FIGHTERS PURSUING THE ENEMY RIGHT ONTO THE FLEET'S GUNS, THERE IS ONLY A MATTER OF SECONDS IN WHICH TO ACT," RAWLINGS EXPLAINED.

ROME, JUNE 2-(AP)-PRESIDENT LUIGI EINAUDI TOOK COMMAND OF ITALY'S ARMED FORCES TODAY TO THE ROLL OF THUNDER ON THE LEFT--IN ROMAN TIMES AN OMEN OF GREAT PORTENT.

THE CEREMONY WAS HELD BEFORE AND ON THE ALTAR TO THE FATHERLAND IN THE PIAZZA VENEZIA. THE PIAZZA WAS FILLED WITH ITALIAN ARMY, NAVY AND AVIATION UNITS. THOUSANDS OF ROMANS WATCHED FROM ADJOINING STREETS AND SIDEWALKS.

A BRIGHT SUN SHONE EARLY, BUT JUST AS THE FIRST TRUMPET NOTES OF THE CEREMONY SOUNDED, THE SKIES TO THE LEFT OF THE GIANT WHITE MARBLE MONUMENT DARKENED, THUNDER SOUNDED AND RAIN BEGAN TO FALL.

IT TURNED TO HAIL AS EINAUDI, FRAGILE, 67-YEAR-OLD CHIEF OF STATE, LEANING SLIGHTLY ON A CANE, WALKED BAREHEADED UP THE MARBLE STEPS TO THE TOMB OF ITALY'S UNKNOWN SOLDIER.

AHEAD OF HIM TWO EX-KINGS' ARMORED GUARDSMEN--NOW THE PRESIDENT'S GUARDSMEN--CARRIED A GREAT WREATH. BESIDE HIM WALKED PREMIER ALCIDE DE GASPERI AND OTHER GOVERNMENT LEADERS.

TO THE RIGHT OF THE ALTAR STOOD NEARLY ALL THE DIPLOMATIC CORPS IN ROME; TO THE LEFT MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT AND OF THE GOVERNMENT.

THE CANNON ON GIANICULUM HILL--ONCE ROME'S NOONDAY GUN--BEGAN A SLOW SALUTE FOR THE SECOND TIME SINCE THE WAR. THE FIRST TIME WAS WHEN EINAUDI WAS INSTALLED LAST MONTH. THE RAIN STILL FELL.

THE CEREMONY CONTINUED WITH PRESENTATION OF 10 GOLD MEDALS FOR VALOR, ALL POSTHUMOUS, AND THE MILITARY CROSS OF ITALY. SOME DEPUTIES EXPRESSED CONCERN FOR EINAUDI. A TENTATIVE MOVEMENT WAS MADE TO PASS HIM A HAT, BUT HE REMAINED BAREHEADED.

IN THE DIPLOMATIC CORPS WERE ONLY THREE UMBRELLAS, ONE COVERING RUSSIAN REPRESENTATIVES. UNITED STATES AMBASSADOR JAMES C.DUNN STOOD WITHOUT PROTECTION.

COMMUNIST LEADER PALMIRO TOGLIATTI AND SOME FOLLOWERS APPEARED AS THE CEREMONY NEARED A CLOSE.

TANKS--SOME OF THEM SHERMANS--, ARMORED CARS, FIELD CANNON AND MOTOR EQUIPMENT FLANKED THE PIAZZA. OVERHEAD 17 LIGHT BOMBERS DRONED AND 36 FIGHTERS FOLLOWED.

SEOUL, JUNE 2-(AP)-OCCUPIED KOREA APPARENTLY IS GOING TO HAVE TWO CIVIL GOVERNMENTS---NORTH AND SOUTH.

A BROADCAST BY THE RUSSIAN-CONTROLLED RADIO AT PYONGYANG, SOVIET OCCUPATION HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH KOREA, TOLD TODAY ABOUT A PROPOSED CONSTITUTION FOR THE "KOREAN DEMOCRATIC PEOPLES' REPUBLIC."

THE ANNOUNCEMENT CAME AS THE SOUTH KOREA NATIONAL ASSEMBLY, ELECTED RECENTLY UNDER UNITED NATIONS SPONSORSHIP, CONTINUED PRELIMINARY STEPS TOWARD ESTABLISHMENT OF AN INDEPENDENT GOVERNMENT IN THE U. S. OCCUPATION ZONE.

THE NORTH KOREAN BROADCAST DIRECTED ATTENTION TO AN ARTICLE OF THE CONSTITUTION WHICH PROVIDES THAT ALL RESIDENTS OVER 20 --- EXCEPT PRO-JAPANESE --- CAN VOTE OR RUN FOR OFFICE. ALTHOUGH THUS HINTING AT AN ELECTION, IT GAVE NO INDICATION OF PLANS FOR ONE.

"SUCH A DEMOCRATIC ELECTION," THE BROADCAST CONTINUED, "CAN NEVER BE CARRIED OUT IN SOUTH KOREA WHERE AMERICAN IMPERIALISTS AND REACTIONARY ELEMENTS EXCLUSIVELY CONTROL ALL POLITICAL POWER."

THE ASSEMBLY IN SOUTH KOREA WAS ELECTED MAY 10. ABOUT 90 PER CENT OF THE ELIGIBLE VOTERS---.BALLOTING FOR THE FIRST TIME IN KOREAN HISTORY--PARTICIPATED DESPITE WIDESPREAD COMMUNIST VIOLENCE. THE RUSSIANS WOULDN'T PERMIT THE UN TO CONDUCT THE ELECTION IN NORTH KOREA.

FIRST LEAD PALESTINE
BY ROBERT HEWETT

CAIRO, JUNE 2-(AP)-ARAB NATIONS INFORMED THE UNITED NATIONS TODAY THAT ANY TRUCE WHICH DOES NOT PROVIDE FOR A UNIFIED PALESTINE HAS NO CHANCE OF SUCCESS.

THE DETAILED REPLY WAS AN ACCEPTANCE OF THE FOUR-WEEK ARMISTICE ASKED BY THE U.N., BUT IT LEFT THE TIME OF THE CEASE FIRE TO BE DECIDED.

WHILE THE ARABS AND JEWS DEBATED THE SCOPE OF THE TRUCE BOTH ACCEPTED YESTERDAY, GUNPLAY CONTINUED IN THE HOLY LAND. WHETHER ISRAEL'S STATEMENT OF "ASSUMPTIONS" REGARDING THE FOUR-WEEK ARMISTICE AND THE ARAB NATIONS' REPLY WOULD BRING AN EFFECTIVE ARMISTICE COULD NOT BE SAID.

THE TRANS-JORDAN ARAB LEGION REPULSED JEWISH ATTACKS ON THREE GATES OF THE OLD WALLED CITY OF JERUSALEM BEFORE 3 A.M., PALESTINE TIME WHICH ISRAEL HAD SET FOR A CEASE FIRE. (THIS WAS 6 P.M. TUESDAY EASTERN STANDARD TIME). MILITARY HEADQUARTERS AT TEL AVIV ASSERTED THAT EGYPTIAN ARMED FORCES BROKE THAT CEASE FIRE TWICE IN ACTIONS BELOW TEL AVIV.

THE EGYPTIAN FOREIGN MINISTRY ISSUED THE TEXT OF THE REPLY OF THE SEVEN ARAB COUNTRIES TO THE U.N.'S PLEA FOR A FOUR WEEKS ARMISTICE. IT LEFT THE TIME OF THE CEASE FIRE TO BE DECIDED AND SAID:

1--ANY SOLUTION WHICH DOES NOT MAINTAIN PALESTINE'S POLITICAL UNITY WILL HAVE NO CHANCE OF SUCCESS.

2--CONTINUED JEWISH IMMIGRATION INTO THE HOLY LAND WOULD CONSTITUTE THE GRAVEST THREAT TO ARAB COUNTRIES.

3--ARAB STATES SHOULD BE ALLOWED TO COOPERATE WITH THE U.N. MEDIATOR, COUNT FOLKE BERNADOTTE, AND THE TRUCE COMMISSION TO SUPERVISE COMPLIANCE WITH CONDITIONS OF THE CEASE FIRE.

THE ARAB REPLY DID NOT MAKE CLEAR WHETHER THE ARAB ACCEPTANCE OF THE ARMISTICE IS CONDITIONAL ON THE SECURITY COUNCIL AGREEING WITH THESE "EXPLANATIONS."

THE ARAB LEGION WHICH CAPTURED OLD WALLED JERUSALEM LAST WEEK SAID 600 JEWS ATTACKED THE ZION, JAFFA AND NEW GATES OF THE OLD CITY BETWEEN 1 AND 3 A.M. ARAB MARKSMEN REPULSED THE ATTACKS AND ESTIMATED THEY KILLED 20 JEWS. THE LEGION COMMANDER SAID A JEWISH PLANE WAS HEARD BUT THAT IT STAYED OUT OF RANGE OF ANTI-AIRCRAFT GUNS.

ARTILLERY, MORTAR AND AUTOMATIC WEAPONS FIRE SOUNDED THROUGH JERUSALEM AFTER SUNUP. THE ARAB LEGION COMMANDER SAID HE WAS CONSIDERING GOING AHEAD WITH A PREVIOUS PLAN TO SHELL THE JEWISH AGENCY BUILDING IN MODERN JERUSALEM.

JUN 1948

AL ASSAS, A NEWSPAPER SUPPORTING THE EGYPTIAN GOVERNMENT, SAID EGYPTIAN ARTILLERY WAS THROWING 25-POUND SHELLS THIS MORNING AT REHOVOT, 12 MILES SOUTHEAST OF TEL AVIV. JEWISH ARMY HEADQUARTERS ALSO REPORTED THE EGYPTIAN ATTACK.

THE JEWS SAID THE EGYPTIANS BROKE A CEASE FIRE ORDER.

AN UNOFFICIAL REPORT REACHING AMMAN, TRANS-JORDAN, SAID JEWISH ARMORED CARS WITH MORTARS PENETRATED EIGHT MILES INTO THAT ARAB COUNTRY EARLY TODAY AND KILLED EIGHT OF A GARRISON OF 15 POLICEMEN AT GHORES SAFI. THE SITE IS NEAR THE SOUTHERN END OF THE DEAD SEA. THE REPORT SAID SURVIVING POLICE STILL WERE RESISTING THE ATTACK AT MID-MORNING.

AN AMMAN COMMUNIQUE BOOSTED THE REPORTED DEATH TOLL OF JEWS IN THE JERUSALEM FIGHT FROM 20 TO 80. IT SAID ALSO THAT ARAB LEGION GUNS HAD KILLED 100 JEWS IN REPULSING ATTACKS IN ROMEMA AND GIVAT SHAUL.

A JEWISH SPOKESMAN IN JERUSALEM CLAIMED ISRAELI HAD CAPTURED A THIRD OF ARABIC PALESTINE AND HELD ALL ISRAEL TERRITORY EXCEPT A TWO-MILE WEDGE ON THE NORTHERN COAST. THE SPOKESMAN DISREGARDED A TEL AVIV COMMUNIQUE OF YESTERDAY WHICH REPORTED AN EGYPTIAN SPEARHEAD AT YIBNA, A HIGHWAY CENTER SEVEN MILES INSIDE ISRAEL AND 15 MILES SOUTH OF TEL AVIV. HE ESTIMATED JEWISH FORCES AND AUXILIARIES AT 90,000 AND SAID "WE FRANKLY DOUBT THE ARABS CAN MATCH THIS."

THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL AT LAKE SUCCESS HOPED BY NIGHT TO SET AN HOUR FOR THE FIGHTING TO CEASE. THE CEASE FIRE WAS INEFFECTIVE IN JERUSALEM, MILITARY SPOKESMEN AT TEL AVIV SAID THE ARABS WERE SHOOTING ON THE NORTHERN AND SOUTHERN FRONTS OF PALESTINE.

KING ABDULLAH OF TRANS-JORDAN, LEADER OF ALL ARAB ARMIES IN PALESTINE EXCEPT THE EGYPTIANS, SAID IN HIS CAPITAL THAT THE ARAB LEAGUE ACCEPTANCE OF THE CEASE FIRE WAS ITS GREATEST MOVE. HE DECLARED, HOWEVER, THE ARABS WILL "NEVER UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES ACCEPT A JEWISH STATE."

TEL AVIV MILITARY HEADQUARTERS REPORTED EGYPTIAN TROOPS, ARTILLERY AND PLANES HIT TWO PLACES THIS MORNING.

NEGBA WAS ATTACKED AND HULDA BOMBED, THE ANNOUNCEMENT SAID. THE LATTER IS NEAR THE SOUTHERN BOUNDARY CLAIMED BY ISRAEL, THE FORMER SOME SEVEN MILES SOUTH OF THAT BOUNDARY.

BOTH ARABS AND JEWS AGREED YESTERDAY TO A FOUR-WEEK UNITED NATIONS TRUCE IN THE HOLY LAND.

THE JEWS ALSO SAID THEY ORDERED THEIR FORCES TO CEASE FIRE AT 3 A. M., TEL AVIV TIME, TODAY--6 P. M., (EST), YESTERDAY.

THE ARABS DID NOT ANNOUNCE ANY CEASE FIRE ORDER BUT ISRAELI FOREIGN MINISTER MOSHE SHERTOK TOLD A TEL AVIV NEWS CONFERENCE THE JEWS WOULD RESUME FIRE UNLESS ARAB FORCES STOPPED SHOOTING.

THE JEWISH CEASE FIRE ORDER WAS TIMED TO TAKE EFFECT WITH THE DEADLINE SET BY THE U. N. SECURITY COUNCIL FOR REPLIES TO ITS ARMISTICE PLEA.

WHETHER THE SECURITY COUNCIL ALSO INTENDED THAT SHOOTING SHOULD STOP AT THAT TIME WAS NOT CLEAR. ONE U. N. OFFICIAL SAID THE HOUR FOR A CEASE FIRE STILL IS TO BE SET.

BOTH SIDES ATTACHED STRINGS TO THEIR ACCEPTANCES OF THE COUNCIL'S PLEA. THESE THREATENED TO COMPLICATE THE TASK OF MAINTAINING AN ARMISTICE.

THE SEVEN-NATION ARAB LEAGUE AND THE ISRAEL GOVERNMENT HANDED THESE ACCEPTANCES TO U. N. SECRETARY-GENERAL TRYGVE LIE IN LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., SHORTLY BEFORE THE DEADLINE.

SHERTOK SAID THE ISRAELI CEASE-FIRE WAS BASED ON FIVE ASSUMPTIONS OF THE MEANING OF THE U. N. APPEAL. ONE ASSUMPTION WAS THAT FREE IMMIGRATION INTO ISRAEL WOULD BE ALLOWED DURING THE TRUCE.

EGYPTIAN PRIME MINISTER MAHMOUD FAHMY NOKRASHY PASHA SAID IN CAIRO LAST NIGHT, "I BELIEVE SUCH A CONDITION CAN NOT BE ACCEPTED."

HE MADE THIS STATEMENT IN TALKING ABOUT A UNANIMOUS DECISION OF THE ARAB LEAGUE POLITICAL COMMITTEE TO ACCEPT THE U. N. PEACE PLAN. OF THE LEAGUE COUNTRIES, EGYPT, TRANS-JORDAN, IRAQI, SYRIA AND LEBANON HAVE SENT TROOPS INTO PALESTINE.

THE POLITICAL COMMITTEE, WHICH HAS BEEN MEETING IN AMMAN, TRANS-JORDAN, MENTIONED NO CONDITIONS IN ITS NOTE TO THE U.N. BUT PROMISED A "DETAILED REPLY" LATER--PRESUMABLY TODAY.

AN ISRAELI ANNOUNCEMENT SAID:

"THE READINESS OF THE PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT OF ISRAEL TO COOPERATE IN EXECUTION OF THE CEASE FIRE X X X IS BASED ON THE FOLLOWING ASSUMPTIONS, WHICH IN ITS OPINION ARE IMPLIED IN THE TERMS OF THE RESOLUTION:

"(1) THAT THE BAN ON IMPORT OF ARMS INTO THE TERRITORIES OF THE ARAB STATES ENUMERATED IN THE RESOLUTION SHOULD APPLY ALSO TO DELIVERIES OF ARMS FROM STOCKS OWNED OR CONTROLLED BY FOREIGN POWERS WITHIN THOSE TERRITORIES.

"(2) THAT DURING THE CEASE FIRE THE ARMED FORCES OF NEITHER SIDE WILL SEEK TO ADVANCE BEYOND THE AREAS CONTROLLED BY THEM AT THE COMMENCEMENT OF THE CEASE FIRE. X X X

"(3) THAT FREEDOM OF ACCESS TO JERUSALEM BE ENSURED FOR THE SUPPLY OF FOOD AND OTHER ESSENTIALS AS WELL AS FOR NORMAL CIVILIAN ENTRY AND EXIT.

"(4) THAT ANY ATTEMPT X X X TO STOP OR IMPEDE NORMAL TRANSPORT OF GOODS CONSIGNED TO ISRAEL AND THE OTHER STATES CONCERNED WILL BE REGARDED AS AN ACT OF ARMED FORCE.

"(5) THAT WHILE THE PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT IS READY TO COMPLY WITH THE INJUNCTION THAT PERSONS OF MILITARY AGE ADMITTED INTO THE COUNTRY DURING THE CEASE FIRE SHOULD NOT BE MOBILIZED OR SUBMITTED TO MILITARY TRAINING, ITS FREEDOM TO ADMIT IMMIGRANTS REGARDLESS OF AGE WILL NOT BE IMPAIRED."

ON THE DAY THE AGREEMENTS CAME, ISRAEL MADE ITS FIRST AIR RAID ON AMMAN, TRANS-JORDAN CAPITAL AND CENTER OF ARAB MILITARY PLANNING, AND FOUGHT WITH THE EGYPTIANS ONLY ABOUT 14 MILES FROM TEL AVIV.

THE CAIRO NEWSPAPER AL ASSAS SAID THE EGYPTIAN ARMY YESTERDAY NOON STARTED SHELLING REHOVOT, 12 MILES SOUTHEAST OF TEL AVIV. THE BRITISH-CONTROLLED NEAR EAST RADIO ALSO REPORTED AN EGYPTIAN ATTACK THERE.

A TEL AVIV DISPATCH SAID A BATTLE HAD DEVELOPED NEAR YIBNA, 14 MILES SOUTHEAST OF THE ISRAELI CAPITAL AND ABOUT FIVE MILES SOUTHWEST OF REHOVOT.

BOTH REHOVOT AND YIBNA ARE WITHIN THE BOUNDARIES ISRAEL CLAIMS UNDER THE U. N. PARTITION PLAN.

IN JERUSALEM, THE TRANS-JORDAN ARAB LEGION AND IRAQI FORCES WERE BESIEGING 80,000 TO 90,000 JEWS IN THE NEW CITY. WITHIN 15 MILES TO THE WEST, JEWISH FIGHTERS STROVE TO BREAK THROUGH AT LATRUN AND BAB EL WAD GORGE SO AS TO OPEN THE ROAD FROM TEL AVIV.

JAMES M.LONG OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORTED FROM TEL AVIV THAT THE JEWS APPARENTLY HAD DECIDED TO FIGHT FOR JERUSALEM AT ANY COST OF STRATEGIC DISADVANTAGE.

THE CAIRO COMMUNIQUE SAID EGYPTIAN LIGHT AND HEAVY BOMBERS DROPPED BOMBS ON TEL AVIV IN "MANY CONCENTRATED RAIDS" YESTERDAY, CAUSING EXPLOSIONS IN A STEEL WORKS.

JT423AED

Cairo and London

THE ISRAELI ATTACKERS APPARENTLY CAME FROM A SETTLEMENT INSIDE THE HOLY LAND. THEY SWOOPED AROUND THE SOUTHERN END OF THE DEAD SEA YESTERDAY HITTING A TRANS-JORDAN POLICE POST NEAR GHOR ES SAFI. THE POST SUBSEQUENTLY REPORTED THAT TWO MEMBERS OF ITS FIVE-MAN GARRISON WERE KILLED AND THE OTHER THREE WOUNDED.

A13

BEFORE NIGHTFALL THE LIGHT ARMORED CARS OF THE JEWISH COLUMN REACHED EL KERAK, ANCIENT CAPITAL OF THE LAND OF MOAB. THE ISRAELI ASSAULT BEGAN AT ONCE AND CONTINUED UNTIL PAST NOON TODAY.

THEN LEGION REINFORCEMENTS AND ARAB PLANES BEAT BACK THE ISRAELI SOLDIERS. THE JEWS WERE REPORTED IN A HEADLONG RETREAT TOWARD HEBREW SETTLEMENTS IN THE VICINITY OF THE SITE OF THE ANCIENT CITY OF SODOM. THE LEGION CLAIMED IT HAD NO CASUALTIES IN THE EL KERAK FIGHTING.

TRANS-JORDAN OFFICERS SAID THE JEWISH RAID WAS A "PRESTIGE ADVENTURE." THEY SAID THE JEWS HOPED POSSIBLY TO GET TEMPORARY CONTROL OF A PIECE OF TRANS-JORDAN TERRITORY FOR BARGAINING PURPOSES AFTER THE CEASE-FIRE BECOMES EFFECTIVE.

THE ISRAELI GROUND MOVE CAME ONLY A FEW HOURS AFTER ISRAELI AIR FORCES RAIDED AMMAN, THE CAPITAL OF TRANS-JORDAN, YESTERDAY. THE TRANS-JORDAN LEGATION IN CAIRO SAID BOMBS DROPPED BY JEWISH PLANES FELL IN A SQUARE BEFORE KING ABDULLAH'S PALACE.

ADVICES FROM JERUSALEM TOLD OF CONTINUED SHELLING THERE. ONE DISPATCH SAID THE FIGHTING MAY CONTINUE UNTIL THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL TAKES FURTHER ACTION OR UNTIL THE JEWS AND ARABS AGREE ON CONDITIONS THROUGH THE U.N. MEDIATOR, COUNT FOLKE BERNADOTTE.

A SERIOUS OF ARAB "EXPLANATIONS" AND JEWISH "ASSUMPTIONS" ATTACHED TO THEIR ACCEPTANCES OF THE U.N. CEASE-FIRE PLAN SHOWED THEY WERE FAR APART.

THE ARABS SAID ANY SOLUTION OTHER THAN A UNIFIED PALESTINE COULD NOT BE A SUCCESS. KING ABDULLAH OF TRANSJORDAN DECLARED AT AMMAN "WE WILL NEVER UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES ACCEPT A JEWISH STATE."

THE ARABS SAID "IT IS NOT POSSIBLE" THAT THE U.N. WOULD PERMIT THE ZIONISTS TO CONTINUE IMMIGRATIONS DURING THE FOUR-WEEK TRUCE PERIOD, AND SAID THE WOULD-BE IMMIGRANTS WERE "TRAINED FIGHTERS." IT SAID THE ARAB COUNTRIES SHOULD BE GIVEN A PART IN SUPERVISING THE TRUCE.

THE ARABS SAID NOTHING ABOUT THE JEWISH ASSUMPTION THAT ISRAELI WOULD BE ALLOWED TO CONTINUE IMPORTS, AND THAT NORMAL TRANSPORT AND CIVILIAN TRAFFIC INTO AND OUT OF JERUSALEM WOULD BE PERMITTED.

EIGHT ARAB VIOLATIONS OF THE CEASE-FIRE IN JERUSALEM ALONE WERE LISTED BY THE JEWS. ISRAELI MILITARY HEADQUARTERS IN TEL AVIV SAID EGYPTIAN FORCES BROKE THE CEASE-FIRE TWICE IN ACTIONS BELOW TEL AVIV.

A14

THE SECURITY COUNCIL HAD SET 3 A.M., PALESTINE TIME, TODAY AS THE DEADLINE FOR REPLIES TO ITS ARMISTICE PLEA.

SHORTLY BEFORE 3 A.M. JEWISH FIGHTERS LAUNCHED ATTACKS AGAINST THE ZION, JAFFA AND NEW GATES OF JERUSALEM'S OLD WALLED CITY. APPARENTLY THEY WERE TRYING TO REGAIN A FOOTHOLD IN THAT AREA BEFORE HOSTILITIES CEASED.

KING ABDULLAH'S LEGIONNAIRES BEAT OFF THE ATTACKS AND SAID THEY KILLED 80 OF THE 600 JEWS WHO CAME AT THEM IN THREE COLUMNS.

A LARGE HOME-MADE JEWISH BOMB WAS CATAPULTED OVER THE WALLS IN MIDAFTERNOON AND EXPLODED HARMLESSLY IN A STREET BESIDE THE AUSTRIAN HOSPICE, A DISPATCH FROM THE OLD CITY SAID.

MORTAR SHELLS DROPPED ON BOTH SIDES OF THE WALLS. OCCASIONALLY SNIPERS' BULLETS ZINGED THROUGH THE STONE STREETS.

ARAB ARTILLERY STOPPED POUNDING THE FORTRESS-LIKE WALLS OF HEBREW UNIVERSITY ATOP MOUNT SCOPUS. THEN THE GUNNERS TURNED THEIR WEAPONS TOWARD JEWISH-HELD MOUNT ZION. THE ARAB COMMANDER SAID HE WAS ONLY ANSWERING JEWISH FIRE.

IRGUN ZVAI LEUMI, FORMER JEWISH UNDERGROUND GROUP, SAID LAST NIGHT THAT JEWISH FIGHTERS HAD BLOWN UP THE BIG TRAPPIST MONASTERY AT LATRUN, 14 MILES WEST OF JERUSALEM. THE ARABS WERE USING THE MONASTERY AS A STRONG POINT IN THEIR BLOCKADE OF THE JERUSALEM--TEL AVIV HIGHWAY, IRGUN SAID.

AN AMMAN COMMUNIQUE ISSUED TODAY SAID: "JEWISH FORCES WERE AGGRESSIVE IN ROMEMA AND GIVAT SHAUL. ARAB ARTILLERY IMMEDIATELY MOPPED UP THE AGGRESSION, SCATTERING THE FORCES AND KILLING 100 JEWS."

INSIDE THE OLD CITY IN JERUSALEM, JUNE 2-(AP)-ARAB AND JEWISH GUNS CHATTERED THROUGHOUT THE DAYLIGHT HOURS IN JERUSALEM TODAY AND THE ARAB LEGION'S COMMANDER SAID HE RECEIVED NO ORDERS TO STOP SHOOTING. THE COMMANDER SAID HE WAS "ONLY ANSWERING JEWISH FIRE."

IN THE EARLY HOURS IN DARKNESS, ARAB MARKSMEN BEAT OFF THREE JEWISH ATTACKS AGAINST THREE GATES TO THE OLD CITY, KILLING 80 JEWS, THE LEGION SAID. THE ATTACK WAS LAUNCHED BY PALMACH SHOCK TROOPS OF HAGANAH, THE JEWISH ARMY.

A LARGE HOME-MADE BOMB WAS CATAPULTED OVER THE WALLS BY JEWS IN MID-AFTERNOON, BUT IT EXPLODED HARMLESSLY IN THE STREET BESIDE THE AUSTRIAN HOSPICE. MORTAR SHELLS POPPED ON BOTH SIDES OF THE WALLS, AND SNIPERS' BULLETS ZINGED OCCASIONALLY THROUGH THE STREETS.

ARAB ARTILLERY STOPPED POUNDING THE WALLS OF THE HEBREW UNIVERSITY ON MOUNT SCOPUS AND TURNED TOWARD JEWISH-HELD MOUNT ZION.

SPORADIC ARTILLERY, MORTAR AND AUTOMATIC WEAPONS FIRE WERE HEARD IN JERUSALEM AT 8 A.M. AS BOTH JEWS AND ARABS AWAITED WORD OF THE EXACT TIME A GENERAL CEASE-FIRE IS SUPPOSED TO GO INTO FORCE.

A JEWISH TRIPLE-COLUMNED ASSAULT ON THE LEGION-HELD OLD CITY WAS IN PROGRESS WHEN THE LEGION COMMANDER REPORTED RECEIPT OF A MESSAGE FROM HIGHER HEADQUARTERS, AT 2 A.M., TO BE READY FOR A CEASE FIRE ORDER, THE DEADLINE TO BE COMMUNICATED TO HIM LATER.

(IN TEL AVIV, THE ISRAELI GOVERNMENT EARLIER ANNOUNCED THAT IT HAD ISSUED A CEASE FIRE TO ITS FORCES, TO BE EFFECTIVE AT 3 A.M. PALESTINE TIME, IF THE ARABS STOPPED SHOOTING TOO. LATER, THE JEWISH COMMAND IN TEL AVIV REPORTED THAT EGYPTIAN FORCES HAD ATTACKED AT TWO PLACES THIS MORNING, AFTER 3 A.M.)

THE LEGION COMMANDER ESTIMATED 600 JEWS WERE THEN ATTACKING THE THREE GATES. A JEWISH PLANE WAS HEARD, THE ARABS SAID, BUT THEY ADDED IT DID NOT COME INTO RANGE OF LEGION ANTI-AIRCRAFT.

AFTER DAYLIGHT THE LEGION COMMANDER SAID HE STILL WAS UNINFORMED AS TO THE TIME FOR SUSPENSION OF HOSTILITIES AND SAID HE WAS CONSIDERING GOING AHEAD WITH A PREVIOUXV

LEUIPEIJEWIFM AGENCYH CVVDV

AS TO THE TIME FOR SUSPENSION OF HOSTILITIES AND SAID HE WAS CONSIDERING GOING AHEAD WITH A PREVIOUS PLAN TO SHELL THE JEWISH AGENCY BUILDING, OUTSIDE THE WALLS.

WHENEVER THE ACTUAL CEASE-FIRE ORDER IS RECEIVED, THE COMMANDER SAID, "I NEED ONLY 10 MINUTES TO SILENCE ALL MY ARMS."

THE JEWISH AGENCY BUILDING IS A WALLED STRUCTURE RESEMBLING A FORTRESS. IT IS LOCATED ON KING GEORGE AVENUE VIRTUALLY WITHIN MORTAR RANGE OF THE LEGION POSTS AT JAFFA GATE.

THE LEGION COMMANDER SAID DR. MORDECAI WEINGARTEN, CHIEF RABBI AND COMMUNITY PRESIDENT OF THE OLD-CITY JEWISH QUARTER, HAS BEEN SENT WITH HIS FAMILY, BY HIS OWN REQUEST, TO AMMAN FOR SAFETY. THE COMMANDER SAID DR. WEINGARTEN EXPRESSED FEAR HE AND HIS WIFE AND TWO CHILDREN MIGHT BE HARMED BY ZIONIST EXTREMISTS IF THEY WERE DELIVERED TO THE JEWISH LINES AS THE LEGION HAD PROMISED TO DO FOR THEM. THE 57-YEAR-OLD RABBI REPORTED HIS LIFE WAS THREATENED BY ARMED JEWS WHEN HE TRIED TO SAVE THE OLD JEWISH QUARTER FROM DESTRUCTION BY NEGOTIATING A SURRENDER.

AMMAN, TRANS-JORDAN, JUNE 2-(AP)-KING ABDULLAH BEAMED TODAY AND SAID THE ARAB LEAGUE ACCEPTANCE OF THE CEASE FIRE IN PALESTINE WAS THE WISEST DECISION IN THE LEAGUE'S HISTORY.

"BUT WE WILL NEVER UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCE ACCEPT A JEWISH STATE," HE SAID IN AN INTERVIEW.

A COLUMN OF MOTORIZED IRAQI INFANTRY STREAMED THROUGH AMMAN TO THE CHEERS OF THOUSANDS OF ABDULLAH'S SUBJECTS. THE KING COMMANDS HIS OWN TROOPS AND THOSE OF IRAQ, SYRIA, YEMEN AND LEBANON IN THE PALESTINE ISSUE.

"LAST WEEK, WHEN THE MILITARY SITUATION WAS LESS FAVORABLE FOR THE ARAB STATES, THEY DID NOT ACCEPT A TRUCE," ABDULLAH SAID. "IT WAS NOT BECAUSE THEY DID NOT WISH PEACE, BUT BECAUSE THE TRUCE PROPOSAL WAS AIMLESS AND CONFUSED. NOW THEY HAVE ACCEPTED THE CEASE FIRE, ALTHOUGH THEIR MILITARY PROSPECTS HAVE GREATLY IMPROVED.

"THE REASON IS THAT THERE IS ONE MAN--COUNT BERNADOTTE--WHO IS TRYING TO BRING TO SOLVE THE PALESTINE PROBLEM ON A BASIS OF JUSTICE. WE WILL BE PATIENT AND HELP COUNT BERNADOTTE'S MISSION. BUT WE WILL NEVER UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES ACCEPT A JEWISH STATE. WE STAND ON OUR PREVIOUS DECISION TO GIVE THE JEWS ALL THE RIGHTS OF CITIZENS IN A UNITED ARAB STATE OF PALESTINE."

BERNADOTTE IS THE UNITED NATIONS MEDIATOR FOR PALESTINE. HE CALLED ON ABDULLAH YESTERDAY WHILE MEN OF THE SEVEN WARRING ARAB STATES DRAFTED THEIR REPLY TO THE U.N. APPEAL FOR AN ARMISTICE.

"IF COUNT BERNADOTTE'S EFFORTS FAIL AND WE MUST GO TO WAR AGAIN, NEIGHTER THE UNITED NATIONS NOR ANY INDIVIDUAL POWER IN THE WORLD COULD HAVE THE SLIGHTEST CAUSE TO INTERFERE OR DEMAND THAT THE ARABS CEASE THEIR FIGHT FOR PEACE AND UNITY OF PALESTINE," ABDULLAH SAID.

TEL AVIV, ISRAEL, TUESDAY, JUNE 1-(AP)-IRGUN ZVAI LEUMI BROADCAST TONIGHT A REPORT THAT JEWS PENETRATED AND BLEW UP A BIG TRAPPIST MONASTERY AT LATRUN.

IRGUN, AN ARM OF THE ISRAELI FIGHTING FORCE, SAID THE MONASTERY--HOME OF MONKS PLEDGED NEVER TO SPEAK--WAS A STRONGPOINT WHICH THE ARABS HAD SEIZED AND WERE USING AS A MAIN BLOCK ON THE BITTERLY CONTESTED TEL AVIV-JERUSALEM ROAD.

A GOVERNMENT COMMUNIQUE SAID:

"OUR OPERATIONS LAST NIGHT HAD BEEN IN FULL SWING WHEN THEY WERE CUT SHORT BY THE CEASE FIRE DEADLINE. WE HAD BEEN LEFT WITHOUT OFFICIAL NOTIFICATION OF THE INTENTION OF THE OTHER SIDE.

"RATHER THAN RISK VIOLATING THE CEASE FIRE ORDER, WE DECIDED TO RISK THE LIVES OF OUR OWN PEOPLE. UNLESS CALM IS RESTORED BY NIGHTFALL, WE SHALL RESERVE FULL FREEDOM TO RESUME MAJOR OPERATIONS AND ACTIVITIES."

THE STATEMENT WAS ISSUED TO THE FOREIGN PRESS ONLY THREE HOURS BEFORE SUNSET. AS FAR AS WAS KNOWN HERE, IT WAS NOT COMMUNICATED, AT LEAST IN THIS FORM, EITHER TO THE SECURITY COUNCIL OR TO THE ARABS.

THE GOVERNMENT SAID THE ARABS HAD CONTINUED THEIR ATTACKS SINCE 6 P.M. (EST) TUESDAY IN AT LEAST FIVE PLACES ALONG THE PALESTINE FIGHTING FRONT. PRESUMABLY EACH OF THESE ATTACKS WAS MET BY JEWISH RETURN FIRE.

BULLETIN

AMMAN, TRANS-JORDAN, JUNE 2-(AP)-THE ARAB LEGION SAID TODAY ARAB ARTILLERY HAD SCATTERED AN ISRAELI ATTACKING FORCE IN ROMENA AND GIVAT SHAUL AND KILLED 100 JEWS.

EIGHTY OTHER JEWS WERE DECLARED KILLED IN JERUSALEM.

THE TIME OF THE ROMENA-GIVAT SHAUL ACTION WAS NOT STATED IN THE COMMUNIQUE, NOR WAS THE FIELD OF ACTION LOCATED MORE PRECISELY. (ROMENA APPARENTLY IS THE LEGION SPELLING FOR RUMMANA, A VILLAGE SEVEN MILES NORTHWEST OF THE ARAB STRONGHOLD OF JENIN).

"THE JEWS LAUNCHED A HEAVY ATTACK ON THE OLD CITY OF JERUSALEM, SUPPOSEDLY USING SOME OF THEIR BEST FIGHTERS OF PALMACH. THE ATTACK WAS REPULSED AND THE JEWS RETREATED, LEAVING ON THE BATTLEFIELD 60 DEAD. (JERUSALEM DISPATCHES SAID THE JEWS ATTACKED THREE GATES OF THE OLD CITY BETWEEN 1 AND 3 A.M. THE LEGION THERE SAID AT LEAST 20 JEWS WERE KILLED.)

"JEWISH FORCES WERE AGGRESSIVE IN ROMENA AND GIVAT SHAUL. ARAB ARTILLERY IMMEDIATELY MOPPED UP THE AGGRESSION, SCATTERING THE FORCES AND KILLING 100 JEWS."

TRANS-JORDAN MILITARY SOURCES DECLARED 40 OTHER JEWS WERE KILLED AFTER A RAID BY AN ISRAELI DETACHMENT, SEVERAL HUNDRED STRONG, INTO TRANS-JORDAN FROM THE SOUTHERN END OF THE DEAD SEA.

THEY SAID THE JEWS SEIZED THE GHORES SAFI POLICE STATION AFTER KILLING TWO LEGION SOLDIERS, THEN MARCHED ON TOWARD KERAK, ANCIENT CAPITAL OF THE LAND OF MOAB. THE TRANS-JORDAN INFORMANTS SAID THE JEWS THEN WERE REOUTED BY AN ARAB ATTACK IN WHICH EGYPTIAN AND IRAQI PLANES PARTICIPAIED.

BY CARTER L.DAVIDSON

JERUSALEM, TUESDAY, JUNE 1-(AP)-MANY JEWISH REFUGEES, BEREFT OF THEIR OWN HOMES AND BELONGINGS BY THE FORTUNES OF WAR, ARE TAKING WHAT THEY CAN FIND IN ABANDONED HOMES IN THE ARAB QUARTERS OF MODERN JERUSALEM.

IT IS ESTIMATED 5,000 HOMELESS JEWS, INCLUDING 1,000 OR SO FROM THE ARAB-HELD OLD CITY, NOW LIVE IN THE ONCE WEALTHY ARAB SECTIONS, THE KATAMON, GREEK AND GERMAN COLONIES.

THE ISRAELI ARMY, HAGANAH, SEARCHED MOST OF THE HOUSES FOR ARMS, FOOD AND BLANKETS. THEN AN IRON-FISTED ANTI-LOOTING ORDER WENT OUT TO THE TROOPS AND NOT MUCH ELSE WAS TOUCHED.

IT WAS THEN THAT THE REFUGEES CAME, AND ARAB BELONGINGS WENT.

THIS MORNING I VISITED THE AREA AND WATCHED JEWS, BOTH ADULTS AND SHOUTING CHILDREN, CARRYING CLOTHING, PAINTINGS, BOOKS AND EVEN FURNITURE THROUGH THE STREETS.

INSIDE SOME HOUSES I WATCHED REFUGEES RANSACKING DRAWERS, PRYING OPEN CUPBOARDS AND PILFERING PANTRIES.

IN THE KATAMON QUARTER, THE ARABS HAD FLED HURRIEDLY, WITH ONLY THEIR MOST ESSENTIAL PROPERTY.

PALESTINE SEPARATE (300)
BY CARTER L.DAVIDSON
JERUSALEM, TUESDAY, JUNE 1-(AP)-THE NIGHT LIFE OF THE BESIEGED IS GRIM BUT BRAVELY GAY.
IT'S MOSTLY A SATURDAY NIGHT AFFAIR--JUST LIKE IN INDIANA--BUT ON OTHER NIGHTS, TOO, JERUSALEM'S JEWS TRY THEIR BEST TO HAVE A LITTLE FUN.
MOST BARS CLOSE BEFORE SUNSET, FOR A VARIETY OF REASONS, BUT THERE ARE A COUPLE THAT PEDDLE THEIR WARES UNTIL MIDNIGHT OR AFTER. THE REASONS THE OTHERS CLOSE INCLUDE THE DRAFTING OF THEIR BARTENDERS AND WAITERS INTO THE ARMY, SHORTAGE OF LIQUOR, ABSENCE OF ELECTRICITY AND UNAVAILABILITY OF CANDLES--AND A LACK OF CUSTOMERS.
THE EDEN HOTEL, KNOWN TO MOST AMERICANS WHO HAVE VISITED JERUSALEM, STILL MANAGES TO SERVE A THREE-COURSE DINNER, BUT WITHOUT MUSIC. THE COURSES LAST NIGHT WERE CLEAR SOUP, ONE SARDINE ON A HUNK OF MATZOTH (UNLEAVENED BREAD) AND A MAIN COURSE OF THREE SLICES OF BULLY BEEF CANNED IN AUSTRALIA AND SOME BOILED RICE. DESERT WAS A THIN PIECE OF JELLY ROLL AND A CUP OF COFFEE, A LITTLE MUDDY.
THE PRICE FOR ALL THIS, AND A GLASS OF PALESTINIAN WINE, WAS $4.20.
THE SALVIA HOTEL HAS LESS FOOD BUT THE BAR STAYS OPEN. THE TIPPLE IS BRANDY, BECAUSE THERE ISN'T ANY WHISKEY. ON SATURDAY NIGHTS THE SALVIA REALLY ROCKS AND ROLLS WITH GAIETY--STRICTLY ERSATZ.
MORTAR BOMBS FALL ALL AROUND AND THERE'S GUNFIRE JUST BARELY AUDIBLE ABOVE A VIENNESE ACCORDIONIST'S RENDITION OF BOOGIE-WOOGIE, VIENNESE STYLE. JEWISH COMMANDOES ON LEAVE SING AND GET UP EVERY NOW AND THEN TO DANCE THE HORA, THE JEWISH NATIONAL DANCE.
THE CLIENTELE AT THE SALVIA, OTHER THAN THE ISRAELI FIGHTERS, IS COMPOSED OF THREE OR FOUR LEFTOVER BRITISHERS, A DOZEN OR SO FOREIGN CORRESPONDENTS AND A SPRINKLING FROM THE CONSULAR CORPS. THE FEMININE CONTINGENT USUALLY IS MADE UP OF JEWISH GIRLS ON THEIR NIGHT OFF FROM WAR WORK.
WHEN THE EVENING IS OVER (AND REMEMBER THIS IS EYEWITNESS TESTIMONY AND NOT A CONFESSION) IT IS NECESSARY TO WALK A DATE HOME (BECAUSE THERE ISN'T ANY GASOLINE) AND THE CRUMP OF SHELLS AND THE WHINE OF BULLETS IS APT TO PUNCTUATE THE MIDNIGHT CONVERSATION. JUN 1

FIRST LEAD UNDATED PALESTINE
BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

ARAB NATIONS ACCEPTED WITH "EXPLANATIONS" TODAY THE UNITED NATIONS' PROPOSAL FOR A FOUR-WEEK ARMISTICE IN PALESTINE. THE REPLY MADE PLAIN THE ARAB BELIEF THERE IS NO CHANCE OF LASTING PEACE WHILE THE JEWISH STATE OF ISRAEL EXISTS.

ISRAEL PREVIOUSLY HAD ACCEPTED WITH "ASSUMPTIONS." ONE OF THESE WAS THAT UNLIMITED IMMIGRATION, INCLUDING MEN OF FIGHTING AGE, SHOULD CONTINUE DURING THE ARMISTICE. THE ARABS SPECIFIED THAT CONTINUED JEWISH IMMIGRATION WOULD CONSTITUTE A GRAVE THREAT TO THE ARAB COUNTRIES.

SCATTERED COMBAT WAS REPORTED IN JERUSALEM AND ELSEWHERE IN PALESTINE PENDING A CEASE FIRE TIME, WHICH THE U.N. HAD NOT YET SET. THE ARAB REPLY DID NOT MAKE CLEAR WHETHER THE ARAB ACCEPTANCE OF THE ARMISTICE IS CONDITIONAL ON THE UNITED NATIONS' AGREEING TO THEIR "EXPLANATIONS." THE ARABS LEFT THE TIME OF THE CEASE FIRE TO BE DECIDED. THE JEWS HAD SET 6 P.M. EST YESTERDAY, CONDITIONAL UPON A SIMILAR ARAB ORDER.

THE E"EXPLANATIONS" SPECIFIED THAT ANY SOLUTION PARTITIONING PALESTINE INTO JEWISH AND ARAB STATES HAS NO CHANCE OF SUCCESS. THAT IS THE VERY POINT OVER WHICH BOTH SIDES HAVE BEEN SKIRMISHING SINCE LATE IN NOVEMBER AND WARRING IN THE OPEN SINCE MAY 15, WHEN THE BRITISH MANDATE ENDED. THE ARABS ALSO STRESSED JEWISH IMMIGRATION AS A PERIL AND ASKED TO BE ALLOWED TO COOPERATE WITH THE U.N. TO SUPERVISE COMPLIANCE WITH THE CEASE FIRE.

PROLONGED DEBATE, DURING WHICH FIGHTING WILL CONTINUE, APPEARED TO BE IN PROSPECT.

THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL HOPED BY NIGHT TO SET AN HOUR FOR THE SHOOTING TO STOP. THOUGH BOTH SIDES MADE RESERVATIONS IN ACCEPTING THE TRUCE, BOTH CONTENDED AT LAKE SUCCESS THERE WERE NO CONDITIONS.

THE CEASE FIRE WAS INEFFECTIVE IN JERUSALEM. THE JEWISH AGENCY LISTED AT LEAST EIGHT VIOLATIONS IN THE HOLY CITY BY ARAB FORCES TO MID-MORNING. ISRAEL'S ARMY HEADQUARTERS AT TEL AVIV CHARGED FIVE VIOLATIONS TO ARAB ARMIES IN JERUSALEM AND IN THE NORTH AND SOUTH OF PALESTINE.

A JEWISH SPOKESMAN IN JERUSALEM CLAIMED THE JEWS IN 19 DAYS OF WAR HAD CONQUERED ABOUT A THIRD OF THE PALESTINE TERRIROTY ASSIGNED TO THE ARABS AND HELD ALL THE ISRAELI PORTION EXCEPT A TWO-MILE WEDGE ON THE NORTH COAST. HE SAID ARAB GAINS WERE IN ARAB AREAS AND THAT IT WAS POSSIBLE FOR THE ARABS TO BE CLOSER THAN 10 MILES FROM TEL AVIV AND STILL BE OUTSIDE THE STATE OF ISRAEL. HOWEVER, A TEL AVIV COMMUNIQUE YESTERDAY REPORTED AN EGYPTIAN SPEARHEAD WAS AT YIBNA, AN ISRAELI HIGHWAY CENTER SEVEN MILES INSIDE THE BORDER AND ONLY 15 SOUTH OF TEL AVIV.

"OUR FORCES WITH SUPPORTING AUXILIARY UNITS PROBABLY NUMBER 90,000," THE JEWISH SPOKESMAN IN JERUSALEM SAID, "WE FRANKLY DOUBT THE ARABS CAN MATCH IT."

THE SPOKESMAN SAID THE JEWS HAVE CONQUERED ALL OF WEST GALILEE, ALL BUT A SMALL PART OF MODERN JERUSALEM AND THE JUDEAN HILL EXPANSE EXCEPT FOR A FOUR-MILE STRETCH NEAR LATRUN ON THE TEL AVIV-JERUSALEM ROAD.

THE TRANS-JORDAN ARAB LEGION SAID ITS ARTILLERY SCATTERED AN ISRAELI ATTACKING FORCE IN ROMEMA AND GIVAT SHAUL KILLING 100. ANOTHER 80 JEWS WERE DECLARED KILLED WHILE ATTACKING THE OLD CITY OF JERUSALEM.

AN UNOFFICIAL REPORT FROM AMMAN, TRANS-JORDAN SAID JEWISH ARMORED CARS WITH MORTARS INVADED TRANS-JORDAN AND KILLED EIGHT POLICEMEN AT GHORES SAFI, NEAR THE SOUTH END OF THE DEAD SEA.

KING ABDULLAH OF TRANS-JORDAN PRAISED THE ARAB LEAGUE'S ACCEPTANCE OF THE CEASE FIRE IN PALESTINE, BUT SAID:

"WE WILL NEVER UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCE ACCEPT A JEWISH STATE."

ABDULLAH SAID ARAB MILITARY PROSPECTS BECAME MORE FAVORABLE THIS WEEK.

THE JEWS SAID EGYPTIAN TROOPS ATTACKED NEGBA, SOUTH OF TEL AVIV, AND BOMBED HULDA, IN THE SAME GENERAL AREA. MARKSMEN OF THE TRANS-JORDAN ARAB LEGION KILLED 20 JEWS ATTACKING THE ZION, JAFFA AND NEW GATES OF OLD JERUSALEM AFTER MIDNIGHT IN AN EFFORT TO WIN BACK A FOOTHOLD.

ARTILLERY, MORTAR AND AUTOMATIC ARMS EXPLODED THROUGH JERUSALEM WHILE BOTH SIDES AWAITED A CEASE FIRE ORDER TO BECOME EFFECTIVE.

THE JEWS SAID THEY ORDERED THEIR FORCES TO CEASE FIRE AT 3 A.M. PALESTINE TIME (6 P.M. TUESDAY, EASTERN STANDARD TIME), BUT WOULD RESUME FIRE IF THE ARABS KEPT SHOOTING. THE HOUR WAS THAT WHICH THE U.N. HAD SET AS THE DEADLINE FOR REPLIES TO ITS PROPOSAL FOR A FOUR-WEEK TRUCE.

AN ISRAELI SPOKESMAN SAID THE JEWISH ACCEPTANCE OF THE TRUCE WAS UNCONDITIONAL. THE JEWS, HOWEVER, COUCHED THEIR REPLY WITH FIVE "ASSUMPTIONS," ONE BEING THAT FREE IMMIGRATION TO PALESTINE SHOULD CONTINUE, REGARDLESS OF WHETHER THE IMMIGRANTS WERE MEN OF FIGHTING AGE. EGYPTIAN PREMIER MAHMOUD FAHMY NOKRASHY PASHA SAID HE DID NOT THINK THIS ACCEPTABLE.

THE JEWS ALSO "ASSUMED" FOOD CONVOYS AND CIVILIAN TRAFFIC WOULD GO THROUGH THE ARAB ROAD BLOCKS TO THE 90,000 BESIEGED JEWS IN NEW JERUSALEM. THEY INSISTED THAT THE ARMS EMBARGO ACCOMPANYING THE ARMISTICE APPLY TO BRITISH ARMS STORED IN THE MIDDLE EAST.

A89

THEY "ASSUMED" THERE WOULD BE NO BLOCKADE OF ISRAEL AND THAT THE ARABS AND JEWS SHOULD MAINTAIN POSITIONS HELD AT THE TIME OF THE CEASE FIRE.

EGYPTIAN TROOPS WERE BUT 14 MILES SOUTH OF TEL AVIV. THEY WERE

JUN 1948

30.24- 18233

REPORTED SHELLING REHOVOT, 12 MILES FROM THE ISRAELI CENTER.

IRGUN ZVAI LEUMI, A PART OF THE ISRAELI ARMY, ASSERTED JEWS PENETRATED LATRUN AND BLEW UP A BIG TRAPPIST MONASTERY OF SILENT MONKS. THEY SAID THE ARABS USED IT AS A STRONG POINT IN THEIR ROAD BLOCK TO PALESTINE. THE JEWS HAD BEEN TRYING FOR WEEKS TO BREAK THE TEL AVIV-JERUSALEM ROAD STRANGLEHOLD, AND BY ARAB ACCOUNTS HAD MET SEVERAL BLOODY REVERSES.

AN ISRAELI ARMY SPOKESMAN CLAIMED THE CEASE FIRE ORDER CAME AT A TIME WHEN HAGANAH WAS ATTACKING THE STRATEGIC ARAB JENIN-NABLUS-TULKARM TRIANGLE IN NORTH CENTRAL PALESTINE. HE SAID JENIN WAS SURROUNDED AND ANOTHER ASSAULT HAD BEEN OPENED AGAINST TULKARM, NORTHEAST OF TEL AVIV. HE SPOKE ALSO OF AN OFFENSIVE AGAINST THE EGYPTIANS IN THE SOUTH.

THE ARABS SAID THEIR FORCES IN THE NABLUS TRIANGLE WERE AIMED AT TEL AVIV. THERE WAS NO CONFIRMATION OF THEIR CLAIMS TO REACHING THE COAST BETWEEN TEL AVIV AND HAIFA, BUT IT SEEMED TRUE THAT IRAQI TROOPS HAD STRUCK WITHIN NINE MILES OF TEL AVIV ON ISRAEL'S EASTERN FLANK.

"IN THE 18 DAYS SINCE ISRAEL PROCLAIMED ITS INDEPENDENCE, NOWHERE DID THE ARAB FORCES SUCCEED IN OCCUPYING ANY PART OF THE SOIL OF ISRAEL," THE JEWISH CHIEF OF OPERATIONS SAID. "AT THE PLACES THEY HAD PENETRATED, THEY WERE SOIL OF ISRAEL," THE JEWISH CHIEF OF OPERATIONS SAID. "AT THE PLACES THEY HAD PENETRATED, THEY WERE REPULSED."

THE EGYPTIANS SAID THEIR LIGHT AND HEAVY BOMBERS MADE "CONCENTRATED RAIDS" ON TEL AVIV YESTERDAY. EXPLOSIONS WERE REPORTED SEEN IN A STEEL WORKS. A TRANS-JORDAN DIPLOMAT SAID JEWISH BOMBS FELL IN A SQUARE BEFORE KING ABDULLAH'S PALACE DURING THE AIR RAID ON AMMAN YESTERDAY.

OOTACAMUND, MADRAS PROVINCE, INDIA, JUNE 2-(AP)-FIVE NATIONS PROPOSED TODAY THAT THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC BE MADE AN ASSOCIATE MEMBER IN THE UNITED NATIONS ECONOMIC COMMISSION FOR ASIA AND THE FAR EAST.

PAKISTAN, AUSTRALIA, CEYLON AND BURMA ALL SUPPORTED INDIA'S RESOLUTION ON THE REGIME IN THE NETHERLANDS EAST INDIES. AUSTRALIA SUGGESTED A "PROVISIONAL MEMBERSHIP" UNTIL THE POLITICAL ISSUE BETWEEN THE REPUBLIC AND THE NETHERLANDS IS SETTLED.

IN SEEKING ADMISSION FOR THE NETHERLANDS EAST INDIES AS A WHOLE WITH THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA, THE NETHERLANDS DELEGATE TOLD THE CONFERENCE HIS GOVERNMENT INTENDS "TO CREATE AS SOON AS POSSIBLE THE SOVEREIGN UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA."

PRIME MINISTER JAWAHARLAL NEHRU OF INDIA SAID NO NATION SHOULD BE ALLOWED TO DOMINATE ANOTHER ECONOMICALLY.

HE MADE THIS STATEMENT YESTERDAY IN A SPEECH BEFORE THE UNITED NATIONS ECONOMIC COMMISSION FOR ASIA AND THE FAR EAST, WHICH BEGAN A CONFERENCE HERE.

IN OPENING THE CONFERENCE, NEHRU SAID ASIA LONG HAS BEEN NEGLECTED AND OVERLOOKED BUT A RECENT "POLITICAL UPSURGE HAS STIRRED HER FROM HER STATIC STATE."

"IT IS ABSOLUTELY NECESSARY FOR ASIA'S BILLION PEOPLE TO INCREASE THEIR PRODUCTIVE CAPACITY," HE SAID.

HE WELCOMED ANY ASSISTANCE FROM "BETTER PLACED ONES" BUT ASKED THE CONFERENCE TO REMEMBER "THE AXIOM THAT NO VISIBLE OR SEMI-VISIBLE ECONOMIC DOMINATION IS TO BE PERMITTED BY ONE OVER ANOTHER."

NEHRU NOTED THE CONTENTION THAT INDIA IS HAMPERED BY OVER-POPULATION.

"I HAVE NO DESIRE THAT INDIA SHOULD BE OVERPOPULATED," HE SAID, "BUT I ENTIRELY FEEL THAT INDIA IS UNDERPOPULATED AND THERE ARE STILL LARGE PARTS UNDERPOPULATED."

MORE THAN 150 DELEGATES WERE ON HAND FROM ASIATIC COUNTRIES, AUSTRALIA, NEW ZEALAND AND FRANCE.

NEHRU INVITED THE COMMISSION TO LOCATE ITS REGIONAL HEADQUARTERS IN INDIA.

APIA, WESTERN SAMOA, JUNE 1-(DELAYED)-(AP)-WESTERN SAMOA RAISED ITS FLAG TODAY ALONGSIDE THAT OF NEW ZEALAND, AND SAMOA LEADERS HAILED THE EVENT AS A STOP ON THE ROAD TO SELF GOVERNMENT.

"WE FEEL BORN AGAIN AS A NATION," SAID TAMASESE, ONE OF WESTERN (NEW ZEALAND) SAMOA'S TWO TOP CHIEFS.

COL.F.W.FOELCKER, NEW ZEALAND HIGH COMMISSIONER, SAID "NEW ZEALAND IS PLEDGED BEFORE ALL THE UNITED NATIONS UNDER A TRUSTEESHIP AGREEMENT 'TO WORK FOR INDEPENDENCE OR FULL SELF-GOVERNMENT OF THESE ISLANDS.'

"BUT GOVERNMENT IS NO EASY MATTER," HE CONTINUED. "IT WILL CALL FOR MUTUAL TRUST, HARD WORK, AND THE TAKING OF RESPONSIBILITY. TOMORROW THE NEW LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, WITH A MAJORITY OF SAMOAN MEMBERS WILL MEET FOR THE FIRST TIME. AND THE FIRST STEP WILL BE TAKEN TO PLACE THE HEAVY BURDEN OF GOVERNMENT ON THE SHOULDERS OF INHABITANTS OF THIS TERRITORY."

HE DECLARED IT WILL BE "A HAPPY DAY FOR NEW ZEALAND WHEN SHE CAN LEAVE SAMOA STRONG AND INDEPENDENT, TO STAND ALONE."

A BAN ON VISITORS FROM NEW ZEALAND, BECAUSE OF A POLIO EPIDEMIC THERE, PREVENTED PRIME MINISTER PETER FRASER FROM ATTENDING.

THOUSANDS OF SAMOANS FLOCKED INTO APIA FOR THE CEREMONY, HELD AT MULINUU, TRADITIONAL MEETING PLACE FOR SAMOANS.

CAPT.VERNON HUBER, U.S. NAVAL GOVERNOR OF EASTERN SAMOA, ARRIVED BY PLANE FOR THE FLAG RAISING. HIGH CHIEFS OF EASTERN (AMERICAN) SAMOA ARRIVED BY SHIP, TOGETHER WITH SEVERAL HUNDRED OF THEIR PEOPLE.

THE SAMOANS PLANNED A FEAST AND NATIVE DANCING AFTER THE CEREMONY.

GENEVA, MAY 25-(AP)-A TWENTY PERCENT INCREASE IN INTERNATIONAL FREIGHT TRAFFIC THROUGH GERMANY AND AUSTRIA WAS AGREED BY REPRESENTATIVES OF ALL FOUR OCCUPATION POWERS AT A PRIVATE MEETING IN PARIS LAST WEEK, IT WAS ANNOUNCED HERE TODAY.

REPRESENTATIVES OF TEN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES AND THE FOUR OCCUPATION POWERS ATTENDED THE MONTHLY MEETING OF A SUB-COMMITTEE OF THE ECONOMIC COMMISSION FOR EUROPE, WHICH LAYS DOWN FREIGHT SCHEDULES THROUGH GERMANY AND AUSTRIA BY LAND AND WATER TRANSPORT.

JUN 1948

THE DELEGATES ACCEPTED SCHEDULES FOR 3,285 INTERNATIONAL FREIGHT TRAINS THROUGH ALL OCCUPATION ZONES IN JUE, A 20 PERCENT INCREASE OVER THE CURRENT MONTH AND THE HIGHEST TOTAL SINCE THE END OF THE WAR.

THE COMMITTEE'S ANNOUNCEMENT SAID THAT THE INCREASED TRAFFIC INDICATED "AN IMPROVEMENT IN EUROPE'S TRADE SITUATION" AS WELL AS IN THE RAILROAD SYSTEMS OF GERMANY AND AUSTRIA.

THE COMMITTEE ALSO ANNOUNCED THAT THE RUSSIAN OCCUPATION AUTHORITIES IN GERMANY HAD AGREED TO PARTICIPATE AS FROM JUNE 1 IN THE INTERNATIONAL WAGON EXCHANGE AGREEMENT, PERMITTING TRAIN CARS TO CIRCULATE FREELY IN INTERNATIONAL TRAFFIC. THE SOVIET ZONE OF GERMANY WAS THE LAST NORMAL GAUGE AREA IN EUROPE TO JOIN THE EXCHANGE CONVENTION.

JUN 1948

ANOTHER AGREEMENT ANNOUNCED BY THE COMMITTEE IS EXPECTED GREATLY TO FACILITATE NORTH-SOUTH RAIL TRAFFIC THROUGH EUROPE. THE FRENCH OCCUPATION AUTHORITIES IN GERMANY APPROVED THE REOPENING OF A RAIL LINE ALONG THE RIGHT BANK OF THE RHINE FOR DIRECT TRAFFIC BETWEEN SWITZERLAND AND THE NETHERLANDS AND BEYOND FOR THE FIRST TIME SINCE THE END OF THE WAR.

THE COMMITTEE APPROVED INCREASED JUNE SCHEDULES FOR A TOTAL OF NEARLY 300,000 METRIC TONS OF INTERNATIONAL FREIGHT ON THE RHINE AND ELBE RIVERS AND NEARLY 100,000 TONS ON THE AMERICAN-CONTROLLED SECTION OF THE DANUBE. AGREEMENT WAS NOT REACHED FOR AN EXTENSION OF RIVER TRAFFIC ON THE SOVIET-CONTROLLED SECTION OF THE DANUBE.

SECOND LEAD DAY UNITED NATIONS
BY LARRY HAUCK
LAKE SUCCESS, JUNE 2-(AP)-THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL LATE TODAY INSTRUCTED ITS PALESTINE MEDIATOR TO SET THE DAY AND HOUR OF A JEWISH-ARAB CEASE-FIRE. IT SUGGESTED THE FOUR-WEEKS ARMISTICE SHOULD BEGIN WITHIN THREE DAYS.

NO FORMAL VOTE WAS TAKEN BUT SEVEN NATIONS INCLUDING THE UNITED STATES SUPPORTED THE INSTRUCTIONS.

RUSSIA DID NOT DEBATE THE QUESTION BUT ANDREI A. GROMYKO TOLD THE COUNCIL HE WOULD ABSTAIN ON SENDING THE INSTRUCTIONS TO THE MEDIATOR, SWEDISH COUNT FOLKE BERNADOTTE.

BERNADOTTE WAS ASKED TO SET THE EXACT HOUR IN CONSULTATIONS WITH THE JEWS AND ARABS. BOTH SIDES ACCEPTED THE ARMISTICE PROPOSAL AND THE COUNCIL RULED THEIR REPLIES WERE UNCONDITIONAL.

FARIS EL KHOURY, SYRIAN DELEGATE SERVING AS THIS MONTH'S COUNCIL PRESIDENT, CALLED ANOTHER MEETING OF THE COUNCIL FOR TOMORROW TO STUDY THE PROBLEM OF CONTROLS TO BE USED DURING THE ARMISTICE. DELEGATES WERE ASKED TO SUBMIT PROPOSALS AND SUGGESTIONS.

COUNT FOLKE BERNADOTTE, U.N. MEDIATOR FOR PALESTINE, SUGGESTED IN A CABLE TO THE COUNCIL THAT A LIMITED TIME SHOULD BE ALLOWED BETWEEN ACCEPTANCE OF THE ARMISTICE AND THE START OF THE CEASE-FIRE PERIOD. HE CAUTIONED AGAINST SETTING THE DEADL
INE SO EARLY THAT CONTROLS
COULD NOT BE OPERATIVE.

BERNADOTTE SAID IT MIGHT BE "SOME DAYS" BEFORE SUCH CONTROLS COULD BE PUT INTO EFFECT. HE ASKED THAT THE COUNCIL ALLOW HIM TO FIX THE TIME IN CONSULTATION WITH JEWS AND ARABS.

AT THE SAME TIME SYRIA ASKED THE COUNCIL TO ALLOW A SUFFICIENT INTERVAL BEFORE THE CEASE-FIRE TO ALLOW ARAB GOVERNMENTS TO CONTACT ALL THEIR FORCES.

A SPOKESMAN FOR THE ISRAELI GOVERNMENT SAID:
"ONCE AGAIN WE ARE PUT IN THE POSITION WHERE THE SECURITY COUNCIL VIRTUALLY TELLS US TO GO ON SHOOTING."

AS THE COUNCIL WAS ACTING, DISPATCHES FROM TEL AVIV SAID THE GOVERNMENT OF ISRAEL WARNED THAT UNLESS THE ARABS STOP SHOOTING BY SUNDOWN "WE SHALL RESERVE FULL FREEDOM TO RESUME MAJOR OPERATIONS."

JAMAL HUSSEINI, REPRESENTATIVE OF THE ARAB HIGHER COMMITTEE, SAID THE COUNCIL TOOK THE ONLY REASONABLE DECISION. HE ESTIMATED THAT IT WOULD BE "AT LEAST FOUR OR FIVE DAYS" BEFORE A CEASE-FIRE COULD BE PUT INTO EFFECT.

BOTH THE JEWS AND THE ARABS ACCEPTED YESTERDAY THE U.N. APPEAL FOR CEASE-FIRE. AT THAT TIME THE JEWS LISTED FIVE SPECIFIC ASSUMPTIONS ABOUT THE TERMS BUT A JEWISH AGENCY SPOKESMAN INSISTED THAT ISRAEL'S REPLY WAS UNCONDITIONAL.

FARIS EL KHOURY OF SYRIA, JUNE PRESIDENT OF THE COUNCIL AND SENIOR ARAB DIPLOMAT TOLD THE ASSOCIATED PRESS TODAY THAT THE ARAB FORCE ACCEPTANCE WAS UNCONDITIONAL. HE EMPHASIZED, HOWEVER, AS DID THE ARAB LEAGUE REPLY, THAT THE COUNCIL MUST SET UP A COMMISSION TO ESTABLISH SAFEGUARDS. HE SAID THE AMERICAN-FRENCH-BELGIAN CONSULAR TRUCE COMMISSION PLUS SWEDISH COUNT FOLKE BERNADOTTE, THE U.N. MEDIATOR IN PALESTINE, MIGHT BE FORMED INTO A FOUR-MAN COMMISSION TO ASSUME THESE DUTIES.

THE ARAB NOTE EXPRESSED SPECIAL CONCERN THAT THE JEWS MIGHT USE THE FOUR-WEEK ARMISTICE TO BRING MORE FIGHTERS INTO PALESTINE AS IMMIGRANTS.

THE ARAB NOTE HELD OUT LITTLE HOPE FOR SUCCESS OF THE NORTH-LONG NEGOTIATIONS UNLESS THE FINAL SOLUTION WAS BASED ON A UNITED (ARAB-JEWISH) PALESTINE.

THE 7-NATION ARAB REPLY, TRANSMITTED HERE THROUGH THE EGYPTIAN FOREIGN MINISTRY IN CAIRO, SAID THE BRITISH CEASE-FIRE RESOLUTION ADOPTED HERE LAST SATURDAY AFTER MUCH AMENDING DID NOT GIVE FULL ASSURANCE THAT THE JEWS WOULD RESPECT CONDITIONS OF THE ARMISTICE.

"THEREFORE," THE ARAB NOTE SAID, "AS MEMBERS OF A REGIONAL ORGANIZATION (THE ARAB LEAGUE) RESPONSIBLE FOR MAINTAINING SECURITY IN THEIR ZONE, THEY ARE BOUND TO COLLABORATE WHOLE-HEARTEDLY WITH THE UNITED NATIONS MEDIATOR AND THE MEMBERS OF THE TRUCE COMMISSION FOR PALESTINE IN ORDER TO SUPERVISE" ARMISTICE PROVISION AND CONDITIONS.

AN AMERICAN SPOKESMAN SAID U.S. DELEGATE WARREN R. AUSTIN REGARDED THE DEVELOPMENTS AS ENCOURAGING.

AMBASSADOR AUSTIN FEELS THAT THE BRITISH RESOLUTION AS AMENDED PROVIDES A FOUNDATION FOR WORKING TOWARD A SETTLEMENT OF THE ISSUE," THE SPOKESMAN SAID.

"THE IMMEDIATE OBJECTIVE SHOULD BE THE ACTUAL CESSATION OF HOSTILITIES WHICH WOULD AFFORD THE MEDIATOR AN OPPORTUNITY TO WORK OUT INTERPRETATIONS OF ARMISTICE TERMS."

IT WAS UNDERSTOOD THE UNITED STATES WOULD SUPPORT MEASURES IN THE COUNCIL TO GIVE THE MEDIATOR THE FINAL SAY ON THE EXACT HOUR OF CEASE-FIRE.

UNITED NATIONS
BY LARRY HAUCK
LAKE SUCCESS, JUNE 2-(AP)-THE JEWS AND ARABS HAVE ACCEPTED A UNITED NATIONS APPEAL FOR A PALESTINE ARMISTICE BUT HAGGLING OVER TERMS MAY BLOCK THE ACTUAL CEASEFIRE.

BOTH SIDES ANNOUNCED SHORTLY BEFORE YESTERDAY'S SECURITY COUNCIL DEADLINE ON REPLIES THAT THEY HAD ACCEPTED A FOUR-WEEK TRUCE. IT WAS NOT CLEAR, HOWEVER, WHETHER MANDATORY CONDITIONS ACCOMPANY THE AGREEMENTS.

ONE U. N. OFFICIAL PREDICTED THERE WOULD BE CONSIDERABLE MORE DEBATE OVER TERMS BEFORE THE COUNCIL REACHES THE POINT OF SETTING AN HOUR FOR ENDING HOSTILITIES.

THE TERSE ACCEPTANCE FROM THE SEVEN-NATION ARAB LEAGUE SAID A DETAILED ANSWER WOULD BE HANDED THE COUNCIL, PRESUMABLY AT TODAY'S MEETING. ARAB SPOKESMEN REFUSED TO SAY WHETHER THEIR FINAL REPLY WOULD INCLUDE CONDITIONS.

IN ITS ACCEPTANCE, THE JEWISH STATE OF ISRAEL EMPHASIZED THAT IT WAS MAKING FIVE ASSUMPTIONS ABOUT THE U. N. PROPOSAL. ONE OF THESE WAS THAT THE BITTERLY CONTESTED ROAD TO JERUSALEM SHOULD BE OPENED TO FOOD CONVOYS AND CIVILIAN TRAFFIC.

AN ISRAELI SPOKESMAN CALLED THE JEWISH REPLY UNCONDITIONAL. HE CONCEDED, HOWEVER, THAT HIS GOVERNMENT WOULD HAVE TO STUDY ITS POSITION IF THE COUNCIL FAILED TO AGREE ON THE FIVE ASSUMPTIONS.

THE JEWS ALSO ANNOUNCED AN ORDER TO ALL ISRAELI TROOPS TO CEASE FIRE THROUGHOUT THE HOLY LAND AT 6 P.M. (EST) YESTERDAY, THE HOUR SET AS A DEADLINE FOR ARAB AND JEWISH REPLIES TO THE COUNCIL. THIS ORDER WAS TO BE EFFECTIVE ONLY IF THE ARABS TOOK THE SAME STEP.

THE ARAB COMMUNICATION MADE NO MENTION OF A CEASE FIRE HOUR.

FARIS EL KHOURI OF SYRIA, THE LEADING ARAB SPOKESMAN HERE, IS THE JUNE PRESIDENT OF THE COUNCIL. TERMS MAY HAVE TO BE HAMMERED OUT UNDER HIS GAVEL.

CHARLES MALIK, DELEGATE OF LEBANON, HANDED THE ARAB REPLY TO

SECRETARY-GENERAL TRYGVE LIE. IT SAID THE ARAB LEAGUE'S POLITICAL COMMITTEE WHICH MET IN AMMAN, TRANS-JORDAN, ACCEPTED THE COUNCIL'S APPEAL FOR A CEASE FIRE FOR THE FOUR-WEEK PERIOD, WITH A DETAILED REPLY TO BE SENT LATER.

THE ARAB LEAGUE INCLUDES EGYPT, TRANS-JORDAN, SYRIA, LEBANON, IRAQ, YEMEN, AND SAUDI ARABIA.

A27

BESIDES THE JERUSALEM ASSUMPTION, THE JEWISH REPLY SAID ANY BAN ON ARMS IMPORTS ALSO SHOULD COVER THE DELIVERY OF ARMS STORED IN THE MIDDLE EAST. A SPOKESMAN SAID THIS REFERRED TO BRITAIN.

THE JEWS ALSO MAINTAINED THAT ANY ATTEMPT TO BLOCKADE ISRAEL WOULD BE REGARDED AS AN ACT OF ARMED FORCE; THAT ARABS AND JEWS SHOULD MAINTAIN POSITIONS HELD AT THE TIME OF ANY CEASE FIRE; AND THAT ISRAEL'S FREEDOM TO ADMIT IMMIGRANTS WOULD NOT BE IMPAIRED, REGARDLESS OF THE AGE OF MALE IMMIGRANTS.

Egyptian Navy Blasts Israel Port as Arabs, Jews Step Up Fighting

UN PEACE ENVOY SPEEDS PLANS TO ARRANGE TRUCE

Fighting Grows in Intensity in Developing Battle for Tel Aviv.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Egyptian navy went into action in the battle of Palestine as Arabs and Jews stepped up the tempo last night of their land and air assaults in the developing battle for Tel Aviv. The Egyptians claimed 400 Jewish soldiers were killed in fighting near Isdud.

Navy Bombards Port

The Egyptian defense ministry said an undisclosed number of its warships bombarded the port of Caesaera, 40 miles north of Tel Aviv, sinking one boat and battering buildings with direct hits.

The Israeli government said its fighter planes shot down two Egyptian bombers following all-day raids on Tel Aviv, Jewish capital.

The fighting raged as Israeli Foreign Minister Moshe Shertok and Count Folke Bernadotte, the United Nations mediator, conferred in Haifa. Shertok said a truce hour has not yet been set. Bernadotte was in Amman, the Trans-Jordan capital, and Haifa yesterday trying to obtain agreement between Jews and Arabs on a truce hour.

In the United Nations Security Council it was decided to let Count Bernadotte say precisely what the cease fire order means. Jewish and Arab leaders had clashed over terms both sides attached to the truce agreement.

British Make Two Moves

The British announced they were suspending arms shipments to Egypt, Trans-Jordan and Iraq, and at the same time banned travel to Palestine of Jews of military age from British-controlled territory.

The actions were taken under the United Nations truce resolution.

The Jewish high command said in Tel Aviv that Israeli fighter planes shot down two Egyptian bombers which attacked the capital of Israel. Jewish ground forces surrounded an Egyptian spearhead threatening Tel Aviv from the south and in the counter-offensive against the Arab triangle of strength in the north were menacing Nablus from two directions, the high command added.

Nablus is the southernmost point in the Arab triangle. The Jews said also they took several more Arab positions within three miles of Jenin, the northernmost point.

Battle Claims Conflict

The Israel communique said the Egyptian column was surrounded near Isdud, 20 miles south of Tel Aviv along the coast. However, an Egyptian communique Thursday night said their forces inflicted several losses on the Jews in a battle at Isdud, and in addition stopped a Jewish counterattack at Negba, six miles southeast of Isdud.

The Egyptians had claimed capture of Negab and two other highway points farther east.

Dispatches from Jerusalem said the Holy City was mostly quiet. An Arab Legion commander in the old city said he had issued a 24-hour "hold fire" order at 7 p.m. Wednesday. He added, "neither side wants war."

Haganah sources said the French and Greek consulates and Greek orthodox monastery on the Mount of Olives were hit in shelling Wednesday. The U. S. Embassy had three near misses.

Tel Aviv Reports 2 Egyptian Planes Down After Raid

BY D

Cairo, June 3 (AP)—The Egyptian Navy bombarded a Palestine port as land fighting along the sandy southern approach to Tel Aviv reached new intensity tonight. Arabs and Jews claimed major victories on the same battlefield south of the Jewish capital.

Israel said her fighter planes shot down two Arab bombers following a raid on Tel Aviv. The Egyptian Defense Ministry said the Navy attacked Caesarea, a small port 30 miles north of Tel Aviv, sinking one boat and raking dockside buildings with its gunfire.

The Egyptians did not disclose what type or how many warships took part in the Caesarea bombardment.

Strength Given

[The Egyptian Navy, according to Jane's Fighting Ships, includes the royal yacht (no fire power); one 2,640-ton transport fitted with two three-pounder guns; one sloop fitted with one six-pounder gun and four machine guns; five small coastal motor launches, three of which carry one 37-millimeter gun each.

[A notation listed as "additions to the fleet" explains that during the years 1947-49 Egypt planned to acquire from the British Navy three sloops, two corvettes, four mine-sweepers and a number of smaller craft.]

The high command of the Israeli Army said Jewish assault forces had fought their way inside the city limits of Jenin, Arab stronghold of the Nablus-Jenin-Tulkarm triangle. Earlier reports said the Jews had Jenin almost surrounded.

No Truce Date Set

As the battles raged, Moshe Shertok, Israel Foreign Minister, said in Haifa no date had yet been set for a cease-fire truce in Palestine. He made the statement after talking to the United Nations mediator who flew to arrange Palestine's truce order.

The bloodiest fighting in the southern coastal plain—the dusty, cactus-strewn fairway over which the Egyptians hope to reach Tel Aviv—centered about Isdud, 20 miles south of Tel Aviv, and Negba, 6 miles southeast of Isdud.

The Arabs claimed they defeated the Jews in a fierce battle at Isdud which began last evening and raged all night. Here, an Egyptian Defense Ministry communiqué said, the Israelis were routed, with heavy casualties, and were pursued by the Arabs.

Counter-Attack Turned Back

At Negba, the ministry said, a strong Jewish counterattack on Arab positions, captured Wednesday, was thrown back, allowing the Egyptians to reinforce the sites.

The Negba battle cost the Jews more than 400 dead, the communiqué said. It claimed also that Egyptian anti-aircraft guns shot down a Jewish plane in the Negba engagement.

An Israeli communiqué gave a contrary account of what apparently was the same general action reported by the Egyptians. Jewish troops surrounded a column of Egyptian infantry near Isdud, Israel said, and destroyed Egyptian tanks and trucks which tried to break through the encirclement. Egyptian casualties were reported as heavy.

The Government of Israel said the Jewish offensive against the Arab "triangle of strength" in the north was menacing Nablus from two directions.

As the land battles for the Tel Aviv approaches grew hotter, the Jewish capital was bombed several times during the day, but the Arabs lost two two-engined bombers during the raids.

Thousands of Jews in Tel Aviv saw one enemy bomber explode and fall in fragments around adjoining Jaffa. The Jews—bombed many times during the day—shouted their approval as they rushed from air-raid shelters to witness the airfight, a Tel Aviv dispatch said.

The second plane was brought down near Rehovot as it tried to reach its base in Gaza, the communiqué said.

Night Raid On Tel Aviv

An Egyptian communiqué said only one plane was lost. It said the raiding planes scored direct hits on Tel Aviv's airport and principal electric power station.

Tel Aviv had its first night raid in nearly three weeks tonight. The Israelis said they believed the Egyptians dropped 250-pound bombs today, the heaviest yet used. The bombings caused a large number of casualties, most of them in a direct hit on a bus station in suburban Rishon le Zion.

Nablus, said the communiqué, was under attack from two approaches and was also bombed by Jewish planes.

Strong Points Taken

Previously the Jews reported they took several additional strong points within 3 miles of Jehin, northernmost key town in the triangle.

Count Folke Bernadotte, United Nations mediator for Palestine, plans to return to Cairo tomorrow after a flying trip to Amman, Tel Aviv and Beirut, capitals of Trans-Jordan, Israel and Lebanon, in that order.

He announced the trip after calling on Egyptian Premier Nokrashy Pasha. He made his first stop in Amman, conferring for 90 minutes with the Trans-Jordan Foreign Minister.

To Get Agreement

Bernadotte's job is to get agreement on a definite hour for the four weeks truce already accepted by the Jews and Arabs. Asker for comment on the Jewish assumptions" and Arab "qualifications" attached to the truce agreement, Bernadotte replied:

"We shall see. Anyhow, I am always optimistic."

King Farouk let it be known through a press representative that he agreed with King Abdullah of Trans-Jordan that Arab nations will never accept a Jewish state in Palestine.

"Hold Fire" Order

A Defense Ministry bulletin from Amman said 60 Jews were killed in an attack on the Trans-Jordan Ghor es Safi police station near the south tip of the Dead Sea behind Arab lines.

Little action was reported in the New City of Jerusalem following heavy shelling of Jewish quarters yesterday. An Arab Legion commander in the Old City said he had issued a 24-hour "hold fire" order at 7 P.M. Wednesday.

"Neither side wants to attack now," the commander said.

Haganah sources in Jerusalem said the French consulate was hit four times, the Greek consulate seventeen times, and the Greek Orthodox Monastery on the Mount of Olives seven times yesterday.

Near Misses At Embassy

Thimotheos, 78-year-old Patriarch of Palestine and Trans-Jordan, had a narrow escape when a shell scattered fragments over the front entrance to the Greek monastery.

The United States Embassy had three near misses when shells fell in the street near by. One shell killed six members of a Jewish family in a slum quarter, dispatches said.

A Syrian army communiqué said patrols succeeded in setting fire to Ashdot Yaakov, a Jewish border settlement south of the Sea of Galilee.

Palestine Mediator Off To Talks In 3 Capitals

BY D

Cairo, June 3 (AP) — Arabs and Jews went on fighting in Palestine today but a United Nations mediator got the job of setting the time for a cease-fire to last four weeks.

The mediator, Swedish Count Folke Bernadotte, was told by the Security Council, meeting yesterday in Lake Success, to fix the day and hour.

Bernadotte announced in Cairo today that he will make a flying trip to Amman, Tel Aviv and Beirut and return here tomorrow.

He said he expected to visit Amman, King Abdullah's capital, first and then go to Tel Aviv, Israel's leading city, and Lebanon's capital. He did not say so, but it was presumed that he would seek an agreement on the deadline for the shooting to stop.

Both Accept U.N. Plea

The Council's plea for an armistice had been accepted Tuesday by both sides—the Israel Government of the Jews and the Arab League political committee for the five Arab countries with troops in the Holy Land.

The United States was said to want the truce to begin by Sunday, but Jamal Husseini, of the Palestine Arab higher committee, said five days would be needed to give Arab fighters the word.

Israel last night called off a cease-fire order in effect less than a day on the Jewish side. A Tel Aviv announcement said the order had been based on a misunderstanding.

Fighting Resumed

The order was effective at 3 A.M., Tel Aviv time, yesterday (7 P.M., E.D.T., Tuesday). The Government said it had taken that to be the cease-fire deadline set by the Security Council. Later, it explained, it learned that that hour was merely the Council's deadline for replies to a resolution calling for an Arab-Jewish cease fire.

The Government said Jewish forces had been ordered to resume fighting until the United Nations mediator sets a time for both sides to stop shooting.

In accepting the United Nations plea, the Jews listed "assumptions" as to its meaning and the Arabs "explanations" of their position. Despite this, Syrian Faris el Khouri, Council president, ruled yesterday that the acceptances were unconditional.

Immigration An Issue

Israel assumed, among other things, that "it's freedom to admit immigrants regardless of age will not be impaired."

The Arab governments said continued immigration of Jews of military age would be a big threat to Arab countries.

They said also that any solution "which does not maintain Palestine's political unity" would have no chance of success.

This ran counter to the United Nations' partition plan of last November. Israel bases its existence partly upon that plan.

Both Egypt and Israel last night reported fighting in the region of Negba, 30 miles southeast of Tel Aviv in territory claimed by Israel on the northern edge of the Negeb (southern desert).

Arabs Attack Negba

A Jewish communiqué said an Egyptian attack on Negba with artillery, armor and infantry was beaten off by Jewish artillery.

The Defense Ministry in Cairo said Egyptian ground forces had occupied many positions in the Negba region and held them in the strongest Jewish counterattack yet made in the southern coastal plain.

The counterattack, the communiqué said, was beaten back with artillery and air support, and the Jews suffered heavy casualties and fled in disorder.

It also reported that Egyptians had cut northern Jewish settlements off from southern settlements by occupying El Faluja, 5 miles southeast of Negba, and Beit Jibrin, 9 miles farther east.

70 Casualties In Shelling

The Iraqi Defense Ministry in Baghdad said Iraq's artillery had killed and wounded 70 in shelling the Jewish settlements of Kefar Yona and Kolm, some 20 miles northeast of Tel Aviv.

Jewish military headquarters said Israeli forces had stopped Arab attempts to drive eastward along the Tel Aviv-Jerusalem road toward Maale ha Hamisha, about 7 miles west of Jerusalem.

Egypt, Iraq and Israel all reported air-raids.

These included Iraqi bombing in the Petah Tiqva area east of Tel Aviv and Israeli bombing of targets in Arab Jenin, which has been under Jewish pressure.

The Cairo newspaper Al Misri said in an Amman dispatch that sixteen persons have been arrested and accused of signaling with a Very pistol to a Jewish plane which bombed Trans-Jordan's capital Tuesday. The dispatch said all those arrested are Palestine Arabs except one—an Armenian.

Mufti Gives to Troops Fund

CAIRO, June 3 (AP).—The Haj Amin el-Husseini, Mufti of Jerusalem, has donated 500 Egyptian pounds ($2,040) to the welfare fund of Egyptian troops in Palestine, the Arab higher committee said today.

Israel Loss Seen On Cease-Fire

Tel Aviv, Israel, June 3 (AP) — Israel's mistaken cease-fire order appeared today to have cost her army heavily from a strategic standpoint.

The cost came in lost momentum on two offensives and cancelation of at least one other major drive.

The Jewish state Tuesday night announced a cease fire effective at 3 A.M. yesterday.

Order An Error

Late yesterday Israel said the order was an error: She thought the United Nations Security Council had set that time for an Arab-Jewish cessation of hostilities; actually it had designated it only the deadline for replies to an armistice plea.

The cease-fire order was countermanded and full-scale battle ordered resumed as quickly as possible shortly after sundown last night.

But already the Arab forces had had time to group strengthened defenses in front of sorely threatened Jenin and Tulkarm, two of the three key towns to an all-Arab triangle northeast of here, and perhaps to prepare for blows to come in the south.

Handicap To Jews

This was a hard handicap to a Jewish army that, already troubled by arms and equipment shortages, had wrested the offensive impetus on two main fronts and then seen the drive stall on orders issued in error.

Acknowledgment of the mistake last night by Israel's Foreign Ministry ended all-day tension in Israel. Many had been sure the Arabs had broken a cease-fire order. They had been expecting reaction in the Security Council.

Interest turned to the question whether the Jews could get back the initiative they gave up on various fronts when the cease fire took effect on the Jewish side.

Haganah Chief Winds Up Job

Tel Aviv, Israel, June 3 (AP)—Israel Galili, shadowy leader of Haganah when it was underground, is stepping down from its command now and emerging as a dynamic force in the political life of the new state of Israel.

Galili was Haganah's last secret commander. He is a hero to the people who only recently learned his name. He directed Haganah for two years.

Haganah has now passed under the command of the Israel War Ministry, headed by Premier David Ben-Gurion. Galili, stocky, blond, balding and still a year under 40, became a member of the Ministry.

Plans To Step Down

Galili has said he will step out completely when the last details of the transfer are arranged, turn back to his political work in the left-wing Labor party and perhaps again to his writing.

Although he was Haganah's commander, Galili had neither military rank nor any uniform other than his characteristic open-shirted work clothes. He was a political commander. Haganah's policies came from him, but not the strategy or the tactics with which his directives were carried out.

Galili was born in the Russian Ukraine and came here when he was 4. His family name was Berthenko. His legal name is Galili.

He had a number of other names in his work with Haganah when it was an underground military organization. Many officers had their own distinctive names, and a man coming into an office would adopt the name of his predecessor.

Learned About Security

Galili's military training was all in Haganah's security work, rather than in gun drill. He became a member of the Haganah high command ten years ago, when the organization first emerged from a loose-knit underground defense force into an actual military unit. Before he became supreme commander, he had been the Jewish Agency's representative in the command.

Galili was the man the people did not know—at least not as Haganah's secret chief. His first interview with the foreign press was only four months ago, and in that he exchanged written notes so that the secret of his identity could be preserved.

Galili was—and still would prefer to be—a settlement man. His home is in a communal settlement, Naan, in southern Palestine. He is married and has two sons, aged 9 and 4. Although for several years now he has had to work through the week in Tel Aviv, he goes home to his family on week ends, squeezing out the time from a schedule of staff meetings, political meetings, writing and public speaking.

Kfar Etzion Survivors Arrive At Prison Camp

A Prison Camp in Trans-Jordan, June 3 (AP)—The population of this desert camp was doubled today when 359 survivors of the Jewish settlement of Kfar Etzion were marched into the barbed-wire inclosure.

The new group, including 89 women, entered the camp at sunset and joined 361 Jews already confined here. The internees include Jews from the Old City of Jerusalem, the Nahareim electric plant and battlefield captives from Latrun.

The Kfar Etzion prisoners were transported from Hebron, Palestine, where they had been held by King Abdullah's Arab Legion since the British mandate ended. As they entered Trans-Jordan they passed rolling westward Iraqi heavy artillery which is capable of shelling Tel Aviv at long range.

The camp was visited today by an International Red Cross representative who promised to supply books and other things soon. The prisoners already have established classes, including one of Bible study.

A Haganah soldier, Samuel Bizinsky, who was captured in the Old City, said the Arab Legion guards "are very fine people—we have no complaints about our treatment."

Camp conditions are about equal to those provided for Arab refugees from Palestine by the Trans-Jordan Government.

The youngest "prisoner" is an 18-month-old baby named Israel Koperlow who came here with his 64-year-father, Chaim Koperlow, from Jerusalem's Old City.

The Jews have established their own camp administration. Their greatest lack is news. With famished curiosity the prisoners asked whether there had been a truce yet in the Holy Land.

Village Reported Abandoned

BAGHDAD, Iraq, June 3 (AP)—Israeli forces suffered more than eighty-five casualties in dead and wounded as a result of Iraqi military attacks, an Iraqi Defense Ministry communique said tonight.

The communiqué said the Israeli forces were forced to abandon the village of Muqeibila in the Galilee region with sixty dead and wounded. It added that they suffered twenty-five dead and wounded when Iraqi artillery shelled Israeli positions in Kfar Yona, four miles east of Natanya.

NO TRUCE DATE SET; BERNADOTTE BUSY

U. N. Mediator Sees Shertok in Tel Aviv After Visit to Trans-Jordan Capital

HAIFA, June 3 (AP)—Moshe Shertok, Israeli Foreign Minister, said tonight that no date had yet been set for a cease-fire in Palestine. He made the statement after talking to Count Folke Bernadotte, United Nations Mediator trying to arrange for a four weeks' truce.

Count Bernadotte flew here late today from the Trans-Jordan capital of Amman, and Mr. Shertok said they had had a "lengthy exploratory talk." The Mediator declined to say at a news conference what specific points were still under discussion.

Asked whether the talks with both sides were proceeding satisfactorily, he replied:

"Being by nature an optimist, I haven't become a pessimist."

Count Bernadotte originally planned to continue to Beirut, capital of Lebanon, but changed his mind. He said he would leave Haifa tomorrow for Cairo, where he will meet again with Arab representatives and continue negotiations.

British Halt Shipment Of Arms to Arabs

LONDON, June 3—(AP) Britain today suspended arms shipments to Egypt, Trans-Jordan and Iraq. At the same time she banned the travel to Palestine of fit Jews of military age from territories she controls.

Both actions were taken, under the UN resolution for a four-week truce.

The arms ban in effect temporarily superseded Britain's treaties with the three Arab countries under which she was obligated to supply their armed forces with equipment of all kinds. She already had stopped arms shipments to Saudi Arabia, Lebanon, Syria and Yemen, the other four Arab league states. This was in accordance with an earlier UN resolution for an arms embargo. She was not committed by treaty to supply them.

The amount of arms stopped from shipment is a military secret.

The foreign office spokesman announced the ban on transport of Jewish refugees for the period of the truce. About 24,000 Jews at Cyprus were affected. They were deported upon interception of their immigration ships. About 500 already had left the island for Palestine.

The ban also affected 400 Jewish deportees in camps in Kenya, East Africa, and the spokesman said the freeze would apply to all fit Jews of military age in other territories under British control, including the British zone of Germany.

A foreign office spokesman said the ban was the result of Britain's own interpretation of the UN truce which calls for a stand-still in the introduction of "fighting personnel" into the Holy Land by either side during the truce.

"We interpret the term 'fighting personnel' as something broader than 'armed forces'", said the spokesman. He added that many Jews on Cyprus had received some military training.

In Washington an official of the Israeli government declared the British action "a flagrant and unwarranted violation of the security council cease-fire order." He said it would make more difficult the work of the UN mediator, Count Folke Bernadotte. ADD

British Halt Arms for Arabs In Bow to U.N.

Also Forbid Moving Of Jews of Military Age From Cyprus

By the Associated Press.

LONDON, June 3.—Britain has stopped supplying arms and military equipment to Egypt, Iraq and Trans-Jordan in accordance with the United Nations truce conditions for Palestine, a Foreign Office spokesman said tonight. D

Britain also has barred all fit Jews of military age from moving to Palestine from Cyprus, where 24,000 were interned at the time the British mandate over Palestine ended. The spokesman said the ban will continue during the four-week truce presumably soon to go into effect.

The suspension of arms in effect supersedes Britain's treaties of alliance with the Arab countries. The spokesman said each country understands that Britain's obligations to the United Nations come first.

Britain also supplies the other Arab League nations—Saudi Arabia, Yemen, Lebanon and Syria. However, supplies other than unfulfilled contracts were suspended when the United Nations earlier this year called for an embargo on shipments of military goods to the Middle East.

Cyprus Combat-Age Jews Being Held During Truce

London, June 3 (AP)—The Foreign Office announced today that Britain has banned the movement of all fit Jews of military age from Cyprus to Palestine.

An informal Whitehall source said adequate military measures have been taken in Cyprus to control possible disturbances by the 24,000 Jews held there.

A Foreign Office spokesman said the ban will continue for the entire period of the four-week United Nations truce presumably soon to go into effect.

The decision is based on the British Government's own interpretation of the Security Council's resolution calling on Jews and Arabs to halt the importation of fighting personnel into Palestine during a truce.

Many Are Trained

"We interpret the term 'fighting personnel' as something broader than 'armed forces,'" the spokesman said. "We see that the intention to exclude fighting personnel meant that any persons capable of being used for fighting should be excluded from Palestine."

The spokesman said many Jews on Cyprus previously had some form of military training, and "it would be inconsistent with the Security Council's resolution if those people were allowed to leave for the fighting areas."

Since Britain ended her Palestine mandate May 15, Israel authorities have removed about 500 of the Cyprus Jews, refugees from all parts of Europe who were interned on the island after trying to enter Palestine without certificates when the Holy Land was British governed.

Older Men May Leave

Arrangements to transfer others now apparently will be delayed so that authorities may sort out those considered possible fighting material.

The Foreign Office spokesman said older men, and women and children, will be allowed to leave. He declined to say how many Jewish men on Cyprus were of military age, which he defined as between 18 and 45.

The British ban also will apply to the almost 400 Jewish deportees held in camps in Kenya, East Africa. These Jews were interned because of alleged terrorist activities in the Holy Land.

Emir Feisal, Foreign Minister of Saudi Arabia, lunched today with Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin.

Israeli Assails Move

In Washington, an official of the Israeli Government termed the British action "a flagrant and unwarranted violation of the Security Council cease-fire order."

"As finally approved by the Security Council," he added, "the resolution stated that if men of military age were admitted during the truce period, they should not be trained or mobilized for the fighting forces.

"The Israel delegate to the United Nations emphasized as one of his interpretations of the Security Council order that immigration cannot be restricted.

"This transgression by Britain cannot but make more difficult the work and efforts of the United Nations' mediator, Count Bernadotte and jeopardize the success of the four-week truce.

"It is also further evidence of lack of a neutral stand by Britain in the present fighting in Palestine."

Israel Gets Recognition By Hungary

Budapest, Hungary, June 3 (AP)—Hungary recognized Israel today. She is the tenth nation to do so.

The United States, Russia, Guatemala, Poland, Yugoslavia, Uruguay, Czechoslovakia, Nicaragua and South Africa previously recognized the new Jewish state.

A considerable number of Hungarian Jews are expected to apply for visas when peace is restored in Palestine.

Sweden Willing To Send Armistice Controllers

Stockholm, June 3 (AP)—The Swedish Government is willing to send officers to Palestine as armistice controllers, the Foreign Office said tonight.

An official announcement said Sweden had been asked whether she would do so and the Government agreed "in principle to send a limited number."

Currency Accord In Reich Sought

SINGLETON

London, June 3 (AP)—Responsible diplomatic officials reported today the Western powers plan to seek an accord with Russia soon on establishment of a sound, uniform currency throughout Germany for use in domestic and international trade.

Chances for success of the move were seen in the fact both Russia and the Western powers have argued for a uniform currency. D Agreement for a new effort in this direction was reached in a conference at six countries, which ended here yesterday.

Russ Charge Denied

The countries were the United States, France, Great Britain, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

The Russians recently blamed the Western powers—the United States in particular—for the breakdown of four-power Berlin talks on German financial reform. Both the United States and Britain denied the charge.

In recent weeks both British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin and Gen. Lucius D. Clay, United States military governor for Germany, have expressed hopes for a new country-wide currency system.

If Russia rejects the bid or shows signs of delaying a decision indefinitely, it was learned here, the Western powers will go ahead alone.

Meanwhile, diplomats reported the United States and Britain had offered assurances the Ruhr and Rhineland would be kept under military control indefinitely after the general occupation of Germany ends.

Answer To French

The step was taken in answer to French demands for security. The United States was reported to have told the French that American troops will stay as long as Germany continues divided and under partial Russian occupation. ADD

'Back-Door' U.S. Aid Likely In Red Sphere

MICHAEL GOLDSMITH

Geneva, Switzerland, June 3 (AP). Europe's economy may require backdoor admission of Poland and other East-European nations to the benefits of the Marshall plan, officials of the Economic Commission for Europe said today.

The officials were disturbed by the news that France and Italy had rejected certain allocations of coal from Poland because of lack of dollars or other acceptable means of payment. They said the European economy may suffer a severe setback unless Marshall-plan nations are authorized to use dollars for purchases in the Soviet sphere.

The difficulties of east-west trade in Europe have arisen first in the case of Polish coal, the officials said, but probably soon will involve other materials and other countries of Eastern Europe.

Hard Money Sought

At the recent session of the Economic Commission's coal allocations committee, Poland offered some 500,000 metric tons of steam coal for sale in the third quarter of 1948. She asked payment in hard currency.

This offer consisted of "fluid" coal, which is not contracted for under existing trade agreements and could be allocated by the committee according to national requirements.

Poland is supplying an additional 3,750,000 tons of coal to European countries under trade and barter arrangements.

Of the "fluid" 500,000 tons, 250,000 tons were allocated to Italy, 90,000 tons to France and most of the remainder to Denmark and the Netherlands.

Lack Of Dollars

Italy and France later advised the Economic Commission that they are unable to accept their shares of the coal through lack of dollars. Secretariat officials expect Denmark and the Netherlands to follow suit.

As a result, equivalent quantities of steam coal may have to be shipped from the United States under the Marshall plan to the countries concerned.

A similar situation may arise with other materials needed for recovery in Western Europe. Thus, Europe would draw from the United States raw materials available in Europe.

Premise Of Program

Commission officials said such a development would throw out of gear the planned requirements of the nations receiving American aid, as the European Recovery Program was built on the premise that trade between Eastern and Western Europe would continue and would itself contribute to European recovery.

One senior official of the commission said the problem required an immediate decision by the Economic Co-Operation Administration of Paul Hoffman. He said Hoffman recently authorized small purchases of Polish coal for dollars by Austria, and that similar authorization was necessary for other Marshall-plan nations.

"Otherwise," he declared, "Western Europe may well continue to depend on American aid forever."

U.S. OFFICIAL HELD 16 HOURS

Americans Term Soviet Action In Berlin Outrageous

KASISCHKE

Berlin, June 3 (AP)—American-Russians relations here were under new strain tonight. United States authorities denounced as "high-handed" and "outrageous" the arrest and sixteen-hour detention of an American Military Government official in the Soviet sector of the city.

The official was middle-aged Dr. Harry Lee Franklin, deputy chief of the military government's civil administration and political affairs branch for Berlin. He was seized by a Russian captain and five Tommy gunners last night while visiting a camera shop in downtown Berlin. Despite American protestations he was held incommunicado until shortly after noon today.

Claimed They Were Checking

All that time, said American authorities, the Russians claimed they were "checking his identity." This checking went on all through the night and half a day, United States officials said, despite the fact they promtply informed high Soviet officials of the identity of Dr. Franklin, who deals daily with the Russians.

Col. Frank L. Howley, United States commandant of Berlin, denounced the Russian action and said he planned to register a formal protest with the Russian commandant, Maj. Gen. Alexander G. Kotikov. Howley said he would remind the Russians again they were violating four-power agreements providing for unrestricted transit between Berlin's four occupation sectors.

Franklin's immediate superior in military government, Louis Glaser, called the Russian action "kidnapping."

Sought Repairs On Camera

Franklin prepared a personal report on his experience for the military government and released it to the press.

He said he was arrested while in a downtown shop where he was seeking repair for a camera. When they asked for his identity papers, he said, he immediately produced his American Military Government papers and his automobile certificate. Nevertheless, the Russians demanded he come along to their headquarters.

"I requested permission to telephone my headquarters as well as my wife but this was refused," Franklin said.

No Food Or Drink For 15 Hours

He said he was kept overnight in a local police headquarters and given "grudging consent at about 8.30 P.M." to try to sleep on a bare table.

"I was not offered food or drink of any kind until 11.40 A.M. today (after fifteen hours of detention)," Franklin added.

Franklin—a native of Kentucky—said he was not otherwise mistreated but frequently questioned by Russian plainclothesmen. They wanted to know, especially, whether he had any business connections with Germans in the Soviet sector.

He said he thought the Russians were "probably trying to frame up something" on the German photographic technician in whose shop he was arrested.

Believes "Outrage" Intended

"At the same time," Franklin added in his formal statement, "I believe the Russians are trying to do everything possible to discourage Americans from entering the Soviet sector of Berlin except on strictly necessary official business and at the same time are likewise discouraging Germans of all groups and classes from having any contact with Americans, British or French from the western occupation sectors.

"I feel that my detention by the Soviets, after my identity was clearly established well before midnight last night, is an outrage and was probably intended as such."

Franklin has been in Germany sixteen years. He was an American consul in Berlin before the war.

Seized By Red Patrol While On Errand In Berlin Zone

Berlin, June 3 (AP)—The Russians today released Dr. Harry L. Franklin, American military government official whom they held for about sixteen hours.

Franklin asserted the Russians seized him "entirely without justification" while he was on a business errand in the center of town. He was kept overnight in one of the Russians' local police headquarters and questioned by the Russians.

Franklin was arrested by a Soviet patrol as he left a photographer's shop.

Deputy Chief For AMG

He is deputy chief of the civil administration and political affairs branch for AMG in Berlin.

Col. Frank L. Howley, director of United States military government for Berlin, described the Russian action in holding Franklin overnight as high-handed and said he would make a formal protest.

"Knew Who He Was"

"Franklin has a perfect right to go anywhere in the city he wishes," Colonel Howley said. "If the Russians claim that red tape was responsible for the delay in his release, we don't make any allowance for Russian inefficiency."

He said the Rusians "knew during last evening who Franklin was and should have released him then."

Franklin, a native of Lexington, Ky., last lived in the United States in Washington, D.C.

Louis Glaser, who is Franklin's immediate superior, declared:

"The Russians had absolutely no reason for arresting Dr. Franklin. He was not crossing a road block, he was not taking photographs. He was merely within his rights going into their sector of town on a business errand."

Seized Leaving Shop

Friends said his errand was to get a motion-picture camera from the shop where it had been repaired.

"As he was leaving the photographer's shop," Glaser said, "he was seized by a Russian patrol—and, after the fashion of people seized by the Russians, he disappeared. This apparently means that the Russians have extended their practice of kidnapping Germans to abducting Americans. There is no excuse for it.

"When I asked that he be released, they merely said they would investigate the case. It appeared to me they were not investigating at all, but just laughing at us."

Numerous German Communists have been arrested in the American sector for circulating petitions—banned in the United States zone—for a Communist-promoted plebiscite on German unification. Some Americans expressed the belief Franklin's arrest might have been in retaliation.

U.S. Denies Russ Plane-Incident Accusations

Berlin, June 3 (AP)—United States authorities denied today a Russian charge that an American fighter plane dangerously molested a Soviet transport flying the Berlin-Zurich route.

The Russians said the incident occurred over their occupation zone April 28. They called it a "violation of flight-safety laws." Lieut. Gen. M. I. Dratvin, Soviet deputy military governor, protested to American officials.

Maj. Gen. W. E. Hall, chief of the United States military government armed forces division, said the Russian allegation is "completely false." He said there are radar records to prove it.

American Version

Hall said the Russian pilot was guilty of dangerous flying and that he "turned into" the American fighter. Hall gave this version of the incident:

The Russians obtained United States authorization to fly over the United States zone to Zurich. One of their C-47 planes returning to Berlin flew off its course southwest of Hof, in the United States zone near the Russian zone border. The plane was detected by radar and an American fighter was sent aloft to identify it.

"The Soviet plane then turned into the American fighter," Hall said. "There was no dangerous flying except by the Russian C-47. We have a radar track on the incident which substantiates the report of the fighter pilot."

Russ Motive Cited

Some United States authorities privately said the Russian charge was "just another episode in their attempts to justify forcing restrictions on Allied flying in the air corridors between Berlin and western Germany."

The official Soviet news agency said Dratvin had told Maj. Gen. George P. Hays, American deputy commander, that "only through the splendid discipline, experience and self-control of the Soviet flyer could misfortune be averted."

West Can't Hold Berlin Position, Reds Argue

Berlin, June 3 (AP)—The Neues Deutschland, official newspaper of the Communist-controlled Socialist Unity party, said today the Western powers' position in Berlin has become untenable because of decisions of the London six-nation conference.

The newspapers' comment came the day after Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovsky, Soviet commander in Germany, said the conference's decisions for a western German state "contradict the interests of the peace-loving nations of Europe as well as the interests of the German people."

Sokolovsky also said Russia has no intention of separating her occupation zone from the rest of Germany or of joining the zone to the Soviet Union. He said Russia "supports all German efforts which have the reuniting of Germany as their aim."

Agreements Reached

Representatives of Britain, France, the United States, Belgium, Holland, the Netherlands and Luxembourg adjourned yesterday after reaching agreements on western Germany's future status. The decisions have yet to be approved by the Governments concerned.

Neues Deutschland and other Communist newspapers have been campaigning for months to get British, French and American occupation forces out of Berlin. The paper said:

"By the decisions of London, the erection of a western German state and establishment of currency reform for western Germany with the exclusion of Berlin, they have given up their positions in Berlin themselves. How long do they still want to stay?"

The newspaper said the Americans in Berlin are sitting on a "very wobbly chair," having "sawed off one leg after another."

Sokolovsky's statements were distributed by the Soviet news agency Tass. He said reports of an Anschluss of eastern Germany with Russia are "senseless and slanderous."

Mentioning the London conference, he commented:

"The enemies of democracy, who feel their weakness, take refuge in lies, hypocrisy and false pretense to cover the true character of their dividing policy.

"I will not be surprised if the dividers begin to prove that they have divided Germany in order to unite or that formation of an all-German democratic government is unnecessary because a West German marionette government already exists."

Berlin Transport Again

BERLIN, June 3 (AP).—[illegible] transport was back to normal today after a twenty-four-hour protest strike on trolley, subway and bus lines. The transport workers' union said it hoped for quick approval by the four-power Allied headquarters of its demands for more pay and food.

Blaho, Slovak Minister Of Ports, Flees Country

Prague, Czechoslovakia, June 3 (AP)—Pavel Blaho, Minister of Posts for Slovakia, has fled the country, the Prague radio said tonight.

Blaho, who continued to hold his job after the February coup in Czechoslovakia, is a member of the so-called Freedom party, a small political group which follows a middle-of-the-road policy.

It also was learned that Alena Vrzanova, one of the world's leading figure skaters, made her way across the Czech border three weeks ago. Miss Vrzanova was one of the closest rivals of Barbara Ann Scott, of Canada, in the championships at Prague and St. Moritz last winter.

China College Head Quits In Row Over U.S.

Shanghai, June 3 (AP)—Dr. Y. C. Tu president of American-supported St. John's University, resigned today as dissension marked the anti-American campaign on the campus.

Most students stayed away after the president declared a week's recess and moved up final examinations.

The dispute centered on United States policy in Japan. Student criticism of American aid to the former enemy has been branded by the Government as Communist inspired.

Shanghai, June 3 (AP)—Francis Cardinal Spellman, of New York, raised thirteen Chinese to priesthood in Zikawei Cathedral today. A congregation of 3,000 watched the ceremony. Names of some of the new priests showed a blending of East and West—like Ignatius Ku, John Baptist Yu and Dominic Chao.

Chinese Report Major Honan Plain Battle

Nanking, June 3 (AP)—Chinese sources reported a big battle under way today between five Government divisions and 100,000 Chinese Communists on the Honan Plain east of Nanyan.

Hankow dispatches to Hsiin Min Pao, said Government land and air units had trapped some of Gen. Chen Yi's units 20 miles east of Nanyang. The city is about 190 miles northwest of Hankow and 380 northwest of Nanking.

A Government military spokesman said that while 20,000 of Communist Liu Po-Cheng's men engaged defending forces at Paiho, on the southwestern bank of the Han River, another Red army advanced on Nanyan. Government troops moved to block off Communist attempts to cross the Yangtze River or move into Szechwan province.

March Of Dimes Nets $266,028 In Far East

Tokyo, June 3 (AP)—The United States Army's Far East Command stopped to count up today, and discovered its soldiers and civilian employés had contributed $266,028.07 to the March of Dimes.

The .07 is presumed part of the gift of someone who simply tossed in his loose change.

Korea Assembly Recesses

Seoul, June 3 (AP)—Korea's new National Assembly recessed today until June 8, when it will hear reports of its constitution drafting and rules committees.

Indonesians Get Dutch Note; Russ Link Hinted

Batavia, Java, June 3 (AP)—The Netherlands handed the Indonesian Republic a note today which was said by informed Dutch and Indonesian circles to deal with relations of the republic with other countries.

Both Dutch and Indonesians here predicted the note would prove to be a repetition of The Hague's viewpoint that the republic can undertake no direct relations abroad without violating the Renville agreement on the Indies' political setup. The republic recently was recognized by Russia.

The note's contents were not made known at once. A dispatch of the Indonesian news agency Antara from Jogjakarta, republican capital, said Dutch Cabinet Minister L. H. Neher gave the communication to Indonesian Vice President-Premier Mohamed Hatta.

Russ Recognition Cited

A Dutch delegation has been negotiating with the Republicans in view of the Soviet recognition. A Dutch spokesman in Batavia said the note was the result of new instructions to the delegation. He refused to discuss its contents.

Antara quoted informed Indonesians in Jogjakarta as confirming that the note dealt with republican foreign relations.

Official Dutch circles are frankly disturbed over the Soviet recognition. They term unsatisfactory the republican explanation that the recognition was negotiated with Jogjakarta's consent.

The Moslem party, the republic's biggest, announced today its appreciation of the recognition, Antara reported.

Cementing Hold On Sumatra

Meanwhile, the Republicans intensified efforts to cement their hold on Sumatra, great island northwest of Java where foreign observers consider their strength greatest.

President Soekarno flew there for his first visit since the republic was proclaimed nearly three years ago. He was expected to rally republican strength around his personal popularity.

In Jogjakarta the republican government confirmed a decision to split republican Sumatra into three provinces to build up administrative strength.

It announced Dr. Mohammed Amin has been named governor of North Sumatra, Mohammed Rashid governor of Central Sumatra and Dr. Mohammed Isa governor of South Sumatra.

SAMOAN ASSEMBLY OPENS

Islanders in Majority for First Time Under U. N. Trusteeship

DOUGLAS—LOVELACE

APIA, Western Somoa, June 3 (AP)—Samoa has opened its new Legislative Assembly with a Samoan majority for the first time in half a century. However, thousands of Samoans passed up the event yesterday, going instead to watch district teams race in forty-man longboats.

At the Assembly session, the New Zealand High Commissioner, Col. F. W. Voelcker, handed over the largest measure of control Western Samoa has enjoyed since it became a German possession in 1899. The territory, with 70,000 population, was mandated to New Zealand in 1920. The High Commissioner retains the right of absolute veto and direction of finance and external affairs.

HOUSE GROUP FAVORS U.S. AID TO PACTS

Would Have Nation 'Encourage' Certain Military Alliances

Washington, June 3 (AP)—A declaration of American policy to "encourage" military alliances among the free nations of western Europe was approved today by the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

The policy statement, offered as a bill by Chairman Eaton (R., N.J.), carries a strong suggestion of United States help for such alliances.

Its announced purpose is to strengthen the United Nations and its proposes several ways of attempting that. Committee approval of the measure was reported to have been overwhelming.

Vandenberg Has Separate Bill

The bill declares the American people's intention "to associate the United States with regional and other collective self-defense arrangements . . . affecting the national security of the United States."

And it states "the United States determination to exercise its right of self-defense . . . in the event of attack upon any [United Nations] member when American national security is involved."

Eaton told newsmen he believes that despite the logjam of legislation, the GOP high command will seek action on the measure before Congress adjourns June 19.

Senate President Vandenberg (R., Mich.) is sponsoring a separate measure backing the western European nations. His is in the form of a joint resolution while Eaton's, if passed by Congress and signed by the President, would be a law.

Provision Of Eaton Measure

The Eaton bill would pledge this country, acting within the United Nations, to:

1. Seek "by voluntary action" to kill the veto on peaceful settlement of international disputes, but not the big-power veto in cases of aggression.

2. Press for agreements to provide the United Nations with armed forces; set up international control over weapons of mass destruction, and establish universal regulation and reduction of armaments, including armed forces, "under safeguards to protect complying nations against violation and evasion."

3. "To initiate consultations among [United Nations] members concerning the need for and possibility of amending the charter to enable the United Nations more effectively to prohibit and prevent aggression and other breaches of the peace."

Judd Proposal Avoided

Representative Vorys (R., Ohio), a committee member, told newsmen the phrase "to initiate consultations" is not intended as a directive to President Truman to call a general conference, as urged by some proponents of an immediate showdown with Russia.

Vorys said it indicates rather that the United States should take the lead in "informal action" which might result in amending the United Nations Charter. The House committee veered away from a proposal by Representative Judd (R., Minn.) and others for a showdown with Moscow. Secretary of State Marshall has said that if Russia leaves the United Nations it will destroy the last bridge between the Soviet bloc and the democracies.

Eaton's bill would also authorize a $65,000,000 no-interest loan, repayable over a 30-year period, for construction of a new United Nations headquarters in New York. The Reconstruction Finance Corporation would be authorized to advance $25,000,000 of this sum.

HOUSE GROUP CUTS FOREIGN AID CASH

ERP Would Be Hardest Hit by Proposed Slash of 26 Per Cent.

WASHINGTON, June 3—(AP) A 26.7 per cent slash in this country's multi-billion dollar foreign aid program was voted today by the House Appropriations Committee.

The group, headed by Rep. Taber (R-NY), recommended $5,980,710,288 for the global aid program. This is $553,000,000 less than the ceiling fixed earlier by Congress.

Moreover the committee voted to spread the foreign spending over 15 months. It was set up originally as a one-year program. The committee's action would whittle the monthly rate of spending from $417,000,000 to $306,000,000. Thus it amounts to a 26.7 per cent cut.

ERP Hardest Hit

Hardest hit would be the European recovery program. The committee recommended $4,000,000 in 15 months for this 16-nation project. Congress had authorized up to $4,245,000,000 in 12 months.

(Congress already has appropriated $1,055,000,000 for foreign aid, nearly all of it for ERP.)

The new appropriations bill now goes to the full House, where backers of the foreign aid program are certain to demand that some or all of the cuts be restored.

The House ordinarily follows the recommendations of the Appropriations committee, however. The hardest fight to raise the appropriations again probably will come in the Senate.

Paul G. Hoffman, head of the European recovery program, said he "certainly hoped" that Congress would restore the cuts.

"The less money we have, the less recovery we can expect to get," he told a news conference.

Besides the general cut, the house group voted to use $20,000,000 for ERP funds for Trieste relief. Congress had approved a separate $20,000,000 for Trieste.

Other Cuts Recommended

Other cuts recommended by the appropriations committee:

Chinese aid: From $463,000,000 to $400,000,000.

Greek-Turkish aid: From $275,000,000 to $200,000,000.

Government and relief in occupied areas: From $1,400,000,000 to $1,250,000,000.

These programs were not cut: International children's fund, $60,000,000, and international refugee organization $70,710,288.

In a last-minute change, the appropriations group added to its bill a ban against wool purchases from any source except the commodity credit corporation so long as the CCC has a surplus.

Chairman Taber (R-NY) in an accompanying statement, accused the British labor government of "incompetent" handling of its food problems, adding:

"It is a sad commentary on governmental planning when socialist England keeps her people on a diet far lower than they should be and allows the food to rot in government depots and warehouses."

Britain is down for the largest single share of ERP aid.

The appropriations committee, which made its recommendations after lengthy hearings during which many witnesses were closely questioned, said more than the $5,980,710,288 total could not be spent "on an intelligent basis" before July 1, 1949.

It added that the U. S. has spent more than $18,000,000,000 for similar purposes since July 1, 1945—"much of it wasted," the report said.

Five-Year Peacetime Draft Bill Ready For Senate Action

Washington, June 3 (AP)—A five-year peacetime draft to meet the manpower needs of the regular armed services and the reserves was laid before the Senate today.

Chairman Gurney (R., S.D.) of the Senate Armed Services Committee outlined the bill in a speech prepared for the opening of debate on the controversial measure.

He and other GOP leaders hope to win Senate passage of the draft revival bill by early next week. But there is possible trouble ahead.

Segregation Sought

Senator Russell (D., Ga.)—with pledges of widespread Southern support—has promised to fight for an amendment to require the services to set up segregated white and Negro units for all men who asked to serve only with those of their own race.

On top of this, Senator Langer (R., N.D.), an avowed foe of the draft, said he will offer seven amendments to cover President Truman's civil-rights program.

Across the Capitol, the House Rules Committee scheduled another session in its long series of hearings to determine when a similar bill should be sent to the House floor.

Republican leaders have listed the Selective Service bill as one of only three "must" measures to be cleared before the June 19 adjournment.

Forrestal Backs Bill

Neither the House nor Senate bill makes any provision for a universal military training program. President Truman had asked for this.

Despite the omission of a compulsory training plan for youths, Defense Secretary Forrestal wrote Gurney that the pending bill is an "excellent" one.

The Senate measure would require all men 18 through 25 to register. Those in the 19-25 group would be liable for two years' service. Eighteen-year-olds could volunteer for one year of training.

Other voluntary enlistments also would be continued but Gurney insisted these will not guarantee the 1,795,000 regulars and 1,520,000 reserves sought.

Forces Scattered Thinly

Gurney denied "any contention that war is in the offing, nor even that war is inevitable." But he added:

"This nation is foolishly gambling with the future safety and well being of its people and of its way of living. We have no armed forces in being which are capable of protecting those things which we as a nation hold to be sacred, nor which are strong enough to uphold the dignity and the position of the United States."

He said this nation's armed forces now "are scattered thinly all over the globe with only a pitifully small number of reserves available in the United States."

Measure Is Flexible

Gurney said that while the draft would be authorized for five years, the program is left flexible so Congress each year can adjust requirements to meet changing conditions.

Gurney said drafted men after completing two years of service would have to serve in the reserve for five years. They could avoid this by volunteering for an additional year in the regular services, or two years in the National Guard.

The 18-year-olds who train for only one year would have to serve six years in the reserve or four years in the National Guard.

Vets Deferred

If the one-year trainee declined either such an assignment, he could be called to active duty for another twelve months.

Veterans with more than eighteen months' service between September 16, 1940, and enactment of the new bill would be deferred along with those with more than 90 days' service during World War II.

The bill includes authority for the Government to seize plants and industries which fail to accept or fill Government orders of the armed services.

U.S. Alerts Officers For Palestine Duty

Washington, June 3 (AP)—The United States has 21 Army, Navy and Air Force officers on notice to be ready to fly to Palestine and help work out a truce in Jewish-Arab warfare.

At the request of the State Department, the armed forces instructed the officers to be prepared to leave at any time.

The State Department said that no formal request has been received from the United Nations for the services of the officers. But it was learned that the American Government has received informal word that it very probably will be called upon for help. Therefore, the 21 officers have been ordered to stand by so that if and when a formal request comes through instant action can be taken.

Would Observe Truce

The names of the officers were not disclosed.

The officers presumably would serve in carrying word of the truce to units of the Jewish and Arab fighting forces that are removed from direct contact with their responsible commands. They also would observe the degree to which the truce was honored and arrange details of local adherence.

State Department officials expect that if the United States is called upon to supply personnel, other natoins will also. It would be up to the United Nations agency making the call to determine which nations should be asked to give help. That decision, in turn, would apparently decide whether Russian personnel would go into Palestine.

In Jerusalem, there is a consular truce commission of American, French and Belgium consuls. The Russian issue would be avoided as far as the Western powers are concerne dif the officer teams were drawn from those three countries.

PRESS, FILM AID-FUND PLAN HIT AS 'PAYOFF'

$10,000,000 Exchange Is Attacked By Allen, Defended By Taber

Washington, June 3 (AP)—The statement was made and disputed today that a $10,000,000 foreign exchange fund was recommended as a "payoff" to certain magazines and newspapers for supporting the Marshall plan.

Creation of the fund was approved by the House Appropriations Committee as part of the foreign aid bill. It was originally proposed by the State Department, which asked $15,000,000, but the committee cut it to $10,000,000.

The fund would make dollars available, if desired, to publishers, news organizations, producers or distributors of American books, movies or periodicals in exchange for foreign currencies which these organizations earn but are unable to use to purchase necessary supplies.

Calls Fund A "Payoff"

Representative Leo Allen (R., Ill.) said at a meeting of the House Rules Committee, which he heads, that the fund amounts to "subsidies" for publications which "have fought for the Marshall plan."

"It's $10,000,000 for propaganda and subsidies," he declared. "It's a payoff."

Representative Taber (R., N.Y.), chairman of the Appropriations Committee, said he did not believe there was any connection between support of the European aid program and participation in the foreign exchange fund.

And Paul G. Hoffman, administrator of the European recovery program, said any "medium of information" operating in Europe could apply for aid from the fund.

During recent hearings before a House Appropriations subcommittee, J. Noel Macy, assistant director of the State Department's Office of International Information, was questioned on the subject.

In this testimony, made public today, Macy said, for example, American publishers who are encouraged to send their publications abroad to help the foreign information program can't meet the demand of foreign consumers because the foreign currency they receive won't buy the paper for printing. This must be paid for in dollars.

He said he had "some figures here showing the foreign exchange requirements of various media" doing business in foreign countries.

He listed various motion-picture companies and book publishers' organizations. Under the heading of "Newspapers and Magazines Furnishing Figures," he listed: "Time, Life, Newsweek, Readers Digest, New York Herald Tribune, for Paris edition, New York Times (occupied areas only), Associated Press (occupied areas only), United Press, International News Service (occupied areas only)."

AP Makes No Inquiry

[The Associated Press directly serves newspapers and radio stations abroad, and has no connection with any "foreign information" program. The Associated Press has made no inquiry as respects currency exchange provisions of the foreign aid bill.

[Hugh Baillie, president of the United Press Associations, issued this statement: "The United Press never accepts Government subsidies. At the request of the State Department the United Press furnished an estimate of the amount of frozen marks which it is currently accumulating in occupied Germany."

[International News Service issued a statement saying: "INS has never accepted a Government subsidy in its entire history and does not intend to do so now."]

Time, Life, Readers Digest, Newseek, the New York Times and the New York Herald Tribune all declared they had asked for no government assistance.

At today's Rules Committee hearing, Taber was asked by Representative Harness (R., Ind.) if there was any suggestion that the three press association were being reimbursed for support of the Marshall plan. Taber said there was not.

"Never Known To Propagandize"

"I don't think they were propagandizing for anything," he added. "I have never known the AP, the UP or the INS to propagandize for anything."

The American Book Publishers' Council in New York said tonight the Marshall plan monies could not be "termed a subsidy".

In a statement the council, the American Textbook Publishers Institute and the Association of American University Presses said:

"We believe Congress is capable of legislating intelligently and impartially on appropriations dealing with European rehabilitation. . . . As American publishers manufacture their books in the United States, they cannot use blocked foreign currencies in the conduct of their business.

"It is high time that American books be made available in Europe in quantities comparable to those supplied by other nations, including Russia."

MARSHALL'S TRADE POLICY UNDER ATTACK

Secretary Criticized In Senate Hearing On Extension Of Act

Washington, June 3 (AP)—A Senate committee hearing on extension of the Reciprocal Trade Agreement Act developed today into a sharp attack on the State Department and Gen. George C. Marshall, Secretary of State.

The Senate Finance Committee is studying a House-passed measure to extend the act for one year and give Congress veto power over the President. President Truman wants a three-year extension without the veto. The act expires in just nine days—June 12.

Secretary Marshall has termed the House bill worse than no bill at all.

Millikin Criticizes Marshall

Senator Millikin (R., Col.) said today that Marshall takes the same attitude toward Congress he would toward a soldier "who fails to put the proper polish on his boots," and added:

"He has gotten into the habit of delivering ultimatums to Congress."

Arthur Besse, representing the National Association of Wool Manufacturers, suggested that the committee take Marshall at his word and let the foreign trade act expire.

Representative Gearhart (R., Cal.), author of the House bill, denied that granting authority to the Tariff Commission to limit trade concessions would lead to "log rolling and back scratching."

Wool, Cotton Officials Speak

"Log rolling and back scratching no longer exist on the (Capitol) Hill because it has been completely removed behind the State Department's silken curtain," Gearhart said.

Others critirizing State Department handling of the trade program were the American Tariff League, the National Wool Growers Association and the American Cotton Manufacturers Association. All favored the House bill.

"Our industry has lost confidence in the ability of the State Department to bargain for the domestic sheep industry," said J. M. Jones for the wool growers.

State Department Criticized

"This entire matter will be more soundly adjusted at the hands of Congress and our Tariff Commission than when left to the world beneficence of the United States Department of State, which seems at times to be more concerned with the plight of our foreign competition than with the welfare of the American workers," said William P. Jacobs, president of the cotton group.

However, there were arguments pro and con on the bill itself. As it now stands, the President has authority to make agreements cutting United States tariffs in exchange for similar concessions from foreig[illegible]ations.

NEW BRITISH AMBASSADOR AT WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON, June 3 (AP)—Sir Oliver Shewell Franks presented his credentials as new British Ambassador to President Truman today and said the President gave him "a very kind welcome." He told reporters that Mr. Truman referred to the "common fundamental practices of the two countries which are the foundation of good relations between them and the way in which issues can be satisfactorily solved." He said the Palestine question was not discussed.

Anglo-U.S. War Plan Was Set In Early 1941, Sherwood Says

Washington, June 3 (AP)—Eight months before Pearl Harbor, the United States and Britain had a joint grand strategy plan for use in case this country became involved in the war, Robert Sherwood says.

The Roosevelt adviser writes in Collier's magazine that demands from "isolationists" for impeachment of President Roosevelt would have been much louder if Congress had known all about his secret plans with Great Britain in 1940-41.

The secret talking began in the Summer of 1940, Sherwood says in the article.

Plan Set In March, 1941

At the end of March, 1941, Great Britain and the United States had a grand strategy plan for first defeating Germany and then taking care of Japan—"in the event of Anglo-American involvement in war with both Germany and Japan—" Sherwood said. He called it a "common-law marriage" between the two nations.

"It is an ironic fact that in all probability no great damage would have been done had the details of these plans fallen into the hands of the Germans and the Japanese, whereas, had they fallen into the hands of the Congress and the press, American preparation for the war might have been well-nigh wrecked and ruined, as indeed, it came periously close to being when the House of Representatives voted on the extension of selective service," Sherwood writes.

Approved By One Vote

This vote was August 12, 1941, four months before the Japanese attacked. The House approved the extension of the draft by only one vote, after bitter debate.

There never was any organized, formal compaign in Congress toward impeachment, but bitter critics of Roosevelt raised the idea from time to time.

Sherwood's information comes from his own experiences among the inner circle of Roosevelt advisers and from 40 crates of official papers, memoranda and personal notes left by the late Harry L. Hopkins, whom Sherwood calls "deputy president."

Atomic Information Shared

As evidence of the "common-law marriage" with Great Britain, Sherwood says six months before the United States got into the war this was happening:

Of first importance, the final grand strategy plan for defeating Germany and Japan had been agreed upon, in event they were at war with both Britain and the United States.

Britain and the United States were sharing information on many subjects, including atomic energy and radar, and military information.

We were sending a stream of American military and civilian specialists to Great Britain.

We planned to occupy Greenland, Iceland, the Azores and Martinique.

Churchill Requested Aid

President Roosevelt received a request for aid from Prime Minister Churchill of Great Britain after Roosevelt's third-term election in 1940, Sherwood said. Churchill asked the loan of American warships and described the critical need for America's aid in producing war goods. The message reached Roosevelt while he was cruising in the Caribbean.

Sherwood says Roosevelt apparently was profoundly affected but he didn't discuss it at the time. After he returned to Washington he launched the lend-lease plan of virtually free aid to countries the United States wanted to see survive. Then in his famous fireside chat Roosevelt told Americans "we must become the great arsenal of democracy."

SEN. LODGE URGES FOREIGN LEGION AS U. S. DEFENSE AID

50,000 Aliens Would Be Recruited for Five Years Under Plan.

GURNEY OPPOSES IDEA

House Approves Record Peacetime Sum of 3.6 Billions for Navy.

WASHINGTON, June 3—(AP) A long-discussed plan for an American foreign legion to boost manpower for defense was formally introduced today as an amendment to the Senate draft bill.

The proposal was made by Senator Lodge (R-Mass) shortly after the House had approved the largest naval appropriation in peacetime history—$3,686,733,250.

Lodge suggested that 50,000 aliens be allowed to enlist in the American armed forces for five years. They would serve only outside the United States and its territories. At the end of that time they could become U. S. citizens.

Gurney Opposes Plan

Chairman Gurney (R-SD) of the Senate Armed Services Committee promptly said he would oppose the foreign legion plan. He said it had been studied by his committee and unanimously rejected.

Another Senate draft bill amendment was offered today. Senator Capehart (R-Ind) introduced an amendment that would put responsibility for ordering a draft up to the president. A similar bill has been offered in the house.

But Gurney said: "We either need a draft or we don't." It's up to Congress, and not the President, he said, to accept responsibility.

Under Capehart's proposal, the President would get power to announce that more manpower was needed and that volunteers could not fill the gap. The draft would then become effective 90 days later.

The Navy bill was approved without controversy by a voice vote. Yesterday the House voted and sent to the Senate a $6,509,939,000 money bill for the army and the air forces.

Together, they total $10,196,672,250. Congress previously had voted $3,200,000,000 for aircraft procurement, bringing to over 13 billion the money America plans to spend on defense in the fiscal year beginning July 1.

Provides for Huge Carrier

The navy bill, which now goes to the Senate, authorizes work to start on a 65,000-ton aircraft carrier, largest in the world. It also boosts naval and marine corps personnel to 552,000. The two now have an estimated 478,000.

Yesterday's bill for the army and air force authorizes them to have a peak strength of 1,250,000 during the coming year. Present strength is estimated at 542.00 for the army.

Just how the army will raise that many men was the subject of discussion as the senate considered a five-year peacetime draft bill. It is listed as number two on the "must" parade of bills to be passed before Congress adjourns June 19.

The bill was explained by Chairman Gurney (R-SD) of the armed services committee, who called it an "insurance policy" for peace.

GOP leaders hope to win senate passage of the draft bill by early next week, but they anticipate trouble.

Southern senators already have said they would fight for an amendment to set up segregated white and Negro units for those men who desire to serve only with men of their own race.

Filibuster Threat

On the other hand, Senator Langer (R-ND) has said he will offer seven amendments to cover President Truman's civil rights program. If these are offered, southerners say they will filibuster.

In the house, the draft bill is still stalled in the rules committee. A long series of hearings has been held, and are being continued, to decide when the measure should be sent to the house floor for action.

Both bodies must approve their separate bills, then they must be reconciled by a joint house-senate committee and later passed by both bodies again in their new compromise form. Then the President must sign or veto. His signature is assured, because on March 17 he asked for a draft bill along with universal military training.

But UMT has been ignored by both houses in preparing defense plans. Military leaders said UMT is needed badly in the long run, but that the draft bills as planned will raise the manpower needed in the immediate future.

Gurney, in urging passage of his committee's draft measure, said he did not contend that war is inevitable, but said:

"This nation is foolishly gambling with the future safety and well being of its people" by not having an adequate armed striking force.

Draft Not Enough, Lodge Says

Senator Lodge (R-Mass) said drafting men for the armed forces alone will not assure this country's safety, but he said it must be one step in a broad program.

Armaments alone, he said, will not stop communism.

"I hope that this bill is not just a flash in the pan—that it is not something we are going to pass because we are angry or because we are frightened," Lodge continued.

Briefly this is what the senate draft bill calls for:

All men between the ages of 18 and 25 must register.

Men 19 through 25 will be liable for induction and two years service.

Youths of 18 may register for one year of training, but they don't have to.

Most veterans will be exempt. These include men who served 18 months or more between Sept. 16, 1940 and the date the new law is passed, or those with more than 90 days service between Dec. 7, 1941, and Sept. 2, 1945.

The measure also gives the government the right to seize plants and industries which fail to accept or fill government orders for the armed services at a reasonable price.

Defense Secretary Forrestal has called the measure "excellent."

In another action today, the house accepted a compromise army construction bill authorizing $207,930,350 for posts and camps from Newfoundland to the Pacific. The compromise must now be aproved by the senate.

U.S.-Germany Phone Rates Cut

WASHINGTON, June 3 (AP).—The Federal Communications Commission today authorized a reduction in night telephone call rates between this country and Germany. It acted on the request of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company. The present round-the-clock rate between the two countries, regardless of city, is $12 for the first three minutes and $4 a minute thereafter.

Gold, Girls and Lynchings Stir Ire of 'Voice' Prober

WASHINGTON, June 3—(AP) Buried gold, what the girls wear at Lake Placid and how to report lynchings to Russia—all had a part today in the congressional study of the "Voice of America."

The "Voice" is the State department's radio program for telling the world of life in the United States. It is under fire in both the house and senate for broadcasting material which many lawmakers said was foolish, and even downright wrong.

A house expenditures subcommittee heard today of one script in which two visitors go to the U. S. military academy at West Point and a voice asks: "Why do they bury all the gold here and at Fort Knox?

The second voice replies: "So the gangsters won't be tempted to remove it."

'Tripe," Prober Snorts

Charles W. Thayer, head of the "Voice's" New York office was on the witness stand at the time. Chairman Chenoweth (R-Colo) slapped the script angrily and asked if Thayer was trying to give the impression that gangsters are running wild.

"Trash and tripe," Chenoweth called it.

Thayer grinned. "Well, it's true." he said. "That's why we do keep the gold there."

In a second script, the two visitors take a swing through New York's Harlem and one exclaims in surprise at seeing white people: "I thought white people mixed only with whites."

The other voice explains that Paul Robeson, "the eminent artist," lives only two blocks away and that leaders of finance and art visit his home.

"It seems to me," Chenoweth commented, "you are holding Paul Robeson up as a pretty high average of American citizen. Don't you know he's a subject of controversy because of his political views?"

"He's a great artist," Thayer replied.

Robeson, Negro singer and actor, told a senate committee Saturday that he would go to jail before he would say whether he was a communist.

A broadcast beamed to Russia, describing a fad among American girls for painting their fingernails with "tiny initials," drew snorts from Chenoweth.

"It's unbelievable," he summed up.

Lynchings Broadcast

As for lynchings, Thayer testified that "every time there's a lynching in the United States, we broadcast it to Russia."

He explained that lynchings are mentioned "to put the news in its proper perspective."

Thayer explained that unless such items are included in the broadcasts, the Moscow radio would give "distorted versions" of life in the United States.

He said there are approximately 2,000,000 short-wave radio receiving sets in Russia, and he added:

"When we don't mention a lynching, they (the Russians) know there isn't any."

The feminine costumes at the winter resort of Lake Placid, N.Y., were discussed in a script read before the senate investigating committees.

Girls and Lake Placid

One narrator on a "Voice" script remarked that "Lake Placid has such girls that it makes quinine feel feverish." There followed some talk of how thoroughly the girls are be-furred and one voice commented that he was, indeed, interested in skins "but not animal skins."

The Lake Placid broadcast was one of the scripts prepared by Rene Borgia, Venezuelan who was a script writer for the National Broadcasting Company. NBC worked it up under contract with the State department. Borgia was fired for writing such things as New England being founded by hypocrisy and Texas on sin.

Stanley P. Richardson, manager of NBC's international division read Borgia's script on Lake Placid, by request. He took the responsibility for supervising the programs so far as NBC was concerned, but said he had relied on Borgia and Borgia's supervisor to keep within good taste.

Richardson and other NBC officials said they made no detailed checks in advance; that they assumed the State department was doing this, and monitoring the programs.

William Rodgers, counsel for the senate committee, commented that there was dual responsibility, that Congress had charged the State department with responsibility.

The committee hearings are being held with the announced aim of preventing such "objectionable" programs from being broadcast under auspices of the government.

Veteran Total for U. S. Is Put at 19,000,000

ATLANTIC CITY, June 3 (AP).—A Veterans Administration official said today there are 19,000,000 veterans of all wars, who with their families will make up 58 per cent of the nation's population in 1950.

Colonel John N. Andrews, representative of the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs, told the eleventh national convention of the American Gold Star Mothers there are 2,000,000 veterans drawing disability compensation and more than 100,000 in V. A. hospitals. He accepted for the V. A. three iron lungs and a number of collapsible wheel chairs donated by the mothers.

The mothers plan to elect new officers tomorrow and close their convention on Saturday. Two thousand delegates are attending sessions.

Gromyko 'Cancels' Dinner Speech

New York, June 3 (AP)—Bartley C. Crum, publisher of the newspaper PM, says he believes Russia and the United States are capable of finding "men who will lead them on the two-way road to peace."

Crum, who with Joseph Barnes, former foreign editor of the New York Herald Tribune, recently acquired controlling interest in PM, spoke last night at the annual dinner of the American-Russian Institute.

The former San Francisco attorney said many persons both in this country and in Russia, "dislike this stupid and unnecessary 'cold war'" and "are eager to find their way to some kind of understanding which can lead to peace."

Both Sides Blamed

Crum said he is not an "apologist for Russian foreign policy," but asserted he believes nevertheless that both the United States and the Soviet Union are responsible for "the trouble we are in."

Andrei A. Gromyko, Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister, and Jacob Malik, Gromyko's successor as representative to the United Nations Security Council, were guests at the dinner. Neither spoke.

The New York Times said Gromyko had "canceled" a speech he was to have made.

The Russian diplomat, the Times said, quoting a "source close to the Soviet delegation," had intended "to deliver an address reiterating the Soviet position that it desires peace and security, but he had canceled it lest it be interpreted to mean that the Soviet Union was pleading for peace, an impression he did not wish to leave with his audience."

"Not Definitely Decided"

"After he had taken his place on the dais," the Times continued, "Mr. Gromyko was asked why he had canceled his address.

"'I had not definitely decided to deliver an address,' he replied in a friendly but unsmiling manner.

"Asked about a report that he had originally planned to make an important speech, he shrugged, 'I did not prepare anything.' Then he added, 'I do not wish to comment on that; I prefer to stand on what I said previously.'"

AFL Balking Reds Abroad, Official Says

New York, June 3 (AP)—The AFL is at work in many nations "checkmating the spread of communism in labor unions," says George Meany, AFL secretary-treasurer.

Meany said on a radio program last night that the AFL has sent representatives to Germany, Czechoslovakia, France, Italy, and South America "without the co-operation of our own Government."

Noting that infiltration of labor unions is a typical method of Communist aggression, Meany said the AFL has "moved into the picture" wherever it could do effective anti-Communist work.

"We were very active in the recent elections in Italy," he said, "and contributed in no small degree to the crushing defeat of the Communists in those elections."

Meany also cited the AFL's fight against communism in the United States.

SWOPE ATTACKS BRITAIN; REJECTS DECORATION

NEW YORK, June 3 (AP)—Gerard Swope said today he had declined a decoration from the British government because of its "vacillating, reprehensible and non-constructive attitude" on Palestine.

The industrialist made public a letter he had sent to Sir Oliver Franks, British ambassador to the United States, giving the reasons for his action.

Swope said he had been invited to accept an award as an "honorary commander of the Most Excellent Order of the British empire."

Since this last year," Swope's letter said, "in spite of the repeated recommendations of several commissions of your own government, of an Amrican-British commission, and then finally of the action of the United Nations of a separate state in Palestine, the vacillating, reprehensible and non-constructive attitude of your government has left me without respect for its position."

U.S. Couple To Visit 'Adopted' French Town

New York, June 3 (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Girard Van Barkaloo Hale, of Santa Barbara, Cal., will sail for France next Wednesday to visit the village of Maille, near Tours, which they "adopted" in 1946.

Their aid in rehabilitating Maille included more than 12,000 gifts of food, clothing, household necessities, school and church equipment, toys and other relief needs, they said today.

Their example inspired other individuals and groups to "adopt" at least 200 European communities, they added.

At a festival to be held June 18 the Hales will be thanked personally by all 366 residents of Maille. They will sail aboard the Queen Mary.

U. N. TO DROP OLDER MEN

Employes More Than 60 Years of Age Will Be Dismissed Soon

LAKE SUCCESS, June 3 (AP)—The United Nations said today that all employes more than 60 years of age, with some exceptions, would be dismissed.

A check of the United Nations roster of 2,804 workers showed twenty-nine persons over the age limit. Seven are more than 65 and will be dismissed immediately. Of the remaining twenty-two between 60 and 65, they may be retained if department heads can show exceptional circumstances.

Most of the affected employes are in the United Nations pension fund and will get benefits according to time of service and pay level.

For dismissal pay, temporary employes will get five days pay for each month served, with a maximum of thirty days salary. Those with contracts receive dismissal pay on a sliding scale, with a minimum of thirty days.

The United Nations said no immediate figures were available on how many of the twenty-nine employes were citizens of the United States.

U.N. Rebukes Jews And Arabs

Lake Success, N.Y., June 3 (AP)—The Security Council cut short a Jewish-Arab clash on the diplomatic front here today over terms of the four-week United Nations armistice in Palestine.

It decided without a record vote to let Count Folke Bernadotte, the United Nations mediator, say what the cease-fire means.

Alexandre Parodi, of France, rebuked Jewish and Arab representatives for their fighting words. He said both men were "out of season" and he did not care to see that type of discussion continued here at this time.

May Meet Monday

Faris el Khoury, of Syria, Council chairman for this month, agreed. He ruled the mediator should decide what the terms mean. No one objected. El Khoury adjourned the 37-minute session at 2.59 P.M. The Council may meet Monday if it has any Palestine business by then.

Count Bernadotte is flying in his special United Nations plane to the various Middle East capitals trying for an agreement on the cease-fire time.

Jamal Husseini, of the Arab Higher Committee of Palestine, representative of the Arabs of the Holy Land, was first up. He said controls on importation of men and war material into the Middle East must be tight.

Held Gain For Jews

He said immigration during the truce is "inadmissible," declared the cease-fire meant a gain for the Jews, and added that there is no point to the truce if the Jews insist on keeping their new state of

LONDON, JUNE 3-(AP)-THE BRITISH "CHINA CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE" ASKED THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT TONIGHT TO ESTABLISH ECONOMIC AND CULTURAL RELATIONS WITH THE NORTH CHINA REGIME.

SUCH RELATIONS, THE COMMITTEE SAID IN A STATEMENT AFTER ITS ANNUAL MEETING, "WOULD DO MUCH TO RESTORE BRITISH PRESTIGE IN THE FAR EAST AND LESSEN THE THREAT TO WORLD PEACE BY HELPING A SOLUTION OF THE PRESENT CONFLICT AND THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A STRONG INDEPENDENT CHINA."

THE COMMITTEE IS HEADED BY THE EARL OF LISTOWEL AND INCLUDES HAROLD LASKI, FORMER CHAIRMAN OF THE LABOR PARTY EXECUTIVE. THE GROUP SAID THE MAJORITY OF CHINESE SEEK TO END THE WAR BY THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A COALITION GOVERNMENT, INCLUDING THE COMMUNISTS, "TO CARRY OUT DEMOCRATIC REFORMS AND ECONOMIC RECONSTRUCTION."

A "POSITIVE BRITISH FAR EASTERN POLICY" IS ESSENTIAL TO PRESERVE WORLD PEACE, THE COMMITTEE SAID, ADDING:

"THE NEGATIVE CHARACTER OF BRITISH POLICY HAS LED TO THE VIEW THAT BRITAIN HAS RECOGNIZED CHINA AS AN AMERICAN SPHERE OF INFLUENCE AND IS NOT INTERESTED IN FRIENDLY RELATIONS WITH CHINA."

MUNICH, GERMANY, JUNE 3-(AP)-A CONFERENCE OF GERMAN LEGAL OFFICIALS DEVELOPED TODAY INTO A DEBATE BETWEEN A GERMAN MINISTER-PRESIDENT AND AN AMERICAN MILITARY GOVERNOR OVER THE JUSTICE OF THE NUERNBERG WAR CRIMES TRIALS.

CHARLES M.LAFOLLETTE, MILITARY GOVERNOR OF WURTTEMBERG-BADEN DEFENDED THE TRIALS, IN WHICH HE ONCE SERVED AS A PROSECUTOR. HANS EHARD, MINISTER-PRESIDENT OF BAVARIA, CRITICIZED THEM.

LAFOLLETTE, FORMER REPRESENTATIVE IN CONGRESS FROM INDIANA, CHALLENGED RUMORS THAT PHYSICAL DURESS WAS USED TO OBTAIN EVIDENCE, AND ASSURED INVESTIGATION OF SUCH COMPLAINTS. HE RIDICULED A COMPLAINT THAT IT IS WRONG TO TRY GERMANS FOR OFFENSES WHICH PEOPLE OF OTHER NATIONS DO WITHOUT PUNISHMENT.

"THE CHARGE OF COERCING WITNESSES, HANDICAPPED DEFENSE, AND OF PERSECUTION OF POOR GENTLE NAZIS BY RUTHLESS AMERICAN VICTORS THROUGH VINDICTIVE PROSECUTORS AND BLOODTHIRSTY JUDGES IS A LIE WHICH CANNOT WITHSTAND THE LIGHT OF OBJECTIVE THINKING," HE DECLARED.

HE SAID THE SPREADING OF SUCH CHARGES--BY GERMANS OR AMERICANS--HINDERS DEVELOPMENT OF A DEMOCRATIC GERMANY.

GERMAN DEFENSE LAWYERS AT NUERNBERG HAVE RECENTLY COMPARED ACTIONS OF THE RUSSIANS WITH THOSE OF THE GERMANS ON TRIAL.

BUT LAFOLLETTE TOLD THE GERMAN JURISTS THAT "TWO WRONGS DO NOT MAKE A RIGHT" AND THAT THE NUERNBERG COURTS HAVE BEEN GIVEN NO JURISDICTION OVER OTHER COUNTRIES.

EHARD COMPLAINED THAT THE TRIALS GO BEYOND ESTABLISHED INTERNATIONAL LAW. HE CONTENDED THAT, ALTHOUGH TREATIES FORBID AGGRESSIVE WAR, THERE IS NO LAW DECLARING THAT THOSE WHO PLAN AND WAGE AGGRESSIVE WAR ARE CRIMINALS.

ALSO, HE SAID, THE FOUR POWERS CONDUCTING THE TRIALS OF GERMANS "HAVE IN NO WAY BOUND THEMSELVES TO APPLY THE SAME NEW LAWS TO THEMSELVES."

TOKYO, FRIDAY, JUNE 4-(AP)-A SOVIET SPOKESMAN TODAY ACCUSED JAPANESE AND AMERICAN NEWSMEN IN THE OCCUPATION ZONE OF "INTENSIFYING PROPAGANDA FOR WAR AGAINST RUSSIA."

MAJOR GEN. A. P. KISLENKO, ACTING SOVIET MEMBER OF THE ALLIED COUNCIL FOR JAPAN, ASSERTED THAT THE PRESS COULD NOT HAVE ACTED WITHOUT "THE KNOWLEDGE OF GHQ SCAP" (GENERAL MACARTHUR'S HEADQUARTERS).

KISLENKO SPECIFICALLY PROTESTED AGAINST AN ARTICLE IN THE MAY 17 ISSUE OF NEWSWEEK MAGAZINE AND A DISPATCH BY UNITED PRESS CORRESPONDENT ERNEST HOBERECHT FROM SAPPORO, HOKKAIDO, MAY 19.

THE RUSSIAN, IN A LETTER TO GENERAL MACARTHUR, CLAIMED THAT NEWSWEEK DISCUSSED IN DETAIL PLANS FOR "FUTURE AMERICAN STRATEGY AND TACTICS TO BE EMPLOYED DURING A WAR AGAINST THE U. S. S. R." AND THE "BOMBING OF ITS CITIES." THE ARTICLE WAS REPRINTED BY THE NEWSPAPER MAINICHI.

HE OBJECTED TO THE HOKKAIDO DISPATCH ON GROUNDS THAT IT ACCUSED THE RUSSIANS OF LANDING AGENTS ON THAT NORTHERN JAPANESE ISLAND AND OTHER ISLANDS IN THE ARCHIPELAGO FROM THE KURILES.

"THE AMERICAN PRESS IN JAPAN, AS WELL AS THE JAPANESE PRESS, HAVE INTENSIFIED OF LATE THE ABSOLUTELY UNDISGUISED PROPAGANDA AMONG THE JAPANESE OF A NEW WAR AGAINST THE U. S. S. R. AS WELL AS SPREADING INSOLENT SLANDER ABOUT THE SOVIET UNION," WROTE KISLENKO.

".....I LODGE AN EMPHATIC PROTEST AGAINST THIS INSOLENT AND ABSOLUTELY UNDISGUISED PROPAGANDA CARRIED ON BY THE JAPANESE AND AMERICAN PRESS IN JAPAN AS WELL AS AGAINST THE DISSEMINATION OF SLANDEROUS STORIES ABOUT THE SOVIET UNION.

"I INSIST THAT PROMPT MEASURES BE TAKEN TO STOP SIMILAR OCCURRENCES AND PREVENT THEIR REPETITION IN THE FUTURE."

A COPY OF KISLENKO'S LETTER WAS SENT TO WILLIAM A. SEBALD, U. S. MEMBER AND CHAIRMAN OF THE ALLIED COUNCIL.

THE LETTER ASSERTED THAT NEWSWEEK, IN AN ARTICLE "WHITE WAR VERSUS RED" --- APPEARING IN THE MAGAZINE'S PACIFIC EDITION -- "PROPAGATES A NEW WAR AGAINST THE SOVIET UNION." KISLENKO TERMED IT "DISGRACEFUL" AND ADDED THAT IT DECLARES "POINT BLANK THAT THE UNITED STATES IS GOING TO BOMB MOSCOW, LENINGRAD, KIEV, KHARKOV, ODESSA AND OTHER SOVIET CITIES.

"THEY ARE NOT ASHAMED TO POINT OUT THAT JAPAN, ENGLAND, ICELAND AND NORTH AFRICA SHALL BE KEY AMERICAN BASES FOR LAUNCHING A WAR AGAINST THE U. S. S. R." THE LETTER CONTINUED.

KISLENKO TOLD MACARTHUR THAT, IN TRYING TO "JUSTIFY THIS FRENZIED PROPAGANDA OF WAR AGAINST THE U.'.'.R." THE AUTHORS "VILIFY THE SOVIET UNION BY ACCUSING IT OF WAR PR
D
PROPAGANDA OF WAR AGAINST THE U.S.S.R." THE AUTHORS "VILIFY THE SOVIET UNION BY ACCUSING IT OF WAR PREPARATIONS" TO CREATE THE IMPRESSION THAT "WAR IS INEVITABLE OR PROBABLE."

THE UNITED PRESS DISPATCH APPEARED IN THE ARMY NEWSPAPER STARS AND STRIPES AND THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE NIPPON TIMES, AMONG OTHER PUBLICATIONS. KISLENKO ASSERTED THAT IT WAS "AN ANTI-SOVIET, LIBELOUS ARTICLE."

THE STORY QUOTED TOSHIO URABE, ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF THE JAPANESE GOVERNMENT'S HOKKAIDO LIAISON AND COORDINATION, THAT HE HAD RECEIVED REPORTS OF RUSSIAN AGENTS LANDING ON HOKKAIDO. HE WAS REPORTED TO HAVE SAID THE RUSSIANS WERE SMUGGLING IN MONGOLIANS AND OTHER ORIENTAL AGENTS TO GATHER INFORMATION ON AMERICAN MILITARY ACTIVITIES.

BY JAMES M.LONG

TEL AVIV, ISRAEL, JUNE 3-(AP)-ISRAEL GALILI IS BOWING OUT AS COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF OF HAGANAH, THE ARM OF ISRAEL.

A SHORT TIME AGO ONLY A FEW JEWS KNEW HIS NAME. TODAY HE IS A HERO WHO SPEAKS WITH A DYNAMIC VOICE TO THE PEOPLE OF ISRAEL.

HE HAS BEEN COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF FOR THE PAST TWO YEARS--CRITICAL ONES FOR HAGANAH AS IT MARSHALLED ITS STRENGTH FOR THE TEST OF PROTECTING A NEW STATE.

HAVANAH NEVER DID GET RECOGNITION FROM THE BRITISH MANDATE GOVERNMENT AS LEGAL ARMED FORCE IN PALESTINE. WHEN HAGANAH BECAME THE ARMY OF ISRAEL TWO WEEKS AGO IT PASSED UNDER COMMAND OF THE WAR MINISTRY HEADED BY DAVID BEN-GURION. GALILI BECAME A MEMBER OF THE MINISTRY.

GALILI IS A STOCKY 39-YEAR-OLD BLOND WHO CAME TO PALESTINE FROM WHAT IS NOW SOVIET UKRAINE WHEN HE WAS FOUR YEARS OLD.

-)5£97&£ £3 2-' £-&-,-£'S CHIEF COM

IS NOW SOVIET UKRAINE WHEN HE WAS FOUR YEARS OLD.

ALTHOUGH HE WAS HAGANAH'S CHIEF COMMANDER HE HAD NO MILITARY RANK. HE WORE NO UNIFORM. HIS CUSTOMARY DRESS WAS OPEN SHIRT AND WORK CLOTHES.

~~HE HANDED OUT POLITICAL POLICIES FOR HAGANAH TO FOLLOW.~~ HE WAS A POLITICAL COMMANDER AND DID NOT ORIGINATE THE STRATEGY OR TACTICS WITH WHICH HIS POLITICAL POLICIES WERE CARRIED OUT.

HIS TRAINING WAS ALL IN SECURITY WORK RATHER THAN WITH GUN DRILL. HE BECAME A MEMBER OF HAGANAH'S HIGH COMMAND 10 YEARS AGO WHEN IT FIRST BEGAN TO EMERGE FROM A LOOSELY-KNIT UNDERGROUND DEFENSE FORCE INTO A MILITARY ORGANIZATION. HE WAS THE JEWISH AGENCY'S REPRESENTATIVE IN THE HIGH COMMAND BEFORE HE BECAME COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF.

GALILI IS HIS LEGAL NAME--THE ONE ON HIS BRITISH PASSPORT--BUT HE HAS USED MANY ALIASES IN HIS WORK WITH HAGANAH. HIS FAMILY NAME IS BERTHENKO.

RIGHT NOW HE IS ENGAGED IN WORK THAT HE CAN DO BEST. HE IS FINISHING UP PHASES OF MILITARY CONTROL WHICH HAD STARTED UNDER HIS DIRECTION. THIS IS TEMPORARY, FOR HE HAS SAID HE WILL STEP OUT COMPLETELY WHEN LAST DETAILS ARE DONE.

HE IS MARRIED AND HAS TWO SONS, NINE AND FOUR.

HIS PARTY IS LEFT WING LABOR, IN WHICH HE IS TAKING INCREASING LEADERSHIP. IN THE POLITICAL MEETINGS OF ISRAEL HE IS EMERGING AS A POWERFUL SPEAKER AND DYNAMIC FIGURE.

TEL AVIV, ISRAEL, JUNE 3-(AP)-DAVID BEN-GURION, ISRAELI PRIME MINISTER, SAID TONIGHT THE ARABS AND BRITISH ONCE MADE A JOINT PLAN TO CAPTURE KEY HOLYLAND CITIEIS AND PROCLAIM ABDULLAH OF TRANS-JORDAN KING OF PALESTINE.

HE TOLD THE 37-MEMBER STATE COUNCIL THE PLAN WAS TO SEIZE HAIFA MAY 20 AND JERUSALEM AND TEL AVIV MAY 25 AND ON THE LATTER DAY PROCLAIM ABDULLAH'S RULE OVER THE HOLY LAND. THE BRITISH GAVE UP THEIR MANDATE OVER THE COUNTRY MAY 15.

BEN-GURION SAID THE PLAN HAD FALLEN INTO JEWISH HANDS IN A MANNER HE DID NOT DISCLOSE.

HE CHARGED BRITISH AUTHORITIES SUPPLIED THE ARABS WITH ARMS AND TOOK PART IN WORKING OUT ARAB INVASION PLANS AND MILITARY STRATEGY.

THE PRIME MINISTER SAID THE ARABS HAVE BEEN BEATEN ON MANY FRONTS BUT THE DANGER STILL HAS NOT BEEN OVERCOME.

HE SAID THE BRITISH CONSUL IN HAIFA WARNED THE JEWISH MAYOR THERE THAT THE BRITISH WILL ACT FREELY IN THE SKIES OF PALESTINE SHOULD THE JEWS AGAIN BOMB AMMAN AND HIT THE ROYAL AIR FORCE STATION THERE.

HE TERMED THE FALL OF THE OLD CITY IN JERUSALEM A TEMPORARY JEWISH SETBACK AND GAVE ASSURANCE IT WILL BE RECAPTURED.

HE REPEATED A WARNING JEWISH FORCES WILL NOT LIMIT THEMSELVES TO ATTACKS WITHIN ISRAEL'S BOUNDARIES BUT WILL HIT EVERYWHERE OUTSIDE--AS IN THE ATTACK ON THE ARAB TRIANGLE OF STRENGTH.

TEL AVIV--FIRST ADD ISRAEL (A49) XXX JEWISH SIDE.

THE JEWS CEASED FIRE LESS THAN 48 HOURS AFTER THEY MOUNTED AN OFFENSIVE FROM THE VALLEY OF ESDRAELON, WHICH HAD SPEARED TO WITHIN THREE MILES OF JENIN AND VIRTUALLY ENCIRCLED THAT TOWN.

IT WAS BARELY 24 HOURS AFTER THE START OF A DRIVE UP FROM THE SHARON PLAIN, WHICH LANCED TO WITHIN FOUR MILES OF TULKARM.

A HIGH OFFICER OF THE JEWISH COMMAND SAID THE CEASE FIRE ORDER SCRUBBED OUT ANOTHER LARGE-SCALE ASSAULT WHICH HAD BEEN ABOUT TO BE LAUNCHED.

"THE CEASE FIRE ORDER CAME AT AN INOPPORTUNE MOMENT FOR ISRAELI FORCES, SINCE ON MOST FRONTS THEY HAD BEEN ENGAGED IN OFFENSIVE OPERATIONS, MOST OF WHICH BEGAN ONLY A DAY OR TWO BEFORE THE ORDER," THE CHIEF OF OPERATIONS OF THE ISRAELI GENERAL STAFF SAID. "AS FAR AS THE MILITARY ASPECT WAS CONCERNED, THE CEASE FIRE MEANT OUR FORCES HAD TO BE DISENGAGED AND OPERATIONS CANCELLED WITHOUT DAMAGING OUR STRATEGIC POSITION--A HIGHLY DELICATE OPERATION."

THEN, AFTER A DAY IN WHICH THE JEWS PROTESTED AGAINST THE SHELLING OF JERUSALEM AND STRONG ARAB ATTACKS ON THE NORTHERN AND SOUTHERN FRONTS, THE GOVERNMENT SUDDENLY ISSUED THIS STATEMENT:

"THE FOREIGN MINISTER INFORMED US THAT THERE WAS A MISUNDERSTANDING IN RESPECT TO THE CEASE FIRE IN AS FAR AS THE COUNCIL HAS PUT THE DEADLINE AT 3 A.M. THIS (WEDNESDAY) MORNING, NOT FOR ACTUAL IMPLEMENTATION OF THE CEASE FIRE, BUT FOR THE DECLARATION OF AGREEMENT BY THE PARTIES CONCERNED. THAT INFORMATION WAS CABLED TWO DAYS AGO BY OUR DELEGATE FROM LAKE SUCCESS TO THE PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT, BUT HAS NEVER REACHED ISRAEL, APPARENTLY HAVING BEEN HELD IN CAIRO (THROUGH WHICH THE NORMAL CABLE LINE IS RELAYED.)

"THE PRESENT INFORMATION WAS OBTAINED BY THE FOREIGN MINISTER OF ISRAEL IN A TELEPHONIC CONVERSATION WITH OUR DELEGATE AT LAKE SUCCESS."

ARAB PLANES BOMBED THE TEL AVIV AREA AGAIN TODAY.

THE JEWS SAID THEY LOST THE INITIATIVE OF THE OFFENSIVE YESTERDAY MORNING WHEN THEY MISTAKENLY ORDERED A CEASE FIRE ON THE ASSUMPTION THAT THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL HAD SO DIRECTED.

AS THE U.N. EDIATOR SET ABOUT THE TASK OF FIXING A DATE FOR THE START OF A FOUR-WEEK TRUCE, KING FAROUK OF EGYPT ECHOED THE VOW OF KING ABDULLAH OF TRANS-JORDAN THAT THE ARAB NATIONS "WILL NEVER UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES ACCEPT A JEWISH STATE."

KING ABDULLAH'S MINISTRY OF DEFENSE ANNOUNCED IN AMMAN THAT JEWISH FORCES WHICH ATTACKED A TRANS-JORDAN POLICE STATION GARRISON NEAR THE DEAD SEA TUESDAY HAD LOST 60 KILLED AFTER ARAB REINFORCEMENTS ARRIVED. THE ANNOUNCEMENT SAID THE ARABS STILL ARE PURSUING REMNANTS OF THE ATTACKERS.

SWEDISH COUNT FOLKE BERNADOTTE, THE MEDIATOR CHARGED BY THE U.N. SECURITY COUNCIL WITH FIXING THE DAY AND HOUR OF THE TRUCE, ARRIVED IN AMMAN BY PLANE THIS AFTERNOON, CONFERRED 90 MINUTES WITH THE TRANS-JORDAN FOREIGN MINISTER AND THEN TOOK OFF AGAIN, PRESUMABLY FOR BEIRUT, LEBANON. BERNADOTTE IS EXPECTED IN AMMAN AGAIN SATURDAY.

CAIRO, JUNE 3-(AP)-THE EGYPTIAN NATIONAL DEFENSE MINISTRY SAID TONIGHT EGYPTIAN LAND FORCES DEFEATED JEWISH TROOPS IN A FIERCE ALL-NIGHT BATTLE IN ISDUD, 20 MILES SOUTH OF TEL AVIV.

A COMMUNIQUE SAID THE JEWS ATTACKED THE TOWN LAST NIGHT. "OUR FORCES REPULSED THIS ATTACK, DISPERSED ENEMY TROOPS AND PURSUED THE ESCAPING ENEMY EVERYWHERE," IT ADDED.

THE JEWS LOST HEAVILY IN PERSONNEL AND EQUIPMENT, THE COMMUNIQUE SAID.

THE MINISTRY ALSO REPORTED ANOTHER PHASE OF THE BATTLE THAT HAS SWIRLED AROUND ISDUD DURING THE PAST WEEK. EGYPTIAN PATROLS SURPRISED JEWISH FORCES MOVING IN FOR A COUNTER-ATTACK ON FORTIFIED POSITIONS ABOUT NEGBA WHICH THE EGYPTIANS CAPTURED WEDNESDAY, THE MINISTRY SAID.

THE ARAB FIGHTERS DEFEATED THE JEWS AND REINFORCED THE POSITIONS, THE COMMUNIQUE SAID. NEGBA, SIX MILES SOUTHEAST OF ISDUD, IS IN TERRITORY ALLOTTED TO THE JEWS UNDER THE UNITED NATIONS PARTITION PLAN; ISDUD IS IN TERRITORY DESIGNATED AS ARAB.

FIGHTING HAS BEEN HEAVY IN THE AREA SINCE THE EGYPTIANS BEGAN MOVING UP THE COASTAL PLAIN TOWARD TEL AVIV, THE PROVISIONAL CAPITAL OF ISRAEL, AND JEWISH FORCES MOVED DOWN THE PLAIN TO COUNTER THEM.

(AN ISRAELI COMMUNIQUE, ISSUED SEVERAL HOURS EARLIER IN TEL AVIV, GAVE A DIFFERENT ACCOUNT OF WHAT APPARENTLY WAS THE SAME ACTION REPORTED BY THE EGYPTIANS.

(JEWISH TROOPS SURROUNDED A COLUMN OF EGYPTIAN INFANTRY NEAR ISDUD, THE COMMUNIQUE SAID, AND DESTROYED EGYPTIAN TANKS AND TRUCKS WHICH TRIED TO BREAK THROUGH THE RING. IT SAID EGYPTIAN CASUALTIES WERE HEAVY.)

CAIRO, JUNE 3-(AP)-A COMMUNIQUE SAID THE EGYPTIAN ROYAL NAVY HAD CARRIED OUT AN ATTACK ON THE ISRAEL PORT OF CAESAREA, 30 MILES NORTH OF TEL AVIV, TODAY AND SANK ONE BOAT.

THE NAVAL FIRE HIT SOME OF THE PORT BUILDINGS, THE COMMUNIQUE SAID. MANY DIRECT HITS WERE REPORTED TO HAVE BEEN SCORED IN THE HARBOR AREA.

CAESAREA IS ALMOST MIDWAY BETWEEN TEL AVIV AND HAIFA. IT IS 24 MILES SOUTH OF HAIFA AND 55 MILES NORTHWEST OF JERUSALEM.

THE EGYPTIAN NAVY, ACCORDING TO JANE'S FIGHTING SHIPS, INCLUDES THE ROYAL YACHT (NO FIRE POWER); ONE 2,640-TON TRANSPORT FITTED WITH TWO THREE-POUNDER GUNS; ONE SLOOP FITTED WITH ONE SIX-POUNDER GUN AND FOUR MACHINEGUNS; FIVE SMALL COASTAL MOTOR LAUNCHES, THREE OF WHICH CARRY ONE 37-MILIMETER GUN EACH.

A NOTATION LISTED AS "ADDITIONS TO THE FLEET" EXPLAINS THAT DURING THE YEARS 1947-49 EGYPT PLANNED TO ACQUIRE FROM THE BRITISH NAVY THREE SLOOPS, TWO CORVETTES, FOUR MINE-SWEEPERS AND A NUMBER OF SMALLER CRAFT.

TEL AVIV, ISRAEL, JUNE 3-(AP)-ISRAELI FIGHTER PLANES SHOT DOWN TWO EGYPTIAN BOMBERS TONIGHT AFTER TEL AVIV WAS ATTACKED FROM THE AIR, A JEWISH COMMUNIQUE SAID.

THE ISRAELI HIGH COMMAND ISSUED A COMMUNIQUE WHICH SAID ONE OF THE TWO-ENGINED BOMBERS WAS SHOT DOWN OVER JAFFA AND THE OTHER WAS BLASTED NEAR REHOVOT.

AS THE EGYPTIAN PLANES PRESSED THEIR BOMBING ATTACK ON THE JEWISH MILITARY AND ADMINISTRATIVE HEADQUARTERS CITY, ISRAELI PLANES ROSE AND BEGAN AN AERIAL DUEL.

THOUSANDS OF TEL AVIV RESIDENTS LEFT AIR RAID SHELTERS AS THE COMBAT BEGAN AND SAW ONE OF THE ENEMY BOMBERS, RIDDLED BY GUNFIRE, EXPLODE IN THE AIR. IT FELL IN FRAGEMENTS OVER JAFFA, THE NEIGHBORING ARAB CITY NOW IN JEWISH HANDS.

THE OTHER BOMBER, THE COMMUNIQUE SAID, WAS SHOT DOWN ON ITS WAY BACK TO ITS BASE.

TEL AVIV WAS BOMBED SEVERAL TIMES DURING THE DAY AND EVENING. THE RESULTS OF THE RAIDS WERE NOT DISCLOSED.

THE ISRAELI COMMUNIQUE SAID ALSO THAT ISRAELI LAND FORCES HAD SURROUNDED A COLUMN OF EGYPTIAN INFANTRY NEAR ISDUD, 20 MILES SOUTH OF TEL AVIV. ISDUD IS THE CENTER OF A FIERCE CONTINUING BATTLE BETWEEN ARABS AND JEWS.

THE JEWISH AIR FORCE BOMBED THE COLUMN LAST NIGHT, THE COMMUNIQUE SAID, AND INFANTRY WITH ARTILLERY SUPPORT ATTACKED IT LATER. THE JEWS RINGED THE COLUMN AND DESTROYED ENEMY TANKS AND TRUCKS WHICH TRIED TO BREAK THROUGH THE ENCIRCLEMENT. EGYPTIAN CASUALTIES WERE REPORTED TO BE HEAVY.

THE AIR FORCE ALSO BOMBED NABLUS, CAPITAL OF THE ARAB'S JENIN-TULKARM-NABLUS TRIANGLE MILES NORTH

THE AIR FORCE ALSO BOMBED NABLUS, CAPITAL OF THE ARAB'S JENIN-TULKARM-NABLUS TRIANGLE 30 MILES NORTH OF JERUSALEM. NABLUS IS THE

SOUTHERNMOST CITY IN THE TRIANGLE. THE COMMUNIQUE SAID DIRECT HITS WERE SCORED ON A POLICE STATION FORTRESS THERE.

TODAY'S COMMUNIQUE WAS THE SECOND REPORT OF ARAB-JEWISH AERIAL COMBAT SINCE THE PALESTINE WAR BEGAN MAY 15. ISRAEL REPORTED MONDAY THAT ITS FIGHTERS SHOT DOWN AN ARAB SPITFIRE FIGHTER SUNDAY OVER TULKARM.

IT WAS DISCLOSED LATER THAT IT WAS A MESSERSCHMITT, FAMOUS GERMAN WORLD WAR II FIGHTER, THAT BROUGHT THE SPITFIRE DOWN. THE GOVERNMENT HAS MAINTAINED SECRECY CONCERNING THE MAKES OF PLANES IT USES.

(AN EGYPTIAN COMMUNIQUE ISSUED IN CAIRO TOLD OF A LARGE NUMBER OF AIR RAIDS ON JEWISH AREAS AND SAID ONLY ONE PLANE WAS LOST.

(EGYPTIAN PLANES IN AN ATTACK ON TEL AVIV, THE COMMUNIQUE SAID, BLASTED THE AIRPORT AND PRINCIPAL ELECTRIC POWER STATION.)

THE BRITISH ARMY SAID DURING THE DAY THAT 249 JEWISH IMMIGRANTS ABOARD THE PANAMIAN STEAMER ENDEAVOR WERE NOT PERMITTED TO LAND AT HAIFA JUNE 1.

THE STEAMER THEN MOVED OUTSIDE OF THE HAIFA EVACUATION AREA CONTROLLED BY THE BRITISH, THE ARMY SAID, AND THE IMMIGRANTS WHO BOARDED THE SHIP AT MARSEILLE WERE TAKEN ASHORE BY TUGS AND LIGHTERS.

IT WAS THE FIRST SHIP ARRIVING AT HAIFA CARRYING JEWISH IMMIGRANTS SINCE BRITISH AUTHORITIES BANNED PASSENGER TRAFFIC IN THIS PORT.

BY WILLIAM F.ARBOGAST

(ADVANCE)...WASHINGTON, JUNE 3-(AP)-A 25 PERCENT CUT IN FUNDS FOR THE MARSHALL PLAN AND OTHER FOREIGN AID PROGRAMS WAS URGED TODAY BY THE HOUSE APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE.

THE COMMITTEE SENT TO THE HOUSE FLOOR FOR PROBABLY HOT DEBATE TOMORROW A $6,043,710,228 GLOBAL ASSISTANCE MEASURE.

THIS IS A REDUCTION OF ONLY $490,000,000, OR 7.5 PERCENT, IN--THE AMOUNT CONGRESS ITSELF AUTHORIZED AND PRESIDENT TRUMAN ASKED.

BUT THE EFFECT IS A ONE-QUARTER SLASH FOR THIS REASON: THE AUTHORIZATION LAW PROVIDED THAT THE MONEY COULD BE SPENT DURING 12 MONTHS. BUT THE COMMITTEE SAID THE CASH IT IS WILLING TO PUT UP MUST BE STRETCHED OUT OVER 15 MONTHS.

SLIGHTLY MORE THAN $5,000,000,000 OF THE TOTAL ASKED HAD BEEN BUDGETED FOR USE DURING THE 12 MONTHS ENDING NEXT APRIL 3, OR AT THE RATE OF $417,000,000 PER MONTH.

THE COMMITTEE TRIMMED THAT TOTAL TO $4,663,000,000 FOR 15 MONTHS, A SPENDING RATE OF $311,000,000 MONTHLY.

OTHER FUNDS IN THE BILL WERE CUT $150,000,000 WITH THE MONEY TO BE SPENT DURING A 12-MONTH PERIOD AS ORIGINALLY PLANNED.

IN EXPLAINING THE CUTS AND SPREADING OUT THE SPENDING PERIOD, THE COMMITTEE SAID THE PROGRAMS CONTEMPLATED "WILL NOT PERMIT THE EXPENDITURE OF MORE FUNDS THAN HAS BEEN PROVIDED X X X ON AN INTELLIGENT BASIS" BEFORE JULY 1, 1949.

SHOULD AN EMERGENCY ARISE BEFORE THEN, IT ADDED, CONGRESS WILL BE IN SESSION AGAIN NEXT JANUARY TO TAKE ACTION.

IN SUMMARY, HERE'S WHAT THE COMMITTEE RECOMMENDED TO FINANCE THE ECONOMIC RECOVERY ACT PASSED BY CONGRESS TWO MONTHS AGO:

ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION, FOR AID TO 16 NON-COMMUNIST EUROPEAN NATIONS AND WESTERN GERMANY---$4,245,000,000 ASKED, $4,000,-000,000 RECOMMENDED. CONGRESS HAD AUTHORIZED $5,300,000,000 FOR ECA AND ALREADY HAS MADE AVAILABLE $1,055,000,000.

AID TO TRIESTE--$20,000,000 ASKED AS A SEPARATE ITEM; THE COMMITTEE RECOMMENDED THAT THIS COME FROM THE GENERAL ECA ALLOTMENT.

ASSISTANCE TO GREECE AND TURKEY--$275,000,000 ASKED, $200,000,000 RECOMMENDED, WITH NO STIPULATION AS TO HOW THE CUT SHOULD BE APPLIED.

AID TO CHINA--$463,000,000 REQUESTED AND GRANTED.

INTERNATIONAL CHILDREN'S EMERGENCY FUND--$60,0000,000 REQUESTED AND GRANTED.

GOVERNMENT AND RELIEF IN OCCUPIED AREAS, ADMINISTERED BY THE ARMY--$1,400,000,000 ASKED, $1,250,000,000 RECOMMENDED. THE COMMITTEE ESTIMATED THAT BIZONAL GERMANY WOULD RECEIVE $706,000,000, JAPAN AND THE RYUKUS $424,000,000, KOREA
$107,000,000, WITH THE BALANCE TO BE USED "FOR MAINTAINING LAW AND ORDER" IN OCCUPIED AUSTRIA.

INTERNATIONAL REFUGEE ORGANIZATION--$70,710,228 ASKED AND GRANTED.

THERE APPEARS TO BE LITTLE DOUBT THAT THE HOUSE WILL FOLLOW THE RECOMMENDATION OF THE COMMITTEE AND VOTE THE FUND CUTS. AS USUAL, IN SUCH INSTANCES, THE ADMINISTRATION WILL PIN ITS HOPES ON THE SENATE TO RESTORE AT LEAST A PART OF THE ORIGINAL AMOUNT ASKED.

THE SENATE APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE HAS BEEN HOLDING ITS OWN HEARINGS TO BE READY FOR SWIFT ACTION ONCE THE HOUSE PASSES THE MONEY BILL.

WHILE THE AUTHORIZATION MEASURE CARRIED AN IMPLIED PROMISE THAT CONGRESS WOULD PROVIDE THE FULL AMOUNT TO CARRY OUT THE PROGRAM AS DRAFTED IN THAT BILL, THERE WERE WIDESPREAD PREDICTIONS AT THE TIME THAT THE FUNDS WOULD BE TRIMMED SHARPLY.

THE HOUSE COMMITTEE SAID THAT SINCE JULY 1, 1945, THE UNITED STATES HAS PROVIDED FOREIGN AID TOTALING $18,182,000,000, MUCH OF WHICH "HAS BEEN WASTED," AND ALL OF WHICH HAS TENDED TO DEPLETE THIS COUNTRY'S RESOURCES.

NO ONE, IT SAID, CAN ESTIMATE WITHIN A BILLION DOLLARS THE ACTUAL NEEDS OF THE PARTICIPATING COUNTRIES.

SOME OF THE MONEY ASKED, THE REPORT SAID, WOULD PERMIT PAYMENT OF "INVISIBLE ITEMS," INCLUDING INTEREST AND PAYMENTS ON PREVIUS DEBTS.

THE COMMITTEE VOICED DISSATISFACTION WITH PLANS FOR LARGE-SCALE MECHANIZATION OF FARMS ABROAD WHEN STEEL AND PETROLEUM ARE SCARCE HERE.

IT ALSO SAID IT IS DISSATISFIED WITH PROGRESS IN THE REHABILIATION OF GERMANY AND CALLED FOR AN EARLY END TO THE PROSECUTION OF MINOR POLITICAL OFFENDERS IN THAT CONQUERED NATION.

THE COMMITTEE SAID IT CUT THE GREEK-TURKISH FUND BECAUSE THERE ARE LARGE SUMS LEFT FROM PREVIOUS APPROPRIATIONS FOR THOSE COUNTRIES AND BECAUSE OF REPORTS THAT GUERRILLA BANDS "WOULD BE SUBSTANTIALLY IF NOT COMPLETELY LIQUIDATED BY THE END OF THIS SUMMER."

THE BILL CLIMAXED WEEKS OF CLOSED-DOOR HEARINGS DURING WHICH THE COMMITTEE HEARD PAUL G.HOFFMAN, ECA ADMINISTRATOR, ESTIMATE THE FOUR-YEAR COST OF THE FOREIGN-AID PROGRAM AT FROM $13,000,000,000 TO $18,000,000,000.

HOFFMAN TOLD THE COMMITTEE HE REGARDS THE PROGRAM AS "A WAR TO WIN THE PEACE" AND AS GOOD BUSINESS FOR AMERICA RATHER THAN CHARITY FOR EUROPE.

WASHINGTON,JUNE 3-(AP)-THE HIGHLY DISPUTED BILL TO LET 200,000 HOMELESS EUROPEANS ENTER THE UNITED STATES DURING THE NEXT TWO YEARS WENT TO THE HOUSE TODAY WITH THE SENATE'S 63 TO 13 ENDORSEMENT.

ONE REPUBLICAN, SENATOR HAWKES (NJ), AND 12 SOUTHERN DEMOCRATS CAST THE OPPOSITION VOTES LAST NIGHT AFTER AN 11-HOUR CONTINUOUS SESSION.

EARLY HOUSE APPROVAL OF A SIMILAR BILL IS INDICATED SINCE REPUBLICAN LEADERS HAVE PLACED A "MUST" TAG ON DISPLACED PERSONS LEGISLATION FOR THIS SESSION.

THE SENATE BILL WOULD PERMIT 100,000 CAREFULLY SELECTED EUROPEANS TO COME HERE IN EACH OF THE NEXT TWO YEARS, STARTING IN JULY. THEY WOULD BE IN ADDITION TO THE REGULAR IMMIGRATION QUOTAS.

THE MEASURE SURVIVED AN ATTEMPT BY SENATOR KEM (R-MO) TO JUNK IT FOR HIS SUBSTITUTE BILL WHICH WOULD HAVE LIMITED THE TOTAL TO 140,000, WITH HALF OF THESE CHARGED AGAINST REGULAR IMMIGRATION QUOTAS.

THE KEM SUBSTITUTE WAS BEATEN 50 TO 27 AFTER SENATOR TAFT (R-OHIO) SAID HE "FELT STRONGLY" THAT 200,000 IS THE MINIMUM NUMBER OF DISPLACES PERSONS WHO SHOULD BE PERMITTED TO ENTER THIS COUNTRY.

ALESTINE-BLOCKADE

WASHINGTON, JUNE 3-(AP)-THE STATE DEPARTMENT FORECAST TODAY THE UNITED STATES WILL FILE A NEW PROTEST AGAINST THE NAVAL BLOCKADE OF PALESTINE PROCLAIMED BY EGYPT, SYRIA AND LEBANON.

PRESS OFFICER MICHAEL J.MCDERMOTT SAID EGYPT'S REPLY TO THE INITIAL AMERICAN PROTEST IS UNSATISFACTORY. HE SAID A NEW NOTE TO EGYPT IS BEING DRAFTED. EGYPT CONTENDED THE BLOCKADE IS IN ACCORDANCE WITH INERNATIONAL LAW.

SYRIA AND LEBANON HAVE NOT YET REPLIED TO THE INITIAL UNITED STATES DECLARATION THAT IT REFUSES TO RECOGNIZE THE ARAB BLOCKADE AS A WEAPON IN THE HOLY LAND FIGHTING.

THUS FAR THERE HAS BEEN NO INTERFERENCE WITH AMERICAN SHIPS ON THE HIGH SEAS, MCDERMOTT TOLD REPORTERS. BUT HE NOTED GOODS DESTINED FOR PALESTINE HAVE BEEN REMOVED FROM SHIPS OF OTHER NATIONS WHEN THEY PUT INTO EGYPTIAN HARBORS.

WASHINGTON,JUNE 3-(AP)-THE STATE DEPARTMENT STOOD FIRM TODAY AGAINST RECOGNIZING AN ARAB NAVAL BLOCKADE OF PALESTINE AS A WEAPON IN THE HOLY LAND FIGHTING.

THE DEPARTMENT INDICATED A NEW PROTEST WILL BE FILED WITH EGYPT, SYRIA AND LEBANON. LATER, HOWEVER, DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS SAID LEBANON WAS NOT INVOLVED IN THE BLOCKADE AND NO PROTEST WOULD BE SENT TO THAT COUNTRY.

REPLYING TO THE INITIAL UNITED STATES PROTEST, EGYPT CONTENDED THE BLOCKADE WAS IN ACCORDANCE WITH INTERNATIONAL LAW. SYRIA DID NOT REPLY.

THERE HAS BEEN NO INTERFERENCE WITH AMERICAN SHIPS ON THE HIGH SEAS SO FAR, PRESS OFFICER MICHAEL MCDERMOTT SAID.

WASHINGTON, JUNE 3-(AP)-EMMET O'NEAL, AMBASSADOR TO THE PHILIPPINES TALKED BRIEFLY WITH PRESIDENT TRUMAN TODAY AND SAID HE WOULD DISCUSS PHILIPPINE PROBLEMS AT GREATER LENGTHS LATER.

O'NEAL SAID POLITICS WAS NOT MENTIONED. HE SAID HE HAS BEEN MENTIONED AS A POSSIBLE CANDIDATE FOR THE SENATE FROM KENTUCKY BUT "I'M NOT INTERESTED OR ACTIVE IN POLITICS."

THE AMBASSADOR SAID HE EXPECTS TO BE IN THIS COUNTRY INDEFINITELY AND WILL GO OVER PHILIPPINE AFFAIRS WITH MR. TRUMAN WHEN THE PRESIDENT RETURNS IN MID-JUNE FROM A WESTERN TRIP.

"I PERSONALLY FEEL," HE TOLD REPORTERS, "THE PHILIPPINES HAVE DONE A MOST REMARKABLE JOB. THERE IS A GREAT DEAL OF RECONSTRUCTION AND REBUILDING, BUT THE DEVASTATION WAS SO ENORMOUS.

"PROGRESS HAS BEEN MADE IN EVERY WAY. I AM VERY OPTIMISTIC ABOUT THE FUTURE."

AP SPECIAL WASHINGTON SERVICE

JUN 1948

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON,JUNE 3-(AP)-THE COMMERCE DEPARTMENT ESTIMATES THAT 9 PERCENT OF THIS COUNTRY'S STEEL SUPPLY WILL BE EXPORTED DURING THE PERIOD BETWEEN APRIL, 1948 AND JUNE, 1949.

THIS WOULD BE ABOUT ONE AND THREE-TENTHS PERCENT LESS THAN IN 1947, A HOUSE APPROPRIATIONS SUBCOMMITTEE WAS TOLD IN TESTIMONY MADE PUBLIC TODAY.

THE DEPARTMENT ESTIMATES THAT MORE THAN 76,000,000 (M) TONS OF FINISHED AND SEMI-FINISHED STEEL WILL BE AVAILABLE DOMESTICALLY DURING THE APRIL, 1948-JUNE, 1949 PERIOD.

OF THIS AMOUNT APPROXIMATELY 6,879,000 (M) TONS WILL BE EXPORTED. OF THE TOTAL EXPORTED, THE DEPARTMENT'S ESTIMATE SHOWED, ABOUT 2,517,000 (M) TONS WILL GO TO THE 16 NATIONS PARTICIPATING IN THE FOREIGN AID PROGRAM.

THIS WOULD MEAN THAT THE MARSHALL PLAN NATIONS WOULD BE GETTING ABOUT 3.3 PERCENT OF THIS COUNTRY'S SUPPLY OF STEEL AND ABOUT 36.3 PERCENT OF ITS STEEL EXPORTS.

NATIONS OTHER THAN THE MARSHALL PLAN NATIONS THAT ARE LEADING STEEL CUSTOMERS, THE COMMITTEE WAS TOLD, ARE CANADA, MEXICO, ARGENTINA, BRAZIL, VENEZUELA, CHINA, THE PHILIPPINES AND CUBA.

A CHART CONTAINING THE ESTIMATES WAS PRESENTED BY J.J.N.PALMER OF THE COMMERCE DEPARTMENT'S OFFICE OF INTERNATIONAL TRADE. HE EMPHASIZED THAT THE 1948-49 FIGURES WERE ESTIMATES. HE EMPHASIZED ALSO THAT THE FIGURES FOR THE MARSHALL PLAN COUNTRIES WERE NOT ACTUAL COMMITMENTS.

THEY ARE THE TONNAGES SCHEDULED FOR SHIPMENT.

HE SAID HE HAD NO EXACT FIGURES ON PROBABLE SHIPMENTS TO THE NATIONS OUTSIDE THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PLAN, BUT SAID THAT LAST YEAR THIS COUNTRY SHIPPED 972,000 TONS TO CANADA AND 369,000 TONS TO MEXICO. THESE, HE SAID, WERE THE TWO LARGEST.

PALMER'S CHART PROVIDED ESTIMATES THAT AMERICAN STEEL MILLS WILL BE OPERATING AT 90 PERCENT OF CAPACITY DURING THE APRIL 1947-JUNE 1949 PERIOD, THIS COMPARES WITH 92.9 PERCENT CAPACITY IN 1947 AND 64.5 PERCENT IN 1939. IT WOULD BE HIGHER, PALMER SAID, IF THE MILLS COULD GET SCRAP.

ESTIMATED TOTAL PRODUCTION BETWEEN APRIL, 1948 AND JUNE, 1949 OF STEEL INGOTS--FROM WHICH FINISHED AND SEMIFINISHED STEEL ARE MADE--IS GIVEN IN THE CHART AS 101,300,000 (M) TONS. PRODUCTION WAS 78,086,000 (M) IN 1947, AND 48,629,000 (M) IN THE PREWAR YEAR OF 1939.

THE ESTIMATED FINISHED STEEL REQUIREMENTS OF THE UNITED STATES DURING THE APRIL, 1948-JUNE, 1949 PERIOD WERE GIVEN AS 72,275,000 (M) TONS, BUT THERE WAS ADDED THIS NOTE:

"THE ROUGHEST APPROXIMATION. NO MEANS EXIST BY WHICH TO PRECISELY CALCULATE DOMESTIC REQUIREMENTS."

JUN 1948

THE COMMITTEE ALSO WAS TOLD:

1. THE NATION LOST ABOUT 9,000,000 (M) TONS OF STEEL BECAUSE OF THE COAL AND STEEL STRIKES OF 1946.

"IT MIGHT VERY WELL HAVE BEEN, HAD WE HAD THOSE 9,000,000 TONS, WE WOULD NOT HAVE KNOWN OF THE DIFFICULTIES OF A SHORT SUPPLY DURING ALL OF THIS PERIOD," PALMER SAID.

2. ABOUT 1,500,000 (M) TONS OF STEEL INGOTS HAVE BEEN LOST BECAUSE OF THIS YEAR'S COAL STRIKE. THIS MAY MEAN THERE WILL BE LESS STEEL TO EXPORT.

3. OF THE 5,970,000 (M) TONS OF STEEL EXPORTED FROM THE UNITED STATES IN 1947 ABOUT 125,000 TONS WENT "BEHIND THE IRON CURTAIN." RUSSIA, THE COMMITTEE WAS TOLD, GOT 83,000 TONS AND FINLAND 26,000. THE OTHERS RECEIVED AMOUNTS THAT WERE NOT "SIGNIFICANT."

4. THE DEMAND UPON THE UNITED STATES FOR STEEL PROBABLY WILL CONTINUE TO DECLINE FROM YEAR TO YEAR AS EUROPEAN PRODUCTION CONTINUES TO INCREASE.

5. ABOUT ONE-HALF OF THE UNCONTROLLED STEEL THAT WAS EXPORTED FROM THIS COUNTRY IN 1947 WAS FROM THE "BLACK MARKET."

"IN 1947 X X X EXPORT CONTROL EXTENDED TO JUST ABOUT ONE-HALF OF THE TONNAGE OF STEEL THAT WAS EXPORTED," PALMER SAID.

"SINCE THAT TIME IT HAS BEEN MADE A COMPLETE CONTROL, LACKING ONLY TWO OR THREE PER CENT OF THE TOTAL.

"ABOUT ONE-HALF OF THE QUANTITY THAT WENT, APART FROM WHAT WAS UNDER EXPORT CONTROL, MOVED OUT OF WHAT IS COMMONLY CALLED THE BLACK MARKET. WITH EXPORT CONTROL, THAT SHIPMENT WILL LARGELY CEASE."

LOS ANGELES,JUNE 3-(AP)-THE FOUNDER OF THE MORAL REARMAMENT MOVEMENT SAYS "DEMOCRACY WITHOUT AN IDEOLOGY CAN WIN A WAR BUT CANNOT BUILD A PEACE."

DR.FRANK N.D.BUCHMAN DECLARED IN A RADIO ADDRESS LAST NIGHT THAT "IDEOLOGICAL PREPAREDNESS IS THE TASK OF THE WHOLE NATION AND THE ONE SURE BASIS OF NATIONAL STRENGTH--MORAL, MILITARY AND ECONOMIC."

HE SAID THAT MORAL REARMAMENT, FOUNDED 10 YEARS AGO, "OFFERS THE DEMOCRACIES AND THE WHOLE WORLD THE SUPERIOR ARMAMENT OF AN IDEOLOGY, WITHOUT WHICH ARMIES ARE OUTFOUGHT AND STATESMEN ARE OUTTHOUGHT."

"EVERYWHERE MEN LONG FOR PEACE WHILE THEY PREPARE FOR WAR," HE SAID. "THEY LONG TO REBUILD WHILE THEY PREPARE TO DESTROY. THEY PLAN FOR NEW PROSPERITY AND EXPECT FRESH DISASTERS."

"WHAT IS THE MISSING FACTOR IN THE PLANNING AND STATESMANSHIP OF THE WORLD TODAY?" HE ASKED, ADDING: "IT IS OUR LACK OF AN IDEOLOGY FOR DEMOCRACY."

DR.BUCHMAN SPOKE OVER A NATIONWIDE RADIO HOOKUP AFTER A SCHEDULE WORLD ASSEMBLY OF THE 10TH ANNIVERSARY MORAL REARMAMENT CONFERENCE AT THE HOLLYWOOD BOWL WAS POSTPONED BECAUSE OF RAIN.

POLITICAL, INDUSTRIAL AND LABOR LEADERS OF 24 NATIONS ATTENDED A DINNER PRECEDING THE ADDRESS. A TELEGRAM FROM ADMINISTRATOR PAUL G. HOFFMAN OF THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION TO THE MRA CONFERENCE SAID IN PART: "YOU ARE GIVING THE WORLD THE IDEOLOGICAL COUNTERPART OF THE MARSHALL PLAN."

NEW YORK, JUNE 3-(AP)-DR.GUY EMERY SHIPLER, EDITOR OF "THE CHURCHMAN," CHIDED SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL TONIGHT FOR THE LATTER'S REFUSAL TO ACCEPT AN AWARD FROM THE PUBLICATION.

SHIPLER DID SO IN HIS PREPARED ADDRESS FOR THE INDEPENDENT EPISCOPAL MAGAZINE'S ANNUAL DINNER, WHICH MARSHALL RECENTLY REFUSED TO ATTEND. HE WAS TO HAVE RECEIVED THE PUBLICATION'S ANNUAL AWARD.

NOT MENTIONING THE SECRETARY OF STATE BY NAME, SHIPLER SAID:

"RECENTLY A GOVERNMENT OFFICIAL WHO FOR EIGHT MONTHS HAD TOLD ME THAT HE WOULD LIKE TO BE PRESENT ON THIS OCCASION SUDDENLY MADE SOME SURPRISING DISCOVERIES AND CHANGED HIS MIND.

"HE FOUND, HE SAID, THAT 'THE CHURCHMAN IS NOT, AS I HAD ORIGINALLY UNDERSTOOD, THE OFFICIAL ORGAN OF THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH, DEVOTING ITSELF EXCLUSIVELY TO RELIGIOUS MATTER. ITS EDITORIALS EXTEND FAR INTO THE REALM OF POLITICS AND INTERNATIONAL FFAIRS.'"

SHIPLER THEN NOTED THAT THE CHURCHMAN "HAS BEEN PUBLISHED ONLY SINCE 1804," HAS NEVER BEEN AN OFFICIAL JOURNAL AND HAS ALWAYS CARRIED ON ITS MASTHEAD THE PHRASE "AN INDEPENDENT JOURNAL."

HE SAID THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH "HAS FOUR INDEPENDENT JOURNALS AND NO OFFICIAL NATIONAL JOURNALS, EXCEPT A MISSIONARY MONTHLY," AND ADDED:

"SOME GOVERNMENT INTELLIGENCE AGENCY DID AN AMAZING JOB IN UNEARTHING THESE SECRETS AND CERTAINLY EARNED THE TAXPAYER'S MONEY."

SHIPLER SAID "ALL PROTESTANT JOURNALS" DEAL WITH POLITICS AND INTERNATIONAL FFAIRS.

THE CHURCHMAN GAVE A "CHRISTIAN SALUTE" AND "WARMEST WELCOME" CITATION TONIGHT TO THE NEW STATE OF ISRAEL, ALTHOUGH A REPRESENTATIVE OF ISRAEL ALSO DECLINED TO ATTEND AFTER MARSHALL'S ANNOUNCEMENT. THE REPRESENTATIVE SAID HIS GOVERNMENT DID NOT WISH TO BECOME INVOLVED IN DOMESTIC CONTROVERSIES.

NEW YORK, JUNE 3-(AP)-JOHN FOSTER DULLES SAID TODAY FORMATION OF A FEDERATION OF WESTERN EUROPE WOULD "END THE PRESENT CONSIDERABLE RISK OF WAR."

"IT WOULD FILL WITH HEALTH THE PRESENT VACUUM INTO WHICH SOVIET POWER IS PENETRATING," THE FOREIGN AFFAIRS EXPERT AND MEMBER OF THE U.S. DELEGATION TO THE UNITED NATIONS WROTE IN COLLIER'S MAGAZINE.

WHILE SUCH A FEDERATION IS BEING FORMED, DULLES SAID, ITS MEMBERS SHOULD BE BACKED UP NOT ONLY WITH AMERICAN DOLLARS BUT WITH "PROVISIONAL AND TRANSITIONAL" GUARANTEES BY THE UNITED STATES AGAINST MILITARY AGGRESSION AND OVERTHROW OF THEIR FREE POLITICAL INSTITUTIONS BY COMMUNISTS.

HE SAID THE FIVE-POWER PACT SIGNED IN BRUSSELS LAST SPRING FOR COMMON DEFENSE AGAINST ATTACK WAS A STEP IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION. BUT A FEDERATION OF WESTERN EUROPE, HE ADDED, NEED NOT BE LIMITED PERMANENTLY TO ITS ORIGINAL MEMBERS.

"THE COMING INTO BEING OF A FEDERATION OF WESTERN EUROPE SHOULD NOT, OF COURSE, MARK THE END OF OUR EFFORTS TO REPLACE INTERNATIONAL ANARCHY WITH INTERNATIONAL ORDER.

"IT MIGHT, HOWEVER, MEAN THAT FROM THEN ON, OUR EFFORTS COULD BE ON A MORE UNIVERSAL BASIS THROUGH THE UNITED NATIONS. THERE WOULD BE REAL CHANCE OF DEVELOPING WORLD ORDER ON A UNIVERSAL BASIS. WE SHOULD NEVER LOSE SIGHT OF THAT ULTIMATE GOAL."

4 EGYPTIAN SHIPS REPORTED ROUTED IN NAVAL BATTLE

Israeli Claims Victory in 3-Hour Engagement Off Tel Aviv. (N)

HEAVY LAND FIGHTING

Arabs Say 580 Jews Killed, 1,000 Wounded in North Palestine Clash.

M. Boyd

CAIRO, June 4—(AP) The Arabs said tonight they had killed 580 Jews and wounded 1,000 others in a fierce land battle while a Jewish communique reported four Egyptian ships were repulsed in a sharp, three-hour naval engagement off Tel Aviv.

A Baghdad communique of the Iraqi defense ministry said the Jewish casualties were inflicted when Israeli forces used 5,000 troops in an attack in the Jenin area of northern Palestine. A large number of Jewish prisoners and great quantities of arms were captured, the communique said.

Arab Sea Attack Fails

Military headquarters said the Egyptian naval units attempted to approach Tel Aviv soon after noon today and were driven off by the Israeli navy, airplanes and coastal defense guns. It was the first naval engagement of the Palestine war.

Count Folke Bernadotte, UN mediator trying to stop the fighting, messaged the security council at Lake Success, N. Y., tonight that the question of Jewish immigration into Palestine was the sole obstacle to a cease fire agreement.

(He urgently asked the council to give him the fastest ruling on admission of Jewish men of military age during the proposed four weeks truce. Faris El Khouri, council president, first called a special meeting for Saturday and then later decided Monday would be time enough to consider the count's request.

(Still later the UN announced that El Khouri cancelled the Saturday meeting after contact with Bernadotte in which the mediator was informed of the council's attitude in the matter. The official attitude is that Bernadotte has authority to make interpretations of the peace proposal and need only refer to the council in event his interpretations are challenged The UN announced Bernadotte withdrew his request for a ruling after receiving this information.)

The Tel Aviv communique, describing the fighting off that port, said Jewish planes bombed the Egyptian ships and at least one direct hit was seen on one of them before they were beaten off. Eyewitnesses ashore said the vessels came within six or seven miles off the Jewish capital. One Israeli plane did not return, the communique said.

An Egyptian communique issued here said its royal navy was attacked by three enemy planes but gave neither the scene of the action nor the number of vessels involved. It reported Egyptian fighting planes forced down one Jewish plane.

The Egyptian ships were described by the Jews as one corvette; one armed transport of 2,500 tons (the Amira Fawzia. And two British-type landing craft.

James M. Long, Associated Press correspondent in Tel Aviv, said one Jewish corvette resembling an oversiezed Gloucester fishing trawler engaged the Egyptian units and withdrew after shell-splash waterspouts were seen close alongside it.

Two Jewish airplanes carried out bombing attacks on the ships, Long said, adding that one plane was a fighter type, the other a sportsman model. He saw only one plane return.

The correspondent said bomb hits were seen close to one Egyptian ship and quoted some persons ashore as saying they saw a hit scored just before the Egyptian vessels withdrew.

Yesterday the Egyptians said their navy attacked Caesarea, a small port 32 miles north of Tel Aviv. They claimed to have sunk one ship and raked dockside installations with gunfire. The size of this naval force was not given.

Heavy Losses Claimed

Tonights' Iraq communique said the Jewish troops in the Jenin region made a strong attack but were "pursued, dispersed and beaten." It added: "Our forces repelled the attack, inflicting very great losses on the enemy."

A Tel Aviv report last night said Jewish assault forces had penetrated inside the city limits of Jenin, northernmost point of the Nablus-Jenin-Tulkarm triangle. In Amman today, an Arab general command officer said the Israelis had lost 500 men in a vain attempt to occupy the Arab stronghold.

The Iraqi communique further claimed its air force had destroyed the greater part of a Jewish column in the Hkenin area. Heavy bombs were dropped on Petah Tiqva, six miles northeast of Tel Aviv, causing great destruction and setting huge fires, the communique added. The Iraqis also claimed extensive damage was caused by direct artillery hits at Kfar Yona, 4 1-2 miles east of Natanya.

In Cairo, Bernadotte said he would not fix a cease-fire hour in the Holy Land until Arab and Jewish interpretations of the proposed four-week truce are clarified. He said he hoped to obtain this clarification in a day or two, but added it was no definite promise.

Land fighting continued both northeast and south of Tel Aviv where Arab forces are threatening the Jewish capital.

In the south the Jews said they bombed an Egyptian spearhead which they claim is cut off and encircled near Isdud, 22 miles south of Tel Aviv.

Churches Hit By Bombs

Inside the old city of Jerusalem mortar bombs struck Christian churches at the third and sixth stations of the cross along Via Dolorosa—the path of Christ to Calvary. Three refugee children were injured, but not seriously. An Arab Legion commander said the Jews fired the mortars in violation of a hold-fire understanding. He said he ordered his artillery to lay down a retaliatory bombardment of Jewish targets 10 times as heavy.

The Catholic priests of the Latin Patriarchate in Jerusalem said a protest against Jewish conduct of military operations in Jerusalem had been sent to the United nations.

In Amman, capital of Trans-Jordan, a reliable diplomatic source said Bernadotte was negotiating for a cease fire to become effective at 9 a. m. Sunday (2 a. m. Eastern Standard Time), with the four-week truce to begin nine hours later at 6 a. m. Monday (11 p. m., EST, Sunday night).

An earlier dispatch from Amman quoted a foreign office source as saying Trans-Jordan had "accepted Bernadotte's proposal for a cease fire effective—"but the date was omitted. It had apparently been eliminated by a censor or dropped in transmission.

Count Bernadotte made his statements at a news conference after a plane trip yesterday to Trans-Jordan and Israel and a meeting here with Premier Nokrashy Pasha.

The Jews and Arabs have accepted the U.N.'s four-week truce, but with conflicting views over its provisions.

Bernadotte said the main difficulty revolved around the provision that no "fighting personnel" shall enter the countries involved during the truce, and that if men of military age enter they should not be trained or mobilized.

The British have already taken the view that all fit Jews of military age would be barred from entering Palestine from British possessions such as Cyprus.

Bernadotte said another question was whether Israel would be permitted to send supplies to 90,000 Jews besieged in the modern city of Jerusalem.

Yesterday King Farouk made known he stood with King Abdullah of Trans-Jordan against a Jewish state in Palestine under any circumstances. Asked whether this made his task more difficult, the Count said:

"The task is difficult, but the key problem is to get a truce. I have not discussed with anybody the future of Palestine. What we want is peace. Before we get it we must have a truce. We are now working on a truce. If and when we get it we will start to discuss the future of Palestine."

400 Jews Are Killed

The Egyptian communiqué last night said a Jewish attack on Isdud Wednesday night was repulsed with 400 Jews killed. The bulletin reported successes in the region of Negba, 6 miles southeast of Isdud, in the drive to isolate northern Jewish settlements from those in the south.

Israeli front dispatches said Jewish fighters beat their way into the northwestern limits of Jenin at night and brought in artillery support after withstanding an Iraqi counterattack of twelve hours on Wednesday. The Jews drove forward in a fourteen-hour assault which continued through last night, the advices said.

British Protest Attack

The dispatches said a British-built military camp and airdrome 4 miles north of Jenin were captured intact in a two-pronged drive from the Plain of Esdraelon and the Mountains of Gilboa—where Saul and Jonathan were slain.

The chief of operations for the Israeli general staff said Wednesday night that the Jewish army had field artillery in action on all fronts for the first time.

The British said their consul at Haifa protested against the recent Jewish bombing of a Royal Air Force base near Amman recently. A Foreign Office spokesman in London said the base was used by Trans-Jordan planes as well as those of Britain.

A dispatch from inside the Old City of Jerusalem said British soldiers who deserted to fight against the Jews reported that 10 out of the original 22 in their ranks had been killed in battle. In an open letter to newsmen the soldiers said they were fighting to avenge Jewish attacks on British troops.

Legion Shells Jerusalem.

In Jerusalem artillery shelling of Jewish areas was resumed by twenty-five-pound guns of the Arab Legion. This was the first such shelling since Wednesday afternoon. In the Old City, the legion reported a Jewish mortar attack in which two bombs hit two churches at Stations of the Cross. Insert

A Trans-Jordan Foreign Office source said the Arabs already accepted a date for a cease-fire.

While the United Nations mediator labored for peace, the war went on. Jews and Arabs reported heavy fighting in the Arab triangle of northern Palestine and on the southern coastal route to Tel Aviv, where the Jews and Egyptians were engaged.

Jenin Penetrated

Arabs and Jews indicated battles were continuing in the strong Arab triangle east of Tel Aviv, where the Jews penetrated Jenin, and at Isdud, 3 miles south of the Israeli border, on the coast. Both sides claimed victories.

Planes of both sides were active. The Jews said their aircraft bombed Arab strongpoints both in the north and the south, and said they shot down two bombers in an Egyptian raid on Tel Aviv last night.

Bernadotte declared here "the Jewish Corvette and Planes Battle Warship in Tel Aviv Bay

Egyptian Destroyer Is Believed in Fight—Arabs Shell Jerusalem — Bernadotte Hopes to Set Truce Hour by Sunday. (D)

Cairo, June 4 (A.P.).—Jews and Arabs fought a naval skirmish in Tel Aviv Bay and new shelling was reported in Jerusalem today. The United Nations mediator announced he hopes within two days to set an hour for a truce in the Palestine war.

Israeli planes and a corvette engaged what appeared to be an Egyptian destroyer off Tel Aviv in the first naval engagement of the war. The Egyptians announced last night some of their ships shelled the harbor of Cæsarea, south of Haifa.

Both Jews and Arabs reported heavy fighting in the Arab triangle of northern Palestine. The Arab Legion said the Jews lost 500 men trying to take Jenin, apex of the Arab triangle threatening Tel Aviv, and said the battle is continuing between Jews and Iraqi troops. On the south-military situation in Palestin will not change from the start of the truce to its end." His main task, he said, is to get a truce before discussing the major points at issue between the Arabs and the Jews, such as the existence of the Jewish state.

Question Of Age

One of the immediate issues holding up the truce concerns the Security Council provision that no fighting personnel enter Palestine during the cease-fire period and that if men of military age enter they should not be armed, mobilized or trained.

"Is a man of military age a fighting man?" Bernadotte asked.

Another immediate issue is the Jewish demand that they be permitted to send supplies to besieged modern Jerusalem during the truce. Bernadotte said no decision had been reached on this point.

The main issue, of course, is the Arab demand for an end to partition and the Jewish state and the Jews' insistence on the existence of Israel.

Arab leaders say they never will countenance a Jewish state in Palestine.

"Task Is Different"

"The task is difficult," Bernadotte said. "But the key problem is to get a truce. I have not discussed with anybody the future of Palestine. What we want is peace. Before we get it, we must have a truce. We are now working on a truce. If and when we get it, then we will start to discuss the future of Palestine."

Bernadotte talked with Trans-Jordan's Foreign Minister and Brig. John Bagot Glubb Pasha, the British commander of Trans-Jordan's Arab Legion, in Amman yesterday. Later he conferred in Haifa with the Israeli Foreign Minister, Moshe Shertok.

Arab shellfire lashed again at Jerusalem last night, after almost 24 hours of relative peace. Sporadic sniper fire also broke out in various parts of the city. However, neither Arabs nor Jews appeared to be making a serious attempt to improve their positions in the modern city, a Jerusalem dispatch said.

SHELLS HIT TWO SHRINES

Arabs Blame Jews, Reply With Tenfold Attack

By DANIEL DE LUCE

Inside Old Jerusalem, June 4 (AP). Mortar bombs shattered the red tile roofs of two Christian churches today along the Via Dolorosa—the Way of Sorrows—and caused minor injuries to three child refugees.

An Arab Legion commander said the Jews fired the mortars and ordered his artillery to reply tenfold against Jewish targets. He charged the shelling was a violation of a hold-fire understanding in the holy city.

Catholic priests of the Latin Patriarchate said a manifesto of the Christian Union of Palestine against Jewish conduct of military operations had been sent to the United Nations.

Refugees Terrified

The manifesto "appeals to all those in power and to the civilized world to compel the Jews to respect the holy places and religious institutions and to desist from making them military bases and targets."

One mortar bomb struck the Church of the Armenian Patriarchate at the Third Station and another the Greek Catholic Church of St. Veronica at the Sixth Station along the path trod by Jesus to Calvary.

Christian refugees crowded into the Church of St. Veronica were temporarily paralyzed with fright as rubble and steel fragments fell before the altar.

A third bomb landed harmlessly near Damascus Gate. In answer the Legion guns fired 30 rounds at targets that included the Jewish Agency, Haganah position on Mount Zion and the new Jewish quarters of Rehavia and Montefiore.

Most Of City Quiet

Most of Jerusalem was quiet, with Legion infantry sticking to their positions.

The Legion commander said he learned 800 Jews were working at a breakneck pace to construct a new airstrip on the western outskirts of Jerusalem near Beir Yassin. He said it would be bombarded heavily before it could be placed in operation.

The manifesto sent the United Nations was drafted yesterday by Father Ibrahim Ayad, secretary of the Latin Patriarchate; Archimandrite Michael Assaf, of the Greek Catholic Patriarchate; Father Ezekiel Attouny, Coptic Orthodox Patriarchate; Father Bonaventure Akiki, Franciscan custodian of Terra Sancta; Father Paul Jalu, Syrian Orthodox Patriarchate, and Father Jacques Kirakossian, Armenian Catholic Patriarchate.

Terrorists In Control

The Latin Patriarchate priests said the Greek Orthodox and Armenian Orthodox Patriarchate representatives had helped draft the manifesto but did not sign it. Instead they presented letters indorsing its contents.

The manifesto also blamed the Jews for breaking an eight-day cease-fire May 14 in Jerusalem. It said the Jewish Agency admitted the Stern Gang committed the violation, but added it had no control over the Sternists.

"We then realized that terrorists are controlling the Jewish movement," said the manifesto.

It listed eight convents and other religious institutions occupied by the Jews and fourteen damaged during the battle. It listed three priests killed and two wounded by "Jewish bombs and bullets." It said the Arabs promised to respect the holy places and added: "In fact they kept their word till now, and if they entered a convent it was with a view to counter defense."

Arab Prisoners Of Jews Freed In Jerusalem

Jerusalem, June 4 (AP)—Through the wreckage of blasted church buildings and under the watchful eyes of Arab and Jewish gunners, 38 Arab women and children yesterday crossed from the Jewish-held French hospital to the old city's New Gate. Some of them walked across narrow Suleiman street. Others were carried.

Arab Red Cross and Crescent officials said they had expected 500 Arab noncombatants known to be held in Jewish territories. But after hours of waiting inside the bombed New Gate, they received 22 women from Jewish Detention Camp No. 101, and sirteen women and children, two of them infants, from the French Hospital.

Flag Signals Transfer

Inside the Old City, Red Cross and Crescent workers waved their organization flag for an hour during a cease-fire period for the transfer of prisoners. Then Jewish officials responded and two groups met in the middle of the street. About them was the wreckage of two churches, Notre Dame de France, and the Sisters of Mary Reparatrice.

Jewish nurses brought an infant from a narrow door of the French Hospital wall. Arab stretcher bearers carried children who were wounded. One woman, badly wounded, was taken across in a chair. Then a small file of women, some of them crying, hurried over the debris of war into the courtyard of the Old City's Franciscan Convent.

Return To Posts

Iron-helmeted Jewish guards clanged the gates shut on their side of the street and Arab Legion gunners on the walled battlements settled back to their posts.

Outside the Old City's New Gate a half dozen Jewish newsmen and English, American and Arab correspondents met. No foreign correspondent from the Jewish forces was present, but most of those with the Arab Legion had worked alongside Jewish colleagues in the Palestine Government press room.

They exchanged greetings, borrowed cigarettes and talked briefly in the rubble on Suleiman street. Then the two groups separated and walked back a few yards to the gun-bristling lines behind which each side took up the job again of covering a bitter war.

10 of 22 Britons Killed; Quit Army to Fight Jews

IN JERUSALEM'S OLD CITY, June 4 (AP).—Ten of a group of twenty-two British soldiers who deserted their ranks to fight against Jerusalem's Jews have been killed in battle, survivors said today in a letter to correspondents.

"We are still losing British blood, but it is for the revenge we think we deserve," said an open letter signed by nine of the twelve surviving Britons.

American Conducts Tel Aviv Symphony

Tel Aviv, Israel, June 4 (AP)—Izler Solomon, young American conductor from Columbus, Ohio, is conducting the Palestine Philharmonic Symphony in this center of a new nation at war, often with air raid sirens furnishings an obligato.

Conductors who had been scheduled to come here for the orchestra's season canceled their contracts when the war with the Arabs began, and the Philharmonic applied to Solomon. He accepted.

His last two concerts were played before capacity audiences.

Solomon is proud that he is the first foreign visitor to get an entry visa for the state of Israel. In his American passport is stamped entry visa No. 1.

Other amusements continue in Tel Aviv despite the war and the daily air raids. Although attendance is reduced because of the many persons in emergency work, the theater, the opera and the motion-picture houses are carrying on. Tel Aviv theater companies even continue to tour the countryside, over risky roads, and groups often go to the front lines to entertain Israel's fighters.

'Christian Legion' Urged To Guard Holy Places

Rome, June 4 (AP)—A "Christian Legion" to guard the holy places of Palestine is being formed here, it was announced today.

The initiative for the legion—it aims at 500 men for the time being—has been taken by the Franciscan monks of the Holy Land delegation, for 600 years watchers over Palestine monuments.

Father Zanella, its spokesman, said the delegation is internationally recognized as custodian of Christianity's holy places in Palestine.

The Vatican, he said, has been notified of the enrollment project, but has no direct part in it. The legion's ranks are open not only to Catholics but to all Christian denominations.

No Objection Raised

Father Zanella said foreign embassies were notified of the enrollment and that no objection had been raised.

The Holy Land delegation's work, he said, includes contact with diplomatic representatives of all countries and aims at assisting not only Christians but also Moslems and Jews.

Noting churches already have been damaged, he said there is only a handful of unarmed monks to guard the Holy Land monuments. The Franciscans first urged establishment of an international voluntary armed guard twenty years ago. Father Zanella said some volunteers had already presented themselves.

U.S. Denies Wasson Said Arab Sniper Shot Him

WASHINGTON, June 4 (AP).—The State Department said today that an investigation at Jerusalem has shown no basis for a published report that the late Thomas C. Wasson, American Consul General, identified the sniper who wounded him fatally as an Arab.

Mr. Wasson died at Jerusalem May 23, a few hours after he was shot. He had been attending a three-power truce commission meeting.

The State Department said William C. Burdett, acting Consul-General, has questioned the two doctors who attended Mr. Wasson and members of the consular staff.

Mr. Wasson said nothing to any of them, the Department's report said, to indicate that he knew who shot him. Mr. Burdett reported, however, that a Jewish nurse quoted the dying man as saying: "The Arabs shot me, and I saw two of them."

No newspaper men talk with Mr. Wasson after he was wounded, Mr. Burdett reported. He said a United Press correspondent said he spoke with the nurse but denied he saw Mr. Wasson, personally.

Sponsor Colony in Israel

WILMINGTON, Del., June 4 (AP).—A 250-acre colony in the new State of Israel will be named for the state of Delaware. A deed for the colony, to be known as Nachlath, Delaware, was presented last night by Judge Morris Rothenberg, of New York, to a Wilmington committee which sponsored the project. Judge Rothenberg is president of the Jewish National Fund which has been land purchasing agent for Palestine for nearly fifty years.

Reds Being Invited Into Reich Plan

London, June 4 (AP)—Diplomats said today the Western powers will inform Russia quickly of their program for western Germany. Formal notice will be given that the way is open for Russia to participate.

These informants said the British Foreign Office would give the Russian Ambassador an outline on the agreements reached by the United States, Britain, France, Belgium, Holland and Luxembourg for western Germany's political and economic future.

There was no optimism that Russia would participate. She did not take part in the talks.

The two major agreements were these: A western Germany Constituent Assembly will meet September 1 to draft a constitution for a German Government to be established early next year. An international control board was created for the Ruhr, with authority to allocate its coal, coke and iron ore.

The decision to give Russia an outline of the Western Powers' plans on Germany was expected to result in a general disclosure of the details sooner than expected. The Western Powers had agreed earlier to withhold the plans until all six governments approved them formally.

Berlin Russ Sector Pay, Ration Hiked

Berlin, June 4 (AP)—Stepping outside the bounds of the Allied Kommandantura, the Russians today ordered blanket wage increases and extra food rations for workers in their sector of Berlin.

This action by the Soviet commandant, Maj. Gen. Alexander G. Kotikov, destroyed the uniformity in wages and working conditions which previously had been maintained through the four-power Kommandantura.

It was a virtual certainly that the Western Allies would soon take similar action at least in regard to wage increases for their occupation sectors.

Called Bid To Unions

Kotikov said he took the action because the Kommandantur had not accepted his 14-point proposal for improving the workers conditions.

E. L. Gardner, American Military Government labor official, said Kotikov's action was at least in part induced by Soviet efforts to win back control of Berlin's trade unions.

The Communist grip on the unions was broken in recent shop elections. The anti-Communists, claiming a majority, broke away from the Communist-controlled City Trade Union Federation and are setting up their own federation.

Weizsaecker Called Man Who Delayed War

Nuernberg, June 4 (AP)—A German diplomat on trial on war crimes charges was described by a witness today as the man who did the most to delay Hitler's war of aggression.

Testifying in defense of Baron Ernst von Weizsaecker before a United States War Crimes Court, Dr. Erich Kordt said:

"I think it was mainly through von Weizsaecker's efforts that a treaty was negotiated at Munich in 1938," thus temporarily averting war.

Kordt was former chief of the Minister's Bureau of the Nazi Foreign Office, where Weizsaecker was State Secretary.

He declared that both he and Weizsaecker were active in an underground group which planned a revolt against Hitler.

Lana To Visit Reich GI's

14 ARE WOUNDED IN RED-INSPIRED STRIKES IN SICILY

F. O'BRIEN (N)

ROME, June 4—(AP) Communist-led strikers spread in Sicily today and have bred disorders in which 14 persons were wounded.

A 24-hour general strike paralyzed Bologna throughout the day, but heavy patrols of armored cars, tanks and mobile police prevented demonstrations and disorders.

A flash general strike "failed completely" at Cremona, Po River city, a police official said, but 14 persons were wounded in the area when police twice opened fire last night.

Dock workers at Palermo, Sicily, and miners in Sardinia were threatening to walk out.

Part of Red Campaign

The strikes were generally believed to be part of a communist campaign to make the rule of Premier Alcide DeGasperi difficult.

The strike at Bologna and the trouble near Cremona grew out of agricultural strikes. Bologna workers were protesting police action against leftists who attempted to enforce a rice field workers walkout. The city was quiet this evening, and the chamber of labor said the strike would end at midnight "if there are no incidents."

In Cremona, police said, all shops remained open in defiance of a strike order and public services continued. In the Cremona countryside—where the communist-controlled union of milkers left 100,000 cows unmilked,—there was a back-to-the-job movement.

Spino D'Adda near Cremona was the scene of the most serious disorder. There police escorting strike-breaking milkers were halted by about 100 strikers. Ansa, Italian news agency, said the police fired into the air, but "unfortunately" five police, the driver of the vehicle and seven strikers were wounded.

Demonstrator Wounded

On their way to Pandino to report the incident the police were halted by another group estimated at 100. Police reported they fired into the ground this time, but a ricocheting bullet wounded another demonstrator.

Six demonstrators arrested at Spino D'Adda were taken to nearby Crema, and the chamber of labor there called a general two-hour strike. But there was no disorder there.

Milk was dumped on the ground in Cremona province by strikers and there were other scattered clashes with non-strikers.

The Agricultural Association in Milan said the strike was chiefly over the right of the proprietors, who are trying to rid themselves of agitators, to dismiss workers.

Five Are Hurt In Farm Strikes In North Italy (D)

F. BRUTTO

Rome, June 4 (AP)—Fourteen persons, five of them police, have been wounded by gunfire in spreading farm strikes in northern Italy, the Italian news agency Ansa said today. The bloodshed was the most serious since the April 18-19 election.

After the Communist-led Popular Front lost that election, Communist Leader Palmiro Togliatti told his party's directorate the Left's fight would continue both in Parliament and in the field.

The Ansa dispatch was from northern Cremona province.

A one-day general strike was in progress in Bologna province.

Other Strikes, Threats

There were reports of other strikes and threats of strikes of miners on the island of Sardinia and of dock workers in Sicily.

Milk was dumped in northern Italy.

About 100,000 cows in Cremona province were not being milked. Police were assigned to protect milkmen who worked. Ansa said the major shooting developed when strikers attempted to halt a milk truck near Spino d'Adda. The news agency said the prefecture reported police arrested six demonstrators, most of them Communists.

The Bologna strike was called by the Communist-led provincial Chamber of Labor to protest police action against rioters Tuesday at San Giovanni-in-Persiceto. The riot arose from a long strike of ricefield workers for better pay and other benefits.

Action In Bologna

Tanks and armored cars rolled through the streets of strikebound Bologna. Despite rain, thousands of strikers gathered in front of the Chamber of Labor.

Motorized police circulated constantly in an effort to enforce an edict by the prefecture against public meetings. Police arrested ten.

The city was without newspapers. Banks, restaurants and most stores were closed. Public services, except firemen and hospital workers, were not operating.

4 Slavs, Including 2 Women, Flee Tito In Forced Flight

(N)

JUN 1948

Rome, June 4 (AP)—Two women were reported today among four plotting fugitives who forced a Yugoslav pilot at gunpoint to fly his transport to Bari in southern Italy and land 28 passengers and crewmen.

Before the plane landed, it radioed a message that it was landing passengers who were fleeing from "the Tito dictatorship."

The Douglas civil aircraft took off from Belgrade, Yugoslav capital, for Sarajevo yesterday with a crew of six and 22 passengers.

Forced To Change Course

The Italian news agency Ansa said Pascilla Manolic, Yugoslav minister for mines and industry in Hercegovina, was among the passengers.

Ansa said police questioning disclosed that the forced flight to Bari was plotted by the plane's wireless operator, Anti Pascov; a civilian passenger, Dragutin Sporer; Miss Spomenka Tomoric, who said she was engaged to a doctor in Padua, Italy; and Miss Alexandra Petrovic, who said she was engaged to an attaché in the American consulate in Yugoslavia.

The news agency quoted police as saying the pilot was forced to change his course at pistol point by the two men, who fired two shots into the pilot's compartment.

Four Removed To Refugee Camp

The plotters were quoted as saying they left Yugoslavia for political reasons.

The four were removed to a refugee camp at Alberobello, near Bari. The others were taken to a hotel pending their return to Yugoslavia.

Lieut. Col. Jekelsck Jovanic, the Yugoslav air attaché in Rome, went to Bari to investigate.

Previously there have been five cases in which persons have fled Czechoslovakia by plane.

Slavs Flee Tito, Pilot Forced To Aid Plot (D)

Rome, June 4 (AP)—The Rome newspaper Messaggero said today a Yugoslav commercial pilot was forced at pistol point to fly his 22 passengers and crew of six—all Yugoslavs — out of Communist Yugoslavia.

The newspaper's dispatch from Bari reported he landed his Douglas plane there yesterday and said he had been compelled to change course on a flight from Belgrade for Sarajevo. The wireless operator and a passenger, both armed, forced him to head for Bari, the pilot was quoted as saying.

Italians Hold All

The dispatch said all aboard the plane were held by Italian police pending instructions from the Government.

A dispatch to the Rome Risorgimento Liberale said the plane, upon arriving over the Italian port of Brindisi, radioed it would land passengers "seeking escape from the Tito dictatorship."

The radio message was received by an Italian station at Naples, the dispatch said, and transmitted to the Italian Foreign Ministry.

[Since the February Communist coup in Czechoslovakia, five instances have been recorded in which persons fled that country by plane. In the latest, eight Czechoslovak airmen reached Manston, England, May 19 in a "borrowed" aircraft.]

U. N. Plane Fired on by Rebels

SALONIKA, Greece, June 4 (AP)—Guerrillas fired yesterday on a United Nations plane carrying six officials of the special Balkans committee, United Nations sources said today.

The informants said three bullets pierced the wings of the C-47 transport over Mt. Grammos, near the Albanian border northeast of Yanina. The damage was slight and no one was injured.

Lieut. Gerald Woods of New York was the pilot. His passengers included James Marnic Debooy of the Netherlands, chairman of the committee; Lieut. Col. R. S. Shatari of Pakistan, and two United States observers for the committee, Lieut Col. Homer Tolivaisa of Bridgewater, Mass., and Lieut. Col. Doland E. Huey.

The guerrillas could not have mistaken the craft for a Greek Army plane, the informants said.

Greek Third Army headquarters here said during the day that seventy-three guerrillas had been killed and twenty-one captured since Wednesday in action in a mountain region of Western Thrace southeast of Drama.

They'll Dig For Ideals

Prague, June 4 (AP)—An underground group of youths who aped American manners is being sent to work in the coal mines, the newspaper Mlada Fronta (Youth Front) said today.

In the mines "it is hoped they will receive healthier ideals than those they picked up from going to see silly American films and reading American adventure stories and cowboy tales," the paper said.

It asserted the youths, 16 to 25, had given themselves American names and army titles, and had stated "they would assist the Americans in a war against the East."

World Socialist Parley Attacked By Reds

Vienna, June 4 (AP)—Under the headline, "The Marshall International," the Russian newspaper Oesterreichische Zeitung attacked the International Socialist convention which opened here today.

The paper said Vienna has been chosen as the platform from which "an official declaration of war will be launched by the corporals of General Marshall against the people's democracies" (Communist states).

It pointed out only sixteen European nations were represented at the convention and said Socialists have kept away "all truthful fighters for socialism."

Romania Asks Soviet For Reparations Slash

Bucharest, Romania, June 4 (AP). Romania asked Russia today to cut this country's $300,000,000 reparations bill, as Russia has done for Finland.

Premier Petru Groza sent a letter to Prime Minister Stalin requesting the reduction, the Government announced. The Government cited postwar difficulties in payment.

The war bill was originally payable in goods in six years. Russia agreed later to extend the term to eight years.

Premier Mauno Pekkala of Finland announced last night that Russia had agreed to cancel $70,000,000 of Finland's $300,000,000 bill. Finland has paid $160,000,000.

2 MORE SATELLITES ASK CUTS IN DEBT

London, June 4 (A. P.).—Hungary and Romania asked Russia today to cut their reparations bills, as Russia has done for Finland.

There was every indication the Russians would grant the Hungarian and Romanian requests. The idea for cutting the reparations likely originated in Moscow, since Russian papers printed two weeks ago a letter from Communist politicians in Finland suggesting a reduction. At that time, it was pointed out that the way was open for Romania and Hungary to follow suit.

Romania owes Russia $300,000,000. The Bucharest Government announced that Premier Petru Groza has sent a letter to Prime Minister Stalin asking him to ease the load, because of postwar difficulties.

The peace treaty with Hungary also assessed $300,000,000 in reparations, assigning $200,000,000 to the Soviet and splitting the remainder between Yugoslavia and Czechoslovakia.

Finland also owes Russia $300,000,000 under her peace treaty. She has paid $160,000,000. Last night Premier Mauno Pekkala announced Russia had agreed to cancel $70,000,000 of the amount still owed.

Soviets Slash Finn Reparations

By the Associated Press.

HELSINKI, Finland, June 4.—Russia will cancel half Finland's remaining reparations debt, or about $70,000,000, Premier Mauno Pekkala announced yesterday. He said this has been confirmed in a formal not from Moscow.

The Finnish war reparations bill originally was $300,000,000. About $160,000,000 already has been paid.

MILITARY ACCORD URGED

Lange of Norway Beckons to Sweden and Denmark

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, June 4 (AP)—Norwegian Foreign Minister Halvard Lange, in a speech at Maloe, Sweden, strongly supported today a policy of military cooperation between Denmark, Norway and Sweden.

He said such a policy had so many advantages that it was bound to be adopted.

He also stressed the need for economic cooperation among the three countries, including an increased exchange of goods to relieve the competition for American dollars. A customs union in itself would not solve all problems, he said.

Russian Opposes Far East Flood Plan

Ootacamund, Madras Province, India, June 4 (AP)—The United Nations' commission for Asia and the Far East talked today of flood control.

France suggested that a small committee begin co-ordinating existing machinery. India and China agreed, but Russia opposed.

The Russian delegate demanded that flood-control questions be discussed by the entire commission. He cited Egypt, where he said the British controlled the irrigation system and told the conference that acceptance of foreign capital and advice could lead to domination.

Siamese Rice Exports High

BANGKOK, Siam, June 4 (AP)—The Government said today that Siam had shipped 345,000 tons of rice in the first five months of 1948. This exceeds early estimates by far. Total exports for the year are expected to reach 600,000 tons. The six-month figure is expected to be 425,000 tons; an earlier estimate was 250,000 tons. Siamese rice exports last year were 384,000 tons.

Shanghai Suspends Soviet-Owned Paper

Shanghai, June 4 (AP)—The Soviet-owned newspaper, Shih Tai Jih Pao, announced today it will protest its indefinite suspension by city authorities.

The newspaper said it had been warned repeatedly for supporting Communist forces in the civil war, attempting to obstruct the Government's financial policy, inciting labor and student strikes, fabricating rumors and distorting facts.

U.S. Cautioning China Students

Nanking, June 4 (AP)—The United States warned China today that Chinese student demonstrations against American policy in Japan are creating an increasingly dangerous situation. H.R. MILES

[Chinese Government officials have charged Communist agitators with stirring up these demonstrations, which frequently have turned into riotous disorders.]

Ambassador J. Leighton Stuart said the agitation "is seriously damaging the traditional cordiality between the United States and China and, if it continues, it may have unfortunate results."

"Must Face Consequences"

He warned the students:

"If those of you who agitate or participate in agitation against the United States on the question of Japan disagree with what I have said, then you must be prepared to face the consequences of your actions.

"Unless China and the United States can approach each other with mutual trust and confidence, peace and welfare are endangered."

As for Japan, he bluntly pointed out that "no one can expect the taxpayers of America to continue indefinitely paying Japanese bills." He added that Japan's economic life must be restored.

Issues A Defy

The Ambassador defied "anyone to produce a single shred of evidence that any part of Japanese military power is being restored or that there is any intention on the part of the United States other than to assure that it will never rise again."

The Ambassador called a special conference of foreign correspondents and Chinese newspaper men to express the concern of the United States. After distributing a statement, he replied to questions. The statement was approved by the State Department.

Certain elements among the university students have protested against what they call the "American policy of bolstering Japan as a bulwark against communism."

Teachers Participated

Recently, in Shanghai, 338 faculty members participated in one of these demonstrations and sent appeals to President Truman and Secretary Marshall. They want the United States to stop helping Japan.

Stuart said he did not hold the Chinese Government responsible for the agitation.

"It is with real regret that I am compelled to take cognizance publicly of the growingly dangerous situation which affects not only the interests of the United States but the vital interests of China as well," he said.

"Because my life has been spent in Chinese academic circles, it is difficult for me to admit that the core of anti-American agitation on the question of Japan is coming from Chinese student groups."

China Red Units At Confucius's Birthplace

Nanking, June 4 (AP)—Advance units of Chinese Communists pushing into Shantung province have reached the birthplace of Confucius at Chufou, a Government military spokesman reported today.

Government planes sought to disperse Communists gathering around Tsinan for a possible assault on the Shantung capital city. Previous dispatches said the city was surrounded by several hundred thousand Communists.

Many Tsinan residents were reported fleeing by air—the only safe outlet. Word reaching here said plane tickets to Tsingtao were being black-marketed for alomst 100 time the official cost. Tsinan is 200 airline miles west of Tsingtao, United States Western Pacific Fleet base.

Petition Renewed

The Shantung Natives Association in Nanking renewed its petition to the Government urging transfer of airborne troops to reinforce the outnumbered Tsinan garrison.

Official sources said the Communists were threatening to recover the old Lini base on the Shantung-Kiangsu border. The Government captured Lini a year ago at great cost.

Meager information indicated the Honan battle of the plains was continuing. An estimated 100,000 Communists are pitted against five Government divisions.

Counterattack Report

At Peiping, Gen. Fu Tso-yi's headquarters reported his forces counterattacked Communists on the outskirts of Chengteh, capital of Jehol, bordering North China, and drove them back 7 to 10 miles.

Associated Press Correspondent Spencer Moosa said some Peiping quarters believe the Communist movements in Jehol might only be a diversionary feint. Others insist the Reds are determined to secure a corridor between Manchuria and northern Shensi and open the day for a large-scale invasion of Hopei from Jehol.

In China

Nanking, June 4 (AP)—The Chinese Government in the first half of 1948 is spending more than double its budget of 96,000,000,000,000 yuan, the new cabinet was told today.

That's approximately 96,000,000 United States dollars.

Premier Wong Wen-Hao told his cabinet's first meeting that costs are expected to go even higher than for the first six months.

CHIANG LAUDS SPELLMAN

Cardinal Honored at a Dinner Given by Envoy in Nanking

NANKING, June 4 (AP)—A state dinner given by United States Ambassador J. Leighton Stuart topped a busy day today for Francis Cardinal Spellman and his party.

President Chiang Kai-shek, at the dinner, called Cardinal Spellman a true friend of China. He mentioned the prelate's wartime visits to Chungking and his aid to the country.

The cardinal's program included mass at Nanking Cathedral, breakfast with Archbishop Paul Yu-pin, presentation of a wreath at the tomb of Sun Yet-sen, founder of the Chinese Republic; luncheon with Nanking's mayor; a reception by Chinese cultural associations and a personal call on Defense Minister Ho Ying-chin.

The party is to leave tomorrow for Peiping, and will stop in Hankow.

1. An article, "White War Versus Red," in the May 17 Pacific edition of Newsweek magazine, Kislenko said it promotes a new war against Russia; that it declares point-blank the United States is going to bomb Soviet cities. [The article charted potential airbases in event of war with Russia.]

2. A dispatch by a United-Press correspondent from Sapporo, Hokkaido, May 19, published in the Army newspaper Stars and Stripes, and the Japanese-owned English-language Nippon Times. Kislenko termed it "an anti-Soviet, libelous article." It quoted a Japanese official as saying he had received reports of Russian agents landing on Hokkaido to spy on American military activities.

Ax-Swinging Taber Has Way in ~~Call for 5.9 Billion~~ to Last ~~15 Months~~.

MARSHALL FOUGHT CUT

Backers of Bigger Appropriation Now Pin Hopes on Senate Action.

WASHINGTON, June 4—(AP) The house tonight passed a foreign aid bill slashed 26.7 per cent under the amount President Truman asked.

It calls for $5,980,710,228 for 15 months. The administration said $6,533,710,228 for 12 months should be the minimum.

There was no record vote. The bill was passed on a chorus of "ayes." A Republican-Democratic coalition led by Rep. Dirksen (R-Ill) failed, likewise by a voice vote, to get the bill sent back to committee with instructions to add about $1,000,000,000.

Previously the Dirksen amendment was defeated, 148 to 113, by a teller vote—a procedure by which the members file past tellers and are counted.

Marshall Battles Cut

Secretary of State Marshall fought hard against the cut. He told newsmen it would mean putting Europe on a relief role, rather than helping it to its feet.

Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich), who engineered the enabling act under which Congress authorized a much larger recovery program than the one actually voted tonight, was reported fighting mad.

But ax-swinging Rep. John Taber (R-NY) had his way. It was his appropriations committee that recommended the cut. He argued that the funds it proposed were all that could be spent prudently.

Backers of the bigger appropriation pinned their hopes on the senate. The bill now goes there, and they plan a determined fight. If they win, the final bill will probably be whipped into shape in a senate-house conference committee.

Provisions of Bill

As it passed the house, the bill carried these amounts:

Economic Cooperation Administration, for economic aid to Europe and Asia—$4,000,000,000 instead of the $4,245,000,000 the president had requested. The sum approved includes $20,000,000 for aid to Trieste, for which the president had requested a separate allotment.

Assistance to Greece and Turkey—$200,000,000 instead of the $275,000,000 the president had requested.

Aid to China—$400,000,000 instead of the $463,000,000 the President had asked.

Government and relief in occupied areas under army supervision—$1,250,000,000 instead of $1,400,000,000.

International refugee organization—$70,710,228 as asked.

International children's emergency fund—$60,000,000 as asked.

While the total approved by the House is $553,000,000 in cash less than the President asked, the actual reduction was made far greater by spreading the period of spending over 15 months instead of 12.

In addition, to House directed that economic aid to Japan, Korea and the Ryukyus come out of the general foreign fund instead of being set up as a separate $150,000,000 project under the army. It did not specify how much of the ECA money should go to the Pacific countries occupied by the army.

Ample Funds, Taber Says

Rep. Taber said the sum his appropriations committee recommended was ample if honestly and efficiently administered.

"Let's not give the people abroad more tobacco than they ask, more wheat than they need," pleaded Taber.

The House majority overrode protests by Rep. Dirksen, Rep. Rayburn of Texas, the Democratic leader, and Secretary of State Marshall.

Dirksen said that if Congress provides lesser funds than were scheduled, Europe will suspect that America "does not mean business" in its efforts to restore non-communist countries.

Rayburn said in one of his infrequent speeches:

"Let's carry out to the people who want to be our friends the promise they thought we made to them only a few weeks ago. I plead with you not to do too little now.

"It will cause smiles of derision at us in the politburo in Moscow."

Secretary Marshall told a news conference—and Rayburn relayed the word to the House—that the committee bill will provide "mere relief" instead of reconstruction.

Even before the vote to keep the committee figure, Dirksen expressed belief that the Senate would restore the slashed funds if the House did not.

Plea For Taxpayers

Most of the oratory came from backers of the larger sum, but defense of the cut included this statement by Rep. Coudert (R-NY):

"We have heard pleas for the Chinese and the Europeans to help them recover—and that's fine. But in all the debate, there is not one word about those who will shoulder the burden. The American taxpayer is the last fellow that's ever thought of."

Coudert predicted that when taxpayers learn what they are going to pay for European recovery, there will be "a storm of indignation."

But Rep. Cannon (D-Mo) declarer that the full aid program "is our last alternative, to organize western Europe against communism and aggression."

With the committee sum approved, the house defeated an amendment by Rep. Harness (R-Ind.) to prohibit the uses of foreign aid funds to "guarantee investments in enterprises producing or distributing informational media" abroad. It would have knocked out, also, a section setting aside $10,000,000 to protect such enterprises from losses because of currency exchange difficulties.

Harness called the $10,000,000 fund a subsidy for some segments of the press.

Lodge Answers Protest

Rep. Lodge (R-Conn) explained that the proposed $10,000,000, to be made available to publications, movies and news organizations if they desire it, was necessary to enable them to operate abroad.

"All it does is to assure a modicum of convertibility from soft currency to hard currency," Lodge said. "It would enable the publications to go into Germany where we need to disseminate information we need to disseminate information. Otherwise they won't be able to do it."

Harness' amendment lost on a standing vote of 117 to 67.

The house adopted, by voice vote, an amendment by Rep. H. Carl Andersen (R-Minn) which would put a $50,000,000 limit on foreign aid shipments of tractors and other farm machinery.

Andersen said it was a mistake to send "any tractors whatsoever" to Europeans because most of their farms are too small to use tractors economically.

The house spent more than an

Russ Protests Jap 'Slurs'

Tokyo, June 4 (AP)—A Russian spokesman today protested that "insolent slander" about his country had appeared in the Japanese press and a United States Army newspaper here.

Maj. Gen. A. P. Kislenko, in a letter to General MacArthur, demanded that the attacks be stopped.

War Propaganda Charged

Kislenko, acting Soviet member of the Allied Council for Japan, charged a stepping up of "absolutely undisguised propaganda among Japanese of a new war against the U.S.S.R."

Declaring the press could not have acted without the knowledge of MacArthur's headquarters, Kislenko said:

"I insist that prompt measures be taken to stop similar occurrences and prevent their repetition in the future."

There was no comment by MacArthur.

nour debating the Dirksen amendment.

Earlier it knocked down on a technicality a move by Rep. Celler (D-NY) to withhold any foreign-aid funds from Great Britain. Celler protested that Great Britain has been helping the Arabs fight the Jews in Palestine. Taber raised the point of order that the Celler amendment was not pertinent to the bill and his point was upheld.

Chairman Taber (R-NY) of the appropriations committee told the house in opening debate that "we believe this appropriation, if properly administered, will be able to take care of all essential items." He added:

"We are not willing to finance a lot of nebulous projects just for the sake of spending money."

Taber said that the original administration estimates of need were based on wild imagination, that "the architects of this world wide relief program have no definite plan and no definite program."

told reporters today that such a cut would turn the European Recovery Program into a mere relief project.

Representative Dirksen (R.-Ill.) told newspaper men he would offer amendments to restore the committee's cuts. Dirksen said a "substantial bloc" of Republicans has agreed to suport him. He did not say how many. Previously House Democratic Leader Rayburn of Texas had announced that Democrats would oppose the cuts.

Dirksen made his announcement as the House prepared to take up the bill. Leaders aimed for final action by nightfall.

Taber Opens Debate.

Most of the Republicans on the Foreign Affairs Committee and Representative Herter (R.-Mass.) were reported backing the Dirksen move. Herter headed a special House committee that studied foreign aid last year.

Representative Taber (R.-N. Y.), chairman of the Appropriations Committee, opened floor debate on the $5,980,710,228 bill, which carries funds for foreign aid and Army government and occupation costs. Taber said the original administration estimates told reporters, in response to a question that if the cut which was recommended yesterday by the Appropriations Committee was confirmed by Congress, it would have a most serious effect on the political situation in Europe.

He was reminded that a year ago tomorrow he first proposed the Marshall plan in a speech at Harvard University, but he said that he had no anniversary sentiments to express.

Gives Sharp Laugh.

The reporter who asked Marshall's comment on the slash referred to it as "some reduction" proposed by the House committee.

Marshall's first response was to repeat the words "some reduction." Then he gave a short, sharp laugh which suggested that he considered the reduction huge. Then he said:

"The position of the department, and mine personally, has been stated a number of times and I don't think it requires clarification. The reduction proposed would, I consider, alter the European program from one of reconstruction to one of mere re-[illegible]."

ACTION IS DUE BY NIGHTFALL

Marshall Asserts That Reduction Means Turning Recovery Into Mere Relief.

Washington, June 4 (A. P.).—A group of House Republicans decided informally today to join Democrats in fighting a slash of $533,000,000 in the foreign aid bill recommended by the Appropriations Committee.

were the result of "imaginations run riot."

"In other words," he said, "the architects of this worldwide relief program have no definite plan and no definite program. There is no Marshall plan. It is merely a conversational term and we find those who are most vociferous in its support are those who know the least about it."

While it is necessary to aid in the recovery of war-torn countries, he said, "we are not willing to finance a lot of nebulous projects just for the sake of spending money."

"We believe this appropriation, if properly administered, will be ample to take care of all essential items," he added.

Marshall Attacks Cut.

At a news conference Marshall

Aministration supporters were expected to make a major drive to restore cuts voted yesterday by the Appropriations Committee in recommending $5,980,710,288 to finance the global recovery program enacted two months ago.

Chairman Taber (R., N.Y.) said the actual cut is nearer $1,000,000,000 since the money would have to last fifteen months instead of the year planned by the Administration.

Early Session Called

This is 26.7 per cent less cash than requested by President Truman to carry out the Marshall plan for western Europe and aid to Greece, Turkey and China.

The House leadership called an early session in hopes of passing the bill on to the Senate by nightfall.

Majority Leader Halleck (R., Ind.) said "my guess is that there won't be any further cuts." Taber said he would not oppose any amendments which "appear to be justified."

Paul G. Hoffman, head of the Economic Co-operation Administration, said he "certainly hopes" Congress approves the full amount.

Cuts Recommended

The committee trimmed $245,000,000 from the requested $4,000,000,000 the ECA fund destined for the sixteen western European nations.

Other cuts recommended: Greek-Turkish aid—from $275,000,000 to $200,000,000; Chinese aid — from $483,000,000 to $400,000,000; government and relief in occupied areas—from $1,400,000,000 to $1,250,000,000.

In addition, the committee recommended that $20,000,000 earmarked for Trieste should come from the ECA fuunds.

Proposed Changes

Major fights were expected on prosed amendments which would:

1. Restore the $533,000,000.
2. Spread the appropriation over twelve months instead of fifteen.
3. Prohibit use of any of the funds for Great Britain.
4. Knock out a provision allowing $10,000,000 to be used to protect American distributors of information abroad from loses through currency exchange.

There were prospects, too, of a fight over a committee recommendation to keep food rations for occupants of displaced persons camps at a level with those of the countries in which the camps are located.

Representative Stefan (R., Neb.) indicated he might offer amendments to limit the export of farm machinery; put a ceiling on the price that may be paid for cotton bought under the program, and hold the ECA tobacco exports to supplies now in possession of the Commodity Credit Corporation.

State Department's View

State Department officials consider it essential that this country put up enough money to make sure the aid program has a reasonable chance of success.

This is of prime importance, they indicate, at a time when this Government is seeking, against Russian opposition, to promote the economic, political and military organization of western Europe.

Secretary of State Marshall was scheduled to hold a news conference today, providing the first opportunity for official reaction from the State Department.

In planning the projected $5,300,000,000 twelve-month program already authorized by Congress the department argued that it was setting forth a minimum figure.

Fear For Self-Support

Any sizable cut, officials said, would not provide the kind of recovery which eventually could make the sixteen nations self-supporting.

A matter that has State Department officials even more worried now, however, is European fear the United States cannot always be relied upon to keep its promises. Marshall underscored this as a major problem in a speech he made at Portland, Ore., last week.

Europeans are afraid they may find themselves in serious difficulties with Russia if they co-operate fully with the United States and then fail to get the American support and co-operation which they have been led to expect.

London Stocks Dip On Aid-Cut Threat

London, June 4 (AP)—Threat of a 25 per cent reduction in Marshall aid funds put a damper on the London Stock Exchange today.

Prices, on the off side for nearly two weeks, slipped still further, with industrials suffering the heaviest losses.

The London Financial Times index was off 0.5 last week and down another 3.7 points at the close of trading today.

Financial sources said the breaks reflected an exceptionally thin market rather than severe selling pressure.

Discouraging factors accounting for the small trade included the Government's policy against raising dividends.

Others were Government admission that the national coal target of 211,000,000 tons may not be attained this year and Chancellor of the Exchequer Sir Stafford Cripps's statement that there is no hope of balancing Britain's overall trade by the end of 1948.

Another severe blow to prices was the victory of Dr. Malan's anti-Imperialist party in the elections in South Africa, where much British capital is invested.

Government bonds, which had resisted earlier pressure, turned easy with the disturbing news from Washington that E.R.P. aid may be trimmed.

Berlin Soviet Press Plays Up E. R. P. Cut

BERLIN, June 4 (AP).—Russian-controlled newspapers in Berlin gave big front-page headlines today to news of the proposed slash in European Recovery Program funds by the United States Congress.

For the last several months these newspapers have been carrying on a propaganda campaign against the Marshall Plan. They have charged the United States will not live up to promises of aid.

The Soviet-licensed "Berliner Zeitung" headlined its report: "Marshall's Shrinking Plan Is Reduced by 25 Per Cent."

TRUMAN ASSAILS G.O.P. CONGRESS IN FIRST MAJOR TALK

Asks Enactment of His Legislative Program in Address at Chicago.

PREDICTS POLL VICTORY

Says Communism in U. S. Can Be Stopped by 'More and Better Democracy.'

CHICAGO, June 4—(AP) President Truman said tonight that Congress can throttle communism in America by providing a greater "abundance" for the people.

All it has to do, he said, is pass laws to assure that Americans have homes, schooling, security, good jobs, fair wages and "a brake on inflation."

It was the President's first, tailored-in-advance speech on a stumping tour into the west. It was made to a crowd that packed Chicago Stadium, where Mr. Truman walked off with the Democratic vice presidential nomination four years ago.

Today, along the route of his special train from Washington, Mr. Truman cultivated support for four more years in the White House. He spoke as if he takes it for granted that the party will nominate him next month.

Jabs at Congress

All along the way, he jabbed at Congress. He repeated that he wants a draft law and universal military training. He laid responsibility for high living costs on Congress. He accused it of serving the "men who have all the money" instead of the common people.

That was at Gary, Ind., where Mr. Truman made the last of a series of off-the-cuff talks to wayside audiences.

He told the folks at industrial Gary that America must have a "sound and solid" economy.

"If you support me," he said, "we will probably get it."

Furthermore, Mr. Truman predicted election of a Democratic Congress in November.

Here in Chicago, the occasion for tonight's speech was the 100th anniversary of the migration of Swedish settlers across the midwestern prairies.

Gives Anti-Red Recipe

And here, too, Mr. Truman parceled out advice to Congress.

He said proposals to outlaw the Communist party or check some kinds of political activity "miss the point." He suggested that Congress get busy instead on some bills he has been asking for all along.

A nation which reaches the "goals of abundance," he said, never will "succumb to the evils of communism."

In addition, he said, Congress ought to pass a law without "crippling amendments" that will let some of Europe's displaced refugees come to America.

These people, he said, are "heroes of democracy" who are unable to return to their homelands because they are against communism. The President objected to "limits and quotas on countries and occupations" in some of the bills before Congress.

Praise For Sweden

Mr. Truman did not fail to offer a hand of friendship to Sweden. He called that country one of the most prosperous and progressive democracies. On the program with him, representing the Swedish royal family, was Prince Betril, grandson of King Gustav.

The President said communism succeeds only where there is weakness, misery or despair, not in a strong healthy society. He pleaded "let us adopt legislation that will provide our citizens with the homes they need, the opportunity for universal good health and universal free schooling, the extension of social security, the full rights of citizenship, an equal chance for good jobs at fair wages, and a brake on inflation that will hold the purchasing power of these wages at a high level."

"This is the method of democracy. These are the goals of abundance. A nation which reaches these goals will never succumb to the evils of communism."

Against foreign agents, Mr. Truman said, the record shows "we are thoroughly able to protect ourselves." These are good laws and security forces to deal with spies and saboteurs, he said.

But if nothing is done about it, he said, it is "an invitation to communism" if some of our people live in slums, work at sub-standard wages, are "arbitarily denied the right to vote or deprived of other basic rights," need more medical care, education or security or have to do without necessities because of high prices.

The reference to basic rights and the right to vote apparently represented a "no retreat" stand on the civil rights program which has riled southern Democrats.

"We believe in human freedom and human equality," the President said, "and it is the belief which makes us strong today. We inherit that belief from the Swedish pioneers and the other pioneers who settled this great nation."

More than a fourth of all people in the world of Swedish descent live in the United States, the President said. Scarcely a Swedish family, he said, lacks relatives in this country. "That," he said, "is the kind of personality which strengthens friendly international relation. I am sure we can look forward to a continuation of the long proud friendship between our two countries. This friendship is heightened by the fact that Sweden today is one of the most prosperous and progressive democracies in the world."

'Non-Political' Clarified

CHICAGO, June 4 (AP).—In the press car on the Presidential train, Charles G. Ross, White House press secretary, said today he never called the eighteen-state trip non-political. He had said only that no speeches would be made under political sponsorship, Mr. Ross added.

Mr. Truman himself referred at one stop to the President as a White House prisoner and he told of his delight in getting away "to see the people as they are."

"The President, you know, is virtually in jail," he said at Crestline. "He goes from his study to his office and from his office to his study, and he has to have guards there all the time. And they do a good job, too—I am not criticizing the guards—but when you get out and see the people and find out what people are thinking about you can do a better job as President of the United States."

PRESIDENT RECEIVES HIGH SWEDISH HONOR

CHICAGO, June 4—(AP) President Truman today became the first American ever to receive the gold medal of King Gustavus Adolphus of Sweden.

Gustavus Adolphus, who reigned from 1611 to 1632, originated the plan for Swedish colonization on the Delaware River which was realized six years after his death.

The medal was the personal gift to the President of Prince Bertil, grandson of Sweden's present king. The prince handed it to Mr. Truman when they met late this afternoon in the Palmer House.

Prince Bertil had the medal struck from original molds dating back to 1744. The bolds are kept in the royal mint at Stockholm.

President Truman then awarded Prince Bertil the Legion of Merit, degree of commander.

Truman Backs U. N. on Tour

Addresses Trainside Crowds on His Way to Chicago for Address Tonight.

Aboard Truman Train En Route to Chicago, June 4 (A. P.).—Riding westward for a major test of his popularity on an eighteen-State speaking tour, President Truman said, during a stop this afternoon at Fort Wayne, Ind., that there will be a permanent peace in the world if the United States assumes the role "God Almighty intended for it to assume."

The President repeated his advocacy of universal training to strengthen the nation's hand in its support of the United Nations, which he said wanted to work as its charter intended it to work.

At the same time, he said, it is necessary for Congress to carry out its agreement with the sixteen western European nations.

Denies Politics in Tour.

Earlier, at Crestline, Ohio, he told a trainside audience that his tour was bipartisan and nonpolitical, but he added he understood there were some Democrats in the crowd.

This morning Mr. Truman opened his pre-convention trip by greeting a sleepy-eyed crowd in a Pittsburgh railroad yard.

A reception committee, headed by Mayor David Lawrence met the presidential special when it pulled into Union Station at 7:50 A. M. Railroad workers and reporters accompanying the President turned out for the occasion. The President had difficulty making himself heard, even with the use of loud-speaking equipment, over the noise of switching engines and clanging bells.

Speaks Tonight in Chicago.

His first major address at 10 o'clock (Eastern daylight time) tonight at Chicago shared interest with his prospective meeting there with Jacob M. Arvey, chairman of the powerful Cook County Democratic Central Committee.

[There will be no direct network broadcasts. The American Broadcasting Company, however, plans to carry a recording of the speech from 11:35 P. M. to 12 P. M. Eastern daylight time, and will repeat it from 12:35 A. M. to 1 A. M.]

Arvey, who has advocated Mr. Truman's withdrawal from the race, will join the President at dinner in the Palmer House. So will former Mayor Edward J. Kelly. The host is Mayor Martin Kennelly.

Senator Lucas of Illinois, Democratic whip of the Senate, is accompanying the President to Chicago for his speech in Chicago Stadium commemorating the 100th anniversary of Swedish immigration into the Mid-West. It will deal at least in part with the plight of displaced persons in Europe.

Before he returns to Washington, Mr. Truman will act on the Bulwinkle bill to exempt railroad rate making from the anti-trust laws. Charles G. Ross, press secretary, said the bill was brought aboard the special train last night and that Mr. Truman is considering it. He has several days in which to act.

A courier plane will leave Washington every day except Sunday to fly important papers to the President's train from William D. Hassett, presidential secretary, and John R. Steelman, presidential assistant, who are carrying on at the White House in Mr. Truman's absence.

Major Talks

Mr. Truman plans these other major talks: At Omaha, tomorrow, before the 35th Division's (World War I) annual reunion.

At Seattle, June 10, in Victory Square, under auspices of the Washington State Press Club.

At Berkeley, Cal., June 12, at commencement exercises of the University of California.

At Los Angeles, June 14, at Ambassador Hotel, under auspices of Greater Los Angeles Press Club.

Mrs. Truman and their daughter, Margaret, will join the President in Omaha.

Schedule Revised

The floods in the Northwest brought eleventh-hour changes in the President's schedule to permit him to fly over the stricken area.

On Wednesday he will arrive at Spokane, Wash., and leave shortly afterward for an automobile inspection of the Grand Coulee power project. Afterward, he will drive to Ephrata and reboard his train for Olympia, where he will spend the night as guest of Gov. Mon C. Wallgren.

His Thursday schedule, calling for his second night at Olympia with Wallgren is unchanged.

Flying Over Flood Area

On Friday the President will fly from Olympia for an inspection of the flood area and land at Salem, Ore., where he will board an automobile for Portland, to speak. He will reboard his special train at Brookland, just outside of Portland, for a train trip through Oregon.

He will reach Los Angeles on June 14.

No railroad-union pickets were observed either at Washington or Baltimore, where the special train made an operational stop last night, despite hints of such a step from union officials.

The nation's rail system is under Government seizure, following a strike threat by three unions last month. As White House attempts to settle the wage dispute collapsed, one union official said the rank and file of the three brotherhoods were planning to picket the President's train at stops between Washington and the West Coast. The official said the picketing idea started among union members and had not been encouraged by union leaders.

JUN 1948

Text Of Chicago Speech By President Truman

JUN 1948

Chicago, June 4 (AP)—President Truman's address before the Swedish Pioneer Centennial Association tonight follows:

Mr. Chairman, distinguished guests, and fellow citizens:

We are meeting here in Chicago tonight to do honor to a group of American pioneers—the men, women and children who came from Sweden 100 years ago and joined the great procession of pioneers that was moving out to the prairies of the Middle West.

The first of the Swedish people to seek a new future in this land of freedom and equality were religious leaders and scholars from the universities.

But the main stream of Swedish migration to our shores consisted of men and women with a deep love of the soil. In the great American West they saw a chance for a future that was denied them in the Sweden of their day.

The America to which these Swedish settlers came was a land that needed the hardy qualities they brought. It was not a land that was particularly softhearted toward newcomers, but everyone believed that each man should have a fair chance regardless of his origin.

Soon Felt At Home

The newcomers quickly learned their way about and soon felt at home. The Homestead Act of 1862 provided them, as well as many other pioneers, with an opportunity to acquire land and establish family farms. To the land-hungry immigrants, the tough prairie sod seemed a golden opportunity and they conquered it by hard work.

Before the Swedish migration slowed down, a million persons had come from Sweden to the prairies of the United States. Today, more than one quarter of all people of Swedish descent in the world live in the United States. There is scarcely a family in Sweden which does not have relatives in this country.

That is the kind of personal tie which strengthens friendly international relations. I am sure we can look forward to a continuation of the long period of friendship between our two countries.

This friendship is heightened by the fact that Sweden today is one of the most prosperous and progressive democracies in the world. America is proud of its citizens of Swedish descent and the part they have played in building up the Middle West.

We are all familiar with the development of the co-operative movement in Sweden and I am happy that the same movement which has brought such prosperity to Sweden has many adherents among Swedish-Americans in this country.

Source Is Recalled

When I think back on the great epics in our history, like the Swedish immigration of a century ago, I am reminded again of the source of our strength as a nation. Early settlers in the United States came here to escape harsh restrictions on personal liberties in their homelands, or to find economic opportunity. Here the people were proud of being democratic, and they looked on individual liberty as something sacred.

The law recognized no aristocracy, and a man was respected according to the measure of his own merits. The rights of the little man were just as important as the rights of the big man.

And we must fight to see that America stays that way.

Since the day of the first settlers, America has been a beacon of hope to the victims of oppression everywhere. The best fighters for freedom have brought to us their talents, their ideals, and their labors. They have helped America grow and become a world power both in strength and in moral leadership.

Today, persecution and oppression again impel a new group to seek homes in foreign lands. They are innocent victims of war. They are the displaced persons in Europe.

Situation Due To War

Their present situation is a result of World War II. As the Nazis swept over Europe, they uprooted millions of its people and sent them off to serve the Nazi war machine or to suffer in concentration camps.

Millions of these victims were killed. Most of those who remained when Europe was liberated have returned to their former homes.

But more than three years after V-E day, there are still 800,000 displaced persons living in Germany, Austria and Italy. These people are heroes of democracy—and that is the reason they cannot go back home.

They are anti-Communist. Originally they came from Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania, Poland, the Ukraine, and Yugoslavia. All of us know only too well why anti-Communists cannot safely go back to those countries.

Look at the reward these people are getting for their opposition to communism; most of them are living in camps under conditions that violate all the principles of freedom that are dear to them and to us. They have no homes. Few of them have jobs. Under present conditions, the future holds no hope for them or their children.

Solution Not Permanent

They are being given temporary shelter by the International Refugee Organization. The United States is, as it should be, the largest contributor to this organization. But the present arrangement offers no permanent solution. These people and their children cannot be regarded indefinitely as wards of international charity. We must help them to become self-supporting.

We must not go on maintaining this barren, fruitless life for people who want to work and who are qualified to work. They are young. Most of them are skilled workers. Their skills are badly needed in every country, including our own. They must be given an opportunity to settle in permanent homes and live like human beings, so they can make their full contribution to society as useful citizens.

This is not solely an American problem. It is a world problem. But we must do our part. Other nations have already provided homes for some of the displaced persons, but there is no prospect that all of them will be able to get a new start in life unless the United States accepts its fair share.

I have repeatedly asked the Congress to permit a substantial number of displaced persons to enter this country as immigrants. Some of the legislation for this purpose which the Congress is considering sets limits and quotas on countries and occupations. These are crippling amendments. They work unfair discrimination against groups which are already represented in this country and which have helped to make it great.

Hopes For Legislation

I hope that the Congress will soon enact displaced persons legislation, and enact it without any qualifications which would depart from our established American principles.

I would remind the members of Congress that it is not they who are waiting, nor I who am waiting, but young people and little children whose hope for a life of freedom and equality is getting dimmer with every day that passes.

Freedom and equality are among the greatest of human aspirations. They are universal to all mankind, but they have their greatest fulfillment in our own country. To Americans, they will never be remote ideals, but something we work for and are close to every day.

Americans rightly expect that their Federal Government will be a friendly, vigilant protector of those ideals. This is a primary duty of Government, which I, for one, accept gladly.

People's Concern Cited

To discharge this duty requires each of us to defend the integrity of our ideals against all who would alter or weaken them, whether from within the country or from without, whether the harm comes from willful destruction or from misguided enthusiasm.

The American people are rightly concerned these days about the attack on our ideals by international communism. There has been a great deal of discussion on this subject throughout the country, and recently we have been hearing some people say that the way to avoid the danger of communism in the United States is to pass a law—a law, for example, to check certain kinds of political activity. Some people think you can combat communism by outlawing the Communist party.

It seems to me that such proposals miss the point.

You cannot stop the spread of an idea by passing a law against it.

You cannot stamp out communism by driving it underground.

But you can prevent communism by more and better democracy.

As far as the United States is concerned, the menace by communism is not the activities of a few foreign agents or the political activities of a few isolated individuals. The menace of communism lies primarily in those areas of American life where the promise of democracy remains unfulfilled.

"Invitation To Communism"

If some of our people are living in slum housing, and nothing is done about it, that is an invitation to communism.

If some of our people are forced to work at substandard wages, and nothing is done about, that is an invitation to communism.

If some of our people are arbitrarily denied the right to vote or deprived of other basic rights, and nothing is done about it, that is an invitation to communism.

If some of our people do not have proper medical care, or opportunities for a good education, or adequate assistance in time of sickness, or unemployment, or old age, and nothing is done about it, that is an invitation to communism.

And finally, if high prices are depriving some of our people of the necessities of life, and nothing is done about it, that is an invitation to communism.

Communism succeeds only when there is weakness, or misery, or despair. It cannot succeed in a strong and healthy society.

Checked In Europe

The nations of western Europe, with our help, have checked the spread of communism by working together to build up their economies, improve the welfare of their peoples, and so strengthen themselves. If they can meet and defeat communism on its own ground, surely we can do the same.

Let us adopt legislation that will provide our citizens with the homes they need, the opportunity for universal good health and universal free schooling, the extension of social security, the full rights of citizenship, an equal chance for good jobs at fair wages, and a brake on inflation that will hold the purchasing power of these wages at a high level.

This is the method of democracy. These are the goals of abundance. A nation which reaches these goals will never succumb to the evils of communism.

I am confident that we will reach these goals, and I do not believe that any foreign agents will succeed in slowing us down on our forward march. The record shows that we are thoroughly able to protect ourselves from foreign agents.

Laws On The Books

During the recent war, they failed to interrupt vital production or to perform a single important act of sabotage. We have on the books good laws to deal with spies and saboteurs, and we have the machinery in our security forces to protect us from their activitiies.

I do not underestimate the challenge of communism. It is a challenge to everything we believe in. Communism exalts the state and degrades the individual: communism holds that the individual is only a means to an end; and communism holds that the duty of the individual is to conform to the state's definition of what is good for him.

This we are against. We must resist it, and we must provide aid and hope to those in the world who resist it. But we cannot resist it with our full strength unless we all work for the success of our democracy and continually reaffirm our faith in democracy.

We believe in human freedom and human equality, and it is that belief which makes us strong today. We inherit that belief from the Swedish pioneers and the other pioneers who settled this great nation.

We also inherit from them the lesson that it takes hard work, and a lot of it, if the practice of our daily lives is to live up to our principles.

Here on the prairies of the Middle West is a living example of the truth of this philosophy. The abundance we enjoy here was created out of the riches of the soil and out of the labor of the men who work it, and, above all, out of the American faith.

"We Are A Diverse People"

This faith has enabled people from many lands to come together, to live in peace and learn to respect each other as individuals.

We are a diverse people, and in this diversity we have great strength. We have room for difference and room for disagreement. Part of our respect for the dignity of the human being is the respect for his right to be different. That means different in his background, different in his beliefs, different in his customs, different in his name, different in his religion.

This is true Americanism; this is true democracy. It is the source of our strength.

It is the basis of our faith in the future.

It is our hope, and it is the hope of the world.

SENATE DELAYS ACTION ON DRAFT

Langer Attempts to Attach 'Civil Rights Program' to Bill.

WASHINGTON, June 4—(AP)—Senator Langer (R-ND) sought today to attach the "civil rights program" to the draft bill, but senate leaders predicted he would not succeed.

Senator Gurney (R-SD), chairman of the Senate Armed Forces Committee, said he would let Langer explain his proposals and then move to shelve them, to avoid long debate.

The senate recessed today until Monday, when a vote may come.

Earlier today, the senate accepted without debate or objection ten minor committee amendments to the original draft bill worked up by the armed services committee. Most of them dealt with the provision for drafting 18-year-olds, which was struck from the bill formally today.

Still intact is a section allowing 18-year-olds to volunteer for a year of training.

The civil rights amendments were promised by Langer some time ago but even some sponsors of the program have said they would not accept them as rider to the draft bill.

Only six senators listened today as he explained the first, which would bar discrimination or segregation in the armed services.

Specifically, the first amendment offered by the North Dakotan would bar discrimination or segregation because of "race, color, national origin or religion" in assignments or induction within the armed services.

Penalties would range up to five years in prison and a $10,000 fine.

Meanwhile, Senator Gurney, Mr. Draft" in the senate, was mapping a fight against proposals (1) to form a sort of American foreign legion and (2) leave the actual draft call up to the president.

Both plans were introduced yesterday as amendments to the draft bill worked up by the senate armed services committee of which Gurney is chairman.

He promptly rejected both and said he would fight them on the senate floor.

Senator Lodge (R-Mass) fathered the foreign legion plan. However, he said his plan of enlisting 50,000 alien Europeans for service abroad did not call for "mercenaries."

His amendment would allow that many young Europeans to enlist for overseas service with the American army. After five years, they would be eligible for U. S. citizenship.

Lodge argued that the U. S. army would "get men with skills and languages that would provide the best military types."

Gurney said the plan had been discussed at length by his committee and had been rejected unanimously.

The other amendment, to authorize the president to push the button to start the draft, was offered by Senator Capehart (R-Ind). Under this plan, the draft would be delayed until 90 days after the bill was signed. Then it would be permitted only if the president found the armed forces unable to obtain enough volunteers.

Gurney said "I think congress is willing to meet the responsibility" of setting a draft call.

SEES DRAFT PASSED

Philadelphia, June 4 (A. P.).—The universal military training act will be passed before Congress adjourns, former Supreme Court Justice Owen J. Roberts told the twenty-sixth annual convention of the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce last night. He praised the stand taken by the chamber in approval of universal training.

The convention in another resolution asked Congress to act favorably on the Mundt-Nixon anti-Communist bill. The title of queen of the convention was conferred on Canada's Olympic figure skating champion, Barbara Ann Scott.

CONGRESS RAISES OLD-AGE BENEFITS

Bill Boosting Aid To $5 Monthly Sent To Truman

Washington, June 4 (AP)—Congress approved and sent to President Truman tonight legislation increasing by $184,000,000 annually the social security payments to 3,500,000 needy aged persons, blind persons and dependent children.

House approval was by voice vote, after the Senate earlier passed the measure, 74 to 6.

The bill boosts by $5 a month Federal contributions for needy aged and blind persons and $3 a month for dependent children. This makes possible, under Federal-State matching, a maximum of $50 a month for each needy aged person and the blind, and $27 for a dependent child.

Under the present program the maximum for the aged and the blind, under Federal-State matching, is $45 a month; for the dependent children, $24.

How Benefits Would Work

Here is how the boosted benefits would work:

The Needy Aged And The Blind—The Federal Government would contribute three fourths of the first $20 paid to a recipient. The state would pay one fourth. Then the Federal Government and the state would match 50-50 up to a maximum of $50 for each recipient. Thus, where a recipient received $50, the Federal Government would contribute $30 and the state $20.

[The size of payments to the needy persons is determined by the various states. They now run from a low of around $15 a month in some states to a high of $65 in Colorado, which contributes beyond the State-Federal matching arrangement.]

Dependent Children—The Federal Government will provide three fourths of the first $12 for the first needy child in a family, and go 50-50 with the state up to a maximum of $27 for the first child. Each additional child in the needy family would get a maximum of $18 under the matching system.

Tacked On House Bill

The increased benefits were tacked on to a bill dealing with an entirely different social security matter. The bill is designed to block a move by the Administration to extend coverage under the old age and survivors insurance section of the Social Security law to an estimated 500,000 to 750,000 persons.

[The "old age and survivors insurance" program is distinct from the aid-to-the-needy program. The former is based on taxes on pay envelopes and pay rolls, while the latter takes the form of outright grants.]

The Treasury had served notice of its intention to redefine employer-employé relationships for the purpose of collecting social security taxes from such persons as door-to-door salesmen, insurance agents and taxi drivers.

There was another important social security development today, the House Rules Committe cleared the way for House action next week on a bill which would permit an additional 3,500,000 persons to come under the Federal old age insurance program.

These 3,500,000 are, for the most part, employés of states and local subdivisions. They would be allowed to participate if the local governing bodies approved. Employés of certain non-profit organizations also would be allowed to join in the insurance plan.

Extension Asked By Truman

President Truman asked Congress, in a special message recently to extend the insurance to an additional 20,000,000 persons, bringing the total covered to 50,000,000. He also recommended an increase of at least 50 per cent in the benefits, calling the present program "seriously inadequate."

Self-employed persons, farm workers and domestics still are not covered by the insurance plan.

Connally Turns Wrath on Critic Of Trade Pacts

Textile Executive Rebuked; Hearings to End Today After Clayton Testifies

WASHINGTON, June 4 (AP).—Senator Tom Connally, Democrat of Texas, clashed today with a witness who criticized all-out supporters of the reciprocal trade law.

The witness was Claudius T. Mudchison, president of the Cotton Textile Institute. Appearing before the Senate Finance Committee, he said that people who want the law extended three years without change are trying to "break down completely the protection of American industry, agriculture and employment."

Senator Connally wrathfully called him down: "I don't like witnesses coming in here and saying everybody is crooked but them and impugning motives."

President Truman, Secretary of State George C. Marshall and many Democratic lawmakers have called for the three-year unamended extension. The House voted only a one-year continuation, and reserved a veto power for Congress over certain tariff cuts.

The committee decided to end the hearings tomorrow morning after hearing William L. Clayton, former Under Secretary of State for Economic Affairs and now a special adviser to Mr. Marshall. The bill probably will be ready for a Senate vote next week. The present law is scheduled to expire June 12.

One witness, John Breckenridge, said the Tariff Commission's decisions should be binding on the President. He represented West Coast fruit and nut growers, the Florida Growers Committee and the Mushroom Growers Co-operative Association.

Ferguson Would Let Court Rule On The Reds

Washington, June 4 (AP)—Senator Ferguson (R., Mich.) proposed today that Congress let the courts decide whether the Communist party is engaged in subversive acts.

In advance of a Senate Judiciary Committee meeting to take up the Mundt-Nixon anti-communism bill, Ferguson said he thinks some changes ought to be made in the measure.

As it cleared the House, it would give the Attorney General power to decide that an organization was (a) under foreign control and (b) conspiring to set up a dictatorship in this country. The House bill sets penalties for persons supporting such activity.

Ferguson's Viewpoint

Although the measure calls for hearings before the Attorney General, Ferguson said he thinks any group accused under terms of the bill should be brought to court instead.

"It shoulld be the Attorney General's duty to prepare the case against any suspected violators of the law, but he should not have the duty of making the decision," Ferguson said.

He contends that the Attorney General now has no legal authority to list Communist and Communist-front organizations, as the Justice Department has been doing.

Would Be On A Legal Basis

If Congress passes a changed version of the bill, he said, the procedure for bringing into the open those who are working for overthrow of the Government will be put on a legal basis.

"It is a strange thing," he commented, "that Congress has spent millions of dollars gathering information about Communists and fellow travelers and yet nothing effective has been done to stop their activities."

House Gives D.P. Bill High Priority

Washington, June 4 (AP)—Passage of a bill to let displaced persons into this country seemed assured today as House Republican leaders gave that legislation high priority.

With adjournment scheduled for June 19, Majority Floor Leader Halleck (R., Ind.) said a House bill to admit 200,000 homeless Europeans during the next two years would be called up for debate next week.

House leaders are not clearing any bills for debate which are not expected to pass before adjournment. The Senate passed a D.P.

measure Wednesday.

The House bill, sponsored by Representative Fellows (R., Maine) and approved by the House Judiciary Committee, generally follows the lines of the Senate bill. But it would charge half of the total number of displaced persons entering this country against future immigration quotas for the countries from which they come.

'VOICE' SCRIPTS AIRED FURTHER

Senators Told Programs May Be Repeated.

Washington June 4 (A. P.).—A State Department official said today there is no guaranty now that foreign broadcast programs, such as aroused congressional anger, will not be repeated.

William T. Stone, the department's Director of International Information, appeared before a combined Senate Foreign Relations and Expenditures sub-committee.

The Senators are investigating a "Know North America" series of broadcasts beamed to Latin America. Senate and House members have complained that the programs maligned individual States.

Stone testified that "at the present, I would say we do not have adequate assurance that this thing will not be repeated."

He said the State Department is working on a plan to assure good supervision of all programs broadcast under Government auspices by private networks.

The sub-committee wound up four days of hearings. Senator H. Alexander Smith (R.-N. J.) said further sessions will be held, but set no date. He said he hopes it will be possible to call Alberto Gandero, a former National Broadcasting Company employee who supervised the series. He said Gandero, now in Cuba, has offered to appear.

He showed reporters a cable from Gandero to Senator Vandenberg (R.-Mich.), saying in part: "Charges against me in connection with Voice of America programs are unjust. I am at your disposal to testify."

The Matter of Editing.

Stone told the committee that because of a shortage of personnel the State Department did not think it practical to edit all the entertainment programs broadcast for it by NBC and the Columbia Broadcasting system.

At the time contracts were made with the networks last summer, Stone said, the department recognized that the networks had long experience in the field. He added:

"There was on the part of the private companies a feeling that they could do the job without having a censor sit there and watch every word that went out."

Stone said the department did not scrutinize scripts of the "Know North America" series in advance, as NBC officials have told the committee. He also acknowledged that the series in question had not been checked often enough.

"We frankly slipped on a spot check of all these programs to Latin America for entirely too long a time," he said.

Charles Thayer, acting chief of the department's international broadcasting division, said that in general the foreign broadcasts have been effective. "There was no series that we have any evidence about that was as bad as this series we are talking about," he said.

New Jet Bomber Being Built

With Turbine-driven Propellers, It Marks Effort to Achieve Greater Range.

Washington, June 4 (A. P.).—A new long-range jet bomber, called the XB-52 and using propellers driven by jet turbines, is being built for the Air Force.

The experimental plane represents another effort by designers to overcome the high fuel consumption (and resulting short range) of jet bombers without loss of all of the jet's high speed.

First official disclosure of the new bomber appears in the just-published testimony of Air Force officials before a House Appropriations sub-committee.

Major-Gen. L. C. Craigie, director of research, referred briefly to the plane in discussing proposed expenditures for range extension of aircraft. He mentioned an item for "dual rotation propellors for the turbo props for the long-range XB-52 jet bomber."

Greater Speeds Possible.

Earlier experiments with jet-driven propeller aircraft have shown that speeds well above those for standard engines can be attained. Thus, the Air Force seems to be aiming at a bomber with a speed somewhere between the true jet's 600-miles-an-hour and the 200 to 250-mile-an-hour cruising speed for standard heavy bombers.

Jet bombers so far have fallen far short of the 4,200mile range of B-29s or the estimated 8,000-mile range of the six-engined B-36. While the XB-52 cannot be expected to equal those extreme ranges, the designers apparently hope for some improvement over the mileage limitations of the straight jet types.

In another phase of the range extension program, the Air Force presently plans to outfit each of six long range B-29 outfits with a squadron of tanker planes to refuel the bombers in the air. This plan came to light in the testimony of another Air Officer, Major-Gen. F. H. Smith. The six tanker-equipped groups were referred to by Smith as "a striking force."

Still another method of getting at distant targets early in a war, before complicated forward air bases are fought for and won, was discussed by the Air Force officials. Craigie referred to B-50 type bombers with track landing gear. The B-50 is a vastly improved version of the B-29 with greater bomb capacity, speed and range. This is the first time the Air Force has revealed plans to mount track landing gear on big bombers although experiments have been made with medium size transport planes. Bombers so equipped could operate from far advanced positions on which little construction work would be required.

Annapolis Degrees Conferred on 410

6,000 Present at Ceremony; Sullivan Is Speaker

ANNAPOLIS, Md., June 4 (AP).—To the cheers of an estimated 6,000 spectators in Dahlgren Hall, 410 midshipmen were graduated today at the Naval Academy.

Secretary of the Navy John L. Sullivan called on the graduates to "help preserve the peace of the world." He said in a commencement address the training in leadership received by the new officers would be the country's "most valuable asset" in peace or war.

Four hundred and four of the graduates were commissioned, all but twenty-eight—who became marine second lieutenants—as Navy ensigns. Six others were graduated without commissions for physical and other reasons.

Midshipmen will start loading early tomorrow for their 1948 practice cruise into Mediterranean waters. Motor launches will take most of the 2,360 undergraduates out to the squadron of thirteen warships which have been anchored in Annapolis Roads for two days.

Commanded by Rear Admiral Heber B. McLean, the squadron will up anchor about 10 a. m. and head for Norfolk, Va., where the ships are to pick up 720 reserve midshipmen from college naval reserve officers training units before embarking for Europe on Monday.

Admiral McLean's flag will fly from the 45,000-ton battleship Missouri.

ARMY SET TO EXPAND

20,000 Reserve Officers to Be Called if Congress Acts

WASHINGTON, June 4 (AP)—The Army said today that if Congress approved the armed forces expansion program it expects to receive back on active duty about 20,000 reserve officers in the first eight months of the next fiscal year, beginning July 1.

All of the men who will be needed for the expanded troop strength will be volunteers and will not be ordered back in uniform, it was explained. The Army has a substantial backlog of applications for active duty.

New Yorker Is Nominated Assistant Army Secretary

WASHINGTON, June 4 (AP)—President Truman today nominated Tracy S. Voorhees, New York attorney, as Assistant Secretary of the Army. Mr. Voorhees, 56, was an Army officer in the last World War and the Army's food administrator for occupied areas since 1947. He bought the huge quantities of supplies needed for the relief programs in Germany and Japan.

As a colonel during the war, Mr. Voorhees directed the equipping of Army forces overseas with medical supplies. In 1946 he received the Distinguished Service Medal for this work.

A member of the New York bar since 1915, Mr. Voorhees has been associated with several law firms.

Mr. Voorhees was appointed in March, 1947, by former Secretary of War Robert P. Patterson to the then newly-created post of War Department Food Administrator for Occupied Areas. Previously he had accompanied former President Herbert Hoover on his mission to determine the food requirements of Germany.

At the outbreak of the second World War, he was commissioned a colonel and assigned to the Judge Advocate General's Department. In 1945 he was transferred to the General Staff Corps and named a special assistant to the Secretary of War. He returned to civilian status in 1946, continuing as special assistant to the Secretary of War.

Mr. Voorhees, a long-time resident of Brooklyn, is president of Long Island College Hospital.

E. R. Black of World Bank To Visit Dutch East Indies

WASHINGTON, June 4 (AP).—Eugene R. Black, United States representative on the board of the forty-six-nation World Bank, will leave June 8 to visit the Netherlands East Indies.

The bank announced today Mr. Black is making the trip at the invitation of Dutch authorities. He is to go first to London and then to Amsterdam, leaving there June 21 for three weeks in Batavia, Netherlands East Indies.

On his return trip, Mr. Black will stop at Manila and Guam. The bank said Raoul de Sercey, of its loan department, will accompany Mr. Black to "gather economic information." The bank's vice-president, Robert Garner, is in Europe now. President John J. McCloy recently returned from a tour of South America.

Two of Nisei Buried in Arlington

WASHINGTON, June 4 (AP)—The Army buried two Japanese-American soldiers in Arlington National Cemetery today with a general's graveside declaration that "they proved their loyalty and devotion beyond all question." The two privates, first-class, were Fumitake Nagato of Arlington, Va., and Saburo Tanamachi of San Benito, Tex. They died in the Vosges Mountains of France in 1944 when the famous Nisei organization, the 442d combat team, stormed a German-held ridge. In rescuing men belonging to a battalion of the Thirty-sixth Infantry, the Nisei unit lost 200 men killed and 800 wounded.

Marshall Stand Draws Church Editor Attack

New York, June 4 (AP)—The editor of the Churchman magazine says Secretary of State Marshall has suddenly discovered facts about the magazine published in its masthead since 1804.

Dr. Guy Emery Shipler made the comment last night at the magazine's dinner where Marshall was to have received the publication's annual award for promotion of good will among people.

Marshall had declined the award, asserting that the Churchman was not an official organ of the Protestant Episcopal Church and indulged in politics and international affairs editorially.

Visited Yugoslavia

Dr. Shipler, one of a group of Protestant clergymen who said religious freedom existed in Yugoslavia after a visit to that country and a conference with Marshal Tito, said in his dinner speech:

"Recently a government official, who for eight months had told me that he would like to be present on this occasion, suddenly made some surprising discoveries and changed his mind.

"He found, he said, that "the Churchman is not, as I had originally understood, the official organ of the Episcopal church, devoting itself exclusively to religious matter. Its editorials extend far into the realm of politics and international affairs.'"

Dr. Shipler, noting that the magazine has been published "only since 1804," said it has never been an official publication and always has carried in its masthead the phrase "An Independent Journal." He said the Episcopal Church has no official national journal except a missionary monthly.

"Some Government intelligence agency," Dr. Shipler said, "did an amazing job in unearthing these secrets and certainly earned the taxpayers' money."

Citation For Israel

A "Christian salute and "warmest welcome" citation was presented at the dinner to the new state of Israel.

The citation was accepted by Rabbi Israel Goldstein, former president of the Zionist Organization of America. Aubrey S. Eban, Israel's representative at the United Nations, had turned down an invitation to attend following Marshall's refusal of the annual award.

WORLD UNION URGED

PHILADELPHIA, June 4—(AP) Cord Meyer, Jr., president of the United World Federalists, said today the United States should develop a two-front foreign policy.

Speaking at the 26th annual convention of the U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce, Meyer said the United States should prepare for war but at the same time should try to preserve world peace by urging all other nations to join a world federation.

Such a federation, he explained, should have the power to control arms production and should be supplied with a powerful world police force which would do business with individuals as well as nations.

Another speaker, K. H. Donavin, executive director of the U. S. Inter-American Council, said groups such as the Junior Chamber of Commerce must take an active interest in foreign affairs.

'KEEP OUT OF BUSINESS.' GOVERNMENT IS URGED

WASHINGTON, June 4—(AP) The government should get out of all "productive and distributive ventures" immediately to prove to the world that America is not drifting toward socialism, the head of the National Association of Manufacturers said tonight.

Earl Bunting, managing director of NAM, in a radio speech, suggested a 15-plank "platform for America" which he said industrial leaders favored.

The platform, among other things, recommended:

Tax revision to permit productive investment, economy in government, review of military spending to eliminate items which do not contribute to immediate or long-term strength, promotion of housing through removal of restrictive codes and practices elimination of international trade barriers, international currency stabilization through free convertibility of gold, and international cooperation.

After U.S. Must Come Heaven, Little Italian Girl Concludes

COLUMBIA, S. C., June 4—(AP) A young Italian girl has written Governor J. Strom Thurmond to ask whether she is right in thinking that "after America can come only the heaven."

The letter, written in Italian, was translated for the governor by Mrs. Antonia Fogle of Columbia, wife of a South Carolina soldier and who has been in this country but a year.

Written in a legible hand on what Mrs. Fogle described as fourth-grade notepaper, the letter requested that the writer, Dolores Susin of 90 Via Feltre, Belluno, Italy be placed on the list of those receiving packages from America.

She Likes America

As translated, the letter said:

"Dear Governor:

"Among my neighbors there are some people that have relatives in America. Some has an uncle, others a brother or a father.

"I am the only one with bad luck and I do not know where to make a request and when I see or hear that my neighbors receive some American packages I feel sad.

"I think about America as the country of magicians and fairies where everything works wonderfully and where girls of my age have good time and are always happy.

"Reading my books in the school I created a personal landscape of that land and sometime I think that after America can come only the heaven. Am I right or wrong?

"Pardon me, president, if I chosen the address that attracts me more. I did that because Caroline is the name of my grandmother beloved. I wish that the American grandmother will be as good and dear as the Italian one.

"Yours truly,
"Dolores Susin."

Governor Thurmond's reply said, in part:

"My dear Dolores:

"We are going to do what we can to see that you, too, receive some packages from America.

"Here in the state of South Carolina we also think that, 'after America can come only the heaven.' But we know that we are only a small part of a great world in which many people, unlike ourselves, are suffering for the lack of food.

"Although we do not really have any fairies or magicians to help us run this great nation, we do have the magic of the democratic spirit, and the faith that men should be free to live their own lives."

Ceylon Requests Seat In U.N.

Lake Success, June 4 (AP)—Ceylon has applied for membership in the United Nations with hopes of becoming the eighth of the British Commonwealth dominions to be admitted.

The application from the island off India's southeast coast was received yesterday and announced today.

Non-Soviet sources at the United Nations speculated that Ceylon might have delayed applying until now in order to get assurance that Russia would not veto the bid.

Russia has used 11 or 25 vetoes in the Security Council to block membership applications, some on the ground that the applicant had no diplomatic relations with Moscow. The Russians have no diplomatic relations with Colombo, capital of Ceylon.

Would Be 59th Member

Ceylon will become the fifty-ninth member of the United Nations if the bid passes the preliminary tests in the Security Council this summer and then is accepted by majority vote of the General Assembly next fall.

The Ceylonese, after 351 years under successive Portuguese, Dutch and British colonial rule, became a sovereign part of the British Commonwealth on February 3-4.

The Commonwealth members now in the United Nations are the parent United Kingdom, Canada, South Africa, Australia, New Zealand, India and Pakistan.

Burma Chose Freedom

In the reshuffling of empire under the postwar British Labor Government, Pakistan, India and Ceylon elected to become dominions, while Burma chose republican independence.

The Union of Burma, after making sure of Russian support for its application, was admitted to the United Nations without opposition at the recent special Palestine session of the General Assembly.

The Ceyonese have had a small pamphleteering Communist minority.

THE AMMAN INFORMANT SAID JEWISH TROOPS STRUCK A SMALL ARAB STRONGPOINT SOUTHEAST OF HAIFA YESTERDAY, CAUSING CONSIDERABLE DAMAGE WITH ARMORED CAR GUNS BEFORE WITHDRAWING.

WHILE NEGOTIATIONS FOR A TRUCE CONTINUED, JERUSALEM HAD 24 HOURS OF RELATIVE PEACE. HAGANAH THROUGH YESTERDAY WAS HOLDING ALL BUT A SMALL PART OF THE MODERN CITY, BUT THE JEWS STOOD FAST WITHOUT ADVANCING AND ARAB FORCES MADE NO ATTEMPT TO IMPROVE THEIR POSITIONS. EVEN THE SNIPERS TOOK THE NIGHT OFF, A DISPATCH FROM THE CITY SAID.

A JEWISH COMMUNIQUE SAID ISRAELI PLANES ALSO BOMBED ARAB CONCENTRATIONS AT TULKARM AND HIT AT ARAB MILITARY CAMPS IN THE SO-CALLED TRIANGLE OF STRENGTH EAST OF TEL AVIV. THE JEWS ALSO CLAIMED LAST NIGHT THEIR FIGHTERS SHOT DOWN TWO EGYPTIAN BOMBERS OVER TEL AVIV.

TO THE SOUTH, THE JEWISH COMMUNIQUE SAID, ISRAELI ARTILLERY AND PLANES CONTINUED THROUGHOUT LAST NIGHT TO SHELL AND BOMB AN EGYPTIAN COLUMN AT ISDUD, ADDING THAT "LARGE BLAZES WERE OBSERVED IN ENEMY CONCENTRATIONS."

THE EGYPTIANS SAID THEIR TROOPS, DRIVING FROM THE SOUTH IN THE DIRECTION OF TEL AVIV, BEAT BACK A JEWISH COUNTERATTACK IN A FIERCE NIGHT BATTLE AT ISDUD. THIS TOWN IS ON THE TEL AVIV HIGHWAY, JUST THREE MILES SHORT OF THE ISRAELI FRONTIER.

SWEDISH COUNT FOLKE BERNADOTTE, UNITED NATIONS PALESTINE MEDIATOR, GOT BACK TO CAIRO THIS MORNING FROM A FLYING TRIP TO AMMAN, TRANS-JORDAN, AND HAIFA, ISRAEL. HE WOULD NOT COMMENT ON HIS TRIP. HE TOLD REPORTERS, "I AM CONTINUING MY TALKS." HE IS EXPECTED TO SEE ARAB LEADERS HERE.

IT SAYS PLANNED ADDITIONS FOR 1947-49 WERE THREE SLOOPS, TWO CORVETTES, FOUR MINE-SWEEPERS AND SMALLER CRAFT, ALL FROM BRITAIN.)

THE MINISTRY SAID EGYPTIAN TROOPS HEADED FOR TEL AVIV BEAT THE JEWS IN A FIERCE ALL-NIGHT BATTLE IN ISDUD. THE ISRAELIS ATTACKED WEDNESDAY NIGHT, ITS COMMUNIQUE SAID, BUT WERE BEATEN BACK WITH HEAVY LOSSES, AND THE EGYPTIANS "DISPERSED ENEMY TROOPS AND PURSUED THE ESCAPING ENEMY EVERYWHERE."

SIX MILES SOUTHEAST OF ISDUD, THE EGYPTIANS CLAIMED TO HAVE THROWN BACK A STRONG COUNTERATTACK ON POSITIONS AROUND NEGBA, TAKEN WEDNESDAY, TO HAVE KILLED MORE THAN 400 JEWS, AND TO HAVE BROUGHT DOWN AN ISRAELI PLANE WITH ANTI-AIRCRAFT FIRE.

AN EARLIER ISRAELI COMMUNIQUE TOLD A DIFFERENT STORY. IT SAID JEWISH FORCES SURROUNDED AN EGYPTIAN INFANTRY COLUMN NEAR ISDUD AND DESTROYED TANKS AND TRUCKS THAT TRIED TO BREAK THE ENCIRCLEMENT. IT REPORTED EGYPTIAN CASUALTIES HIGH.

JUN 1948

ISRAEL'S HIGH COMMAND SAID JEWISH FIGHTERS SHOT DOWN ONE TWIN-ENGINE EGYPTIAN BOMBER OVER JAFFA, ADJOINING TEL AVIV, AND A SECOND NEAR REHOVOT TO THE SOUTHEAST LAST NIGHT. TEL AVIV UNDERWENT SEVERAL AIR RAIDS YESTERDAY AND LAST NIGHT.

A CAIRO COMMUNIQUE SAID EGYPT LOST ONLY ONE PLANE IN MANY RAIDS ON JEWISH AREAS. THE AIR FORCE SCORED DIRECT HITS ON THE AIRPORT AND THE MAIN POWER PLANT OF TEL AVIV, IT REPORTED.

THE IRAQI DEFENSE MINISTRY IN BAGHDAD SAID IRAQI PLANES ALSO RAIDED TEL AVIV, DAMAGING AN INDUSTRIAL AREA.

THIS COMMUNIQUE SAID IRAQI ATTACKS COST THE JEWS 60 KILLED AND WOUNDED IN A GALILEE VILLAGE WHICH THEY HAD TO GIVE UP AND 25 KILLED AND WOUNDED FROM SHELLFIRE IN KEFAR YONA, EAST OF NATANYA.

IN JERUSALEM, YESTERDAY WAS THE QUIETEST SINCE THE TRANS-JORDAN ARAB LEGION DROVE INTO THE OLD CITY MAY 18.

A LEGION COMMANDER SAID, "NEITHER SIDE WANTS TO ATTACK NOW." HE MADE KNOWN HE HAD GIVE HIS TROOPS A "HOLD FIRE" ORDER AT 7 P.M. WEDNESDAY.

THE COMMANDER INDICATED THE LEGION, WHICH HAS SEIZED THE OLD WALLED CITY, MAY USE A FOOD-AND-WATER BLOCKADE AGAINST THE 80,000 TO 90,000 JEWS IN THE NEW CITY, ALREADY SHORT OF SUPPLIES.

BUT DAVID BEN-GURION, ISRAEL PRIME MINISTER, SAID IN TEL AVIV LAST NIGHT LOSS OF THE OLD CITY WAS A TEMPORARY JEWISH SETBACK AND HE EXPECTED THE PLACE TO BE RECAPTURED.

BEN-GURION, SPEAKING TO THE 37-MEMBER STATE COUNCIL, SAID THE DANGER TO ISRAEL IS NOT OVER, THOUGH THE ARABS HAVE BEEN DEFEATED ON MANY FRONTS.

HE ACCUSED THE ARABS AND BRITISH OF FORMING A JOINT PLAN TO CAPTURE HAIFA, JERUSALEM AND TEL AVIV AND PROCLAIM ABDULLAH OF TRANS-JORDAN KING OF PALESTINE.

THE PROCLAMATION, HE SAID, HAD BEEN SET FOR MAY 25, 10 DAYS AFTER THE BRITISH GAVE UP THEIR PALESTINE MANDATE. HE REPORTED THE PLAN HAD FALLEN INTO JEWISH HANDS BUT DID NOT SAY HOW.

IN LONDON THE FOREIGN OFFICE SAID IT WAS UNTRUE THE BRITISH AND ARABS HAD WORKED OUT ADVANCE PLANS FOR AN ARAB INVASION.

IN JERUSALEM'S OLD CITY, JUNE 4-(AP)-MORTAR BOMBS STRUCK CHRISTIAN CHURCHES AT THE THIRD AND SIXTH STATIONS OF THE CROSS TODAY, SCATTERING DEBRIS OVER THE WAY OF SORROWS.

EACH OF THE CHURCHES WAS HIT ONCE. THEIR RED-TILE ROOFS WERE SHATTERED. THREE REFUGEE CHILDREN WERE WOUNDED SLIGHTLY.

A TRANS-JORDAN ARAB LEGION COMMANDER SAID THE BOMBS CAME FROM JEWISH MORTARS AND THAT IT WAS A VIOLATION OF AN UNDERSTANDING TO HOLD FIRE IN THE HOLY CITY. HE ORDERED HIS ARTILLERY TO BEGIN A BOMBARDMENT OF JEWISH TARGETS 10 TIMES AS HEAVY AS JEWISH FIRE.

ARAB GUNS POURED 30 ROUNDS INTO JEWISH STRONGPOINTS, INCLUDING THE JEWISH AGENCY BUILDING, POSITIONS ON MOUNT ZION AND THE NEW JEWISH QUARTERS OF REHAVIA AND MONTEFIORE.

THE CHURCH OF THE ARMENIAN CATHOLIC PATRIARCHATE, WHERE JESUS IS SAID TO HAVE FALLEN UNDER THE WEIGHT OF THE CROSS, AND THE GREEK CATHOLIC CHURCH OF ST.VERONICA, TRADITIONAL SPOT WHERE VERONICA WIPED

THE FACE OF JESUS, WERE DAMAGED BY THE MORTAR BOMBS.
CHRISTIAN REFUGEES, CROWDED INTO THE CHURDH OF ST.VERONICA, WERE PARALYZED WITH FRIGHT AS THE RUBBLE AND STEEL FRAGMENTS FELL BEFORE THE ALTAR. THE THREE CHILDREN, IN A BEDROOM ON THE ROOF, WERE THE ONLY REFUGEES WOUNDED, AND THEIR WOUNDS WERE MINOR.
THE LEGION COMMANDER SAID HE HAD BEEN HOLDING THE LEGION'S FIRE DURING THE UNITED NATIONS EFFORTS TO REACH A TRUCE, AND WAS REPLYING ONLY WHEN JEWS FIRED FIRST. HE SAID THE JEWS HAD TOLD FOREIGN CONSULS THEY, TOO, WOULD HOLD THEIR FIRE.
VIRTUALLY ALL THE CHURCHES IN THE OLD CITY HAVE BEEN CONVERTED INTO HAVENS FOR REFUGEES. THE ST.VERONICA CHURCH SHELTERS SIX FAMILIES INCLUDING MORE THAN A DOZEN CHILDREN.

TEL AVIV, ISRAEL, JUNE 4-(AP)-AN ISRAELI COMMUNIQUE SAID TONIGHT FOUR EGYPTIAN NAVAL VESSELS ATTEMPTED TO APPROACH TEL AVIV TODAY AND WERE ATTACKED BY THE ISRAEL NAVY ZND THE CITY'S COASTAL DEFENSES.

JEWISH AIRFORCE FIGHTERS BOMBED THE SHIPS, THE COMMUNIQUE SAID, AND AT LEAST ONE DIRECT HIT WAS SEEN.
"THE ENGAGEMENT LASTED FOR ABOUT THREE HOURS," THE COMMUNIQUE SAID. "ONE OF OUR PLANES HAS NOT YET RETURNED."
(AN EGYPTIAN COMMUNIQUE ISSUED IN CAIRO SAID TONIGHT THAT ITS NAVY CONTINUED OPERATIONS BUT DID NOT SAY WHERE OR GIVE THE NUMBER OF VESSELS INVOLVED.
(THE EGYPTIANS SAID THEIR NAVY WAS ATTACKED BY THREE ENEMY PLANES AND THAT EGYPTIAN FIGHTER PLANES FORCED ONE JEWISH PLANE DOWN.)

THE JEWISH COMMUNIQUE DESCRIBED THE EGYPTIAN SHIPS ATTEMPTING TO APPROACH THE TEL AVIV COAST AS"9,3 :94;3553,

APPROACH THE TEL AVIV COAST AS "ONE CORVETTE, ONE ARMED TRANSPORT BOAT OF 2,500 TONS (THE EL AMIRA FAWZIA) AND TWO BRITISH TYPE LANDING CRAFT."
"THE VESSELS WERE MET AND ATTACKED BY THE ISRAELI NAVY AND BY TEL AVIV COASTAL DEFENSES," THE COMMUNIQUE SAID. "THE ISRAELI AIRFORCE BOMBED THE SHIPS AND AT LEAST ONE DIRECT HIT WAS SEEN ON ONE OF THEM. THE ENEMY CRAFT THEN MADE OFF TO SEA."

OBSERVERS ON SHORE SAW FOUR SHIPS RESEMBLING THE TYPES DESCRIBED IN THE JEWISH COMMUNIQUE COME WITHIN SIX OR SEVEN MILES OF THE COASTLINE.
ONE JEWISH CORVETTE RESEMBLING AN OVERSIZED GLOUCESTER FISHING TRAWLER ENGAGED THE EGYPTIANS AND WITHDREW AFTER SHELL SPLASHES WERE SEEN CLOSE TO THE JEWISH VESSEL.
THE OBSERVERS SAID TWO JEWISH AIRPLANES WENT ALOFT AND DROPPED BOMBS. ONE OF THESE PLANES WAS A FIGHTER-TYPE. THE OTHER WAS A SPORTSMAN MODEL PLANE SUCH AS SEEN ON LONG ISLAND OVER A WEEK-END.
ONLY ONE PLANE WAS SEEN TO RETURN.
OBSERVERS SAID THEY SAW BOMB HITS CLOSE TO ONE EGYPTIAN SHIP, AND SOME WATCHERS REPORTED THEY SAW A HIT JUST BEFORE THE EGYPTIANS WITHDREW.

BAGHDAD, JUNE 4-(AP)-A COMMUNIQUE ISSUED BY THE IRAQI DEFENSE MINISTRY SAID TONIGHT 580 JEWS WERE KILLED AND 1,000 WOUNDED IN AN UNSUCCESSFUL ATTACK IN THE JENIN AREA OF NORTHERN PALESTINE. IT SAID THE JEWS HAD USED ABOUT 5,000 TROOPS IN THE ATTACK.
THE COMMUNIQUE SAID JEWISH FORCES MADE A STRONG ATTACK BUT WERE "PURSUED, DISPERSED AND BEATEN."
IT ADDED THAT A LARGE NUMBER OF PRISONERS WERE TAKEN AND THAT "TREMENDOUS QUANTITIES OF ARMS WERE CAPTURED BUT NOT YET COUNTED."
THE IRAQI COMMUNIQUE SAID "OUR FORCES REPELLED THE ATTACK, INFLICTING VERY GREAT LOSSES ON THE ENEMY."
(A REPORT FROM TEL AVIV LAST NIGHT SAID JEWISH FORCES HAD PENETRATED INTO JENIN, NORTHERNMOST POINT OF THE ARAB TRIANGLE OF STRENGTH MENACING TEL AVIV ON THE NORTHEAST. IN AMMAN, AN ARAB GENERAL COMMAND OFFICER SAID THE JEWS HAD LOST 500 MEN IN A VAIN ATTEMPT TO OCCUPY THE ARAB STRONGHOLD.)

THE IRAQI COMMUNIQUE ADDED: "OUR AIRPLANES BOMBED AN ENEMY COLUMN IN THE NORTHERN JENIN AREA. THE GREATER PART OF THE COLUMN WAS DESTROYED."
HEAVY BOMBS WERE DROPPED ON PETAH TIQVA, SIX MILES NORTHEAST OF TEL AVIV, CAUSING GREAT DESTRUCTION AND SETTING HUGE FIRES, THE COMMUNIQUE SAID.
THE IRAQIS ALSO CLAIMED EXTENSIVE DAMAGE WAS CAUSED BY DIRECT ARTILLERY HITS ON JEWISH POSITIONS IN KFAR YONA, 4 1/2 MILES EAST OF NATANYA.
THE COMMUNIQUE SAID THE JEWS ATTEMPTED ANOTHER ATTACK ON THE VILLAGE OF TAIRAH BUT WERE "BEATEN BACK WITH HEAVY LOSSES."

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
THE ARABS SAID LAST NIGHT (FRIDAY) THEY HAD KILLED 580 JEWS AND WOUNDED 1,000 OTHERS IN A FIERCE LAND BATTLE IN THE JENIN REGION OF NORTHERN PALESTINE.
THE JEWS REPORTED THEIR NAVY, AIR FORCE AND COASTAL GUNS REPULSED FOUR EGYPTIAN NAVAL VESSELS WHICH TRIED TO APPROACH TEL AVIV, THE ISRAELI CAPITAL.
COUNT FOLKE BERNADOTTE, UNITED NATIONS MEDIATOR FOR THE HOLY LAND, CABLED LAKE SUCCESS FROM CAIRO THAT THE QUESTION OF JEWISH IMMIGRATION INTO PALESTINE WAS THE SOLE OBSTACLE BARRING A CEASE FIRE IN THE ARAB-JEWISH WAR. HE URGED THE SECURITY COUNCIL TO GIVE HIM A SPEEDY RULING ON THE ADMISSION OF MILITARY-AGE JEWS DURING THE PROPOSED FOUR WEEKS TRUCE PERIOD.
A SPECIAL MORNING MEETING OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL WAS CALLED TO CONSIDER BERNADOTTE'S REQUEST BUT IT WAS CANCELLED WITHIN A MATTER OF MINUTES. THE U.N. EXPLAINED THAT IT HAD BEEN IN CONTACT WITH THE MEDIATOR AND STRESSED HE HAS AUTHORITY TO MAKE HIS OWN INTERPRETATIONS OF THE PEACE PROPOSAL. AFTER RECEIVING THIS INFORMATION, THE U.N. SAID BERNADOTTE WITHDREW HIS REQUEST FOR A RULING.
A BAGHDAD COMMUNIQUE OF THE IRAQI DEFENSE MINISTRY SAID THE HEAVY JEWISH CASUALTIES WERE INFLICTED WHEN ISRAELI COMMANDERS USED 5,000 TROOPS IN AN ATTACK IN THE JENIN REGION. A LARGE NUMBER OF PRISONERS WERE TAKEN AND GREAT QUANTITIES OF ARMS WERE CAPTURED, THE COMMUNIQUE ADDED. IT CLAIMED THE JEWISH ATTACKERS WERE "PURSUED, DISPERSED AND BEATEN."
JEWISH HEADQUARTERS IN TEL AVIV SAID THE EGYPTIAN NAVAL UNITS TRIED TO REACH THE CITY AND WERE BEATEN OFF IN AN ENGAGEMENT WHICH LASTED ABOUT THREE HOURS. IT WAS THE FIRST NAVAL ENGAGEMENT OF THE PALESTINE WAR.
THE ISRAELI COMMUNIQUE SAID JEWISH PLANES BOMBED THE SHIPS AND AT LEAST ONE DIRECT HIT WAS SEEN ON ONE OF THEM BEFORE THE EGYPTIANS WITHDREW. ONE ISRAELI PLANE FAILED TO RETURN. EYE-WITNESSES ASHORE SAID THE ATTACKING VESSELS CAME WITHIN SIX OR SEVEN MILES OF THE CITY.
THE COMMUNIQUE DESCRIBED THE EGYPTIAN SHIPS AS: ONE CORVETTE; AN ARMED TRANSPORT OF 2,500 TONS (THE AMIRA FAWZIA), AND TWO BRITISH-TYPE LANDING CRAFT.
IN CAIRO, A DEFENSE MINISTRY COMMUNIQUE SAID THE EGYPTIAN ROYAL NAVY WAS ATTACKED BY THREE JEWISH PLANES BUT GAVE NEITHER THE SCENE OF THE ACTION NOR THE NUMBER OF SHIPS INVOLVED. THIS COMMUNIQUE CLAIMED ONE ISRAELI PLANE WAS FORCED DOWN.
THE EGYPTIANS SAID THURSDAY THEIR NAVY ATTACKED CAESAREA, A PORT 32 MILES NORTH OF TEL AVIV.
JEWISH HEADQUARTERS SAID, PRIOR TO ISSUANCE OF THE BAGHDAD COMMUNIQUE, THAT ISRAELI FORCES HAD DRIVEN WITH ARTILLERY INTO JENIN, NORTHERN APEX OF THE NABLUS-JENIN-TULKARM TRIANGLE.
BUT IN AMMAN AN ARAB GENERAL COMMAND OFFICER SAID AN IRAQI COUNTER-ATTACK DROVE A JEWISH ARMORED COLUMN OUT OF THE TOWN. HE PUT THE JEWISH LOSSES AT 500.
THE FIGHTING IN THE SOUTH WAS NEAR ISDUD, 22 MILES FROM TEL AVIV ALONG THE COASTAL HIGHWAY. THE JEWS SAID THEIR PLANES BOMBED AN EGYPTIAN SPEARHEAD COLUMN WHICH THEY CLAIM IS ENCIRCLED.
INSIDE THE OLD CITY OF JERUSALEM MORTAR BOMBS STRUCK TWO CHRISTIAN CHURCHES ALONG THE VIA DOLOROSO--THE WAY OF SORROW. AN ARAB LEGION COMMANDER SAID JEWS FIRED THE MORTARS. HE ORDERED HIS ARTILLERY TO REPLY TEN-FOLD AGAINST JEWISH POSITIONS IN NEW JERUSALEM.
THE COMMANDER SAID THE SHELLING VIOLATED A HOLD FIRE UNDERSTANDING.
THE COMMANDER SAID ALSO THAT HE LEARNED 300 JEWS WERE BUILDING AN AIR STRIP ON THE WESTERN OUTSKIRTS OF JERUSALEM, BUT ADDED THE ARABS WOULD MAKE IT USELESS WITH BOMBARDMENT.
CATHOLIC PRIESTS OF THE LATIN PATRIARCHATE SAID THEY SENT A PROTEST AGAINST JEWISH CONDUCT OF MILITARY OPERATIONS IN JERUSALEM TO THE UNITED NATIONS. IT WAS IN THE FORM OF A MANIFESTO ACCUSING THE JEWS OF DESTROYING AND DAMAGING HOLY PLACES.

COUNT FOLKE BERNADOTTE SAID TODAY HE HOPES BY SUNDAY TO CLARIFY JEWISH AND ARAB DIFFERENCES ON THE FOUR-WEEKS ARMISTICE FOR PALESTINE. THE U. N. NEGOTIATOR THEN COULD SET AN HOUR FOR THE WAR ON LAND, SEA AND IN THE AIR TO CEASE.
THE JEWS COUCHED THEIR ACCEPTANCE OF THE ARMISTICE WITH "ASSUMPTIONS." THE ARABS LISTED "EXPLANATIONS." THEIR SPOKESMEN BEFORE THE UNITED NATIONS IN LAKE SUCCESS WERU POLES APART. THE ARABS INSISTED A TRUCE IS SENSELESS SO LONG AS THE STATE OF ISRAEL REMAINS. THE JEWS "ASSUMED" THAT IMMIGRATION WOULD CONTINUE TO ISRAEL THROUGHOUT THE ARMISTICE.
THE TRANS-JORDAN FOREIGN OFFICE SAID IT HAD ACCEPTED A DATE FOR THE CEASE FIRE IN TALKS WITH BERNADOTTE YESTERDAY.
THE FIGHTING WENT ON.
A HEAVY BTTLE APPEARED TO BE IN PROGRESS AT THE ARAB TOWN OF JENIN, 42 MILES NORTHEAST OF TEL AVIV. THE ARABS SAID A JEWISH ARMORED COLUMN ENTERED THE TOWN, BUT WAS DRIVEN OUT IN AN IRAQI COUNTERATTACK. THE JEWS SAID ONLY THAT HAGANAH HAD ENTERED THE TOWN AND NOW THREATENED NABLUS FROM TWO SIDES. JENIN, NABLUS AND TULKARM FORM A STRONG ARAB TRIANGLE IN NORTH CENTRAL PALESTINE THREATENING TEL AVIV.
AN ARAB GENERAL COMMAND OFFICER SAID IN AMMAN, TRANS-JORDAN, THE JEWS LOST 550 MEN TRYING, WITHOUT SUCCESS, TO OCCUPY JENIN. THE BATTLE CONTINUED THROUGHOUT THE DAY NORTH OF JENIN, HE SAID, AFTER IRAQIS COUNTERATTACKED IN STRENGTH.
THE JEWS SAID THEY BOMBED ARAB CONCENTRATIONS IN THE TRIANGLE AND THE EGYPTIANS SOUTH OF TEL AVIV. AN ISRAELI COMMUNIQUE SAID JEWISH ARTILLERY STARTED LARGE FIRES IN EGYPTIAN CAMPS AT ISDUD, CLOSE TO THE ISRAEL BORDER SOUTH OF TEL AVIV.

BERNADOTTE SAID HIS PEACE-MAKING TASK IS DIFFICULT. THE ARABS APPEARED LIKELY TO OPPOSE A JEWISH "ASSUMPTION" THAT SUPPLIES BE ALLOWED TO THE 90,000 JEWS BESIEGED IN JERUSALEM, FOR INSTANCE.

"THE KEY PROBLEM IS TO GET A TRUCE," THE MEDIATOR SAID IN CAIRO, "I HAVE NOT DISCUSSED WITH ANYBODY THE FUTURE OF PALESTINE. WHAT WE WANT IS PEACE. BEFORE WE GET IT, WE MUST HAVE A TRUCE. WE ARE NOW WORKING ON A TRUCE. IF AND WHEN WE GET IT, THEN WE WILL START TO DISCUSS THE FUTURE OF PALESTINE."

A DIPLOMATIC SOURCE IN TRANS-JORDAN SAID BERNADOTTE PROPOSED TO HAVE A CEASE FIRE EFFECTIVE SUNDAY AND THE FOUR-WEEK ARMISTICE TO BEGIN MONDAY MORNING.

JUN 1948

THE BRIEF CALM IN JERUSALEM WAS SHATTERED BY ARAB SHELLING AFTER A DAY AND NIGHT OF RELATIVE PEACE. FIRING ERUPTED IN SEVERAL PARTS OF THE CITY, BUT NEITHER THE ARABS NOW JEWS APPEARED SERIOUSLY TO BE TRYING TO IMPROVE THEIR POSITIONS.

THE ARABS AND JEWS HAD AGREED ON THE SURFACE TO A FOUR-WEEK TRUCE AND ARMS EMBARGO. THEIR SPOKESMEN IN THE UNITED NATIONS MADE IT PLAIN THEY WERE POLES APART. A REPRESENTATIVE OF THE ARAB HIGHER COMMITTEE SAID THERE IS NO POINT TO THE TRUCE IF THE JEWS INSIST ON KEEPING THE STATE OF ISRAEL.

THAT THE JEWS WILL CERTAINLY DO. IF THE SWEDISH COUNT BERNADOTTE, MEDIATOR FOR THE U.N., BRINGS THE WARRING SIDES TOGETHER ON A TIME FOR A CEASE FIRE, IT REMAINS TO BE SEEN WHETHER THE ARMISTICE CAN BE MADE EFFECTIVE. THE JEWS INSIST ON UNLIMITED IMMIGRATION, EVEN OF POTENTIAL FIGHTING MEN. THE ARABS SAID THIS IS "INADMISSIBLE."

BERNADOTTE, KEY FIGURE IN THE ORAL WAR, TALKED IN AMMAN, TRANS-JORDAN AND HAIFA YESTERDAY. HIS ONLY UTTERANCE WAS THAT "I AM CONTINUING MY TALKS."

THE LITTLE SHIPS EGYPT CALLS HER NAVY TOSSED SOME SHELLS INTO CAESAREA, 30 MILES NORTH OF TEL AVIV. A BOAT WAS REPORTED SUNK AND A WATERFRONT BUILDING SHELLED. THE BIGGEST THING IN THE EGYPTIAN NAVY IS A 2,650-TON TRANSPORT. THERE ALSO ARE A FEW CORVETTES, SLOOPS, MOTOR LAUNCHES, MINE SWEEPERS AND A ROYAL YACHT.

GROUND FIGHTING CENTERED AROUND THE ARAB TRIANGLE IN NORTH-CENTRAL PALESTINE AND NEAR ISDUD, 20 MILES SOUTH OF TEL AVIV. AS USUAL THERE WERE OPPOSING CLAIMS.

TEL AVIV WAS BOMBED SEVERAL TIMES BY EGYPTIAN AND IRAQI PLANES. THE JEWS SAID THEY DESTROYED TWO EGYPTIAN BOMBERS.

A JEWISH COMMUNIQUE SAID ISRAELI TROOPS FOUGHT INTO JENIN AND THREATENED NABLUS FROM TWO SIDES. THE TOWNS ARE POINTS OF THE "ARAB TRIANGLE OF STRENGTH" ROUNDED OUT BY TULKARM.

THE JEWS SAID THEY SURROUNDED A COLUMN OF EGYPTIAN INFANTRY AT ISDUD, DESTROYED TANKS AND TRUCKS AND INFLICTED HEAVY CASUALTIES. THE EGYPTIANS SAID THEY THREW BACK A STRONG COUNTERATTACK IN A NIGHT LONG BATTLE. AT NEGBA, SIX MILES SOUTHEAST OF ISDUD, THE EGYPTIANS SAID THEY KILLED MORE THAN 400 JEWS AND DESTROYED A PLANE TWO DAYS AGO.

THE IRAQI ARMY SAID IT KILLED OR WOUNDED 60 JEWS IN A GALILEE VILLAGE AND INFLICTED 25 CASUALTIES BY SHELLFIRE AT KEFAR YONA, EAST OF THE COAST. HOW THE IRAQIS DETERMINED THE CASUALTIES WAS NOT EXPLAINED; PREVIOUSLY THEY HAD REPORTED KEFAR YONA DESTROYED AND OCCUPIED.

JERUSALEM ITSELF HAD A QUIET DAY. NEITHER SIDE APPEARED ANXIOUS TO ATTACK. ARABS HELD THE OLD WALLED CITY AND SURROUNDED MODERN JERUSALEM AND APPEARED CONTENT TO ENFORCE A FOOD AND WATER BLOCKADE. PRIME MINISTER DAVID BEN-GURION OF PALESTINE SAID HE EXPECTED THE JEWS TO RECAPTURE THE WALLED CITY.

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., JUNE 4-(AP)-COUNT FOLKE BERNADOTTE, UNITED NATIONS MEDIATOR FOR PALESTINE, REPORTED TONIGHT THAT THE QUESTION OF JEWISH IMMIGRATION ALONE WAS HOLDING UP A CEASE FIRE IN THE ARAB-JEWISH WAR.

HE CABLE AN URGENT APPEAL TO LAKE SUCCESS FROM CAIRO ASKING THE SECURITY COUNCIL FOR INSTRUCTIONS. FARIS EL KHOURI OF SYRIA, THIS MONTH'S PRESIDENT OF THE COUNCIL, IMMEDIATELY CALLED A SPECIAL MEETING FOR TOMORROW MORNING. IN A MATTER OF MINUTES HE CANCELLED THE MEETING.

THE U.N. EXPLAINED THE SUDDEN SWITCH IN AN OFFICIAL STATEMENT WHICH SAID BERNADOTTE HAD WITHDRAWN HIS REQUEST AFTER RECEIVING ADDITIONAL INFORMATION FROM U.N. HEADQUARTERS.

THE STATEMENT SAID EL KHOURI CANCELLED THE MEETING AFTER CONTACT WITH BERNADOTTE IN WHICH THE MEDIATOR WAS INFORMED OF THE COUNCIL'S ATTITUDE, NAMELY, THAT THE MEDIATOR HAS AUTHORITY TO MAKE INTERPRETATIONS OF THE U.N. PEACE APPEAL AND NEED ONLY REFER TO THE COUNCIL IF HIS INTERPRETATIONS ARE CHALLENGED.

THE U.N. ANNOUNCED BERNADOTTE WITHDREW HIS REQUEST AFTER RECEIVING THIS INFORMATION.

BERNADOTTE--WHO ASKED FOR A REPLY SATURDAY--WAS NAMED BY THE U.N. AS ITS MEDIATOR IN THE HOLY LAND FIGHTING AND HAS BEEN FLYING BACK AND FOROH FROM THE JEWISH PROVISIONAL CAPITAL AT TEL AVIV TO THE CAPITALS OF THE ARAB STATES.

HE WAS GIVEN THE JOB BY THE SECURITY COUNCIL OF INTERPRETING TERMS

JUN 1948

OF THE TRUCE AND FIXING THE EXACT DAY AND HOUR OF THE CEASE FIRE AS A PRELUDE TO A FOUR WEEKS ARMISTICE.

IN A CABLE TO THE COUNCIL TONIGHT HE SAID:

"THE QUESTION OF JEWISH IMMIGRATION INTO PALESTINE DURING THE DURATION OF THE TRUCE ALONE IS OBSTRUCTING AN AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE TWO PARTIES ON THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF THE TRUCE.

"THE DIFFICULTY ARISES CONCERNING THE PRECISE INTERPRETATION TO BE GIVEN TO THE PHRASES 'FIGHTING PERSONNEL' AND 'MEN OF MILITARY AGE' X X X.

"DOES THE (U.N.) RESOLUTION ENVISAGE THAT MEN OF MILITARY AGE MAY BE BROUGHT INTO THE JEWISH AREA OF PALESTINE DURING THE PERIOD OF THE TRUCE PROVIDED THAT THEY ARE NOT MOBILIZED OR SUBMITTED TO TRAINING? IS THE RESOLUTION PERMISSIVE IN THIS REGARD OR DOES THE RESOLUTION SEEK THE EXCLUSION OF ALL MEN OF MILITARY AGE? X X X

"HAVE THE MOST URGENT NEED OF OFFICIAL INTERPRETATION OF THESE CLAUSES BY SATURDAY 5 JUNE. I MAY ASSURE YOU X X X THAT I AM EXERTING EVERY POSSIBLE EFFORT TO ACHIEVE AN AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE TWO PARTIES ON THE DATE AND HOUR OF THE TRUCE AND HOPE TO SUCCEED."

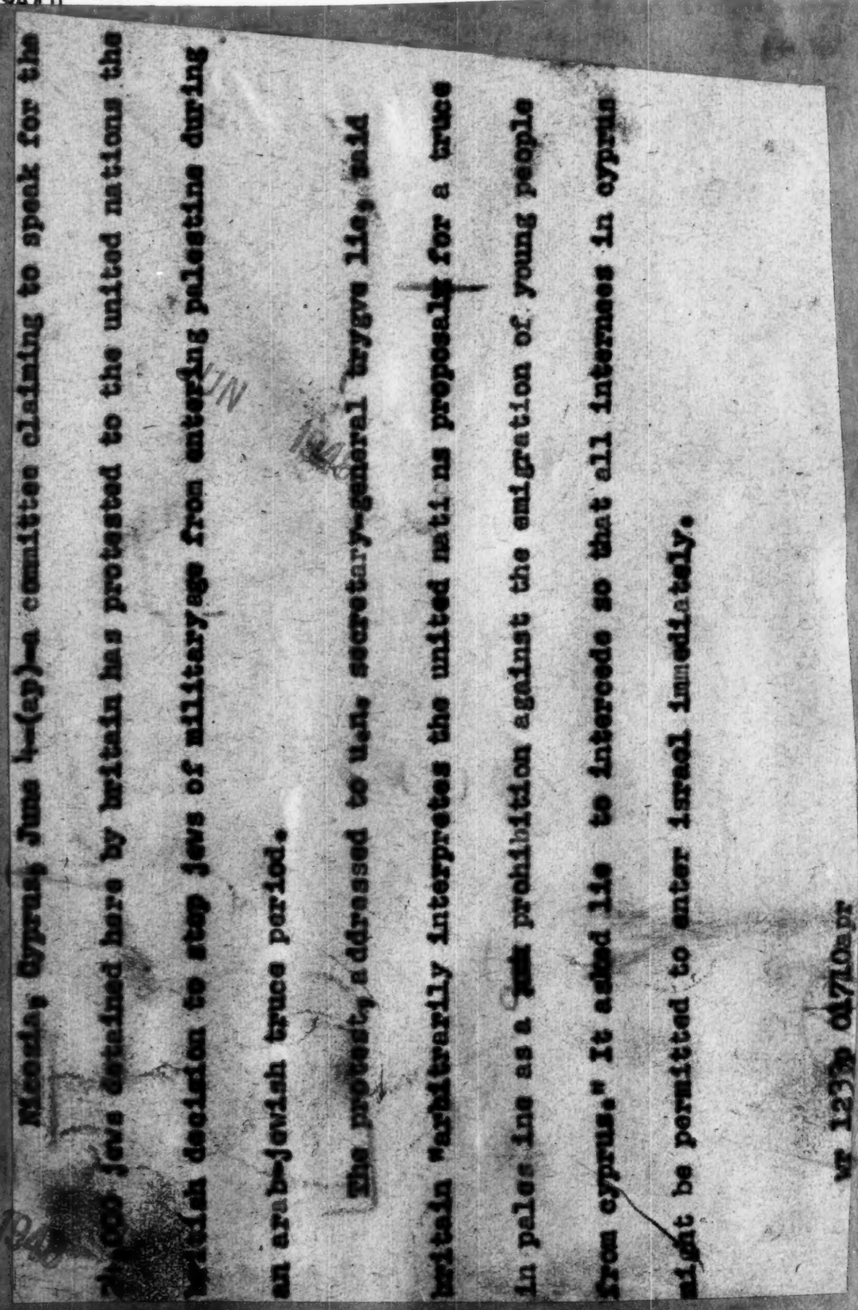
LAKE SUCCESS, JUNE 4-(AP)-DESPITE SURFACE AGREEMENT ON A FOUR-WEEK ARMISTICE, THE JEWS AND ARABS STILL STAND AT OPPOSITE POLES TODAY ON THE BASIC POLITICAL ISSUE IN PALESTINE--PARTITION.

UNITED NATIONS DEBATE HAS BROUGHT OUT ANEW THE FIRMNESS OF THEIR POSITIONS AND THE POSSIBLE FUTILITY OF EFFORTS AT PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT DURING THE PROJECTED TRUCE PERIOD.

JAMAL HUSSEINI, REPRESENTATIVE OF THE ARAB HIGHER COMMITTEE, TOLD THE SECURITY COUNCIL YESTERDAY THERE IS NO POINT IN A TRUCE IF THE JEWS INSIST ON KEEPING THEIR NEW STATE OF ISRAEL. THE JEWS SET UP THE STATE UNDER THE U.N. ASSEMBLY'S 1947 PARTITION DECISION, WHICH STILL STANDS.

"ACCORDING TO WHAT WE HEAR FROM THE ZIONIST SPOKESMAN WITH REGARD TO THEIR UNWILLINGNESS TO DISCUSS THE PALESTINIAN QUESTION ON ANY BASIS OTHER THAN THE EXISTENCE OF WHAT THEY CALL THE ISRAEL STATE, WITH THE DEFINITE BOUNDARIES AND POWER EMBODIED IN THE PARTITION RECOMMENDATION, WE DO NOT REALLY SEE ANY PURPOSE SERVED BY THAT TRUCE," HUSSEINI SAID. "THE ARABS ARE FIGHTING AGAINST THE PARTITION OF PALESTINE."

ISRAEL'S AUBREY EBAN QUOTED THE PRIME MINISTER OF LEBANON AND KING ABDULLAH OF TRANS-JORDAN AS SAYING THE ARABS ENTERED INTO THE TRUCE AGREEMENT TO SECURE THE ABOLITION OF THE STATE OF ISRAEL. HE THEN MADE THIS STATEMENT AND HAD A SPOKESMAN HAND COPIES TO NEWSMEN:



"IT IS MY DUTY TO SAY THAT THE PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT OF ISRAEL WILL NOT, EITHER NOW OR AT ANY OTHER TIME, TAKE PART IN ANY NEGOTIATIONS WITH ANY AUTHORITY OR PERSON CONCERNING THE EXISTENCE AND THE FULL INDEPENDENCE OF THE STATE OF ISRAEL, NOR WILL THE PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT OF ISRAEL ENTER ANY NEGOTIATIONS RAISING ANY QUESTION WHICH UNDERMINES THE FULL INDEPENDENCE OR EXISTENCE OF ANY OTHER STATE."

THE JEWISH-ARAB DIFFERENCES ON IMMIGRATION ARE AS MARKED AS EVER. HUSSEINI SAID IMMIGRATION IS "INADMISSABLE" DURING THE TRUCE PERIOD. EBAN SAID THE U.N. TRUCE PLAN CLEARLY ALLOWED IMMIGRATION, PROVIDING ONLY THAT THE NEW ARRIVALS WOULD NOT BEAR ARMS.

ALEXANDRE PARODI OF FRANCE REBUKED THE JEWISH AND ARAB REPRESENTATIVES FOR THEIR STRONG STATEMENTS, DECLARING BOTH WERE "OUT OF SEASON."

THE COUNCIL THEN ADJOURNED UNTIL MONDAY AFTERNOON WHEN SOME WORD IS EXPECTED FROM SWEDISH COUNT FOLKE BERNADOTTE, THE U.N. MEDIATOR WHO HAS BEEN GIVEN THE TASK OF SETTING THE DAY AND HOUR FOR THE SHOOTING TO STOP.

LONDON, JUNE 4-(AP)-PRAVDA SAYS THE SOVIET PEOPLE HAVE "THE RIGHT TO EXPECT SEVERE PUNISHMENT FOR THE MAJOR JAPANESE WAR CRIMINALS."

THEY ARE "RESPONSIBLE FOR ALL THE BLOOD OF THE INNOCENT THAT WAS SHED AND FOR THE MILLIONS OF VICTIMS OF THE JAPANESE MILITARISTS' AGGRESSION," THE COMMUNIST PARTY NEWSPAPER SAID IN AN ARTICLE BY COMMENTATORS RAGINSKY AND ROZENBLIT, BROADCAST BY THE MOSCOW RADIO, WEDNESDAY.

PRAVDA WAS CRITICAL OF THE CONDUCT OF THE INTERNATIONAL MILITARY TRIBUNAL IN TOKYO.

JUN 1948

"IT WOULD BE INCORRECT TO CONSIDER THAT THE 28 DEFENDANTS NOW ON TRIAL EXHAUST THE NUMBER OF THE CHIEF JAPANESE WAR CRIMINALS," THE ARTICLE SAID.

"IT IS QUITE OBVIOUS THAT MANY OF THE CHIEF WAR CRIMINALS WERE HIDDEN FROM TRIAL AND ARE AT LARGE INSTEAD OF BEING IN THE DOCK."

IT BLAMED WALL STREET INFLUENCE, SAYING "WALL STREET REPRESENTATIVES COULD NOT PERMIT THAT DESERVED PUNISHMENT SHOULD BE BORNE BY THOSE WHO ARE SPIRITUALLY AKIN TO THEM AND WHOM THEY NEED FOR CONVERTING VANQUISHED JAPAN INTO A NEW BRIDGEHEAD OF AGGRESSION AGAINST THE DEMOCRATIC COUNTRIES."

"UNFORTUNATELY THE INFLUENCE OF WALL STREET HAS NOT BEEN LIMITED TO THE FACT THAT NOT ALL THE CHIEF JAPANESE WAR CRIMINALS ARE FACING TRIAL," PRAVDA SAID. "IT HAS LEFT ITS IMPRINT ON THE ENTIRE COURSE OF THE TRIAL. IT SUFFICES TO SAY THAT SENIOR OFFICERS OF THE AMERICAN ARMY WHO ASSUMED THE ROLE OF ADVOCATES HAVE NEGLECTED THE PROFESSIONAL HONOR AND ELEMENTARY RULES OF DECENCY, STRIVING BY ALL MEANS, AGAINST ANY LOGIC, TO PROTECT THE WORST ENEMIES OF PROGRESSIVE MANKIND, WHO WERE TAKEN RED-HANDED AND EXPOSED. XXXX

"THE PEOPLES OF THE WORLD EXPECT, AND HAVE THE RIGHT TO EXPECT, THAT THE TRIBUNAL'S VERDICT WILL PROVE TO BE A POWERFUL WEAPON IN THE STRUGGLE OF PROGRESSIVE MANKIND AGAINST AGGRESSION, FASCISM AND REACTION."

RELATIONS BETWEEN BRITISH OFFICIALS AND GERMANS ARE BEING BROUGHT IN LINE WITH A BRITISH GOVERNMENT POLICY OF BUILDING UP GERMAN DEMOCRATIC INSTITUTIONS AND ENCOURAGING GERMANS TO JOIN IN EFFORTS TO REHABILITATE EUROPE, GEN.SIR BRIAN ROBERTSON TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE.

"GERMANS, THEREFORE, MUST NOT BE TREATED AS UNSUITABLE," THE BRITISH MILITARY GOVERNOR CONTINUED. "JUST AS WE ARE A CHRISTIAN, CIVILIZED PEOPLE, THE GERMANS ALSO ARE A CHRISTIAN, CIVILIZED PEOPLE. THEY SHOULD BE TREATED ACCORDINGLY."

AMNESTY WAS GRANTED TO THOUSANDS OF SMALL-TIME MEMBERS OF THE SS (ELITE GUARD).

"TO REQUIRE ALL OF THEM TO STAND TRIAL WOULD BE POINTLESS AND IN ANY CASE AN INJUSTICE NOT CONFORMING TO THE SPIRIT AND INTENTION OF THE NUERNBERG INTERNATIONAL MILITARY TRIBUNAL," SAID ROBERTSON.

Frankfurt, Germany, June 4--(AP)--A German denazification court today rebuked British playwright George Bernard Shaw, the army newspaper Stars and Stripes reported.

It did so after hearing Shaw's opinion that "it is stupid and a crime when a new government punishes the actions of a previous government."

JUN 1948

The playwright's statement was contained in a letter introduced by the defense in the trial in Stuttgart of Werner Krauss, 64-year-old German movie actor, the army newspaper, said. and Stripes reported. Krauss played in the anti-semitic picture,

"Jud Suess."

Dr. Justus Hommer, president of the court, commented that "this court has only silent contempt for Bernard Shaw who apparently believes that Nazi crimes should go unpunished."

Shaw's letter was addressed to Krauss whom the court convicted of "having given extraordinary support to Nazi propaganda by his participation in 'Jus Suess'." Krauss was fined 5,000 marks ($500).

Johannesburg, Union of South Africa, June 4--(AP)--Dr. D. F. Malan, the new South African premier of, said tonight his country will NOT allow the United Nations to interfere in its domestic affairs.

In a radio speech tonight, Malan told his people:

"We unreservedly recognize our relationship to the community of nations in general. We do NOT therefore, in any way subscribe to a policy of isolationism. In regard to our membership in the U.N.O., however, we wish to emphasize that we, in company with our predecessors in office, accepted on the clear understanding that there was to be neither external interference in our domestic affairs nor any tampering with our autonomous rights."

"On that foundation," Malan added, "we shall continue to build, and consequently we shall steadfastly refuse to allow any country power or organization to determine our destinies --- that being a right we reserve to ourselves as a free and independent nation."

Malan replaced Field Marshal Jan Christiaan Smuts as a result of the recent South African elections.

WASHINGTON, JUNE 4-(AP)-SENATOR WILSON (R-IOWA) SAID TODAY A BILL AUTHORIZING DISPATCH OF UNITED STATES MILITARY MISSIONS ANYWHERE IN THE WORLD MIGHT GET THE NATION INTO ANOTHER WAR.

THE MEASURE PASSED THE HOUSE LAST FEBRUARY AND IS DUE FOR CONSIDERATION BY THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE NEXT WEEK.

EXISTING LAW PERMITS THE SENDING OF MILITARY MISSIONS TO LATIN AMERICA AND THE PHILIPPINES. THE PROPOSED CHANGE WOULD ALLOW THEM TO BE SENT TO ANY NATION REQUESTING SUCH AID.

SAID WILSON TO A REPORTER:

"IF WE SEND MILITARY MISSIONS INTO EVERYBODY'S BACKYARD, WE ARE GOING TO GET A BLOODY NOSE SOMEWHERE. AND IT MIGHT INVOLVE US IN A WAR."

HE SAID THE PENDING BILL DELEGATES TOO MUCH AUTHORITY TO THE PRESIDENT. BUT THE PRESIDENT HIMSELF DID NOT FORMALLY REQUEST THE LEGISLATION, HE ADDED.

"THE BILL HAS BEEN ENDORSED BY THE STATE DEPARTMENT, THE ARMY AND THE NAVY," WILSON POINTED OUT. "BUT THEY DON'T MENTION THE PRESIDENT'S ATTITUDE. IF HE WANTS IT, LET HIM ASK FOR IT."

HE SAID THAT AS PASSED BY THE HOUSE THE MEASURE EXCLUDES "COMBAT" TROOPS FROM PARTICIPATION IN MISSIONS.

"WHAT ARE COMBAT TROOPS?" ASKED WILSON. "THE ARMY HAS MANY THOUSAND OF FOOT SOLDIERS IN OCCUPIED GERMANY AND JAPAN. BUT IT SAYS IT HAS ONLY 30,000 COMBAT TROOPS.

"IF THE DEFINITION IS THAT NARROW, THERE'S ALMOST NO LIMIT TO THE CHARACTER THESE MILITARY MISSIONS MIGHT TAKE."

HE PROTESTED ALSO AGAINST BROAD LANGUAGE IN THE BILL WHICH HE SAID WOULD PERMIT MISSIONS TO BE USED TO SUPERVISE ELECTIONS AND HELP NATIONS ORGANIZE THEIR WATERWAYS SYSTEMS.

Egyptian Force Trapped In Coastal Drive to Seize Tel Aviv, Jews Report

Yibna Back In Hands of Israel Army

J. BOYD

CAIRO, Egypt, June 5 (AP).—The Jewish Command said today Israeli troops had trapped a "considerable" Egyptian force driving up the Palestine coast and thrown back the Egyptian spearhead within 14 miles of Tel Aviv, the capital of Israel.

In central Palestine northeast of Tel Aviv, however, Associated Press dispatches said Iraqi troops were digging in around Jenin, northern tip of the Arab "triangle of strength," after throwing back a Jewish offensive.

NIGHT

Yibna, highpoint of the Egyptian thrust south of Tel Aviv, was retaken by Israeli units, the Jewish Command said. At that point the Egyptians were six miles inside the coastal strip claimed by Israel.

ISRAELIS RING ISDUD

Nine miles farther south in the Arab section of the Palestine coast other Jewish troops threw a noose around Isdud. The Jews claimed some of King Farouk's armor was hemmed in there. The Egyptians suffered losses in armor when they attempted a break-out, said the Israeli communique issued in Tel Aviv. The Egyptians claimed they repulsed Isareli attacks in that sector.

An Egyptian communiqué said tonight Egyptian forces drove wedges into Jewish lines in settlements north of their advance positions. It did not say which settlements. The communiqué claimed Egyptian planes raided the settlements of Khelda, Huida and Abu Shusha, southeast of Er Ramle, and Yavne and Gan Yavne, northeast of Isdud.

The Cairo newspaper Akhbar el Yom reported that the Egyptians had launched a general offensive against Israel, striking by land, sea and air.

EGYPT CLAIMS GAINS

An Egyptian Defense Ministry communique said tonight Egyptian forces had driven wedges into Jewish settlements north of their advance lines on Palestine's southern coastal plain.

The communique said that Egyptian planes had heavily raided the settlements of Khelda, Hulda and Abu Shusha, southeast of Er Ramle, and Yavne and Gan Yavne, northeast of Isdud.

JEWS REPULSED, ARABS SAY

(Arab sources in Trans-Jordan claimed that Arab Legionnaires besieging Jerusalem had repulsed a Jewish pre-dawn attack on the Old City, and later forced the surrender of Israeli strong points, including Hadassah Hospital and the Hebrew University, on Mt. Scopus in north Jerusalem.)

A Jerusalem dispatch said the bread ration for that embattled city had been cut today from 200 to 150 grams (about 5.25 ounces per person. Arab shelling from the Old City walls in the last 24 hours was the heaviest of this week. Five persons were reported killed in the streets.

CONFLICTING ACCOUNTS

There were conflicting accounts concerning the battle for Jenin, northern end of the Arab triangle menacing Tel Aviv and the Israeli coastal strip.

A Jewish communique said Israeli units held all the positions they had captured in this sector and had repulsed Arab counter-attacks. Jewish correspondents previously had reported their striking force was in northwestern Jenin. An Associated Press correspondent with Iraqui forces reported from Jenin today, however, that Iraqui troops apparently were firmly established in the town after beating off two strong Jewish attacks in the last two days.

JEWS TAKE TO HILLS

He quoted an Iraqui commander as saying that 3000 to 4000 Israeli troops involved in fighting in the area had withdrawn to positions five miles north of the town. There the Jews took up positions in the rolling hills along the edge of the Plain of Esdraelon, the Biblical Armageddon.

One small isolated pocket of approximately 150 Jews was under Iraqi artillery fire three miles north of Jenin, the dispatch said. The Iraqi commander estimated Jewish losses in the fighting at almost 600 dead and "many more wounded."

The coastal front south of Tel Aviv has been active for several days. The Jews said yesterday the Egyptian naval sortie off Tel Aviv may have been an attempt at a "little Dunkirk" to remove the trapped Egyptian spearhead from the beaches.

Israeli accounts indicated the Egyptian naval force failed, if that actually was its mission. A Tel Aviv communique said the Jewish navy, air force and coastal guns beat off the Egyptian force consisting of a corvette, an armed transport and two landing craft.

There has been no indication of the size of the Egyptian units which the Jews say they forced out of Yibna. The main Egyptian striking force is at Isdud to the south. There King Farouk's troops are believed either to have reached or to be very close to the defensive positions which the Jews hastily dug since May 15.

BERNADOTTE LEAVES CAIRO

Yibna is eight miles southwest of Er Ramle where the Egyptians may have linked up with the Trans-Jordan Arab Legion and Iraqi units.

Swedish Count Folke Bernadotte, the United Nations mediator in Palestine, left Cairo today for Beirut, Lebanon. He is negotiating with Jewish and Arab leaders in an attempt to put into effect the four-week truce accepted by both sides. Bernadotte is expected to confer with Jewish leaders either in Haifa or Tel Aviv before returning to Cairo tomorrow.

Dr. Ralph Bunche, of the U.N. secretariat, said Bernadotte had not yet fixed a time for starting the truce.

Israeli Fighters Retake Yibna, Coastal Link

J. BOYD

Cairo, June 5 (AP)—Israeli forces have recaptured Yibna, peak of the Egyptian thrust into Jewish territory, and have cut off a "considerable" force of Egyptians who drove up the coast on the road to Tel Aviv, the Jewish high command reported today.

DAY

Israeli headquarters said yesterday's Egyptian naval sortie into Jewish waters off Tel Aviv may have been an attempt at a "Little Dunkerque" to remove the coastal spearhead. The Jews reported last night their planes and coastal guns routed four Egyptian vessels in the first naval skirmish of the Palestine war.

There were conflicting reports on the battle for Jenin, top of the Arab triangle in northern Palestine. An Iraqi communiqué in Baghdad last night sai 5,000 Jews were routed there with a loss of 580 killed and 1,000 wounded, but Jewish headquarters in Tel Aviv said Israeli forces continued to "hold all positions captured in this sector."

Arabs Rush Reinforcements

The Jews reported Arabs rushing reinforcements to meet the threat to the Nablus-Jenin-Tulkarm triangle, but said Arab counterattacks were repulsed.

Yibna, on the coastal highway to Tel Aviv, is 5 miles inside territory claimed by the state of Israel and 15 miles south of the Tel Aviv-Jaffa area. It is 9 miles north of Isdud, where the Jews said the main force of the Egyptian spearhead now is encircled. Near by is Ramle, where the Egyptians might have linked up with Arab Legion and Iraqi units.

The Jewish communiqué said the Egyptians attempted to break out of a trap and suffered losses in armor.

New Offensive Reported

The Cairo newspaper Akhbar el Yom reported the Egyptian Army, Navy and Air Force began an offensive at dawn today, but gave no details. There was no word of this from Tel Aviv.

Swedish Count Folke Bernadotte, the United Nations mediator seeking to set a date for a four-week truce in the Holy Land, conferred for 90 minutes with Premier Pokrashy Pasha, of Egypt, today and planned to leave for Beirut, Lebanon, Haifa and Amman, Trans-Jordan. He denied a report from Amman that he had fixed Monday for the beginning of the truce.

The Arabs said that the Jewish attack in the Jenin region was strong but that after a fierce battle the Jews fell back and were "pursued, dispersed and beaten."

Iraqi Planes Attack

The Baghdad communiqué said the Iraqi Air Force had destroyed most of a big Jewish column in the area.

The Jews have been making a strong bid to breach the Arab triangle. They reported Thursday they had penetrated Jenin.

The Iraqi communiqué claimed a great many Jews were taken prisoner and large quantities of arms were captured.

Three Planes Attack Navy

Last night's Israeli communiqué on the initial naval fight of the war said four Egyptian vessels tried to approach the Jewish capital of Tel Aviv and were attacked by Israeli warplanes. The communiqué said at least one direct hit was scored on the flotilla and one Jewish plane failed to return to its base.

An Egyptian communiqué reported the navy was attacked by three planes but did not say where this occurred nor tell the number of vessels concerned.

The Egyptian sea force was listed in the Israeli communiqué as:

One corvette (a wooden vessel ranking next below a frigate), one armed transport of 2,500 tons (the Amir Fawzia) and two British-type landing craft.

James M. Long, Associated Press correspondent, said the Egyptian ships came within 6 or 7 miles of shore. He said a Jewish corvette engaged them but withdrew when shells flung water spouts about her. The engagement occurred just after noon.

Long said two Jewish planes, one a fighter type, the other a Sportsman, dropped bombs. He saw only one plane return.

Bomb hits were seen near one Egyptian ship, and Long said some shore observers reported seeing a hit made on a ship just before the Egyptian sea force withdrew.

The Jews announced they had encircled the Egyptian force, aimed at Tel Aviv, and said their planes had bombed an Egyptian column in the Isdud area.

Cairo Jews Hail Egypt

Donate ~~$161,000~~ as Expression of Loyalty to Farouk

CAIRO, June 5 (AP).—The press announced today that Jews of Cairo have donated 40,000 Egyptian pounds (about $161,000) as "a greeting to Egypt and her army and as an expression of loyalty to King Farouk." The Jews of Alexandria made a donation of 20,000 Egyptian pounds for the same purpose last week.

Chinese Minister Ho Feng-shan visited Foreign Minister Khasab Pasha and later told newspaper men that the Chinese government's feelings are with the Arabs in the Palestine war.

Newcomer Finds No Feeling Of Disaster In Air At Tel Aviv

Tel Aviv, Palestine, June 5 (AP)—On this sunny Jewish Sabbath it is hard for a newcomer to realize that Tel Aviv is the headquarters of a nation at war.

Leaving Cairo, one is prepared, from reading Egyptian newspapers, to find tense men and women walking amid bomb-shattered ruins. Press dispatches and Arab communiqués told of advancing Arab armies threatening to lay siege to this capital of the Jewish-proclaimed state of Israel.

But there is no sense of disaster in the air. Bathers make Tel Aviv's seafront look like a little strip of Coney Island. The streets are filled with Sabbath promenaders. Proud fathers are pushing baby carriages along the sidewalks.

NIGHT

Truce

Egyptian air raid son the city increase in the future to change the situation, but a neutral newcomer's first impression is that the raids of the last three weeks caused little damage to property or morale.

The man in the street talks hopefully of a truce by the United Nations but, like many Egyptians, he appears to have little real confidence that the fighting will cease.

The only sign in Tel Aviv today that a war is going on was two air raid alarms during the afternoon, one lasting fifteen minutes, the other a half hour. No planes appeared during either alert.

Schoolgirls playing volleyball in a seashore park kept right on playing until they were chased indoors by air raid wardens.

Battle Watched From Beach

About half the city's shop windows have paper strips pasted across the panes to prevent glass from scattering if a bomb lands near by. Otherwise there is little evidence of any concern over the raids.

There has been so much shooting in Palestine in recent years that Tel Aviv residents casually regarded even the first naval engagement of the war yesterday.

Hundreds watched from the beach as four small Egyptian ships exchanged shots with a Jewish corvette several miles offshore. When the Egyptian vessels withdrew under bombing attacks from two Jewish planes the crowds sauntered idly back to the sidewalk cafes.

ARABS LAUDED BY CATHOLICS

Jews Accused Of Not Respecting Holy Places In War

Jerusalem, June 5 (AP)—Catholic dignitaries said tonight they had sent a protest to the Vatican that Jews consistently failed to respect holy places in the war in Jerusalem, while Arabs kept their word in this regard.

The telegram said Jewish attacks in the holy city were "for the purpose of occupying it and with the announced purpose to plunder it as they had done in Haifa, Tiberias and Jaffa."

It said they turned convents and a monastery into fortresses from which they "pour incessantly and without discrimination their fire on the holy city."

NIGHT

The telegram said Catholic protests to the Jerusalem Consular Truce Committee and representatives of the International Red Cross had been unavailing. The message was signed by Msgr. Vincent Gelat, apostolic administrator of the Latin patriarchate; Franciscan Father Alberto Gori, custodian of the Holy Land; Msgr. Michael Assaf, vicar general of the Greek Catholic patriarchate, and Vicar ames Chergossian of the Armenian Catholic patriarchate.

Text Of Telegram

[Representatives of the Latin and Greek patriarchates and of the Holy Land custodian were received in private audience by King Abdullah in Amman, Trans-Jordan, Saturday.

[There was no immediate comment from ewish sources.]

The text of the telegram to the Vatican:

"We, the heads of Catholic religious communities of Jerusalem, have the honor to submit for the information and consideration of the Holy See the following:

"Since the eighth of May the city of Jerusalem was enjoying all the benefits of the truce until Friday the fourteenth, when the Jews, without any previous notice and without any justifiable reason, broke the truce and started again attacking the Holy City.

"On Saturday morning, the fifthteenth, they occupied by force the convent of Notre Dame de France of the Assumptionist Fathers, the convent of the Reparatrice Sisters, as well as the French and Italian hospitals, in spite of the protests of the superiors and the display of the pontifical, French, Italian and International Red Cross flags.

Convents Are Hit

"On Tuesday, the eighteenth day of May, they occupied the Dormition monastery of the German Benedictine Fathers, the residence of the apostolic delegation, as well as the Franciscan convent of the Cenacle and the Greek convents of the Holy Trinity and St. George, all situated on Mount Zion.

"They have turned these convents and monastery into fortresses from where their mortars and other automatic arms pour incessantly and without discrimination their fire on the Holy City.

"The Church of the Holy Sepulchre as well as other churches and convents were also hit.

"Many priests, nuns, women and children, all noncombatants sheltered in convents have been either killed or wounded in the city of Jerusalem, which the whole civilized world respects and venerates.

No Fruitful Results On Protests

"The Arabs, volunteers or of the regular army, have promised to respect holy places, convents, churches and institutions of the Red Cross and they have kept their word up to the present. If they have occupied a certain convent, it was only to defend the holy city against the Jewish attackers who tried to penetrate and spread death and confusion.

"If the Arabs shelled Notre Dame de France and the Convent of the Reparatrice Sisters — which the Jews have themselves destroyed and burned—it was to return fire against their foe, who from these buildings fired on them and on the Holy City. The Jews have turned these convents and hospitals, as well as their synagogues and the Hebrew University, into military bases from where they attacked the Holy City for the purpose of occupying it and with the announced purpose to plunder it as they had done in Haifa, Tiberias and Jaffa.

"Our protests to the French, Belgian and American consuls, who form the Consular Truce Committee appointed by the Security Council, as well as to representatives of the International Red Cross, failed to give fruitful results."

CYPRUS SAYS ZIONISTS DELAYED ON SHIPPING

NICOSIA, Cyprus, June 5 (AP)—The Cyprus Government says that Zionist officials did not move to ship Jews from Cyprus to Palestine until after the United Nations had proposed an Arab-Jewish truce.

"Only after the truce had been proposed did the Jewish authorities state that they proposed to start the evacuation," said a Government statement issued last night.

NIGHT

The communiqué replied to what the Government called "misleading statements being made regarding the evacuation of Jewish illegals in Cyprus," a British island in the Mediterranean.

The 24,000 Jews detained on Cyprus were seized as they tried to get into Palestine without immigration certificates while Britain held the mandate. A committee of them has protested to the United Nations against a British decision not to let Jews of military age migrate from this island to Palestine during the truce period.

The Cyprus statement referred to that British decision and said that Zionist authorities were free to move out other detained Jews, numbering many thousands. It said they had the use of the ships Pan Crescent and Pan York under an agreement reached May 15 whereby the Jewish Agency for Palestine would convey out at least 10,000 Jews a month.

Moro Sympathy for Arabs

Philippines Holding Up 2,000 Visas to Visit Mecca

MANILA, June 5 (AP).—The Mahometan Moros of Mindanao Island were described today as sympathetic toward the Arab cause in Palestine but with no desire to aid the Arabs "physically or financially."

Salipadu Pendatun, chairman of the Senate Foreign Affairs Committee, said that owing to the Middle East situation, visas for 2,000 Moros to visit Mecca next month have been held up. He said Philippines officials were conferring with the American State Department regarding the advisability of allowing the pilgrims to proceed.

IMMIGRATION CURBS PEACE

Israeli Spokesman Sees Blow To Proposed Cease-Fire

Lake Success, N.Y., June 5 (AP)—An Israeli spokesman said today any effort to limit Jewish immigration would be a serious blow to the proposed Palestine cease-fire.

The new Israeli statement emphasizes once more the delicate nature of the cease-fire negotiations and indicated that the immigration issue might wreck the entire project.

Count Folke Bernadotte, United Nations mediator, informed the Security Council last night the immigration question alone was obstructing agreement on a truce date.

NIGHT

Israeli Spokesman Surprised

Bernadotte asked the Security Council for guidance in interpreting the cease-fire resolution of May 29. Faris el Khouri, of Syria, Council president for June, replied the Council had authorized the mediator to make his own interpretations of the resolution.

The Israeli spokesman expressed surprise that Bernadotte had asked for interpretation of the immigration clauses.

"The language and the intent of the resolution are clear," the statement said. "The original British proposal for a ban on men of military age was rejected by the Security Council and the resolution as adopted expressly permits men of military age to enter Israel freely provided they are not mobilized or trained during the four weeks' period of the armistice.)

"Israel has accepted this. If the Arabs do not accept it they are rejecting the resolution and must bear all the consequences. This is a crucial issue."

Flurry Over Swope's Letter

Meanwhile, it was disclosed that El Khouri conferred this forenoon with top United Nations officials on communications delays between here and Bernadotte's Cairo headquarters. El Khouri was understood to have been somewhat annoyed when he learned that the mediator still had received no official word last night on a Security Council decision taken Thursday afternoon.

There was a slight flurry at United Nations headquarters over Herbert Bayard Swope's letter to the New York Times suggesting that El Khouri should step down as president of the Security Council because of his special interest in the Palestine controversy as an Arab leader.

The only public notice of the Swope letter, however, came from the Israeli spokesman who said he was "astonished" that El Khouri had not voluntarily surrendered the chair.

Palestine Truce Is Snagged On Immigration

Lake Success, June 5 (AP)—Negotiations for setting a cease-fire hour in Palestine are stalled on the issue of Jewish immigration.

Mediator Count Folke Bernadotte told the United Nations last night the immigration question alone was obstructing a Jewish-Arab agreement on a four-week armistice. He said there was urgent need for the Security Council to interpret the immigration clauses of the truce resolution today.

Faris el Khouri, of Syria, Council president for June, thereupon called a special meeting for this morning. Twenty-six minutes later he called it off.

DAY

Request Is Withdrawn

Subsequently, the United Nations, in an official statement, explained that Bernadotte had withdrawn his request for an interpretation after getting more information from el Khouri, and that el Khouri then had canceled the meeting.

The Council president told the mediator, the statement said, that Bernadotte himself was authorized to interpret the truce resolution and need refer to the Council only if his interpretations were challenged. El Khouri reportedly felt that, for the Council to go into the question, would delay the truce perhaps two weeks.

Bernadotte said in his cablegram difficulties had arisen over the precise interpretation to be given to the phrases "fighting personnel" and "men of military age."

The Jews contend that unlimited immigration should go ahead during the four-week truce period with the understanding that persons coming into Palestine would not bear arms. The Arabs maintain that immigration of all able-bodied persons must be shut off to insure against the possibility that any of them will join Jewish fighting forces. (AP)

Red Press Lays Stress On Vote To Cut Aid

London, June 5 (AP)—Western Europe's Communist press made hay today out of the House of Representatives votes to slash European recovery funds.

Rome's Communist Unita asked in a headline "Who Can Trust Washington?" And the pro-Communist Socialist Avanti asserted "E.R.P. has become the game of international politics." The London Daily Worker said the House vote brought "near panic" to Wall Street.

In Vienna, the Russian Army paper Oesterreichische Zeitung headlined: "European aid cut 25 per cent—but budget for rearmament ten times greater than 1941."

"Black Day"

The Communist Volkstimme called yesterday "a black day for the Marshall satellites."

Other papers divided their reaction between bitter reproaches of Representative John Taber (R., N.Y.), House Appropriations Committee chairman, and warnings to their readers to tighten their belts again to meet aid cuts.

The London Evening News saw a ray of hope: "Senate may restore some of cuts."

Lord Beaverbrook's Evening Standard, which has advocated a British "No, thank you" for more United States help, offered neither comment nor news of the vote.

"Mere Gossip"

London's Daily Telegraph, conservative morning paper, accused Taber of using "mere gossip" and arguing with "palpable nonsense" against the full amount of aid for Britain.

The liberal Manchester Evening News asserted that "Mr. Taber seems to be claiming the right to use the Marshall plan as a weapon to denounce—perhaps even oust—a particular government. This is the kind of interference which Europe cannot tolerate."

In Brussels, the Rightist daily Le Phare said "even if the cut proposals are not adopted, Europe will have the bad impression that the United States is not ready to fulfill its engagements."

Reich Reds Warn Countrymen

Berlin, June 5 (AP)—German Communists today openly threatened revenge against their countrymen who help create a western German state.

The threat was made by an official of the Communist-controlled "German People's Congress." It was published in the Russian-controlled Berliner Zeitung under the big headline: "Woe to Those Germans Who Assist."

This was accompanied by a broad-scale propaganda attack in Soviet-controlled newspapers against the London six-nation conferees, who were accused of permanently partitioning Germany.

Unity Held Certain

"The London conference decisions cannot permanently prevent the unification of Germany," declared Prof. Hermann Kastner, one of the chiefs of the Communistic People's Congress.

"But woe to the Germans who support this partition of Germany. They bear a heavy responsibility in history. We in eastern Germany must do all in our power to be prepared for the moment of Germany's reuniting, and this moment will come because it is an historic necessity."

[The United States, Britain, France and the Low Countries plan to publish Monday a formal report on this week's London agreement, it was reported in Washington. The six nations are expected to issue a statement of what they agreed on rather than the formal text of their agreement. The announcement is expected to be made simultaneously in all six capitals.]

British and United States diplomats in London reported that Russia will be given a copy of the document before it is made public.

Red Chief Back, Prague Hears

PRAGUE, June 5 (AP).—A rumor circulated today that Soviet Vice Foreign Minister M. A. Zorin was back in Prague. He was here last February at the time the Communists seized power in Czecho-Slovakia.

The rumor was accompanied by a second one to the effect that President Eduard Benes would resign next week. Neither rumor could be confirmed. The Foreign Office said: "Nothing is known of Mr. Zorin being here."

Official figures issued today indicated how many citizens opposed the Communist-led single ticket in last Sunday's election.

Before the election the Interior Ministry said there were 8,005,887 registered voters. Today it said there were 7,998,035. Of that number 774,032 voted blank ballots as a protest, 220,487 deposited empty envelopes and 512,796 did not vote, the Ministry said.

Rumor Benes Will Quit This Week Stirs Prague

PRAGUE, June 5 (AP).—Czechoslovakia's capital buzzed with rumors today that President Eduard Benes would resign next week and that Valerian A. Zorin, Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister, was back in Prague. He was in Prague at the time the Communists seized power in February.

Neither rumor could be confirmed. The Foreign Minister said, "Nothing is known of Mr. Zorin being here."

Official figures issued today indicated how many citizens voted "against" at the single-ticket election last Sunday.

The Ministry of the Interior, before the election, announced there were 8,005,887 registered voters. Today it said there were 7,998,035. Besides 774,032 who voted blank ballots as a protest, the ministry listed 220,487 who deposited empty envelopes and 512,796 who did not vote.

U. S. MAN REPORTED BEATEN BY REDS

Vienna, June 5 (AP)—Authoritative British sources said today Russian soldiers abducted an American counter-intelligence agent Thursday night and beat him severely before releasing him the next day.

The American provost marshal's office refused to comment on the report of the incident, said to have occurred in the British sector of Vienna.

Incident Described

British sources said this is what happened:

Two British military police interfered when they saw a man trying to force a girl into an automobile. A second man, later identified as a United States counter-intelligence agent, ran up and attacked the first man. The girl, an employé of the American Army, fled. She had been asked by the Russians to spy for them.

The military police loaded the two men into a car and headed for headquarters, but en route the men began fighting again; so the MP's stopped at the nearest Austrian police station.

Took Men Away

While the two were being questioned a Russian officer and ten enlisted men, all heavily armed, entered the station and, after a short argument, took both men away.

Witnesses reported they saw the Russians beat one of the men as they left the station. The British said it was the American agent.

Greeks Attack 400 Guerrillas

SALONIKA, June 5 (AP).—Greek Army officials said today their troops had begun the task of clearing 400 guerrillas from remote mountain areas on the Khaldike peninsula, thirty-four miles east of Salonika. Colonel Temple Holland, of Dallas, Tex., chief of the American military aid detachment with the Greek 3d Army, said airplanes will be used to direct artillery fire against the guerrillas.

YUGOSLAV PLANE RETURNS

Four Who Forced Crew Off Its Course Remain in Italy

ROME, June 5 (AP)—A Yugoslav civilian plane whose crew was forced at pistol point to land at Bari on Thursday took off today for Yugoslavia.

Three of its passengers and the wireless operator, who forced the plane to depart from its Belgrade-Sarajevo course, were in a refugee camp near Bari. They told Italian authorities they wished to flee Yugoslavia for political reasons.

Ansa, Italian news agency, said that the plane carried nineteen passengers and five crewmen on its homeward flight.

Maritain Puts Off U. S. Trip

VATICAN CITY, June 5 (AP).—Jacques Maritain, French Ambassador to the Holy See, who was to leave tomorrow for the United States, has delayed his departure until June 15 or 16, when he will sail on the Vulcania, it was announced today. Mr. Maritain will teach at Princeton University.

500 Protest Nationalization of Catholic Schools

BUDAPEST, Hungary, June 5 (AP)—Angered over state plans to nationalize church - sponsored schools, 500 villagers in Pocspetri attacked the police station and killed one policeman, the Ministry of Interior said today.

The Ministry said twenty-eight persons had been arrested and martial law would be proclaimed in the village.

Minister of Education Guyula Ortutay sent a letter to Josef Cardinal Mindszenty blaming the Catholic church for country wide agitation against the nationalization of parochial schools. He demanded that the Cardinal "immediately put an end to this agitation." (AP)

Chinese Quell Anti-American Demonstration

Police and Troops Arrest 30 Shanghai Students as Nanking Calls for Order

NANKING, June 5 (AP).—China supported with words and action today American Amabassador J. Leighton Stuart's strong criticism of student agitation against America.

Police and troops at Shanghai broke up a demonstration by several thousand students in front of United States naval forces headquarters on the bund. Thirty students were arrested.

The students had planned a much larger demonstration to protest against American economic revival of Japan. Thousands of heavily armed police and troops forestalled them. Armed with automatic weapons and bayonets, the troops stepped in quickly and threw cordons about all major universities at Shanghai. This penned up most of the students on the campuses.

Education Vice-Minister Han Li-hwu told the board of directors of Nanking University that the demonstrations were "most deplorable." Informed sources said his speech had the indorsement of Foreign Minister Wang Shih-chieh.

Wang himself issued a statement saying he was convinced "there is no ill feeling on the part of the general public in China toward the United States" as a result of American policy toward Japan.

"Admittedly," he said, "how to reconcile safeguards against a resurgence of militarism with Japan's needs for a self-supporting economy is a delicate task and is liable to lead to differences of opinion among the governments concerned.

"Though China and the United States may hold different views with regard to the disposal of cer-

Belief that the United States is permitting Japan to rearm gave rise to the student demonstrations which Mr. Stuart denounced at a special press conference yesterday. With the backing of the State Department, he declared such demonstrations were damaging traditional American-Chinese friendship.

to differences of opinion among the governments concerned.

"Though China and the United States may hold different views in regard to disposal of certain categories of Japanese industries, I am convinced neither of the two Governments would countenance Japanese rearmament."

Wang said some apprehension of misunderstanding of United States policy toward Japan might exist in the minds of "certain people."

First criticism of Stuart's statement came from Prof. Liu Pu-tung,

Protest At U.S. Policy Disavowed By Nanking

Nanking, June 5 (AP)—The Chinese Government disowned student anti-American agitation today.

New demonstrations broke out in Shanghai, however, where several thousand students gathered in front of United States Navy headquarters to shout disapproval of United States policy in Japan. Police thwarted plans for an even larger demonstration.

Foreign Minister Wang Shih-chieh expressed conviction there is no ill feeling on the part of the general public toward United States efforts to revive Japan.

Called "Deplorable"

Another Government spokesman, Han Lih-wu, Vice Minister of Education, termed "most deplorable" any efforts to fan anti-American feeling on the pretext of attacking United States aid to Japan. He spoke before Nanking University directors.

Neither Wang nor Han referred directly to denunciation of the students' campaign by United States Ambassador L. Leighton Stuart at a special press conference yesterday. Stuart warned the agitatio nmay have "unfortunate results" if it continues.

The Foreign Minister, in a statement, said "our desire is neither for revival of militarism in Japan nor letting her be turned into a hotbed of communism."

CHIANG TROOPS REPORT GAINS

Claim Central China Victory, Admit Losses In Shantung

Nanking, June 5 (AP)—The Chinese Government claimed victory today in "the Battle of the Plains" in Central China but conceded alarming setbacks in Shantung Province in the East.

A military spokesman asserted the Nationalists not only won the plains battle but smashed a Communist attempt to break into agricultural Szechwan Province, with its wartime capital of Chunking.

In both engagement Government troops rushed north from Hankow were pitted against soldiers of Gen. Liu Po-cheng, skilled Red tactician.

The "Battle of the Plains" was fought 190 miles northwest of Hankow, major Government base. Press accounts had said 100,000 Communists were engaged. The spokesman gave no details of the reputed victory.

Bridgeheads Wiped Out

About 170 miles to the southwest two Communist bridgeheads across the Han river at Paiho were wiped out by concentrated bombings, the spokesman told a news conference.

Setbacks multiplied in Shantung Province, where the Government rapidly was losing control of the Tientsin-Pukow Railway. This line connects Nanking with Peiping and Tientsin in North China.

The railway city of Tzeyang, in South Shantung, was isolated and the line cut both to the north and south, official sources said.

CATHOLIC MISSION ISOLATED IN CHINA

Nanking, June 5 (A. P.).—The civil war stranded more than 200 Catholic missionaries, including five Americans, at Tzeyang, Shantung, as the Communist forces today battled to within fifteen miles of Tsinan, the provincial capital. The Reds cut the railway line above and below Tzeyang, the site of one of the largest missions in eastern China. The town is reported, however, to be a Government army headquarters; as such it will probably be well defended.

The Communists seized Tawenkou, fifty miles northeast of Tsinan and heavy fighting was reported at Wanteh. Farther south the Communists attacked Chuyeh. Government planes were stated to have beaten back Communist forces attempting to cross the River Han at Paiho in Honan, Central China.

Meanwhile today the Government disowned the anti-American student agitation in China, but almost at the same moment new demonstrations occurred in Shanghai, where several thousand students gathered in front of United States Navy headquarters to shout disapproval of American policy in Japan. Foreign Minister Wang Shih-chieh expressed the conviction that there is no ill-feeling on the part of the general public toward America's efforts to revive Japan.

Hanoi Regime In French Union

Hanoi, Indo-China, June 5 (AP)—The French-sponsored central provisional Viet Nam government was proclaimed today aboard a French warship off Haiphong.

A treaty signed aboard the ship admitted the government into the "French union." It has has its premier an officer in the French Army.

The Viet Nam republic headed by President Ho Chi Minh has called the new regimé a puppet government. The republic has been fighting against French rule in Indo-China.

The new regimé was set up in opposition to the republic. Its existance was proclaimed without an election.

Bao Dai's Status Unclear

The treaty linking the government with the French union was signed by Emile Bollaert, French High Commissioner, former Emperor Bao Dai and Premier Nguyen Xuan, a lieutenant general in the French Army.

Bao Dai read the proclamation. His imperial colors, a red dragon embroidered on yellow, floated beside the tricolor of the French republic and the new flag of Xuan's government, yellow with red stripes.

Bao Dai's own status was left unclear. Although referred to as "his majesty" he was not listed in the new government. He abdicated shortly after the end of the Japanese occupation in 1945. He ran unopposed in the elections held by the Viet Nam republic and was made a member of its government. But subsequently he exiled himself to the British colony of Hong Kong.

A British Catalina flying boat took Bao Dai from Hong Kong to the warship where the signing was held. The vessel was surrounded by other units of the French fleet.

Rivalry Emphasized

Sporadic fighting between the French and the Republican forces has been in progress since the end of World War II and flared into open military operations in December, 1946.

Emphasizing its rivalry with the Republic, the new Government provisionally fixed its seat at Hanoi—the capital from which Republican forces were driven by the French in February, 1947.

The proclamation said the new regime will have a constitutional assembly "as soon as the circumstances permit." Meanwhile, the Government is to be assisted by a high privy council whose composition and functions will be announced later, a provisional assembly and a joint economic council, half French.

Xuan is to appoint the governor of each province. Each governor will name a provicial assembly to assist him.

France Signs Pact With Indo-China

Paris, June 5 (AP)—A treaty signed today in Indo-China officially admitted into the "French Union" the new French-sponsored Central Provisional Viet-Nam Government which is expected to restore the former Emperor of Annam to his throne.

The French Press Agency said the pact was signed on a French warship off Haiphong by Emile Bollaert, French high commissioner for Indo-China, former Emperor Bao Dai, and Lieut. Gen. Nguyen Xuan, Premier of the Central Government.

Opposes Red Regime

The Viet-Nam Central Government was set up this month by designated delegates from French-controlled regions in opposition to the unrecognized Viet-Nam Republic of Moscow-trained Premier Ho Chi-minh, which is still battling French forces.

The treaty recognizes that "the independence of the Viet-Nam has no limits other than those imposed by belonging to the French Union." It left questions of financial, economic, military, cultural and diplomatic sovereignty to be settled in later agreements.

Bao Dai abdicated in 1945 to take a post in Ho Chi-minh's Government, but soon went into exile at Hong Kong, where he has been living since. The Ho forces have branded Xuan a traitor, and the provisional government as a puppet.

Hodge Demands Soviet Apology For Shooting

Seoul, June 5 (AP)—Lieut. Gen. John R. Hodge demanded a full apology from the Russians today for the shooting of an American Military Government employé by North Korean constabulary men May 26.

The American, Kirl S. Smith, of Huntington, W.Va., was wounded four times superficially shortly after he and two others had inspected a dam near the thirty-eighth parallel. That is the boundary line between the Russian occupation zone in North Korea and the United States zone, which Hodge commands.

Hodge, in a letter to the Soviet occupation commander, Lieut. Gen. G. P. Korotkov, said investigation showed Smith was about 30 yards south of the boundary line when the constabulary men opened fire without provocation. Hodge described the incident as "a very serious matter."

Ask For Punishment

"I demand that you make full and appropiate apologies and that the offenders be apprehended and punished," he added.

In the past, the Soviet commander has chosen to ignore official protests from the American zone—including repeated requests for negotiations to settle the question of North Korean electrical power for South Korea. The power was cut off last month, ostensibly because of a dispute over the method of payment. Hodge blamed political motives.

India, Pakistan Solving Problems

New Delhi, India, June 5 (AP)—India and Pakistan, born in bloodshed and hatred ten months ago, are learning slowly to live as peaceful neighbors.

Rumors have spread that Hindu-Moslem fighting may break out in communal riots again in mid-June and security precautions are being tightened. These rumors have spread from Hindu refugees living in India who say they have heard outrage sagain will be perpetrated against Hindus still living in Pakistan and that revenge must be prepared against Moslems still living in India.

The hard lot of the refugees contributes to the danger of new outbreaks, but the fact remains that the situation has quieted remarkably in recent months.

Fear Outside Interference

Economic circumstances and the danger of outside interference have been compelling factors in the India-Pakistan peace.

The new dominions have a wary eye on their Russian neighbors. High officials of both, speaking off the record, say they have little fear of invasion by Soviet armies. Their fear is of invasion by communist ideology.

They believe communism thrives on trouble and offers no hope for their people. They believe that ultimately all roads lead to Moscow for countries accepting the doctrine of communism, and both dominions have had enough of foreign domination. They want none of it.

Old Tensions Eased

Officially, the leaders speak of a variety of other reasons for improved India-Pakistan relations and rarely mention Russia openly in that respect.

The two countries are not smothering each other with embraces of brotherly love. Far from it. They still glower across their frontiers, and the leaders make frequent statements that are militant and provocative.

But old tensions have eased greatly, and the threat of a real shooting war that arose from the sporadic fighting in the northern state of Kashmir has subsided.

Since Independence Day, August 15, 1947, the dominions have clamped a lid on religious rioting among the Moslem and non-Moslem communities. They signed an agreement for the protection of religious minorities.

Checked Refugees

They stopped the paralyzing rush of refugees from the trouble areas which gave them together the problem of finding homes and a livelihood for 12,000,000 displaced persons.

They settled amicably the problem of division of the finances and assets of the old united India. They completed a friendly one-year trade agreement. Now, jointly, they are attempting to work out with Britain a settlement of the Empire's sterling debt to them, which is estimated at 1,200,000,000 pounds ($4,800,000,000).

Each dominion has made strides also in solving domestic problems. This has not been done spectacularly. It has made a slowly unfolding story which command small daily attention in the world press. But it is significant for all that.

India has chosen a course toward the Left and is following it cautiously. Premier Jawaharlal Nehru's Government frankly is seeking a compromise between militant Socialists and middle-of-the-roaders, warning that socialism must come slowly to avoid upsetting the economic structure.

In Pakistan Leftists have little influence on the government, which is kept in tight check by Governor General Mahomed Ali Jinnah.

Recently, the Moscow New Times called both India's controlling Congress party and Pakistan's Moslem League "Tory imperialists blindly following an anti-people's policy." Both governments silently noted the article.

When the British quit India last August they left behind 606 independent princely states whose rules' word was law to nearly a quarter of the 400,000,000 people in this sub-continent.

One State Aloof

Today only Hyderabad, the princely state with a Moslem ruler and a Hindu majority population, has refused to surrender its sovereignty and join either Pakistan or the Indion Union and give representative government to its subjects.

More than 550 maharajahs have been retired on pensions, and their states have been grouped into the union with the status of provinces.

Hard-fisted bargaining behind the scenes attended this achievement, which Nehru said was India's most important immediate task.

Next, he said, come projects assuring the people freedom from want and freedom from foreign economic domination. He has declared that Asia must industrialize to prosper, and that foreign help is needed in that task but that such help is not acceptable if it involves foreign domination of industry.

Both Nehru and Jinnah warned the people early that the fruits of freedom would ripen slowly. But they did not then anticipate how slowly.

They did not then anticipate the bloody riots in the Punjab which in three months killed 50,000 people and caused uncalculated deaths among the refugees.

There has been no major riot since Mohandas K. Gandhi was slain January 30 after his fast in protest against communal disturbances. But in some sections it still is an uneasy peace that makes recovery difficult.

Becomes Major Problem

The mass movement of refugees required first emergency care and then a long-range program of resettling the people in areas where they could be self-supporting, helping them to find land to till, houses to occupy, businesses to tend.

Unexpectedly this has become a major part of the freedom-from-want campaign, taking money and energies from the general program to raise living standards in this land where the average monthly wage is below the American daily wage.

The refugee concentrations quickly became slums, which the governments are slowly clearing by resettlement on farms, establishment of new villages and construction of barracks or other housing.

Had Heavy Expenses

Amid this turmoil, both governments had to contend with shortages of capital goods, steel, rail and motor transports, and dollars. They had to spend heavily for food imports to avert famines.

Reluctantly the leaders concede that living conditions generally have failed to improve even to the modest degree hoped for in the first year of freedom. Big industrial and irrigation programs, too, have not made the progress hoped.

But they say they believe a sound start has been made and has proved their countries worthy of self-government. They say bright days are ahead if peace can be preserved and if the people will co-operate.

PROTESTS ON KASHMIR

New Delhi, June 5 (A. P.).—India protested today to the United Nations Security Council against an order extending the jurisdiction of the Kashmir Commission.

Premier Jawaharlal Nehru said India's Government "wish to record emphatic protest and refuse to acquiesce" in the order, issued Thursday to the commission about to take up the conflicting claims of India and Pakistan to the Princely State of Kashmir.

An advance party of the U. N. commission sailed from New York yesterday after the commission received Security Council orders to use its discretion as to when it should take up other issues in dispute between the two dominions. The commission was told to look into Pakistan's complaints against India concerning charges of genocide, failure to carry out agreements and the question of the State of Junagadh, once Moslem-ruled, which India claims as a result of a plebiscite. Pakistan refuses to recognize the plebiscite.

Nehru, calling Pakistan's complaints baseless, said the charges did not constitute a threat to peace and thus were outside the Security Council's jurisdiction.

Indonesia Action Postponed

Ootacamund, India, June 5 (AP)—The United Nations Economic Commission for Asia and the Far East postponed today for the second time consideration of the application for associate membership for the republic of Indonesia.

The commission is to take up the application again Wednesday. It was filed by the republic and the Netherlands Government.

India amended a resolution offered by the Philippines which would have tabled consideration until the next session of the commission. The amendment carried, 8 to 4. Russia seconded the Indian motion to amend.

Deliberate Avoidance

India said to postpone the issue longer would be deliberate avoidance.

The Netherlands seeks the admission of the Netherlands East Indies as a whole with the republic of Indonesia, and has told the conference the Dutch intend "to create as soon as possible the sovereign United States of Indonesia." The Dutch refused to retreat from this position.

The Philippines delegate said his nation sympathized with the aspirations of the Indonesian Republic.

"We feel unhappy," the delegate said, "to see the inevitable process of emancipation of all colonial areas taking place outside the framework of peaceful constitutional means."

Russian Contention

Russia contended that the problem is one of substance, and not of procedure, as the United States has maintained, adding that "America has forgotten she herself once was dominated by the British."

The Soviet Union disputed the inclusion of the commission general for Southeast Asia in the consulting agencies of the commission. Russia said the commission general "functions for British interests."

SOUTH AFRICA BARS U. N. INTERFERENCE

Johannesburg, Union of South Africa, June 5 (AP)—South Africa's new prime minister has served notice his nation will not permit interference in its domestic affairs by the United Nations.

Dr. D. F. Malan, who replaced Field Marshall Jan Christian Smuts as first minister as a result of the recent election, gave the Union's position in a radio address last night. He said:

"In regard to our membership in the United Nations . . . we wish to emphasize that we, in company with our predecessors in office, accepted the clear understanding that there was to be neither external interference in our domestic affairs nor any tampering with our autonomous rights. . . .

"We shall steadfastly refuse to allow any country, power or organization to determine our destinies—that being a right we reserve to ourselves as a free and independent nation."

2,500 Philippine Claims Settled Daily

Manila, June 5 (AP)—The United States War Damage Commission reported on its second anniversary today it is settling Philippine claims at a rate of 2,500 a day.

In a report to President Truman and Elpidio Quirino, the commission predicted it would complete the distribution of $400,000,000 well in advance of April 30, 1951—the deadline set by Congress.

By June 1, the commission had settled 81,900 claims with payment of $16,930,000. It has been giving priority to claims of farmers and small property holders. Partial payment of large industrial claims will be made soon to speed the islands' recovery.

Butler to Present Credentials.

Havana, June 5 A. P.).—The presidential palace announced today that United States Ambassador Robert Butler of St. Paul, Minn., would present credentials Tuesday to President Ramon Grau San Martin.

ECA APPROVES MORE CARGOES

O.K.'s $33,638,370 In Food, Commodities For Europe

Washington, June 5 (AP)—A $33,638,370 authorization of new food and commodity shipments was announced today by the Economic Co-Operation Administration. It thus maintained its steady flow of recovery goods to Europe despite a House-voted cut in foreign-aid funds.

British-American zones in Germany and the free city of Trieste showed up on the list of receiving countries for the first time. Bizonia Germany will get $3,000,000 worth of fruits and vegetables from Italy, paid for by this country.

Trieste will receive wheat flour and other goods valued at $1,844,-

457, mostly from the United States. The other new allocations go to Norway, Italy, Austria, Greece, France, Denmark and the Netherlands.

NIGHT

Senate Action Awaited

Approvals last week hit the full spending rate which would use up in twelve moths the $6,533,710,288 which the Truman Administration asked.

ECA spokesmen had no comment today on the effect of last night's House vote to slash that amount to $5,980,710,288 and spread it over fifteen months. They said they would wait on the Senate's action.

The new approvals bring to $287,640,924 the total of purchase authorizations for the European Recovery Program, to be financed by American grants or loans.

In the total are nearly $81,000,000 worth of wheat, $24,000,000 of wheat flour, $53,700,000 of coal and $28,745,000 of cotton and other fibers.

Approvals By Countries

By countries, the new approvals include:

NORWAY—Inedible tallow, $39,000; to be purchased here by the Norwegian Government.

ITALY—Coal, $13,310,000; to be bought here by the Italian Government.

BIZONIA GERMANY—Lemons, oranges, grapes, apples, potatoes, and other foods, $3,000,000: to be purchased in Italy by the United States Army.

GREECE—Wheat, $3,675,905; to be purchased here by the Agriculture Department.

DENMARK—Sesame seeds, $37,000; to be purchased in Portuguese West Africa by the Danish Government.

Cargoes For Austria

AUSTRIA—Wheat flour, $2,169,480; streptomycin, $70,000, and wheat, $3,733,027, all to be purchased here by United States agencies; nickel ore, $35,001, to be purchased in Canada by the United States Treasury; superphosphate, $314,000, to be purchased in Belgium, Switzerland or the Netherlands by the Austrian Government; whale oil, $1,216,000, to be purchased in Norway by the Austrian Government; basic slag, $320,000, to be purchased in Belgium or Luxembourg.

FRANCE—Lard, $1,146,000, and inedible tallow, $577,500, to be purchased here by the French Government; sesame seeds, $840,000, to be bought in Nicaragua by the French Government.

TRIESTE—Coconut oil, $55,990; tallow, $38,001; wheat flour, $1,230,693; coal, $264,000; lard, $137,000; colophony (resin), $2,775, all to be purchased here by United States agencies; and canned Mexican beef, $115,998, to be bought by the Agriculture Department.

Dutch To Purchase

NETHERLANDS—Steel mill products, $1,000,000; penicillin and toher drugs, $250,000; crossties, $61,000; all to be purchased here by the Netherlands Government.

The purchase total announced by ECA includes shipments approved for China, which, like Trieste, is administered separately from the European Recovery Program. Chinese aid to date totals $5,700,880.

The totals for the European countries under the Foreign Aid Act are: Italy, $62,009,376; France, $110,989,366; Britain, $42,200,000; Austria, $22,310,672; Netherlands, $22,153,630; Greece, $14,614,543; Bizonia Germany, $3,000,000; Norway, $2,253,000; Denmark, $565,000.

Wants To Appear On Aid Slash: Vandenberg

Washington, June 5 (AP)—Senator Vandenberg (R., Mich.) today asked the Senate Appropriations Committee for permission to testify personally in the fight to restore a $1,000,000,000 slash in foreign-aid funds made by the House yesterday.

"I am requesting the earliest possible opportunity to appear before the committee," Vandenberg said.

This unusual course indicated the chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee will take personal command of efforts in the Senate to put back funds struck from the Europe-Asia aid money bill passed by the House yesterday.

DAY

"Fighting Mad"

Vandenberg did not elaborate on his statement but he was described by friends as "fighting mad" over the blow dealt the foreign aid program which was piloted through Congress largely by his efforts.

The pending bill carries the funds to pay for this program.

The Michigan Senator is not a member of the Appropriations Committee and previously has declined to take any part in its action in providing the funds to carry out various international programs which Congress has authorized.

By voice vote the House last night approved a $5,980,710,228 total to be spread out over 15 months. The Administration had set $6,533,710,228 as the minimum for a twelve-month period.

Reversal Predicted

Senator Connally (D., Texas), ranking minority member on Vandenberg's Foreign Relations Committee, predicted flatly that the House action would be reversed by the Senate.

Senator Bridges (R., N.H.), chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee, which will consider the bill before the Senate votes on it, did not comment.

House passage came after a bipartisan group led by Representatives Dirksen (R., Ill.) and Rayburn (D., Texas) lost a spirited fight to put the trimmed fund on a twelve-month basis and thus lessen the cash reduction. This move was defeated, 148 to 113.

Blow To Democracies

They argued that for Congress to run out on a previous commitment would shake the faith of European democracies in the United States and strengthen Russia's campaign to communize western Europe.

Rayburn, former speaker of the House, said in one of his infrequent speeches:

"Let's carry out to the people who want to be our friends the promise they thought we made to them only a few weeks ago.

"I plead with you not to do too little now. It will cause smiles of derision at us in the Politburo in Moscow."

This echoed Secretary of State Marshall's statement yesterday that the House cut would turn the European aid program into "a mere relief project."

But Chairman Taber (R., N.Y.) whose Appropriations Committee drafted the slash, maintained that the total approved would be sufficient if properly handled. He and other Republicans said American taxpayers are already overburdened.

Although the actual cash cut was only $533,000,000 below Administration requests, Taber estimated the overall reduction at "a little more than $1,000,000,000," since the funds must last three more months than originally planned.

Senate's O. K. Expected On Trade Pact for Year

WASHINGTON, June 5 (AP).—Chairman Eugene D. Millikin (R., Colo.) of the Senate Finance Committee today called it "good speculation" that the group would approve a one-year extension of the reciprocal trade agreement act.

He thought it likely that the bill "can be supported by both sides."

The Administration wants a three-year continuation of the act, under which trade pacts with various countries are negotiated.

HOUSE MEASURE

The House has voted a one-year extension. The Tariff Commission also would be given a major say-so in deciding how much duties would be cut. And in case a reduction put into effect by the Administration was greater than the tariff commission recommended, Congress would be able to veto it.

Under the present plan, the President has the final word on such tariff cuts, after a committee from Government agencies has submitted recommendations.

NIGHT

EXTENSION A 'MUST'

Millikin said that while the Administration wants a flat three-year extension, some Senate supporters of the program would settle for a one-year extension. The present program expires next Saturday but Republican Congressional leaders have labeled some form of extension a "must."

The big issue is whether findings of the Tariff Commission "should be mandatory or advisory," Millikin told a reporter.

"Personally I'm willing to take out the Congressional review," he added.

CLAYTON APPEAL

Will Clayton, former Undersecretary of State and now special adviser to Secretary of State George C. Marshall, got in the Administration's final appeal today as hearings on the measure were concluded by the Senate Finance Committee.

Clayton said he thought the Nation had "graduated" from that point in its history where high tariffs were believed necessary to protect "infant industries."

And he added that at no time within the foreseeable future will this country obtain enough goods from foreign countries to "endanger our local established markets."

JUN 1948

Last-Ditch Plea Made To Save Trade Pacts

Washington, June 5 (AP)—The Senate will kill the reciprocal-trade program if it accepts restrictions voted by the House, a State Department expert said today.

Will Clayton, special adviser to Secretary of State Marshall, made a last-ditch appeal to the Senate Finance Committee for a three-year extension of the Trade Pact Act unchanged. It expires next Saturday.

The committee was winding up hearings on the legislation, marked "must" by GOP leaders.

The House has voted a one-year extension that would give Congress a veto in case a reduction exceeds Tariff Commission recommendations.

DAY

Names Six Countries

Clayton denied claims of some Senators that an extension of one year instead of three, with restriction, is not important because most trade pacts already are concluded.

He said that six of the sixteen western European nations coming under the vast European aid program do not have reciprocal trade pacts with the United States.

They must enter into agreements to lower trade barriers with this country and among themselves, Clayton said, in order to share in the aid program.

He named the six as Austria, Denmark, Greece, Ireland, Italy and Portgual.

Denies "Free Trade" Basis

Senators George (D., Ga.) and Hawkes (R., N.J.) said questions have been raised about "free trade" conditions for aid.

Clayton said there is no requirement for "free trade" but only for reduction of trade barriers as soon as agreements can be negotiated.

Clayton said that outside Germany and Russia, European production now is back to prewar volume.

But he said it must increase to 140 per cent of prewar to put Europe on a self-sustaining basis because of higher prices and loss of other income. Trade barriers must be removed, he added.

Replies To Millikin

Chairman Millikin (R., Col.) asked what would happen if a "new burden was imposed on the Tariff Commission" to check on any trade agreement with the six nations.

That is one of the House amendments which some GOP Senate leaders favor. At present tariff cuts are determined by an interagency group and approved by the President without reference to Congress.

Clayton said this would cause delays that would "practically scuttle the whole reciprocal trade agreements program."

Senator Byrd (D., Va.) spoke out against the House-passed bill.

"I don't want to go back to the horse-trading days of the Hawley-Smoot tariff law," Byrd said.

Millikin said he hopes to get his committee together for a vote Monday. The Republican leadership has slated the bill for Senate action next week.

FARM PRICES CONTROL O.K.'D BY COMMITTEE

House Agriculture Group Moves To Retain Supports On Products

Washington, June 5 (AP)—The House Agriculture Committee voted today to hold the price supports of hogs, poultry and eggs at not less than 90 per cent of parity.

It approved an amendment to the general farm price support continuation legislation throwing out part of a previous formula that would have allowed the prices on these three farm products to drop as low as 60 per cent of parity.

"Parity" is a price intended to return to farmers an income carrying a purchasing power—in relation to other segments of the economy—comparable to some past favorable period for agriculture, usually 1909-14.

NIGHT

Vote Due Next Week

The legislation, continuing the farm price supports to June 30, 1950, comes to a vote in the House next week. As revised by the committee today, it provides:

1. Price supports at 90 per cent of parity for the six basic commodities—cotton, wheat, corn, tobacco, rice and peanuts. These supports now are at 90 per cents with the exception of cotton which is at 92.5 per cent.

2. Also, supports at not less than 90 per cent of parity for milk and milk products, hogs, poultry and eggs. These supports could run higher if the Secretary of Agriculture deems this necessary to bring out larger production.

Milk Supports Assigned

Milk and milk products were assigned a support floor of not less than 90 per cent of parity when the Agriculture Committee first approved the bill April 16.

3. Supports ranging from 60 per cent of parity to the highest support level in force for 1948 for certain nonbasic commodities, including dry beans and peas, soy beans, flaxseed, potatoes and other perishables.

This would permit the Secretary to reduce supports to prevent surpluses of these crops as well as to boost them when more production is needed.

4. Continuous supports on wool as now authorized in separate legislation.

Truman Signs Export Control Bill

Washington, June 5 (A. P.).—President Truman signed today legislation continuing present allocation and export and import controls over tin, antimony, rice, fats and oils and nitrogenous fertilizer.

DAY

For nitrogenous fertilizers, the measure provides specifically that Army Department nitrogen plants shall manufacture 50 per cent of all such fertilizers shipped to non-occupied countries coming under the foreign aid program.

6 Nations to Report On Reich Accord

WASHINGTON, June 5 (AP).—The United States, Britain, France and the Low Countries plan to publish Monday a formal report on this week's London agreement for the future economic and political development of Germany.

Diplomatic officials indicated today that the six nations would issue a statement of what they agreed on rather than the formal text of their agreement. The announcement is expected to be made simultaneously here and in the five other capitals.

The London conference resulted in Western Power agreements for forming a federalized Western German government, joint control and distribution of Ruhr production and other measures designed to provide full Western German cooperation in the European Recovery Program on a self-supporting basis.

ATOM GROUP PLANS $2,000,000 DEVICE

Commission To Build Machine For 12,000 Volts

Washington, June 5 (AP)—The Atomic Energy Commission is going to build a $2,000,000 machine to make 12,000,000 volts as part of its research on nuclear physics.

Officially the device is known as an electrostatic accelerator "designed to yield positive ions with energies up to 12,000,000 electron volts." It is expected to be the largest and most powerful machine of its type in the world, the commission said.

NIGHT

Requiring two years to construct, it will be built at the University of California scientific laboratory at Los Alamos, N.M.

The commission said the accelerator can enable scientists to obtain more precise data on the properties of light and complex nuclei.

Column 25 Feet High

The basic mechanism of the device will be contained in a vertical column 25 feet high. The lower 20 feet consists of a stack of 150 steel plates 40 inches in diameter, insulated from one another.

There will be a rectangular slot within the column of plates. Inside the slot a 30-inch-wide cotton belt will move. It will be driven at a mile-a-minute speed by a 100-horsepower motor.

An electric charge sprayed on the belt at the base is carried to the top and then removed from the belt. A very high voltage is thus built up, the commission explained.

Carried to two tubes, the high charge is then focused into a sharp beam, for use in various experiments.

U. S. Will Tighten 'Voice' Controls

WASHINGTON, June 5 (AP).—Because the "Know North America" broadcasts made Congress so mad, the State Department is getting ready to revise and tighten its whole system of farming out overseas programs to commercial networks.

Officials said today that new "Voice of America" contracts with the National Broadcasting Co. and the Columbia Broadcasting System would provide:

NIGHT

1. The State Department itself will write and control, through an expanded staff, all official news and commentary beamed to foreign listeners.

2. Entertainment and special features such as the travelogue series in Spanish for Latin America which backfired in Congress, will be contracted for individually. They will be tailored to official specifications and carefully reviewed, much as a radio sponsor goes over a domestic commercial program in advance.

Assistant Secretary George V. Allen said the purpose is to nail down any chance of another incident such as the episode which resulted in this week's Senate and House inquiries.

"We're giving top priority to means of assuring adequate controls and a high standard of quality for all programs," Allen said.

NBC and CBS are being paid about $760,000 each for broadcasting some 70 per cent of the programs to other lands, over the ten months ending June 30. Active negotiations for new contracts, which may scale down their present role substantially, are expected to start next week.

The altered terms are expected to open the way for other networks to bid on some of the special features.

In the meantime officials said the State Department, NBC and CBS have set up such tight temporary controls that there is slight chance of anything else which might offend Congress. The lawmakers fumed for days over slurring references to various localities and customs.

Improvement Sought

A new appropriation which President Truman signed yesterday gives the "Voice" some $5,000,000 additional for the year beginning July 1.

Most is earmarked to improve relay facilities so the "Voice" will be heard more clearly in Russia, Soviet-dominated eastern Europe and in Asia.

New programs also are planned in five additional languages.

But Allen emphasized that at the moment expansion plans have been put in second place to the aim of tightening the whole operation.

Draft Bill's Racial Riders Fought

Washington, June 5 (AP)—A combination of Republicans and Southern and Northern Democrats formed today to fight Senator Langer's drive to tack racial amendments onto the draft bill.

Langer, who held the Senate floor more than three hours yesterday, said: "I've just begun to fight and I'll have plenty to say about each of my amendments."

Chairman Gurney (R. S.D.), of the Armed Services Committee which worked out the draft measure, plans to ask the Senate "to table" the Langer amendments when it resumes debate Monday.

First Of 7 Amendments Up

Pending as the Senate quit for the week end was the first of seven amendments Langer has introduced. It would prohibit separation of Negroes and whites in the armed forces. A violation could bring five years in prison and a $10,000 fine.

Senator Russell (D., Ga.) said:

"I think an overwhelming majority of Southern Democrats will vote to table the Langer amendments."

McGrath Opposes Langer

And Senator McGrath (D., R.I.), declared that a national defense measure is no matter on which to fight out the civil-rights battle.

However, Russell and other southerners plan to offer an amendment that would put a reverse twist on the racial issue. Their proposal would make it illegal to assign any man in the armed services to a unit or quarters except with "his own race" if he so requests.

This, like Langer's amendments, probably faces a motion to table.

Resisters League Protests Draft

Washington, June 5 (A. P.).—Some thirty members of the War Resistance League of New York paraded in front of the White House today protesting against enactment of a draft law. Eight of the demonstrators were dressed in Uncle Sam suits and goosestepped at the head of the procession. They carried banners saying: "The draft means a goosestepping U. S."

DAY

Another banner was inscribed: "The draft is Stalin's and Hitler's way."

MOVE TO GET VOTE ON HOUSING FAILS

Petition To Remove Bill From Committee Falls Short

Washington, June 5 (AP)—An effort to pry the Taft-Ellender-Wagner long-range housing bill out of the House Banking Committee failed today.

However, both Speaker Martin (R., Mass.) and Representative Wolcott (R., Mich.), chairman of the Banking Committee, said there will be House action on some sort of housing legislation before Congress quits June 19.

To bypass the Banking Committee it was necessary under House rules to have 218 signatures—a majority of the House—by today on a petition to discharge the committee from further consideration of the bill.

NIGHT

Only 161 Sign Petition

Only 161 signatures were obtained, however. With Congress set to adjourn, there is insufficient time left under the rules to bring legislation to the House floor for debate via the discharge-petition route.

The Taft-Ellender-Wagner bill is designed to encourage building of 15,000,000 homes in ten years. It has been approved by the Senate.

The bill the House passes is not expected to resemble in many details the Senate version. For instance, it appears certain the House will reject the Taft-Ellender-Wagner bill's provision for federally aided construction of 500,000 low-rent houses.

Representative Spench, of Kentucky, senior Democrat on the Banking Committee, said, "It does not look now like we are going to have any effective housing legislation."

Wolcott is expected to introduce his own housing bill next week. So what the House passes will not be the Taft-Ellender-Wagner bill, which has among its sponsors Senator Taft, of Ohio, a Republican presidential aspirant.

King Sees Air Lesson In Battle Of Midway

Washington, June 5 (AP)—Fleet Admiral Ernest J. King, recalling the sixth anniversary today of the Battle of Midway, declared the action showed naval aviation can check enemy advance early in a war.

The Battle of Midway stopped the Japanese thrust at Hawaii and the West Coast and cleared the way for United States attacks. The Japanese lost four carriers and one cruiser in the four days of air battle June 3-6, 1942. United States losses: one carrier and one destroyer.

"As in the Coral Sea," the wartime navy leader said in a statement, the "Japanese and United States fleets did not see each other, except through the eyes of their aircraft.

"These engagements proved the ability of the fleet air arm to reach the enemy and check his advance in the early stages of the war, and demonstrated the versatile power of a mobile airbase in a defensive situation."

5-Man Crew Is Killed As Jet 'Flying Wing' Crashes in Test Flight

MUROC AIR BASE, Calif., June 5 (AP).—A great Northrop "Flying Wing" bomber crashed and burned near this testing field today, killing its five-man Air Force crew.

The giant eight-jet YB-49, which Northrop has called the most powerful plane yet announced, met disaster only a few minutes after it had taken off from this field on a routine checking flight, Air Force spokesmen announced.

EXPLODED IN AIR

It crashed near a highway, and an eyewitness, Dale C. Wilson, of Alton, Ill., a motorist, told the Kern county sheriff's office that it seemed to explode at several hundred feet altitude, then plunged earthward, cutting a wide swath through the sagebrush and greasewood which thickly stud this desolate desert region.

NIGHT

Flames almost completely destroyed it, and it was hours before military authorities could get close enough to the great hulk even for a preliminary investigation.

Air Force officers could ascribe no cause to the tragedy, and said the names of the victims would be withheld until relatives were notified.

ON RE-CHECK FLIGHT

In a statement, Claude N. Monson, Northrop general manager, said in Los Angeles:

"This plane is one of 15 being built by Northrop for the Air Force. It had already completed many hours of rigorous test flights by Northrop pilots and was being flown on a re-check flight. There is no reliable information as to the cause of the accident."

Shaped Like A Bat

The giant bomber, bat-like in shape, weighed 44 tons empty and more than 100 tons fully loaded. Its eight jet engines developed a thrust equivalent to 32,000 horsepower, and the span of its chevron-shaped wings was 172 feet. It was designed to operate at altitudes of more than 30,000 feet and to carry a crew of thirteen.

The first YB-49 made its maiden flight last October 21, shuttling from Hawthorne, where the Northrop plant is located, to Muroc airbase, some 100 air miles. The bomber made the trip safely, although a P-61 fighter escorting it crashed.

The Flying Wings, jointly financed by the Government and Northrop, are designed for top speeds "in the 500-mile-an-hour class," and Northrop claims is can range several hundred miles farther than any other jet craft.

List Of Victims

At Dayton, Ohio, the public-relations officer of the Air Materiel Command at near-by Wright Field announced the names of the crash victims as follows:

MAJOR DON FORBES, nearest kin, Mrs. Hattie Forbes, mother, Topeka, Kan.

CAPT GLEN W. EDWARDS, nearest kin, Claude Edwards, father, Lincoln, Cal.

LIEUT EDWARD SWINDELL, nearest kin, Mrs. Edna Swindell, wife, Virginia Beach, Va.

C. C. LESER, nearest kin, Henry Leser, Sr., father, Joliet, Ill.

C. H. LAFOUNTAIN, nearest kin, Mr. and Mrs. Leo LaFountain, parents, Hudson Falls, N.Y.

Leser and LaFountain were civilians. All were attached to the Flight Test Division of the Air Materiel Command at Wright Field.

JET AIRCRAFT CALLED TRICKY BY SYMINGTON

Secretary Had Informed

House Group Planes Were 'Difficult'

Washington, June 5 (AP)—The crash of the huge Flying Wing jet bomber near the More, Cal., air base today points up a recent remark by W. Stuart Symington, Secretary of Air, that a jet plane is a "new and a very trickery and extremely difficult airplane in many ways just because of its newness."

Symington made the comment in testifying before a House appropriations subcommittee during which there was a discussion of military air accident rates.

NIGHT

The Air Secretary disclosed that, in estimating the money requirements for replacement of aircraft in the next fiscal year, it was necessary to estimate the number of crashes expected to occur, based on past records.

Say 61 B-29s Will Crash

Air officers with Symington figured that 61 crashes of B-29 type aircraft could be expected and 570 fighter planes would crack up. Something less than half of the fighter types in use during the next year will be jets, they said.

Symington told the committee he was "astounded the other day in looking over figures at Muroc (where much of the jet experimentation and testing is carried out) to see how many of the jet airplanes had what is called a flame-out." (A "flame-out" means the jet quits burning and the engine stops, whereupon the pilot bails out.)

Representative Engel (R., Mich.) of the committee asked Symington and his aides to recheck his figures, commenting that "it appears to me, to be perfectly frank, that somebody has inflated these figures in order to get more airplanes" (for replacement).

Crash Conditions Analyzed

The Air Force also submitted to the committee an analysis of the conditions under which accidents to its planes occurred in 1947.

It showed the highest percentage, 55, occurred when airplanes are preparing to land, while 18.9 happened when airplanes were flying after takeoff and before landing approach. Only 7.8 per cent occurred in takeoff.

In discussing the Muroc crash today, an official of the Northrop Aircraft Company said his company was building fifteen heavy bombers for the Air Force.

Gromyko Leases 30-Room Mansion

GLEN GROVE, N. Y., June 5 (AP).—Andrei A. Gromyko and his family have moved into a 30-room home here for the rest of their stay in this country.

The Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister, who will be replaced by Jacob A. Malik as Russia's chief delegate to the United Nations, is scheduled to leave for Moscow in July.

Gromyko's office announced there had been "no change" in these plans despite his leasing of the Long Island estate.

The estate, Slow Tide, is the summer home of Richard S. Reynolds, Sr., industrialist, who has built a metal-research laboratory on an adjoining estate.

A spokesman for the Reynolds family said he understood the lease would run through the summer.

The Gromykos had been living in a Park avenue mansion for the past year.

Diaper Paper Aids Atomic Scientists

OAK RIDGE, Tenn., June 5 (AP).—Atomic scientists at the Oak Ridge institute of nuclear studies report a new use for diaper paper.

The scientists say they have found the absorbent paper quite useful in soaking up stray radioactive materials.

The institute is conducting schools in the technique of using radioisotopes, or "tracer atoms," in research.

Occasionally some of the atoms, which will "contaminate" anything with which they come in contact, are spilled on laboratory tables.

That's where the diaper paper comes in handy. It is spread over the tables and then can be folded and disposed of. Thus a table is quickly "decontaminated."

Girl Scout Executive Training Course Open

Washington, June 5 (AP)—War veterans who want to become Girl Scout executives may take Government-aided on-the-job training.

The Veterans Administration today said it has signed a contract with the national girls' organization for twelve-month courses of training for the jobs of Girl Scout executive director, district director and field director.

The maximum subsistance allowance for this instruction is $65 a month for veterans without dependents and $90 for those with dependents.

BY CAUTED - JERUSALEM, JUNE 5=(AP)=THE FOREIGN CORRESPONDENTS IN JERUSALEM MET TODAY AND ADOPTED A RESOLUTION DEMANDING THAT HAGANAH, THE JEWISH ARMY, GIVE THEM FULL ACCREDITATION AS WAR CORRESPONDENTS.

"WE FOREIGN CORRESPONDENTS IN JERUSALEM HEREBY PROTEST TO HAGANAH HIGH COMMAND AGAINST ITS REFUSAL TO ACCREDIT FOREIGN CORRESPONDENTS."

"THIS REFUSAL IS UNWARRANTED AND CONSTITUTES A BLACKOUT ON ALL JEWISH MILITARY AND POLITICAL ACTIVITIES IN THIS AREA.

"WHEREAS OUR COLLEAGUES ON THE ARAB SIDE AND IN TEL AVIV ENJOY FULL ACCREDITATION AS CORRESPONDENTS WE HERE IN JERUSALEM, IN ADDITION TO SUFFERING INADEQUATE COMMUNICATIONS, ARE FACED WITH THE ALTERNATIVES OF OPPOSING AUTHORITY OR BEING ENTIRELY DEPENDENT ON NEWS IN SCANTY HANDOUT FORM. WE DEMAND IMMEDIATE ACCREDITATION AND CONSEQUENT RECOGNITION BY RESPONSIBLE AUTHORITIES OF OUR STATUS AS BONA FIDE WAR CORRESPONDENTS."

OF THE 500 FOREIGNERS HERE, THE DOZEN AMERICAN, BRITISH AND FRENCH CORRESPONDENTS PROBABLY ARE THE MOST FORLORN. THEY FIND THEMSELVES SCOOPED BY THEIR OWN COLLEAGUES ON THE ARAB SIDE AND IN TEL AVIV ON JEWISH DEVELOPMENTS IN JERUSALEM. THEY MOVE ABOUT WITH JEWISH PASSES AND FARE ABOUT THE SAME AS JERUSALEM'S JEWS IN THE MATTER OF RATIONS, WATER AND LIGHT.

JERUSALEM, JUNE 5-(AP)-THE BREAD RATION FOR JERUSALEM WAS CUT TODAY FROM 200 TO 150 GRAMS (ABOUT 5.25 OUNCES) PER PERSON.

ARAB SHELLING FROM THE OLD CITY WALLS IN THE LAST 24 HOURS WAS THE HEAVIEST OF THIS WEEK. FIVE PERSONS WERE REPORTED KILLED IN THE STREETS.

THE CITY WAS AWAKENED BY THE CRASH OF ABOUT 30 SHELLS IN THE REHAVIA DISTRICT. MOST OF THE THREE INCH MORTAR SHELLS LANDED IN DESERTED STREETS AND ON ROOFTOPS, WITH LITTLE DAMAGE.

THE SHELLING SWITCHED TO ANOTHER RESIDENTIAL SECTION AND THEN TO THE CENTER OF THE TOWN, AT 11 A.M. IT WAS BROKEN OFF SHORTLY AFTERNOON AND THE CITY QUIEETED DOWN WHILE 30 ARAB WOMEN AND FIVE OLD MEN WERE TRANSFERRED FROM A RED CROSS REFUGEE CENTER INTO THE ARAB-HELD OLD CITY, THROUGH THE NEW GATE. THIS WAS COMPLETED SHORTLY AFTER 3 P.M.

GIRSHON HIRSCH, A JEWISH AGENCY SPOKESMAN, TOLD REPORTERS THE PRINCIPAL SHELLING IN JERUSALEM IS AIMED AT THE YEMIN MOSHE SECTION AND OTHER FORWARD STRONGPOINTS HELD BY HAGANAH.

HIRSCH REPORTED THE LATRUN AREA, ATHWART THE SUPPLY ROAD FROM TEL AVIV TO JERUSALEM, WAS QUIET DURING THE 30 HOURS UP TO NOON TODAY. HE SAID A "MILITARY ROAD" IS OPEN TO TEL AVIV BUT THAT TRAFFIC CANNOT PASS UNMOLESTED BECAUSE SEVERAL STRETCHES ARE UNDER ARAB SHELLING.

WITH THE IRAQI ARMY OUTSIDE JENIN, PALESTINE, JUNE 5-(AP)-IRAQI TROOPS APPEAR FIRMLY ENTRENCHED IN THIS NORTHERN TIP OF AN ARAB TRIANGLE, AFTER BEATING OFF TWO JEWISH ATTACKS SINCE THURSDAY.

THE JEWISH FORCE, ESTIMATED BY THE IRAQI COMMANDER AT 3,000 TO 4,000 MEN, WITHDREW FIVE MILES TO THE NORTH IN THE ROLLING HILLS ALONG THE EDGE OF THE GREAT PLAIN OF ESDRAELON, THE ARMAGEDDON OF BIBLICAL DAYS.

AN ISOLATED POCKET OF ABOUT 150 JEWS IS UNDER IRAQI ARTILLERY FIRE THREE MILES NORTH OF THE JENIN GUN POSITIONS.

THE IRAQI COMMANDER, WHO WAS CONGRATULATED IN PERSON TODAY BY REGENT PRINCE ABDUL ILLAH, ESTIMATED THE JEWISH LOSSES AT ALMOST 600 DEAD, AND MANY MORE WOUNDED. HE TERMED THE BATTLE OF JENIN "THE HEAVIEST BLOW THE JEWS HAVE YET SUFFERED."

"WE THREW PLANES, ARTILLERY AND ARMOR INTO THE FIGHT," THE COMMANDER SAID, "AFTER THE JEWS OVERRAN A SMALL ARMY GARRISON POSTED IN THE TOWN. OUR ARTILLERY FIRE WAS 80 PER CENT ACCURATE AND OUR SMALL ARMS FIRE 60 PER CENT ACCURATE.

"I AM CONVINCED THEY BROKE THE ENEMY'S MORALE AND WE DO NOT EXPECT A NEW ATTACK FROM THIS DIRECTION."

THE COMMANDER SAID 20 PER CENT OF THE ATTACKING FORCE APPEARED TO BE "SEASONED EUROPEAN-TRAINED SOLDIERS." HE SAID HIS MEN TOOK SEVERAL PRISONERS. EYEWITNESSES REPORTED AT LEAST FOUR PRISONERS WERE GIRLS.

TEL AVIV, ISRAEL, JUNE 5-(AP)-THE JEWS SAID TONIGHT THEY HAD CAPTURED QAQUN TO PLACE THEMSELVES IN AN ARC FACING THE ARABS' NORTH-PALESTINE TRIANGLE ON THE NORTH, WEST AND SOUTH.

AN ISRAELI COMMUNIQUE SAID THE ARABS LEFT NEARLY 200 DEAD ON THE BATTLEFIELD. IT LISTED JEWISH LOSSES AS 12 KILLED AND 21 WOUNDED.

QAQUN VILLAGE IS 24 MILES NORTHEAST OF TEL AVIV, JUST INSIDE ISRAEL. IT IS FOUR MILES NORTH AND SOMEWHAT WEST OF TULKARM, WESTERN-ANCHOR OF THE ARAB "TRIANGLE OF STRENGTH" THAT HAS MENACED THE ISRAEL CAPITAL.

THE VILLAGE IS ABOUT 20 MILES SOUTHWEST OF JENIN, NORTHERN TIP OF THE TRIANGLE AND SCENE OF RECENT HEAVY FIGHTING. NABLUS IS THE EASTERN TIP.

THE COMMUNIQUE LISTED JEWISH LOSSES AS 12 KILLED AND 21 WOUNDED.

QAQUN VILLAGE IS ABOUT 20 MILES SOUTHWEST OF THE ARAB CITY OF JENIN AND IS JUST INSIDE THE BORDERS CLAIMED BY ISRAEL.

JENIN IS AT THE NORTHERN TIP OF AN ARAB-HELD TRIANGLE MENACING TEL AVIV ON THE NORTHEAST.

THE COMMUNIQUE SAID THERE HAD BEEN NO CHANGE AT JENIN, "WHERE OUR FORCES HOLD THE APPROACHES TO THE CITY."

"THERE IS NO TRUTH TO THE FIGURES FOR ISRAEL CASUALTIES PUT OUT BY THE IRAQIS," IT WENT ON. "SINCE THE BEGINNING OF THE JENIN FIGHTING, OUR LOSSES HAVE NUMBERED LESS THAN 40."

A JEWISH SPOKESMAN SAID THE IRAQIS CLAIMED 580 ISRAELIS HAD BEEN KILLED AT JENIN.

(THE IRAQI DEFENSE MINISTRY IN BAGHDAD SAID LAST NIGHT 580 JEWS HAD BEEN KILLED AND MORE THAN 1,000 WOUNDED IN AN UNSUCCESSFUL ASSAULT BY 5,000 TROOPS UPON JENIN.)

EARLIER ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES SAID IRAQI TROOPS WERE DIGGING IN AROUND THAT CITY.

THE IRAQI DEFENSE MINISTRY IN BAGHDAD HAD SAID LAST NIGHT 580 JEWS HAD BEEN KILLED AND MORE THAN 1,000 WOUNDED IN AN ATTACK BY 5,000 UPON JENIN.

BUT TONIGHT'S JEWISH COMMUNIQUE DENIED THIS. IT SAID THAT SINCE THE JENIN FIGHTING STARTED, ISRAELI LOSSES HAD NUMBERED LESS THAN 40.

~~THE JEWISH HIGH COMMAND EARLIER SAID ISRAELI FORCES HAD RECAPTURED~~ YIBNA, HIGH POINT OF THE EGYPTIAN THRUST FROM THE SOUTH. AT THAT POINT THE EGYPTIANS WERE SIX MILES INSIDE THE COASTAL STRIP CLAIMED BY ISRAEL.

NINE MILES TO THE SOUTH IN THE ARAB SECTION OF THE PALESTINE COAST, OTHER JEWISH TROOPS THREW A NOOSE AROUND ISDUD.

ISRAELI ARMY HEADQUARTERS IN TEL AVIV SAID TONIGHT THAT AT 6 P.M. THE TROOPS WERE PRESSING HOME ATTACKS AGAINST EGYPTIANS TRAPPED THERE. THE HEADQUARTERS SAID THEY DESTROYED A NUMBER OF FORTIFIED POSITIONS.

ARAB FORCES IN THE TRAP WERE ESTIMATED UNOFFICIALLY IN TEL AVIV AS PERHAPS 1,000 MEN WITH SOME ARMOR. THE ENTIRE EGYPTIAN FORCE THRUSTING UP THE COAST FROM GAZA WAS SAID TO BE PROBABLY 4,000 TO 5,000 STRONG.

AN EARLIER ISRAELI COMMUNIQUE SAID THE EGYPTIANS SUFFERED LOSSES IN ARMOR WHEN THEY ATTEMPTED A BREAK-OUT.

THE EGYPTIANS CLAIMED THEY REPULSED ISRAELI ATTACKS IN THAT SECTOR.

COUNT FOLKE BERNADOTTE SET OUT TODAY FOR NEW TALKS WITH JEWISH AND ARAB LEADERS ON FIXING A DEFINITE HOUR FOR BEGINNING THE PROPOSED FOUR WEEK TRUCE IN THE HOLY LAND.

THE JEWISH HIGH COMMAND, ACKNOWLEDGING EGYPTIANS HAD THRUST INTO ISRAEL'S TERRITORY FROM THE SOUTH, SAID THE ISRAELIS HAD RECAPTURED YIBNA, 14 MILES FROM TEL AVIV AND FIVE MILES INSIDE ISRAELI BORDER.

YIBNA IS NINE MILES NORTH OF ISDUD, WHERE THE JEWS CLAIM THEY HAVE AN EGYPTIAN SPEARHEAD CUT OFF AND ENCIRCLED. IT IS WITHIN SIX MILES OF RAMLE, WHERE THE EGYPTIANS MAY HAVE LINKED UP WITH THE TRANS-JORDAN ARAB LEGION AND IRAQI UNITS.

THE ISRAELI HIGH COMMAND SAID THEIR FORCES REPULSED ALL ARAB COUNTERATTACKS AT JENIN, APEX OF THE ARAB TRIANGLE OF STRENGTH MENACING TEL AVIV FROM THE NORTHEAST, AND HELD ALL POSITIONS TAKEN IN THAT SECTOR.

LAST NIGHT AN IRAQI DEFENSE MINISTRY COMMUNIQUE SAID 580 JEWS WERE KILLED AND MORE THAN 1,000 WOUNDED IN THE ATTACK ON JENIN, AND THAT THE JEWS WERE DRIVEN OUT OF THE TOWN.

BERNADOTTE, THE UNITED NATIONS MEDIATOR, INFORMED THE SECURITY COUNCIL LAST NIGHT THAT THE ISSUE OF ADDITIONAL JEWISH IMMIGRATION WAS THE ONLY QUESTION DELAYING A CEASE FIRE.

THE COUNT PLANNED TO LEAVE TODAY FOR BEIRUT, LEBANON AND HAIFA. HE WAS SCHEDULED TO RETURN TO CAIRO TOMORROW--PERHAPS WITH AN ANSWER AS TO WHEN THE TRUCE HOUR CAN BE SET.

ON THE ISSUE OF IMMIGRATION THE JEWS CONTENDED NO LIMITATIONS SHOULD BE PLACED ON ARRIVALS INTO ISRAEL DURING THE FOUR WEEKS TRUCE, WITH THE UNDERSTANDING NONE SHOULD BEAR ARMS. THE ARABS WANT TO BAN ANY ABLE-BODIED MEN OF MILITARY AGE FROM ENTERING THE COUNTRY.

UNITS OF THE EGYPTIAN NAVY APPROACHED TEL AVIV YESTERDAY AND WERE ATTACKED BY THE JEWS IN THE FIRST NAVAL BATTLE OF THE ARAB-JEWISH WAR. THE JEWS SAID FOUR EGYPTIAN SHIPS WERE DRIVEN OFF BY A JEWISH CORVETTE, PLANES AND COASTAL GUNS.

THE JEWS SAID THEIR PLANES SCORED ONE DIRECT HIT ON THE EGYPTIAN SHIPS, WHICH WITHDREW. ONE JEWISH PLANE FAILED TO RETURN. THE JEWS LISTED THE EGYPTIAN SEA FORCE AS ONE CORVETTE, AN ARMED TRANSPORT OF 2,500 TONS AND TWO BRITISH-TYPE LANDING CRAFT.

THE EGYPTIANS CONFIRMED THEIR NAVAL UNITS WERE ATTACKED, BUT DID NOT GIVE THE SCENE OF ACTION.

THERE WAS SPECULATION THE EGYPTIANS WERE ATTEMPTING TO LAND FORCES AT THE EDGE OF TEL AVIV, OR PERHAPS RESCUE THE COLUMN REPORTEDLY CUT OFF AT ISDUD.

IN THE BATTLE NORTHEAST OF TEL AVIV, A JEWISH COMMUNIQUE SAID, THE ISRAELIS CAPTURED THE VILLAGE OF QAQUN TO PUT THEMSELVES IN A HALF-MOON NORTH, WEST AND SOUTH OF THE ARABS' NORTH-PALESTINE TRIANGLE. QAQUN IS ABOUT FOUR MILES NORTHWEST OF TULKARM, WESTERN TIP OF THE TRIANGLE.

THE EGYPTIANS DISPUTED THE JEWISH CLAIMS OF SUCCESSES SOUTH OF TEL AVIV AND ANNOUNCED ADVANCES OF THEIR OWN FORCES IN THE SAME GENERAL AREA.

THE JEWS SAID THEY STILL HELD ALL APPROACHES TO JENIN, NORTHERN ANCHOR OF THE ARAB TRIANGLE MENACING TEL AVIV. JENIN IS SOME 20 MILES NORTHEAST OF QAQUN.

BUT AN ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH FROM CENTRAL PALESTINE SAID IRAQI TROOPS WERE DIGGING IN AROUND JENIN AFTER THROWING BACK A JEWISH OFFENSIVE THERE.

THE DISPATCH QUOTED THE IRAQI COMMANDER AS SAYING THAT 3,000 TO 4,000 ISRAELI TROOPS WITHDREW TO POSITIONS FIVE MILES NORTH OF THE TOWN AFTER LOSING ALMOST 600 DEAD IN TWO STRONG ATTACKS.

PREVIOUSLY AN ISRAELI COMMUNIQUE SAID JEWISH TROOPS HELD FIRM IN THAT AREA AND BEAT BACK ARAB CHARGES.

THE COASTAL FIGHTING CENTERED AT YIBNA, HIGHPOINT OF THE EGYPTIAN THRUST, AND AROUND ISDUD WHERE THE JEWS SAID THEY HAD HEMMED IN A "CONSIDERABLE" EGYPTIAN FORCE INCLUDING SOME OF KING FAROUK'S ARMOR.

YIBNA IS SIX MILES INSIDE THE COASTAL STRIP CLAIMED BY ISRAEL AND 14 MILES FROM TEL AVIV, THE JEWISH CAPITAL. IT IS EIGHT MILES SOUTHWEST OF ER RAMLE WHERE THE EGYPTIANS MAY HAVE LINKED UP WITH THE TRANSJORDAN ARAB LEGION AND IRAQI UNITS.

IN THE ISDUD FIGHTING THE EGYPTIANS LOST SOME ARMOR IN A BREAK-OUT ATTEMPT, THE JEWS SAID. THE FRONT THERE HAS BEEN ACTIVE FOR SEVERAL DAYS.

DURING THE PAST 24 HOURS ARAB SHELLING OF JEWISH SECTIONS OF JERUSALEM FROM THE OLD CITY WALLS WAS THE HEAVIEST OF THE WEEK. FIVE PERSONS WERE REPORTED KILLED IN THE STREETS.

ROMAN CATHOLIC DIGNITARIES IN JERUSALEM ANNOUNCED A PROTEST AGAINST WHAT THEY SAID WAS THE FAILURE OF THE JEWS TO RESPECT HOLY PLACES IN THE FIGHTING IN THE CITY.

LONDON, JUNE 5-(AP)-JUST FOUR YEARS AGO TOMORROW, THE HOPES OF THE WESTERN WORLD SAILED WITH HISTORY'S MIGHTIEST ARMADA ACROSS THE ENGLISH CHANNEL IN QUEST OF VICTORY--AND OF PEACE.

IT WAS D-DAY -- THE MAMMOTH OPERATION WHICH THE WESTERN POWERS HAD BUILT WITH DELIBERATE CAUTION TO UNSHACKLE THE AXIS GRIP ON THE CONTINENT.

THE GREAT ENDEAVOR PAID OFF IN COMPLETE MILITARY VICTORY OVER THE AXIS FORCES.

BUT PEACE REMAINS A FUGITIVE.

IT IS BESET BY DIFFERENCES SPLITTING THE GLOBE BETWEEN RUSSIA AND THE WESTERN POWERS, BY UNCERTAINTY ON EUROPE'S CRIPPLED CONTINENT, BY STRIFE RAGING IN PALESTINE, CHINA AND GREECE.

JUST ONE YEAR AGO ~~TOMORROW~~ TODAY, TOO, WESTERN EUROPE FOUND NEW HOPE THAT PEACE AND SECURITY WOULD BECOME A REALITY.

FROM HARVARD, SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL OFFERED A PLAN FOR CONTINENTAL RECOVERY--WITH AMERICAN AID--IF EUROPE'S COUNTRIES WOULD BURY OLD FEUDS AND WORK TOGETHER. OUT OF IT CAME THE EUROPEAN ECONOMIC RECOVERY PROGRAM.

WOULD IT WORK? WOULD IT MEAN ONLY MORE AMERICAN RELIEF? OR WOULD IT PROVE A SUBSTANTIAL FOUNDATION UPON WHICH MUCH OF THE WORLD COULD STRENGTHEN AND STABILIZE THE FUTURE?

RUSSIA SAID "NO" TO THE PLAN. SO DID THE SOVIET SATELLITE STATES.

BUT MOST OF WESTERN EUROPE WENT AHEAD IN THE HOPE ECONOMIC COOPERATION WILL STABILIZE THE PEACE.

AT THE INVASION PORT OF PORTSMOUTH TOMORROW, A MEMORIAL TO THE SHIPS AND MEN WHO SAILED ON D-DAY WILL BE UNVEILED.

THE LIGHTS ARE ON IN LONDON TONIGHT. BUT FOOD REMAINS ON RATION. HOMES ARE SCARCE, LUXURIES LIMITED.

BRITAIN STILL WAITS FOR D DAY'S PROMISE TO PAY OFF IN SECURE PEACE.

IN BERLIN, GEN. LUCIUS D.CLAY, MILITARY GOVERNOR OF THE AMERICAN ZONE OF OCCUPATION, SAID IN AN ANNIVERSARY STATEMENT THAT "NOW, FOUR YEARS LATER, WE ARE ENGAGED IN AN EQUALLY IMPORTANT EFFORT.

ISTANBUL, JUNE 5-(AP)-A MILLION DOLLARS' WORTH OF HEROIN AND FOUR DOPE-PEDDLING SUSPECTS HAVE BEEN SEIZED BY TURKISH POLICE WORKING HAND IN GLOVE WITH A ROVING UNITED STATES NARCOTICS AGENT.

RAIDS WERE CONDUCTED YESTERDAY IN THIS ISTANBUL CAPITAL AND ON A FARM ACROSS THE BOSPORUS. THE U.S. AGENT, GEORGE H.WHITE, SAID THE OPERATION CLOSED AN IMPORTANT SOURCE OF SUPPLY OF SMUGGLED DRUGS.

HE SAID AMERICAN SEAMEN HAD BEEN BUYING THE DOPE AT A BAR ACROSS FROM THE U.S. CONSULATE. HE IDENTIFIED THE FOUR ARRESTED MEN AS LEADERS OF ISTANBUL'S ILLICIT NARCOTICS MARKET.

WHITE CAME HERE 11 DAYS AGO TO TRY TO STOP DOPE SMUGGLING TO AMERICA. YESTERDAY, POSING AS A DRUG BUYER, HE MET THREE MEN IN A ROOM NEAR THE CONSULATE BUILDING.

THROUGHOUT THE NEIGHBORHOOD WERE POLICE IN THE DISGUISES OF DITCH-DIGGERS, MAILMEN, STREET CLEANERS, SOLDIERS AND SAILORS. WHEN THE THREE MEN SHOWED HIM SOME NEROIN, HE SAID, HE DREW A GUN AND SIGNALED THE POLICE. THE CLEANUP FOLLOWED.

BUENOS AIRES, JUNE 5-(AP)-MIGUEL MIRANDA, PRESIDENT OF THE NATIONAL ECONOMIC COUNCIL, SAID TODAY ARGENTINA WILL SELL ITS PRODUCTS FOR MARSHALL PLAN PURPOSES AT WORLD MARKET PRICES.

HE MADE THE STATEMENT AT A NEWS CONFERENCE IN ANSWER TO CRITICISM VOICED IN THE U.S.CONGRESS AND BY MARSHALL PLAN ADMINISTRATORS OVER PRICES CHARGED BY ARGENTINA FOR EXPORTS.

MIRANDA SAID ARGENTINA HAS ONLY ABOUT 300,000 TONS OF WHEAT AVAIL-ABLE BUT THAT IT WOULD BE SOLD AT THE WORLD PRICE--THE CHICAGO MARKET PLUS TRANSPORTATION TO THE SEABOARD.

HE ESTIMATED ARGENTINA WILL SELL $1,500,000,000 WORTH OF PRODUCTS DESTINED FOR USE IN THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM. THIS WAS $500,000,-000 HIGHER THAN A PREVIOUS ESTIMATE. SOME WASHINGTON SOURCES PLACED THE POSSIBLE TOTAL AS LOW AS $500,000,000. MIRANDA SAID FATS, VEGET-ABLE OILS, LINSEED OIL, LEATHER, HIDES, BUTTER AND MAIZE WERE AMONG PRODUCTS AVAILABLE HERE.

MIRANDA EXPRESSED SURPRISE THAT MARSHALL PLAN ADMINISTRATORS ARE SENDING A DELEGATION TO ARGENTINA. HE SAID U.S.AMBASSADOR JAMES BRUCE HAD BEEN ADVISED TWO MONTHS AGO THAT SALES WOULD BE MADE AT LOW PRICES.

"IT DOES NOT SEEM TO ME A TIME TO BE SENDING MISSIONS BUT TIME TO GET THE MARSHALL PLAN OPERATING," HE DECLARED.

MIRANDA PROMISED QUICK ACTION TO PERMIT NORMAL FLOW OF DOLLARS AGAIN TO PAY FOR IMPORTS. HE SAID ARGENTINA'S DOLLAR POSITION HAS BEEN IM-PROVING RAPIDLY AND RESTRICTIONS ON IMPORT PERMITS WOULD BE LIFTED PERHAPS MONDAY OR TUESDAY. EFFECTIVE MAY 14 ARGENTINA HALTED ALL PAY-MENTS OF DOLLARS AND OTHER HARD CURRENCIES FOR IMPORTS.

A UNITED STATES BANKER ESTIMATED BANKS AND EXPORTERS IN THE U.S.

WERE AWAITING PAYMENT OF BETWEEN $50,000,000 AND $60,000,000 FOR SHIPMENTS RECEIVED IN ARGENTINA SINCE PAYMENTS WERE HALTED. THEIR ENTRY WAS AUTHORIZED BY THE CENTRAL BANK.

AT THE SAME TIME MIRANDA DENOUNCED AS "RIDICULOUS AND CRAZY" A STATEMENT THURSDAY BY REP.JOHN TABER (R-NY) OF THE HOUSE APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE THAT ARGENTINA HAD "PRACTICALLY CONFISCATED" $300,000,000 IN U.S. PROPERTY.

MIRANDA SAID ARGENTINA PLANNED TO MAKE FUTURE TRADE AGREEMENTS ON THE BASIS OF DOLLARS, BUT WHERE A COUNTRY LACKED DOLLARS AGREEMENT WOULD BE ON A BARTER BASIS.

HE SAID ARGENTINE PRODUCTS WOULD BE EXCHANGED FOR ROMANIAN OIL, POLISH COAL AND HUNGARIAN SUBWAY TRAINS.

HE SAID THE GOVERNMENT IS STUDYING A PLAN TO PERMIT ARGENTINE IMPORTERS TO BUY MANUFACTURED PRODUCTS IN THE UNITED STATES ON A CREDIT BASIS, WITH THE GOVERNMENT GUARANTEEING PAYMENT TO U.S. MANUFACTURERS. HE SAID EXPORTERS MIGHT HAVE TO WAIT A YEAR TO COLLECT THEIR DOLLARS, BUT COLLECTION WOULD BE GUARANTEED BY THE GOVERNMENT.

BUENOS AIRES, JUNE 5-(AP)-ARGENTINA IS DESPERATELY SEEKING NEW FUEL SOURCES AT HOME AND ABROAD.

THE COUNTRY IMPORTS APPROXIMATELY FORTY PERCENT OF ITS OIL AND NEARLY ALL ITS COAL.

BUT A WORLD OIL SHORTAGE AND ARGENTINA'S OWN DOLLAR SHORTAGE, WHICH KEEPS IT OUT OF UNITED STATES OIL MARKETS, ARE HOLDING DOWN OIL IMPORTS. AND COAL IMPORTS HAVE NEVER REACHED PREWAR FIGURES WHEN BRITISH SHIPS BROUGHT COAL AND TOOK BACK FOODSTUFFS.

THE COUNTRY IS SUFFERING A SERIOUS GASOLINE SHORTAGE NOW. THE GOVERNMENT HAS ASKED THE ARMED FORCES TO REDUCE THEIR PETROLEUM CONSUMPTION AS MUCH AS POSSIBLE DURING THE EMERGENCY.

MIGHT LEAD FOREIGN AID

BY JACK BELL

WASHINGTON, JUNE 5-(AP)-SENATOR VANDENBERG (R-MICH) TOOK PERSONAL COMMAND TODAY OF THE FIGHT TO BOOST FOREIGN AID FUNDS. INDICATIONS WERE THAT THE SENATE MAY RESTORE SLASHES VOTED BY THE HOUSE.

VANDENBERG, WHO PILOTED THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM THROUGH THE SENATE, TOLD REPORTERS HE IS ASKING FOR "THE EARLIEST POSSIBLE OPPORTUNITY" TO APPEAR PERSONALLY BEFORE THE SENATE APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE.

SHORTLY AFTERWARD CHAIRMAN BRIDGES (R-NH) OF THE APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE ANNOUNCED THAT VANDENBERG WILL BE "THE FIRST AND PRINCIPAL WITNESS" WHEN HEARINGS ON THE EUROPEAN AID FUND ARE RESUMED WEDNESDAY.

BRIDGES, WHO IS IN NEW HAMPSHIRE, SAID THROUGH HIS OFFICE HERE THAT PAUL G.HOFFMAN, EUROPEAN COOPERATION ADMINISTRATOR, AND SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL ALSO WILL BE INVITED TO TELL THE COMMITTEE THEIR VIEWS ON THE HOUSE'S ACTION IN SLASHING THE APPROPRIATION.

BRIDGES POINTED OUT THAT HIS COMMITTEE HAD TAKEN ALMOST UNPRECEDENTED ACTION IN HOLDING HEARINGS ON THE ECA BILL BEFORE IT CLEARED THE HOUSE, IN AN EFFORT TO SPEED IT UP. THE ONLY OTHER TIME SUCH A THING HAD BEEN DONE BY THE SENATE COMMITTEE, BRIDGES SAID, WAS LAST FALL ON AN INTERIM FOREIGN AID APPROPRIATION.

THAT GROUP NOW HAS BEFORE IT A WRAP-UP FOREIGN AID BILL CARRYING $5,980,000,000 FOR AMERICAN ASSISTANCE TO NON-COMMUNIST NATIONS ABROAD.

THE HOUSE MADE THAT AMOUNT AVAILABLE FOR A 15-MONTH PERIOD INSTEAD OF THE $6,533,000,000 (B) ASKED BY THE ADMINISTRATION AS A MINIMUM OUTLAY FOR 12 MONTHS.

ALTHOUGH IT MAY BE SEVERAL DAYS BEFORE THE SENATE COMMITTEE GETS DOWN TO ITEM-BY-ITEM WORK ON THE BILL, THERE WERE CLEAR INDICATIONS THAT SEVERAL REPUBLICANS ARE LIKELY TO JOIN AN ALMOST SOLID FRONT OF DEMOCRATS TO RESTORE THE CHOPPED OFF FUNDS.

SENATOR GURNEY (R-SD), A COMMITTEE MEMBER, TOLD A REPORTER THE CHANCES ARE "100 TO 1" THE SENATE WILL RESTORE SOME OF THE FUNDS.

FRIENDS SAID THAT SENATOR BALL (R-MINN), ANOTHER COMMITTEE MEMBER WHO HAS BEEN HIGHLY CRITICAL OF THE ADMINISTRATION'S FOREIGN AID PROGRAM, IS INCLINED TO SUPPORT AN INCREASE. HIS VIEW, ASSOCIATES SAID, IS THAT CONGRESS MADE A COMMITMENT LAST MONTH IN APPROVING AUTHORIZATION LEGISLATION FOR THE RECOVERY PROGRAM.

SENATOR O'MAHONEY (D-WYO) SOUNDED THE SENTIMENTS OF MOST OF THE DEMOCRATIC MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE WHEN HE CALLED THE HOUSE AX-WIELDING "A DISASTROUS THING."

"THE RECORD BEFORE THE COUNTRY IS PERFECTLY CLEAR," THE WYOMING SENATOR DECLARED. "PASSAGE OF THE FOREIGN AID AUTHORIZATION WAS ONE OF THE MOST VITAL THINGS IN THE DEFEAT OF THE COMMUNISTS IN THE ITALIAN ELECTION.

"IF CONGRESS GOES BACK ON EUROPEAN RECOVERY, AS THE HOUSE ACTION DOES, IT WILL BE USED BY THE COMMUNISTS AS PROVING THEIR ORIGINAL CHARGE THAT WE NEVER MEANT IT ANYWAY."

CHAIRMAN J. HOWARD MCGRATH OF THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL COMMITTEE TOOK THE SAME VIEW.

"THE NEWS OF THIS CUT IS GOOD NEWS TO THE SOVIET UNION," HE DECLARED IN A STATEMENT. "IT FURNISHES THE AMMUNITION THEY HAVE BEEN WITHOUT FOR THE LAST FEW MONTHS, WITH WHICH THEY NOW CAN BOMBARD THE COUNTRIES OF WESTERN EUROPE, PARTICULARLY, TO CONVINCE THESE PEOPLES THAT THE UNITED STATES WAS INSINCERE WHEN CONGRESS APPROVED THE OVER-ALL PLAN TO PROMOTE WORLD RECOVERY."

JUN 1948

A172WX

MCGRATH SAID THE REDUCTIONS INDICATE "THAT ISOLATIONISTS STILL ARE IN CONTROL OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY IN THE HOUSE."

SENATOR TAFT (R-OHIO), WHO EARLIER HAD CALLED FOR CUTS IN THE AID PROGRAM, DECLINED TO COMMENT ON THE HOUSE ACTION WHEN REACHED ON A POLITICAL TRIP IN NORTH CAROLINA.

THERE WERE STRONG INDICATIONS THAT VANDENBERG, AS CHAIRMAN OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE AND CHIEF CAPITOL HILL EXPONENT OF THE BIPARTISAN FOREIGN POLICY, CONSIDERS THE HOUSE ACTION A BLOW TO AMERICAN PRESTIGE ABROAD.

VANDENBERG IS REPORTED TO HAVE TOLD FRIENDS HE FEARS THAT UNLESS THE FULL AMOUNT OF FUNDS IS RESTORED, THIS COUNTRY WILL LOSE THE COLD WAR WITH RUSSIA.

THERE WERE SIGNS, HOWEVER, THAT HE WILL FACE OPPOSITION FROM SOME OF HIS COLLEAGUES IN AN EFFORT TO BOOST THE AMOUNT.

SENATOR DWORSHAK (R-IDAHO), AN APPROPRIATIONS MEMBER WHO VOTED AGAINST THE FOREIGN AID AUTHORIZATION BILL, SAID HE THINKS ANY CUTS THAT ARE JUSTIFIED SHOULD STAND.

"EXCESSIVE AID IS LIKELY TO DISCOURAGE RATHER THAN ENCOURAGE THE RECIPIENTS," HE TOLD A REPORTER.

SENATOR REVERCOMB (R-WVA) SAID HE HAS "HIGH CONFIDENCE IN WHAT THE HOUSE HAS DONE."

"CERTAINLY," HE SAID, "WE SHOULD NOT SPEND MORE THAN A REVIEW OF THE SUBJECT SHOWS IS NEEDED. FOR MY PART, I ALWAYS DOUBTED THE WISDOM OF THESE GREAT EXPENDITURES."

IN GIVING VOICE VOTE APPROVAL OF THE BILL YESTERDAY, THE HOUSE CUT THE ACTUAL CASH REQUESTS $533,000,000. BUT BECAUSE IT ACTED TO SPREAD

THE PROGRAM OVER 15 INSTEAD OF 12 MONTHS, CHAIRMAN TABER (R-NY) OF THE HOUSE APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE ESTIMATED THE EFFECTIVE REDUCTION AT $1,000,000,000 (B) OR MORE.

THE HOUSE ADDED TWO AMENDMENTS WHICH SEEMED LIKELY TO FACE ATTACK IN THE SENATE. ONE OF THESE WOULD ORDER $65,000,000 (M) SPENT TO BUY DRIED SKIM MILK AS A PART OF THE PROGRAM. THE OTHER WOULD LIMIT TO $50,000,000 THE PURCHASES OF FARM MACHINERY FOR SHIPMENT ABROAD.

(ADVANCE) ATLANTIC CITY, N.J., JUNE 5-(AP)-RAPID RECOVERY OF THE ELECTRIC POWER INDUSTRY IN THE PHILIPPINES FROM ALMOST COMPLETE DESTRUCTION WAS DESCRIBED TODAY BY UTILITY MEN FROM THE ISLAND COMMONWEALTH.

THERE IS MUCH TO BE DONE IN THE WAY OF REHABILITATING THE INDUSTRY BUT ALREADY IT HAS REACHED A POINT WHERE MANILA ELECTRIC COMPANY HAS 75 PER CENT MORE PRODUCTION THAN BEFORE THE WAR.

HENRY PAT JOLLYE, EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF MANILA ELECTRIC COMPANY, AND HERMENEGILDO B.REYES, ITS GENERAL COUNSEL, TOLD OF THE PRIVATELY-OWNED UTILITY'S ADVANCE.

THEY CAME TO ATLANTIC CITY THIS WEEK TO ATTEND THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE EDISON ELECTRIC INSTITUTE, WHICH REPRESENTS MOST OF THE AMERICAN LIGHT AND POWER COMPANIES UNDER PRIVATE OWNERSHIP.

TOTAL PRODUCTION BY THE MANILA COMPANY IN 1941, FOR INSTANCE, WAS 181,400,000 KILOWATTHOURS. ON THE BASIS OF FIRST QUARTER FIGURES THE PRODUCTION THIS YEAR WILL BE 317,400,000 KILOWATTHOURS.

WHILE THE REHABILITATION AND EXPANSION PROCESS IS UNDERWAY, THE POWER IS BEING GENERATED BY VARIOUS METHODS.

A FLOATING PLANT LEASED FROM THE UNITED STATES ARMY IS FEEDING MANILA ELECTRIC 30,000 KILOWATTS AND THE COMPANY IS BUYING 27,500 KILOWATTS FROM A PHILIPPINE GOVERNMENT HYDRO PLANT.

IN ADDITION, MANILA ELECTRIC HAS SET UP A 16,000 KILOWATT STEAM PLANT SINCE THE WAR'S END AND REHABILITATION HAS GIVEN THE COMPANY 9,000 OF THE 16,000 KILOWATT CAPACITY OF ITS HYDRO PLANT. more

THE COMPANY, DESPITE A TREMENDOUS INCREASE IN DOMESTIC POWER DEMAND, IS SUPPLYING A FEWER NUMBER OF CUSTOMERS THAN BEFORE THE WAR--124,736 CURRENTLY, COMPARED WITH 126,823 IN 1941.

THE AVERAGE RESIDENTIAL CONSUMPTION OF ELECTRICITY PER MONTH IN THE COMPANY'S AREA IS 101 KILOWATTHOURS, THREE AND ONE-HALF TIMES THE 29 KILOWATTHOURS OF 1941. THE CURRENT FIGURE COMPARES WITH AN AVERAGE RESIDENTIAL CONSUMPTION IN THE UNITED STATES OF 125 KILOWATTHOURS.

JUN 1948

REYES EXPLAINED THE INCREASE IN DOMESTIC USE IS DUE TO SEVERAL UNRELATED CIRCUMSTANCES.

FIREWOOD FOR COOK STOVES, REYES SAID, HAS REACHED A PROHIBITIVE DRICE;OOETH WAGES P A

FIREWOOD FOR COOK STOVES, REYES SAID, HAS REACHED A PROHIBITIVE PRICE; WITH WAGES UP AND MORE MONEY COMING IN MANILA ELECTRIC'S DOMESTIC CUSTOMERS FEEL THEY CAN AFFORD ELECTRICAL LUXURIES.

THE INFLUX OF THE ARMY AND SUCH UNITED STATES AGENCIES AS THE WAR DAMAGE COMMISSION, THE U.S. VETERANS ADMINISTRATION AND OFFICIALS OF THE ALLIED PROPERTY CUSTODIAN HAS INCREASED THE USE OF ELECTRICITY.

THERE IS NO COMMENSURATE INCREASE, HOWEVER, IN THE COMPANY'S INDUSTRIAL BUSINESS.

HIGH LABOR AND CONSTRUCTION COSTS, REYES SAID, ARE HOLDING BACK THE GROWTH OF NEW INDUSTRIES AND SUCH OLD OPERATIONS AS SUGAR GROWING AND GOLD MINING ARE WAITING WAR DAMAGE CLAIMS BEFORE THEY REHABILITATE FULLY.

JUN 1948

THE COCOANUT OIL INDUSTRY, REYES SAID, HAS PROGRESSED FARTHEST IN REHABILITATION.

AND THAT DOESN'T DEMAND A WHOLE LOT OF ELECTRICITY.

PALESTINE TRUCE NEGOTIATIONS HIT SNAG, ARABS SAY

Mediator, However, May Offer Timetable for Armistice Today.

UNDATED

FIGHTING STEPS UP

Jewish Leaders Say Troops Have Blunted Second Threat to Tel Aviv.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Israeli government said last night that Count Folke Bernadotte, the United Nations Palestine mediator, probably would decide today on a timetable for a four-week truce in the Arab-Jewish war.

Arab reports, however, indicated negotiations for the security council's proposed cease fire had hit a snag. These reports indicated that attempts to enforce the suggested truce were in danger of failing.

After Israel's Foreign Minister Moshe Shertok talked with Bernadotte in Haifa today, the Jewish government said in a communique:

"It was understood that Count Bernadotte is expected to make up his mind finally during the course of tomorrow, (Monday) when he would communicate his conclusions to both sides, propose the deadline and expect the reply."

Jews Insist on Immigration

The Jews have insisted that immigration of all except military personnel be permitted in the Holy Land during the truce and that the Jerusalem—Tel Aviv road be opened. The Arabs said Jewish stubbornness on those two points might "kill any truce."

A dispatch from Amman, where Count Folke Bernadotte conferred with King Abdullah, said the truce agreement appeared to be cracking up. It had been accepted in principle by both the Jews and Arabs last Wednesday.

Abdullah said after the Arabs accepted "some obstacles were encountered which made it impractical." Bernadotte, the UN mediator in Palestine, was grim-faced but non-committal.

Following the Amman talks Bernadotte left for Cairo.

Harold Evans, the UN-appointed commissioner for Jerusalem, told reporters in Amman it is planned now to fix a simultaneous date for the cease fire and the truce to begin. He added that the date had not yet been agreed upon.

UN security council delegate at Lake Success, N. Y., were disturbed by the indications that the truce plan might fail.

Heavy fighting erupted in Palestine while the truce negotiations were in progress.

Tel Aviv Threat Blunted

Jewish military leaders said Israeli troops blunted a second threat to Tel Aviv, Israel's capital. A Jewish communique gave this account of the operation:

Israeli units moving against Arab positions on the northeastern approaches to Tel Aviv drove within thre and a half miles of strategic Tulkarm and captured the cross roads village of Qaqun. The Arabs lost nearly 200 dead before they fell back. Jewish losses were listed as 12 killed and 21 wounded.

With this offensive the forces of Israel forged a half-circle around the Arabs' Tulkarm-Jenin-Nablus triangle. Tulkarm itself was hammered by Jewish planes and an Arab military camp there was set afire.

The Jews said the first threat to Tel Aviv—the Egyptian drive up the Palestine coast—had been thrown back at Yibna, 14 miles south of the Jewish capital.

Nine miles further south the Jews claimed to have trappad a fifth of the Egyptian force of some 5,000 men. The trap was sprung at Isdud. Israeli infantry attacked the pocket, destroying a number of the Egyptians' fortified positions, a Jewish communique said.

ARAB CITES CONDITIONS SET BY JEWS

Immigration And Supply Route Described As Obstacles

JES GOODWIN

Amman, Trans-Jordan, June 6 (AP)—The Arab-Jewish agreement for a four-week truce in Palestine appeared to be cracking up tonight. A high Arab source blamed two Jewish conditions: Immigration and the opening of the Jerusalem-Tel Aviv highway.

A high Arab authority in Trans-Jordan said a factor which he described as Jewish stubbornness had raised obstacles which might "kill any truce."

The truce was proposed by the United Nations Security Council and was accepted with "explanations" by both the Jews and Arabs.

Terms "Assumed" By Jews

The Jews said they assumed that during the truce immigration of all except military personnel would be permitted in the Holy Land. The Jews also have said the Jerusalem-Tel Aviv highway, the supply route for 80,000 to 90,000 Jews in modern sections of Jerusalem, must be opened.

Count Folke Bernadotte, the United Nations' Palestine mediator, conferred here with King Abdullah and Fawzi Pasha Malki, Trans-Jordan Foreign Minister. His expression was stern when he emerged from the brief meeting with the Foreign Minister.

An indication that the negotiations were not going well was given by Ralph Bunche, of the United Nations secretariat, who said: "We still have hope." Bernadotte was noncommittal.

Bernadotte's party left tonight for Cairo where, King Abdullah said, the Arab League political committee is expected to meet "within a few days."

No Cease-Fire Order Issued

Abdullah said that as supreme commander of Arab forces he had issued no orders for a cease-fire in the Holy Land. Trans-Jordan's monarch received newsmen in the palace garden upon emerging from his conference with Bernadotte.

"I did not discuss the truce with Bernadotte," the King said. "This is a problem which must be discussed by the Arab League political committee. I am not ready to take the responsibility for an individual discussion."

The Arabs, he explained, already had agreed to the truce in principle but "after the agreement some obstacles were encountered which made it impractical."

Bernadotte, Shertok Confer

While the King spoke a Bren gun began chattering on a near-by target range. He said: "Everyone who discusses a truce while listening to that sound is foolish."

Bernadotte came here from Haifa, where he conferred today with Moshe Shertok, Foreign Minister of Israel.

Harold Evans, the Philadelphia Quaker appointed as the United Nations Commissioner for Jerusalem, said Bernadotte plans to use "unarmed neutral controls" in the Holy Land if the Arabs and Jews agree to the truce.

"No armed police force is available," he explained. "The present plan is to place representatives of the various United Nations member countries in control points to see that conditions of the proposed truce are kept."

He mentioned specifically the observance of the status quo by the two contending forces, the maintenance of a cease fire and the stoppage of immigration for the duration of the truce.

The present plan calls for a simultaneous date for the cease fire and the truce, he said, and

Fighting Is Stepped Up As Truce Talk Wavers

CAIRO, June 6 — (AP) Negotiations for a four-week truce in Palestine hit a snag tonight and were reported in danger of failing.

A dispatch from Amman, where Count Folke Bernadotte conferred with King Abdullah, said the truce agreement appeared to be cracking up. It had been accepted in principle last Wednesday by both the Jews and the Arabs. BOYD

The Arabs blamed the deadlock on Jewish insistance that immigration into the Holy Land be allowed to continue and that the Jerusalem—Tel Aviv highway be kept open.

Fighting Stepped Up

Intensive military operations were in progress while the truce negotiations were being carried on.

Israeli troops forged a half-circle around Arab concentrations on the northeastern approaches of Tel Aviv and drove within three and a half miles of strategic Tulkarm, Jewish leaders said.

Israeli planes hammered Tulkarm itself. The Jewish bulletin said large fires were touched off in an Arab military camp in that city, the western anchor of the Arabs' Tulkarm—Jenin—Nablus triangle.

According to Jewish accounts this was the second major threat to Tel Aviv which Jewish forces have blunted in the last two days. The first one—a drive by Egyptian forces up the Palestine coast—was thrown back at Yibna, 14 miles south of Israel's capital.

King Abdullah's Legionnaires hurled 100 shells today into Jewish-held districts of modern Jerusalem after Israeli infantry made another unsuccessful attempt to storm the old city's Zion Gate.

The Jewish attack was abandoned after three hours of close quarter fighting failed to dislodge the Legionnaires from their machine-gun posts in the thick walls of the old city.

Bernadotte Grim-Faced

Bernadotte, the United Nations mediator in Palestine, was grim-faced and noncommittal following his talks with Abdullah and Trans-Jordan Foreign Minister Fawzi Pasha Malki in Amman.

Ralph Bunche of the U.N. Secretariat indicated the negotiations were not going well when he told newsmen: "We still have hope." A neutral source in Amman said the target—date for getting the truce operative had been moved back until Thursday.

Abdullah said he did not discuss a truce with Bernadotte since the problem must be handled by the Arab League's political committee which is expected to meet in Cairo in a few days.

Bernadotte's party left tonight for Cairo. The Swedish count conferred with Jewish leaders in Haifa this morning after journeying from Beirut, the Lebanese capital. He came to Amman from Haifa.

Both the Jews and Arabs attacked "explanations" to their acceptance of the truce proposed by the U.N. Security Council. The Jews said they assumed that, during the truce, immigration of all except military personnel would be permitted in the Holy Land. The Jews also insist on the opening of the Jerusalem-Tel Aviv highway, the supply route for 80,000 to 90,000 Jews besieged in modern sections of Jerusalem.

'Hits 'Jewish Obstacles'

One high Arab authority in Trans-Jordan said Jewish stubborness had raised obstacles which might "kill any truce."

Abdullah himself said that after the Arabs accepted the truce agreement in principal 'some obstacles were encountered which made it impractical."

While the king talked with newsmen in the palace garden, an Arab gun crew practiced with a Bren gun on a nearby target range.

Harold Evans, the U.N.-appointed commissioner for Jerusalem said the present plan calls for a simultaneous date for the cease fire and the truce to begin. He added that the date had not yet been agreed upon.

The attention of both Arabs and Jews was focused on the fighting on Tel Aviv's approaches. The Jews claim to have a fifth of the entire Egyptian force of some 5,000 men trapped at Isdud, 23 miles south of Tel Aviv.

Israeli infantry pressed home attacks in the Isdud area today and destroyed a number of the Egyptians' fortified positions, the Jewish high command said.

Israelis Claim Half-Circle Drawn Around Egyptian Drive Spearhead

MAX BOYD

Cairo, June 6 (AP)—Israeli troops forged a half-circle around Arab concentrations on the northeastern approaches of Tel Aviv today and drove within 3½ miles of strategic Tulkarm, a Jewish communiqué said.

Tulkarm itself was hammered by Israeli planes. The bulletin said large fires were touched off in an Arab military camp in that city, the western anchor of the Arabs' Tulkarm-Jenin-Nablus triangle.

According to Jewish accounts, Israeli forces in the last two days have blunted two major threats to Tel Aviv. The first one—a drive by Egyptian forces up the Palestine coast—was thrown back at Yibna, 14 miles south of Israel's capital.

Claim 1,000 Are Trapped

The Jews claim to have a fifth of the entire Egyptian force of some 5,000 men trapped 9 miles farther south at Isdud. Israeli infantry pressed home attacks in the Isdud area and destroyed a number of the Egyptians' fortified positions, said the Jewish communiqué issued in Tel Aviv.

The Egyptians gave no hint that their troops were in trouble there. Instead they told of widespread reconnaissance operations by Egyptian planes and mobile forces on the southern approaches of Tel Aviv.

The Jews said two Egyptian Spitfires bombed Hulda, 14 miles northeast of Isdud yesterday, but caused no damage.

Describe Tulkarm Fighting

Jewish communiqués gave this account of fighting near Tulkarm, 21 miles northeast of Tel Aviv:

Israeli troops operating just inside the coastal strip claimed by the Jewish state entered the crossroads village of Qaqun, 3½ miles above Tulkarm. The Arabs lost nearly 200 dead in the engagement there and finally were driven from the town. Jewish losses were listed as twelve killed and 21 wounded.

The capture of Qaqun enabled the Jews to organize their half-moon shaped line north, west and south of the Arab triangle.

Predicts Yes-Or-No Plan

At Jenin, northern apex of the triangle, the Jews said their troops held the approaches to the city. The communiqué denied an Iraqi claim that an Israeli force of 5,000 men there had lost 580 killed and more than 1,000 wounded in the last few days. The Israeli losses in the Jenin fighting, the Jews said, were less than 40.

Moshe Shertok, Israeli's Foreign Minister, indicated Count Folke Bernadotte, the United Nations mediator in Palestine, soon will give both the Jews and the Arabs his proposals for making operative the projected four-week truce. He said the Swedish count is expected to hand both sides a communication requiring a definite yes-or-no answer.

Bernadotte conferred with Shertok for an hour and a half after reaching Haifa from Beirut, the Lebanese capital. Then the count left for Amman, Trans-Jordan, and Cairo.

The count could make his proposals "tomorrow, theoretically speaking," Shertok said, but if the proposals are found unacceptable they will not be considered final. Shertok added that he felt he had a right to appeal to the United Nations Security Council.

Fighting In Northeast

While most of the attention in the Palestine war has centered for the last few days on the fighting on Tel Aviv's approaches, both sides told of heavy engagements and considerable air activity in northeastern Palestine. Jewish and Syrian communiqués gave conflicting accounts of the developments there.

A Damascus communiqué said Syrian troops advanced across the Jordan river, encircled and destroyed the town of Mishmar Hay Yarden, 2 miles south of Hula Lake. Syrian batteries set fire to Nejmet Assuoh, described as the supply center for all of Israeli's northern settlements. The fires lasted four hours and the flames were seen for ten miles, the bulletin said.

Report Warehouses Burned

Four miles south of Mishmar Hay Yarden other Syrian units raided Tuba and blew up Jewish installations there. A raid also was made on the city of Tiberias on the Sea of Galilee, the communiqué said.

Above Hula Lake the Syrians reported their troops occupied Tel Hai, burned down warehouses and demolished the fortifications there. A fire was started at Dan near the northern limit of Palestine.

Syrian planes raided En Na 'Ima and destroyed water installations. Other air-raids were made on Kefar Gil 'Adi, Tuba, Mishmar Hay Yarden and other settlements in the region.

The Jews said Israeli units frustrated attacks by Arab infantry, armor and artillery at Malikya, a town on the Lebanese-Palestine border which the Jews took May 29.

Tells Of Strafing Lines

The Syrians claimed their planes strafed Jewish lines north of Malikya and scattered the Israeli troops there. Direct hits also were scored by the planes on supply centers and ammunition warehouses in the town itself, the Syrians said.

In reporting the Syrian thrust between Lake Hula and the Sea of Galilee, the Jews said their troops turned back the attack at Tuba a mile inside the Palestine border.

The Arab League announced here that a substantial number of Saudi Arabian troops, equipped with tanks, armored cars, artillery and light weapons, now are operating with Egyptian forces in Palestine. The Saudi Arabian Army has a limited number of light tanks obtained from the British sometime ago.

Syrians Claim Town

The communiqué said Syrian forces attacked the stronghold of Malkiya near the Lebanese frontier and with the Lebanese Army occupied Gadas. It added:

"These forces are pushing through to Nebiyousha which the Zionists will undoubtedly defend. The enemy suffered heavy losses in men and materials and his dead exceeded 250. Our losses were two killed and ten wounded."

The Syrians claimed that in the Banat Yakev area their forces, following up an attack yesterday, crossed the Jordan River and encircled Mishmar Hay Yarden. They called this a basic post in the Israeli defense of northern Palestine settlements.

Report Force Annihilated

Jewish forces trying to cut through the siege of the town were annihilated, the communiqué said. It estimated Jewish losses at about 150 dead and wounded in this attempt. Arab losses were listed as one killed and ten wounded.

An Israeli army spokesman in Tel Aviv, quoting the Haganah command in Jerusalem, said there was no truth in reports that Jews in Hebrew University and Hadassah Hospital on Jerusalem's Mount Scopus had surrendered or were on the verge of surrendering.

3 Newsmen Wounded By Hand Grenade

JERUSALEM, June 6. — (AP) Three newspapermen were wounded yesterday when an hand grenade was accidentally exploded as they walked across a square.

Sidney Smith of the London Daily Express and James Days of Britain's Kemsley newspapers were wounded in the legs. Carter L. Davidson of the Associated Press was slightly hurt on the left arm.

The trio was walking over an area which has been the scene of bitter fighting for the Holy City when one of them accidentally kicked the grenade.

Jerusalem Shelled By Arabs 24th Day

Casualties Total 1,000; Disease Is Feared

The following pooled dispatch was received from news correspondents with Jewish forces in Jerusalem:

JERUSALEM, June 6 (AP).—Arab shellfire and mortar bombs lashed the Jewish-held area of Jerusalem last night and today for the twenty-fourth consecutive day of shelling. Six Jews were killed and dozens were wounded, according to an unofficial check.

Total casualties since Trans-Jordan's Arab Legion and volunteer Arab forces trained their guns on Jerusalem are estimated at 1,000, of which probably more than one hundred were fatal.

A combined Haganah-Irgun Zvai Leumi force attacked the Arab Legion at dawn today, trying to dislodge the Arabs from positions on the city's northern outskirts, but was beaten off.

Jewish doctors here are concerned over health conditions in the Holy City. The water and food shortages, war nerves, hot weather and the dusty desert winds from the east are causing widespread illnesses.

Time Decision Expected

TEL AVIV, Israel, June 6 (AP)—The Israeli Government said tonight that Count Folke Bernadotte probably would decide tomorrow what day and hour he would recommend for the beginning of a four-week truce in the Palestine war.

The Government of Israel issued a communiqué here tonight after its Foreign Minister, Moshe Shertok, conferred with Count Bernadotte today in Haifa.

The communiqué said:

"It was understood that Count Bernadotte is expected to make up his mind finally during the course of tomorrow when he would communicate his conclusions to both sides, propose the deadline and expect the reply."

The communiqué added that Mr. Shertok told newsmen in Haifa that if Count Bernadotte's conclusions were not satisfactory to Israel, the Jews "must naturally reserve the right" to appeal to the Security Council.

2 LABORITES IN MYSTERIOUS DASH TO PARIS

ARTHUR GAVSHON AND WM. PHILLIPS

Speculation In London Turns On Proposed German Plan

JUN 1948

London, June 6 (AP)—Two leaders of Britain's ruling Labor party dashed to Paris today for a meeting regarded here as something of a mystery.

Morgan Phillips, secretary-general of the Labor party, flew to the French capital from Vienna, canceling an engagement to address an international Socialist conference.

James Griffiths, Minister of National Insurance, went to Paris from London to meet Phillips. An official statement said they were to discuss "party matters."

German Issue Suggested

It was speculated here, however, that their talks concerned international matters. Speculation included:

1. Phillips and Griffiths are seeking to allay fears of French Socialists that the still secret six-power agreement on the future of western Germany jeopardizes French security. It is expected that the agreement will be announced tomorrow.

2. Leaders of the Socialist parties of the sixteen countries participating in the European recovery program might be planning an emergency meeting to talk about the United States House of Representatives' slash in the aid program.

British newspapers printed reports from Paris that opposition to Georges Bidault, French Foreign Minister, was stiffening over concessions on the Ruhr question he reportedly made to American wishes. The papers did not say what concessions Bidault was supposed to have made to the Americans.

Grave View Taken

Speculation that the Socialists of the Marshall plan countries might meet was based on the grave view taken in France and Britain of recent Washington developments.

Phillips organized a meeting of Socialists of these countries earlier this year to plan their support of the recovery program and, presumably, would take the lead in calling any new meeting.

French unrest over the new plans for western Germany might entail the possibility of their rejection by the French Government. If France withdrew its support of the agreement reached by her representatives and those of the United States, Britain, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg, it would have serious repercussions in all Western capitals.

D-DAY RECALLED FOUR YEARS LATER

Anniversary Observed On Both Sides Of Channel

London, June 6 (AP)—The fourth anniversary of D Day was marked today on both sides of the Channel which American and British forces crossed four years ago.

At Utah Beach, in Normandy, United States Ambassador Jefferson Caffery said the enemy seemed to have every advantage in 1944.

"The problems which we face now as we struggle to bring about European recovery are strikingly similar," he said. "There are times when the enemies of that recovery seem also to have every advantage."

British Memorial Unveiled

Caffery and President Vincent Auriol of France toured the invasion beaches.

JUN 1948

JUN 1948 30.24- 18311

At Portsmouth, England, Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery unveiled a memorial which faces the sea at a spot from which many units of the armada sailed with troops and equipment for the Normandy beaches. The memorial is a simple stone.

Montgomery said the D-day exploit was an example of a perfect combined operation, requiring the utmost precision by land, sea and air forces, and the smoothest of collaboration among the Allies.

Soviet Paper Comments

United States Marines from the United States Embassy in London and a detachment of sailors from the United States cruiser Fresno took part in the ceremony.

In Berlin the Russian-sponsored newspaper Taegliche Rundschau observed tartly that the invasion from the west was not necessary because the "Soviet army had already decided the war." The secret object of the invasion was to "prevent Germany's conversion to democracy," the newspaper asserted.

Russia To Be Offered Share In German Plan

London, June 6 (AP)—The Western powers planned tonight to give Russia a final chance to share in their plan for the economic and political reconstruction of Germany.

There was little hope in diplomatic circles here of a Soviet acceptance. Russia has protested that the Western powers have acted independently, in violation of the Potsdam agreement, in drafting plans for putting western Germany on its feet financially and giving its people a large measure of political independence.

American diplomatic officials said a copy of the agreement reached at a meeting here by the Western nations will be handed to Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovsky, Soviet military governor of the Russian zone of Germany, in Berlin tomorrow. The agreement was reached by the United States, Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

PAPERS IN EUROPE LOOK TO SENATE

Communists Call House Vote 'Cheat' And 'Slice Of Bread'

Paris, June 6 (AP)—Center and rightist Paris newspapers expressed hope today that the United States Senate would not uphold the House of Representatives' action in lopping $1,000,000,000 from European recovery program funds.

L'Aube, organ of Premier Robert Schuman's party, said the House vote to cut recovery funds "gives new arguments to the Cominform."

One of the announced objectives of the Communist International Information Bureau is to scuttle the recovery program.

"A Slice Of Bread"

The Communist newspaper Humanite said of the House action that "French leaders discover now they have sold France for a slice of bread."

Elsewhere in Europe the representatives' vote also drew editorial comment.

The Soviet Army's official newspaper in Berlin, Taegliche Runschau, commented:

"This is the end of an illusion—the Marshall plan drops its mask. The price is too high for the bankers."

Rome's Communist paper, Unita, used the headline:

"The Marshall plan cheat."

"Will Have But A Morsel"

The Rome newspaper Avanti said, "Those who thought it their duty to vote for a load are served: they will have but a morsel." Avanti is the organ of a socialist sector which joined Communists in fighting the recovery program.

The Communist-line daily Il Paese printed a front-page cartoon showing a sneering Uncle Sam pointing to a tiny plate of food before a hurt astounded woman representing Italy. In Uncle Sam's other hand is a magnifying glass, labeled "Italian Elections." He says "Don't take fright. That's the Marshall plan without the lens."

De Gaulle Adviser Criticizes Regime

Paris, June 6 (AP)—Gen. Charles de Gaulle's chief advisor said today the French Government has abandoned French security through the six-nation agreement on western Germany. He added that the Government has set up an unconstitional regime in Indo-China.

This statement by Gaston Palewski launched what amounts to a Right-Left pincers attack on Premier Robert Schuman's administration, since the Communist views on Germany and Indo-China are similar to the de Gaulle Rightists'.

De Gaulle is expected to follow up within a few days with a speech threatening the life of the Government and the political future of Georges Bidault, Foreign Minister.

The Government's reported concessions on Germany and procedure, represent such a break with French traditions that both the de Gaullists on the Right and the Communists on the Left may rally wavering section of the Center against it.

Details of the six-nation agreement on Germany are to be published tomorrow.

Palewski said in a speech:

"The recommendations of the London experts do not constitute an acceptable compromise. With all the precautions, delays and camouflage needed to reassure an alarmed public opinion, they consecrate the abandoning of the French theses concerning the security of France as well as the construction of western Europe."

French Say Annamese Refuses Cabinet Post

Paris, June 6 (AP)—The French news agency said today in a dispatch from Indo-China that Nguyen Huu Tri had refused the post of interior minister in the new French-sponsored central Viet Nam Government.

The Government had appointed him to the post by decree. The agency said he refused it "for reasons of health."

The portfolio now will go to Lieut. Gen. Nguyen Xuan, the Government's premier and minister of national defense, the agency said.

The new Government was established officially today in ceremonies at Hanoi.

Sicilian Labor Chiefs Call Off General Strike

Palermo, Sicily, June 6 (AP). Sicilian labor leaders called off a general strike scheduled to begin at midnight.

The strike threat arose from a stalemate in negotiations between dockworkers and employers. It was canceled after conferences between Government mediators and pro-Communist labor leaders.

SOVIET SENTRY SHOT BY YANKS, RUSSIANS SAY

Charge Made As Communists Launch Fresh Propaganda Campaign

Berlin, June 6 (AP)—Communist organs launched a fresh propaganada campaign against the western Allies today, and the Russians charged that five Americans shot a Russian sentry in Berlin.

These developments came on the eve of the disclosure of plans to unify Western Germany, over Russian protests. These plans were drawn up in a London conference by the United States, Britain, France and the Benelux countries. They are due to be published tomorrow.

The Russians said their sentry was wounded at the border of the United States and Russian zones of occupation in Berlin. Col. W. A. Falck, United States provost marshal, said he had not heard of the incident, but other American authorities reported a letter of protest has been received.

Russian Version Of Incident

According to the Russian charge, the sentry was shot while on duty in a wooded area near the residence of Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovsky, Soviet military commander. The sentry is permitted by special agreement to patrol his post into American territory to guard the approaches to Sokolovsky's home. It is in an area where Americans frequently hunt for game.

The Soviet News Bureau said the sentry was attacked by four armed American soldiers and an American civilian.

"When other Soviet soldiers rushed up to aid him, they arrived only in time to see the Americans take flight," the account said.

American officials said the letter of protest, from Lieut. Gen. G. S. Lukantschenko, Soviet chief of staff, was "the first word of the alleged incident we have received."

The propaganda campaign, similar to others in the past, is apparently designed to provoke fear and discontent in Berlin's worker population, and to force the western Allies to withdraw from Berlin.

Themes Of Controlled Press

Most columns of Russian-controlled papers were devoted to developing themes like these:

1. The Russians' actions of ordering wage increases for workers in their sector was represented as a "progressive" measure designed to stir envy in the hearts of workers in western Berlin and stir revolt against the Western military governments.

2. Press articles sought to spread fear among the people that a separate currency reform for western Germany would bring chaos to the economy of Germany and Berlin.

3. The Germans were told that the United States House of Representatives' action in reducing European recovery plan funds "proves that the United States is trying to buy Europe at bargain rates."

4. Renewed claims were spread that the American Military Government was pulling out of Berlin and the the United States occupation army here was exerting "terror tactics" against the population.

The Russians went there seeking to persuade the internees to return to their Russian-dominated homelands. The 1,100 internees had been advised earlier that the Russians would call on them.

The Russians were just getting out of their cars, inside the camp, when some of a crowd of 300 or more D.P.'s began hurling paving stones picked up from the street.

Met With Curses And Shouts

When the Russians attempted to quiet the crowd, they were met with curses and shouts such as:

"Tell us what happened to our mother (or brother, etc.) before you try to tell us to go back."

The Russians got back into the cars and drove away.

The D.P.'s succeeded in hurling their barrage of stones although the Russians were escorted by two jeep loads of United States constabulary troops and two military police motorcyclists.

The automobile in which Russian General Yurkin was riding was hit almost twenty times. Capt. Morton Sill, of Perth Amboy, N.J., a United States civil affairs division officer, was riding with Yurkin.

Russ General's Car Stoned

"Seven stones went through one window and four through another, besides about eight others that dented the body of the car," Sill said. "One stone knocked my cap off, and I saw some blood on the windshield, but I don't know whose it was."

Sill said the Russian party included three colonels. Lieutenant Sonis, an interpreter, was hit on an elbow.

Asked whether the Russians considered their escort adequate, Sill said they had asked that they be escorted by only four military policemen—a much smaller force than actually was on hand.

Sill escorted the officers earlier to D.P. camps in Stuttgart, Munich and Augsburg. He commented:

"Those were Baltic camps and while we were booed sometimes, we didn't meet any demonstrations such as the Polish-Ukrainians put on."

Go Home?—Polish-Ukrainian D.P.'S Boo, Stone Russ Officers

Munich, June 6 (AP)—A crowd of angry displaced persons from Poland and the Ukraine stoned and booed five Russian officers when they visited a D.P. camp at Mittenwald today, a United States Army spokesman said.

Soviets Block Goods for Ruhr

DUESSELDORF, Germany, June 6 (AP).—Top political leaders of Western Germany were told today that Russian transportation curbs in Berlin had held up vital material for the Ruhr coal mines. Kling Hoefer, a member of the Berlin city administration, said goods worth 35,000,000 to 45,000,000 reichsmarks ($3,500,000 to $4,500,000) had piled up in Berlin since April 1, when the East-West transport crisis arose.

HUNGARIAN PAPERS UNDER CHURCH BAN

Primate Warns Catholics On Communist Propaganda

Budapest, June 6 (AP)—Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, Primate of Hungary, told Catholics today that they should stop reading newspapers of the Government parties and listening to Hungarian broadcasts.

In a pastoral letter read in all Catholic churches, Cardinal Mindszenty said:

"To the bitter disgrace of this country, falsehood, deceit and terror were never greater in the course of her history."

"Monstrous Moral Pressure"

He said the Communist-dominated regime is exerting "monstrous moral pressure."

The letter said Hungarian Catholic bishops are entirely united and that there are no negotiations between church and state. This presumably was in reference to Government plans to take over church-maintained schools.

Blames Church For Agitation

Cardinal Mindszenty has threatened to excommunicate any Catholic who supports the plan. Gyula Ortutay, Education Minister, announced May 16 he would not tolerate any "terrorism" by the Cardinal against Catholics who are ready to co-operate with the plan.

The Ministry of Interior announced last night that 500 villagers in Pocspetri, angered over the plan, attacked the police station and killed one policeman Thursday.

Ortutay promptly sent a letter to Cardinal Mindszenty blaming the Catholic Church for nation-wide agitation against nationalization of parochial schools. He demanded that the Cardinal "immediately put an end to this agitation."

Newspapers here expressed forebodings today over the killing of the policeman. A Communist Deputy, Joseph Revay, stated editorially in Szabad Nep: "The Cardinal incites. He prefers war to peace and is responsible for the killing in Pocspetri."

The Socialist official organ, Nepszava, said:

"The bloody Thursday of Pocspetri brought the leaders of the Catholic Church to a crossroad: either they accept democracy or take responsibility together with the murderers. Those who do not accept this will share the fate of traitors together with Mindszenty, who is a deadly enemy of the people."

Turkey Rounds Up Communist Agents

Istanbul, Turkey, June 6 (AP)—A nationwide roundup of alleged Communist agents apparently is under way in Turkey.

The Anatolia agency said today that three suspected saboteurs have been arrested near Izmir (Smyrna). An Interior Ministry spokesman said the activities of foreign agents are being investigated in other parts of the country.

GRISWOLD INJURED SLIGHTLY IN CRASH

ATHENS, June 6 — (AP) Dwight P. Griswold, chief of the American aid mission to Greece, and Mrs. Griswold were injured slightly today when a truck struck their car. American officials said both suffered minor cuts and bruises. They were treated by a Greek doctor and released.

About 85 miles to the south, between 50,000 and 75,000 Red troops were attacking the railway city of Tzeyang, an island in a sea of Communist conquest.

Inside Tzeyang is a large group of foreign missionaries, including five Americans. The Catholics have a mission in Tzeyang.

Curfew Clamped On

A strict curfew was ordered even for Suchow, big Government base another 85 miles south of Tzeyang.

The Shantung situation was so grave that the newspaper Hsin-Min Pao said Gen. Ku Chu-tung, China's new chief of staff, is flying to Suchow to get first-hand reports on the mounting Communist pressure.

Capture of Shantung would be a big Communist step toward lopping off North China as well as opening a corridor to Central China, where sizeable Red forces already are operating.

[Press reports in Peiping said that, on the North China front, fresh Government troops had landed at the Manchurian port of Hulatao.

Fight Near Capital

[They will be rushed north into Jehol Province, where the Communists are driving a wedge between the Government's thin Manchurian position and the Peiping-Tientsin area. Fighting still was reported around Chengteh, provincial capital.

[A hint that trouble for the Government also was rising in South China, major supply source, came in a Hong Kong dispatch.

[It said Gov. T. V. Soong, of Kwangtung Province, had been granted increased powers to eradicate bandits and Communists who have been constantly disrupting communications in the Canton area.]

Mouth Of Yangtze Blocked

Shanghai, June 6 (AP) — The Chinese Navy threw a blockade today across the mouth of the Yangtze in the teeming Shanghai coastal area in an attempt to check a flow of supplies to the Communists.

Communists Batter Shantung

Nanking, June 6 (AP)—Chinese Communist armies pounded today at the Government's faltering hold on Shantung Province, threatening to break out in force into Central China.

The Shantung capital, Tsinan, reported Communist spearheads only a few miles away on the south. It was understood plans were ready to fly out all foreigners on short notice.

The Chinese First Naval Command announced the blockade extends to the maze of coastal islands to the south.

A statement said a growing number of junks and small ships were ferrying essential commodities to areas in North China under Communist control.

[This indicates the supplies are coming from South China. South China is a bulwark for Government-held territory, being the major source of supply.]

American Envoy Confers With Chiang Kai-shek

NANKING, June 6 (AP).—American Ambassador J. Leighton Stuart talked for an hour today with President Chiang Kai-shek, but he said later he did not raise the question of anti-American agitation among Chinese students.

Discussion of American policy in rebuilding Japan economically, the cause of the student criticism, continued in newspapers.

The independent "Hsin Min Pao," which sometimes leans to the Left, criticised General Douglas MacArthur's administration of Japan. The pro-government "Peace Daily" insisted American policy "is perfectly correct and is in line with that of China."

Professor Sun Min-ching proposed at a meeting at Nanking University that a commission of Chinese educators, legislators and newspaper men go to Japan "to determine for ourselves whether the United States is rebuilding Japanese strength."

Prof. Sun Min-ching proposed at a meeting at Nanking University that a commission of Chinese educators, legislators and newspapermen go to Japan "to determine for ourselves whether the United States is rebuilding Japanese strength."

Members of the Legislature attending the meeting said they would introduce such a resolution.

PEIPING GAGS NEWSBOYS

PEIPING, June 6. — (AP) The municipal government placed a gag on newsboys today. Authorities complained the newsboys, in crying their wares, exaggerated the headlines. Since this makes a jittery population that much more nervous, the city told the newsboys to quit shouting.

British Official Warns Of Red Peril in Asia

SINGAPORE, June 6 (AP).—Great Britain's High Commissioner for Southeast Asia said tonight there is evidence that leaders of international Communism have resolved on a political offensive in Asia if they are checkmated in Europe.

The commissioner, Malcolm MacDonald, said in a broadcast that Communist agitators are "making a desperate attempt to impose the rule of gun and knife in plantations, mines and factories" of the Malaya region.

For the last month Malaya has suffered outbreaks of lawlessness arising chiefly from labor disputes on rubber estates and factories and in tin mines.

Mr. MacDonald said the Communists pose as champions of Asian nationalist movements. Once an independent government is established, he asserted, the Communists "oppose it, frustrate it and attempt to destroy it." He cited Communist opposition to the Indian and Burmese governments.

2,640 Sapphires Go Begging

MANILA, June 6 (AP)—A package containing 2,100 cut white sapphires and 540 unpolished sapphires from Siam is going begging for a claimant. Customs Patrol Chief Eleuterio Adevoso said he would like to find the owner. There's a little matter of customs duties. The package came in on a Cathay Pacific Airlines plane May 25.

U. N. Plans New Attempt For Poll in North Korea

MANILA, June 6 (AP).—The United Nations Commission for Korea will make another attempt to hold elections in Russian-controlled North Korea. Dr. Rufino Luna, alternate Philippine commission member, said here today as he prepared to leave for Shanghai to rejoin the commission.

The commission, which has been drafting a report on the elections held in the American zone of South Korea, will fly to Seoul Monday.

Mr. Luna told an interviewer he felt the Russians were pursuing a "softer" policy now in Korea and might let the commission conduct an election in the north.

Japanese End Trade Talks With Pakistan

Karachi, Pakistan, June 6 (AP)—After concluding trade talks with the Pakistan Government, a Japanese trade delegation left today for Japan via Delhi and Calcutta. The delegation came to Pakistan May 26.

It was officially announced that the Japanese mission purchased 20,000 bales of cotton from Pakistan and it was arranged that Pakistan will shortly be importing cotton yarn and cloth from Japan. Pakistan, however, will not get machinery as requested.

The mission leader William R. Eaton, expressed gratitude for the co-operation of Pakistan trade associations and the helpfulness of government officials during the negotiations. Eaton said he was hopeful of early healthy trade relations between Pakistan and Japan.

U.N. Latin-American Session

Delegates at Santiago to Plan Economic Commission

SANTIAGO, Chile, June 6 (AP).—Delegates from the Western Hemisphere, Great Britain, France and the Netherlands are to meet here tomorrow to set up a United Nations Economic Commission for Latin America.

Its jobs is to learn (1) how Latin Americans can work together to improve economic conditions and (2) how they can best co-operate with other parts of the world in the economic field.

A survey of each country's economic and financial problems probably will be the commission's first move. It is similar to United Nations commissions already set up for Europe, Asia and the Far East.

CRUCIAL BATTLE LOOMS OVER CUT IN FOREIGN AID

If Senate Votes to Restore Funds New Battle Looms Among Conferees.

WARNINGS SOUNDED

Vandenberg and Connally Among Leaders Urging Greater Recovery Help.

WASHINGTON, June 6 — (AP) One of the most crucial battles of the current Congress—with issues of significance at home and abroad —shaped up today in the wake of the billion dollar House cut in the foreign spending program.

30.24- 18313

The immediate question is whether the Senate will act to restore the cuts and, if so, to what degree. The administration had asked $6,533,000,000 as a minimum outlay for 12 months. The House voted $5,980,000,000 for a 15-month period.

Senate Clashes Due

The House action will be aired first in the Senate Appropriations Committee and later on the Senate floor, with clashes sure on both occasions. If the Senate acts to restore part or all of the original authorizations, there will be another fight in the Senate-House conference. Then both Houses will still have to accept whatever compromise is worked out.

All of this must be accomplished within the next two weeks if Congress is to hold to the Republican leadership's decision to adjourn on June 19.

The scrap over dollars is actually only a part of the much more basic struggle within Congress over the course of foreign policy and the extent to which this nation should go in giving economic and political support to nations in their fight to stand off communism.

Chairman Vandenberg (R-Mich) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee is reported to have told friends that unless the full amount of the funds is restored this nation will lose the so-called cold war with Russia.

He bolstered this by announcing over the week-end that he is asking to appear personally before the Senate Appropriations Committee "at the earliest possible opportunity." With this own committee Vandenberg is assured of strong support.

"It is of the utmost importance that the funds be restored to the full amount set up in the law," declared Senator Lodge (R-Mass).

Senator Connally (D-Tex) said that unless full restoration is made, the entire recovery program probably is doomed "before it even gets started."

ERP Bears Brunt of Slash

European recovery funds bore the brunt of the House slash which Chairman Taber (R-NY) of the House Appropriations Committee estimated at a "little more than $1,000,000,000."

Within the Senate Appropriations Committee there appeared a hesitancy to make any commitments until members had an opportunity to study the testimony given before the House group.

Chairman Bridges (R-NH) said that Vandenberg will be the first and principal witness and that hearings will be held Wednesday. Others will include Paul G. Hoffman, head of the Economic Cooperation Administration, and Secretary of State Marshall. Hoffman, in commenting on the House cut, said that the less money there is, the less recovery there will be. Marshall said the House plan would provide for "mere relief" instead of reconstruction.

Senator Russell (D-Ga) said today that "once we have embarked on the program, we can't afford to see it fail."

Senator Reed (R-Kas) said that if the House has a "good basis, I'll go along. If I don't think they have a good basis, I won't." Senator Ferguson (R-Mich) took a similar tack. He said he wanted to take a "thorough look and see what should be done."

tion is anxious to shelve the racial issue proposal and get about the business of grinding out the military bill.

House leaders hope to tackle the draft measure before the week is out.

The House, in the meantime, arranged to debate a Senate-approved measure to let 200,000 of Europe's displaced persons into this country.

There was an air of haste on Capitol Hill as lawmakers took up other important measures.

The Senate Finance Committee hoped to finish work before Monday night on the third "must' bill—a one-year extension of the reciprocal trade program authority which expires next Saturday.

Chairman Millikin (R-Colo) of the Finance committee said he expects both the Senate and House to beat the Saturday headline.

The House has passed the extension, which gives Congress a veto control over certain tariff cuts.

The Senate Judiciary Committee is taking up the Mundt-Nixon anti-communist bill and an anti-lynching measure.

Chairman Wiley (R-Wis) said about all he expects on the latter in a meeting tomorrow is a decision on when to hold a "full discussion" of its terms. Proponents said that didn't sound encouraging for Senate action before adjournment. The House has passed it.

But Wiley held out more hope for the committee action on the Mundt-Nixon measure, also passed by the House.

Night Meetings Planned

Leaders in both bodies plan Saturday sessions this week as well as some night meetings.

A long list of appropriation bills is filtering through the two chambers. They finance government agencies during the year that begins July 1.

If Congress follows its usual session-end pattern, several of these money bills will be jammed through at a final night session.

Fate of several far-reaching bills is uncertain. These include:

Oleomargarine tax repeal—Passed by the House and cleared by the Senate Finance committee but awaiting a nod from Senate GOP leaders.

Long range housing—The Senate approved bill still is in the House Banking committee but Chairman Wolcott (R-Mich) of that group said some bill will be passed, probably minus public housing provisions.

Social security—An extension of benefits is awaiting House consideration. Senate action appears unlikely.

Tax revision — Numerous technical changes in tax laws are ready for House action but the Senate may not act.

Aid to education—The Senate has passed a bill but House leaders seem uninterested.

Civil rights—Senate leaders still talk about action on anti-lynch or anti-poll tax but time is short. Any such measure adopted probably would be tacked onto some other bill in the final rush.

Farm legislation—A long range farm plan appears stalled in both Houses but House leaders are pushing for an extension of postwar government supports on numerous farm commodities that expire at the end of 1948.

Government pay raise — Senate and House leaders have been unable to reach agreement on amounts but may do so.

Congress Puts 'Must' Tag On 2-Year Draft Measure

Bill Goes to Top of Legislative Heap; Senate Debate Continues Today.

WASHINGTON, June 6 — (AP) Congress put the two-year draft bill at the top of its legislative heap today and prepared to work overtime in a two weeks drive toward a June 19 finish.

Many headline bills—oleomargarine tax repeal, social security, civil rights, farm planning, and others—seemed in danger of being shouldered aside in the adjournment rush.

The Senate picks up debate on the selective service measure where it left off Friday night—with Senator Langer (R-ND) holding the floor for an amendment to wipe out segregation in the armed forces.

Seek to Shelve Racial Issue

But Langer told a reporter he's had his say and will let others take over. A Republican-Democrat coali-

COMMUNIST CURB PUSHED

Truman's Attack On Munlt Bill Spurs Republicans

Washington, June 6 (AP)—President Truman's jab at the Mundt-Nixon bill seemed likely today to spur Republican demands for Senate action to curb the Communists.

The Senate Judiciary Committee will meet tomorrow to decide what to do about the House-approved measure, and Representative Wiley (R., Wis.), chairman, said he expects to have available then an opinion from Attorney General Clark on the bill's terms.

Without naming the measure, Mr. Truman said in Chicago Friday night that he thinks proposals to outlaw the Community party "miss the point." He added that "you cannot stamp out communism by driving it underground."

Same Theme May Be Followed

Most committee members thought the Attorney General's opinion might follow the same theme in legal language.

But Senator Ferguson (R., Mich.) served notice that he, for one, isn't going to be deterred by the kind of objections the President made.

Mr. Truman said the way to stop communism is to have "more and better democracy." Agreeing that this is a fine goal, Ferguson said it isn't enough.

"No matter how we improve our democracy," Ferguson said, "there will still be an international Communist conspiracy to overthrow this Government by force. It isn't the hungry people who want communism. The real leaders of the movement will be satisfied with nothing less than a Soviet America."

Determined, Says Ferguson

Ferguson said he is determined to get a bill out of committee which will make it illegal for an organization to accept foreign direction and to work for the violent overthrow of this Government.

In an open letter to the Communist paper, the Daily Worker, Wiley accused Communists of attempts to sabotage the Mundt-Nixon measure by calling for extended hearings. He said the committee would not "tolerate your stalling tactics."

He said the Communist Party "stands accused on its own record of seeking to provoke mob incidents for publicity value in connection with the Mundt bill, even to the point perhaps of leading to some bloodshed so as to continue your sham pose as 'martyrs' and as 'victims of capitalist political persecution.'"

Emotion Ruled Out

But he said the committee isn't going to let emotion sway it.

"There will be no hysteria in committee action, no red-baiting, no witch-hunting—as you have tried to accuse us," he said.

Wiley said he can't predict whether the bill can be passed by the Senate before the scheduled June 19 adjournment.

The bill would outlaw all activity designed to set up in this country a totalitarian government controlled by a foreign power. It provides for registration of members of organizations held by the Justice Department to be subversive.

Educators Quoted

The "Committee of One Thousand" today quoted 25 educators and others against the measure. The committee says it is a nonpartisan group of authors, educators, business men, churchmen and scientists originally formed to work for the abolition of the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

Among the committee's list of objectors were Dr. Henry W. Wieman, of the University of Oregon; Olin Downes, music critic, of the New York Times; Dean Russell Bowie, of Union Theological Seminary; Dr. Harlow Shapley, of Harvard; Dr. Robert M. Yerkes, of Yale, and Prof. Howard Mumford Jones, of Harvard.

Also, the "Veterans Committee Against the Mundt-Nixon Bill" called a Washington conference to fight the measure. Its chairman, Russell H. Fluent, treasurer of the State of Washington, said in a statement:

"Our forefathers fought and died so that men may speak and assemble in freedom. . . . No administration in temporary power has the completely Un-American 'right' to declare people or organizations 'subversive' just because they disagree with the administration."

ERP BATTLE MAY SWAY VANDENBERG ON POLITICAL RACE

WASHINGTON, June 6 — (AP) Friends predicted today that a bitter congressional fight over restoring House-slashing foreign aid funds might put Senator Arthur Vandenberg in a receptive mood toward the Republican presidential nomination.

Unless he changes his mind, associates said Vandenberg won't cast any new light on his availability for the nomination before the party's national convention meets in Philadelphia June 21.

The Michigan senator has said he is not a candidate and doesn't want the nomination. But he never has said flatly that he won't take it.

Backs Fight for More Funds

House action cutting European recovery program funds apparently dismayed Vandenberg. Friends said he regarded it as a direct slap at the bipartisan foreign policy under which he helped steer through Congress the original authorization bill for the program.

His readiness to take the lead in testifying for more funds before the Appropriations committee—of which he isn't a member—was looked upon as a sign he is willing to go all out to keep this policy from getting a black eye.

Some of those who want Vandenberg to get the nomination see it this way:

If he concludes the Republicans otherwise might be tagged in the campaign with the "isolationist" label that Democrats are applying to the House action, he would be much more willing to accept nomination.

Friends checked with him last week on a new crop of rumors that he was going to have something more to say about his political position. Vandenberg was reported to have replied he now sees no need of expanding his views.

This negative assurance is just about all some of his admirers need to take a hand in the backstage political poker game many of them think is going to be played at Philadelphia.

Their theory is that as a non-candidate, Vandenberg is about the most attractive possibility for a compromise if Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, Senator Robert A. Taft and Harold E. Stassen tie themselves up in a knot in their scramble for the nomination.

IMMIGRATION BILL ASSAILED

Committee Head Sees Discrimination In Senate Version

Washington, June 6 (AP)—Earl G. Harrison denounced the Senate bill to admit 200,000 displaced Europeans to the United States as "a booby trap, . . . a sorry mess, ill befitting a great democracy."

Harrison issued a statement attacking the bill as inadequate in his capacity as chairman of the "Citizens Committee on Displaced Persons." He was Federal immigration commissioner in 1942-1944.

"It has been deliberately designed to exclude D.P.'s, not admit them," he said of the bill. "Among other things it discriminates on grounds of religion, nationality and occupation."

Called Unfair To Jews

He said it was particularly unfair to Jews.

Harrison urged that House Republican leaders undo the "monstrosity of Senate action." He continued:

"An analysis of the provisions . . . revealed the tortuous and devious methods adopted to abandon the displaced persons. . . . This is what the bill really means:

"1. Fifty per cent of the D.P.'s must come from countries 'annexed by a foreign power'—Latvia, Lithuania, Estonia, and eastern Poland. On its face this is rank discrimination because these people are nowhere near half of the total D.P. population. But the underlying discrimination is in favor of the Balts who are predominantly Protestant, and, it therefore, is against Jews and Catholics.

"2. Fifty per cent of the displaced persons must be farmers or their dependents. Since farmers are but a small minority of the occupation of D.P.'s the discrimination of this cause is obvious.

Sees Fifth Column Favored

"3. A special rider to the bill, permitting Sudetens and other Europeans of German ethnic origin to enter the United States under the regular German quota, underlines the racist character of the bill. That the Volksdeutsche, the insidious Nazi fifth column, should be handed special privileges over the victims of Nazi oppression, is a mockery of American justice.

"4. To make doubly certain that few if any victims of Nazi oppression can enter, an amendment to change the date of eligibility from December 22, 1945, to April 21, 1947, was defeated. This was done with the full knowledge that most of the Jews arrived in the occupied zones a few months after the December, 1945, date. Thus, less than 10,000 Jewish D.P.'s out of a total of a million can qualify for admission under this bill.

"5 . . . Even before he gets a visa in Europe every D.P. must have a job in the United States. The bill would force our employers to hire a man 3,000 miles away sight unseen, or not hire him at all. The same goes for housing. Thus, the improbability of matching up jobs, individuals and homes must be clear to all."

Harrison's committee includes such persons as Barry Bingham, James A. Farley, Herbert H. Lehman, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Edward R. Stettinius, Herbert Bayard Swope and Charles P. Taft.

NEW DISPUTE SEEN WITH SOVIETS OVER ZONES UNIFICATION

WASHINGTON, June 6—(AP) Western diplomats look for new trouble with Russia. This time it is over impending moves by the western powers to unify their zones of Germany and fit western German production into the European recovery program.

Expected Soviet counter-moves may be indicated this week following publication tomorrow of western nation agreements completed a few days ago in London. They are up for final approval in the United States, Britain, France and the low countries.

Some American official experts on Russia believe that the Soviets may renew their efforts to force the western powers out of Berlin and make that city the headquarters for a body which would claim to be an "all-German" government.

The communist-controlled Berliner Zeitung yesterday published an open threat from an official of the "German People's Congress." It was directed against those Germans in the west who help the western powers carry out their plans for creating a provisional German government over all the western zones.

The Soviets have been hampered in their propaganda attacks thus far by lack of adequate official information on the London agreements. Such information will be made public tomorrow when the six nations which held the conference release a 1,200-word official report. The six are the United States, Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

Their agreements have been authoritatively described as providing for creation of a loosely-federalized western German regime covering the American, British and French occupation zones; joint international control of production of the great Ruhr industrial area; and other steps necessary to make western Germany self-supporting and a major contributor to economic reconstruction of Europe.

Initial communist opposition to these agreements may be focused first and most effectively in France. The United States and Britain have long worked for western German unity, but the London agreements mark a radical departure in French foreign policy. They are scheduled to be thoroughly debated at Paris. Washington officials are hopeful—but by no means certain—that the French government can win parliamentary approval for them.

NAVY DEVELOPING GUIDED MISSILES

Details Bared on Rocket Capable of Halting Enemy Planes 7 Miles Away.

WASHINGTON, June 6 (AP)—The navy is developing a guided missile to knock down enemy planes more than seven miles away.

The rocket-propelled missile will ride a radio beam to targets from 5,000 to 15,000 yards from the mother ship and will be ready for fleet installation by 1950.

Details of the guided missile and a glittering array of new weapons were disclosed in navy detachment appropriation hearings, made public on Capitol Hill.

The navy plans to build 50 of the new antiaircraft missiles at a cost of $25,000 each for training and study.

Other weapons:

A guided missile launched from shipboard or land and controlled by front-line troops. It will cost $500,000 to develop and will do the damage of naval gunfire, long range artillery or fighter-bombers.

Bigger and better bazookas for the Marines. The standard 2.36 inch bazooka will be replaced by a 3.5 inch for anti-tank defense and close support fire. No details were revealed of the relative effectiveness of the bigger weapon.

A new 20 MM cannon to be installed in the latest type navy planes starting next January. (One of the problems of vastly increased flying speeds has been the erratic behavior of old-style guns. Presumably the new cannon can fire accurately at the 600 mile per hour speeds of modern fighters.)

Weathermen Seek Data in Arctic That Would Be Vital in Wartime

WASHINGTON, June 6 — (AP) Up in the empty areas of the Arctic, expeditions of American geographers and weathermen are gathering data that would be critically needed by the United States if war should come.

They operate under the diction of two research units of the national military establishment—the committee on geographic exploration and the committee on geophysical sciences.

Among their interests are the precise correction of maps for use when long range guided missiles become a practical weapon. Existing maps for various areas of the world are known to be inaccurate, sometimes showing cities, shorelines, streams and other objects many miles removed from their actual location.

Some Secrets Bared

Dr. L. R. Hafstad, executive secretary of the defense department's research and development board, disclosed some of the hitherto secret information about the studies in an appearance before a congressional committee.

The geographic exploration committee, said Hafstad, has been concentrating recently on Arctic exploration.

"There is a very strong effort in the military research and development field looking toward gaining some experience in this area and the geographic exploration committee was started mainly to cover these many expeditions being sent out and to make sure that they interchange information," he said.

Explaining that accurate maps are very important in the use of guided missiles, Hafstad said:

"Our maps are not too accurate at the present time particularly in foreign areas.

"We do not actually know the shape of the earth well enough to make the guided missile really accurate."

He asserted that "extremely important for the use of rockets and guided missiles" is knowledge of the weather and conditions in the upper air where these weapons will travel. He said the military is "looking toward radio and radar methods for controlling guided missiles and also controlling manned airplanes." This requires accurate knowledge of upper atmospheric conditions affecting radio and radar signals and impulses.

AFL, CIO ENDORSE FOREIGN AID PLAN

WASHINGTON, June 6 — (AP) The A.F.L. and C.I.O. have settled their dispute over labor's part in the foreign aid plan and are agreed on giving it joint support, the program's overseas labor chief, Boris Shishkin, reported today.

The big labor organizations are "in complete agreement." Shishkin told a reporter, on a program of the economic cooperation administration which includes:

Agree on Program

1. Boosting the output of the individual foreign worker, by enlisting the help of Europe's trade unions.

2. Combating Communist resistance to the recovery program within European worker groups.

3. Dovetailing the movement of recovery goods and workers so that skilled manpower is on hand for quick, productive action at the point of destination.

4. Breaking down Europe's barriers to the movement of labor across national borders. Thousands of Polish farm hands, for instance, might move into German coal mines after their harvest.

Efforts of ECA Administrator Paul G. Hoffman to get a program rolling with A.F.L.-C.I.O. cooperation seemed stymied last month. A.F.L. President William Green said A.F.L. could not work with C.I.O. while the latter remained part of what he called the "Communist-dominated" world federation of trade unions.

How this jam was broken Shiskin did not disclose. Agreement was reached among Hoffman, Green and C.I.O. President Philip Murray, however, resulting in these appointments:

Shishkin, chief A.F.L. economist, to head the labor division at ECA's Paris headquarters; and, as twin advisers to Hoffman in this country, Bert M. Jewell, international representative of the Railway Labor Executives Association and former A.F.L. railway chief, and Clinton S. Golden, assistant to President Murray of the C.I.O. United Steel Workers.

JUN 1948

JUN 1948 30.24- 18315

An ECA spokesman said Hoffman has asked Shishkin to sell European labor on the idea that "American help isn't a continuing dole—that Europe's long-range recovery must be based largely on the increased productivity of the European worker."

Hoffman also puts great emphasis on the "interchangeability of labor" among the European nations, the spokesman said. In the charter of the "organization for European economic cooperation," signed at Paris this spring, the nations agreed to a progressive lowering of the barriers to free movement.

Each nation, it was agreed, "shall be able to call upon the manpower available in the territory of every other contracting party."

STATE DEPT. TO REVISE 'VOICE OF AMERICA'

WASHINGTON, June 6—(AP)—Because the "Know North America" broadcasts made Congress so mad, the State department is getting ready to revise and tighten its whole system of farming out overseas programs to commercial networks.

Officials said today that new "Voice of America" contracts with the National Broadcasting company and the Columbia Broadcasting system will provide:

1. The State department itself will write and control, through an expanded staff, all official news and commentary beamed to foreign listeners.

2. Entertainment and special features such as the travelogue series in Spanish for Latin America which backfired in Congress, will be contracted for individually. They will be tailored to official specification and carefully reviewed, much as a radio sponsor goes over a domestic commercial program in advance.

Hoffman Says Arms Can Avert Russian Attack

He Tells Notre Dame Class Stalin Won't Start War if Free Nations Are United

SOUTH BEND, Ind., June 6 (AP).—Paul G. Hoffman, Economic Cooperation Administrator, said today Premier Stalin will not plunge the world into war "if the free nations stand together and are prepared militarily to meet aggression."

Mr. Hoffman spoke at the 103d commencement at Notre Dame University, which gave him the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws.

"It is obvious to all," he said, "that a ruthless dictatorship—probably the most powerful the world has ever seen—is launched on a well-thought-out program of destroying all free institutions. Stalin's objectives have been as clearly spelled out in many Communist documents as were Hitler's in 'Mein Kampf.'"

See "Clear-Cut Division"

Mr. Hoffman said that "there is a clear-cut division between the barbaric dictatorship of Stalin . . . and the free Western civilization developed through twenty centuries of Christianity." . . .

"The free peoples of Western civilization are at last discovering a firm, sound basis for united action. We are joined now not by mere expediency but by fundamental morality," he went on. "Never before have so many nations felt so inspired by their common heritage of Western Christian culture. Never before have these nations been so willing to act on what they have in common and to disregard the things that separate them.

"In this growing sense of solidarity among all free peoples—in their awareness of the type of conflict in which we are now engaged lies our greatest hope of avoiding another world war.

"Hitler would never have marched in 1939, in my opinion, if he had arrayed against him the united strength of the world's free nations. Nor will Stalin march today if the free nations stand together and are prepared militarily to meet aggression."

Other Honorary Degrees

Honorary degrees of doctor of laws were also conferred on the Most Rev. Richard J. Cushing, Roman Catholic Archbishop of Boston, and Dr. Roy J. Defarrari, of Washington, Secretary-General of the Catholic University of America.

The honorary degree of doctor of science was awarded to Vincent J. Schaefer, of Schenectady, N. Y., research chemist. An honorary doctorate of laws was awarded posthumously to William J. Corbett, Chicago business man and former member of the Board of Lay Trustees at Notre Dame, who died May 26.

TAYLOR HITS MARSHALL PLAN

British War Bride Gets Offer of a Home in U. S.

FALMOUTH, Mass., June 6 (AP).—Within a few hours yesterday fate smiled and frowned on a British war bride who recently sent her young son back to England, saying she could not support him.

The smile came when a woman offered Mrs. Daphne Smith, twenty-one, and her three-year-old son, Sturgis, free board and room in her Guilford, Conn., home. But that news came as Mrs. Smith was in Cape Cod Hospital, Hyannis. She had been struck by a hit-and-run driver here and was suffering head injuries and multiple bruises. Because of her condition, hospital authorities said she was not told of the offer, which was made by Mrs. Agnes B. Donohue, widow of a physician. Twenty-five years ago she was an actress, Agnes Barrington.

Mrs. Donohue learned of Mrs. Smith's plight from a picture in "The New Haven Register," which showed Mrs. Smith placing her son aboard a trans-Atlantic plane at Boston last Thursday night.

Mrs. Smith said her American husband failed to meet her when she arrived in New York eighteen months ago. She said she was unable to support herself and care for the youngster at the same time. She sent him to live with her mother in Falmouth, England.

RUSSIA RIGHT ON GERMANY, WALLACE SAYS

'Wall Street Trusts' And 'Militarists' Blamed For U.S. Policy

New York, June 6 (AP)—Henry A. Wallace today said Russia rightfully opposes a United States policy in Germany which "would restore to power the very same men and groups" that created the Nazi war machine.

In a speech over a radio network, the third-party presidential candidate accused "Wall Street trusts" and "Pentagon militarists" of blocking the road to a peaceful settlement of the German question. They, he said, "are gambling with America's future for their private profits and glory."

"Chain Reaction" Forecast

He characterized present American policy—which he said was indorsed by leaders of both the Republican and Democratic parties—as an attempt to build up western Germany, first economically and then militarily, against the Soviets.

"When they react," Wallace said, "we in turn will react against their reaction. Can't we see on this fourth anniversary of D-day that this chain reaction can only lead us toward a bigger D-day—toward the massacre of Russians and Americans and toward the destruction of the whole of Europe?"

"Return To Potsdam" Urged

Wallace urged a return to what he said were the principles agreed upon at Potsdam for making peace with Germany.

But, he said, "the reactionary big-business men who really make American policy in Germany are opposed to those principles. . . . I charge that, through the restoration of the German cartel and monopoly system, they are conspiring to enlarge their holdings and establish themselves in a rebuilt remilitarized, Ruhr Valley heavy industry."

"The Pentagon brass hats are in league with Wall Street in this objective," he added. "Instead of punishing the Junker generals, they employ them in responsible jobs."

Proposals Suggested

He proposed another meeting of the Council of Foreign Ministers to negotiate a peace treaty for Germany and recommended that at this meeting the United States delegation submit these measures for implementing the Potsdam principles:

1. An all-German constitutional convention, under Allied supervision, to create a unified German government and a unified German economy.

2. An agreement by the occupying powers to fire all German generals and scientists now on the payrolls of their armed forces and to reduce immediately their occupation armies.

3. Finally "instead of merely rejecting Soviet reparations claims, our delegation should advance definite and reasonable reparations proposals."

Of his New Party, Wallace said: "We have the faith and the program. And we will win."

BERLIN, JUNE 6-(AP)-THE RUSSIANS AND GERMAN COMMUNISTS TODAY UNDERTOOK A NEW PROPAGANDA CAMPAIGN APPARENTLY DESIGNED TO FORCE WITHDRAWAL OF THE WESTERN ALLIES FROM BERLIN BY PROVOKING FEAR AND DISCONTENT AMONG THE CITY'S WORKER POPULATION.

JUN 1948

MOST COLUMNS OF RUSSIAN CONTROLLED PAPERS WERE DEVOTED TO THIS NEW TACK IN BERLIN'S "WAR OF NERVES," ON THE EVE OF THE WESTERN POWERS' REPORT ON THEIR AGREEMENT TO FORM A FEDERALIZED GOVERNMENT IN WESTERN GERMANY. THIS REPORT, ANNOUNCING DECISIONS REACHED IN LONDON CONFERENCES WITH THE LOW COUNTRIES, IS DUE TO COME OUT TOMORROW.

THE RUSSIANS' CAMPAIGN HERE WORKS ON FOUR MAJOR THEMES:

1. THE RUSSIANS' ACTION OF ORDERING WAGE INCREASES FOR WORKERS IN THEIR SECTOR WAS REPRESENTED AS A "PROGRESSIVE" MEASURE DESIGNED TO STIR ENVY IN THE HEARTS OF WORKERS IN WESTERN BERLIN AND STIR REVOLT AGAINST THE WESTERN MILITARY GOVERNMENTS.

2. PRESS ARTICLES SOUGHT TO SPREAD FEAR AMONG THE PEOPLE THAT A SEPARATE CURRENCY REFORM FOR WESTERN GERMANY WOULD BRING CHAOS TO THE ECONOMY OF GERMANY AND BERLIN.

3. THE GERMANS WERE TOLD THAT THE U.S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES' ACTION IN REDUCING EUROPEAN RECOVERY PLAN FUNDS "PROVES THAT THE U.S. IS TRYING TO BUY EUROPE AT BARGAIN RATES."

4. RENEWED CLAIMS WERE SPREAD THAT THE AMERICAN MILITARY GOVERNMENT WAS PULLING OUT OF BERLIN AND THAT THE U.S. OCCUPATION ARMY HERE WAS EXERTING "TERROR TACTICS" AGAINST THE POPULATION.

NEUES DEUTSCHLAND, OFFICIAL ORGAN OF THE SOVIET-SPONSORED SOCIALIST UNITY PARTY, TOLD GERMAN WORKERS THAT "IF SOVIET GEN.KOTIKOV ALONE WERE RUNNING BERLIN" ALL BERLIN WORKERS, NOT ONLY THOSE IN THE SOVIET SECTOR, WOULD GET WAGE INCREASES AND EXTRA FOOD RATIONS.

THIS REFERRED TO KOTIKOV'S ACTION OF GOING OUTSIDE THE BOUNDS OF THE ALLIED KOMMANDATURA LAST WEEK TO INSTITUTE HIS OWN WORKERS' PROGRAM AFTER IT HAD FAILED TO GAIN FOUR-POWER ACCEPTANCE. PREVIOUSLY THE RUSSIANS HAD REJECTED A BRITISH PROPOSAL FOR A BLANKET 15 PER CENT WAGE INCREASE ON A CITY-WIDE BASIS. U.S. AND BRITISH AUTHORITIES BRANDED KOTIKOV'S ACTION AS ONE -DESIGNED TO SPLIT THE CITY AND MAKE PROPAGANDA WITH THE WORKERS."

THE NEUES DEUTSCHLAND, WHICH HAS BEEN LEADING A CAMPAIGN AGAINST AMERICAN OCCUPATION HERE, ALSO PRINTED A CARTOON SHOWING UNCLE SAM SITTING IN FRANKFURT WITH HIS LEGS STRETCHED OUT TO JOINT OCCUPATION OF BERLIN. THE CARTOON WAS CAPTIONED "THIS CAN'T LAST FOREVER--EITHER ONE OR THE OTHER."

THE RUSSIAN-CONTROLLED NEWSPAPERS TOLD GERMAN WORKERS THEY WOULD SUFFER THE HEAVIEST PRIVATIONS IN CURRENCY REFORMS AS IT WAS ALLEGEDLY CONTEMPLATED BY THE WESTERN POWERS.

THE SOVIET ARMY'S OFFICIAL NEWSPAPER TAEGLICHE RUNDSCHAU, REMARKING ON REDUCTION IN ERP FUNDS, TOLD THE GERMANS "THIS IS THE END OF AN ILLUSION--THE MARSHALL PLAN DROPS ITS MASK. THE PRICE IS TOO HIGH FOR THE BANKERS AND WESTERN EUROPEAN NATIONS BEGIN TO DOUBT THE WISDOM OF TRUSTING AMERICA."

THE ENTIRE SOVIET CONTROLLED SECTION OF THE BERLIN PRESS MAINTAINED A DRUMFIRE ATTACK AGAINST THE AMERICANS AND FRENCH FOR ARRESTING COMMUNISTS WHO ILLEGALLY PROMOTED THE SO-CALLED PEOPLE'S PLEBISCITE ON GERMAN UNIFICATION IN THE WESTERN SECTORS OF THE DITY. BERLIN, JUNE 6-(AP)-THE RUSSIANS SAID TODAY FIVE AMERICANS SHOT AND WOUNDED A SOVIET SENTRY AT A GUARD POST IN SOUTHWESTERN BERLIN, ON THE BORDER BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND SOVIET SECTORS. JUN 19

COL. W.L. FALCK, U.S. ARMY PROVOST MARSHAL, SAID NO SUCH INCIDENT HAD BEEN REPORTED TO HIM. HE ADDED THAT SO FAR AS HE KNEW THERE WAS NO TRUTH IN THE RUSSIAN ALLEGATION.

LATER AMERICAN OFFICIALS SAID A LETTER PROTESTING THE ALLEGED SHOOTING HAD BEEN RECEIVED FROM LT.GEN.G.S.LUKJANTSCHENKO, SOVIET CHIEF OF STAFF IN GERMANY.

AN AMERICAN SPOKESMAN SAID THIS WAS "THE FIRST WORD OF THE ALLEGED INCIDENT WE HAD RECEIVED."

"THE MATTER IS UNDER INVESTIGATION," HE ADDED.

THE RUSSIAN REPORT CAME THREE DAYS AFTER U.S. AUTHORITIES PROTESTED THE SOVIET ARREST OF DR. HARRY LEE FRANKLIN, AMERICAN MILITARY GOVERNMENT OFFICIAL. FRANKLIN HAD ENTERED THE RUSSIAN SECTOR ON A BUSINESS ERRAND. HE LATER WAS FREED.

THE RUSSIANS SAID THE SENTRY WAS POSTED IN A WOOD ON BABELSBERG LAKE NEAR THE RESIDENCE OF MARSHAL VASSILY D. SOKOLOVSKY, SOVIET COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF IN GERMANY.

THE POST IS LOCATED IN AMERICAN TERRITORY BY SPECIAL AGREEMENT PERMITTING THE RUSSIANS TO GUARD THE APPROACHES TO SOKOLOVSKY'S HOUSE AND THE WATERWAYS TO POTSDAM. IT IS IN THE LAKE SECTION WHERE AMERICANS OFTEN GO BOATING AND HUNTING FOR SMALL GAME.

THE RUSSIAN ACCOUNT, PUBLISHED BY THE OFFICIAL SOVIET NEWS BUREAU, WAS THAT FOUR ARMED AMERICAN SOLDIERS AND AN AMERICAN CIVILIAN ATTACKED THE SENTRY AT 10:30 A.M. YESTERDAY AND THAT HE WAS SHOT IN THE SHOULDER WITH A CARBINE.

JUN 1948

"WHEN OTHER SOVIET SOLDIERS RUSHED UP TO AID HIM, THEY ARRIVED ONLY IN TIME TO SEE THE AMERICANS TAKE FLIGHT," THE REPORT SAID.

THE AGENCY SAID THE SOVIET MILITARY ADMINISTRATION FORMALLY PROTESTED TO U.S. AUTHORITIES AND DEMANDED AN INVESTIGATION, PUNISHMENT OF THE GUILTY AND COMPENSATION FOR THE WOUNDED SOLDIER.

BERLIN, JUNE 6-(AP)-RUHR COAL PRODUCTION, RECOVERING FROM A TWO-MONTHS SLUMP, REACHED 279,000 METRIC TONS ON FRIDAY, U.S. MILITARY GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS REPORTED TODAY. THIS WAS ABOUT 13,000 TONS ABOVE THE AVERAGE DAILY PRODUCTION FOR MAY.

MAY PRODUCTION AVERAGED 265,900 TONS DAILY AND APRIL PRODUCTION 268,500. THIS REPRESENTED A SIZABLE SLUMP FROM THE MARCH AVERAGE OF 288,100. FEBRUARY PRODUCTION WAS 267,600 TONS PER DAY AND JANUARY'S 254,800.

THE UPSWING STARTED IN THE LATE DAYS OF MAY AND WAS SIMILAR TO A RISE EXPERIENCED LAST JUNE.

PRODUCTION IS STILL SUBSTANTIALLY BELOW THE DAILY OUTPUT OF 305,000 TONS ENVISAGED FOR WESTERN GERMANY'S ROLE IN THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM. THE SOVIET STATEMENT ACCUSED THE AMERICANS OF COMPLICITY, AND TASS, THE SOVIET NEWS AGENCY, DESCRIBED THE INCIDENT AS A "SCANDALOUS AFFAIR."
ACCORDING TO THE SOVIET ACCOUNT, TASSOYEV WENT TO DINNER ON APRIL 24 AT THE HOME OF STANLEY A. CLEM, U.S. PORT DIRECTOR IN BREMEN, AND DID NOT RETURN. IT SAID THE RUSSIAN OFFICER WAS KIDNAPED BY BRITISH INTELLIGENCE AGENTS WHO WERE CLEM'S GUESTS.

CAIRO, JUNE 6-(AP)-THE GOVERNMENT OF ISRAEL SAID TONIGHT THE UNITED NATIONS MEDIATOR PROBABLY WOULD DECIDE TOMORROW THE TIMETABLE FOR A FOUR-WEEK TRUCE IN THE PALESTINE WAR.

REPORTS FROM THE ARAB WORLD, HOWEVER, INDICATED NEGOTIATIONS FOR THE CEASE FIRE HAD HIT A SNAG AND THAT EFFORTS TO ENGINEER AT LEAST A TEMPORARY END TO THE BLOODY FIGHTING WERE IN DANGER OF FAILING.

THE ISRAELI GOVERNMENT SAID IN A COMMUNIQUE, AFTER ITS FOREIGN MINISTER MOSHE SHERTOK TALKED WITH THE MEDIATOR, COUNT FOLKE BERNADOTTE, IN HAIFA TODAY:

JUN 1948

"IT WAS UNDERSTOOD THAT COUNT BERNADOTTE IS EXPECTED TO MAKE UP HIS MIND FINALLY DURING THE COURSE OF TOMORROW WHEN HE WOULD COMMUNICATE HIS CONCLUSIONS TO BOTH SIDES, PROPOSE THE DEADLINE AND EXPECT THE REPLY:."

NEVERTHELESS, A DISPATCH FROM AMMAN, WHERE BERNADOTTE ALSO CONFERRED WITH KING ABDULLAH DURING THE DAY, SAID THE TRUCE AGREEMENT APPEARED TO BE BREAKING UP. IT HAD BEEN ACCEPTED IN PRINCIPLE LAST WEDNESDAY BY BOTH THE JEWS AND ARABS.

Cairo, June 6--(ap)-- An Egyptian [redacted] defense ministry communique said tonight [redacted] 66 Jews were killed and a great number wounded when an Egyptian patrol trapped a Jewish armored convoy./ The communique said several armored cars were captured, but did not say where the action occurred. [redacted] Egyptian mobile forces were shelling the new city of Jerusalem, the communique added.

The text of the Egyptian communique follows:

1 -- Activity of our reconnaisance patrols was extended and increased to cover wide areas. Reconnaisance reported the presence of an armored Zionist force which was shelled by our artillery and suffered considerable casualties.

2 -- An attack by enemy forces against our advanced lines was repulsed. Our forces [redacted] pursued the retreating enemy inflicting casualties and capturing weapons and armored vehicles.

3 -- One of our fighting patrols trapped an enemy armored convoy killing 66 and wounding a great number. The convoy fled leaving a number of armored cars which were captured.

4 -- Our mobile forces advanced to shell Jerusalem's new city quarters. On their advance northward they shelled the Talpyiot and Arnona settlements.

5 -- The Egyptian royal air force undertook reconnaisance flights ahead of our advanced forces. Sandstorms and unfavorable weather conditions prevented, however, continuity in our aerial activity.

INDICATED THE SYRIAN ARMY WAS TRYING TO CUT OFF THE NORTHERNMOST "THUMB" OF PALESTINE, A JEWISH AREA OF ABOUT 80 SQUARE MILES, WITH A TWO-PRONGED ATTACK.
IN ADDITION TO TAKING MALIKYA FROM THE NORTH, THE SYRIAN ARMY IS ATTACKING WESTWARD AGAINST THE JEWISH-HELD VILLAGE OF MISHMAR HAY YARDEN, NEAR THE SYRIAN BORDER SOUTH OF LAKE HULA.
THIS MORNING'S ISRAELI COMMUNIQUE SAID AN ATTACK WAS REPULSED THERE YESTERDAY, BUT A COMMUNIQUE TONIGHT SAID THE ARAB ATTACK WAS RENEWED THIS MORNING.

IN JEWISH QUARTERS IT IS BELIEVED THE SYRIANS, WHO FAILED IN AN ATTACK IN THE SAME AREA TWO WEEKS AGO, WERE TRYING TO GAIN SOME OF THE TERRITORY WHICH WOULD GO TO THE JEWS UNDER THE UNITED NATIONS PARTITION PLAN. THE SYRIANS, JEWS SAID, WANT THIS TERRITORY IN ORDER TO BE IN A BARGAINING POSITION IN CASE THE U.N.-SPONSORED TRUCE IS ARRANGED WITHIN THE NEXT FEW DAYS.

MALIKYA, A FEW HUNDRED YARDS FROM THE LEBANESE BORDER, WAS CAPTURED BY JEWISH FORCES MAY 29.
THE JEWISH COMMUNIQUE SAID: "STRONG ENEMY FORCES ATTACKED THE VILLAGE LAST NIGHT AND THIS MORNING. OUR FORCES LEFT THE VILLAGE AND ENTRENCHED THEMSELVES IN POSITIONS NEARBY."
THE DAMASCUS RADIO HEARD HERE SAID SYRIAN TROOPS WERE ATTACKING FROM LEBANESE TERRITORY. THE JEWISH COMMUNIQUE SAID THE JEWISH-HELD KEY CITY OF ROSH PINNA, SIX MILES SOUTHWEST OF MISHMAR HAY YARDEN, WAS BOMBED AND SHELLED BY ARAB FORCES.

JERUSALEM, JUNE 6-(AP)-A HAGANAH SPOKESMAN SAID TODAY THE LOTING OF ARAB HOUSES IN JEWISH-OCCUPIED JERUSALEM IS GETTING PRIORITY ATTENTION FROM JEWISH AUTHORITIES.
DAVID BEN-GURION, PREMIER OF ISRAEL, HAS ORDERED DEATH PENALTIES FOR LOOTERS, BUT JERUSALEM AUTHORITIES HAVE NOT YET ISSUED THE DECREE TO JEWISH TROOPS WHO ARE DOING MOST OF THE LOOTING.
VANDALISM ALSO HAS BECOME WIDESPREAD IN THE HOLY CITY.
ONE HOUSE I VISITED IN THE FORMER ARAB BAQAA QUARTER TODAY HAS BEEN GIVEN A VIRTUAL SCORCHED EARTH TREATMENT BY THE JEWS. IT WAS THE PROPERTY OF ISSA SABA, AN AMERICAN CITIZEN OF ARAB ANCESTRY.
HIS ONCE-BEAUTIFUL HOME IS NOW A SHAMBLES. VALUABLES HAVE BEEN LOOTED AND THE ROOMS HAVE BEEN RANSACKED. PORTRAITS OF FAMILY ELDERS HAVE BEEN SLASHED.
ACTING U.S. CONSUL GENERAL WILLIAM BURDETTE VISITED THE HOUSE AT SABA'S REQUEST AND LATER TOOK A JEWISH AGENCY OFFICIAL THERE TO SEE THE DAMAGE. THE AGENCY EXPRESSED PROFOUND SHOCK AND PROMISED TO PLACE A GUARD ON THE HOUSE TO SEE THAT OTHER FURNISHINGS ARE NOT STOLEN.
THESE INCLUDE A REFRIGERATOR, WASHING MACHINE AND FURNITURE, MOST OF WHICH WAS DAMAGED BY THE LOOTERS.

Benes Quits Czech Presidency Rather Than O.K. Constitution

A.I. GOLDBERG

Prague, Czechoslovakia, June 7 (AP)—Eduard Benes, Czechoslovakia's last strong link with the West, resigned as President today rather than approve a new constitution drawn up by the Communists. Communist Premier Klement Gottwald was regarded as the leading choice to succeed him.

Benes, 64, had held the post for eleven years in two terms.

His resignation was accepted at a special meeting of the Cabinet and was announced by Gottwald. In a short letter made public by the Government, Benes said he decided May 4 to resign and had so informed Gottwald.

Doctors' Advice

The letter said:

"At this time we discussed my decision and all the problems of the whole political situation and I told you also that my doctors had advised me to heed my present condition of health."

Benes expressed the wish that the people and their Government "shall live together and work together in tolerance, love and forgiveness, and that they should vouchsafe for everyone liberty and use that liberty conscientiously."

The phrasing gave the Communist-dominated Government the excuse, spread abroad during the last two weeks, that the President was resigning because of his health which has been bad during the last year.

But the wording, mild as it was, also carried the implication that Benes disapproved of the constitution and of the recent Communist-dominated single-ticket election. An unopposed hand-picked slate for Parliament was elected May 30 by voters in a flat yes-or-no election. Every difficulty was set up for those who voted no.

Benes was the second President in Czechoslovakia's history. In 1946 he was elected to serve for life.

He first became President in December, 1935, after Thomas G. Masaryk resigned because of age and illness. Benes had been Masaryk's Foreign Minister seventeen years and helped him found the Czechoslovak republic.

Resigned After Munich

Benes resigned once before—in 1938 after the Munich conference brought the German invasion—but reassumed the presidency in London, July 21, 1940.

Last February a Communist coup sharply reduced Benes's power. A short time later Jan Masaryk, son of the first President and Benes's Foreign Minister, was found dead. The Communist Government called it suicide.

Gottwald's office said Benes will receive the presidential country home at Lany, 24 miles from Prague, as a tribute to his work. His presidential salary will continue for life.

The President receives an annual salary of $60,000 and expenses of $66,000. Although it was not specifically stated, it was believed the salary figure was the one which would be continued.

Czechoslovakia's Parliament, which now contains no anti-Communist elements, will elect a new President June 14.

If Gottwald is elected, the premiership may go to Antonin Zapotocky, deputy premier and head of the trade unions. There still is talk that 70-year-old Zdenek Nejedly, Education Minister, or Zdenek Fierlinger, Minister of Industry, might be chosen President and that Gottwald would remain as Premier.

Tribute To Benes

The news of Benes's resignation—Czechoslovaks called it an "abdication"—was given to the country for the first time in a 7 P.M. broadcast. Benes's letter and a statement by the Premier were read.

Gottwald's statement said: "As is evident from his (Benes's) letter I endeavored for a long time to dissuade him. I informed the Government of it in its meeting May 25 and have also laid before it a medical attest on the President's state of health.

"When the President insists in his intention and the medical advices are very urgent we cannot but . . . agree with his statement."

The radio announcement was followed by the playing of solemn music. A radio commentator then read a long tribute to Benes.

Benes Resigns As President Of Czechs

A.I. GOLDBERG

Prague, June 7 (AP)—President Benes resigned today.

JUN 1948

Premier Klement Gottwald's office announced the resignation was accepted at a special Cabinet meeting.

Benes was elected to a seven-year term in 1946.

Resigned Once Before

He resigned once before—in 1938 after the Munich conference brought the German invasion—but reassumed the presidency in London, July 21, 1940. He first became President in December, 1935, after Thomas G. Masaryk resigned because of age and illness. Benes had been Masary's Foreign Minister seventeen years and helped him found the Czechoslovak Republic.

Three months ago Masaryk's son, Jan, Benes's Foreign Minister, was found dead—a suicide, the Communist Government said. That followed the Communist coup in February which sharply reduced Benes's powers.

He resigned rather than accept the "peoples democracy constitution" which the Communists put forward. He disagreed with its provisions and disapproved of the single-ticket parliamentary elections which the Communist regime held eight days ago.

Communique Promised

The first announcement of the resignation said only that a communique would be issued later. There was no promise that the contenders of Benes's letter of resignation would be made public.

The resignation took out of the Government the last strong link that this country, founded with American support, had with the west. Benes remained that, though his powers were shorn, even after he bowed to the Communists in February.

He permitted the Communists to form their government, Gottwald acknowledged at the time, in order to avoid bloodshed and rioting. Benes said the event could have "only evil results."

Deadline For Signature

The constitution which Benes refused to accept was adopted May 9 by a purged, Communist-dominated Parliament. Today was the deadline for Benes's signature.

There has been speculation for two weeks that Benes would resign—with ill health given as the reason.

Salary Ordered For Life

Benes is 64.

Gottwald's office said Benes will receive the presidential country home at Lany, 24 miles from Prague, as a tribute to his work, and that his presidential salary will continue for life.

Under the new constitution, Gottwald will summon Parliament and sign all bills. Parliament will be asked Thursday to set new presidential elections for next Monday, the Premier's office said.

It was uncertain immediately whom the Communists will support for the job. Gottwald has been mentioned, but there was doubt whether the Communists would want their leader to retire from the premiership to the less-active Presidency. Antonin Zapotocky, head of the trade unions and Deputy Premier, is perhaps next in line for the premiership if Gottwald should take the Presidency.

Benes Letter, Gottwald Speech

PRAGUE, June 7 (AP).—The text of President Eduard Benes's letter of resignation to Premier Klement Gottwald, as translated into English and released by the Ministry of Information:

Mr. Prime Minister:

On May 4, I have announced to you my definite intention to resign the Presidential office. We have discussed at that time this decision of mine in connection with the problem of the over-all political situation. I also announced to you that the doctor recommended me to take into consideration my recent state of health.

Referring to this discussion, I asked you to announce to the National Assembly this decision of mine, to ask the National Assembly to acknowledge my resignation from this responsible office by which I was honored by the unanimous vote on July 19, 1946. I thank them for their confidence, I thank the ration for its confidence and love which were always an immense comfort and which I endeavored not to disappoint.

I wish all my dear compatriots, the responsible representatives and their government that the republic is spared all disaster and that they can live and work together in tolerance, love, forgiveness, grant freedom and enjoy freedom conscientiously. I belive in the genius of our people and I believe in the happy future of our republic.

Yours,

DR EDUARD BENES.

Gottwald's Statement

The text of Mr. Gottwald's statement to the Czech Parliament on Mr. Benes's resignation:

I certainly express the opinion of the whole government when I express profound regret at the fact that Dr. Eduard Benes relinquishes the office of President of the Republic. As is evident from his letter, I fora long time endeavored to dissuade him.

I informed the government of it in its meeting of May 25 and have also laid before it a medical attest on the President's state of health.

When the President insists in his intention and the medical advisers are very urgent, we cannot but take cognizance of his declaration, to express agreement with his statement and to express to him our most ardent thanks for the great service he rendered the people and the Republic.

I should like to emphasize that even though Dr. Eduard Benes leaves the office of the President of the Republic, he remains forever in the history of our Republic, in the history of the struggle of the Czechoslovak people for freedom and independence, for a progressive and socially just state.

Already his first election as President in 1935 is memorable. Dr. Eduard Benes was then elected a Democratic candidate of the Left against reactionary endeavors of agrarian capitalistic forces who already at that time wanted to drag the Republic onto the way of capitulation before Hitlerite Germany.

It was therefore understandable that at the time of Munich and after the anger of all enemies concentrated upon President Benes that he was removed from his office. President Benes, however, did not stop in his fight for freedom of Czechoslovakia and in exile he stepped at the head of the struggle against the German occupants.

Signed Soviet Pact

He showed the understanding for the new political character of that struggle of our resistance movement. He realized that a new reborn Czechoslovakia would emerge from that war that would create firm guaranties that Munich could never occur again.

The first such guaranty was closer alliance with the Soviet Union, the second a popular regime in the Republic that would remove from power treacherous sections of the agrarian capitalistic bourgeosie and would place the power of decision on the destinies of the country really into hands of the people.

In the spirit of these principles President Benes participated in the signing of the Czechoslovak-Soviet agreement of Moscow of 1943 and in the negotiations of a new government program which later was called the Kosice program. In the spirit of these principles he also acted after his glorious return to the homeland when he himself joined the slogan that our new Republic was to be a socializing Republic.

The memorable nationalizing laws as well as all the other bills which determine the people's democratic character of the republic will forever bear his signature.

Also in the historical February of this year he remained faithful to the people and to the heritage of our struggle when he signed the new compostion of the government which was to secure further peacful development of this state.

Therefore, gentlemen, sorrowful about his decision, we honor him as a worthy successor of President Masaryk, the liberator, as the head of our freedom fight and as the co-creator of our new order. He may accept our assurance that all our strength in his last Presidential letter:

JUN 1948

"That all may work and live in tolerance, love and forgiveness, allow freedom for others and enjoy freedom themselves."

May, according to his words, the good genius of our people lead us forward towards a beautiful future of our dear Republic.

Allow me in conclusion to propose that Dr. Eduard Benes be, in appreciation of his merits for the nation and state, given a lifelong honorarium equal to the salary of the President of the Republic and be given for life-long use the castle of Lany with all accessories.

Woman Pirate Dies of Smallpox

HONG KONG, June 7 (AP).—Lau Chung, a thirty-four-year-old woman pirate captured on May 5 in a brisk gun battle at Tiger Hill near here, died today in a hospital—of smallpox.

LAKE SUCCESS, June 7 (AP).—Dr. Jan Papanek, former Czechoslovak delegate here, said today President Benes's resignation was the only course for a decent man.

In a statement at United Nations headquarters, Dr. Papanek said: "That is the only way for a decent man to do. Between decency and the Communistic way, there is no compromise. Benes tried it. Czechoslovakia tried it. As a result they are all down. They found there is no compromise."

viet military governor in Berlin, by the American and British military governors and the French deputy military governor.

United States diplomatic officials had predicted the move here last night and indicated it was intended to give the Russians an opportunity to share in the plan.

A French Cabinet crisis was reported brewing because of the new plan. The project has been worked out in a London conference of the United States, Great Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

Charge Pact Violated

The Moscow radio yesterday quoted Pravda as saying the six-nation agreement "will never be recognized as lawful by peace-loving peoples whose interests were grossly trodden underfoot. . . . It will not be recognized by the German people either."

The Soviet Union has objected that in drawing up the plan, the Western powers have broken the Potsdam Agreement for Big-Four decisions on Germany.

On the eve of its disclosure, the Russians came out with more charges against the West in Berlin and Moscow newspapers yesterday. The Soviet News Bureau in Berlin said five Americans had shot a Soviet sentry.

Sentry Is Shot

There was speculation that they might be trying to quiet fears of French Socialists on Germany or that Socialist leaders of the Marshall-plan countries might be planning talks on the United States House of Representatives' cut in European Recovery Program funds.

The Soviet News Bureau in Berlin said the Russian sentry was shot with a carbine when attacked Saturday by four United States soldiers and an American civilian.

U.S. Promises Probe

The sentry was on duty, the report said, at a post the Russians maintain by agrement inside the American sector to guard Sokolvsky's house. The post is in an area where Americans hunt and fish.

The Russian agency said the Soviet chief of staff had sent a letter of protest. United States authorities said this had been received and an investigation was under way.

German minister presidents of the United States, British and French occupation zones met yesterday near Duesseldorf to talk over ways to build up the Ruhr's coal output.

They demanded German participation in control of Ruhr mines, now under a United States-British board, and of all European heavy-industry areas.

Kidnapping Charged

Kling Hoefer, of the Berlin city administration, told them Soviet transport restrictions in Berlin had held up vital material for the mines.

Moscow newspapers published a renewed Soviet accusation that British intelligence agents, with American help, had kidnapped Lieut. Col. J. D. Tassoyev (Tassojew) in the United States zone of Germany.

The accusation was made in a Berlin dispatch of Tass. This said Tassoyev, chief of the Soviet Reparations Commission in Bremen, was abducted April 24. It said he was flown to London, beaten and held in an apartment until his escape May 6.

A British Foreign Office spokesman repeated London's version that Tassoyev "came here voluntarily and he left voluntarily."

British Cabinet Okays Proposals On Reich

London, June 7 (AP)—The British Cabinet studied and quickly approved today the six-nation proposals on Germany, a Government source said.

In France, the Government faced a storm over the agreement, but Foreign Ministry aides predicted the National Assembly will approve the pact after hearing many hot words. French opposition came from right and left alike—from Gen. Charles de Gaulle's chief adviser and from Communist organs, speaking of a "national disaster."

Reds Given Text

The text of a six-nation agreement on Germany was handed Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovsky, Soviet military governor in Berlin, by the American and British military governors and the French deputy military governor.

United States diplomatic officials had predicted the move here last night and indicated it was intended to give the Russians an opportunity to share in the plan.

A French Cabinet crisis was reported brewing because of the new plan. The project has been worked out in a London conference of the United States, Great Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

French Are Uneasy

The French were understood here to have forced publication of the agreement. They have been uneasy lest Germany be built again into a military threat.

The plan is expected to be discussed in foreign affairs debate early this week in the French assembly. An assembly committee has censured Foreign Minister Georges Bidault for holding back information on the negotiations.

Two Fly To Paris

Yesterday in Paris, Gen. Charles de Gaulle's chief adviser, Gaston Palewski, said the Government has abandoned French security in making the agreement.

His statement was expected to be followed shortly by a speech by de Gaulle threatening Bidault's position and Premier Robert Schumann's administration.

Britain's Labor party announced that two leaders went to Paris yesterday to talk over "party matters." Secretary General Morgan Phillips flew from Vienna. Minister of National Insurance James Griffiths went from London.

Britain Reveals Loyalty Rules For Purge

London, June 7 (AP)—The Treasury has laid down the formal rules for Britain's purge of Communist and Fascist civil-service workers from Government security jobs.

A worker with a confidential assignment will be removed if he is a member of the Communist party or a Fascist organization, or associated with either "in such a way as to raise legitimate doubts about his reliability."

The Cabinet member who heads the department will be the final judge.

Right Of Transfer

A worker who is removed from a secret job will have the right of transfer to a nonsecret branch in his own or another department. However, if he is engaged in such work that no nonsecret jobs are avaliable, he must resign or be discharged.

If a worker is separated from the pay roll by either resignation or dismissal he loses all pension rights.

The Treasury summary of the regulation said the procedure would be as follows:

The minister involved will consider evidence against a worker in his department and decide whether there is a prima facie case.

Will Furnish Particulars

If in his judgment there is, he will so advise the civil servant and give him particulars, such as the date of his alleged membership or nature of his association.

However, the Treasury cautioned, "there will have to be limits to the information given, for he cannot be given such particulars as might involve the disclosure of the sources of the evidence."

If the civil-service worker accepts the evidence, he will be replaced in his job. If he does not, he may go before a board of three advisers to the minister whose only function is to advise the minister on questions of fact. Meanwhile, the worker will go on special leave with pay.

No Counsel Permitted

The worker may call in witnesses, but will not be permitted representation by a lawyer or any other third party before the board of advisers. Neither will any third party be permitted to accompany him to the hearing.

The three advisers will report to the minister. If the minister decides to uphold his own ruling of a prima facie case, he will give the worker an opportunity to defend himself before taking final action.

The Civil Service National Council demanded that accused workers be allowed to have the help of a trade-union representative when appearing before the advisers.

The Treasury commented that the Government "did not feel able to agree."

Hoge New Commander Of U.S. Trieste Troops

Trieste, June 7 (AP)—Command of American troops in this disputed free territory changed hands today.

Maj. Gen. Bryant E. Moore, who cam ehere as commander of the 88th Infantry Division and became over-all American commander, left for the United States. He is to become head of army public relations in Washington.

He was succeeded by Maj. Gen. William M. Hoge, who led the 4th Armored Division advance to Sczechoslovakia. His last command before coming here was of the United States Army Engineering School Training Center at Fort Belvoir, Va.

400 Million Loan Sought For Dutch East Indies

THE HAGUE, June 7 (AP).—A government spokesman said today the Netherlands is seeking a $400,000,000 loan from the United States for the Netherlands East Indies. Dollar proceeds from Banka Island tin would secure the advance.

J. E. Van Hoogstraten, head of the Indies Department for Economic Affairs, discussed the loan recently in Washington. The Export-Import Bank there previously was reported willing to lend $100,000,000, provided the islands were quiet internally.

The Netherlands East Indies government has a five-eighth interest in the Banka tin mines. The Billiton Company does the mining.

Socialists Win Three Seats

Luxembourg, June 7 (AP)—The Socialist party won three seats from the Social Christians (Rightist Catholics) in parliamentary elections yesterday. The vote was for 26 of the 51 seats in Luxembourg's chamber of deputies. The political composition of Parliament was unchanged.

Veto Eliminated In New West Reich Plan

Berlin, June 7 (AP)—Abolition of the veto, which has stalled four-power rule in Germany, is regarded in military-goverment quarters as one of the most significant details in the new western agreement on Germany.

The agreement on international control of the Ruhr, the touchiest problem of postwar Germany, stated the international authority shall take its decisions "by majority vote." This was emphasized again later, where the international authority is empowered "by a majority vote" to find the German Government in default of its obliggations in the Ruhr.

"The international authority for the Ruhr at least will be a working body," one source said.

Weapon Of Russians

As in the case of the Security Council of the United Nations, the Russians, more often than any other power, have blocked Four-Power decisions on Germany as a whole.

The use of the veto by the Russians had reduced the Allied Control Council to the function of a Soviet propaganda sounding board at the time they walked out, military-government officials have charged.

Soviet Radio Unit In British Sector

Berlin, Tuesday, June 8 (AP)—The Soviet News Bureau said today the British had asked that the Russian-controlled Berlin radio station soon be moved out of the British part of the city.

Lieut. Gen. M. I. Dratvin, Soviet deputy military governor for Germany, received the British request.

JUN 1948

JUN 1948 30.24- 18329

The Soviet news bureau said the British asked for the station's removal because they thought it might be damaged when a big air raid shelter near by is destroyed. Razing of the shelter is part of a general demilitarization program.

The bureau said the British were not really moved by any such consideration, but wanted to interfere with radio facilities in Berlin.

Countermove Threatened

The bureau's statement added that since the communications of the western powers in Berlin ran across the Russian zone, some form of counter-measures were probable. The statement added that the population of the western sectors of the city might suffer as a result.

The Berlin radio has beeen in Russian possession since the western powers first entered the German capital. It is located in the heart of the British sector near the British Military Government headquarters.

There always are armed Russian sentries inside the building and even British visitors have had to show special passes to gain admittance.

During the past few weeks the twin flagpoles on the roof of the building have been flying the black, red and gold flag of the old Weimar Republic which the Russian-backed Socialist Unity party has chosen as the emblem for its projected central government of Germany.

British sources were not immediately avaliable for comment on the Soviet statement.

The congress ended today, but details of the resolutions will not be officially announced until tomorrow.

Earlier, the congress called for nationalization of all German Ruhr valley industries, saying: "under no circumstances should these industries come into the possession of private capitalists of any nation."

CARDINAL BATTLES REDS IN HUNGARY

Budapest, June 7 (A. P.).—Hungarian Roman Catholics had instructions from their Cardinal today to stop reading Government party newspapers and listening to Hungarian radio broadcasts.

In a pastoral letter read yesterday in all Roman Catholic churches, Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, the Primate of Hungary, declared: "To the bitter disgrace of this country, falsehood, deceit and terror were never greater in the course of her history."

He said that "monstrous moral pressure" was being exerted by the Communist-dominated Government of Hungary and denied that any negotiations were in progress between the Church and the State. The latter apparently referred to Government plans to take over Church-maintained schools.

Police, aided by French Senegalese troops and cavalry, restored order after two hours.

An official casualty list showed that one of the five persons killed was a French civil servant. Some of the wounded were reported to be in serious condition.

The town was quiet tonight. It was reported that the communal fighting had not spread to other Moroccan towns.

The French press agency said several shops in the native quarter of Oujda, which has a population of 65,000, were looted. It added that no shots were fired during the disorders.

way to strengthen National forces by infusion of trained regulars and creation of new second-line militia groups.

Wong called also for a balanced ordinary budget, agricultural improvement, tax-system reforms and political honesty. He said the special budget, including military expenditures, would be covered as nearly as possible by United States aid, special revenue and other unspecified items.

China May Move Plants South To Avoid Reds

Nanking, June 7 (AP) — Premier Wong Wen-hao announced his intention today to transfer North China factories to the south—out of Chinese Communist reach—and to bolster Government forces in the civil war.

The new Premier also outlined plans to pay miiltary costs with American funds. (The $463,000,000 China aid bill passed by Congress provided that $125,000,000 may be spent for military purposes.)

Along the fighting fronts, Tsinan, Shantung provincial capital, was described in a "full state of war." Large-scale conflict continued in the Honan "Battle of the Plains" to the southwest. Warplanes routed 10,000 Communists, pro-Government reports said, less than 30 miles from Peiping.

Szechwan Is Threatened

Reports from Tsinan told of fighting in the outskirts of the city, but gave no details.

Dispatches from West China said 2,000 Communists under Gen. Kung Chung-Chow had crossed the Pai-ho (Upper Han River) and were approaching the Szechwan border.

Wong outlined a proposed six-point program of his new Cabinet at the Kuomintang (ruling party) weekly memorial meeting. Its first task: to defeat the Communists.

Forces To Be Strengthened

The Premier's office later denied published reports that he promised 4,000,000 newly trained Chinese troops would be fighting the Communists by the end of the year. What he did say, it explained, was that a program already was under-

Chinese Will Move Factories To South

Nanking, China, June 7 (AP)—The Government announced plans today to move factories out of North China, now menaced more than ever by a sweeping Communist movement through Shantung province.

Premier Wang Wen-hou told a meeting of the Kuomintang (Government party) that certain factories would be shipped hundreds of miles south beyond the Yangtze, which cuts across Central China.

There in South China, he said, they can operate without interference from the civil war.

The drastic move was part of a broad program he outlined for vigorous prosecution of the war. The program includes leaning heavily on new United States aid to balance the budget and to finance the war.

Questioners Cut Off

Some members of the national legislature attending asked: "What will happen to North China if the industries are removed?"

Some of those attending said President Chiang Kai-shek, who was presiding, cut off the questioners sharply.

As Wang spoke, press reports from the front told of new reserves in Shantung province. Here the Communists threaten to lop off the vital area of Peiping and Tientsin which lies to the north.

The dispatches said there was fighting in the outskirts of Tsinan. That Shantung capital was "in a full state of war."

CARDINAL GUEST OF MACARTHUR

Spellman and Party Arrive in Japanese Capital.

Tokyo, June 7 (A. P.).—Cardinal Spellman and his party arrived here today from Peiping, China, for a visit. Mgr. Fulton J. Sheen, a member of the party, said that they were "just traveling to look things over," and that they knew nothing of the Emperor's being Christianized. There had been speculation here that the possibility of Emperor Hirohito's conversion to Christianity might be discussed at a meeting with Cardinal Spellman on Wednesday.

The Cardinal will be Gen. MacArthur's guest.

During their visit Cardinal Spellman, Archbishop Gerald T. Bergan, Bishop James E. Walsh, Msgr. John J. O'Donnell and Msgr. Thomas McMahon will be house guest of General Douglas Mac Arthur. The Supreme Commander will entertain them at lunch tomorrow.

Denounces Communism.

Peiping, June 7 (A. P.).—Cardinal Spellman of New York described Communism today as viciousness incarnate and declared that aid to China is necessary to crush those who would crush China. The outcome of China's civil war, he said, will be an essential factor in world peace.

Speaking at a Sunday luncheon given in his honor by the Chinese Cardinal Tien, Cardinal Spellman said that the people of the United States feel very badly about the civil war. They realize, he explained, "the saddest of all warfare is that of brother against brother. We do pray that light will come."

During the late world war Cardinal Spellman visited every fleet and every army of the United States. He commented that on his present tour he had stopped at some "barren islands in the Pacific where our boys fought for a victory they thought would bring peace." He praised China's President and Commander in Chief, referring to "the greatness of Chiang Kai-shek and his love of his country above all things."

The luncheon was served at Fujen Catholic University by students, who gave the Cardinal an ovation. He paused during his speech to look around and remark: "No one thinks of striking at this university." (Anti-American demonstrations and political or economic strikes have been staged at many Chinese institutions.)

Other guests included Peiping's Mayor and the city's religious and educational leaders and consular officials, including the American Consul-General, Edmund Clubb. The Soviet Consul-General, Sergei Tichvinsky, was not invited.

Cardinal Spellman Denies Plan to Convert Hirohito

TOKYO, June 7, (AP)—Francis Cardinal Spellman and Monsignor Fulton J. Sheen today denied they are planning to discuss with Emperor Hirohito the possibilty that he become a convert to the Catholic faith.

Cardinal Spellman, Archbishop of New York, and fourteen other Catholic churchmen arrived from Tsingtao, China, for a two-day visit in Japan.

The Cardinal said he had no knowledge of speculation that the emperor is considering joining the Catholic Church. He said he did not plan to see Hirohito or to discuss th matter.

A catholic spokesman announced latter, however, that the Cardinal is scheduled tentatively for an audience with Hirohito Wednesday. Msgr. Sheen, prominent spokesman for the Church in America, said he was sure there was "nothing tto the reports" that the emperor may adopt Catholicism.

35,000 Strike in Mannheim

MANNHEIM, Germany, June 7 (AP)—Protesting "bad food conditions," 35,000 workers left their jobs at Ludwigshafen in the French zone of Germany today. This was the first large post-war walkout in that industrial city. French zone rations are 1,400 calories daily compared with 1,600 in the Anglo-American zone.

World Socialists Urge Overthrow Of Franco

Vienna, June 7 (AP)—The International Socialist Congress adopted today a resolution calling for the overthrow of the Franco Government in Spain, an informed source said.

Another resolution expressed dissatisfaction with the present Greek Government, this source said.

5 KILLED, 30 HURT IN MOROCCO RIOT

OUJDA, French Morocco, June 7. — (AP) Five persons were killed and 30 injured today during disorders involving Arabs and Jews.

The disorders broke out this morning, arising from a quarrel between an Arab and a Jew over the war in Palestine. Soon the argument ended in fisticuffs and the Jews injured the Arab.

A crowd gathered in central Oujda, located on the Algerian-Moroccan frontier, the riots started in several districts of the town.

Japan To Sell Cotton Textiles

Tokyo, June 7 (AP)—The Japanese Board of Trade today released 100,000,000 yards of cotton textile for sale on a sterling basis to countries participating in the recent sterling payments agreement.

Frank E. Pickelle, chief of Allied Headquarters Foreign Trade and Commerce Division, said goods from port stocks will be sold on a first-come basis to export license holders. The textiles include prints, sheeting, jeans, twill, flannel and ticking.

Inspection Of Reparations

Tokyo, June 7 (AP)—Representatives of the United Kingdom, the Netherlands, China and the Philippines left by train today to inspect reparations equipment allotted them. They are particularly interested in electrical supplies located at former Japanese arsenals at Aichi, Nagasaki and Hiroshima.

S. Korea Commission To Draw Vote Report

Seoul, June 7 (AP)—The United Nations Commission for Korea returned today from Shanghai to complete its report on the South Korea assembly elections, which it supervised.

There was no comment from the commission on the statement by Dr. Rufino Luna, alternative Philippines member, that it would make another attempt to hold elections in the Soviet Zone. Russia did not allow North Korea to join in the May 10 balloting in the United States sector.

Luna told an interviewer in Manila he felt the Russians had adopted a softer policy in Korea and might allow the commission to conduct an election in the North. He returned here with six other members representing France, Australia, El Salvador, China, India and Canada.

2 Japs Go on Trial For 39,748 Deaths

Yokohama, June 7 (A. P.).—Two Japanese officers went on trial today charged with responsibility for the war-time deaths of 39,748 Americans and Filipinos—including 11,200 who fell in the Bataan "death march."

They are Major-Gen. Yoshitaka Kawane, who commanded 14th Army transportation, and Col. Kurataro Hirano, in charge of the 61st Army line of Communications unit. Both pleaded innocent before a United States Eighth Army commission. Their commander, Gen. Masaharu Homma, was executed on similar charges.

Violence Flares Anew In Malaya

Singapore, June 7 (AP)—New violence flared today in Malaya where Malcolm MacDonald, British commissioner general, says Communist agitators "are making a desperate attempt to impose the rule of the gun and knife."

Dispatches from Ipoh, in western Malaya, said two Malay leaders were killed by unidentified assailants while returning from an official mission. They were identified as Inche Bahari, a settlement officer, and an unnamed tax collector.

In Johore State, seven Chinese with submachine guns raided the Consolidated Eastern Plantations rubber estate. They tried to kill W. H. Wallace, the manager, but he jumped through a window and escaped.

Kuala Lumpur dispatches said a gunman yesterday killed the manager of the Triang rubber estate in Pahang State. In Singapore Police Court, five Chinese were charged with trying to kill the Chinese manager of the Chua Guan Hong rubber factory Saturday.

Malay Group Snubs Australian Mission

Singapore, June 7 (AP)—The Left-Wing Malayan Nationalist party snubbed an Australian good-will mission to southeastern Asia today.

Taha Kalu, the party chairman, flatly refused an invitation to meet with W. MacMahon Ball, the leader of the Australian mission.

Two other Asian leaders—Yap Pheng Chek, president of the Straits Chinese-British Association, and Inche Sardon Bin Jubir, president of the right-wing Malay Union—told MacMahon Ball the "white Australia" policy is causing general distrust of Australia in southeastern Asia.

Australia sent the goodwill mission after the expulsion of a number of Malays, Chinese and Indonesians from Australia under the white Australia policy resulted in a wave of anti-Australian feeling in the Far East.

EGYPTIANS LAND SEABORNE TROOPS IN TEL AVIV DRIVE

Seek to Break Noose Jewish Army Has Thrown Around Forces at Isdud.

HEAVY FIGHTING RAGES

UN Mediator Plans to Report Tomorrow on Status of Truce Negotiations.

CAIRO, June 7—(AP) Egyptian commanders landed seaborne reinforcements in an attempt to break the noose Israeli troops have thrown around Egyptian infantry and armor at Isdud, a Tel Aviv dispatch said tonight.

Perhaps 1,000 of King Farouk's troops—a fifth of the Egyptian force which threatened Tel Aviv from the south—are caught in the trap.

The account quoted persons returning from the front as saying at least one and possibly several Egyptian ships took part in the amphibious operation. Isdud is 21 miles down the coast from Tel Aviv the capital of Israel.

Jews Blunt Arab Threat

Jewish leaders previously announced their troops had blunted an Arab threat to Tel Aviv from the northeast.

One informant in Tel Aviv said the Arabs had established still a third position threatening the capital. At one point those Arab units were only eight miles east of the city.

Israeli units are exerting enough pressure to hold the Arabs along a 12-mile front reaching from Er Ramle to Ras Al Ein, the informant said. The closest Arab units were at Wilhelma, just inside the Jewish coastal strip.

The Egyptian defense ministry said their troops captured the settlement of Miesanim, on the coast between Majdal and Isdud, and killed or wounded 220 Jews in a battle which began at midnight Sunday. A communique added that 110 Jews were taken prisoner.

While Israeli and Arab troops fought in widely scattered sectors of the Holy Land, a neutral source said tonight in Cairo that Count Folke Bernadotte has promised in his proposals for a Palestine truce that neither Jews nor Arabs will gain military advantage from his administration of the four-week respite.

Bernadotte, the United Nations Palestine mediator, advised the U. N. Security Council today that he hoped to report Wednesday on the success or failure of a cease fire.

Bernadotte gave Jewish and Arab authorities his proposal for getting the projected four-week truce in operation. The Jews agreed to a series of suggestions by the U.N. mediator on immigration controls—one of the points holding up agreement.

Jews Make Truce Concession

The Israeli government said it would segregate immigrants of military age entering Palestine during the armistice. The Jews also agreed to notify Bernadotte in advance of transport arrivals and to bar entry of armed immigrants.

The other major point in dispute has to do with the Arab blockade of Jerusalem—Tel Aviv road—the supply line of 90,000 Jews besieged in the Holy City. The Jews demand that this highway be opened.

Inconclusive fighting broke out along that road again today at Latrun, 14 miles west of Jerusalem. The Holy City itself was rocked by mortar and artillery fire. The Arab Legion was answering Israeli fire at a ratio of 10 shell for one.

Ahmed El Rawi Pasha, Iraq's undersecretary for foreign affairs, said the Arabs "are insisting on acceptance of their conditions." He did not elaborate but presumably the conditions had to do with immigration and the road blockade.

It appeared unlikely that fighting in the Holy Land could be brought to a halt during the week. The Arab League's political committee is not scheduled to meet in Cairo before Saturday. That body is expected to thresh out the Arab decision on the truce.

Heavy fighting occurred in the "thumb" of Palestine above the Sea of Galilee. Syrian and Lebanese troops drove into the area from two sides. They may be trying to seize this portion of Israel and hold it for bargaining purposes should the truce be arranged in the next few days.

Apparently the Egyptian seaborne operation was carried out in enough strength to enable the pocketed Egyptian force to hold out under repeated Israeli attacks.

The battlefront information helped explain last Friday's miniature sea battle off Tel Aviv. Jewish sources speculated at the time that the Egyptians were trying a "Little Dunkerque."

In the naval engagement one Jewish corvette and two planes forced four Egyptian ships to turn back. One of those ships was a transport and two were landing craft.

Israeli troops continued their attacks against Tulkarm and Jenin, two points of the Arab triangle menacing Tel Aviv from the northeast.

Syrian Attack Repulsed

Reports from that area indicated that neither attack was near a real breakthrough. Tel Aviv accounts said the Jewish forces were holding on in the northwestern suburbs of Jenin. At Tulkarm they were slowly broadening their line 5½ miles northwest of the city.

Jewish headquarters announced that Syrian attacks against Mishmar Hay Yarden, 2 miles south of Hula Lake, has been repulsed. The Syrians previously claimed they had encircled and destroyed the town.

Troops in the eastern prong of the Arab thrust into Palestine's "thumb" are prodding the area between Hula Lake and the Sea of Galilee.

Lebanese as well as Syrian units make up the western prong. That combined force captured Malikya, on the Palestine-Lebanese border, in an assault which was supported by artillery and planes. A Lebanese communiqué said 132 Jews were killed and approximately 260 were wounded in the fighting there. Lebanese troops advanced a mile beyond Malikya capturing Qadas, the bulletin added.

In the naval engagement one Jewish corvette and two planes forced four Egyptian ships to turn back. One of those ships was a transport and two were landing craft.

EGYPT'S NAVY LANDS ISDUD RELIEF FORCE

Spearhead in South Palestine Holds Out—U. N. Truce Plan Given Israel and Arabs

By The Associated Press.

TEL AVIV, Israel, June 7—Egypt has landed seaborne reinforcements in an attempt to break an armored spearhead out of encirclement by the Israeli Army at Isdud on Palestine's southern coastal plain, eyewitnesses said tonight.

Persons who returned to Tel Aviv from the week-long battle at Isdud said the Egyptians had landed forces from at least one ship and possibly from several.

The exact strength of the reinforcements was not disclosed. It was enough, however, to enable an isolated Egyptian force to hold out under repeated Israeli attacks.

[An Egyptian communiqué, cited by The Associated Press, said that Egyptian forces had captured Beit Sanim, between El Majdad and Isdud. It added that Egyptian planes had "showered" the Rehovoth settlement. Planes raided northern Tel Aviv, killing two persons.]

[Count Bernadotte, the United Nations Mediator, sent to Israel and the Arab states a plan for a truce in the Holy Land and set Wednesday as the deadline for answers.]

[While the United Nations Security Council took no action to interpret the question of immigration to Israel during a truce, the Soviet Union stated Monday that it wished to join the United States, Belgium and France in sending military observers to the Holy Land.]

The information about the seaborne reinforcements helped explain last Friday's naval engagement off the coast at Tel Aviv, twenty miles north of Isdud. In that action one Israeli corvette and two small planes forced four Egyptian naval vessels to turn back from a point close to shore. One of those ships was a transport and two were British-type landing craft

Israeli forces still were attacking in the Isdud region and on two sides of the Arab "triangle of strength" flanked by Nablus, Jenin and Tulkarm. None of these attacks seemed near a real breakthrough.

A communiqué said that more than 220 Jews had been killed or wounded in a surprise attack that captured Beitsanim. It added that 110 prisoners had been taken after the Israeli forces had collapsed. Egyptian casualties were slight, the communiqué said.

The Israeli Army said last week that it had wedged into the city limits of Jenin, northern apex of the triangle. Today it said these forces still were "holding their positions on strategic heights" at the approaches to the city. Iraqi counter-attacks apparently had broken their foothold into Jenin proper. Persons returning from that front said that the Israeli forces were holding on "in the northwestern suburbs."

The Israeli assault against Tulkarm, on the western side of the triangle, was slowly lengthening its arc four miles north and west of the city. It had not yet pierced the main Arab defenses.

The battle of Latrun, key point of the vital Jerusalem-Tel Aviv highway fifteen miles west of the Holy City, came out from a two-week news blackout with the terse announcement "Nothing to report."

From the northern front Israeli headquarters said all Syriaf attacks on Mishmar hay Yarden had been repulsed. Syrian thrusts there, just south of Lake Hule and at Malikia, are twin threats to cut off the eighty-square-mile northern thumb of Palestine.

U.N. Aide Gives Arab Nations Truce Plan

Cairo, June 7 (AP)—Count Folke Bernadotte handed to six Arab nations today his proposal for a starting time and conditions of the four-week armistice in Palestine.

Peace appeared unlikely during this week, however. Palace informants in Amman, Trans-Jordan, said that the Arab League Political Committee will not meet before Saturday. It is the kingpin of the Arab effort in the Holy Land.

Fighting continued. The Jews claimed successes south of Tel Aviv, and to the northeast around the Arabs' Tulkarm-Jenin-Nablus triangle. The Syrian Army became active on the north border of Palestine and the Saudi Arabians were declared to have placed a considerable force with tanks and armor in Palestine alongside the Egyptians.

Bernadotte, mediator for the United Nations, has been empowered to fix the starting time of the truce, to which both sides have agreed. The Arabs, however, affixed "explanations" and the Jews "assumptions." It was the Count's task to reconcile the differences, particularly over Jewish insistence and Arab objections to unlimited immigration to Israel during the truce and opening of the road to the 90,000 besieged Jews in Jerusalem.

No Clues Given

Bernadotte gave his proposals to the Foreign Minister of Egypt, the ministers of Saudi Arabia and Trans-Jordan and the chargé d'affairs of Syria, Lebanon and Iraq. The seventh State arrayed against Israel is tiny Yemen. All seven belong to the Arab League. The diplomats were asked to forward the terms to their governments.

Bernadotte communicated the proposal also to Jewish authorities in Tel Aviv.

All sources declined to give a clue to the grave-faced mediator's interpretation. Bernadotte, tired from a week of plane rides about the Middle East and haggling with Arab and Jewish leaders, said he expected replies within two days.

He declined to comment on reports from an Associated Press correspondent in Amman that negotiations for a truce appeared to be falling apart. Bernadotte returned only this morning from flights to Beirut, Haifa and Amman.

Outside Amman, Trans-Jordan's King Abdullah talked with high officers of the five Allied Arab armies he commands and looked over battle maps. He had received Bernadotte yesterday and then motored to the Old City of Jerusalem, which his Arab Legion has conquered, to inspect holy places subjected recently to Jewish mortar fire.

Secrecy Is Maintained

Bernadotte maintained strict secrecy about his proposal.

He declined to answer a question about chances of securing a truce. Nor would he say whether he had eased Arab and Jewish differences about immigration. The Count said last week immigration was the main obstacle to the truce.

Asked whether the text of his truce proposal will be published after he receives Arab and Jewish replies, he said:

"This depends on the nature of the replies. My plan is confidential."

Bernadotte said he had not yet sent his plan to the United Nations Security Council, but that he would inform it later. He planned to talk with King Farouk later today.

Arabs Set Parley

Abdel Rahman Azzam Pasha, Secretary General of the Arab League, invited Arab diplomats in Cairo to meet this afternoon at League headquarters here to discuss the Bernadotte proposal.

Al Zamane, Arabic newspaper, said Bernadotte in previous notes to Arab governments had said he understood the Arabs would accept 500 Jewish immigrants into Palestine during the four-week armistice but insisted on continuing their siege of modern Jerusalem. The paper quoted the mediator as saying the Jews insisted on immigration and an opening of the blocked supply road from Tel Aviv to Jerusalem.

Bernadotte talked yesterday with Israeli Foreign Minister Moshe Shertok in Haifa and later with King Abdullah and Trans-Jordan Foreign Minister Fawzi Pasha Malki in Amman.

In Haifa earlier, Shertok said the Count probably would not regard his proposals as final in event they were not accepted. He said the Jews reserved the right to appeal to the Security Council.

Joseph C. Goodwin, of the Associated Press, reported from Amman last night that the Arab-Jewish agreement on the truce principle seemed to be breaking up.

A high Arab authority there said the Jews had made these demands:

1. That they be allowed to carry on free immigration to Israel during the cease-fire.

2. That the Tel Aviv-Jerusalem road be opened. This has supplied 80,000 to 90,000 Jews now under fire in Jerusalem.

The Arabs have opposed both these demands. They are blocking the highway into Jerusalem.

Truce Not Discussed

Abdullah said he did not discuss the truce in his meeting with Bernadotte, since that was a problem for the Arab League Political Committee.

The League said here yesterday Saudi Arabia now has a substantial force, with tanks, armored cars, artillery and light weapons, with Egyptian troops in Palestine. She is the sixth Arab nation to join the fight. The others are Egypt, Trans-Jordan, Syria, Lebanon and Iraq.

Jewish communiqués and Damascus radio reports indicated last night the Syrian Army was making a two-pronged attack in an effort to seal off Palestine's northernmost thumb, earmarked for the Jews in the United Nations partition plan.

Israel's Cabinet Split On Truce

Tel Aviv, Israel, June 7 (AP)—Sources close to the Israel Government said today its Cabinet Ministers disagree sharply over acceptance of a cease-fire based on any compromise yet advanced by Count Folke Bernadotte.

Foreign Minister Moshe Shertok was reported to have told the provisional Government last night the issue revolved around the question of limiting Jewish immigration during the four-week armistice. A compromise reported discussed with Bernadotte, mediator for the United Nations, involved some restrictions on immigration of Jews of military age.

Several ministers were said to have opposed any limitation.

Has Little Choice

If Bernadotte comes to a decision, however, Israel actually has little choice. [The mediator said in Cairo he had dispatched his decision to Israel during the morning.]

The Government is known to be trying by all means short of the sacrifice of its statehood to comply with the United Nations ruling and avoid placing itself in a position in which sanctions or other adverse international actio nmight be invoked.

Among the Jewish citizenry, there is little if any real hope this truce will be lasting. Jewish faith in the determination of the United Nations to enforce its rulings still is at low ebb.

Most officials said that, if the cease-fire is ordered, the Jews will try again to comply. They expected, however, the truce would be broken if not based on any actual accord of views between the warring nations.

Palestine Truce Unlikely This Week, Arabs Report

Amman, Trans-Jordan, June 7 (AP) — Palace sources said today there is no likelihood of a Palestine truce this week, since the Arab League Political Committee will not meet in Cairo before Saturday.

King Abdullah said yesterday truce negotiations with the United Nations' mediator, Count Folke Bernadotte, were the committee's responsibility. His Foreign Minister Fawzi Pasha Malkin, said today no definite date for the committee meeting had been set and he knew of no time fixed for a cease-fire.

The King conferred today with high officers of allied Arab armies at the joint command post near Amman. He and his nephew, Iraqi Regent Abdul Ilah, living there temporarily, looked over battle maps.

Visited Holy Places

Abdullah received the United Nations mediator here yesterday and then motored to Jerusalem's Old City, where he visited Moslem and Christian holy places and talked with the Arab Legion commander. He was described as anxious to ascertain damage to the holy places from recent Jewish mortar fire.

Foreign Minister Malki, Iraqi Assistant Foreign Minister Ahmed Rawi and Egyptian Brigadier Sabur Bey left Amman by special Egyptian plane for Cairo today. They were expected to return tomorrow after individual discussions with the Egyptian Defense Minister.

A Damascus dispatch said it was reliably reported Syrian Premier Jamil Mardam Bey, who met Bernadotte in Beirut yesterday, gave him these Syrian terms for a four-week Palestine truce:

No Jewish immigration during that time, truce observers to be chosen from neutral countries, Arab League to control fully military and political discussions relating to any question arising from a cease-fire order when applied.

Sforza Says Peace Is Aided By Not Recognizing Israel

ROME, June 7 (AP).—Foreign Minister Count Carlo Sforza tonight told the Italian Senate that Italy feels it can best help to reestablish peace in Palestine by not recognizing Israel.

He said that Italian diplomacy is working for peace in the Holy Land "with all our means, in all capitals

In a written reply to a question from Communist Umberto Terrachini, who asked why Italy had not recognized Israel, Count Sforza said: "In its position as a nonmber of the United Nations, Italy has not found it necessary to depart from our traditional friendship with the Arabs and Jews of the eastern Mediterranean."

24,000 Cyprus Jews Plan 24-Hour Hunger Strike

PARIS, June 7 (AP).—A spokesman for a Jewish organization here said today the 24,000 Jews interned on Cyprus had been ordered to stage a twenty-four-hour hunger strike.

[It was reported without confirmation in Nicosia, Cyprus, that Jews interned at Xylotymbou and Caraolos were on a hunger strike.]

The Jews interned on the eastern Mediterranean island are those who were intercepted by the British while trying to enter Palestine without immigration certificates.

The Jewish source said the strike protested the British refusal to let able-bodied men go to Palestine pending truce talks in the Palestine war. He said the British offered to allow women and children to go, but the Jews had refused this on the ground that it would break up families.

A refugees' committee then ordered a special day of prayer for Saturday, Jewish demonstrations yesterday and a hunger strike today.

3 Insurgents Killed During Attack In Burma

Rangoon, Burma, June 7 (AP)—Insurgents today attacked Paungdawthee police station, 100 miles from Rangoon. Three insurgents were killed and 30 captured. There were no police casualties.

Another report said 200 insurgents, supported by 500 Indians, attacked the Zeyyawaddy sugar factory at the village of Patta.

U.S. May Aid Far East

Ootacamund, Madras Province, India, June 7 (AP)—Dr. Henry Grady, retiring American Ambassador to India, said today that American capital is available "if wanted" to help develop Asiatic and Far Eastern countries.

He told the United Nations Economic Commission for Asia and the Far East that "conditions must be favorable for sound loans, just as they must be for direct investment in enterprise."

Grady is chief American delegate to the commission. He has been named United States Ambassador to Greece.

Fears Capital Ban

He said loans are available from (1) individual banks or groups of banks in capital-exporting countries, (2) the World Bank, (3) United States Export-Import Bank and (4) in some cases from the United States Congress.

Recommending a consistent policy regarding foreign capital in each country, Grady said that even large inter-governmental loans would be small in relation to the actual needs of any Asiatic or Far East country. He added:

"If a country fears domination of foreign capital, it is perfectly logical for it to pass laws and make administrative provisions that will keep capital out. . . .

"It is inconsistent for the leaders of a country to complain that capital doesn't come in when they are taking measures and announcing policies which can have no other effect than to keep it out."

Dutch-Indonesian Talks Proposed

Batavia, June 7 (AP)—A Dutch Government source said today that Dr. Hubertus J. Van Mook, acting governor general of the Netherlands East Indies, has invited Premier Mohammed Hatta of the Indonesian Republic to Batavia for new discussions.

The Republican Government has not replied to the invitation, the source said. If Hatta accepts, it is believed the two leaders will discuss all difficulties between the Dutch and the Republicans.

West Reich Program Announced

Six Powers Issue Plan for Self-government —Soviet Opposition Sure.

Washington, June 7 (A. P.).—In the face of certain opposition from Russia, the Western Powers announced today a five-point proposal for creating a separate, federal government in western Germany. At the same time, they revealed new measures to block any new German aggression.

The agreements, the results of the six-Power conference in London that ended a week ago, were announced simultaneously here and in Europe. They are subject to formal acceptance by the governments of the United States, Britain, France and the Low Countries, and a stiff fight over them is expected within the French Government.

State Department officials said that ratification by Congress would apparently not be necessary for acceptance by the United States. Formal approval by President Truman or Secretary of State Marshall would suffice, they said they believed.

To Block Aggression.

The five steps for creating a German federal government are based upon the belief that the German people themselves should take the maximum responsibility for each step. The steps include an authorization meeting of the Allied military chiefs and the German heads of each west German state, the election of delegates to a Constituent Assembly, the draftng of a constitution by that assembly, the ratification of the constitution by the German people, and the consideration of requisite revisions of the German state boundaries.

Reportedly, it was to meet French fears for their security, and to ease French acceptance of steps to fit west Germany into the European reconstruction program, that the Western Powers laid down their most comprehensive agreement thus far projected for keeping Germany under control. Another victory for the French was contained in an agreement for international control of the Ruhr. In this the United States, the United Kingdom, France, the Benelux countries and Germany would participate. It would not involve the political separation of the Ruhr area from Germany," though it "does . . . contemplate control of the distribution of coal, coke and steel of the Ruhr," the communique added.

On security, the official statement reported this general provision: "The United States, the United Kingdom and French delegates reiterated the firm views of their governments that there could not be any general withdrawal of their forces from Germany until the peace of Europe is secured and without prior consultation. It was further recommended that the governments concerned should consult if any of them should consider that there was a danger of resurgence of German military power, or of the adoption by Germany of a policy of aggression."

The conference also agreed that the military governors of the western zones should create a Military Security Board to assure continued disarmament and demilitarization in Germany.

The London Conference agred to authorize the thre military governors to determine whether the constitution decided upon by the Germans is in line with the federal principle, with adequate central authority and guaranties of individual freedoms. The draft will not be submitted to ratification by the people of the German States unless and until the military governors approve it.

Text of Communique on the Six-Power London Conference on Western Germany

WASHINGTON, June 7 (AP)—Following is the text of the communique released today of the six-power London conference on Western Germany:

In accordance with an announcement issued today at the conclusion of informal discussions on Germany between representatives of United States, United Kingdom, France and three Benelux countries, a report containing agreed recommendations on all items discussed was submitted to their respective governments. These recommendations have been submitted as a whole, since their main provisions are mutually dependent and from an indivisible program. Principal features of this report are the following:

I. Association of Benelux countries in policy regarding Germany.

The recommendations include specific provisions for a close association between military governments and Benelux representatives in Germany on matters affecting Benelux interests. Moreover full opportunities will be given the Benelux representatives to be kept informed of developments in the Western Zones.

II. Role of the German Economy in the European Economy and control of the Ruhr.

(A) As stated in the communique of March 6 it had been agreed that for the political and economic well-being of the countries of Western Europe and of a democratic Germany, there must be a close association of their economic life. This close association, which will enable Germany to contribute to and participate in European recovery, has been ensured by the inclusion on April 16 of the combined zone and French zone in the organization for European Economic Cooperation as full members.

(B) It was agreed to recommend the establishment of an international authority for the control of the Ruhr in which United States, United Kingdom, France, Benelux countries and Germany would participate, and which does not involve the political separation of the Ruhr area from Germany. It does, however, contemplate control of distribution of coal, coke and steel of Ruhr in order that on the one hand industrial concentration in that area shall not become an instrument of aggression, and on the other will be able to make its contribution to all countries participating in a European cooperative economic program, including, of course, Germany itself. A draft agreement containing the provisions for its establishment is attached as Annex I. This agreement is to be concluded by the United States, United Kingdom and France as occupying powers. Moreover, the Benelux countries are to be fully associated with the preparation of the more detailed agreement provided for in Article 12, and are to be consulted as to the time when the authority begins to exercise its functions.

(C) Arising out of the discussions on the Ruhr, it has been recommended that the principle of non-discrimination against foreign interests in Germany be reaffirmed, and that each government should promptly study the problem of safeguarding foreign interests in order that there may be subsequently established as soon as possible an inter-governmental group to review the question and make recommendations to their governments.

III. Evolution of political and economic organization of Germany.

(A) Further consideration has been given by all delegates to the problem of the evolution of the political and economic organization of Germany. They recognize, taking into account the present situation, that it is necessary to give the German people the opportunity to achieve, on the basis of a free and democratic form of government, the eventual re-establishment of German unity, at present disrupted. In these circumstances they have reached the conclusion that it would be desirable that the German people in the different States should now be free to establish for themselves the political organization and institutions which will enable them to assume those governmental responsibilities which are compatible with the minimum requirements of occupation and control and which ultimately will enable them to assume full governmental responsibility. The delegates consider that the people in the States will wish to establish a constitution with provisions which will allow all the German States to subscribe as soon as circumstances permit.

Therefore the delegates have agreed to recommend to their Governments that the Military Governors should hold a joint meeting with the Ministers-President of the Western Zone in Germany. At this meeting the Ministers-President will be authorized to convene a Constituent Assembly in order to prepare a Constitution for the approval of the participating States.

Delegates to this Constituent Assembly will be chosen in each of the States in accordance with procedure and regulations to be determined by the legislative bodies of the individual States.

The Constitution should be such as to enable the Germans to play their part in bringing to an end the present division of Germany, not by the reconstitution of a centralized Reich but by means of a federal form of government which adequately protects the rights of the respective States, and which at the same time provides for adequate central authority and which guarantees the rights and freedoms of the individual.

If the Constitution as prepared by the Constituent Assembly does not conflict with these general principles, the Military Governors will authorize its submissions for ratification by the people in the respective States.

At the meeting with the Military Governors the Ministers-President will also be authorized to examine the boundaries of the several States in order to determine what modifications might be proposed to the Military Governors for the purpose of creating a definitive system which is satisfactory to the peoples concerned.

(B) Further discussions have taken place between the United States, United Kingdom and French delegations on measures for coordinating economic policies and practices in the Combined Zone and the French Zone. Agreed recommendations have been reached on the joint conduct and control of the external trade of the whole area. It has been recognized that a complete economic merger of the two areas cannot effectively take place until further progress has been made in establishing the necessary German institutions common to the entire area.

IV. Provisional territorial arrangements.

The delegations have agreed to submit for the consideration of their Governments proposals for dealing with certain minor provisional territorial adjustments in connection with the western frontiers of Germany.

V. SECURITY.

This problem was considered in three aspects: (A) general provisions; (B) measures during the period in which the occupying powers retain supreme authority in Germany; (C) measures after the period in which the occupying powers retain supreme authority in Germany.

GENERAL PROVISION

The United States, United Kingdom and French delegates reiterated the firm views of their Governments that there could not be any general withdrawal of their forces from Germany until the peace of Europe is secured and without prior consultation.

During this period there should be no general withdrawal of the forces of occupation of the United States, France or the United Kingdom without prior consultation. It was further recommended that the Governments concerned should consult if any of them should consider that there was a danger of resurgence of German military power or of the adoption by Germany of a policy of aggression.

MEASURES DURING THE PERIOD IN WHICH THE OCCUPYING POWERS RETAIN SUPREME AUTHORITY IN GERMANY

The prohibitions on the German armed forces and the German General Staff as contained in Four-Power Agreements were reaffirmed, as well as the exercise of controls by the Military Governors with respect to disarmament and demilitarization, level of industry and certain aspects of scientific research. To ensure the maintenance of disarmament and demilitarization in the interests of security, the three Military Governors should set up a Military Security Board in the Western Zones of Germany to carry out the proper inspections and make the necessary recommendations to the Military Governors, who decide the action to be taken.

MEASURES AFTER THE PERIOD IN WHICH THE OCCUPYING POWERS RETAIN SUPREME AUTHORITY IN GERMANY

It was affirmed that Germany must not again be permitted to become an aggressive power, and that prior to the general withdrawal of the forces of occupation agreement will be reached among the Governments concerned with respect to necessary measures of demilitarization, disarmament and control of industry and with respect to occupation of key areas. Also there should be a system of inspection to ensure the maintenance of the agreed provisions of German disarmament and demilitarization.

The present recommendations, which in no way preclude and on the contrary should facilitate eventual four-power agreement on the German problem, are designed to solve the urgent political and economic problems arising out of the present situation in Germany.

Because of the previous failure to reach comprehensive four-power decisions on Germany, the measures recommended mark a step forward in the policy which the powers represented at these talks are determined to follow with respect to the economic reconstruction of western Europe, including Germany, and with respect to the establishment of a basis for the participation of a democratic Germany in the community of free peoples.

ANNEX I

Recommendation by the London conference of representatives of the United States, United Kingdom, France and Belgium, Netherlands and Luxembourg on International Control of the Ruhr

Whereas international security and general economic recovery require:

That the resources of the Ruhr shall not in the future be used for the purpose of aggression but shall be used in the interests of peace;

That access to the coal, coke and steel of the Ruhr, which was previously subject to the exclusive control of Germany, be in the future guaranteed without discrimination to the countries of Europe cooperating in the common economic good;

Whereas it is desirable for the political and economic well-being of these countries and of a democratic Germany that there be close association of their economic life;

Whereas it is important that trade between the countries mentioned in the preceding paragraph should be facilitated by lowering trade barriers and by any other means,

The Governments of the United States, United Kingdom and France, after consultation with the Governments of the Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg, have agreed as follows:

1. An international control shall be set up in the Ruhr and exercised by an International Authority for the Ruhr (hereinafter called the International Authority); the International Authority shall be organized forthwith and shall begin to exercise its functions at a time to be determined by the contracting Governments, and in any case before the establishment of a provisional German government.

2. The International Authority shall be composed of representatives of the United States, United Kingdom, France, Netherlands, Belgium, Luxembourg and Germany.

3. The International Authority shall take its decisions by majority vote. The United States, United Kingdom, France and Germany shall have three votes each, and the Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg one vote each.

4. Until the contracting Governments decide otherwise, the representative of Germany shall be designated and the vote for Germany exercised by those powers which share the responsibility for the economic administration of that part of Germany which includes the Ruhr (hereinafter called "the occupying powers concerned").

5. The functions of the International Authority shall, subject to existing or future international agreements among the contracting Governments concerning the allocation of coal, coke and steel, be as follows:

(a) Subject to the provisions of Article 6 below, to make the division of coal, coke and steel from the Ruhr as between German consumption and export, in order to ensure adequate access to supplies of these products, taking into account the essential needs of Germany

(b) To ensure that the German authorities do not institute, carry out or permit artificial measures or discriminatory practices which would distort the movement of Ruhr coal, coke and steel in international trade, except for measures of protection approved by the International Authority.

(c) To exercise, in the circumstances envisaged in Article 10 (b) below, the powers described in Article 9 (b) below.

(d) During the period in which the occupying powers concerned exercise supreme authority (which period is hereinafter called "the control period") to bring to the attention of the occupation authorities concerned measures which would ensure, and thereafter itself to ensure, safeguard and protection for coal, coke and steel enterprises in the Ruhr involving foreign interests, within the framework of existing or future agreements between the Allied Governments represented on the authority.

6. (a) The findings of the International Authority under the provisions of Article 5 (a) shall be consistent with the programs of the Organization for European Economic Cooperation for the recovery of the participating countries.

(b) During the control period, or until such earlier time as may be agreed upon by the contracting Governments, the findings of the International Authority under the provisions of Article 5 (a) will be transmitted to the Military Governors for implementation. The Military Governors will proceed with the implementation of these findings (1) to the extent consistent with any agreements relative to the provision of financial assistance in Germany which are now or may come in effect between any two or more of the contracting Governments; and (2) in accordance with the terms of any existing international agreement among the contracting Governments, or extension thereof, with respect to the allocation of coal and coke.

7. The International Authority shall have the right:

(a) To receive regular reports on production, distribution and consumption of Ruhr coal, coke and steel;

(b) To demand additional reports on these subjects whenever necessary;

(c) To verify the information at its disposal by enquiries on the spot and by subpoena and examination of witnesses;

(d) To call for information about supplies of coal, coke and steel from sources other than the Ruhr.

8. During the control period the occupation authorities concerned will maintain adequate control over the management in the Ruhr coal and coke industry.

9. During the control period, or until such earlier time as may be agreed upon by the contracting Governments, the occupation authorities concerned will maintain

(a) Such powers in respect of the coal, coke and steel industries of the Ruhr as will enable the International Authority to perform the functions and exercise the rights assigned to it in Articles 5 and 7 above, and as may be necessary to ensure that the decisions with respect to the export of these products from Germany are carried out;

(b) Such further powers as may be necessary to enforce the disarmament of Germany, including power to control the supply of Ruhr coal, coke and steel to any industries which may be prohibited or limited in the interests of security by agreement among the contracting Governments or under the terms of any international agreement to which they shall become party.

10. (a) When the occupation authorities concerned relinquish the powers referred to in Article 9 (a) the German authorities shall be responsible to the International Authority for enabling it to perform the functions and exercise the rights assigned to it in Articles 5 and 7 above and shall take such measures as may be necessary to ensure that the decisions of the International Authority are carried out.

(b) When the occupation authorities concerned relinquish the further powers referred to in Article 9(B) these powers shall be transferred to such international body as may be designated for these purposes by the peace settlement or by any international agreement to which the Allied Governments represented on the authority are parties, and the authority shall cooperate with that international body in such ways as shall be prescribed by the peace settlement or by such international agreement. If no such international body is set up, these powers shall be transferred to the authority but shall be exercised only by the Allied representatives on the authority.

11. Should the German Government not carry out the decisions of the International Authority, the latter may, by a majority vote of the Allied representatives, find that the German Government is in default on its obligations and recommend, to the occupation authorities during the control period, and thereafter to the Allied Governments represented on the authority, the application of the necessary enforcement measures, provided however that before such enforcement measures are applied the German Government shall be given a reasonable opportunity for a hearing. At the expiry of ment measures shall be applied in accordance with the relevant provisions of the peace settlement or any international agreement to which the Allied Governments represented on the authority are parties.

12. This agreement constitutes a statement of principles which shall form the basis for a more detailed agreement setting up the International Authority.

France Is Called Key To Reich Agreement

Washington, June 7 (AP)—The story behind the revolutionary Western-power agreement on Germany is fairly simple. It is part of the anti-Communist grand strategy of revising western Europe.

That, at least, is the way top American diplomats see it. They have been among the leaders in bringing it about. Here is the story as they tell it:

In order to recover economically, the sixteen Marshall-plan countries of Europe need the production of western Germany—especially the coal, coke and steel of the Ruhr.

Vacuum Is Handicap

Western Germany itself needs unity and a sense of "going somewhere" in order to produce well. In a political vacuum, the people cannot work with spirit and hope for a better future.

The best way to solve the German problem would be the way originally planned—with Russia, America, Britain and France all agreeing on what to do. But two years of effort along that line simply hardened a split between Russia and the west.

To deal with this split and to make a start on a self-supporting Germany, the United States and Britain merged their occupation zones economically more than a year ago. But France did not come in.

France thus held the key to western German unity and the political and economic future of the area.

Formula Was Necessary

The central and all-important purpose of the London conference, therefore, was to work out a formula by which France could agree to co-operate with America and Britain in restoring western Germany to some semblance of order.

A secondary problem was to win the support and co-operation of Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg. Those neighbors of Germany are the first countries of Western Europe to work out a credit union. They hold key places in the Marshall plan; they are symbols of the small nations of Europe.

The French had two major worries about agreeing to western German unity. They feared they might lay the basis for a powerful new Germany. They also feared they might anger Russia by going along so openly with Britain and America.

Crisis Is Result

These fears are not held by the French Government leaders so much as by the French people. The split between the leaders who think in terms of the Marshall plan and the people who feed upon their traditional fears is the cause of the prospective political crisis in France over the German agreements.

The French leaders sought to meet the people's fears by providing assurances of security. They wanted a military guarantee from the United States against both Germany and Russia. They wanted to separate the Ruhr from Germany. They wanted to nail down long-range occupation plans.

They also wanted a Government with limited powers and a federal organization. They wanted the individua lstates of Germany, which are relatively small and harmless, to have most of the power. They wanted to avoid setting up a political machine for a new Hitler.

Agreement On Regime

The United States and Britain saw almost eye to eye with the French on the kind of government they wanted Germany to have. But they could not go the whole route on security guarantees. The United States cannot undertake a military alliance with all or any part of Western Europe at this time. Nor could London and Washington agree to carve the Ruhr out of Germany; they did not think it would work.

The result was the proposal to create an "international control" of the Ruhr, which today's announcement did not clearly define. The result also was to stress that all three Western powers will cooperate in long-range control of Germany to keep it disarmed.

Another result was to emphasize —in the direction of Moscow—that today's agreements do not close the door to future unity of all Germany.

Up To French People

Since the French held the key to the London conference, the problem is not yet all solved. The agreements reached were acceptable to the French Government: the French people—the French Parliament—have yet to be heard from.

If they irrevocably reject the agreements the London conference will have to be written off as a failure, and America and Britain will have to find some other way to tackle the twin problems of German production and German politics.

Return Of E.R.P. To Year's Basis May Be Asked

Washington, June 7 (AP)—A compromise putting foreign aid back on a twelve-month basis was talked today as senators fought a new battle over House slashes in the European Recovery Program.

The House cut $553,000,000 off foreign help funds last week and slowed the proposed outlay an estimated $500,000,000 more by ordering the money stretched out over fifteen months.

Some senators discussed the possibility of making the $4,000,000,000 the House allowed for fifteen months to twelve months instead. The Administration had asked for $4,245,000,000 for the year, plus $1,055,000,000 already made available.

Vandenberg's Stand

But there were indications that Senator Vandenberg (R., Mich.), taking command of the fight for the full fund, has no idea of compromising on a smaller amount if he can help it.

Vandenberg, who will testify before the Senate Appropriations Committee on Wednesday, is expected to contend that this country is likely to lose the cold war against communism in Europe if Congress fails to vote the full amount it authorized in setting up the recovery program two months ago.

All foreign spending—including occupation and other costs in Germany, Japan and elsewhere — is lumped in the bill which cleared the House carying $5,980,000,000. The Administration had asked for $6,533,000,000,000.

Bipartisan Support

The drive for the full appropriation picked up bipartisan support.

Senator Pepper (D., Fla.), who has been critical of Administration foreign policy from time to time, said he is "confident" the Senate would restore many of the House cuts.

"I think if we are going to carry out the program it should be done adequately," he said. "It was a great mistake for the House to have done what it did."

Senator Baldwin (R., Conn.) said he favors going back to the amounts proposed originally.

Calls It A Commitment

"It was a grave mistake to reduce the figure," he said. "We shouldn't back down now on what the people of Europe," and our own people, understand as a commitment."

Senator Maybank (D., S.C.) said that as he sees it, "the House action makes no sense."

On the other side, Senator Revercomb (R., W.Va.) said he has "the utmost confidence in what the House has done." Senator Dworshak (R., Idaho) commented that it would be bad to give European countries too extravagant help.

Resolution Cited

Senators disagreed as to effect the fund battle would have on a resolution by Vandenberg to pave the way for this country to extend military aid to European nations which form alliances to combat communism.

But some said that if Vandenberg is successful in getting most of the House fund cuts restored, he will have less difficulty in getting his resolution through.

SOUTHERN BLOC GIVES IN AFTER BITTER DEBATE

Six Other Civil Rights Issues Are Shelved or Voted Down.

LEADERS URGE SPEED

Seek to Avoid Filibuster In Race to Pass Draft Legislation.

WASHINGTON June 7—(AP) The Senate voted tonight to outlaw the poll tax as a condition to voting in federal elections by members of the armed forces.

Southern Democrats, after several hours of talking against the proposal, abandoned the fight and permitted the amendment to the Selective Service bill to come to a vote. It was adopted, 37 to 35.

Senator Langer (R-ND) sponsored the amendment along with six others based on President Truman's civil rights program. All the others were shelved or voted down without the Senators' passing on the civil rights issue itself.

Produces Bitter Fight

But the anti-poll tax amendment produced a bitter fight threatening at times to become a filibuster that could have blocked passage of draft and other legislation before Congress ends its present session on June 19.

Just before the vote, acting Democratic Leader Lucas of Illinois accused the Republican leadership in effect of violating a "general agreement" that the whole series of civil rights amendments to the bill would be shelved.

Lucas said a number of Democrats "submerged their true convictions" to try to get the 19-through-25 draft bill through Congress without a filibuster.

Senate leaders agreed shortly before 10 p.m. EDT, to postpone further debate until tomorrow.

Thirty-four Republicans and three Democrats—Senators Edwin C. Johnson of Colorado, Murray of Montana and Pepper of Florida—voted for the anti-poll tax amendment.

Chairman Gurney (R-SD) of the Armed Services Committee, who announced at first he would support the admendment, voted against it. He was joined by four other Republicans—Senators Hickenlooper of Iowa, Moore of Oklahoma, Cain of Washington and E. V. Robertson of Wyoming—and 30 Democrats.

New Amendments Offered

Just before the Senate recessed, Senator Morse (R-Ore) introduced four amendments to the draft bill. They would:

(1) Limit the draft to two years instead of five.

(2) Take men into the armed services for 12 months instead of 24 months.

(3) Place osteopaths on the same bases as medical doctors and dentists.

(4) Set up a civilian commission of three members appointed by the President to handle the problem of conscientious objectors. This follows in "broad outline," Morse said, the practices in England and Canada in dealing with conscientious objectors.

Many backers of the President's program voted against the first six Langer amendments. Some held that such legislation had no place in a draft bill. Others voted as they did in the frank hope of avoiding a time-consuming fight, or a possible filibuster, which would jeopardize the passage of other legislation.

Then came the seventh amendment, which would forbid any state to collect a poll tax from a member of the armed forces before allowing him to vote.

GOP Leaders Split on Issue

Republican leaders, who had stood firm against the first six amendments on tactical grounds divided on the anti-poll tax proposal.

Senator Taft (R-Ohio) endorsed it and called for a roll call. Chairman Gurney (R-SD) of the Armed Services Committee said he thought the Senate should have a chance to vote on it. Later he changed his decision.

Southern senators already were on their feet. Senator Russell (D-Ga) shouted that the amendment "goes to the very heart of the constitution of the United States and for that reason it should not be adopted."

Senator Stennis (D-Miss) said he challenged the right of congress to legislate on state voting. He declared that state suffrage, taxation and police powers are not subject to congressional "interference."

Langer's amendments kept the senate, now on an overtime schedule in the drive for adjournment by June 19, in session well into the night. After three amendments were shelved, he refused to let the others be considered all at once.

His amendment to ban race segregation in the armed forces was tabled, on a rollcall vote of 67 to 7.

Another amendment, to forbid discrimination against any member of the armed forces traveling on a common carrier, was tabled by a voice vote.

Indications were that the senate would take final action on the draft bill this week. The house is waiting for the senate to act before taking up a draft bill of its own.

With the anti-segregation amendment out of the way, many senators talked of shelving likewise a proposal by Senator Russell (D-Ga) which would have almost exactly the opposite effect. It would require the armed forces to maintain all-white and all-Negro units.

But support appeared growing for another amendment. This one, sponsored by Senator Capehart (R-Ind), would put the draft on a standby basis. The president would get the power to order drafting of men only if the armed forces couldn't fill their needs with volunteers. The draft wouldn't start until 90 days after the presidential order.

Republican leaders of congress are treating the draft proposals as "must" legislation—slated definitely for passage before June 19, the probable adjournment date.

JUN 1948

30.24- 18335

The anti-discrimination amendment put aside by the Senate today was one of seven offered by Senator Langer (R-ND). All of them would require the armed forces to put into practice one or more of President Truman's civil rights proposals.

Many supporters of the civil rights program, however, were among those voting to shelve the Langer amendment. They took the position that the President's proposals should be considered by themselves—not as "riders" to the draft bill.

Filibuster Balked

By voting to "table" the anti-segregation amendment, the Senators automatically shut off debate on it. A number of southern senators were ready to filibuster if there seemed any chance that the amendment might be adopted.

A filibuster would mean that debate would go on indefinitely, thus killing practically all chance that the draft and other "must" legislation could be passed during the present session.

Chairman Gurney (R-SD) of the Senate Armed Services Committee urged defeat of all the Langer amendments. He said civil rights were a "national issue which extends far beyond the military establishment." And he urged that the segregation question be left up to the heads of the armed forces as at present.

Langer talked for three and a half hours last Friday in support of his amendment to ban discrimination or segregation because of race, creed or color in inductions or assignments of men in the army, navy or air force.

The Senate bill would require all men 18 through 25 to register. Those 19 through 25 would be subject to call for two years' service. The 18-year-olds could volunteer for a year's training. Doctors and dentists up to the age of 45 would be required to register.

Sharp Competition Seen For U.S. Cotton in Europe

WASHINGTON, June 7 (AP).—The Agriculture Department said today American cotton will encounter sharp competition in Europe after the present foreign aid program ends.

The department's forecast was based on a report by P. K. Norris, one of its foreign trade experts who made a survey of cotton markets in Great Britain, France, Italy, Switzerland, Belgium, the Netherlands and the western zones of Austria and Germany.

European use of this country's cotton has increased, the department said, since the end of the war. The Norris report said the shipments were made possible for the most part by credits and loans extended by this country for the purchase of cotton, or for general rehabilitation.

During the year ended July 31, 1947, the United States exported 1,800,000 bales to these countries, compared with an average of 2,800,000 during the five pre-war years.

As a part of the European aid program, it has been estimated that between 2,000,000 and 2,500,000 bales may move to these countries in the year ending next July 31.

MARSHALL ADVISES AGAINST EMOTION

He Urges Students to Judge World Issues on 'True Facts' in North Carolina Talk

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., June 7 (AP)—Secretary of State George C. Marshall advised college students tonight to guard their emotions and try to get at the "true facts" before forming judgments on foreign affairs.

"We Americans are sometimes inclined to emotional reactions, which can be very dangerous in matters concerned with international relationships," he said.

In this country's relations with others, he said, it is necessary to proceed "in a careful and guarded manner" and to take a long view of the future.

The Secretary, speaking at the University of North Carolina commencement exercises, kept away from specific current issues, explaining they "are either in such a delicate state of negotiation or in complete stalemate that it is inadvisable for me to engage in public discussions, except so far as may be necessary to keep the people of this country reasonably advised of the general situation."

Sees Tendency to Exaggerate

Urging that students and those fresh from academic halls "inform themselves" on the current United States role in the world, Mr. Marshall advised:

"Ascertaining the facts cannot be done by mere superficial reading of a single newspaper or listening to your favorite radio broadcaster. There is so much confusion, and at times special pleading, that it is exceedingly difficult to get at the true facts.

"Also, we must contend with the recognized fact that a murder has much more news value than the details of a peaceful settlement of a difficulty. Therefore, there is a strong tendency to accentuate, to exaggerate, those phases or incidents in our international dealings that will stimulate interest from the viewpoint of excitement rather than of factual understanding."

Mr. Marshall said it was becoming increasingly difficult to find able individuals to represent American interests in the United Nations.

The "less spectacular, infinitely more subtle tasks of peace" call for sacrifice and unselfish service as well as wartime demands, he said.

Cites Sacrifices by Hundreds

Hundreds of Americans, he added, are making personal sacrifices to serve in positions of great importance and difficulty in the occupation zones abroad as well as in the United Nations.

Among those he cited by name for their United Nations work were Mark Ethridge, publisher of The Louisville Courier Journal and Times; Joseph Dodge, Detroit banker; Paul Hoffman, new chief of the Economic Cooperation Administration; Ambassador Averell Harriman, and former Mayor Roger Lapham of San Francisco, who will head an ECA mission to China.

Secretary of the Army Kenneth C. Royall and Mrs. Charles W. Tillett of Charlotte, vice president of the Democratic National Committee, received honorary degrees of Doctor of Laws.

Honorary doctorates also went to Dr. Harry A. Allard of Arlington, Va., former plant physiogolist with the United States Department of Agriculture; Dr. Benjamin R. Lacey Jr. of Richmond, Va., president of the Union Presbyterian Theological Seminary; Dr. William R. Webb Jr., principal of the Webb School, Bell Buckle, Tenn.; Bishop Edwin A. Penick of the Episcopal Diocese of North Carolina, and Dr. Hubert Haywood of Raleigh, a member of the North Carolina Board of Health and chairman of the medical staff at Rex Hospital, Raleigh.

Dr. Allard was made a Doctor of Science and the others Doctor of Laws.

The university graduated a record class of 1,300.

WELLES BLAMES U.S., BRITAIN FOR PALESTINE WAR

NEW YORK, June 7 — (AP) Sumner Welles in a new book blames the United States and Britain for the Palestine war.

The book is being published tomorrow by Houghton Mifflin. It is titled "We Need Not Fail" and deals primarily with the Palestine problem.

The former undersecretary of state condemns the U. S. policy on the Holy Land as unjust, unrealistic, fantastically short-sighted and foolish.

Partition Plan "Sabotaged"

He agrees with the United Nations Palestine Commission that Britain sabotaged the partition plan by refusing to cooperate.

The "final errors" of the United States and the "antagonistic attitude" of the British, he says, "were directly responsible for the progressive and rapid deterioration in the Palestine situation."

Welles declares there can be no hope for peace in Palestine unless the partition plan is revitalized by the UN, backed by military force and officially supported by the United States.

He calls for international recognition of the state of Israel and for an immediate end of the U. S. embargo on arms for the Middle East.

Within a few days after he completed the book, the United States announced recognition of the provisional government of Israel. Recognition by other countries was followed almost daily.

President Truman also disclosed he was considering lifting the arms embargo.

Asked to comment on these late developments, Welles called the new U. S. moves "another reversal" of policy, but said this time the reversal was in the right direction.

"It is too late, however, to undo the damage that has been done," he said.

He says the "policies of selfish and short-sighted expediency pursued by Great Britain and, still more, by the United States" have done more to bankrupt the security council than Russia's 25 vetoes.

"We have made it plain that just as the great powers wrecked the League of Nations by using it as an instrument of their own national policy x x x so we are now using the United Nations as an instrument of our own national policy, and fulfilling our obligations to the cause of collective security only when it seems to serve our own selfish and national ends."

Welles blames reversal of the U. S. partition policy primarily on President Truman's military and naval advisers, but says the oil lobby and some State department officials also played a part.

LIFTING OF EMBARGO ON ARMS IS HINTED

NEW YORK, June 7—(AP) The New York Daily Mirror says professional ammunition handlers in New York "have been alerted for assignment and instructed to attend orientation lectures where they will be sworn to secrecy."

"The alert notices were telegraphed to members of the AFL International Longshoremen's Association by union officials, who took the action at the request of high government officers in Washington," the newspaper said.

The story added:

"The unusual activity was said by one informed observer to indicate that the United States plans to lift its arms embargo to Palestine soon and begin full scale ammunition shipments to the embattled holy land."

Longshoremen's Association and other officials could not be reached in connection with the Mirror story. In Washington, no information could be obtained immediately from army officials.

RUSSIA MAKES OBSERVER BID ON PALESTINE

Ready To Send Aides If Other Nations Do, Gromyko Says

Lake Success, N.Y., June 7 (AP)—Russia made her first open bid today to send military observers into Palestine.

Andrei A. Gromyko, Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister, told the United Nations Security Council he had heard that governments on the Council's truce commission had been asked to supply observers. They are the United States, Belgium and France.

He said that Russia is ready to send her observers also.

Delegates Ask Instructions

Gromyko thus brought into the open for the first time a question which has troubled several powers in the United Nations ever since the Palestine question arose. It is this: Can the United Nations stop the fighting in Palestine by force without having to include Soviet army troops?

Surprised Security Council delegates promptly put off talk about observers until Thursday afternoon at least. Then they cabled home governments for instructions.

The Council, meanwhile, received a report from the United Nations mediator in the Middle East, Count Folke Bernadotte, of Sweden, saying he hoped to tell the Council Wednesday whether he has succeeded or failed in bringing about a four-week armistice in the Jewish-Arab conflict.

Call For Observance

The cease-fire attempt is based on a Council resolution approved May 29 asking Jews and Arabs to stop fighting for four weeks so the United Nations mediator can attempt a peaceful settlement.

One paragraph instructed the mediator and the truce commission to supervise observance of the cease-fire provisions. The Council decided that they should have a "sufficient number of" military observers."

Gromyko said he had heard the mediator and the truce commission had asked the United States, France and Belgium, whether they would send observers.

Choice Not Clear

He said the paragraph did not state clearly how the observers would be chosen. He said Russia could not accept any theory that the mere fact these three governments were on the truce commission gave them the right to send military observers to Palestine.

JUN 1948

Dr. Philip C. Jessup, new United States deputy on the Council, said the mediator had approached Washington and that the United States Government had said it would send observers if desired.

Alexandre Parodi, of France, said France also had been approached and was studying the question.

Fernand Van Langenhowe, of Belgium, said the Brussels Government was approached and had agreed in principle to the proposition.

Immigration Question

Gromyko said these statements had confirmed press reports; that the question must be cleared up here; that Russia is prepared to send military observers along with other directly interested countries. He did not mention any other countries at this session.

Immigration has been one of the main obstacles to agreement on the truce. Israel notified the United Nations today she had agreed to segregate immigrants of military age coming into Palestine during the armistice. The Arabs have demanded a complete stoppage of immigration.

"(3) Immigrants found in possession of arms shall be disembarked, and if they arrive, they will not be admitted.

"(4) Arrivals during the first week of truce shall be regulated according to the Mediator's capacity to handle transport.

"(5) Men of military age during the cease-fire shall be kept in hostels and camps and work centers where they can be effectively supervised with a view to ensuring no recruiting and no training.

"(6) If the Cyprus ban is removed, Israel's immigration program during the cease-fire will concentrate mainly on the evacuation of Cyprus.

"(7) Regarding European transports, the Provisional Government will strive to maintain normal age composition."

In a cable dispatched from Tel Aviv on June 5, 1948, the Foreign Minister in the Provisional Government informs me that Items 1, 2, 3, 4, 6 and 7 in the above agreement are conditions which the Mediator himself proposed and which the Provisional Government of Israel accepted. Item 5 was a facility offered by the Provisional Government of Israel to the Mediator in order to assist him to supervise the activities of men of military age entering Palestine during the cease-fire period.

The Provisional Government of Israel, in accepting these conditions, has been animated by a desire to assist the Mediator to the maximum possible degree within the terms of the May 29 resolution. It is quite clear to the Provisional Government that this agreement offers a satisfactory way of applying the terms of that resolution in accordance with its spirit and text. This agreement is based on the clear and explicit purpose of the resolution that the entry of men of military age shall not be banned or restricted, but that their mobilization and training when they arrive in Israel shall not take place during the period of the cease-fire.

Further discussions have taken place in Haifa between the Security Council's Mediator and the Provisional Government of Israel, and I shall seek the privilege of making a submission to the Security Council concerning them.

Text of Israeli Letter

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., June 7—Aubrey S. Eban, Israeli representative to the United Nations Security Council, today submitted the following letter to members of the Council:

I have the honor to convey, for the information of the Security Council, the text of an agreement arrived at between the Security Council Mediator and the Foreign Minister of the Provisional Government of Israel at a meeting in Tel Aviv on June 3, with regard to the interpretation of the immigration clauses contained in the Security Council's resolution on May 29. The agreement is based on a cable which I received from Mr. Shertok on June 5 and conveyed to you for your information. The text of the cablegram is as follows:

"The following arrangements for controls have now been ratified by the Provisional Government:

"(1) We notify the Mediator in advance of the date and the port of embarkation of every immigrant transport.

"(2) Our representatives will cooperate with the Mediator in searching ships; if practical, at ports of embarkation; otherwise, on arrival.

Council Meeting For Report By U.N. Mediator

Lake Success, June 7 (AP)—Authoritative sources indicated today that the United States is awaiting news from Palestine before deciding its next move in the Arab-Jewish conflict.

It is said this country's delegation will go to a meeting of the Security Council today in the hope that some report will be in. Nothing is planned at present for that meeting, it was added.

The Council was called to receive any report from Count Folke Bernadotte, of Sweden, United Nations mediator who is trying to get Jews and Arabs to agree on the effective hour for a four-week cease-fire.

Faris el Khouri, of Syria, Council president for June, said the delegates would discuss such a report if it is received. If there is no report, there is no further business at this time for the Council.

The delegates have decided to leave up to Count Bernadotte all interpretation of the complicated terms of the armistice appeal, which the Council approved May 29.

NIGHT LEAD WESTERN GERMANY (750)

BY ALEX H.SINGLETON

LONDON, JUNE 7-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN, FRANCE AND THE BENELUX COUNTRIES RECOMMENDED OFFICIALLY TODAY A SEPARATE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT FOR WESTERN GERMANY, AND AGREED TO KEEP THEIR OCCUPATION TROOPS THERE UNTIL EUROPE'S PEACE IS SECURED.

OPPOSITION FROM RUSSIA WAS CONSIDERED CERTAIN.

BRITAIN'S CABINET APPROVED THE RECOMMENDATION AS ITS PART IN MEETING CONDITIONS THAT ALL THREE MAJOR WESTERN POWERS MUST RATIFY THE PROJECT AS A WHOLE BEFORE IT CAN BEGIN.

APPROVAL FROM THE U.S. WAS TAKEN FOR GRANTED. FORMAL CONGRESSIONAL ACTION IS NOT REQUIRED. U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS SAID IN WASHINGTON THAT SECRETARY OF STATE GEORGE C. MARSHALL WOULD SOON APPROVE IT.

IN FRANCE, ALWAYS SECURITY-MINDED, A STORM AROSE OVER SOME OF THE PROVISIONS OF THE AGREEMENT--CHIEFLY CONCESSIONS MADE IN PLANS TO REBUILD THE INDUSTRIAL MIGHT OF THE RUHR.

GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS, HOWEVER, EXPRESSED CONFIDENCE THESE PROTESTS WILL BE WEATHERED BY FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTER GEORGES BIDAULT, AND THAT THE PROGRAM WILL BE ENDORSED BY THE FRENCH NATIONAL ASSEMBLY LATER THIS WEEK.

THE PROPOSALS WERE MADE DURING A SIX-WEEK CONFERENCE IN LONDON OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE THREE MAJOR WESTERN POWERS AND THE BENELUX NATIONS--BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG. THEY RAISED A MAJOR QUESTION: WHAT WILL RUSSIA DO NOW IN EASTERN GERMANY?

EVEN BEFORE THE CONFERENCE BEGAN RUSSIA PROTESTED STRONGLY AGAINST SEPARATE CONSIDERATION OF WESTERN GERMANY'S STATUS, AND SERVED NOTICE SHE WOULD REFUSE TO RECOGNIZE THE LEGALITY OF THE DECISIONS.

AN HOUR BEFORE THE AGREEMENTS WERE ANNOUNCED TODAY, THE BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE GAVE A COPY OF THE COMMUNIQUE OUTLINING THE TERMS TO RUSSIAN AMBASSADOR GEORGI N. ZARUBIN. ANOTHER COPY WENT TO MARSHAL VASSILY D. SOKOLOVSKY, RUSSIAN MILITARY GOVERNOR IN BERLIN.

THE FIRST, SEMI-OFFICIAL COMMUNIST REACTION APPEARED IN THE RUSSIAN-LICENSED NEWSPAPER NACHT EXPRESS IN BERLIN.

"THEY KNOW VERY WELL IN THE WEST THAT MOSCOW NEVER WILL APPROVE A FEDERAL STRUCTURE FOR GERMANY WITHOUT THE GERMAN PEOPLE BEING ASKED FIRST," IT SAID.

THE RECOMMENDATIONS AMOUNTED TO A BIG BLUEPRINT FOR WESTERN GERMANY'S ECONOMIC AND POLITICAL FUTURE. THE COMMUNIQUE WHICH SUMMED UP THE ACTION SAID THE AGREEMENTS "IN NO WAY PRECLUDE, AND ON THE CONTRARY SHOULD FACILITATE, EVENTUAL FOUR-POWER AGREEMENT ON THE GERMAN PROBLEM."

THE STEPS OUTLINED IN THE AGREEMENTS ARE BASED, OFFICIALS SAID, ON THE BELIEF THAT THE GERMAN PEOPLE SHOULD TAKE MAXIMUM RESPONSIBILITIES.

A210

THE RECOMMENDATIONS AGREED ON BY THE POWERS INCLUDE:

AN OPPORTUNITY FOR THE GERMAN PEOPLE TO BUILD A "FREE AND DEMOCRACTIC GERMANY UNDER A CONSTITUTION WHICH WILL ALLOW ALL THE GERMAN STATES TO SUBSCRIBE AS SOON AS CIRCUMSTANCES PERMIT."

A JOINT MEETING SOON BETWEEN THE MILITARY GOVERNORS OF THE BRITISH, AMERICAN AND FRENCH OCCUPATION ZONES AND GERMAN OFFICIALS OF THE WESTERN ZONES TO AUTHORIZE CONVENING OF A CONSTITUENT ASSEMBLY. (DIPLOMATIC AUTHORITIES SAID SEPT. 1 IS THE DATE FAVORED).

THE RIGHT OF THE WESTERN GERMAN STATES TO DETERMINE THEIR OWN METHOD OF NAMING DELEGATES TO THE CONSTITUENT ASSEMBLY.

JUN 1948

A STIPULATION IN THE PROPOSED CONSTITUTION TO BAR A REBIRTH OF A CENTRALIZED GERMAN REICH--SUCH AS THAT IN WHICH HITLER ROSE TO POWER--BUT TO PROVIDE FOR A FEDERAL FORM OF GOVERNMENT "WHICH ADEQUATELY PROTECTS THE RIGHTS OF THE RESPECTIVE STATES."

SUBMISSION OF THE CONSTITUTION, WHEN DRAFTED, TO THE PEOPLE OF THE GERMAN STATES FOR APPROVAL.

A STUDY OF THE BOUNDARIES OF THE GERMAN STATES TO DETERMINE WHETHER MODIFICATION IS NECESSARY.

A PLAN FOR A "JOINT CONDUCT AND CONTROL OF THE EXTERNAL TRADE" OF THE BRITISH, AMERICAN AND FRENCH ZONES.

ESTABLISHMENT OF A FIRM POLICY THAT THERE CAN BE NO GENERAL WITHDRAWAL OF TROOPS FROM GERMANY UNTIL THE PEACE OF EUROPE IS SECURED. SUCH A WITHDRAWAL WOULD BE PRECEDED BY CONSULTATION OF THE POWERS.

JOINT CONSULTATIONS BETWEEN THE THREE POWERS IF ANY DANGER OF A RE-DEVELOPMENT OF GERMAN MILITARY POWER ARISES.

ESTABLISHMENT, DURING THE PERIOD OF OCCUPATION, OF A MILITARY SECURITY BOARD TO KEEP GERMANY DISARMED AND DE-MILITARIZED.

FORMATION OF A LONG-RANGE PROGRAM FOR INSPECTING GERMANY'S INDUSTRY AFTER THE OCCUPATION ENDS TO PREVENT THE GROWTH OF A WAR POTENTIAL.

FORMATION OF AN INTERNATIONAL AUTHORITY FOR THE RUHR, WITH POWER TO ALLOCATE THE AREA'S COAL, COKE AND IRON. THIS WOULD BE A SEVEN-COUNTRY BOARD WITH THE THREE BIG WESTERN POWERS AND GERMANY EACH HAVING THREE VOTES, THE BENELUX COUNTRIES ONE VOTE EACH.

A PROVISION AMOUNTING TO VETO POWER FOR THE MILITARY GOVERNORS OF WESTERN GERMANY OVER THE RUHR AUTHORITY.

CONTINUANCE OF THE RUHR AUTHORITY AFTER THE OCCUPATION ENDS.

NO DATE WAS SET FOR CREATION OF THE RUHR CONTROL BOARD, BUT THE RECOMMENDATIONS SAID IT SHOULD BEGIN OPERATION BEFORE THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A WESTERN GERMAN GOVERNMENT.

THE DECISION TO SET UP THE RUHR CONTROL BOARD FIRST WAS REGARDED BY OBSERVERS AS A CONCESSION TO THE FRENCH IN RETURN FOR THEIR ACTION IN DROPPING DEMANDS FOR A QUICK AND COMPLETE INTERNATIONALIZATION OF THE WHOLE AREA.

LONDON, JUNE 7-(AP)-BRITISH NEWSPAPERS STRESSED TODAY THE IMPACT MARSHALL PLAN CUTS BY CONGRESS WILL HAVE ON WESTERN EUROPEAN UNITY.

"POLITICALLY AS WELS AS ECONOMICALLY EVERYTHING TURNS ON CONFIDENCE IN THE SERIOUSNESS AND CONTINUITY OF AMERICAN INTENTIONS," THE CONSERVATIVE DAILY TELEGRAPH SAID. "WESTERN (EUROPEAN) UNION WITHOUT THIS CONFIDENCE IS 'HAMLET' WITHOUT THE PRINCE OF DENMARK. SENATE REACTIONS TO THE HOUSE CUT XXX WILL BE ANXIOUSLY AWAITED ON BOTH SIDES OF THE IRON CURTAIN."

COMMUNIST PAPERS AND THOSE OF THE FAR LEFT EDITORIALLY SAVORED THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PLAN CUTS VOTED BY THE HOUSE. ROME'S COMMUNIST NEWSPAPER, L'UNITA, HEADLINED "THE MARSHALL PLAN CHEAT." THE SOVIET ARMY'S OFFICIAL NEWSPAPER IN BERLIN, TAEGLICHE RUNDSCHAU, COMMENTED:

"THIS IS THE END OF AN ILLUSION--THE MARSHALL PLAN DROPS ITS MASK. THE PRICE IS TOO HIGH FOR THE BANKERS."

THE COMMUNISTS HAVE FOUGHT THE MARSHALL PLAN FROM THE BEGINNING.

OTHER PAPERS EXPRESSED HOPE THAT THE SENATE MIGHT REVERSE THE HOUSE.

THE FREE PRESS SAID WHILE THE "OFFICIAL" MALAYA COMMUNIST PARTY MIGHT NOT BE RESPONSIBLE FOR CURRENT OUTBREAKS OF LAWLESSNESS AND GANGSTERISM IN MALAYA, "COMMUNIST AGITATION IS NOT CONFINED TO THE PROPERLY CONSTITUTED PARTY."

"IN ADDITION TO THE OFFICIAL PARTY THERE IS AT WORK IN THIS COUNTRY A SECRET COMMUNIST ORGANIZATION. FROM THIS SECRET COMMUNIST COLUMN HAS COME THE INSPIRATION AND WILL TO MURDER AND DESTROY. THESE MEN MUST BE HUNTED DOWN."

THE TRIBUNE ASSERTED THE GOVERNMENT OF THE SINGAPORE MALAYAN FEDERATION "CANNOT EXIST SIDE BY SIDE WITH AN ORGANIZATION WHICH SEEKS UNREST, VIOLENCE AND CHAOS. X X X WHATEVER IS HAPPENING ELSEWHERE, THE DANGER IN MALAYA CAN BE RESOLUTELY AND SUCCESSFULLY TACKLED. CAIRO,JUNE 7-(AP)-COUNT FOLKE BERNADOTTE HAS PROMISED THAT NEITHER JEWS NOR ARABS WILL GAIN MILITARY ADVANTAGE FROM HIS ADMINISTRATION OF THE PALESTINE TRUCE, A NEUTRAL SOURCE SAID TONIGHT.

BERNADOTTE, THE UNITED NATIONS PALESTINE MEDIATOR, PLEDGED HIMSELF, THE SOURCE SAID, TO APPLY THIS YARDSTICK OF NO CHANGE IN THE MILITARY SITUATION TO ALL THE ISSUES INVOLVED. THIS STAND WOULD APPLY TO ISSUES INCLUDING THESE THREE TROUBLESOME ONES:

1. JEWISH IMMIGRATION INTO THE HOLY LAND DURING THE TRUCE. THE SOURCE SAID BERNADOTTE PROPOSED THAT IMMIGRATION WHICH WOULD NOT CHANGE THE MILITARY SITUATION BE PERMITTED. HE ASKED THAT BOTH SIDES LEAVE THE DETAILED APPLICATION OF THIS PRINCIPLE TO HIM.

2. THE MOVEMENT OF FOOD SUPPLIES TO THE 90,000 JEWS BESEIGED IN JERUSALEM. THE COUNT PROPOSED, THE SOURCE SAID, THAT RIGID INSPECTION AND CONTROLS BE ESTABLISHED TO INSURE THAT THE JEWS WILL HAVE NO MORE FOOD AT THE END OF THE TRUCE THAN AT ITS BEGINNING.

3. MEASURES TO PREVENT THE CREATION DURING THE TRUCE OF MILITARY SUPPLY DUMPS NEAR THE FIGHTING LINES, WHICH WOULD BE OF GREAT VALUE IF WAR WERE RESUMED.

BERNADOTTE'S TRUCE PROPOSALS, HANDED TO THE ARABS AND JEWS TODAY, FIXED THE DAY AND HOUR FOR THE CEASE FIRE TO BEGIN, BUT THEY WERE NOT LEARNED HERE.

30.24- 18339

JUN 1948

THE NEUTRAL SOURCE EXPRESSED THE BELIEF THE SWEDISH MEDIATOR'S PROPOSALS HAD A "50-50" CHANCE OF ACCEPTANCE BY ARABS AND JEWS. BERNADOTTE WOULD SAY ONLY THAT HE WOULD HAVE "SOMETHING TO SAY IN A COUPLE OF DAYS."

THIS INDICATED HE WOULD MAKE A PUBLIC STATEMENT AFTER RECEIVING ARAB AND JEWISH REPLIES.

EGYPTIAN PRIME MINISTER MAHMOUD FAHMY NOKRASHY PASHA TOLD NEWSMEN TONIGHT THAT THE ARAB NATIONS' REPLY WOULD BE CONVEYED TO BERNADOTTE WEDNESDAY. THE MEDIATOR HAD ASKED FOR A REPLY BY THAT DAY.

CAIRO, JUNE 7-(AP)-MAHMOUD FAHMY NOKRASKY PASHA, PRIME MINISTER OF EGYPT, TOLD NEWSMEN TONIGHT THAT THE ARAB NATIONS' REPLY TO THE TRUCE PROPOSAL OF COUNT FOLKE BERNADOTTE, THE UNITED NATIONS PALESTINE MEDIATOR, WILL BE CONVEYED TO BERNADOTTE ON WEDNESDAY.

AN ARAB LEAGUE SOURCE SAID THE ARAB STATES ARE SUBORDINATING THEIR ACCEPTANCE OF A TRUCE IN PALESTINE TO FOUR MAJOR CONDITIONS.

THESE, THE SOURCE SAID, ARE:

1.--NO JEWISH IMMIGRANTS OF MILITARY AGE SHALL BE ALLOWED INTO PALESTINE DURING THE TRUCE PERIOD.

2.--COMPLETE CONTROL BY A UNITED NATIONS TRUCE COMMISSION SHALL BE ENFORCED ON PALESTINE'S PORTS AND AIRFIELDS.

3.--THE ARAB ARMIES' SIEGE OF JERUSALEM SHALL BE MAINTAINED.

4.--TROOPS SHALL KEEP THE POSITIONS PRESENTLY HELD IN PALESTINE.

THIS ARAB SOURCE AND OTHER ARAB SPOKESMEN WERE UNANIMOUS IN STRESSING THAT THE ARAB STATES WOULD INSIST ON THE ACCEPTANCE OF THEIR CONDITIONS BEFORE AGREEING TO THE TRUCE PROPOSED BY BERNADOTTE.

ACCORDING TO AHMED EL RAWI, IRAQI UNDER-SECRETARY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS, THE U.N. MEDIATOR HAS ASKED THE ARAB GOVERNMENTS TO DELIVER THEIR REPLY TO HIS TRUCE PROPOSALS ON WEDNESDAY.

ARAB LEAGUE REPRESENTATIVES MET FOR 10 MINUTES TODAY THEN CALLED ANOTHER MEETING FOR TOMORROW. THEY PLAN TO DISCUSS THEN THE PROPOSALS MADE BY BERNADOTTE.

A TEL AVIV COMMUNIQUE SAID THE SYRIANS, STRIKING FROM THE NORTH, HAD DRIVEN THE JEWS FROM MALIKYA, LESS THAN A MILE BELOW THE LEBANESE BORDER, AND, PUSHING FROM THE EAST, WERE ATTACKING MISHMAR HAY YARDEN BELOW LAKE HULE NEAR THE SYRIAN FRONTIER.

A DAMASCUS COMMUNIQUE REPORTED AN ATTACK ON MALIKYA AND SAID SYRIAN AND LEBANESE TROOPS OCCUPIED NEARBY QADAS AND CLAIMED MISHMAR HAY YARDEN HAD BEEN ENCIRCLED AND DESTROYED. IT SAID MORE THAN 250 JEWS WERE KILLED AROUND MALIKYA.

ON THE NORTHEASTERN APPROACHES TO TEL AVIV, AN ISRAELI COMMUNIQUE SAID, THE JEWS HAMMERED OUT A HALF CIRCLE AROUND THE ARABS' TRIANGLE ANCHORED ON TULKARM, JENIN AND NABLUS.

A20

THE COMMUNIQUE REPORTED JEWISH SUCCESSES AROUND TULKARM, 24 MILES NORTHEAST OF TEL AVIV. IT SAID THE ISRAELIS HAD RAIDED THE CITY FROM THE AIR, SETTING BIG FIRES IN A NEARBY MILITARY CAMP, AND CAPTURED QAQUN VILLAGE, THREE AND A HALF MILES TO THE NORTHWEST, INSIDE JEWISH-CLAIMED TERRITORY. IT REPORTED THE ARABS LEFT NEARLY 200 DEAD AT QAQUN.

JUN 1948

TWENTY-THREE MILES SOUTH OF TEL AVIV, THE JEWS CLAIM TO HAVE TRAPPED A FIFTH OF AN EGYPTIAN FORCE OF 5,000 AT ISDUD. THE ISRAELI HIGH COMMAND SAID YESTERDAY ITS INFANTRY DESTROYED A NUMBER OF EGYPTIAN FORTIFIED POSITIONS IN THAT REGION.

A CAIRO COMMUNIQUE, WITHOUT GIVING THE DEFINITE LOCATION, SAID LAST NIGHT THE EGYPTIANS HAD BEATEN BACK AN ATTACK ON THEIR ADVANCE LINES.

IN JERUSALEM, THE TRANS-JORDAN ARAB LEGION FIRED ABOUT 100 SHELLS INTO JEWISH-HELD PARTS OF THE CITY. ISRAELI TROOPS EARLIER SPENT THREE HOURS IN A VAIN TRY FOR THE CAPTURE OF ZION GATE OF THE ARAB-HELD OLD WALLED CITY.

CAIRO, JUNE 7-(AP)-EGYPT CLAIMED TONIGHT THAT MORE THAN 220 JEWS WERE KILLED OR WOUNDED IN A SURPRISE ATTACK WHICH RESULTED IN THE CAPTURE OF MIESANIM, A COASTAL SETTLEMENT BETWEEN MAJDAL AND ISDUD.

A COMMUNIQUE ISSUED BY THE EGYPTIAN DEFENSE MINISTRY SAID EGYPTIAN ARTILLERY AND AIRPLANES SUPPORTED THE ATTACK WHICH BEGAN AT MIDNIGHT SUNDAY.

THE COMMUNIQUE SAID 110 PRISONERS WERE TAKEN AFTER THE JEWISH FORCES COLLAPSED AND THE SETTLEMENT WAS OCCUPIED. IT ADDED THAT EGYPTIAN TROOPS HAD ATTACKED MIESANIM "FROM ALL DIRECTIONS." EGYPTIAN CASUALTIES WERE VERY SLIGHT, THE COMMUNIQUE SAID.

EGYPTIAN HEAVY BOMBERS SHOWERED REHOVOT, 11 MILES SOUTH OF TEL AVIV, WITH HIGH EXPLOSIVE AND INCENDIARY BOMBS WHICH STARTED LARGE FIRES, THE COMMUNIQUE SAID.

NIGHT LEAD PALESTINE (ROUNDUP)

JUN 1948

BY MAX BOYD

CAIRO, JUNE 7-(AP)-COUNT FOLKE BERNADOTTE TODAY GAVE JEWISH AND ARAB AUTHORITIES HIS PROPOSAL FOR GETTING A FOUR-WEEK PALESTINE TRUCE INTO OPERATION. THE UNITED NATIONS MEDIATOR SAID HE EXPECTED REPLIES WITHIN TWO DAYS.

IT APPEARED UNLIKELY, HOWEVER, THAT FIGHTING IN THE HOLY LAND COULD BE BROUGHT TO A HALT DURING THIS WEEK. THE ARAB LEAGUE'S POLITICAL COMMITTEE IS NOT SCHEDULED TO MEET IN CAIRO BEFORE SATURDAY. THAT BODY IS EXPECTED TO THRESH OUT THE ARAB DECISION ON THE TRUCE.

ISRAELI AND ARAB TROOPS CLASHED IN SEVERAL PALESTINE SECTORS. SYRIAN AND LEBANESE FORCES KNIFED INTO THE AREA ABOVE THE SEA OF GALILEE. THEY MAY BE TRYING TO SEIZE THIS PORTION OF ISRAEL AND HOLD IT FOR BARGAINING PURPOSES SHOULD THE TRUCE BE ARRANGED IN THE NEXT FEW DAYS.

A MORTAR DUEL SHOOK JERUSALEM. THE ARAB LEGION COMMANDER THERE WAITED FOR THE JEWS TO FIRE FIRST. THEN HE ORDERED AN ANSWERING FIRE 10 TIMES AS STRONG AS THAT PUT UP BY ISRAELI TROOPS.

A JEWISH SOURCE SAID ISRAELI UNITS OPERATING DUE EAST OF TEL AVIV HAD EXERTED ENOUGH PRESSURE TO IMMOBILIZE STRONG ARAB FORCES STRUNG OUT ALONG A 12-MILE LINE REACHING FROM ER RAMLE TO RAS AL EIN. AT WILHELMA INSIDE THE JEWISH COASTAL STRIP THE ARAB LINE WAS ONLY EIGHT MILES EAST OF TEL AVIV. PREVIOUSLY THE JEWS CLAIMED THEY TURNED BACK ARAB THREATS NORTHEAST AND SOUTH OF TEL AVIV, ISRAEL'S CAPITAL.

TWO MAJOR DIFFERENCES MUST BE RESOLVED BEFORE THE TRUCE CAN COME INTO EFFECT. THE JEWS INSIST ON UNLIMITED IMMIGRATION INTO ISRAEL AND THE OPENING OF THE ROAD TO THE 90,000 BESIEGED JEWS IN JERUSALEM. THE ARABS OBJECT TO BOTH CONDITIONS.

THE ISRAELI GOVERNMENT AGREED, HOWEVER, TO A SERIES OF IMMIGRATION CONTROLS SUGGESTED BY BERNADOTTE. THESE INCLUDE THE SEGREGATION OF IMMIGRANTS OF MILITARY AGE COMING INTO THE HOLY LAND DURING THE TRUCE. THE AGREEMENT WAS CABLED TO U.N. AUTHORITIES AT LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., BY FOREIGN MINISTER MOSHE SHERTOK.

APPARENTLY ISRAEL HAS LITTLE CHOICE BUT TO GO ALONG WITH WHATEVER BERNADOTTE HAS PROPOSED. A TEL AVIV DISPATCH REPORTED A DISAGREEMENT IN THE ISRAELI CABINET OVER ACCEPTANCE OF A CEASE FIRE ON ANY COMPROMISE YET ADVANCED.

1 JUN 1948

A219

THE DISPATCH ADDED, HOWEVER, THAT THE ISRAELI GOVERNMENT IS KNOWN TO BE TRYING BY ALL MEANS SHORT OF A SACRIFICE OF ITS STATEHOOD TO COMPLY WITH THE UNITED NATIONS REQUEST. THE GOVERNMENT WANTS TO AVOID PLACING ITSELF IN A POSITION IN WHICH SANCTIONS OR OTHER ADVERSE INTERNATIONAL ACTION MIGHT BE INVOKED.

THE SAME CONSIDERATIONS ALSO MIGHT HAVE WEIGHT AMONG THE ARAB STATES. THUS FAR THE ONLY HINT OF THE ARAB ATTITUDE WAS CONTAINED IN A DISPATCH YESTERDAY FROM AMMAN, TRANS-JORDAN, WHICH SAID THAT NEGOTIATIONS FOR THE TRUCE APPEARED TO BE FALLING APART. BOTH THE JEWS AND THE ARABS HAVE AGREED IN PRINCIPLE TO THE TRUCE.

BERNADOTTE HAS BEEN EMPOWERED TO FIX THE STARTING TIME OF THE TRUCE. SHORTLY AFTER RETURNING TO CAIRO FROM A WEEK OF PLANE RIDES ABOUT THE MIDDLE EAST, HE GAVE HIS PROPOSAL TO THE FOREIGN MINISTER OF EGYPT, THE MINISTERS OF SAUDI ARABIA AND TRANS-JORDAN AND THE CHARGE D'AFFAIRES OF SYRIA, LEBANON AND IRAQ. THE SEVENTH STATE ARRAYED AGAINST ISRAEL IS TINY YEMEN. ALL SEVEN BELONG TO THE ARAB LEAGUE.

THE PROPOSAL ALSO WAS COMMUNICATED TO JEWISH AUTHORITIES AT TEL AVIV. BERNADOTTE DECLINED TO ANSWER QUESTIONS REGARDING THE CHANCES OF A TRUCE OR TO REVEAL WHETHER HE HAD EASED ARAB-JEWISH DIFFERENCES OVER THE QUESTION OF IMMIGRATION. ARAB SOURCES ALSO DECLINED COMMENT.

JEWISH FAITH IN THE DETERMINATION OF THE UNITED NATIONS TO ENFORCE ITS RULING WAS REPORTED AT A LOW EBB. JEWISH OFFICIALS EXPRESSED THE BELIEF THE TRUCE WILL BE BROKEN UNLESS IT IS BASED ON AN ACTUAL ACCORD OF VIEWS BETWEEN ISRAEL AND THE ARAB NATIONS.

ABDEL RAHMAN AZZAM PASHA, SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE ARAB LEAGUE, INVITED ARAB DIPLOMATS IN CAIRO TO A MEETING AT LEAGUE HEADQUARTERS TO DISCUSS BERNADOTTE'S PROPOSAL.

JERUSALEM, JUNE 7-(AP)-HEAVY SHELLFIRE AND SNIPING ROCKED JERUSALEM TODAY.

EXCEPT FOR A BRIEF CEASE FIRE ARRANGED BY THE RED CROSS AT NOON, ARTILLERY, MORTARS AND RIFLES WERE ACTIVE MUCH OF THE DAY. THE DOWNTOWN BUSINESS DISTRICT WAS THE CHIEF TARGET IN THE MORNING SHELLING. AN UNOFFICIAL CHECK SHOWED SEVERAL PERSONS HAD BEEN KILLED

A FORMER BRITISH OFFICE BUILDING WAS SET AFIRE DURING SHELLING ON "SHELL ALLEY," THE HARDEST HIT AREA IN THE FOUR WEEKS OF ARTILLERY ATTACK.

THE TRUCE WAS ARRANGED TO ALLOW ARABS TO RETURN SEVEN CIVILIANS IMPRISONED WHEN THE OLD WALLED CITY FELL TWO WEEKS AGO.

THE REFUGEES WERE RABBI MORDECAI WEINGARTEN, HIS WIFE, THREE DAUGHTERS AND TWO ORPHANS, ONE AN INFANT. WEINGARTEN WAS MAYOR OF THE OLD CITY BEFORE ITS CAPTURE.

THE TENSE TRANSFER WAS MADE OVER WAR RUBBLE AT THE NEW GATE. WHEN THE RED CROSS FLAG WAS WITHDRAWN, MORTAR SHELLING WAS RESUMED. THE FIRING STARTED WHILE REPORTERS AND A GROUP OF HAGANAH FIRST AID FORCES STILL WERE A FEW YARDS FROM THE OLD CITY.

RABBI WEINGARTEN SOBBED AND MUMBLED A HEBREW PRAYER OF DELIVERANCE AS HE CLIMBED, WITH HAGANAH SOLDIERS' HELP, OVER T DEBRIS. HIS OLDE

AS HE CLIMBED, WITH HAGANAH SOLDIERS' HELP, OVER THE DEBRIS. HIS OLDEST DAUGHTER CARRIED THE INFANT ORPHAN. BOTH SMILED. THE SECOND DAUGHTER, JUDITH, 13, SAID IN ENGLISH:

"I'M SO THIRSTY. WE'VE COME ALL THE WAY FROM TRANS-JORDAN AND I'M TIRED."

1 JUN 1948

WAR NERVES, INDUCED BY SHELLFIRE, FOOD AND WATER SHORTAGES AND THE HOT EAST WINDS, ARE BEGINNING TO TELL ON CIVILIANS. TEMPERS ARE SHORTER THAN FOOD, WHICH IS ADEQUATE BUT UNIMAGINATIVE.

BUSINESS HOUSES DO NOT OPEN. PROPRIETORS SAY "NOBODY IS GOING TO BUY ANYTHING ANYWAY."

MILITARY MORALE REMAINS HIGH. SOLDIERS EAT LITTLE OR NO BETTER THAN CIVILIANS, BUT MOST SAY, "WE'VE GOT A JOB TO DO; WE CAN'T DO IT IF WE SPEND OUR TIME COMPLAINING."

HE IS CONTINUING HIS POLICY OF HOLDING FIRE UNTIL THE JEWS SHELL, AND THEN FIRING BACK AT A RATE OF 10 SHELLS FOR EVERY ONE RECEIVED.

JEWISH THREE-INCH MORTARS HACKED AWAY AT THE OLD CITY'S "HOT CORNER" INSIDE THE ZION GATE. ARAB ARTILLERY SLAMMED SHELLS INTO THE HEART OF MODERN JERUSALEM.

JUN 1948

ARAB ARTILLERY WAS ZEROED IN ON JEWISH STRONG POINTS AT HADASSAH HOSPITAL AND THE HEBREW UNIVERSITY, BUT THE GUNS REMAINED SILENT. THE ARAB COMMANDER ADVISED THE AMERICAN CONSULATE BY TELEPHONE THAT HE COULD NOT HOLD HIS FIRE AT THESE POINTS MUCH LONGER. HE CHARGED THE JEWS ARE USING BOTH PLACES ON MOUNT SCOPUS AS FORTRESSES FROM WHICH THEY ARE ATTACKING ARAB POSTS IN THE NORTH SUBURBS OF NEW JERUSALEM.

JEWISH MORTAR SHELLS STRUCK WALLS OR EXPLODED ON TILED ROOFS, CAUSING LITTLE DAMAGE. ONE FELL IN A CROWDED STREET NEAR THE HOLY SEPULCHRE AND WOUNDED TWO SMALL CHILDREN.

2.--APPEALS FOR AID ARE NEEDED FOR GOODS TO MEET THE DEMANDS OF THE REGION.

3.--TO INSTRUCT THE SECRETARIAT TO LOOK INTO THE POSSIBILITY OF DEVISING SUITABLE INTERNATIONAL MEASURES TO HURRY THE SUPPLY OF SUCH GOODS TO THE REGION.

30.24- 18341

THE U.N. COMMITTEE ALSO ASKED ALL MEMBER COUNTRIES TO SAY WHAT ARE THEIR INDUSTRIALIZATION NEEDS.

THE TRADE PROMOTION COMMITTEE HAS ADOPTED A SIX-POINT RESOLUTION RECOMMENDING THE SETTING UP OF A TRADE PROMOTION SECTION WITHIN THE COMMISSION'S SECRETARIAT. SUCH A SECTION WOULD CARRY OUT RESEARCH ON THE PROMOTION OF INTRA-REGIONAL TRADE. THE RESOLUTION STIPULATES THAT THE SECTION'S WORK WOULD BE REVIEWED NEXT YEAR.

THE TRADE PROMOTION COMMITTEE HAS RECOMMENDED THAT THE REGION'S GOVERNMENTS GIVE IMMEDIATE CONSIDERATION TO THE POSSIBILITY OF ENTERING INTO WORKING ARRANGEMENTS WITH JAPAN. THIS WOULD BE WITH A VIEW TO USING JAPAN'S INDUSTRIAL CAPACITY WITHIN THE LIMITS ALLOWED BY THE FAR EASTERN COMMISSION AND THE PEACE SETTLEMENT WHEN IT IS CONCLUDED.

THE COMMITTEE ALSO SUGGESTED THAT A WORKING PARTY STUDY QUESTIONS ARISING OUT OF USING JAPAN'S PRESENT INDUSTRIAL CAPACITY.

NIGHT LEAD GERMAN INTERPRETIVE
BY JOHN M.HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON,JUNE 7-(AP)-STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS HAILED THE NEW WESTERN POWER PLAN FOR DEVELOPMENT OF GERMANY TODAY AS A MAJOR STEP TOWARD RECOVERY IN EUROPE. IT ALSO WAS REGARDED AS A BLOW TO RUSSIA IN THE COLD WAR.

BUT THE OFFICIALS APPEARED STILL SOMEWHAT WORRIED OVER WHETHER FRANCE WOULD APPROVE THE PLAN. INDIRECTLY, THEY OFFERED THE FRENCH NEW ASSURANCES THAT THEY NEED FEAR NEITHER A GERMAN MILITARY REVIVAL NOR SOVIET RETALIATION.

STATE DEPARTMENT PRESS OFFICER MICHAEL MCDERMOTT EMPHASIZED AT A NEWS CONFERENCE THAT THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND FRANCE WOULD BE PLEDGED BY THE PROPOSED AGREEMENTS TO MAINTAIN OCCUPATION FORCES IN GERMANY UNTIL PEACE IS SECURED IN EUROPE. HE ALSO STRESSED, AMONG OTHER GUARANTEES, AN AGREEMENT THAT THE WESTERN NATIONS MUST CONSULT EACH OTHER BEFORE WITHDRAWING OCCUPATION TROOPS. THEN HE ADDED:

"IT IS BELIEVED THAT THE GUARANTEES AGREED UPON WILL PROVE AMPLE FOR ALL CONTINGENCIES WHICH CAN NOW BE FORSEEN."

THESE CONTINGENCIES WERE NOT NAMED BY MCDERMOTT, BUT THE FRENCH HAVE TOLD THE AMERICANS AND BRITISH THAT THEY HAVE TWO GREAT WORRIES: THE DANGERS OF A REVIVED GERMANY, AND THE COUNTER MOVES THAT AN ALARMED AND ANGERED RUSSIA MIGHT MAKE.

THESE CONCERNS ARE EXPECTED TO INFLUENCE GREATLY THE COURSE OF PARIS'S ACTION ON THE NEW GERMAN AGREEMENTS, WHICH APPARENTLY NEED APPROVAL BY THE FRENCH NATIONAL ASSEMBLY BEFORE THE FRENCH GOVERNMENT CAN FORMALLY ACCEPT THEM.

THE UNITED STATES PROBABLY WITH A STATEMENT FROM SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL, IS DUE TO DECLARE AMERICAN ACCEPTANCE OF THE AGREEMENTS IN A FEW DAYS. LONDON DISPATCHES REPORTED THAT THE BRITISH CABINET APPROVED THEM TODAY. IN ADDITION THEY ARE TO BE ACCEPTED BY THE OTHER

THREE MEMBERS OF THE LONDON CONFERENCE - BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG.

AMERICAN OFFICIALS STRESSED REPEATEDLY THAT THE DECISION TO GO AHEAD WITH THE REVIVAL OF WESTERN GERMANY DOES NOT REPRESENT A FINAL SPLITTING OF THE DEFEATED COUNTRY.

MCDERMOTT SAID THE NEW PROGRAM "DOES NOT EXCLUDE THE PARTICIPATION OF THE REST OF GERMANY WHENEVER THE PEOPLE OF THAT AREA (THE SOVIET ZONE) ARE FREE TO JOIN."

JUN 1948

A2WX

AND THE STATE DEPARTMENT SPOKESMAN SAID IT WAS RUSSIA ITSELF WHICH FORCED THE WESTERN POWERS TO ACT WITHOUT RUSSIA.

HE SAID THE SOVIETS FAILED TO AGREE TO CONSTRUCTIVE MEASURES WHICH THE OTHER COUNTRIES ACCEPTED AS LONG AGO AS THE LONDON CONFERENCE OF FOREIGN MINISTERS LAST WINTER.

THE PURPOSE NOW, MCDERMOTT SAID, IS TO END CHAOS AND DESPAIR IN GERMANY, AND TO MAKE EUROPE'S RICHEST INDUSTRIAL AREA, THE RUHR, YIELD ITS PROPER SHARE OF COAL, COKE, STEEL AND OTHER PRODUCTS TO THE REVIVAL OF THE WHOLE CONTINENT.

APPARENTLY REFERRING TO THE NEW WESTERN EUROPEAN UNION, MCDERMOTT SAID:

"CURRENT DEVELOPMENTS SEEM TO POINT TO THE EVOLUTION OF A REGIONAL SECURITY SYSTEM UNDER UNITED NATIONS AUSPICES WHICH WILL PROVIDE FURTHER AND LASTING INSURANCE AGAINST THE POSSIBILITY OF GERMAN RESURGEANCE."

MCDERMOTT DID NOT TALK ABOUT THE RUSSIAN RETALIATION WHICH FRENCH PEOPLE HAVE FEARED, BUT OFFICIALS PRIVATELY HAVE TAKEN THE POSITION THAT SO LONG AS AMERICAN TROOPS REMAIN IN GERMANY, ANY SOVIET MILITARY MOVE WESTWARD WOULD MEAN WAR, NOT ONLY WITH FRANCE AND BRITAIN BUT ALSO WITH THE UNITED STATES.

WASHINGTON, JUNE 7-(AP)-THE SIX-POWER LONDON CONFERENCE ON THE FUTURE OF WESTERN GERMANY REACHED AGREEMENT ON FIVE MAJOR PROBLEMS. IN BRIEF, HERE THEY ARE AS OUTLINED IN A JOINT COMMUNIQUE ISSUED BY THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG:

1. ASSOCIATION OF BENELUX COUNTRIES--BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG SHOULD BE KEPT FULLY INFORMED BY THE WESTERN GERMAN OCCUPATION AUTHORITIES OF WHAT GOES ON IN GERMANY. THEY SHOULD HAVE "CLOSE ASSOCIATION" WITH THE AUTHORITIES ON MATTERS AFFECTING THEM.

2. GERMANY'S ECONOMIC ROLE IN EUROPE AND CONTROL OF THE RUHR--THERE SHOULD BE "CLOSE ASSOCIATION" OF WESTERN EUROPE AND GERMAN ECONOMIC LIFE. AN INTERNATIONAL CONTROL AUTHORITY SHOULD BE SET UP OVER THE RUHR, INDUSTRIAL HEART OF WESTERN GERMANY, BUT THE AREA SHOULD NOT BE POLITICALLY SEPARATED FROM GERMANY.. MEMBERS OF THE CONTROL AUTHORITY SHOULD BE THE SIX POWERS AND GERMANY. SHOULD SPE

SHOULD NOT BE POLITICALLY SEPARATED FROM GERMANY. MEMBERS OF THE CONTROL AUTHORITY SHOULD BE THE SIX POWERS AND GERMANY. THEY SHOULD SPECIFICALLY CONTROL DISTRIBUTION OF RUHR COAL, COKE AND STEEL.

3. POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC ORGANIZATION OF GERMANY--AS SOON AS POSSIBLE THE PEOPLE OF THE WESTERN GERMAN STATES MUST HAVE OPPORTUNITY TO SET UP THEIR OWN GOVERNMENT. IT SHOULD BE ALONG FEDERAL LINES, WITH A CONSTITUTION TO BE DRAFTED BY A CONSTITUENT ASSEMBLY AND RATIFIED BY THE PEOPLE AFTER APPROVAL BY TH ALLIED OCCUPATION POWERS. FRENCH AND BRITISH-AMERICAN ZONE AUTHORITIES WILL JOINTLY CONTROL EXTERNAL GERMAN TRADE BUT THE FRENCH ZONE WILL NOT BE MERGED ECONOMICALLY AT THIS TIME WITH THE ANGLO-AMERICAN ZONE.

4. BOUNDARIES--THE SIX GOVERNMENTS ARE TO CONSIDER "MINOR" CHANGES IN THE WESTERN FRONTIERS OF GERMANY. THIS PROBABLY REFERS TO CLAIMS BY SOME OF THE WESTERN NEIGHBORS FOR SMALL GERMAN TERRITORIAL ADJUSTMENTS, BUT IT WAS NOT EXPLAINED IN THE REPORT.

5. SECURITY--THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND FRANCE SHOULD AGREE NOT TO WITHDRAW OCCUPATION FORCES WITHOUT CONSULTATION. THEY SHOULD ALSO TALK OVER ANY DANGER OF GERMAN RESURGENCE. THEIR TROOPS SHOULD REMAIN IN GERMANY UNTIL EUROPE IS TRULY AT PEACE.

FOR THE PRESENT, THEY SHOULD CREATE A MILITARY SECURITY BOARD TO ENSURE CONTINUED DISARAMEMENT AND DEMILITARIZATION. FOR THE FUTURE, BEFORE THE OCCUPATION ENDS THEY SHOULD AGREE ON "OCCUPATION OF KEY AREAS" (WHICH WERE UNSPECIFIED BUT PROBABLY INCLUDE THE RUHR) AND ON STEPS TO ASSURE CONTINUED GERMAN DISARMAMENT THROUGH CONTROL OF INDUSTRY.

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON, JUNE 15-(AP)-HAROLD ICKES SAYS HARRY L. HOPKINS SABOTAGED ICKES' PUBLIC WORKS PROGRAM IN 1935 WHILE GETTING TAXPAYERS' MONEY BY THE BARREL FOR RELIEF PROJECTS UNDER THE WPA.

ICKES, NOW "MELLOWING," HE SAYS, AND OUT OF GOVERNMENT SERVICE, TELLS OF HIS CONFLICTS WITH HOPKINS DURING THE EARLY YEARS OF THE ROOSEVELT ADMINISTRATION, IN A SATURDAY EVENING POST ARTICLE TODAY:

"HARRY HOPKINS WAS BOTH IRRESPONSIBLE AND ARROGANT. HE WAS PLAYING FOR BIG STAKES AND WAS ALWAYS WILLING TO TAKE A GAMBLERS' CHANCE," ICKES WROTE.

ICKES WAS ADMINISTRATOR OF THE PUBLIC WORKS ADMINISTRATION, WITH FEDERAL MONEY FOR PUBLIC IMPROVEMENTS. HE ALSO WAS SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR.

HOPKINS, NOW DEAD, WAS WORKS PROGRESS ADMINISTRATOR, WHICH ICKES CALLS THE 'WE PROVIDE ALMS' DEPARTMENT.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT HAD $4,800,000,000 (B) FOR THE TWO ADMINISTRATIONS IN 1935. ICKES AND HOPKINS WERE FEUDING FOR THEIR SHARES. ICKES CAME AWAY WITH ONLY $447,000,000.

HE SAYS HE FELT HOPKINS WAS BORING FROM WITHIN TO "DIVERT MORE MONEY TO THE RICE PADDIES OF THE WPA."

"I KNEW THAT UNLESS I COULD ACTUALLY INVEST THIS SUM (THE $447,-000,000) BEFORE HARRY WAS ABLE TO 'BOONDOOGLE' HIS SWAG, THE PRESIDENT WOULD PROBABLY ONCE AGAIN FREEZE PWA'S UNALLOTTED AND UNEXPENDED BALANCES IN ORDER TO FURNISH MORE GRAVY FOR HARRY'S TRAIN," ICKES WROTE.

"PERHAPS I SHOULD HAVE RESIGNED AS SOME FRIENDS ADVISED ME TO AFTER THAT SESSION AT HYDE PARK," (WHERE THE MONEY WAS DIVIDED BY THE PRESIDENT), ICKES SAID.

ICKES SAID HE TOOK ISSUE WITH MR. ROOSEVELT OVER A PRESIDENTIAL ORDER WHICH ICKES INTERPRETED AS INTENDED "TO SHOVE PWA INTO THE WINGS, WHILE GIVING THE CENTER OF THE STAGE TO HARRY TO FLICK GOOD UNITED STATES CURRENCY IN ALL DIRECTIONS."

ICKES ALSO SAID HE TOLD PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT THAT HOPKINS HAD SUBOTAGED THE PUBLIC WORKS PROGRAM IN 1935.

HOPKINS COULD GET HIS APPROPRIATIONS APPROVED IN A LUMP SUM, WITHOUT SUBMITTING DETAILS TO THE ADVISORY COMMITTEE, ICKES SAID. ICKES HAD TO HAVE APPROVAL OF PLANS FOR EACH OF HIS PROJECTS.

ONLY TWO PEOPLE OUT OF 20 ON THE COMMITTEE VOTED AGAINST HOPKINS, ICKES WROTE.

ICKES SAYS HOPKINS, WHO LATER BECAME PRESIDENTIAL ASSISTANT, WAS NEITHER A SAINT NOR A DEVIL. BUT HE ADDS:

"HE ATTAINED HIS PARTICULARHEIGHTS BY A CAREFUL UTILIZATION OF THE FAVORS GRANTED BY, OR EXTRACTED FROM, THE OUTSTANDING STATESMEN OF HIS GENERATION."

ICKES SAYS ROOSEVELT GAVE HIM A WORD SPANKING AT A CABINET MEETING MAY 14,1936. HE SAYS THE PRESIDENT FORBADE HIM TO CRITICIZE HOPKINS' PROGRAM BEFORE CONGRESS, AND TOLD HIM IT WOULD BE CRITICISM TO TELL WHAT ICKES' OWN PROGRAM HAD DONE IN COMPARISON WITH HOPKINS'.

ICKES RESIGNED. BUT HE SAID THE PRESIDENT WROTE HIM SUCH A COMPLIMENTARY NOTE, REJECTING THE RESIGNATION, THAT HE STAYED ON.

WHEN THE PUBLIC WORKS ADMINISTRATION WAS LIQUIDATED IN 1938, AND ICKES WAS TO DEVOTE ALL HIS TIME TO THE INTERIOR DEPARTMENT, THE PRESIDENT WROTE HIM ANOTHER COMPLIMENTARY LETTER.

"X X X I AM ENTIRELY CONFIDENT IN MY OWN MIND THAT OIL AND COAL WILL BOTH BE TAKEN MORE AND MORE UNDER GOVERNMENT SUPERVISION IN THE NEAR FUTURE AND THAT OF COURSE IS A DEFINITE FUNCTION FOR YOU TO ADD TO INTERIOR X X X" THE LETTER SAID.

ICKES FINALLY RESIGNED IN 1946 AFTER TAKING ISSUE WITH PRESIDENT TRUMAN OVER THE APPOINTMENT OF EDWIN PAULEY, CALIFORNIA OIL MAN, AS NAVY UNDERSECRETARY. ICKES OPPOSED PAULEY, WHOSE NAME FINALLY WAS WITHDRAWN.

GOVERNMENT CONTROL OF UNDER-SEA OIL FIELDS, WHICH ICKES FAVORED, WAS AN ISSUE.

HE CONCEDED THAT AFTER HOPKINS WAS APPOINTED CIVIL WORKS ADMINISTRATOR IN 1933, THE CWA CARRIED OUT SOME USEFUL PROJECTS.

BUT ICKES SAID:

"HE (HOPKINS) WAS NOT PRIMING THE PUMP; HE WAS TURNING ON THE FIREPLUG."

"MY PRINCIPAL ISSUE WITH HARRY WAS DUE TO THE FACT THERE WAS PLENTY FOR BOTH OF US TO DO, AND THAT GREATER COOPERATION BETWEEN US WOULD HAVE BEEN HELPFUL, NOT ONLY TO BOTH OF US, BUT TO THE COUNTRY," HE WROTE.

ICKES SAID CWA "DID NOT HAVE TO BOTHER ABOUT PLANS OR SPECIFICATIONS."

ICKES AT THE SAME TIME WAS ADMINISTRATOR OF THE PUBLIC WORKS PROGRAM. HE SAID HE WANTED TO BE SURE GOVERNMENT MONEY WAS BEING SPENT FOR WORTH WHILE PROJECTS AND INSISTED ON SEEING THE PLANS AND SPECIFICATIONS FOR ALL JOBS. AS A RESULT HE SAID THERE WERE COMPLAINTS THAT HIS PROGRAM WAS TOO SLOW SWINGING INTO ACTION.

BUT HE SAID PWA SAW THE WAR CLOUDS AS FAR BACK AS 1938 AND BUILT WARSHIPS AND AIRCRAFT CARRIERS; IN FACT SPENT $1,000,000,000 (B) "TO BUY A FIG LEAF WITH WHICH TO COVER OUR MILITARY NAKEDNESS."

ICKES SAID ROOSEVELT WAS THE UNQUESTIONED LEADER OF THE WIDE VARIETY OF LIEUTENANTS HE BROUGHT INTO THE ADMINISTRATION, RIGHT THROUGH TO HIS FOURTH TERM, "DURING THE LATTER OF WHICH HIS GALLANT SPIRIT WAS AT LAST BEATEN INTO THE DUST."

GERMAN RUHR (300)

WASHINGTON,JUNE 7-(AP)-THE PROPOSED INTERNATIONAL CONTROL OF THE GERMAN RUHR BY THE WESTERN ALLIES WOULD BE BACKED UP BY STRONG ENFORCEMENT POWERS, THE OFFICIAL SIX NATION AGREEMENT REVEALED TODAY.

THE AGREEMENT WAS MADE PUBLIC BY THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN, FRANCE AND THE BENELUX COUNTRIES AS PART OF THEIR FORMAL REPORT ON THE PLANS FOR WESTERN GERMANY, WORKED OUT AT A CONFERENCE ENDING IN LONDON LAST WEEK.

THE CONFERENCE MADE PLANS FOR ORGANIZATION OF A WESTERN GERMAN GOVERNMENT WHICH MAY BE SET UP SOME MONTHS FROM NOW AND FOR THE FORMATION "FORTHWITH" OF AN INTERNATIONAL AUTHORITY OVER THE RICH GERMAN INDUSTRIAL AREA, THE RUHR.

"SHOULD THE GERMAN GOVERNMENT NOT CARRY OUT THE DECISIONS OF THE INTERNATIONAL AUTHORITY," THE TEXT OF THE RUHR AGREEMENT STATED, "THE LATTER MAY, BY A MAJORITY VOTE OF THE ALLIED REPRESENTATIVES, FIND THAT THE GERMAN GOVERNMENT IS IN DEFAULT ON ITS OBLIGATIONS AND RECOMMEND, TO THE OCCUPATION AUTHORITIES DURING THE CONTROL PERIOD, AND THEREAFTER TO THE ALLIED GOVERNMENTS REPRESENTED ON THE AUTHORITY, THE APPLICATION OF THE NECESSARY ENFORCEMENT MEASURES PROVIDED, HOWEVER, THAT BEFORE SUCH ENFORCEMENT MEASURES ARE APPLIED THE GERMAN GOVERNMENT SHALL BE GIVEN A REASONABLE OPPORTUNITY FOR A HEARING."

THE AGREEMENT, WHICH IS SUBJECT TO ACCEPTANCE BY THE GOVERNMENTS CONCERNED, PROVIDES THAT ALL AUTHORITY DECISIONS SHALL BE MADE BY MAJORITY VOTE. IT GIVES WEIGHTED VOTES TO THE NATIONS WHICH WOULD BE ON THE AUTHORITY: THREE VOTES EACH FOR THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN, FRANCE, AND GERMANY AND ONE VOTE EACH FOR THE NETHERLANDS, BELGIUM AND LUXEMBOURG.

THE AGREEMENT MAKES CLEAR THAT THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE AUTHORITY CONTROLLING THE RUHR IS TO BE CONCENTRATED ON THE PRODUCTION, DISTRIBUTION AND CONSUMPTION OF COAL, COKE, AND STEEL. THOSE ARE THE BASIC PRODUCTS OF THE AREA BOTH IN TERMS OF EUROPEAN RECOVERY AND OF PREVENTING GERMAN REARMAMENT.

WASHINGTON,JUNE 7-(AP)-PRESIDENT BENES' RESIGNATION WAS VIEWED BY DIPLOMATIC OFFICIALS TODAY AS LIKELY TO DAMAGE COMMUNIST PRESTIGE IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA AND POSSIBLY NEIGHBORING SOVIET SATELLITE STATES.

THE CZECH LEADER HAD REFUSED TO SIGN A NEW CONSTITUTION DRAFTED AFTER THE COMMUNISTS WON CONTROL OF THE GOVERNMENT IN FEBRUARY.

OFFICIALS AWAITED DEFINITE WORD THAT HE RESIGNED WITHOUT GIVING IT HIS APPROVAL. HIS FINAL REFUSAL TO DO SO WOULD BE ACCEPTED AS EVIDENCE OF HIS UNWILLINGNESS TO GO ALONG WITH THE COMMUNIST REGIME.

WASHINGTON, JUNE 7-(AP)-A COMPROMISE PUTTING FOREIGN AID BACK ON A 12-MONTH BASIS WAS TALKED TODAY AS OPPOSING SENATORS FOUGHT A NEW BATTLE OVER HOUSE SLASHES IN THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM.

THE HOUSE WHACKED $553,000,000 (M) IN CASH OFF FOREIGN HELP FUNDS LAST WEEK AND SLOWED THE PROPOSED OUTLAY AN ESTIMATED $500,000,000 MORE BY ORDERING THE MONEY STRETCHED OUT OVER 15 MONTHS.

SOME SENATORS DISCUSSED THE POSSIBILITY OF MAKING THE $4,000,000,-000 (B) THE HOUSE ALLOWED FOR 15 MONTHS OF EUROPEAN RECOVERY OPERATIONS APPLY TO 12 MONTHS INSTEAD. THE ADMINISTRATION HAD ASKED FOR $4,245,000,000 FOR THE YEAR, PLUS $1,055,000,000 ALREADY MADE AVAILABLE.

BUT THERE WERE INDICATIONS THAT SENATOR VANDENBERG (R-MICH), TAKING COMMAND OF THE FIGHT FOR THE FULL FUND, HAS NO IDEA OF COM-PROMISING ON A SMALLER AMOUNT IF HE CAN HELP IT.

VANDENBERG, WHO WILL TESTIFY BEFORE THE SENATE APPROPRIATIONS COM-MITTEE ON WEDNESDAY, IS EXPECTED TO CONTEND THAT THIS COUNTRY IS LIKE-LY TO LOSE THE COLD WAR AGAINST COMMUNISM IN EUROPE IF CONGRESS FAILS TO VOTE THE FULL AMOUNT IT AUTHORIZED IN SETTING UP THE RE-COVERY PROGRAM TWO MONTHS AGO.

ALL FOREIGN SPENDING -- INCLUDING OCCUPATION AND OTHER COSTS IN GERMANY, JAPAN AND ELSEWHERE -- ARE LUMPED IN THE BILL WHICH CLEARED THE HOUSE CARRYING $5,980,000,000. THE ADMINISTRATION HAD ASKED FOR $6,533,000,000,000.

THE DRIVE FOR THE FULL APPROPRIATION PICKED UP BIPARTISAN SUPPORT.

SENATOR PEPPER (D-FLA), WHO HAS BEEN SHARPLY CRITICAL OF ADMIN-ISTRATION FOREIGN POLICY FROM TIME TO TIME, SAID HE IS "CONFIDENT" THE SENATE WILL RESTORE MANY OF THE HOUSE CUTS.

"I THINK IF WE ARE GOING TO CARRY OUT THE PROGRAM, IT SHOULD BE DONE ADEQUATELY," HE SAID. "IT WAS A GREAT MISTAKE FOR THE HOUSE TO HAVE DONE WHAT IT DID."

SENATOR BALDWIN (R-CONN) SAID HE FAVORS GOING BACK TO THE AMOUNTS PROPOSED ORIGINALLY.

"IT WAS A GRAVE MISTAKE TO REDUCE THE FIGURE," HE SAID. "WE SHOULDN'T BACK DOWN NOW ON WHAT THE PEOPLE OF EUROPE--AND OUR OWN PEOPLE--UNDERSTAND AS A COMMITMENT."

SENATOR MAYBANK (D-SC) SAID THAT AS HE SEES IT, "THE HOUSE ACTION MAKES NO SENSE."

ON THE OTHER SIDE, SENATOR REVERCOMB (R-WVA) SAID HE HAS "THE UTMOST CONDIDENCE IN WHAT THE HOUSE HAS DONE." SENATOR DWORSHAK (R-IDAHO) COMMENTED THAT IT WOULD BE BAD TO GIVE EUROPEAN COUNTRIES TOO EXTRAVAGANT HELP.

SENATORS DISAGREED AS TO EFFECT THE FUND BATTLE WILL HAVE ON A RESOLUTION BY VANDENBERG TO PAVE THE WAY FOR THIS COUNTRY TO EXTEND MILITARY AID TO EUROPEAN NATIONS WHICH FORM ALLIANCES TO COMBAT COM-MUNISM.

BUT SOME SAID THAT IF THE MICHIGAN SENATOR IS SUCCESSFUL IN GET-TING MOST OF THE HOUSE FUND CUTS RESTORED, HE WILL HAVE LESS DIF-FICULTY IN GETTING HIS RESOLUTION THROUGH.

LAKE SUCCESS, JUNE 7-(AP)-COUNT FOLKE BERNADOTTE ADVISED THE SECURITY COUNCIL TODAY THAT HE HOPED TO REPORT WEDNESDAY ON SUCCESS OR FAILURE OF A CEASE-FIRE IN PALESTINE.

THE U.N. MEDIATOR SUGGESTED THAT THE COUNCIL POSTPONE DISCUSSIONS ON THE PROJECTED FOUR-WEEK ARMISTICE UNTIL THAT TIME.

FARIS EL KHOURI OF SYRIA, JUNE PRESIDENT OF THE COUNCIL, READ THE MESSAGE FROM BERNADOTTE TO DELEGATES A FEW MINUTES AFTER RUSSIA OFFERED TO SEND MILITARY OBSERVERS INTO PALESTINE.

SOVIET DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER ANDREI A. GROMYKO ISSUED A STATEMENT TO NEWSMEN ON THE OBSERVERS AND THEN CALLED FOR FULL DISCUSSION OF THE ISSUE IN THE COUNCIL.

THE COUNCIL, HOWEVER, DECIDED TO PUT OFF CONSIDERATION OF RUSSIA'S OFFER UNTIL THE NEXT PALESTINE MEETING THURSDAY.

IN A SPECIAL STATEMENT TO NEWSMEN, THE SOVIET DELEGATION TO THE UNITED NATIONS SAID:

"IT IS REPORTED THAT THE UNITED NATIONS MEDIATOR IN PALESTINE AND THE TRUCE COMMISSION ARE SELECTING THE MILITARY OBSERVERS WHO HAVE TO BE USED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE RESOLUTION OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL OF MAY 29 ON PALESTINE.

"THE SOVIET DELEGATION CONSIDERS IT NECESSARY TO STATE THAT THE U.S.S.R. IS READY TO SEND HER OBSERVERS AS WELL, TOGETHER WITH THE OBSERVERS OF SOME OTHER DIRECTLY INTERESTED COUNTRIES."

SOVIET DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER ANDREI A.GROMYKO DID NOT ELABORATE ON THE ANNOUNCEMENT.

MEDIATOR IN PALESTINE CALLS FOR ANSWERS TO HIS TRUCE ORDER TODAY

Egyptian Spearhead Reported Fighting To Get Out Of Trap At Isdud—Israel Says Jenin Is Penetrated And Found Deserted

JUN 1948 Max Boyd

Cairo, June 8 (AP)—Count Folke Bernadotte disclosed tonight that he has asked Jews and Arabs to stop fighting in Palestine at 1 A.M. (E.S.T.) Friday.

He said he had asked for Arab and Jewish replies to his proposed truce terms by noon tomorrow (7 A.M. E.S.T.).

An Israeli communiqué issued in Tel Aviv said Jewish leaders had discussed the truce terms tonight and would consider them further tomorrow before making a reply. But dispatches from Amman, the Trans-Jordan capital, said prospects for any truce were growing dim.

While all Arab states were reported standing firm against accepting Jewish conditions for a truce, a reinforced Egyptian spearhead was reported fighting to get out of a Jewish trap at Isdud, 23 miles south of Tel Aviv.

Jenin Penetrated

Israel's army said its patrols had penetrated Jenin, much fought-over Arab strong point in central Palestine, and "found it deserted." Jenin, the northern edge of the so-called Arab "triangle of strength," was entered by the Jews in hard fighting last week.

Later the Arabs said they had driven the Jews out, and an Associated Press correspondent who visited the town Saturday found them gone. The latest Israeli communiqué did not say whether the patrols remained in Jenin.

A Tel Aviv dispatch said Egyptian planes bombed the center of Tel Aviv in relays all morning long, and hit the tall office building housing Bernadotte's mission there. Bernadotte's aides said he has no office there, but a United Nations office is at that location.

Feverish Endeavor

Both sides were reported feverishly endeavoring to strengthen their positions while truce negotiations go on.

Dispatches from Amman said Trans-Jordan and Iraq were sending stronger forces to build up a semi-circular Arab ring around Tel Aviv.

Jerusalem dispatches said Jews were working hard to open a new lifeline road to Jerusalem and a landing strip for heavy transport planes just outside the city and were trying to keep both secret. Arab Legion gunners claimed to have opened fire on both.

Reports from Jewish sources in Tel Aviv said Arabs in the Arab-controlled parts of Jerusalem had been thrown into a panic by rumors the Jews had succeeded in bringing heavy artillery into the city.

Trying To Flee City

Arab civilians were trying to flee from the city, Israeli sources reported.

Arab nations' representatives and the Israel Cabinet were meeting tonight here and in Tel Aviv.

But Fawzi Mulki Pasha, Trans-Jordan Foreign Minister, was quoted in Amman as saying all Arab states were holding to their original conditions for a truce. This was taken by observers to mean that they would not accept Jewish demands for continuance of immigration and lifting of the Arab blockade of Jerusalem during the truce.

At a news conference here Bernadotte said if his terms for a truce were rejected he would have to refer the whole matter again to the United Nations Security Council.

Recapture Admitted

"I earnestly believe the proposals and interpretations set forth in my note of June 7 provide a just basis for a truce—just to both sides," he said. "I solemnly hope that these proposals shall find acceptance and that the conflict in Palestine will come to a standstill . . ."

The Israeli communiqué admitted that the Egyptian spearhead of about 1,000 men below Tel Aviv had recaptured Miesanim (Nitsanim), 3 miles southwest of Isdud, in its fight to cut the Jewish encirclement.

The Jewish communiqué said Syrian forces which attacked at the week end north of Lake Hula in northeastern Palestine had been "driven back beyond the Jordan" into Syria.

Jerusalem Road Blocked

The communiqué did not mention Latrun, where Arab forces block the road to Jerusalem. But Associated Press reports from Tel Aviv said the Jews held all key points on the road except the monastery at Latrun and were believed to have slipped some convoys through to Jerusalem—with losses.

Foreign and Hebrew correspondents who made arrangements in Tel Aviv to visit the southern fighting front suddenly were ordered to stay in Tel Aviv. No explanation was given, but it seemed that the encircled Egyptian spearhead had wrested the initiative. The Jews admitted the attack on Miesanim and said fighting was continuing.

Tel Aviv was hit by successive air raids this morning, beginning at dawn. Planes, apparently fighter bombers, came in singly from over the sea, dropping bombs from 8,000 to 10,000 feet over the main section of the city. There were casualties in a small hotel and market place. Previously the Arab targets in Tel Aviv have been mostly on the outskirts.

Air-Raid Deaths

Tel Aviv's northern outskirts were raided twice by planes last night with some deaths and damage.

Jews and Arabs still disagreed over points in the truce proposal of Count Folke Bernadotte, the United Nations' mediator, who has asked replies by tomorrow.

Egypt Army Battling To Flee Israel Trap

BOYD JUN 1948

Cairo, June 8 (AP)—Egyptian forces tried to battle out of a Jewish coastal trap and fighting continued in several areas of northern Palestine today, while Arabs and Jews weighed their replies to the latest four-week truce proposal.

Eyewitnesses back in Tel Aviv from the southern front said at least one and perhaps several Egyptian ships have landed troops on the coast in an attempt to rescue forces encircled at Isdud, 23 miles south of Tel Aviv and 3 miles south of the Israeli border. Jewish forces last Friday turned back four Egyptian vessels, two of them landing craft, in a battle off Tel Aviv.

Jewish Town Falls

The Jews said they have surrounded 1,000 men of an Egyptian force of 5,000 on the coast and were attacking in the area yesterday. The Egyptians reported capture of Miesanim (Nitsanim), a Jewish settlement 3 miles southwest of Isdud, in an attack which began with air and artillery support Sunday. The communiqué said 220 Jews were killed or wounded and 110 were captured.

Abdel Rahman Azzam Pasha, secretary of the Arab League, said the league might give its final decision on the truce proposal to Bernadotte tonight. The Jews have not indicated whether they would reply by the deadline.

Bernadotte's plane left for Haifa this morning, but he remained here. The purpose of the trip could not be learned.

A 50-50 Chance

Bernadotte did not make public the truce terms or the starting time. A neutral source in Jerusalem said his proposal would freeze the military situation, permit Jewish immigration if it does not change the military situation, permit food supplies to be sent to besieged Jerusalem's Jews, and forbid establishment of any new forward area munition dumps. The informant gave this plan a 50-50 chance of acceptance.

The seven-nation Arab League wants no Jewish immigration, and wants to continue the siege of Jerusalem.

Irgun Zvai Leumi, still considering itself an underground organization outside Israel's borders, announced in a broadcast it will not accept truce terms for Jerusalem which will permit the city to remain under siege. The Jews hold most of the new city, while Arabs hold all the approaches.

In Jerusalem itself, Dr. Isaac Haleve Herzog, chief Palestine rabbi, said "We can assure the Arabs that they will never succeed in driving the Jews from Jerusalem." He protested continued Arab shelling of Jewish quarters.

Fawzi Mulki Pasha, Trans-Jordan's Foreign Minister, leaving a Cairo meeting of Arab League representatives said "We believe the truce should not give any party any advantage, whatsoever during its period."

Fires In Rehovot

Saad el Dine Sabout Bey, Egyptian chief military adviser to King Abdullah of Trans-Jordan, joined the Arab meeting last night. Abdullah heads the armies assaulting the Jews in Palestine.

Five Swedish armistice control officers left Stockholm by air today for Cairo, by way of Rome and Athens. They are expected here tomorrow, deadline for the truce replies. The group said they were asked by Bernadotte to hurry to Cairo.

An Egyptian communiqué, detailing events on the Isdud front in embattled Palestine, said Egyptian bombers started big fires in Rehovot, 11 miles south of Tel Aviv.

Jerusalem Fighting

In northern Galilee, where Syrian and Lebanese forces seem bent on cutting off Palestine's 80-square-mile thumb, Jewish headquarters said yesterday Syrian attacks on Mishmar Hay Yarden had been beaten back. A week-end Damascus report said the Syrians had destroyed the settlement.

In Jerusalem, the Arabs shelled Jewish sections of the new city and Jewish mortars pounded the southwestern Zion Gate corner of the Arab-held old city. The Arab Legion area commander said his policy was ten shells to the Jews' one.

A pool dispatch from Jewish Jerusalem said the Jews took the offensive again yesterday after a stalemate at Latrun.

Arabs Free Women

Arabs returned 86 women prisoners from the Kfar Etzion settlement in exchange for Arab prisoners. The exchange was made between Tulkarm and Nathanya tonight.

Red Cross representatives negotiated a one-hour cease fire.

With the 86 women were two other women who had been captured at Nahariam, just south of the Sea of Galilee.

The Kfar Etzion women said they had been kept in the same camp with Jewish men near Bethlehem. Three days ago they were transferred to Trans-Jordan. They said they had no complaints about their treatment by the Arabs.

Cable From Shertok

Israeli Foreign Minister Moshe Shertok cabled United Nations headquarters from Tel Aviv yesterday his Government and Bernadotte had agreed that Jews of military age entering Palestine during the cease-fire should be kept in supervised segregation centers to guard against their military use.

On Hunger Strike

Some 24,000 Jews now are held by the British on Cyprus.

A report from Nicosia, Cyprus, said yesterday these Jews, interned at Xylotymbou and Caraolos, were on a hunger strike.

Count Carlo Sforza, Italian Foreign Minister, said last night Italy had not recognized Israel because to do so "could tomorrow make our intervention toward re-establishing peace in Palestine more difficult."

Egyptians Bomb Offices Of Mediator in Tel Aviv

Planes Score Two Hits on Building Flying U. N. Flag—Arabs Battling Jews Within Eight Miles of Israel's Capital.

Tel Aviv, June 8 (A. P.).—Egyptian planes raided Tel Aviv today and two of the bombs which fell in the center of the city struck the building housing the offices of Count Folke Bernadotte, United Nations mediator for the Palestine war.

Air attacks continued past noon, and at least seven persons were killed by bombs which fell along the resort front and in the center of the city. A Jewish communique said: "It is believed that fighter patrols of the Israeli Air Force have forced the enemy to adopt hit-and-run tactics." Correspondents, however, saw no defense fighter craft in the air during the attacks.

The offices of the mediator, who now is in Cairo, are on the first floor of the six-story building, which flies a United Nations flag. One bomb exploded on the roof and the other struck the second story.

Israel's Government, meanwhile, studied Bernadotte's proposal for a four-week truce. A spokesman said the mediator's terms were received today and the Cabinet was dealing with them in a night meeting.

An Israeli Army spokesman said Arabs in the Old City of Jerusalem were thrown into a panic recently by rumors that the Jews were bringing up strong reinforcements, including heavy artillery. The Jews hold most of the New City and the Old City is in Arab Legion hands. These reports from Jerusalem said the Arab Legion commander ordered barricades erected to halt an exodus of Arabs trying to flee through the gate toward Jericho.

After three weeks of Arab-Jewish warfare, correspondents here still must get the bulk of their reports from official handouts.

News In Tel Aviv Mostly Handouts

Tel Aviv, Israel, June 8 (AP)—After three weeks of Arab-Jewish warfare in Palestine, correspondents reporting the Jewish side still must get the bulk of their reports from official handouts.

Neither the large corps of foreign correspondents and photographers nor the Hebrew press are able to corroborate what is contained in these mimeographed press statement handed out by the Israeli Government's information officials.

Facilities Denied

The correspondents here have heard that their colleagues, reporting the activities of the Arab Legion, have been accredited and permitted to move about the fronts, getting first-hand information.

Newsmen here have not been granted or promised any such facilities. They were given "war correspondent accreditation cards" by the army's political branch. The same day the army sent out orders that these cards were not to be recognized for front-line reporting.

Two correspondents recently were stopped and brought back to Tel Aviv when they attempted to leave the city with these cards as their credentials.

"Sitting On Points"

Others, going out day after day, have gotten as far, sometimes, as a zone headquarters. But few are permitted to argue their way farther ahead.

Briefings for background or informative aid to correspondents have been lacking. In one of a few attempts at briefing, an officer summarized a communiqué and told correspondents, "Our troops at Jenin are still sitting on their vantage points."

That's the best the correspondents have been able to do, too.

5 Nuns Trapped For 8 Days In Thick Of Jerusalem War

By ALMA DE LUCE

Inside the Old City in Jerusalem, June 8 (AP)—Their convent became a battlefield. They beat out fires with wet rags. Shells and mortar bombs destroyed the altar at which they prayed.

For eight days while the fight for Jerusalem's Old City swirled around them, five Sisters of Redemption—a Roman Catholic order—were caught in the inferno of no-man's-land.

"We are lucky to be alive," said the fragile Mother Assistant, Marie De l'Esperance, of Santander, Spain.

In the quiet of the Convent of the Sisters of Zion on the Via Dolorosa (Way of Sorrows), she and four other Redemptionist nuns told today of their harrowing experience, referring to a diary.

In Center Of Battle

The Redemptionist Convent, a little gray stone building with an adjoining chapel, just outside the Old City's New Gate, found itself suddenly in the middle of the fierce Arab-Jewish struggle.

Moving up from bases in Allenby square, Jews of Haganah, Irgun Zvai Leumi and the Stern Gang attacked Arab irregulars manning the Old City walls behind the convent.

Mother Assistant Marie de l'Esperance said fire was the first threat. It was temporarily extinguished with all the nuns helping.

"The first armed men who entered were Jews," the Mother Assistant said.

Arabs Stay Two Days

"They demanded to know whether we were hiding Arab soldiers. When the Arabs on the wall above our terrace saw the Jews had come in, they lowered ladders and soon appeared, but the Jews had left.

"The Arabs stayed two days. They weren't soldiers, only civilian volunteers who had taken up arms, but they were very courteous and kind to us.

"The sandbags they left behind helped us to save part of the convent from being completely burned. The shelling became so violent we wished the Arabs were still with us. We were terrified. The Jews had frightened us very much with their first visit. . . .

"The night of May 21 was the worst. An incendiary bomb started a fire which raged inside the convent for two hours. Searchlights played upon our garden. We hid behind stone ramparts, motionless and helpless.

"The next morning our cries for help were heard by Arab refugees in the French Hospital. They asked the commander of Jewish troops in the hospital to let us enter. He agreed.

"We locked the convent door behind us and the Jewish commander questioned us and took the key. We saw boxes of dynamite carried across the street and electric wires laid."

Arabs Shell New Road

JERUSALEM, June 8 (AP).—The heaviest guns of the Trans-Jordan Arab Legion placed under fire today a new lifeline road secretly built by Haganah (the Jewish Army) to help the 90,000 beseiged Jews in Jerusalem.

The legion said a direct hit had been scored on the road. It is little more than a crude dirt track hastily gouged through the rugged Judean hills toward the Jewish-held coast. It was laid down to take the place of the main highway from Tel Aviv which is blocked by Legion positions.

There is no evidence the Jews were able to reach Jerusalem with motor supply convoys before the emergency road came under Arab battering. The best available information on this side of the fighting line is that the Jews in Jerusalem have received no supplies by motor since April 13. Mule trains may have delivered some since.

Legion guns also shelled a new Jewish airstrip near Deir Yassin. An officer said he believed the new field was heavily cratered.

Christian priests inside the Holy City reported Jewish mortars damaged four churches, including the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, in the last twenty-four hours. The lead-covered rotunda of the Holy Sepulchre Church has a hole one foot in diameter from a mortar blast last night.

The Church of the Flagellation, at the Second Station of the Cross; the Armenian Catholic Church at the Fourth Station and the Chapel of the Spanish Sisters of Mount Calvary also were damaged by mortar fire.

In the new city of Jerusalem, the Chief Palestine Rabbi, Dr. Isaac H. Herzog, drew up a list of Jewish holy places in the Old City damaged by Arab attacks. He said that since May 17, when the Arabs began their attack in the Old City, twenty-two of twenty-seven synagogues have been destroyed by fire or explosives. He said the remaining five synagogues also had fires after the Jews left the Old City.

War Ruins Synagogues

Jerusalem, Monday, June 7 (AP)—Dr. Isaac Halevy Herzog, chief rabbi of Palestine, said today that 22 of 27 synagogues in Jerusalem's Old City were destroyed between May 17 and May 28.

He told a news conference this figure was based on the testimony of rabbis who came out of the Old City, now in the hands of the Arabs. He added: "It is believed that the last five synagogues also were set on fire after the Jews left the Old City."

Syrians Report Israeli Raids

DAMASCUS, Syria, June 8 (AP)—The Syrian Army said tonight that Israeli forces attacked Syrian lines with machine guns and mortars, in the north sector, but were driven off.

"Our batteries shelled Dan, setting fires," a communiqué said.

"In the southern sector, after an exchange of fire our aircraft successfully raided Harraoui, Hanouta and Nebi Yousha, causing great damage.

"Our air force dropped high exploding bombs on the Nejmet Assubh settlement, and machine gunned its institutions, setting fires and destroying its supply depot."

CAIRO, Egypt, June 8 (AP)—The Egyptian Senate has approved a credit of £21,000,000 [$84,000,000] to cover expenses of the Egyptian Army.

42 Jews, 10 Children, Killed by Morocco Arabs

CASABLANCA, French Morocco, June 8 (AP).—French Air Force planes patroled the skies above two Moroccan towns today as authorities reported that order had been restored following clashes between Arabs and Jews that took forty-two lives.

Police said thirty-seven Jews were killed last night in Djerada and five in Oujda. Ten of the dead were said to be children.

The outbreak at Djerada occurred after news reached there of a fight between Arabs and Jews at Oujda, about forty miles away. Both places are near the Algerian border.

The police said a gang of Arabs surrounded about seventy Jews in Djerada and stoned them. Then they rushed in with knives and clubs. One Frenchman, believed to be a representative of a Djerada mine, was killed.

The disorders at Oujda, a city of 65,000, began yesterday when a Jew and an Arab were reported to have quarreled about the Palestine war.

42 Are Slain in Morocco In Arab-Jewish Rioting

37 Jews Killed at Djerada After Argument Starts Trouble at Oujda — 10 Children Among Dead.

JUN 1948

Casablanca, French Morocco, June 8 (A. P.).—Arab-Jewish rioting has caused the deaths of forty-two persons in French Morocco, police announced today.

The police said that thirty-seven persons, all Jews, were killed last night at Djerada after another five persons died at Oujda. Ten of the Djerada dead were children.

The rioting at Oujda grew out of a quarrel between an Arab and a Jew over the Palestine situation. The outbreak at Djerada started after receipt of news of the Oujda fighting. Fighter bombers of the French Air Force patrolled both villages today and the gendarmerie reported that order was restored.

Mob Surrounds Jews.

Police said that when the news of the Oujda rioting reached Djerada a mob of Arabs surrounded some seventy Jews in the streets. The Arabs stoned the Jews and then rushed them with knives and sticks.

Bernadotte Lists Terms

Lake Success, N.Y., June 8 (AP)—The terms for the Palestine truce, contained in a message today to the United Nations from Count Folke Bernadotte, Holy Land mediator, are:

1. No fighting personnel, including persons identified as belonging to military organizations as well as all persons bearing arms, shall be introduced into any of the Arab countries or into any part of Palestine.

2. As regards men of military age, the mediator shall exercise his discretion during the truce period to determine whether men of military age are represented among immigrants in such numbers as to give one side a military advantage and in such event shall refuse them entry. Those of military age who do enter Palestine will be kept in camps under supervision of United Nations observers.

3. The mediator will exercise a check on all immigrants at the ports of embarkation and debarkation and shall place United Nations observers on ships bearing immigrants.

4. During the first week of the truce, the mediator may ban all immigrants.

5. Movement of troops or war materials from one country to another or close to the fighting fronts is prohibited for the four-week period.

6. All fighting fronts and lines shall remain stabilized during the truce period. There shall be no increase in fighting strength or in war materials on hand but routine replacement of troops may be undertaken.

7. War materials must not be imported into the country or territory of any interested party.

8. Relief to populations of both sides in municipal areas such as Jerusalem and Jaffa shall be administered by the International Red Cross.

9. All warlike acts, whether on land, sea or air, shall be prohibited during the truce.

All front lines shall be stabilized during the truce.

All warlike acts shall be prohibited.

Should the plan be rejected he woud have to refer the situation back to the United Nations Security Council.

While the effort to effect a truce continued, the Holy Land's bitter warfare went on.

Egyptian Force Trapped

A reinforced Egyptian spearhead was reported to be battling out of a Jewish circle at Isdud, 23 miles south of Tel Aviv. The Jews have claimed they trapped the Egyptian force there several days ago.

Egyptian air force planes swept over Tel Aviv throughout the morning, and scored hits on an office building which is the residence of Bernadotte's mission. His aides said he does not maintain an office there.

From Jerusalem it was reported the Jews are trying to open a new convoy road through the rocky Judean mountains to Jerusalem. It also was reported they are attempting to construct a landing strip for transport planes just outside the city.

Jewish sources claimed Arabs had been panicked by a report that heavy artillery had been rolled into Jerusalem by the Jews.

A Tel Aviv dispatch said Israeli patrols had knifed into the Arab triangle city of Jenin during the night and found it deserted.

The Arabs fought into Wilhelma, eight miles east of Tel Aviv.

In Washington the U. S. State Department said it is sending 21 military men as truce observers in Palestine immediately.

West Is Caught By Russ Maneuver

Lake Success, June 8 (AP)—Russia's offer to send Red Army observers into Palestine caught United Nations delegates flat-footed. The offer—made yesterday—was just what the United States has feared all along.

Ever since the Palestine problem came before the United Nations there has been uneasy speculation that the Kremlin might figure out a way to get troops into the Holy Land.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko used a loophole which these diplomats thought they had plugged.

Observers To Be Provided

When the Security Council adopted its detailed proposal for a cease-fire and a four-week armistice in the Holy Land, a provision was written in that the United Nations mediator and the American-Belgian-French consular truce commission should supervise observance of the provisions. An additional clause said "they (the mediator and three-nation commission) shall be provided with a sufficient number of military observers."

No countries were mentioned. The general assumption here was that the United States, France and Belgium—being members of the commission—would supply the soldiers. The United Nations promptly asked the three nations to furnish the observers. The United States and Belgium agreed; France took the request under advisement. Stories about the observers got in the newspapers.

Statement For Press

Yesterday Gromyko appeared early for the Council meeting and handed newsmen a special statement. In it Gromyko said he understood that military observers were being selected and added:

"The Soviet delegation considers it necessary to state that the U.S.S.R. is ready to send her observers as well, together with the observers of some other directly interested countries."

Gromyko then went into the the Council meeting, made virtually the same statement, and called on delegates to discuss the matter. Mild efforts were made to sidetrack the issue. All right, Gromyko said, let's discuss it at the next meeting.

An American admitted Gromyko's move took the United States by surprise. He declined to be quoted on what Washington would do. But he left no doubt that the United States wants no Red Army men in Palestine—whether observers or fighters.

MEDIATOR ASKS FOR ZION TRUCE TO START FRIDAY

Arabs and Israelis Due to Reply Today on Cease-Fire Date.

NO LET-UP IN FIGHTING

Egyptian Spearhead Reported Battling Out of Trap at Isdud.

JUN 1948

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Swedish Count Folke Bernadotte said last night he had asked the Jews and Arabs to begin a four-week truce in Palestine Friday at 1 a. m. (Eastern Standard Time)

The United Nations peace mediator said he had made nine interpretations in his note to the Arab nations and to Israel, and that he was convinced no further delays in a cease fire were warranted.

But dispatches from Amman, Trans-Jordan, quoted Foreign Minister Fawzi Mulki Pasha as saying all the Arab states were holding to their original conditions for a truce. This was taken by some observers to mean the Arabs would not agree to continuing immigration into the Holy Land.

Answer Sought Today

The Arabs and Jews were given until 7 a. m., Eastern Standard Time today to answer. Arab delegates held night meetings in Cairo, and Israeli's cabinet convened in Tel Aviv to discuss Bernadotte's proposals.

At Lake Success, N. Y., the United Nations released Bernadotte's nine-point proposal. The points included:

That no fighting personnel shall be permitted into any of the Arab states or Palestine during the truce.

That the truce mediator shall exercise his discretion to determine whether men of military age are among immigrants in such numbers as to give one side or the other an advantage.

A check would be made on all immigration at ports of embarkation and debarkation.

There would be no movement of troops or war materials from one country to another, or close to the fighting fronts.

Text of Palestine Truce Plan Submitted by U. N.'s Mediator

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., June 8—Following is the text of a note sent yesterday by Count Folke Bernadotte, United Nations Mediator in Palestine, to the Arab states and the Provisional Government of Israel and released today by the Secretary General:

I have the honor to inform you that, in pursuance of the action of the Security Council at its 311th meeting, June 2, authorizing the Mediator to fix the effective date for the truce in Palestine, and following extensive consultations on this matter with the representatives of the two parties, and with the support of the truce commission, I herewith give formal notice of the effective date and hour for the commencement of the cease-fire and truce in Palestine as envisaged in the resolution of the Security Council of May 29.

The effective date and hour of the cease-fire and truce, including the application of supervision envisaged in the resolution of May 29, shall be Friday, 11 June, 1948, at 6 o'clock in the A. M., GMT [Greenwich Mean Time]. As of this date and hour, there is to be cessation of all acts of armed force in Palestine for a period of four weeks, and all commanders in the field should be notified accordingly.

In view of the urgency of the time factor and the necessity of giving final confirmation of this decision in ample time to each party concerned, I must ask that notification to me of your acceptance or rejection of this date and hour shall be in my hands not later than Wednesday noon (GMT) 9 June. If this decision is accepted by all parties, final confirmation will be dispatched to you by me not later than 6 P. M., (GMT) Wednesday, June 9, in order to reach you on the same day. Should the decision be rejected, or accepted only conditionally, by any of the parties, no further consultations on the matter will be undertaken by me, but I will promptly report the circumstances fully to the Security Council for such action as that body may deem appropriate. It is, of course, my earnest hope that the decision will be accepted unconditionally.

In the event of acceptance of this decision, the date and hour for public announcement of the beginning of this truce will be communicated to you in my message of final confirmation June 9, in order that publication shall be made simultaneously by all concerned.

This decision has been taken in the light of the following considerations:

(1) The clear intent of the truce as envisaged in the Security Council resolution of May 29 is to bring about the cessation of hostilities without prejudice to the rights, claims and position of either Jews or Arabs, and to insure that no military advantage shall accrue to either side as a result of the application of the truce;

(2) The president of the Security Council has informed me that all parties concerned have accepted the resolution of May 29 unconditionally and that the Mediator should fix the date for the cease-fire in consultation with the two parties and the truce commission in as short a period as possible;

(3) I am aware, of course, that each side, in accepting the resolution, notified the Security Council of certain "assumptions and explanations" in connection with some of the provisions of the resolution and that as a result, there were conflicting views of the intent of particular clauses, especially those relating to "fighting personnel and men of military age";

(4) In the course of the amicable consultation with representatives of the parties concerned on June 3, 4, 5 and 6, I exerted every effort to reconcile these divergent interpretations, and as a result of these consultations, and explanations and interpretations made to me by each party, I am firmly convinced that any remaining differences are altogether insufficient to warrant any further delay in the beginning of the truce.

As I have carefully explained to each side, it is my earnest intention to apply the truce and controls required in such a manner as to insure that no military advantage will accrue to either side during the period of the truce or as a result of its application. To this end, I have made certain interpretations of the resolution and certain decisions as to its application which have been thoroughly explained to representatives of both sides and which in summary follow:

(1) No fighting personnel, which shall include persons identified as belonging to organized military units as well as all persons bearing arms, shall be introduced into any of the Arab states or into any part of Palestine.

(2) As regards men of military age, the Mediator shall exercise his discretion during the period of the truce in determining whether men of military age are represented among immigrants in such numbers as to give one side a military advantage if their entry is permitted, and in such event shall refuse them entry. Should men of military age be introduced in numbers necessarily limited by the application of the foregoing principle, they are to be kept in camps during the period of the truce under the surveillance of observers of the Mediator, and shall not be mobilized in the armed forces or given military or paramilitary training during such period.

(3) The Mediator shall exercise, to the fullest extent practicable, a check on all immigration at the ports of embarkation and debarkation and shall place United Nations observers in ships bearing immigrants and, to this end, shall be notified well in advance as to the port of embarkation of any ship bearing immigrants.

(4) During the first week following the truce, in consideration of the time required for setting up the controls essential to effective application of the resolution, the Mediator shall exercise his discretion as regards the entry of any immigrants irrespective of age or sex.

(5) Movement of troops or war materials from one interested country to another, or closer to the borders of Palestine or to the fighting fronts in Palestine is prohibited during the period of the truce.

(6) All fighting fronts and lines shall remain stabilized during the period of the truce, and there shall be no increase in the fighting strength deployed along the fronts and lines, nor in the war materials on hand. Routine replacement of personnel may be undertaken.

(7) War materials shall not be imported into the country or territory of any interested party.

(8) Relief to populations of both sides in municipal areas which have suffered severely from the conflict, as in Jerusalem and Jaffa, shall be administered by an International Red Cross committee in such a manner as to insure that reserves of stocks of essential supplies shall not be substantially greater or less at the end of the truce than they were at its beginning.

(9) All warlike acts, whether on land, sea or air, shall be prohibited during the truce.

I recognize fully that both the effectiveness of the truce and its fairness depend in large measure on the manner in which it is supervised and applied. A detailed plan for its application is in preparation and will be put into operation when the truce begins. No doubt numerous questions will arise in connection with the details of supervising the truce. Consultations on such matters of detail may be undertaken when the truce is in effect.

I am deeply appreciative of the spirit of cooperation manifested by both sides in the difficult negotiations over the truce. I trust that this same spirit will continue in order that the truce may be achieved and the larger work of mediation may proceed constructively in an atmosphere of peace in Palestine.

Slavs Would Give Italy Colonies

London, June 8 (AP)—Yugoslavia asked today that the prewar colonies of Italy be returned to that country.

The Yugoslav Government made the suggestion in a note to deputies of the Big Four foreign ministeries. It said a return of the colonies would best serve "the consolidation of peace and of world security."

The note was made public in Rome by the Yugoslav legation and observers said it was couched in terms of surprising friendliness toward Italy.

Follows Russian Stand

Russia announced before the Italian elections earlier this spring that she favors returning Eritrea, Italian Somaliland, Tripolitania and Cyrenaica to Italy under United Nations trusteeships.

Both Czechoslovakia and Poland in the past week have supported that stand in statements to the Big Four deputy foreign ministers in London.

The three Slav countries were unanimous in asking that the colonies be given their independence as soon as possible, and that Italy's mandatory policy should be to raise the standard of living in the local populations.

War Captive Ordered To Leave British Bride

London, June 8 (AP) — Werner Vetter, the German prisoner of war who was permitted to marry an English girl last September, is to be separated from her under Government ruling.

The Home Office has informed Vetter he will be repatriated. His latest application for civilian status was denied.

Olive Reynold, whom he married while their 5-months-old daughter looked on, is living at her mother's home in a London suburb. She expects another baby in August.

Vetter was sentenced by court martial to a year's imprisonment last summer for "consorting with an English girl." She appealed to Queen Elizabeth for permission to marry him. Vetter was released from prison to marry and the law was changed to permit prisoners of war to marry English girls.

Britain to Import Yugoslav Timber

London, June 7 (A. P.).—Yugoslavia will supply Britain nearly £500,000 ($2,000,000) worth of timber under an agreement concluded recently, a Board of Trade spokesman said today.

The timber will be paid for in sterling expendable only in the sterling area, it was stated. It is hardwood needed here for furniture making, coach building and other purposes.

The spokesman said trade experts of both countries are working on a similar deal for soft woods necessary to Britain's housing program.

Bidault Winner In First Test Of Policy

Paris, June 8 (AP)—The French Cabinet approved today the Six-Power agreement on western Germany.

The Ministers voted to submit the agreement to the National Assembly Friday.

Foreign Minister Georges Bidault led the drive for formal acceptance of the accord reached by the United States, Great Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

To Meet On Currency

The Cabinet debated five hours on the agreement. It will meet again tomorrow and discuss the currency question, the last point in the London accord.

"The conclusion from the deliberations of the Government is that the Cabinet has given its approval to the London accords," a Cabinet spokesman said.

The British Cabinet approved the accord yesterday.

The Cabinet communiqué said the National Assembly would debate the agreement Friday and Saturday. Opposition is expected from both Communists and extreme rightists.

Outcome Still Vital

The Government indicated it would not make the issue one of confidence, on which the Cabinet would stand or fall. Nonetheless, a defeat on the question would place the Government in an almost impossible situation.

Gen. Charles de Gaulle is expected to issue a statement or make a speech opposing the London agreement before the Assembly meets.

Informed quarters said the Assembly may approve the recommendations by the week end.

No Russian Comment

Moscow newspapers carried New York and London dispatches on the plan, but no editorials. The Russians have denounced the negotiations that led up to it.

The pact calls for a West German federal government, international control of Ruhr Valley coal and iron, and safeguards to keep Germany from becoming a military threat.

It is subject to home-government approval.

Security Held Impaired

Some Frenchmen have voiced fears Germany would be allowed to become a menace again. Others have accused Bidault of making damaging concessions in the London negotiations.

Communist newspapers here have called the agreement a "diplomatic disaster" and charged the Foreign Minister with having "weakly defended French interests." General de Gaulle's right-hand man, Gaston Palewski, said Sunday Bidault had abandoned French security.

But Bidault's position appeared stronger today than at any time since the agreement was signed. The press and political leaders sounded much friendlier.

The violent Communist and de Gaullist attacks seemed to have frightened wavering elements. These realized that if the attacks succeeded the Government might fall. Palewski had said de Gaulle was the "only man" to take over.

Overconfidence Seen

Some observers said de Gaulle's apparent overconfidence may have defeated its own aim. Most of the section of the press usually sympathetic to his position failed to follow his lead in attacking the agreement.

The Soviet-controlled press of eastern Berlin used page-wide headlines today to protest the recommendations. The newspapers all published a resolution of the Russian-supported German People's Congress against them.

"They usher in the last step in the partition of Germany," the resolution read.

FRENCH CABINET GIVES APPROVAL TO GERMAN PLAN

LOUIS NEVIN

PARIS, June 8—(AP) The French cabinet today approved the six-power agreement to set up a separate western German state, and prepared to push it through parliament by the end of the week.

Foreign Minister Georges Bidault got unanimous cabinet approval of principal provisions in the agreement during a five-hour session under President Vincent Auriol.

The agrement is not popular in France for concessions to Germany are traditionally regarded without favor by the French. But Bidault and Premier Robert Schumann began immediately to map their strategy for winning parliamentary approval.

Only a few items in the pact remain to be considered, mainly arrangements necessary for a currency reform in western Germany. These are to be cleaned up at a second cabinet meeting tomorrow.

Bidault to Defend Stand

Bidault has been sharply criticized in the press and in parliament for allegedly "weakly defending" French interests in negotiating the agreement. He is to defend his stand in a closed meeting of the national assembly's foreign affairs committee tomorrow.

A communique published after today's cabinet meeting said the administration would take the agreement before the national assembly Friday and Saturday for a full debate on foreign affairs.

The agreement to establish a separate Federal government for western Germany was announced yesterday by the United States, France, Britain and the Benelux countries (Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg). The powers occupying Germany also agreed to retain their troops there until Europe's peace is secured.

The French at first wanted a complete internationalization of the whole Ruhr area, but apparently decided to go along with the separate state plan after it was decided to set up a seven-nation control authority for the Ruhr.

Government Takes Risk

If the government should be defeated in parliament, it would be placed in an almost impossible situation.

Secretary of State Pierre Abelin, speaking for the government, said it has decided not to stake its life on approval of the agreement by demanding a vote of confidence.

But Bidault's political future depended on its approval. It would be virtually impossible for him to continue as foreign minister if his policy is turned down.

Some members of parliament have accused Bidault of keeping parliament in the dark about his negotiations and policies.

Opposition to the German pact has come mainly from the Communists and the DeGaullists, both of whom claim that France has completely abandoned her policy toward Germany by agreeing to the London proposal.

Despite the storm, however, the government was expected to survive by a narrow margin. The centrist deputies between the Communist and DeGaullist poles still hold the majority in the national assembly.

These centrists know that in the present state of French politics there apparently is nobody but Gen. Charles de Gaulle to succeed Schuman.

In Berlin the Soviet-controlled press protested against the London agreement in page-wide headlines. They called the pact the "Diktat" on London.

The Russian-controlled newspapers published the protest of the Soviet-supported German People's Congress.

"They usher in the last step in partition of Germany," the protest said.

GESTAPO WOMAN SPY EXECUTED IN FRANCE

PARIS, June 8.—(AP) Genevieve Danelle, Gestapo spy, was executed today.

She was the first woman to face a firing squad in liberated France. An accomplice, Roger Calame, was executed with her.

The woman was convicted of betraying hundreds of members of resistance forces under the German occupation. The prosecution said she helped torture her victims.

She fainted for half an hour when notified she would be shot today.

Calame had feigned insanity since his arrest. He grew a beard, wore a bath robe and claimed to have invented a revolutionary new turbine engine.

He announced before the firing squad, "I pretended to be crazy to save myself. It's over now. The comedy is of no further use."

Yugoslavs Favor Letting Italy Administer Colonies

ROME, June 8 (AP).—Yugoslavia spoke up today in favor of letting Italy continue to administer her pre-Fascism African colonies.

A note delivered in London to the deputies of the Big Four Foreign Ministers set forth the Yugoslav view that the consolidation of peace and world security would be best served by making Italy the United Nations mandatory power for Libia, Eritrea and Italian Somaliland.

The note, released here by the Yugoslav Legation, was couched in terms of surprising friendliness toward Italy—with which Yugoslavia has picked many bones since the war.

Yugoslavia specified that the U. N. should see to it that Italian administration of the colonies was designed to bring about "their most rapid progression possible toward self-administration and independence."

Slaps Punctuate Debate Over Italian Prisoners

Rome, June 8 (AP)—A Communist senator slapped a Christian Democrat in a Senate argument today over how many Italian prisoners of war Russia and her eastern allies still hold.

Marshal Giovanni Messe, once a commander of Fascist troops in Russia, wrote in a newspaper article published today that 60,000 Italian prisoners still were being held by the Soviet Union.

Christian Democratic Senator Teodoro Rubbio declared that "cost what it may in humiliation and prayers, we must find the lost." Amor Tartufoli, Christian Democrat, added: "Must this be asked of any civilized state?"

That started the row. Communist Senator Francesto Spezzano leaped up and slapped Tartufoli. Senate guards stepped in and stopped the fray. The turmoil broke out again, and Christian Democrat Mario Cingolani got slapped by somebody.

Croce Refuses Senatorship

Philosopher, 82, Reported Planning to Re-enter Italian Politics

ROME, June 8 (AP).—Benedetto Croce, eighty-two-year-old Italian philosopher, was reported today to have refused a life Senatorship.

The new constitution of the Italian Republic empowers President Luigi Einaudi to name five outstanding Italians to such posts of honor.

Dispatches from Naples said that Mr. Croce, who recently resigned as president of the Liberal party, wrote Mr. Einaudi that there was a possibility of his "again desiring to enter politics within a few years alongside the men with whom he fought for the cause of liberty during the last twenty years."

Czechoslovak Minister To Sweden Quits Post

Stockholm, June 8 (AP)—Dr. Edvard Taborsky, Czechoslovakian Minister to Sweden, said today he had resigned "as a protest against the Communist usurpers in Czechoslovakia."

Taborsky said "President Benes also resigned in protest," and added:

"I think the best way to live up to his ideals is to follow his move."

Benes resigned from the presidency Monday and gave ill health as the reason.

Reds Told to Quit Berlin Radio

British Ask Withdrawal, but Deny Threatening to Force Russians Out.

EDWIN SHANKE

Berlin, June 8 (A. P.).—The British said today that they asked the Russians to get out of the Berlin radio station, in the British sector of the German capital, because the British want to use the building themselves.

The letter requested withdrawal and contained no ultimatum or threat of force, it was stated. It was sent three days ago and the Russians have not replied. The Soviet News Bureau, however, said that counter-measures are probable against Western Power communications.

"This matter has been discussed several times in the Allied Control Authority," a British spokesman said. "The letter to the Russians was a reminder and asked them what they were going to do about it."

Staff Unconcerned.

The structure concerned is the huge Red building called the Rundfunk Haus (Radio House). The Russians took it over when Berlin fell and have never relinquished control, although it stands in the British sector. The radio has 10,000 watts power and is the strongest broadcasting station in Germany. A Russian tommygunner sits on guard in the lobby. The station persistently broadcasts anti-American and anti-British propaganda.

The transmitter for the station is at Tegel, in the French sector. The French authorities have made no comment on the British move. In the past, however, they have supported the British and Americans in their efforts to put the Berlin radio under four-Power control.

Wilhelm Girnus, German chief of the station, commented: "We are unconcerned by this controversy. We are going ahead normally with our operations."

The British letter from the British Deputy Chief of Staff, Major-Gen. V. J. E. Westrop, was addressed to Lieut.-Gen. M. I. Dratvin, the Russian Deputy Military Governor.

A similar recent controversy occurred in the American sector in western Berlin. The Russians occupied the Reichsbahn Direktion (railroad headquarters) there. The Americans, objecting to the posting of Russian armed guards in the building, threw a cordon of military police around it last April and locked the Russians out until they withdrew their sentries.

Berlin Threat Of New Curbs

HEINZ ERLING

Berlin, June 8 (AP)—The threat of new Russian restrictive measures against the Western powers hung over Berlin today.

The latest tense feeling in the German capital stemmed from an old dispute about Russian occupation of a Berlin radio station which is in the British occupation sector.

After negotiating with the Soviet military administration over the station for the past two years, the British asked the Russians to "accelerate their vacating of the premises."

Lines Run Through Zone

The Soviet news bureau responded quickly with the statement that "since the communication lines of Berlin with the western zones run through the Soviet occupation zone, countermeasures are likely."

Maj. Gen. V. J. E. Westropp, British deputy chief of staff, said in his letter to the Russians that "ample time has now been given the Soviets to allow them to prepare alternative facilities to the Funkhaus (radio station) outside the British sector."

The British officer said a bunker in the station grounds was scheduled for demolition. He asked the Russians to set a date for turning over the bunker for destruction.

Accuse British Of Plot

The Russians charged in an official statement that the British are trying "to disturb normal radio activities in Berlin, particularly in the Soviet occupation zone."

The station in question is the most powerful in Berlin and is an important part of the Russian propaganda network.

Russian tommy gunners are posted inside the station, despite the fact it is in the British sector of Berlin.

The Russian statement did not specify what countermeasures they may take. It said, however, that "the population of the western sectors of Berlin might suffer."

Lieutenant Kills GI In Reich

JUN 1948

Nuernberg, Germany, June 8 (AP). United States Army officials investigated today the fatal shooting of an American soldier by an army lieutenant.

The provost marshal's office said Private Ralph J. Light, of Myerstown, Pa., was shot to death last Saturday night.

No charges have yet been preferred and the lieutenant was released to his commanding officer pending completion of the investigation.

Officials said the shooting occurred after Light slapped the officer's wife and called her insulting names.

Clash Over 1-Way Street

According to the official account, the lieutenant and his wife were driving through a one-way street in the Nuernberg suburb of Fuerth when they were stopped by a man who told them they were driving the wrong way.

While they were stopped, officials said, Light stepped up to their car and began insulting the officer's wife, finally slapping her face.

When the lieutenant got out of the car, Light slapped him. Then, officials related, the officer produced a pistol and Light fled, with the lieutenant in pursuit. Light was shot, officials said, when the lieutenant cornered him in the rear yard of a German beer hall.

Denazification Court Exonerates Composer

Munich, Germany, June 8 (AP)—Richard Strauss, the composer, has been cleared by a denazification court at Garmisch Partenkirchen, German officials said today.

Strauss, now living in Austria, was tried in absentia.

He is the composer of "Der Rosenkavalier" and is a relative of Johann Strauss, the waltz king.

Suicide Ruled In Death Of Russ Major In Reich

Bad Salzuflen, Germany, June 8 (AP)—A verdict of suicide while the balance of his mind was disturbed was returned today at an inquest on a Russian major who shot himself.

The Russians refused to let any Soviet witnesses attend the British-conducted inquest.

The Russian, Major Ivan Bodganov, 46, was attached to the Soviet military mission here. He was found shot dead with a pistol beside him in his quarters June 1.

A translation of an incompleted letter found by his side was read. It said: "Dear Lola: I think by now you must have grown tired of waiting for me as I see no prospect of any immediate. . . ." It was unsigned and dated May 28.

CZECH CONSTITUTION BECOMES VALID TODAY

PRAGUE, June 8.—(AP) The Czech government announced tonight that the new national constitution becomes valid tomorrow.

The announcement did not state what executive signature had validated the constitution adopted by parliament.

President Eduard Benes resigned Monday rather than sign the communist-drafted document. It was presumed that Premier Klement Gottwald, empowered by the cabinet, had signed it.

Gottwald paid an official call on Benes today to tell the 64-year-old patriot that his resignation was accepted yesterday by the government and that his presidential salary of $60,000 a year would be continued for life.

An official announcement said that "after talking over official matters, the premier stayed longer with the president for a hearty private discussion."

The meeting was at Benes' country home at Sezimovo Usti.

British Fleet Change

Hong Kong, June 8 (AP)—A source close to the Government said today British fleet headquarters here, now under the command of Admiral Sir Denis Boyd, will be transferred in the near future to Singapore. The informant said Boyd would officially transfer his flag to Singapore in September or October.

Cabinet of Turkey Falls Under Attacks

Premier Saka Is Likely to Form New Ministry

ANKARA, Turkey, Wednesday, June 9 (AP).—Premier Hasan Saka's government collapsed early today under mounting criticism from the public and Mr. Saka's Republican People's party over domestic economic policies.

President Ismet Inonu immediately asked Mr. Saka to for a new government.

Political circles said they believed the next Cabinet would have new ministers in the Economic, Commerce, Labor and possibly the Agriculture Ministries.

Shortages of staple foodstuffs, charges of irregularities in the export of grains and failure of the government to adjust Turkey's weak economic structure led to the Cabinet's resignation.

Pravda Assails Dutch On Indonesian Stand

Moscow, June 8 (AP)—Pravda accused the Dutch today of trying to prevent establishment of the Indonesian Republic in violation of agreements already reached. It said the United States was supporting the Dutch.

The commentary was written about the establishment of consular relations between the Soviet Union and Indonesia and said the Netherlands and the United States are only "prepared to permit the existence of Indonesian relations with foreign countries which they can hold under their control."

Credit O.K.'d For Japs Purchase Of Cotton

Tokyo, June 8 (AP)—General MacArthur today approved the credit agreement by which a group of American banks will establish a $60,000,000 revolving fund to finance Japanese purchases of raw cotton.

The agreement, the first private banking arrangement of the occupation, will be participated in by the Export-Import Bank; the Bank of America, San Francisco; the Chase National Bank and the National City Bank of New York, and the J. Henry Schroeder Banking Corporation.

An occupation export-import revolving fund will be established to finance the purchase of raw cotton, which will be paid for with finished Textiles.

Kurusu Banned From Office

Peace Envoy at Time of Pearl Harbor Loses Japan Appeal

TOKYO, June 8 (AP).—Saburo Kurusu, special peace ambassador to the United States at the time of the Pearl Harbor attack, has been permanently banned from holding public office.

The Government Purge Appeals Committee announced that Kurusu and 804 others, including ten former Cabinet ministers, had been banned from office and their appeals rejected.

Controversy in Australia Over Immigration Policy

SYDNEY, Australia, June 8 (AP).—A controversy over administration of this country's immigration laws has been touched off by the visit of an Australian goodwill mission to Southeast Asia.

"The Daily Mirror" today criticized W. McMahon Ball, leader of the mission, and demanded his recall. It said he "gratuitously informed a gathering in Kuala Lumpur (Malay States) a few minutes after his arrival that a change of opinion in Australia on the white Australian policy was likely in the next decade."

"The Sydney Morning Herald" took another line. It attacked the "recent harsh and rigid interpretation of Australian immigration laws." It noted that Mr. Ball faced a barrage of adverse press comment on the "brutal application of the white Australian policy" when he reached Malaya. It added that the Australian government, instead of disavowing his comments on immigration, should try to ease the ill-feeling which an "inept bureaucracy has aroused toward Australia among her Asian neighbors."

H. V. Evatt, Minister of External Affairs, told the House of Representatives today that there is no plan to deviate from Australia's fundamental immigration policy.

2 Junctions Captured In Kashmir, India Says

New Delhi, India, June 8 (AP)—Indian troops announced tonight the capture in Kashmir of the strategic junctions of Saadabad and Samani. Both are southwest of Naushahra in the beleaguered province of Jammu.

Indian troops took Naushahra late in February after one of the bloodiest fights of the campaign. The communiqué said Saadabad and Samani were centers of anti-Government activity and on the route by which men and material came from Pakistan.

Iran's Cabinet Falls

TEHRAN, Iran, June 8 (AP).—The government of Premier Ibrahim Hakimi fell today. Of 105 members present in the Majlis (legislature), Mr. Hakimi received only thirty-eight votes in a test of confidence.

Most of those who voted against him were supporters of Ahmad Qavam, whom Mr. Hakimi succeeded as Premier last December.

Vote on Civil Rights Amendment to Precede Final Action Today.

WASHINGTON, June 8 (AP)—The senate made two changes in the draft bill today, then in a late night session agreed to vote on a civil rights amendments tomorrow.

They adjourned at 9:30 P.M. (EST.)

The amendments approved were (1) to limit the proposed selective service bill to two years instead of five as first planned, and (2) to permit 25,000 aliens to serve in the American armed forces at home and abroad.

Civil Rights Issue Up Today

The civil rights proposal scheduled for decision tomorrow is the segregation amendments sponsored jointly by Senator Russell (D-Ga) and Senator Maybank (D-SC).

It would let enlisted men serve in segregated units if they request.

The extra-hours session tonight, second in a row, was featured by a lengthy speech by Senator Langer (R-ND) on a proposed amendment to limit private profits from the draft program under certain conditions.

Later, he yielded the floor to Senator Russell, who was followed by Maybank.

The weary senators finally agreed to call it a day after Maybank's speech. They decided to reconvene tomorrow at 10 A.M. (Eastern Standard Time), allow those in favor of the bill to speak one hour and opponents 30 minutes, and then vote at 11:30 A.M.

Both Maybank and Russell, arguing for the segregation amendment, said that politicians seeking re-election this year would let the desire to win votes influence them on the racial issue.

Maybank, in the final speech of the day, said:

"They will injure the national defense of the nation in order to curry favor with groups of minority votes in doubtful states."

He said "decent, self-respecting people" are getting "more than sick of all this kowtowing to a minority group which holds the balance of power in a few large doubtful states."

But he said there was a "political awakening taking place."

Action Is Surprise

The 47 to 33 vote shortening the duration of selective service was a surprise. Senator Morse (R-Ore) offered the amendment, saying many Americans feel the United States is moving too far in the direction of an "over-militarized state."

Two Republican leaders split on the Morse amendment. Senator Taft (R-Ohio) voted for it, and Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich) against it.

A draft bill now awaiting action in the house also calls for a two-year draft.

Senator Pepper (D-Fla) pointed out during today that the original 1940 draft bill was for only one year. War then was "more imminent" than now, he said.

The Morse amendment does not affect the length of draftees' service. It only means that the law itself is for two-year duration. The men themselves will be liable for a two-year induction as before.

Senator Langer (R-ND) held the floor for several hours, denouncing war profiteers. He proposed an amendment to limit private profits from the draft program under certain conditions.

At the end of 90 minutes he offered to yield the floor to Senator Russell (D-Ga) and then resume his speech when Russell finished. But Senator Knowland (R-Calif) blocked that on a technicality.

Langer Yields Floor

Angered, Langer then said he would speak for "one or two hours more."

Shortly before 8 p.m. EST, he gave the floor to Russell who urged a draft act amendment to permit segregation in the armed forces.

Russell said that President Truman will lose some of the Dixie electoral votes and Henry A. Wallace "will capture a large part of the Negro vote" regardless of what the major parties do.

Russell's amendment would let enlisted men serve in segregated units—all-white or all-Negro—if they request it. And he charged that opposition was mainly political.

Lodge's amendment for the recruiting of aliens was approved 43 to 33 in a vote which cut across party lines.

Opponents of the plan said it would subject the United States to foreign criticism. Lodge agreed Russia may not like his plan and added in effect: So what?

Chairman Gurney (R-SD) of the Senate Armed Forces Committee which worked up the draft bill being studied by the senate said:

"Many people feel that such a move would subject our nation to the criticism that our own people are not willing to bear arms in the defense of the nation."

Senator Holland (D-Fla) said the U.S. would be accused by "propagandists" of using "mercenaries."

The amendment, briefly, would allow 25,000 aliens to enlist in the American armed forces. After serving five years, they would be eligible for American citizenship. Lodge said they would not form a "foreign legion" but would be spread through the army.

He said the aliens would cut down the number of Americans that would have to be drafted. Each alien so enlisted would mean one less American inducted.

Lodge said he felt sure there were thousands of anti-commuists Poles, Czechs and others who would jump at the chance of serving in the American army.

Originally, his plan called for 50,000 aliens. They would have served only abroad.

Today, however, Lodge changed the language of his amendment referring to serving abroad. He explained he had decided to leave that up to army authorities. Also, he cut his figure to 25,000 at the suggestion of Senator Tydings (D-MD) when it looked as though the senate might not approve the larger figure.

21 Million In Red Orders Tied Up By U.S. Curb

JUN 1948

Washington, June 8 (AP)—Some $21,000,000 worth of Soviet orders for American goods has been tied up by the virtual ban on industrial shipments to Russia clamped down March 1.

Officials gave this estimate today as Secretary of Commerce Sawyer prepared to lift some of the secrecy over what goods can and what can't be sold to Russia under the new trade policy.

Sawyer was expected to disclose at a news conference what items his department has been licensing for export to Russia since March 1. This would be, in effect, the first official list of goods which United States business men can "safely" accept Russian orders on in the future.

Previous Guidance

Previously, almost the only official guidance they had was that no goods could be exported which "might contribute to the war potential" of the Soviet bloc.

Indirectly, through Sawyer's announcement May 26 of an exception in Finland's case, it has been made clear that the ban definitely applies to machine tools, power-generator parts and many steel products.

A secret list of goods falling inside and outside the ban has been drafted by an interagency committee representing the Commerce and State departments and the military forces.

List Not Yet Final

Sawyer, however, was not expected to release that list today since its contents are "not final" and subject to constant change.

Officials acknowledged, meanwhile, that some of the heavy machinery produced by American firms to fill the $21,000,000 in blocked Russian orders is now piling up storage charges in warehouses.

They said some of the United States firms are concerned about receiving payment for the goods and the storage charges. Most Russian buying contracts, they said, require producers here to get an export license as a condition of "delivery" with no final payment until that is done.

Possibility Of Suits

This situation may provoke legal tests with possible suits by American producers for payment and counter suits by the Russians for return of their down payments.

In a few cases, it is reported, licenses have been granted to clear some goods made on old orders to avert "unusual hardship" to American producers, although the department does not expect to license these goods as a rule.

SAWYER LINKS U.S. EXPORTS, RUSS ATTITUDE

Hints Acts Of Soviet May Decide What She Can Buy From America

JUN 1948

Washington, June 8 (AP)—Charles Sawyer, Secretary of Commerce, indicated today that Russia's own attitude and actions will help determine what she may buy from the United States.

At the same time, he said he does not believe this country can control or build up the war strength of other nations through issuance or denial of export licenses.

Sawyer said the United States has no agreement or policy to prevent shipments of industrial goods to Russia and Soviet-dominated eastern Europe.

"We Get Benefits"

"We do not intend to place an embargo on shipments to any countries of eastern Europe," he said at a news conference. "We get benefits from the exchange of goods with them."

It had been predicted the secretary would disclose just what goods can and can't be sold to Russia under the new trade policy, but he did not do so.

He left in doubt the fate of about $21,000,000 worth of Soviet orders for American goods tied up by a virtual ban on industrial shipments to Russia clamped down March 1.

The State Department, meanwhile, revealed the sale of surplus munitions to Argentina. Until a year ago, Argentina was barred from buying American war goods.

Vessels Sold To Greece

The munitions, sold March 19, included "miscellaneous shells, directors, machine guns, gun mounts, height finders and aiming circles."

The original value was $4,413,936. Argentina paid $248,604.

The State Department report also revealed the sale of seventeen small naval vessels to Greece for $1,560,000. Also listed were sales of military supplies and equipment to China, the Philippines, Uruguay, Ecuador, Haiti, Guatemala, Belgium and Canada.

Sawyer's report on sales to eastern Europe had been long awaited. Officials have acknowledged millions of dollars' worth of heavy machinery produced by American firms on Russian orders is piling up storage charges in warehouses.

Russia May Sue

They said some firms are concerned about these charges, as well as payments. Further, Russia may sue because of down payments made on the goods.

"The policy with reference to shipments to Russia and eastern Europe is still not finally fixed," Sawyer said. "Each commodity will be licensed (for export) after consideration of various factors."

He did not say what these factors are. He said he did not think there is any special military veto on such shipments, but suggested reporters check "military authorities" on that.

Sawyer's predecessor, W. Averell Harriman, had told a news conference earlier that the armed forces held a veto power over all shipments that "might contribute to" Russia's war potential.

Policy To Remain "Flexible"

Sawyer said the American policy must remain "flexible." He said that later he would make public the classes of goods, and dollar amounts, of items licensed for shipment to the Soviet bloc since March 1.

He said no embargo was intended and we will "continue to deal with them on a quid pro quo basis."

This means, he said, that "we get about an equivalent of what we give."

He said his department is considering whether to allow Poland to have $11,500,000 worth of coal-mining equipment.

U. S. Observers for Palestine.

Washington, June 8 (A. P.).—Twenty-one American military officers are leaving immediately to serve as truce observers in Palestine, the State Department announced today.

Seven Navy officers are leaving by plane sometime today. Seven Army and seven Air Force officers will be assigned from the European theater.

The request for observers came from Count Folke Bernadotte, United Nations mediator, who has been trying to arrange a four-week truce between the Arabs and Jews. Michael J. McDermott, State Department press officer, said the request came in the last few days. Officials understood that observers also were being dispatched at Bernadotte's request by France and Belgium. These countries are the three represented on the United Nations Consular Truce Commission in Jerusalem.

Five Swedish armistice control officers left Stockholm by air today for Cairo, by way of Rome and Athens. They are expected there tomorrow.

Observers Authorized.

McDermott said the Security Council's truce resolution made clear that the mediator had the authority to ask for observers. McDermott said the same authority to ask assistance is possessed by the Consular Truce Commission.

The Navy said the seven naval officers who have been assigned as observers in Palestine are: Capt. Colomo D. Willingham of Portland, Ore.; Capt. Daniel T. Eddy, Honolulu; Lieut. Vladimir L. Rychly, Cicero, Ill.; Commander Carson Hawkins, Reno, Nev.; Commander Harold D. Huxley, San Francisco; Marine Major Regan Fuller, Washington, D. C., and Marine Major Roy D. Miller, Cincinnati.

Meanwhile, William C. Burdett Jr., acting Consul-General at Jerusalem, reported that a mortar shell had exploded in the courtyard of the Rosary Convent, next door to the Consulate. He did not say what damage was caused but reported that all American personnel were safe. Burdette dispatch said there were numerous mortar explosions and demolitions in Jerusalem last night and artillery fire was directed at the Jewish quarter.

YEAR'S EXTENSION OF PACT APPROVED

Democrats Assail Senate Group's Action on Trade Act.

JUN 1948

WASHINGTON, June 8. —(AP) A one-year extension of the reciprocal trade agreements act, in modified form, was approved by the Senate Finance Committee today. Several Republican leaders applauded the compromise but Democrats assailed it as deadly to the whole trade agreements program.

The committee threw out a house-approved provision giving congress the power to veto, by majority vote, tariff cuts ordered by the president if they were greater than the Federal Tariff Commission recommended.

Compromise Proposal

Instead the committee approved a compromise proposal which (1) requires the president to wait for the tariff commission's recommendations before cutting any tariffs, and (2) requires him to give congress a detailed report if he goes beyond those recommendations. This compromise was drafted by Chairman Millikin (R-Colo) of the finance committee and Chairman Vandenberg (R-Mich) of the foreign relations committee.

Millikin said it gives the president "every power he has at the present time."

But Senator Byrd (D-Va), a member of the finance committee, said the senate bill "will do irreparable harm to the trade agreements program," which he described as "the only reasonable hope existing in the world today for a restoration of international trade."

One Democratic argument is that the president will have little if any chance to make tariff-cutting agreements with other countries during the one-year extension of the act if he has to wait until the tariff commission investigates all of his proposals.

President Truman and Secretary of State Marshall have appealed for a three-year extension of the present act—which expires next Saturday in its present form. The act empowers the president to lower U. S. tariffs if foreign countries, in return, lower their duties on goods imported from the U. S.

The house recently turned down the administration pleas flatly in passing its bill for a one-year extension with the president's powers sharply curbed. Several house GOP leaders said today that the senate committee's bill, which still awaits action by the full senate, is acceptable to them.

"Satisfactory," Knutson Says

Chairman Knutson (R-Minn) of the House Ways and Means Committee said: "The senate bill is satisfactory. It is 95 per cent of the house bill." And Rep. Gearhart (R-Calif), author of the house bill, predicted "general acceptance" of senate revisions.

G.O.P. CHIEFS SEE ADJOURNMENT BY JUNE 19 UNLIKELY

JUN 1948

WASHINGTON, June 8. — (AP) Congress may have to scrap its June 19 adjournment goal and come back later, senate GOP leaders said today.

Faced by a jam-packed work schedule, the Senate Republican Policy Committee said it looks like the lawmakers may not get through before the GOP convention starting June 21.

They'll talk it over with the house about returning.

The committee picked out four bills for first senate action. All Republican senators will get together Thursday morning to talk about the program.

4 Bills Get Priority

Chairman Taft (R-Ohio) listed the four bills for action in this order:

1. The two-year draft measure, already on the senate floor.

2. A resolution by Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich) favoring regional defense pacts under the United Nations, opening the way to possible U. S. aid for a western European defense alliance.

3. Extension of the reciprocal trade agreements act, passed on a one-year restricted basis by the house and approved by the Senate Finance Committee in less stringent form.

4. A long range farm program in place of price support legislation which ends this year.

Taft also listed a number of measures for which he said the committee drew no schedule but which it would like to see the senate act on. These included:

Other Pending Legislation

A civil rights bill (an anti-lynching measure has been discussed), a federal workers pay raise, extension of terms of the atomic energy commissioners by two years, abolition of federal taxes on oleomargarine, a new highway program, a bill dealing with tidelands ownership, the Mundt-Nixon anti-communism measure, and an equal rights amendment to the constitution.

Taft said some members of the committee would like to see congress come back for two weeks between the Republican convention, opening June 21, and the Democratic convention, starting July 12, both in Philadelphia.

"The committee seriously doubts the possibility of adjourning June 19," the chairman stated. "We will discuss with house leaders whether and when we will return under those circumstances."

Some regular appropriation bills might even be awaiting passage on June 19, he said.

Truman Proclaims Sugar Protocol

Washington, June 8 (A. P.).—President Truman today formally proclaimed a seventeen-nation protocol regulating the production and marketing of sugar.

The agreement was signed by the United States and sixteen other sugar-producing countries. It prolongs an eleven-year-old agreement until August 31, 1948.

Munitions Sold to Argentina

WASHINGTON, June 8 (AP)—The State Department disclosed today the sale to Argentina of a batch of surplus munitions which cost originally $4,413,936.

The sale price to Argentina was $248,604. The department said the munitions, sold March 19, included "miscellaneous shells, directors, machine guns, gun mounts, height finders and aiming circles." Until about a year ago Argentina was barred from buying war goods here.

The report also listed the sale of seventeen small naval vessels to Greece for a total of $1,560,000. These included six demilitarized infantry landing craft for $240,000 and eleven non-demilitarized mine sweepers for $1,320,000.

British Envoy Is Dogged In Belief Cat Will Return

WASHINGTON, June 8 (AP).—The British Ambassador is still confident that Lulu, the family cat, will be returned.

Lulu was missing when the family arrived in New York aboard the liner Queen Elizabeth.

"We are confident," Sir Oliver Franks told a National Press Club luncheon today, "that Lulu is having the time of her life. We think that the Cunard-White Star people will yet return her to us—probably quite a bit fatter than when she was lost. She'll probably be found in the stoke hole of the Queen Elizabeth."

Farley Says Soviet Ambition Is Threat To World Peace

Hollywood, Cal., June 8 (AP)—James A. Farley says the threat to peace which now exists "springs from the unholy ambition of one power—Soviet Russia—to dominate every way of life in every place in the world."

"Today, America is confronted with one of its darkest peacetime hours, which is testing its very endurance," the former postmaster general said last night in addressing the annual convention of Kiwanis International.

"Our prayers of thanks for victory are mingled with appeals for deliverance from more war," he told a Hollywood Bowl audience. "We escaped one form of totalitarianism, fascism to be confronted with another, Red fascism, perhaps more dangerous than the vanquished form.

"Family Of Nations"

"It is my solemn conviction that the world will survive as a family of nations," he said. "The family bonds may be tightened in the manner of our sisterhood of states or within a world-wide family. The framework is not as important as co-operative achievement of law, justice and peace.

"The alternative in this atomic age is an ever increasing race for armaments with its constant threat of common ruin. Without the shadow of a question, our civilization is indeed on trial."

DEFENSE NEED HELD OBVIOUS BY FORRESTAL

Military Academy Roars Final Farewell To 301 Graduates

West Point, N.Y., June 8 (AP)—The United States Military Academy cadet corps roared a final farewell to its 301-man graduating class today. The salute came after James Forrestal, Defense Secretary, told the new officers they were beginning their careers at a crucial period.

Forrestal, noting what he called "dangerous frictions" and actual warfare in many parts of the world, said the need to maintain America's armed strength was "never more manifest than it is today."

The Defense Secretary's address, delivered at the academy's one hundred and forty-sixth commencement exercises, concluded the cadets' traditional June Week program.

30.24- 18357

Fieldhouse Jammed

Some 5,000 visitors and the gray-and-white-clad corps of 2,100 jammed the school's huge fieldhouse, where the exercises were held.

Beribboned, high-ranking officers of both the Army and the Navy sat with Forrestal on the platform. They included Gen. Courtney H. Hodges, Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg and Admiral Thomas C. Kinkaid and Admiral Henry K. Hewitt.

The United States, Forrestal said, wants to avoid war. One way to avoid war, he added, is to prepare for it. Military strength and "firm action by the democracies would have prevented the series of crises that touched off World War II," the defense chief said.

The failure of democratic countries to act during the critical prewar years, he said, led the "men woh sought world conquest" to assume that "the democracies had decayed to the extent that there was, at last, nothing for which they would fight."

Two Are Disqualified

"They were wrong in that assumption, but the cost to us of their misunderstanding was 350,000 dead, 450,000 more wounded and 385 billions of dollars. We should not again have to pay such a price."

Of the 301 first classmen, 299 were commissioned second lieutenants in the Army and Air Corps. The remaining two were graduated but were found physically disqualified for commissions.

The diplomas—except that awarded the last member of the class—were presented by Maj. Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, 46-year-old superintendent of the academy. The first cadet to receive his was J. M. Kiernan, Jr., of Brooklyn, the class's top ranking graduate who was commissioned in the Army's corps of engineers.

Low Man Cheered Loudest

A roar from the corps greeted each senior as he marched across the speakers' platform, saluted smartly and received his diploma.

The greatest ovation went to Cadet J. C. Fry, Jr., of Falls Church, Va., who finished last in his class. Fry, in accordance with a custom started by the 1945 commencement speaker, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, received his diploma from Forrestal.

LITCHFIELD 'ADOPTS' TOWN

Connecticut Community Will Aid Lichfield, England

LITCHFIELD, Conn., June 8 (AP)—The townspeople of Litchfield have voted to "adopt" Lichfield, England.

William M. Bennett of Southbury, originator of the so-called Medway plan by which communities in the United States "adopt" similarly named towns in Europe, explained the procedure at a meeting last night where the decision was taken.

Each town will set up corresponding committees to work together on various projects the "adoption" entails. There will be an exchange of names of children between the two towns to get intercommunity correspondence started, and plans have been made here to collect a supply of food for the English town.

Eugene H. Dooman, who is retired from the diplomatic service, told the meeting that Lichfield, England, which he had visited several times, is a manufacturing town of about 9,000 with pottery making its principal industry.

The Connecticut town of about 4,100, county seat of Litchfield County, is noted for the scenic beauty of the surrounding Berkshire Hills.

BARUCH GIVES PEACE RECIPE

High Output, Co-Operation Of Free People Urged

JUN 1948

New York, June 8 (AP)—Bernard M. Baruch said today that to win global peace the United States must regain three elements it achieved in wartime—high production, global strategy and "the spontaneous co-operation of a free people."

Writing in the Saturday Evening Post, the elder statesman also suggested that America's "critics abroad and apologists at home" need to be reminded of this country's great contribution to the winning of World War II.

He noted that:

1. American casualties exceeded those of the entire British Empire in dead and wounded.

2. American war expenditures of $330,000,000,000 through 1946 exceeded those of Great Britain and Russia combined.

3. United States financial aid during the war soared to $50,000,000,000, and since the war Americans have already sent $21,000,000,000 aboard to help foreign peoples, exclusive of Marshall plan aid.

"One could search vainly mankind's whole history," Baruch said, "for comparable generosity."

Two Years Suggested

In seeking global peace, he continued, "it is my belief that if America produced for peace as it did for war, all-out, without strikes or stoppages, inside of two years the foundations of economic stability in the world could be established."

Paying the tribute to the global vision with which President Roosevelt and his aides operated in wartime, Baruch said this must be regained in the "peace-waging."

"For the 'cold-war' attrition with the Soviets," he said, "the essence of any global strategy, I believe, lies in pacing ourselves. It will do no good to sprint like mad for a year or two when the race is a marathon. . . .

Must Not Disperse Strength

"Too many commitments we have taken on tend to weaken us . . . peace cannot be attained by dispersing or even sharing America's strength. We and our allies must grow stronger together, mobilizing not only America's resources but those of free peoples everywhere. . . ."

The third factor in winning peace, Baruch said, quoting Woodrow Wilson, is "the highest form of efficiency . . . the spontaneous cooperation of a free people." Baruch concluded:

"Often Americans are accused of not knowing for what we fight. Yet, ours has been a consistent—though perhaps inadequate—war aim. We fight not to implant ourselves on foreign shores, but to come home; not to remain warlike, but to return to warhating; not to impose our will upon others, but so we can continue governing ourselves as we wish."

Arms Handlers Reported Given Alert Notices

New York, June 8 (AP)—Professional ammunition handlers in New York "have been alerted for assignment," the New York Daily Mirror said today.

"The unusual activity," the newspaper stated, "was said by one informed observer to indicate that the United States plans to lift its arms embargo to Palestine soon and begin full-scale ammunition shipments to the embattled Holy Land."

"To Be Sworn To Secrecy"

The ammunition handlers, the Mirror said, have been "instructed to attend orientation lectures where they will be sworn to secrecy."

"The alert notices," the Mirror said it had learned, "were telegraphed to members of the AFL International Longshoremen's Association by union officials, who took the action at the request of high Government officers in Washington."

Leaders of the union and officials could not be reached in connection with the Mirror story, and no information could be obtained immediately at Washington from army officials or others.

LONDON, JUNE 8-(AP)-RUSSIA TODAY CUT 50 PER CENT FROM THE REMAINING REPARATIONS BILLS OF HUNGARY AND ROMANIA IN RESPONSE TO REQUESTS FROM THOSE NATIONS FOR REDUCTIONS. SIMILAR ACTION WAS TAKEN BY THE RUSSIANS ON FINLAND'S BILL LAST WEEK.
THE REDUCTIONS WERE ANNOUNCED IN NOTES HANDED TO THE ROMANIAN AND HUNGARIAN GOVERNMENTS BY THE SOVIET AMBASSADORS IN BUCHAREST AND BUDAPEST.
EACH OF THE THREE NATIONS ORIGINALLY OWED RUSSIA $300,000,000 IN REPARATIONS. THE CUT FOR ROMANIA IN THE AMOUNT OUTSTANDING WILL TOTAL ABOUT $55,000,000. FINLAND'S CUT AMOUNTED TO $70,000,000.
A BUDAPEST DISPATCH ON THE CUT FOR HUNGARY DID NOT INDICATE HOW MUCH THAT NATION ALREADY HAS PAID.

Night Lead Suez

Paris, june 8-(AP)-S.Pinckney Tuck, former U.S.ambassador at Cairo, today became the first American to be elected [redacted] the board of directors of the Suez canal.

Tuck's election occurred at a [redacted] meeting of the directors in Paris, after his nomination by Chairman Marquis C. De Vogue.

He thus becomes a member of the group which directs one of the world's most strategic waterways—[redacted]. The Suez canal company is made up of French, British, Egyptian and Dutch directors.

Shares in the company which controls the 100 miles of lockless ditch between the Red Sea and the Mediterranean long have been one of the world's most lucrative financial investment.

The canal itself is so economically and militarily important that it is operated as an international project. But financially it is a semi-private corporation.

Nobody really knows who "owns" the canal. There are 800,000 shares and in 1945 the British held 353,024, according to reports. The others are scattered throughout the world, potentially holding the controlling interest in the canal.

Officials of the company were asked today whether there are American [redacted] shares. They replied that anyone who [redacted] could find Suez shares on the stock market [redacted] could buy them. They said Tuck's election resulted from "the place occupied by the colors of the United States in canal [redacted] traffic."

But, they said, "only the owners of 25 shares has one vote in the general assembly and nobody can exceed 10 votes." A board spokesman did NOT say how many votes were cast at the meeting or who held the voting shares. Shareholders often are represented by proxies. More

30.24- 18359

He did say, however, that [redacted] "In primciple there were NO German shares." He did NOT explain what has become of shares privately purchased by Germans.

JUN 1948

It was recalled that during the past war Suez canal shares in [redacted] had been hidden and that Germans could NOT buy them.

In 1940 the Germans ordered the French people to turn in their Suez shares to be impounded, but many did NOT do so and continued trading in the black market was possible because of France's loose system of registering securities. In this way Germans, working through French quislings during the occupation of France could obtain Suez shares. NO German is now in a position to exercise his votes and th quislings may already have fallen heir to the shares.

JUN 1948

Three directors were reelected, including De Vogue and Sir Herbert Heath. Four new directors were elected, including Tuck and Louis De Venoit of France. Nominations were ratifie without opposition.

Geneva, Switzerland, June 8-(AP)-Paul Ruegger, president of the international Red Cross committee, said today that establishment of a new security zone in Jerusalem is being considered. JUN 1948

Ruegger returned to Red Cross headquarters here last night after a two-week tour of Palestine and the [redacted] Arab capitals. He said at a news conference that the two existing security zones in Jerusalem--government house and the Y.M.C.A. building--are respected by both Arabs and Jews. He said th Red Cross hopes for an Arab and Jewish agreement to a third zone in the area of the Jewish university and its hospital.

A security zone in the area of the Italian hospital had to be closed, Ruegger said, because it did NOT give adequate protection to the women, children and other non-combatants living there.

The proposed new security zone would save the Jewish university from destruction in addition to providing a haven for non-combatants, he said. The area is now controlled by the Jews. JUN 1948

PRAGUE, CZECHOSLOVAKIA, JUNE 8-(AP)-CZECHOSLOVAKIA'S COMMUNIST-BOSSED PARLIAMENT WILL ELECT A NEW PRESIDENT NEXT MONDAY TO SUCCEED EDUARD BENES, RESIGNED.

COMMUNIST PREMIER KLEMENT GOTTWALD IS REGARDED AS THE LEADING CANDIDATE FOR THE JOB, WITH ANTONIN ZAPOTOCKY, DEPUTY PREMIER AND TRADES UNION HEAD, THEN SUCCEEDING GOTTWALD AS PREMIER.

THERE WAS TALK, HOWEVER, THAT GOTTWALD MIGHT WISH TO REMAIN PREMIER, A POST HE HAS HELD SINCE JULY 3, 1946. IN THAT CASE ZDENEK NEJEDLY, 70, THE EDUCATION MINISTER, OR ZDENEK FIERLINGER, THE MINISTER OF INDUSTRY, WERE GIVEN THE BEST CHANCE FOR THE PRESIDENCY.

BENES, CZECHOSLOVAKIA'S SECOND PRESIDENT, QUIT YESTERDAY, AFTER SERVING 11 YEARS, RATHER THAN SIGN A NEW CONSTITUTION DRAWN UP BY THE COMMUNIST REGIME WHICH CAPTURED THE NATION LAST FEBRUARY.

HE HAD BEEN VOTED A LIFE TERM IN 1946 AND GOTTWALD'S OFFICE ANNOUNCED THAT AS A TRIBUTE FOR HIS LONG SERVICE TO THE NATION BENES WOULD BE GIVEN THE PRESIDENTIAL COUNTRY HOME AND PAID HIS PRESIDENTIAL SALARY FOR THE REMAINDER OF HIS LIFE. HE IS 64 AND ATTRIBUTED HIS RESIGNATION, IN PART, TO ILL HEALTH.

BENES' ANNUAL STIPEND WILL BE $60,000. THE PRESIDENTIAL COUNTRY HOME IS AN 18TH CENTURY HUNTING LODGE AT LANY, NEAR THE GRAVES OF THE MASARYK FAMILY, INCLUDING FIRST PRESIDENT THOMAS AND HIS SON JAN, THE RECENT FOREIGN MINISTER. THE MASARYKS OWNED THE LODGE.

IT APPEARED DOUBTFUL THAT BENES WOULD ACCEPT RESIDENCE THERE. HE ALWAYS HAS REGARDED THE PLACE AS A MASARYK SANCTUARY AND USED IT SELDOM DURING HIS TERMS IN OFFICE.

HE HAS A COMFORTABLE COTTAGE SOUTH OF PRAGUE AT SEZIMOVO USTI, WHICH THE CZECHOSLOVAK PEOPLE CALL "THE CITY OF OBSTINACY." THEY HAVE REPRESENTED BENES AS SITTING OUT HIS LIFE THERE, OBSTINATELY SHOWING HIS DISLIKE FOR THE NEW PRAGUE GOVERNMENT.

BENES IS A BROKEN AND SICK MAN. HE HAS ONLY A MILD FLICKER OF THE FIRM SPIRIT HE EXHIBITED IN STANDING UP TO THE NAZI STEAMROLLER AND ADOLF HITLER. SINCE THE COMMUNISTS TOOK POWER, HE HAS BEEN A FIGUREHEAD.

HIS ARTERIES HAVE HARDENED. HE SUFFERED A STROKE LAST SUMMER, POSSIBLY DUE TO EXPOSURE TO THE SUN. HIS RESIGNATION REMOVED FROM THE GOVERNMENT THE LAST IMPORTANT FIGURE WANTING STRONG TIES WITH THE WEST.

CAIRO, EGYPT, JUNE 8-(AP)-THE EGYPTIAN SPEARHEAD, CAUGHT IN A JEWISH TRAP AT ISDUD FOR A WEEK, WAS REPORTED TODAY TO HAVE WRESTED THE INITIATIVE FROM ENCIRCLING JEWS AND TO BE FIGHTING ITS WAY OUT.

WHILE THE BATTLE WENT ON 23 MILES BELOW TEL AVIV, COUNT FOLKE BERNADOTTE, THE U.N.'S SWEDISH MEDIATOR, CALLED A NEWS CONFERENCE FOR TONIGHT, PRESUMABLY TO MAKE PUBLIC THE TERMS HE HAD HAS PROPOSED FOR A FOUR-WEEKS TRUCE.

THE ARAB NATIONS' REPRESENTATIVES MET IN CAIRO AND THE ISRAEL CABINET CONFERRED IN TEL AVIV ON THEIR ANSWERS TO HIS TERMS.

THE SWEDISH COUNT CALLED HIS NEWS CONFERENCE IMMEDIATELY AFTER A SHORT TALK WITH PREMIER NOKRASHY PASHA OF EGYPT.

THE EGYPTIAN SPEARHEAD OF ABOUT 1,000 MEN HAD ITS THRUST TOWARD TEL AVIV HALTED WHEN JEWISH ELEMENTS CLOSED IN BEHIND IT.

YESTERDAY DISPATCHES FROM TEL AVIV SAID IT HAD RECEIVED REINFORCEMENTS FROM THE SEA, LANDED BY EGYPTIAN NAVAL FORCES.

TODAY A DELAYED ISRAELI COMMUNIQUE SAID THE ENCIRCLED EGYPTIANS, WITH ARMOR AND ARTILLERY, HAD STARTED A HEAVY ATTACK ON MIESANIM (NITSANIM), THREE MILES SOUTHWEST OF ISDUD ON THE ISDUD-MAJDAL ROAD.

THE EGYPTIANS ALREADY HAD CLAIMED THE RECAPTURE OF MIESANIM, AND HAD DECLARED "ENEMY FORCES COLLAPSED."

TEL AVIV DISPATCHES SAID JEWISH ARRANGEMENTS FOR CORRESPONDENTS TO VISIT THE BATTLEFRONT WERE SUDDENLY CANCELLED TODAY, PRESUMABLY BECAUSE THE BATTLE LINES NO LONGER WERE STABLE.

THE ARABS HAD INDICATED THEY WOULD HAVE THEIR TRUCE ANSWER READY BY TOMORROW, THE TIME BERNADOTTE HAD REQUESTED IT. IT WAS NOT KNOWN WHEN THE JEWS' ANSWER WOULD BE READY.

INFORMED QUARTERS IN TEL AVIV SAID THE SITUATION IN JERUSALEM WAS THE MOST DIFFICULT OBSTACLE TO A TRUCE.

THEY SAID IT WAS DOUBTFUL IF THE GOVERNMENT OF ISRAEL COULD GUARANTEE OBSERVANCE OF THE TRUCE IN JERUSALEM IF IT ACCEPTED BERNADOTTE'S TERMS.

THEY POINTED OUT THAT THE STERN GANG AND IRGUN ZVAI LEUMI ARE MAINTAINING THEIR STATUS AS UNDERGROUND ORGANIZATIONS OUTSIDES THE BORDERS OF ISRAEL AND THAT JERUSALEM IS OUTSIDE THE BORDERS. IRGUN HAS WARNED IN A BROADCAST THAT IT WAS NOT PREPARED TO ACCEPT THE SWEDISH COUNT'S TERMS.

THESE TERMS WERE REPORTED BY NEUTRAL SOURCES IN TEL AVIV TO INCLUDE A FLOW OF FOOD TO THE 80,000 TO 90,000 JEWS BESIEGED IN JERUSALEM FOR ONE MONTH'S SUPPLY DURING THE TRUCE. IRGUN WAS UNDERSTOOD TO WANT FREE COMMUNICATION WITH THE CITY DURING THE TRUCE, WHILE THE ARABS INSIST ON MAINTAINING THEIR SIEGE.

AN ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH FROM BEHIND ARAB LINES IN JERUSALEM INDICATED THE JEWS WERE MAKING STRENUOUS EFFORTS TO RESTORE BROKEN COMMUNICATIONS WITH THE CITY.

THE DISPATCH SAID THE ARAB LEGION'S HEAVIEST GUNS TOOK UNDER FIRE A NEW LIFELINE ROAD BUILT SECRETLY THROUGH THE JUDEAN HILLS TO JERUSALEM BY THE JEWS. THE ARABS SAID DIRECT HITS HAD BEEN MADE ON THE CRUDE DIRT TRACK GOUGED THROUGH THE HILLS TO THE SOUTH OF THE MAIN JERUSALEM-TEL AVIV HIGHWAY. THE MAIN ROAD IS BLOCKED BY ARABS AT LATRUN.

THE DISPATCH SAID LEGION GUNS ALSO SHELLED A NEW JEWISH AIRSTRIP NEAR DEIR YASSIN, SOUTHWEST OF JERUSALEM, ON WHICH 800 JEWS HAD BEEN WORKING.

ARABS IN JERUSALEM SAID THEY BELIEVED NO SUPPLIES, EXCEPT POSSIBLY A NEGLIGIBLE QUANTITY CARRIED IN BY MULE TRAIN, HAD REACHED THE CITY SINCE APRIL 13, A MONTH BEFORE THE OUTBREAK OF THE WAR.

HOWEVER, AN ISRAEL ARMY SPOKESMAN IN TEL AVIV DECLARED A GREAT EXODUS OF ARABS FROM ARAB-CONTROLLED SECTIONS OF THE CITY STARTED WHEN RUMORS SPREAD THAT THE JEWS HAD RECEIVED REINFORCEMENTS OF HEAVY ARTILLERY.

30.24- 18365

A210
THE SPOKESMAN SAID THE LEGION HAD TO ERECT ROAD BARRIERS TO STOP THE EXODUS.
A JERUSALEM DISPATCH FROM BEHIND ARAB LINES SAID FOUR MORE CHURCHES HAD BEEN DAMAGED IN THE PAST 24 HOURS BY JEWISH MORTAR SHELLS FALLING IN THE OLD CITY. THESE INCLUDED THE HOLY SEPULCHRE. THE LEAD ROOF HAD A HOLE A FOOT IN DIAMETER FROM A MORTAR BURST MONDAY NIGHT. THE OTHER CHURCHES DAMAGED WERE THE CHURCH OF FLAGELLATION AT THE SECOND STATION OF THE CROSS, THE ARMENIAN CATHOLIC CHURCH AT THE FOURTH STATION, AND THE CHAPEL OF THE SPANISH SISTERS OF MOUNT CALVARY.
A MORTAR SHEL ALSO EXPLODED IN THE COURTYARD OF THE GREAT MOSQUE OF OMAR AND WOUNDED AN ARAB BOY.

ARABS RETURNED 86 WOMEN PRISONERS FROM THE KFAR ETZION SETTLEMENT IN EXCHANGE FOR ARAB PRISONERS. THE EXCHANGE WAS MADE BETWEEN TULKARM AND NATHANYA TONIGHT.
RED CROSS REPRESENTATIVES NEGOTIATED A ONE-HOUR CEASE FIRE.
WITH THE 86 WOMEN WERE TWO OTHER WOMEN WHO HAD BEEN CAPTURED AT NAHARIAM, JUST SOUTH OF THE SEA OF GALILEE.

EXCEPT FOR THE SHELLING IN JERUSALEM AND THE FIGHTING ON THE ISDUD FRONT THE WAR WAS GENERALLY PROCEEDING ON A ONE-CYLINDER BASIS WHILE TRUCE NEGOTIATIONS WENT ON.
TEL AVIV WAS HIT IN SUCCESSIVE AIR RAIDS TUESDAY MORNING BY FIGHTER BOMBERS WHICH FLEW IN SINGLY FROM THE SEA AND DROPPED EXPLOSIVES ON THE CENTER OF THE CITY FROM A HEIGHT OF 8,000 TO 10,000 FEET. AT LEAST SEVEN PERSONS WERE KIL3$.
TWO BOMBS EXPLODED ON THE ROOF AND ON THE FOURTH FLOOR OF A SIX-STORY OFFICE BUILDING USED BY BERNADOTTE'S UNITED NATIONS MISSION. THE U.N. FLAG WAS FLYING OVER THE BUILDING. BERNADOTTE'S OFFICES WERE ON THE FIRST FLOOR.
A TRANS-JORDAN COMMUNIQUE SAID ARAB LEGION FORCES STRUCK BACK AT JEWISH POTASH SETTLEMENTS SOUTH OF THE DEAD SEA, IN AN APPARENT EFFORT TO ELIMINATE BASES FROM WHICH THE JEWS HAVE CARRIED OUT HARRASSING TACTICS.
THE COMMUNIQUE SAID ARTILLERY SHELLED THE SETTLEMENTS, AND LIGHT FORCES "PURSUED RETREATING JEWS THROUGH THE POTASH SECTION." THE WIPING OUT OF JEWISH OUTPOSTS WAS REPORTED CONTINUING.
IT WAS FROM THIS BORDER AREA, THAT JEWS RAIDED THE TRANS-JORDAN STRONGPOINT OF QA' ES SAFI LAST WEEK.

CAIRO, JUNE 8-(AP)-COUNT FOLKE BERNADOTTE DISCLOSED TONIGHT HE HAD PROPOSED TO ARABS AND ZIONISTS THAT THE FOUR-WEEK TRUCE IN PALESTINE BEGIN AT 1 A.M. EASTERN STANDARD TIME, FRIDAY, JUNE 11.

A70
TEL AVIV, ISRAEL, MONDAY, JUNE 7-(AP)-IRGUN ZVAI LEUMI, OLD JEWISH UNDERGROUND GROUP, WARNED OVER ITS BROADCASTING STATION TODAY IT IS NOT PREPARED TO "SURRENDER" TO THE TRUCE TERMS FOR JERUSALEM AS SET UP BY COUNT FOLKE BERNADOTTE, UNITED NATIONS MEDIATOR.
BERNADOTTE IS SEEKING A FOUR-WEEK TRUCE IN ALL PALESTINE. INFORMED CIRCLES SAY HE HAS PROPOSED TO LET THE JEWS BRING A MONTH'S FOOD SUPPLY INTO JERUSALEM BUT TO FORBID FREE COMMUNICATION BETWEEN ISRAEL AND THE HOLY CITY. THEY INTERPRET THIS TO MEAN THAT JERUSALEM WOULD REMAIN UNDER SIEGE.
IRGUN AND THE STERN GROUP HAVE UNDERTAKEN TO DISSOLVE WITHIN ISRAEL'S BORDERS, BUT SINCE JERUSALEM IS OUTSIDE THEY ARE CONTINUING UNDERGROUND ACTIVITIES ON THEIR OWN RESPONSIBILITY THERE.
INDICATIONS HERE WERE THAT NO TRUCE WOULD BE POSSIBLE SO LONG AS JERUSALEM REMAINED BESIEGED. INFORMED QUARTERS SAID THAT EVEN THOUGH A TRUCE SHOULD BE PUT INTO EFFECT, NO GUARANTEE COULD BE GIVEN THAT IT WOULD NOT BE BROKEN SOON IN JERUSALEM. THEY POINTED TO THE ABNORMAL SITUATION THERE--MUCH OF THE CITY IN JEWISH HANDS, ALL APPROACHES IN ARAB HANDS.

THE TIME PROPOSED IS 8 A.M. FRIDAY IN ARAB NATIONS WARRING UPON ISRAEL AND 10 A.M. IN ISRAEL, WHICH IS ON DOUBLE DAYLIGHT TIME.

A214
EGYPTIAN PREMIER NOKRASHY PASHA WENT FROM A CONFERENCE WITH BERNADOTTE TO A MEETING OF THE ARAB LEAGUE POLITICAL COMMITTEE DISCUSSING THE TRUCE.
THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCED THAT 21 AMERICAN OFFICERS ARE LEAVING IMMEDIATELY FOR SERVICE IN PALESTINE AS TRUCE OBSERVERS, AND THIS SUGGESTED THAT TEMPORARY PEACE MIGHT BE NEAR.

A215
THE WAR CONTINUED WHILE THE LEADERS TALKED. TEL AVIV, ISRAEL'S CAPITAL, WAS BOMBED BY EGYPTIAN PLANES IN A SERIES OF SORTIES THROUGHOUT THE DAY. AT LEAST SEVEN PERSONS WERE KILLED, AND THE BUILDING HOUSING BERNADOTTE'S TEL AVIV OFFICES WAS STRUCK TWICE. IT FLIES A U.N. FLAG.

THE U.N. MEDIATOR REVEALED AT A NEWS CONFERENCE ALSO THAT HE HAD ASKED THE ARAB GOVERNMENTS AND JEWISH AUTHORITIES TO REPLY BY 7 A.M., EASTERN STANDARD TIME, TOMORROW TO HIS PROPOSALS.

IF HIS REQUEST SHOULD BE REJECTED, HE WILL REFER THE MATTER TO THE U.N. SECURITY COUNCIL WITHOUT FURTHER CONSULTATIONS, BERNADOTTE SAID.

EXPLAINING THAT THE PROPOSALS HE SUBMITTED TO THE ARABS AND JEWS YESTERDAY WERE FORMALLY PRESENTED TO THEM ONLY AS A BASIS FOR ACCEPTANCE OR REJECTION, HE SAID:

"I EARNESTLY BELIEVE THE PROPOSALS AND THE INTERPRETATIONS SET FORTH IN MY NOTE OF JUNE 7 PROVIDE A JUST BASIS FOR A TRUCE--JUST TO BOTH SIDES. I SOLEMNLY HOPE THAT THESE PROPOSALS SHALL FIND ACCEPTANCE AND THAT THE CONFLICT IN PALESTINE WILL COME TO A STAND-STILL AT 6 A.M., GREENWICH MEAN TIME, ON FRIDAY, '7,3 11."

BY JOSEPH C. GOODWIN

AMMAN, TRANS-JORDAN, JUNE 8-(AP)-THE PALESTINE WAR PUFFS ALONG ON ONE CYLINDER WHILE TRUCE NEGOTIATIONS GO ON, BUT THERE IS NO INDICATION THE IGNITION HAS BEEN SWITCHED OFF.

ON THE CONTRARY, ARAB PUBLIC OPINION APPEARS CONVINCED THAT THE ACTION FROM MAY 15 TO THE PRESENT MERELY WAS A PRELIMINARY FOR THE MAIN EVENT. IF THE TRUCE FAILS, THE BIG DRIVE IS DUE IMMEDIATELY, THEY BELIEVE. IF THE TRUCE IS ACCEPTED, THE DRIVE IS DELAYED FOUR WEEKS.

IN EITHER EVENT THE ARAB NATIONS, AND PRESUMABLY ISRAEL, ARE USING THE PRESENT SLACK PERIOD FOR STRENGTHENING THEIR POSITIONS AND MOVING AVAILABLE MEN, WEAPONS AND SUPPLIES CLOSER TO THE FRONTS. WHEN THE CANNONS START BOOMING AGAIN THERE IS EVERY INDICATION, AT LEAST ON THIS SIDE, THAT THE GAME IS FOR KEEPS.

THE ARAB LEGION, IRAQIS AND EGYPTIANS ARE FEVERISHLY CONSOLIDATING AN ARC OF STRENGTH THEY HAVE ESTABLISHED 20 MILES FROM TEL AVIV. IRAQ HEAVY SIEGE GUNS HAVE REACHED HILL POSITIONS FROM WHENCE THEY CAN HURL DESTRUCTION INTO THE JEWISH STRONGHOLD OF PETAH TIQVA, GUARDING THE EASTERN APPROACH TO ISRAEL'S TEMPORARY CAPITAL.

NORTH AND WEST OF ARAB TULKARM, TOUGH IRAQI INFANTRY IS MASSED OUTSIDE THE JEWISH SEACOAST TOWN OF NATANYA. THEIR NORTHERN FLANK IS COVERED BY VICTORIOUS UNITS WHICH BEAT OFF A JEWISH ATTACK ON JENIN.

THE IRAQIS MOVED THEIR FULL STRENGTH EXPEDITIONARY FORCE INTO PALESTINE FROM TRANS-JORDAN DURING THE PAST WEEK. THE FORCE'S STRENGTH IS TWICE WHAT MOST FOREIGN OBSERVERS PREDICTED IRAQ WOULD HAVE BEEN ABLE TO COMMIT TO THE PALESTINE FIGHT.

TRANS-JORDAN LEGIONNAIRES, STILL FLUSH WITH THE VICTORY IN JERUSALEM'S OLD CITY, AND KEEPING AN IRON GRIP ON THE JERUSALEM-TEL AVIV ROAD, HAVE PUSHED NEW UNITS OVER THE JUDEAN HILLS TO BOLSTER THE EGYPTIANS AT BETHLEHEM.

THE LEGION FRONT FROM THE NORTHERN SUBURBS OF JEWISH JERUSALEM TO THE BLOODY FIELD OF LATRUN POINTS A SECOND STEEL SPEAR AT TEL AVIV, 20 MILES TO THE WEST.

JUN 1948

B10
A THIRD SPEARHEAD -- BACKED BY GROWING POWER AS NEW MEN AND MATERIAL POUR IN FROM THE SINAI PENINSULA -- IS FORMED BY STRONG EGYPTIAN FORCES AT MAJDAL. OFFICIAL ARAB SOURCES PLACE THE EGYPTIAN STRENGTH AS "EQUAL TO THAT OF ALL THE OTHER ARAB ARMIES IN PALESTINE COMBINED."

SYRIAN AND LEBANESE ARMIES AS YET HAVE SHOWN LITTLE OFFENSIVE STRENGTH, BUT THEIR PRESENCE ON THE NORTHERN FRONTIER KEEPS JEWISH FORCES SCATTERED THIN AND DRAINS OFF TEL AVIV'S DEFENSIVE POTENTIAL.

UNCONFIRMED REPORTS REACHING HERE INDICATE THE SYRIANS AND LEBANESE MAY BE REINFORCED BY IRREGULARS OF THE ARAB VOLUNTEER YARMUK ARMY WHICH RECENTLY WITHDREW FROM PALESTINE FOR REGROUPING IN SYRIA.

IF, AS NOW APPEARS POSSIBLE, TEL AVIV BECOMES THE ARABS' IMMEDIATE OBJECTIVE, COMMANDERS MAY DEPEND UPON ARTILLERY AND THE HIGHWAY BLOCKADE TO SUBDUE THE JEWISH-HELD SECTION OF MODERN JERUSALEM. THE LEGION, WITH A TIGHT GRIP ON THE OLD CITY, IS STRAINING AT THE LEASH TO GIVE THE NEW CITY A PASTING WITH ITS GUNS, AND ITS EFFICIENT COMBAT TROOPS ARE INCHING IN DAILY IN THE NORTHERN SUBURBS.

THE LEGION CONTINUES TO CONTROL ALL ROADS INTO THE HOLY CITY. THEY HAVE BROKEN THE BACKS OF A DOZEN JEWISH DRIVES IN LATRUN AND THE BAB EL WAD AREA. THE BESIEGED JEWS INSIDE THE NEW CITY ARE BELIEVED DANGEROUSLY SHORT OF FOOD AND WATER.

tel aviv, israel, june 8 - (ap) - at least one american general and a score or more of lesser officers are known to be in active command positions in the army of israel.

their identities and the part they are playing in the jewish forces have not been divulged, as the jewish army still is secretive about the names and ranks of its commanders.

it is not known whether all these americans are jews, but at least a large number of them have not been here long enough to speak hebrew.

JUN 1948

perhaps the greatest number of them in any one branch of the israel armed forces are former american fliers in the air force here.

the general--it is not clear whether he was a general officer in the american army or whether he held some other rank who was given a general's rank here--is reported to command all or a large part of forces on the southern front.

Another are of the front is commanded by a former u.s. eighth air force officer now serving in the field in command of ground forces.

American fliers are known to have taken part in several of the recently reported air combats over tel aviv and adjacent areas, but censorship so far has not permitted their identification.

JERUSALEM, JUNE 8--(AP)--JERUSALEM WAS HEAVILY SHELLED TODAY FOR THE 26TH TIME.

IN RETALIATION FOR THE SHELLING OF THEIR AREAS, THE JEWS THREW MORTAR SHELLS INTO THE ARAB-OCCUPIED OLD CITY.

ARAB SNIPERS WERE ACTIVE; SOME REACHED INTO PARTS OF THE CITY WHICH HAVE BEEN FREE FROM SMALL ARMS FIRE FOR SOME DAYS.

ARAB ARTILLERY AND MORTAR FIRE USUALLY CONTINUES FOR

AN HOUR AT A TIME. SHELLS FALL IN ALL PARTS OF THE CITY BUT MAINLY IN THE CENTRAL BUSINESS AND SHOPPING DISTRICTS.

THERE WERE A NUMBER OF CASUALTIES.

A JEWISH AGENCY SPOKESMAN SAID GROUND OPERATIONS BY BOTH ARABS AND JEWS IN OTHER PARTS OF PALESTINE GENERALLY WERE AT A STANDSTILL. HE SUGGESTED THAT THIS MIGHT BE BECAUSE NEITHER SIDE WANTED TO BE CAUGHT IN THE MIDDLE OF LARGE SCALE OPERATIONS BY A CEASE FIRE ORDER ARRANGED BY THE UNITED NATIONS.

SIR OLIVER FRANKS, AFTER MAKING A SPEECH AT THE NATIONAL PRESS CLUB, WAS ASKED WHETHER BRITAIN CONSIDERS ITS ROLE TO BE THAT OF MEDIATOR OR PARTISAN IN THE COLD WAR. HE REPLIED:

"I WOULD SAY AFTER THE FAILURE OF THE BIG FOUR TALKS LAST WINTER WE HAVE COME TO THE CONCLUSION WE ARE WITH YOU ON THIS ISSUE.

"I DON'T WISH TO BE MISUNDERSTOOD AS SAYING THAT OUR ATTITUDE WILL CONTINUE TO BE, POINT FOR POINT, THE SAME AS YOURS. BUT ON THE BIG ISSUE THE ANSWER IS YES."

IN HIS FIRST PUBLIC ADDRESS SINCE TAKING THE POST AS AMBASSADOR, FRANKS URGED THAT THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN SEEK TO CREATE A "BETTER ATMOSPHERE" FOR EFFORTS TO FIND A SOLUTION OF THE PALESTINE PROBLEM.

"WHO HAS NOT MADE MISTAKES?" HE ASKED. "WHAT MATTERS IS THAT WE FIND AN ATMOSPHERE IN WHICH THERE IS NOT RECRIMINATION, BUT AN APPROACH TO THE PROBLEMS AS THEY ARE.

WASHINGTON,JUNE 8-(AP)-THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE TODAY CRITICIZED "SECRET DIPLOMACY BETWEEN NATIONS AND BETWEEN THE EXECUTIVE AND LEGISLATIVE BRANCHES" OF THE GOVERNMENT.

THAT'S WHY, IT SAID, IT HELD PUBLIC HEARINGS ON AN "AMERICAN POLICY STATEMENT" DESIGNED TO CORRECT WEAKNESSES OF THE UNITED NATIONS.

REPORTING TO CONGRESS, THE COMMITTEE SUPPLIED THE BACKGROUND FOR ITS ACTION AND EXPLAINED A BILL INTRODUCED BY CHAIRMAN EATON (R-NJ), NOW PENDING BEFORE THE HOUSE.

UNDER A SUBTITLE EXPLAINING "WHY HEARINGS WERE HELD," THE COMMITTEE REPORT SAID:

"THE COMMITTEE UNDERSTOOD THE GRAVE PROBLEMS CONFRONTING THE EXECUTIVE (PRESIDENT) AND THE EXPLOSIVE POSSIBILITIES OF PUBLIC DISCUSSION. AT THE SAME TIME, THE COMMITTEE FELT THAT MERE IMPLEMENTATION OF OFFICIAL PRECONCEPTIONS AFTER SECRET DISCUSSIONS WOULD NOT BE ADEQUATE.

"THE COMMITTEE APPRECIATED THE VALUE OF INFORMAL DISCUSSIONS OF DELICATE MATTERS IN BOTH FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC RELATIONS, BUT THE COMMITTEE SENSED A PROFOUND AND JUSTIFIED DISSATISFACTION WITH SECRET DIPLOMACY BETWEEN NATIONS AND BETWEEN THE EXECUTIVE AND LEGISLATIVE BRANCHES.

"IN THE COMMITTEE'S JUDGMENT, SOUND CONCLUSIONS WERE TO BE REACHED ONLY AFTER EXPLORATION OF THE PROBLEM IN PUBLIC DISCUSSION."

IN BRIEF, EATON'S BILL WOULD MAKE IT "THE POLICY OF THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES" TO STRENGTHEN THE UNITED NATIONS BUT AT THE SAME TIME "TO ENCOURAGE--AND TO ASSOCIATE THE UNITED STATES WITH--REGIONAL AND OTHER COLLECTIVE SELF-DEFENSE" ALLIANCES AFFECTING AMERICAN SECURITY.

IT WOULD ALSO BECOME THIS COUNTRY'S OFFICIAL POLICY "TO PRESS FOR AGREEMENTS" TO GIVE THE UN ARMED POLICE FORCES AND TO SET UP UNIVERSAL CONTROL OF WEAPONS OF MASS DESTRUCTION AND BRING ABOUT REDUCTION OF ARMAMENTS INCLUDING ARMED FORCES.

UNDER THE BILL, THE UNITED STATES WOULD SEEK "BY VOLUNTARY AGREEMENT" TO LIBERALIZE UN VOTING PROCEDURES AND ELIMINATE THE VETO ON ALL MATTERS INVOLVING PACIFIC SETTLEMENT OF INTERNATIONAL DISPUTES.

NEW YORK, JUNE 8-(AP)-A BROADENING OF THE TERMS UNDER WHICH "CONVERTIBLE" STERLING MAY BE USED IN PAYING FOR JAPANESE GOODS WAS REPORTED TODAY BY THE FOREIGN TRADE OFFICE OF THE SUPREME COMMANDER FOR THE ALLIED POWERS (SCAP) IN TOKYO.

"CONVERTIBLE" STERLING IS DEFINED BY SCAP AS THAT WHICH IS "BANKABLE IN SCAP'S STERLING COMMERCIAL ACCOUNTS" IN JAPAN OR WHICH IS ACCEPTABLE FOR SCAP BUSINESS BY THE HONG KONG AND SHANGHAI BANKING CORP., OR BY THE CHARTERED BANK OF INDIA, AUSTRALIA AND CHINA.

THE NEW ACTION, SCAP'S NEW YOR TRADE OFFICE SAID, ADDS THESE COUNTRIES TO THOSE FROM WHICH PAYMENTS IN 100 PER CENT CONVERTIBLE STERLING ARE ALLOWED: EIRE, FAROE ISLANDS, IRAQ AND THE PERSIAN GULF SHIEKDOMS.

WHILE COTTON TEXTILES PRODUCED IN JAPAN FROM UNITED STATES RAW COTTON ARE A GENERAL EXCEPTION TO THE AGREEMENT, SCAP HAS AUTHORIZED RELEASE OF 100,000,000 (MILLION) YARDS OF PORT STOCKS TO COUNTRIES PARTICIPATING IN THE STERLING PAYMENTS AGREEMENT.

JUN 1948

SCAP OFFICIALS ADDED THAT ALL COTTON TOWELS, SINGLETS AND BLANKETS WILL BE SOLD FOR PAYMENT IN 100 PER CENT CONVERTIBLE STERLING UNDER THE NEW AGREEMENT.

WITH THE EXCEPTION OF THESE ITEMS AND THE 100,000,000 YARDS OF PORT STOCKS, ALL TEXTILES MADE FROM UNITED STATES COTTON WILL CONTINUE TO SELL EITHER FOR 100 PER CENT DOLLARS OR FOR 50 PER CENT DOLLARS AND 50 PER CENT STERLING OR "ACCEPTABLE COMMODITIES."

COUNTRIES PARTICIPATING IN THE STERLING PAYMENTS AGREEMENT, OTHER THAN THOSE ADDED BY THE NEW ACTION INCLUDE:

AUSTRALIA, BURMA, NEW ZEALAND, PAKISTAN, UNION OF SOUTH AFRICA AND THE UNITED KINGDON AND ITS COLONIES AND MANDATED TERRITORIES, EXCEPT HONG KONG AND PALESTINE.

NEW YORK, JUNE 8-(AP)-ALISTAIR NICHOLSON, 23-YEAR-OLD GLASGOW-BORN SAILOR WHO SERVED IN THE U.S. ARMY IN WORLD WAR TWO, TODAY LOST HIS FIGHT TO STAY IN THIS COUNTRY.

FEDERAL JUDGE ALFRED C. COXE DISMISSED NICHOLSON'S HABEAS CORPUS PROCEEDING UNDER WHICH HE HOPED TO REMAIN HERE.

NICHOLSON WAS TURNED OVER TO IMMIGRATION OFFICIALS, WHO LAST FEB. 26 ORDERED HIS DEPORTATION.

THE IMMIGRATION AUTHORITIES HAD CHARGED THAT IN JULY, 1946, TWO MONTHS AFTER HE WAS DEPORTED FROM THIS COUNTRY, NICHOLSON FALSELY CONFESSED TO AMERICAN MILITARY POLICE IN ENGLAND THAT HE WAS A U.S. ARMY DESERTER. LATER, THEY SAID, FOLLOWING A THREE MONTHS COURT MARTIAL SENTENCE HE SERVED IN THE U.S. ARMY IN FRANCE AND GERMANY.

NICHOLSON WAS MUSTERED OUT OF SERVICE AT FORT SHERIDAN, ILLINOIS, AND GIVEN AN HONORABLE DISCHARGE AFTER THE WAR. THROUGH HIS ATTORNEY HE CONTENDED HIS ARMY RECORD ENTITLED HIM TO REMAIN HERE.

ASSISTANT U.S. ATTORNEY WILLIAM J. SEXTON ARGUED THAT HE WOULD NOT HAVE BEEN IN HIS PREDICAMENT IF HE HAD NOT LIED ORIGINALLY TO GET INTO THE ARMY.

LAKE SUCCESS, JUNE 8-(AP)-UNITED NATIONS OFFICIALS SAID TONIGHT THE IMMIGRATION ISSUE WAS THE ONE BIG OBSTACLE IN THE PALESTINE CEASEFIRE TERMS DISCLOSED BY COUNT FOLKE BERNADOTTE.

WHILE NO ONE WOULD ATTEMPT TO ANTICIPATE WHETHER THE JEWS AND ARABS WOULD ACCEPT THE TERMS LAID DOWN BY THE U.N. MEDIATOR IN CAIRO, IT WAS GENERALLY AGREED HERE THAT NEITHER OF THE WARRING PARTIES WOULD BE ENTIRELY HAPPY WITH THE TERMS.

THERE WAS NO OFFICIAL COMMENT HERE FROM EITHER JEWISH OR ARAB REPRESENTATIVES, PENDING RECEIPT OF WORD FROM THEIR PEOPLE AS TO THE FINAL DECISION.

UNITED NATIONS OFFICIALS CONFERRED THIS AFTERNOON ON ARRANGEMENTS FOR PUTTING THE TRUCE INTO FORCE IN THE EVENT BOTH SIDES ACCEPT BY THE 7 A.M. (EST) DEADLINE TOMORROW. THE ACTUAL HOUR FOR THE FIGHTING TO STOP HAS BEEN FIXED AT 1 A.M. (EST) FRIDAY.

INFORMED QUARTERS SAID THE GOVERNMENT OF ISRAEL PROBABLY WOULD PROTEST AGAINST BERNADOTTE'S PROPOSAL THAT THE MEDIATOR USE HIS OWN DISCRETION REGARDING ADMISSION OF JEWISH IMMIGRANTS OF MILITARY AGE TO ISRAEL DURING THE FOUR-WEEKS TRUCE PERIOD.

ISRAELI REPRESENTATIVES PREVIOUSLY HAD ARGUED HERE THAT THEY WOULD AGREE TO NO IMMIGRATION RESTRICTIONS. ON THE OTHER HAND, ARAB REPRESENTATIVES HAVE ARGUED THAT ALL JEWISH IMMIGRATION SHOULD BE STOPPED DURING THE ARMISTICE PERIOD.

SOME QUARTERS EXPRESSED FEARS THAT EITHER ONE OR THE OTHER PARTY MIGHT ACCEPT WITH RESERVATIONS. IN THIS EVENT, BERNADOTTE SAID, HE WOULD DROP HIS CONSULTATIONS WITH JEWISH AND ARAB LEADERS.

HE TOLD THEM THAT IF THEY REJECTED THE CEASE-FIRE OR ACCEPTED IT WITH CONDITIONS HE WOULD REFER THE ENTIRE MATTER BACK TO THE SECURITY COUNCIL.

"IT IS MY EARNEST HOPE," HE SAID, "THAT THE DECISION WILL BE ACCEPTED UNCONDITIONALLY."

THE TRUCE DETAILS WERE RELEASED HERE SHORTLY AFTER IT WAS ANNOUNCED IN WASHINGTON THAT 21 U.S. MILITARY OBSERVERS WOULD LEAVE IMMEDIATELY FOR THE HOLY LAND.

SOVIET DELEGATES APPEARED SURPRISED. THEY HAD NO IMMEDIATE COMMENT. UNOFFICIALLY, THEY MADE IT CLEAR THAT THE WHOLE QUESTION OF MILITARY OBSERVERS WOULD BE THRASHED OUT IN THE SECURITY COUNCIL, PERHAPS ON THURSDAY AT 1:30 P.M. (EST). RUSSIA WANTS TO SEND OBSERVERS ALSO.

FROM CAIRO, BERNADOTTE SENT A MESSAGE TO THE U.N. OUTLINING THESE CONDITIONS WHICH HE HAD GIVEN TO THE TWO WARRING GROUPS FOR OBSERVING THE ARMISTICE:

1. NO FIGHTING PERSONNEL, INCLUDING PERSONS IDENTIFIED AS BELONGING TO MILITARY ORGANIZATIONS AS WELL AS ALL PERSONS BEARING ARMS, SHALL BE INTRODUCED INTO ANY OF THE ARAB COUNTRIES OR INTO ANY PART OF PALESTINE.

2. AS REGARDS MEN OF MILITARY AGE, THE MEDIATOR SHALL EXERCISE HIS DISCRETION DURING THE TRUCE PERIOD TO DETERMINE WHETHER MEN OF MILITARY AGE ARE REPRESENTED AMONG IMMIGRANTS IN SUCH NUMBERS AS TO GIVE ONE SIDE A MILITARY ADVANTAGE AND IN SUCH EVENT SHALL REFUSE THEM ENTRY. THOSE OF MILITARY AGE WHO DO ENTER PALESTINE WILL BE KEPT IN CAMPS UNDER SUPERVISION OF U.N. OBSERVERS.

3. THE MEDIATOR WILL EXERCISE A CHECK ON ALL IMMIGRANTS AT THE PORTS OF EMBARKATION AND DEBARKATION AND SHALL PLACE U.N. OBSERVERS ON SHIPS BEARING IMMIGRANTS.

4. DURING THE FIRST WEEK OF THE TRUCE, THE MEDIATOR MAY BAN ALL IMMIGRANTS.

5. MOVEMENT OF TROOPS OR WAR MATERIALS FROM ONE COUNTRY TO ANOTHER OR CLOSE TO THE FIGHTING FRONTS IS PROHIBITED FOR THE FOUR-WEEK PERIOD.

6. ALL FIGHTING FRONTS AND LINES SHALL REMAIN STABILIZED DURING THE TRUCE PERIOD. THERE SHALL BE NO INCREASE IN FIGHTING STRENGTH OR IN WAR MATERIALS ON HAND BUT ROUTINE REPLACEMENT OF TROOPS MAY BE UNDERTAKEN.

7. WAR MATERIALS MUST NOT BE IMPORTED INTO THE COUNTRY OR TERRITORY OF ANY INTERESTED PARTY.

8. RELIEF TO POPULATIONS OF BOTH SIDES IN MUNICIPAL AREAS SUCH AS JERUSALEM AND JAFFA SHALL BE ADMINISTERED BY THE INTERNATIONAL RED CROSS.

A1 UN

9. ALL WARLIKE ACTS, WHETHER ON LAND, SEA OR AIR SHALL BE PROHIBITED DURING THE TRUCE.

THE SECURITY COUNCIL ON MAY 29 APPROVED A RESOLUTION ASKING IN JEWS

THE SECURITY COUNCIL ON MAY 29 APPROVED A RESOLUTION ASKING THE JEWS AND ARABS TO AGREE TO THE ARMISTICE. IF THIS 6TH MOVE FOR PEACE FAILS, SEVERAL COUNCIL DELEGATES ARE READY TO TAKE STRONGER STEPS.

THE COUNCIL ALSO DECIDED THE U.N. MEDIATOR AND ITS TRUCE COMMISSION SHOULD HAVE MILITARY OBSERVERS TO HELP SUPERVISE THE TRUCE. BUT THE COUNCIL LEFT UP IN THE AIR THE METHOD OF CHOOSING THESE OBSERVERS.

THE COMMISSION ALSO BEAT DOWN, 12 TO 4, ANOTHER RUSSIAN PROPOSAL WHICH THE SOVIET DELEGATE, A.P. PAVLOV, SAID WAS DIRECTED AGAINST INTERNATIONAL SPIES. ONLY THE SLAV NATIONS FAVORED IT.

THE COMMISSION THEN APPROVED, 13 TO 4, THE TEXT OF AN ARTICLE ON HUMAN RIGHTS DRAFTED BY THE U.N. CONFERENCES ON FREEDOM OF INFORMATION AT GENEVA IN APRIL. THE FOUR SLAV COUNTRIES VOTED AGAINST THE GENEVA ARTICLE.

LATER, PAVLOV TRIED AGAIN TO SQUASH THE GENEVA ARTICLE. HE SUGGESTED EVERYONE SHOULD HAVE THE RIGHT OF EXPRESSION AND FREEDOM OF ACCESS TO INFORMATION IN HIS OWN AND OTHER COUNTRIES "WITHIN THE BOUNDS THAT ARE COMPATIBLE WITH THE INTERESTS OF NATIONAL SECURITY."

PAVLOV SAID THE GENEVA ARTICLE GAVE GREAT LATITUDE TO INTERNATIONAL SPIES. HE SAID IT LOOKED AS IF IT WAS SPECIFICALLY WRITTEN FOR SPIES.

WITHOUT MUCH MORE DISCUSSION THE COMMISSION VOTED HIS PROPOSAL DOWN.

AS SLIGHTLY AMENDED, THE ARTICLE NOW READS:

PEACE TALKS DUE TO FOLLOW TRUCE IN HOLY LAND WAR

UN Mediator Selects Greek Island as Site for Jewish-Arab Talks.

MAX BOYD

FIGHTING CONTINUES

Four-Week Cease-Fire Armistice Scheduled to Start at 1 A.M. Friday.

CAIRO, June 9—(AP) Count Folke Bernadotte announced tonight a four-week armistice in Palestine will start at 1 a.m., Eastern Standard Time, Friday.

Bernadotte, the United Nations mediator, immediately asked military observers to supervise the cease fire and announced a peace conference to attempt to end permanently the bloodshed in the Holy Land.

Arabs and Jews accepted without condition the United Nations truce proposal, Bernadotte said.

Selects Greek Isle as Site

Bernadotte said he will call the peace conference as soon as possible on the neutral Mediterranean island of Rhodes, a Greek possession, to mediate the long-range issues involved in the Palestine war.

Trygve Lie, secretary-general of the United Nations, said at Lake Success that Bernadotte was seeking six coastal patrol vessels and 63 military officers to supervise compliance with the cease fire terms. The mediator will establish his headquarters on Rhodes, about 550 airline miles from Jerusalem.

Lie said that under present arrangements, the United States, France and Belgium will supply the ships and military observers. This apparently rules out, at least temporarily, a Russian request to supply its own military observers.

Trans-Jordan Issues Order

When Bernadotte announced that Arabs and Jews had accepted the cease fire terms, Trans-Jordan already had ordered its "commands and forces in the field to cease fire as from the hour and date fixed."

In announcing acceptance and the timetable of the truce to a news conference here, Bernadotte said:

"We have achieved only the first step. I assure you we are going to work with the same energy for the big result we hope to get—peace in Palestine."

The UN truce commission, composed of representatives of the United States, France and Belgium, will supervise immigration and other controls during the truce through the 63 military officers, Bernadotte said. Working with these officers and also in a supervisory capacity over them will be a group of Swedish colonels. They arrived in Cairo today to be Bernadotte's aides, the mediator said.

Bernadotte told newsmen he would fly from Cairo to Amman, Trans-Jordan, Friday and then would go to Jerusalem to be in the Holy City on the first day of the truce. Saturday he will fly to Rhodes.

He said he had selected Rhodes as his headquarters because it was the nearest, most suitable neutral spot for a peace conference.

Observers to Watch Ports

During the truce, Bernadotte said military observers will be stationed at all Palestine ports and airfields and all main roads will be watched. If immigrant men of military age arrive in small numbers, they will be placed in detention camps, the count said.

An Egyptian correspondent said the American and French governments had shown prejudice against the Arab countries, and asked whether their members of the control staff would not be prejudiced. "I will have my Swedish representatives supervising other services," Bernadotte replied.

Although both Jews and Arabs said they had accepted the truce unconditionally, Israel's foreign minister Moshe Shertok said he was asking certain technical modifications relating to immigration, war materials and the supply of Jerusalem.

Announcement of the cease-fire hour raised hopes that at last, after six tries, the United Nations would succeed in bringing at least a temporary peace to the Holy Land, torn by strife for two years and open Arab-Jew warfare since May 15.

It was widely recognized, however, that there could be many a slip before the truce hour, and even if an actual cease-fire goes into effect there may be many outbreaks which would endanger the armistice.

Even as the mediator's success in negotiating a truce agreement was announced, widely scattered fighting continued.

The Arab commander in old Jerusalem said his artillery shelled the fortress-like Jewish agency building, nerve center of Jerusalem Jewry, and scored 15 shell hits.

The Israeli command said Egyptian guns also shelled Western parts of the city from the South, and that Arab legion armored vehicles tried to break into Jewish portions in the Musrara quarter of the city.

An Iraqi communique said another battle lasting three hours was fought in the Jenin area of Central Palestine and another Jewish attack on the northern anchor of the Arab triangle was repulsed. The Iraqis said they had recaptured LajJun, 11 miles northwest of Jenin, throwing the Jews back practically at the starting point of their recent offensive from that direction.

BOTH ARMIES AGREEABLE TO PEACE FRIDAY

Bernadotte Refers Replies to Armistice Bid to Security Council

MAX BOYD

Cairo, June 9—(AP)—Arabs and Jews replied today to the United Nations mediator's proposal for a four-week truce in Palestine. A Trans-Jordan spokesman said all Arab states accepted unconditionally, and the President of Israel indicated the Jews would accept.

The Arabs replied well before the deadline set by the mediator. The Jewish reply, probably because of communications difficulties, arrived from Tel Aviv 50 minutes after the deadline.

Foreign Minister Fawzi Pasha Mulki of Trans-Jordan announced in Amman that all Arab states accepted unconditionally Count Folke Bernadotte's nine-point armistice plan, proposed to become effective at 1 A. M. Eastern Standard Time Friday. In Paris, Dr. Chaim Weizmann, President of Israel, told newsmen "we are, in general, disposed to accept a truce."

The Arab answer to the United Nations mediator's proposal was delivered to Bernadotte in Cairo (at 5:30 A. M., E. S. T.), 90 minutes before the deadline set for replies. The text of the reply was not disclosed here immediately.

Truce to Begin Friday

In Trans-Jordan, Fawzi Pasha said there would be no difficulty from the Arab side in beginning the truce Firday morning, as Bernadotte proposed.

Count Bernadotte declined to say whether the Zionist reply had been received in Cairo by the deadline. He said there would be no further news until early evening. This indicated he was allowing several hours for his advices to reach interested authorities and the U. N. at Lake Success before making any public statement.

Egyptian Premier Mahmoud Fahmy Nokrashy Pasha told reporters the Arab reply already has been sent to Arab delegations at Lake Success.

While the Israeli Cabinet met in Tel Aviv on the truce terms, Egyptian planes bombed the central business and residential sections of that city. A dispatch from Tel Aviv said it was feared casualties were heavy. This was the second straight day in which bombs were scattered through the center of town rather than on the outskirts, as in most previous attacks.

Bomb Radar Post

Jewish army headquarters said that during the night Israeli planes bombed Arab artillery positions at a former radar station near Kfar Biddu and Nebi Samwil, from which shells had been hurled at Jerusalem.

While the truce was being considered, fighting continued in the south on the coastal route to Tel Aviv, where the Jews have part of an Egyptian force encircled, and in the north at the Arab triangle of strength.

Bernadotte said last night he was convinced no further delays in a cease fire were warranted. He said that if his terms were rejected or accepted conditionally, he would refer the matter back to the Security Council.

Jefferson Patterson, U. S. charge d'affaires in Cairo, called on Bernadotte at Shepheards Hotel this morning. He told newsmen he advised the mediator that the American truce observers requested by Bernadotte were on their way and would arrive soon.

Terms Listed

Bernadotte listed his truce terms as:

1. No fighting personnel, including persons identified as belonging to military organizations or bearing arms, to be introduced into the Arab states or Palestine, during the truce.

2. The mediator to exercise his discretion to determine whether men of military age are among immigrants in such numbers as to give one side a military advantage, and in such event to refuse them entry or to keep the overflow in camps.

3. The mediator to keep a check on all immigration at ports of embarkation and debarkation and place U. N. observers on ships bearing immigrants.

4. The mediator may ban all immigrants during the first week of the truce.

5. Movement of troops or war materials from one Arab country to another or close to the fighting fronts to be prohibited for the four-week period.

6. All fighting fronts to be stabilized during the period, and no increase in fighting strength or in war materials to be permitted, but routine troops replacements may take place.

7. War materials not to be imported into the territory of any interested party.

8. Relief to be administered by the International Red Cross to the populations of both sides in such municipal areas as Jerusalem and Jaffa.

9. All war-like acts, on land sea and air to be prohibited during the truce.

Fighting Scattered

While the jockeying for a truce was going on scattered fighting was reported in various parts of the Holy Land.

Israeli leaders said their forces have entered the bitterly-contested Arab strong point of Jenin in Central Palestine and "found it deserted."

An Israel communique last night said the Egyptian spearhead of about 1,000 men below Tel Aviv had recaptured Miesanim (Nitsanim) three miles southwest of Isdud, in its fight to cut the Jewish encirclement.

A later dispatch said the Jews had repulsed an Egyptian attack on Beit Darras, three miles southeast of Isdud.

The Jews claim the tip of the Egyptian spearhead, pushing northward along the plain, is cut off from the main body.

A combined dispatch by correspondents with Jewish forces in Jerusalem said Jewish sectors in the Holy City were shelled yesterday for the 24th time. The Jews retaliated by lobbing mortar shells into Arab-occupied quarters.

Score of U.S. Ex-Officers Fighting in Israeli Army

TEL AVIV, June 9 (AP).—A score or more of former American captains and majors are known to be in active command positions in the Israel Army.

One American, who may have been a brigadier general in the United States Army, is reported in command of all or part of the Palestine southern front opposing an Egyptian force of 5,000. This officer is a general, but he may have received the rank here and held a lower American one.

A former officer of the 8th Air Force is commanding forces in another sector.

The greatest number of American officers are flyers serving with the Israeli Air Force. They have taken part in recently reported air combats over Tel Aviv and adjacent areas. Censorship has prevented use of their names and identification with any specific actions.

Associated Press correspondents have met several former American officers in the field serving with the infantry and headquarters command posts. It is not known whether all these Americans are Jews. At least a good part of them have not been here long enough to speak Hebrew.

Jewish Boy, 9, Finds Death in Palestine

Hit by Arab Fire, He Says 'I Am Going to Die'

JERUSALEM, June 8 (Delayed) (AP).—It had seemed incongruous in the first place to hear a little Jewish boy, about nine, whistling "Only Five Minutes More." He strolled along in tennis shoes, shorts and a blue blouse.

An Arab mortar salvo began. Five of the shells fell thirty yards away, and the little boy and this correspondent—the only persons on the street—lay flat alongside a high wall. The sixth one fell short and hit the street only ten yards away.

The little boy screamed once and became quiet. The writer sprinted to him, saw a pool of blood and asked: "Where are you hit?"

He answered calmly: "I am going to die."

There were flecks of blood in the froth which appeared on his lips. A Haganah staff car came down the street. We loaded the little boy into it. He didn't cry.

At the hospital, the nurses and doctors worked on him but soon stopped. He was dead.

EUROPEAN YOUTHS ANXIOUS TO JOIN U.S. ALIEN LEGION

LONDON, June 9 — (AP) European youths flooded American embassies and consulates today with queries about joining a projected United States "alien legion."

Reports that the U. S. Senate had approved a provision to permit 25,000 aliens to serve in the American armed forces in the U. S. and abroad, brought inquiries by the hundreds.

Under the present Senate plan, passed earlier today as a provision in the selective service bill, such members of the armed forces would qualify for U. S. citizenship at the end of five years.

In Britain young displaced Poles in resettlement camps were eager to join the American army, and on the European continent many inquiries were received from Czechs who have left their country since the Communists took control.

Consular and diplomatic officials could give little solid assurance to youths who want to join up right now. Many could not understand that the House of Representatives and the President must approve the measure before it becomes law.

A young Pole in London offered to serve in the "Senate Army" if the House of Representatives doesn't want one.

The U. S. embassy here reported a constant stream of applicants.

In Copenhagen youths crowded up to the embassy and many queried by telephone.

In Rome the American embassy issued a statement telling young Italians it was useless to try to get into the army now.

The Army recruiting office in Frankfurt has been receiving applications from many Germans.

In Paris, the U. S. military attache's office received about 200 inquiries today.

Several Belgians applied to the U. S. embassy in Brussels to join the American army.

Evacuation Of British In July Is Predicted

London, June 9 (AP)—A high Government source said today Britain's evacuation of Palestine possibly will be completed by the end of June or in early July.

He said only 5,000 or 6,000 troops remain in Haifa, north Palestine seaport and Britain's chief remaining toehold in the Holy Land.

The evacuation deadline announced when Britain gave up her Palestine Mandadte was August 7.

The source said that apart from those due for home leave or discharge most of the troops will be sent to stations at Britain's Middle East garrisons.

ISRAEL TO SEEK TIES WITH WEST, WEIZMANN SAYS

PARIS, June 9—(AP) President Chaim Weizmann said today his new state of Israel will seek close ties with western nations.

He said at a news conference that he meant this to include England. But he did not mention Russia.

The new 74-year-old president said "the future of Israel depends on good relations with the western states."

He parried questions which seemed aimed at getting him to mention Israel's relations with Russia.

Asked if he excluded non-western states, he replied:

"Not at all. I attach importance, for instance, on good relations with India."

When questioning narrowed down to eastern Europe, Weizmann said he looks forward to collaboration "to be established shortly with Poland and Czechoslovakia, for instance."

He expresesd confidence that Israel would establish relations with the Vatican closely.

He predicted Britain would recognize Israel "within a month or two at the outside. But not right away."

He said Israel can absorb all Zionist immigration expected for the next decade. He estimated these at between a million and a million and a quarter persons.

REPARATIONS O.K. EXPECTED

U.S. Held Likely To Agree To Allocations To Russia

London, June 9 (AP)—Official British sources said today they expect the United States to agree soon to give Russia the rest of the reparations from western Germany due under the Potsdam agreement.

Russia has not been allocated any dismantled industrial plants from any of the three zones of western Germany since mid-1946.

Allotments were handled by a subsidiary of the Allied Control Council in Berlin, and the United States vetoed every Russian effort to get more German plants.

The United States also stopped delivery of previously allocated equipment, although Britain and France went on handing over plants which had been earmarked for Russia earlier.

Should Be Carried Out

An authoritative British source said that since the four-power Control Council in Berlin ceased functioning "one of our problems is to find a way of providing for the Soviet share of capital equipment from the western zones to which Russia is entitled under the Potsdam agreement" of 1945.

This official, who refused to be quoted by name, said Britain and France felt the Potsdam reparations agreement should be carried out, if only for the reason of sticking to the Western pledge so that Russia could not accuse them of breaking the agreement.

Could Speed Deliveries

Under Potsdam, Russia was to get 25 per cent of the reparations taken out of western Germany. Ten per cent was to be allotted free, the rest on an equal exchange basis for Russian deliveries of food and other similar items from its zone of Germany.

Under any plan for revival of reparations for Russia, diplomatic observers said they believed reparations deliveries from Germany to Western nations could be speeded up. These reparations are divided up by the Inter-Allied Reparations Agency in Brussels.

Observers said a speed-up in reparations deliveries to France might soften French internal opposition to some of the terms of the six-power accord on the future of Germany announced here this week.

4-Power Accord Hoped For

Ernest Bevin, British Foreign Secretary, told Parliament today he still hoped to get Russian agreement on a four-power settlement of Germany's future.

He detailed to the House of Commons the Western power agreement announced Monday. This agreement, made by the United States, Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg, called for setting up a federated west German state with international control of the heavily industrialized Ruhr and for Allied occupation of the Reich's western areas "until peace is secured" in Europe.

NEW 'WARMONGER' CHARGE IS LODGED

Russian Protest To U.S. Based On Magazine Article

London, Thursday, June 10 (AP)—The Moscow radio said today Russia has protested to the American Government that "unbridled propaganda for a new war is being carried on in the United States."

The broadcast said the Soviets had complained to the Netherlands as well the United States that American and Dutch publications were talking up a new war.

A note delivered yesterday by the Soviet Embassy in Washington accused the United States of violating a United Nations resolution condemning warmongering, the radio said. It added that a copy of the note was sent to Trygve Lie, secretary general of the United Nations.

Points To Magazine Article

The broadcast quoted the note as saying:

"Despite the resolution of the second session of the United Nations General Assembly on 'measures to be adopted against war propaganda and warmongers,' adopted unanimously by states which are members of the United Nations, unbridled propaganda for new war is being carried on in the United States."

The note charged that the American magazine Newsweek published in May an article "which contains slanderous inventions directed against the Soviet Union and depicting the Soviet Union as an aggressor allegedly preparing to attack the United States."

The radio quoted the note as saying "this article also expounds a plan for utilization of American air force, airbases and atom bombs against the Soviet Union, in particular for the destruction of such Soviet towns as Moscow, Leningrad, Kiev, Kharkov and Odessa."

Complained To MacArthur

Last week, Maj. Gen. A. P. Kislenko, acting Soviet member of the Allied Council for Japan, wrote Gen. Douglas MacArthur that "insolent slander" had appeared in publications there about his country.

Kislenko cited an article, "White War Versus Red," in the May 17 Pacific edition of Newsweek magazine. Newsweek said in New York the article "simply reported the military thinking at the time in both Washington and Moscow."

A Newsweek statement said "the whole article was written around the fact that, in any nation, the military must always be prepared for any contingency. Thus, the key sentence of the article, not mentioned by Kislenko, and placed near the beginning of the article, reads:

"'. . . Even the Army and Navy long ago agreed that, if the Russians suddenly went berserk and swept into western Europe, the Air Force would have to bear the brunt of the war for the first months at least . . .'

"The story then described how the United States Air Force would probably operate and how the Russians would operate."

Today's Russian complaints accused Newsweek and the Dutch Labor party organ Het Vrije Volk of "slanderous inventions, alleging Soviet plans against the security of other countries and discussing military actions against the Russians."

Steel Nationalization Next On British Plan

London, June 9 (AP)—A high Government source said today a measure nationalizing the steel industry would be offered in the House of Commons before January 1.

Privately, Government officials concede they face their toughest nationalization fight when they take up steel. Previously the coal industry, transportation, communications and the Bank of England have been brought under public ownership.

DE GAULLE ASSAILS GERMAN PROPOSAL

Attack Made As French Assembly Group Votes Support

LOUIS NEVIN

Paris, June 9 (AP)—Gen. Charles de Gaulle today made a blistering attack on the six-power London agreement to establish a separate western German government.

He said it would prepare "the way for Russian domination of all Germany."

De Gaulle issued a statement soon after the Foreign Affairs Committee of the French National Assembly approved the London accord. Committee approval was in a close 22-21 vote, and given with reservations. The French Cabinet approved it yesterday, and it is scheduled for parliamentary consideration Friday.

Predicts Rival Germanys

De Gaulle, leader of the rightist French People's party, said the London agreement would create two rival Germanys: One with Frankfurt as its capital, the other, Berlin.

"It is easy to see which of these two German camps would be strong enough within and forcefully enough supported from abroad to win the struggle," he declared.

Despite the weight of de Gaulle's prestige, thrown full force against the agreement, many political observers saw in the foreign committee vote a forecast of parliamentary approval of the accord. All political parties in the committee are represented in proportion to their strength in the Assembly.

Approval Conditional

A principal reservation written in by the committee gave approval on condition a powerful, centralized German Reich would not be created. The committee said it favored a federalized regime for Germany.

De Gaulle referred to the agreement as the "London communiqué" and said: "This document, which results from a fairly unusual procedure and suddenly appears from the shadows in which it was elaborated, places France in the position of having to agree unexpectedly without any valid compensation, to dispositions which carry the gravest of risks for her, for Europe and for peace."

De Gaulle had no kind words for either the United States or Britain, who, with France and the Benelux countries of Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg, reached the agreement.

Rebuilding Reich Charged

"The United States, protected by oceans, disposing of immense power, might be inclined to accept this summary solution which consists in rebuilding the Reich immediately after having destroyed it so as to transmit to it a large part of responsibility for Europe," de Gaulle continued.

"England, whose island position has, up to the present, always spared her invasion, might in accordance with her traditions desire the resurrection of the Reich so that in the grouping of western European states France and Germany might counterbalance each other with British arbitration.

"Given the present terrible strength that Soviet Russia has in Europe those would be grave errors which, however, would have certain compensations for the Anglo-Saxons and would not risk endangering English or American independence.

"For us, France, it is not the same. We are on the edge of a precipice."

Calls For Separate States

He repeated his contention that Germany should be divided into the separate and historic states which might be permitted to federalize loosely within a western European confederation.

He also strongly attacked the French Government in his statement and concluded he was ready to take the Government over as soon as the constitution was reformed to give him sufficient power.

Political observers felt the parliamentary battle over the agreement might be a knock-down-and-drag-out affair.

Although it was announced yesterday the Cabinet had given the plan unanimous approval, a Cabinet communiqué said merely it had approved submitting the accord to the General Assembly.

Paper Cites Reservations

The Socialist party organ Le Populaire said Premier Robert Schuman and Henri Teitgen, Defense Minister, had made reservations in giving their approval. Both are members of Foreign Minister Georges Bidault's Popular Republican party. Le Populaire said some Socialist ministers also had made reservations.

Conciliatory moves were slated to be offered to opposition forces during a meeting of political leaders tonight, however.

The first public reaction to come out of Russia on the London agreement was heard over the Moscow radio today. A commentator named Yermashev declared establishment of a western German state "means that western Germany is being converted into a permanent Anglo-American military base." He asserted that "the French Government is threatened with defeat in Parliament."

Ernest Bevin, British Foreign Secretary, announced Britain approves the accord.

FISTS SWING AGAIN IN ITALIAN CHAMBER

ROME, June 9 — (AP) For the second time in as many days Italy's lawmakers gave up debate today and swung their fists.

Communist Fausto Gullo was making a speech about land reforms proposed by the Christian Democrats when it started. He hinted broadly that he believed the Christian Democrats had no real reform intentions.

Umberto Tomba, a newly elected Christian Democrat, couldn't take it and shouted his opinions of the Communists.

About a hundred Communists leaped out of their seats and were met by an array of Christian Democrats protecting Tomba.

The fighting got so hot Speaker Giovanni Gronchi suspended the Chamber of Deputies session for an hour. Later he said both Tomba and the Communists had apologized.

CURRENCY REFORM IS SEEN IMMINENT IN WEST GERMANY

FANKEFURT, Germany, June 9 (AP)—Western Germany is gripped by widespread rumors—unconfirmed—that currency reform is imminent.

Whether true or not, the rumors are causing a creeping paralysis in Western Germany's internal economy.

Shopkeepers are reluctant to sell today for almost valueless marks when they think they can get solid money tomorrow—or sometime soon. Such items as toothpaste and razor blades became plentiful enough some months ago to be taken off the ration list. A German trying to buy them today is told with a regretful shrug: "Sorry, we have none."

The customer, and lots of other people, suspect stores are hoarding their stocks for a better day. A German who wanted to buy a pair of shoes was told frankly: "Come back after currency reform."

Every piece of information concerning finances is seized upon by Germans anxious to know what is going to become of their money.

A bank advertisement advised small savers to "put your money in the bank now." This was taken as a hint that reform was imminent and that Germans might get a better exchange for money in the bank than for money in their pockets.

The currency reform rumors became prevalent about a month ago. They have snowballed in intensity since the six-power conference in London announced agreement on Western Germany's future. Germans cannot conceive of any future without a new kind of money to replace the present marks. They believe that nothing now stands in the way of making the change and that it can be expected any time.

Allied and German officials are carefully hiding the date of any reform in the hope that business will proceed more or less normally until the new money is suddenly instituted. German officials, when asked for information, say: "Ask the Americans." The Americans won't talk.

REDS SPURN ORDER OF BRITISH TO QUIT BERLIN BUILDING

BERLIN, June 9—(AP) The Russians told British authorities today they refuse to budge from the Berlin radio station in the British sector. They threatened "undesirable consequences" if measures were taken against Soviet employes in the station.

The British asked the Russians to move this week, saying they wanted to occupy and use the station themselves. The Russians have occupied the station since they first entered the city in 1945. The station is the most powerful in Germany and a propaganda weapon for the Russians.

Lieut. Gen. M. I. Dratvin, Soviet deputy military governor, said in a letter to Maj. Gen. V. J. E. Westropp, British deputy chief of staff: "the Soviet command declines your proposition."

A British spokesman said the Soviet answer could not be considered satisfactory but declined to say what steps would be taken. He said it was undecided whether a reply would be made.

The British had stated that they wanted to destroy an air radio shelter on the station's premises in accordance with demilitarization agreements.

Gen. Dratvin said the Soviet command "would welcome the readiness of the British authorities to implement joint decisions in the demilitarization of Germany and particularly in the destruction of such fortifications as the air raid shelter in the tiergarten."

The tiergarten bunker is a sore point with the British.

B-29's Land In Germany

Frankfurt, Germany, June 9 (AP). A squadron of United States B-29 Superfortresses landed at Fuerstenfeldbruck today after a routine flight from the United States. Air Force Headquarters at Wiesbaden said the planes, based at Salina, Kan., would be stationed in Germany temporarily for further training.

Gottwald Chosen

A. GOLDBERG

Prague, Czechoslovakia, June 9 (AP)—The National Coalition Front designated Premier Klement Gottwald tonight as the next President of Czechoslovakia. Deputy Premier Antonin Zapotocky was designated the next Premier.

The Communist Premier now needs only formal ratification by Parliament next Monday to become successor to Eduard Benes. Zapotocky also needs parliamentary approval.

Benes resigned Monday rather than sign the Communist-drafted constitution which became the law of the land today.

Composed Of Leftists

The National Front Coalition is composed of Communists and other parties whose leaders have been handpicked and whose ranks have been purged by the ruling Communists and action committees.

The Communist party's executive committee asked the front today to consider only Gottwald for the presidency and only Zapotocky for the premiership. The Prague radio said tonight the front complied.

The reshuffled Government which Zapotocky will head may be even farther to the Left than the one headed by Gottwald, informed sources said.

Nosek Reported In Disfavor

Even Vaclav Nosek, the Communist Minister of the Interior whose security police furnished the guns and bayonets for the bloodless February revolution, was reported headed for the discard for reasons not readily apparent.

His successor may be Alexej Cepicka, now Minister of Justice. He is 38 and a veteran of the Communist underground.

In proposing Gottwald for President to the National Front, Vaclav Kopecky, Minister of Information, declared the Premier had "become the symbol of the united Czechoslovak nation."

Gottwald responded that "we are starting a new page in our history."

Russian Aid-to-Europe Plan Is Announced in Moscow

Izvestia Says Soviet Is Out to Surpass U. S. in Production—Assails American Help as Trick to Enslave World.

Moscow, June 9 (A. P.).—Russia is ready to increase her economic aid to nations that have friendly relations with her, the Moscow press announced today. Izvestia, the Government newspaper, and Pravda, the Communist party organ, made the announcement in editorials hailing as a far-reaching diplomatic move Moscow's reduction (by 50 per cent) of the reparations still due from Finland, Romania and Hungary.

At the same time Izvestia denounced American aid as a mask for the economic subjugation of Europe. Moreover, Izvestia said, Russia now is out to catch up with the United States in per capita production, and thus hopes to surpass America because of her larger population.

"The immense results in economic reconstruction attained by the Soviet Union in the postwar years have permitted the U. S. S. R. to bring a new approach to the question of reparation payments which, according to the peace treaties, such nations as Hungary, Romania and Finland must pay," Izvestia said. "Successes in the fulfillment of the Five-Year Plan after the war have made the Soviet Union, economically, incomparably more powerful than it was three or four years ago, when the armistice and reparations agreements were concluded with Romania, Hungary and Finland."

The reduction of reparations, Izvestia said, is an important manifestation of Russia's readiness to contribute to the economic rehabilitation and development of friendly countries.

"It also illustrates those great post-war changes which took place in the countries that during the war fought side by side with Germany and those radical changes toward friendship and co-operation which occurred in the relations between these countries and the Soviet Union. . . . The radical changes in the domestic and foreign policy of Hungary and Romania, as well as Finland, have enabled the Soviet Union to reconsider their reparations obligations. . . . "Izvestia continued.

"This act will undoubtedly contribute to the further promotion of friendly relations between the Soviet Union and the small European countries which, since the war, have taken the path of independent democratic Government.

(Independent democratic Government is the usual Russian term for Communism.)

"It is common knowledge that in the post-war world there are plenty of instances when big and economically stronger states seek to utilize European countries economically weakened by the war and to impose on the latter their own policy in order to subordinate the smaller countries to the selfish, narrow interests of the bigger ones," Izvestia declared. "It is also known that these big states are not at all averse to using for these purposes economic 'aid' which, when put to the test, proves to be a camouflaged plan for subjecting independent nations to their economic and political influence. It is known also that this aid is aimed primarily at forming military-political blocs, at kindling hatred among nations.

"In contrast to this 'aid,' the economic aid rendered by the Soviet Union contributes to the strengthening of the national independence of the small states, to establishing democratic international co-operation, and consequently is a valuable contribution to the consolidation of universal peace and the security of the nations. In this light it becomes perfectly clear that the friendly act of the Soviet Union in regard to the small European countries deals another blow to the warmongers and therefore meets with a favorable reaction on the part of all those who are interested in the establishment of a durable, democratic peace."

RED PRESS HINTS FURTHER SLASHES IN REPARATIONS

MOSCOW, June 9—(AP) The Soviet press explained today that Russia's sharp cuts in reparations due from Finland, Hungary and Romania were part of a program of economic help to "friendly nations" and hinted more aid might be forthcoming.

Izvestia and Pravda said a "tremendous rise in (Soviet) national economy made such reductions possible."

Izvestia, the government newspaper, added: "At the present time the Soviet Union has the possibility of strengthening its economic help to those nations which conduct friendly relations with it."

Izvestia explained that the revision in reparations was due to "those radical changes toward friendship and cooperation" with Russia in the three countries.

These reparations cuts were announced this week and last:

Fifty-five per cent in the $110,000,000 estimated still to be due from Romania's original $300,000,000 debt.

Fifty per cent in the $140,000,000 due from Finland's original assessment of $300,000,000.

Fifty per cent of the unpaid balance of a $200,000,000 claim against Hungary. It is not known how much Hungary already has paid Russia.

Italy, one of the former partners of the Germans in the war now taking part in the Marshall plan, was omitted when Soviet reductions were announced. The peace treaties assigned Bulgarian reparations to Russia.

FOOD CRISIS FORCES TURK CABINET OUT

Saka's Group Resigns But Inonu Names Him to Form New Regime

Ankara, Turkey, June 9—(AP)—The government of Premier Hasan Saka collapsed today under harsh fire from critics of its domestic economis policies.

Foreign policy played no part in the disputes which led up to the Saka cabinet's unexpected resignation early this morning. Turkey is receiving American aid under the Truman doctrine intended to protect Greece and Turkey from Communist pressure.

President Ismet Inonu accepted the cabinet resignation, but immediately asked Saka to form a new government. Informed political sources said the new cabinet probably would have new ministers of economics, labor, commerce and perhaps of agriculture. Necmeddin Sadak is expected to continue as foreign minister.

Set Up Aid Program

Saka has been premier since last September, when the cabinet of Premier Recep Peker fell in a similar dispute. Saka had been foreign minister in the Peker government and as such helped set up the arrangements for the $100,000,000 American aid program.

Shortages of staple foodstuffs, charges of irregularities in the export of grains and the failure of the government to adjust the weak economic structure of the nation combined to force today's cabinet upheaval.

One of the loudest complaints, and the most frequently heard, concerned the wheat shortage. Normally, Turkey produces more wheat than she consumes, but recently she has been importing grain to meet consumer demands.

In the Grand National Assembly last week a formal report blamed this situation on excessive export permits granted by Atif Inan, the commerce minister under Peker.

This report said Saka's defense minister, Munir Birsel, had an interest in an export firm which was permitted to ship large quantities of grain abroad. Birsel resigned a short time later.

Political observers said the criticism became the most severe ever aimed at Turkish cabinet from within its own party—in this case Saka's Republican People's party. Much of the criticism came from right wingers who were tossed aside in formation of the cabinet last September.

Hyderabad To Vote On Union With India

New Delhi, India, June 9 (AP)—A spokesman for the Hyderabad Government said tonight the independent state will hold a plebiscite to decide whether to enter the Dominion of India.

The spokesman said Hyderabad had refused to accept an Indian request for "unconditional accession."

Hyderabad is the richest and largest of the Indian states, having a population of 16,500,000.

V. P. Menon, Indian Secretary of the Ministry of States, said it would take at least a year to prepare such a plebiscite in Hyderabad in which about 7,000,000 persons would vote. No date has been decided.

Indonesia Bid Held Over

OOTACAMUND, Madras, India, June 9 (AP).—Consideration of the Indoneasian Republic's application for associated membership in the United Nations Economic Commission for Asia and the Far East was postponed today until the organization's next session. The vote on the Philippines' motion to postpone was six to five, with China and Siam abstaining. The United States, the Netherlands, the United Kingdom, New Zealand and France voted with the Philippines. India, Pakistan, Australia, Russia and Burma voted against postponement.

Anglo-U. S. Naval Exercises

American and British Ships to Hold Maneuvers Off Japan

HONG KONG, June 9 (AP).—A naval spokesman said today British warships will engage in practical exercises with United States Navy units on a visit to Japan in July. The cruisers London and Sussex and the destroyers Cossack, Constance, Consort and Comet will sail for Japan July 21.

British Pacific Fleet headquarters are to be transferred from Hong Kong to Singapore in the near future. Known before the war as the China Station, Royal Navy headquarters have been in Hong Kong for more than 100 years.

Cheap Jap Goods Flooding Manila While Trade Resumption Is Debated

Manila, June 9—(AP)—Manila finds itself with a growing amount of cheap goods made in occupied Japan while the government debates resumption of trade with Nippon.

Japanese commodities are coming into the Philippines through regular trade channels as imports from countries doing business with Japan.

The Government and people as a whole, however, oppose signing a trade treaty with the islands' deposed rulers. This attitude brings about the present paradox. Newspaper columnist T. F. Valencia wrote today:

"While we are yelling our heads off against resumption of trade with Japan, our sidewalks and bazaars are blooming with unmarked toys and cheap imported commodities, the origin of which is unmistakable.

30.24- 18381

"They're cheap, so housewives will buy them. We have no patriotism when money is involved. That's why we still stay a nation of economic slaves."

General MacArthur's headquarters has offices here bulging with samples of Japanese goods and price schedules. There are electric fans for $2.25. American fans sell for $25. Sewing machines listed for $50 are less than half the American price.

The trade office, headed by Major Robert J. O'Hara, also offers cheap clocks, cameras, bicycle parts, glass bricks, construction materials and a variety of textiles. All are attractively low priced, along with being clearly stamped "Made in Occupied Japan."

O'Hara is unperturbed by the anti-Japanese feeling here. He said it wasn't his function to point out to Filipino businessmen that "they are missing a good thing. When they are interested," he said, "I am here to help them arrange their transactions."

Meanwhile, Sen. Tomas Confesor, outspoken member of the minority Nationalist party, proposed that President Quirino send a special mission—with diplomatic rank—to Japan to study economic and social conditions.

Confesor said the Philippines were the only Allied nation with a stake in Japan which does not maintain a diplomatic mission in the occupied country.

Guard Cyprus Hunger Strikers

NICOSIA, Cyprus, June 9 (AP).—British planes and light tanks kept watch today on Jewish internment camps where inmates are on hunger strikes. About 24,000 Jews are held in Cyprus. They were taken there after trying to enter Palestine without visas during the British mandate. The British have ruled that Jews of military age will not be allowed to go to Israel while truce negotiations are in effect. The strike resulted.

Mexican Anti-Red Party

Sinarquists Legalized as Political Group Called Popular Force

MEXICO CITY, June 9 (AP).—Mexico's militantly anti-Communist National Sinarquist Union is the country's newest legal political party. Its name is the Popular Force (Fuerza Popular) party.

The Department of Interior announced last night that the semi-military, pro-Catholic movement had complied with all constitutional requirements to become a political party.

The new party, dedicated to "a Christian social order," claims a membership of 500,000. The Interior Department said it had proved membership in twenty-two states of more than 30,000 members. Organized in 1937, Sinarquista strength blossomed among the deeply religious peasants of northwest Mexico.

DEPORTATION ORDERED

Toronto, June 9 (A. P.).—Rudy Hanson, United States-born representative of the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers (C.I.O.-C.C.L.) was ordered deported to the United States by an immigration board today.

Two other members of the same union have been deported recently in a move by the Federal Government to rid the country of aliens accused of Communist sympathies. The others were Reid Robinson, Eastern vice-president of the union, and George Knott, a union official.

Hanson, arrested in Sudbury last night, was given until July 12 to clear up his family affairs in Canada. He was released on $500 cash bail. He said he would nto appeal the decision.

PROPOSAL TO MAKE TRUMAN SET DATE ALSO IS DEFEATED

Move Would Have Made President Responsible for Start of Conscription.

VOTE PROMISED TODAY

Lawmakers Agree to Debate Issue 3 More Hours, Then Make Final Decision.

WASHINGTON, June 10—(Thursday)—(AP) The Senate adjourned at 12:29 a.m. E.D.T. today (11:29 p.m. E.S.T.) with a promise to vote yes or no later today on a bill to draft men 19 through 25.

It was agreed to convene at 11 a.m. E.S.T. and definitely vote on the measure and all its amendments at 2 p.m., leaving only three hours more for debate.

Leaders had predicted such a vote last night, but debate on a flurry of amendments continued well beyond midnight and delayed final action.

During the long day and night sessions yesterday, the Senate disposed of five amendments. It approved one—to liberalize the court martial system of the army and air force—and rejected four.

Rejects UMT Proposal

It rejected four amendments to:

1. Set up a system whereby draftees would be segregated by races if they desired it.

2. Establish a universal military training system.

3. A proposal by Senator Capehart (R.-Ind.) to delay the draft by 90 days and then make it effective only if President Truman proclaimed that volunteer methods had failed.

4. An amendment by Senator Morse (R.-Ore.) that would have slashed to 18 months the two-year period a draftee must serve if inducted. Morse's proposal was defeated by a voice vote.

Favored by Taft

The Capehart plan was defeated by a vote of 57 to 24. Senator Taft (R.-Ohio) and acting Majority Leader Wherry of Nebraska favored it. Senator Tydings (D.-Md.) opposed it, saying Congress should set the draft date. Senator Myers (D.-Pa.) agreed, saying senators should have the "intestinal fortitude" to ask for a draft.

Among other things, the court martial amendments would let enlisted men sit on the courts. It also aims to make such courts independent of a commanding officer's influence.

The segregation amendment, offered by southerners, lost on a voice vote after heated debate.

Universal Military training, which has been sought in vain by the administration, is different from the draft. Under the draft, men are inducted into the armed forces. UMT is a separate system of training for youths. They would not be in the armed forces, but the idea would give them fundamental training so they would be at least partly prepared if the need arose.

Today's UMT amendments was offered by Senator Malone (R-Nev) It would have required youths of 19 to serve six months in a training corps.

Termed 'Excellent Date'

Senator Gurney (R-SD), chairman of the Senate Armed Forces committee, said it was an excellent idea but "at this late hour" there wasn't much chance of dovetailing it properly into the draft bill.

Senator Baldwin (R-Conn) said the amendment, defeated by a voice vote, would not pass the House anyway. The House Armed Services committee approved a separate UMT bill last Summer, but it has been bottled up in the Rules committee. The draft bill pending in the House does not mention UMT.

Senator McCarthy (R-Wis) opposed the plan. He said:

"You can't build up an army by training a great mass of young men to be good squirrel hunters," he said.

The amendment to overhaul the court martial system was introduced by Senator Kem (R-Mo) and was approved 44 to 39. Kem said the change was needed because military justice has been bitterly criticized.

And, he added, "if Congress has time to pass legislation to take young men from their homes, it certainly has time to see that they get a square deal."

The Kem amendment would make certain punishments less severe, would permit enlisted men to sit as members of a court martial, permit the accused to have counsel at pretrial investigations, and establish a separate judge advocate general's corps.

objection" to the changes except for the provision setting up a separate judge advocate general corps. But Kem said this was "the nub of the plan" to overcome "dangers of command influence."

Chairman Gurney (R-SD) of the Armed Services committee opposed the plan. He said the navy should be included, and the Senate should wait until an overall study has been made and a uniform code adopted for all services.

Segregation Plan Defeated

A voice vote killed the proposal by Senator Russell (D-Ga.) and Maybank (D-SC) to allow enlisted men to serve in separate white or negro units if they wished.

The action was a setback for southern senators in their long fight on the civil rights issue. Earlier this week, however, they won a round when the Senate batted down or sidetracked amendments they opposed.

Although the debate was bitter, no senator demanded a roll call. The amendment was rejected by a chorus of "noes."

AID SLASH STIRS CONGRESS FIGHT

Vandenberg Urges Senate Restoration of Funds 'for Sake of Free Men.'

WASHINGTON, June 9—(AP) A fight over foreign aid spending waxed hot in and out of Congress today. It divided Republican leaders sharply as the party's national convention neared.

Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich) denounced cuts voted by the GOP-dominated House in funds for the European Recovery Program. He said they were a "cynical" attempt to reverse Congress' own policy and cut the recovery program—with a "meat axe" technique.

Vandenberg is a leading "dark horse" possibility for the GOP presidential nomination although he says he doesn't want it. Two avowed candidates, Gov. Earl Warren of California and Harold E. Stassen, quickly lined up with Vandenberg on the Foreign Aid issue.

Stassen to Testify

Stassen asked and got permission to testify tomorrow (9 a. m., EST) before the Senate Appropriations committee.

That committee heard Vandenberg plead today for restoration of the House-approved aid cuts "for the sake of the hopes by which free men live." The Foreign Relations committee chairman said the full assistance program might forestall "the war we do not want."

Warren telegraphed Vandenberg "more power to you."

New York's Governor Thomas E. Dewey, a third top contender for the GOP presidential nomination, came out on Vandenberg's side earlier in the week.

But Rep. Taber (R-NY) announced he would fight to the last against all attempts to raise foreign spending above the figure recommended by the House Appropriations committee, which he heads, and later voted by the House.

Taft Remains Silent

Senator Taft (R-Ohio) said nothing. Like Dewey, Stassen and Warren, he is seeking the presidential nomination.

The foreign aid fight stems from the House's cutting U. S. Foreign Aid spending from $6.533,000,000 to $5 980,000,000 and ruling that the money must last 15 months instead of the planned 12.

"I respectfully submit that any such action is calculated to change the character of ECA from 'recovery' to 'relief' alone—thus plunging us back into the dreary, hopeless, sterile and utterly costly routines from which we must escape," said Vandenberg.

ECA is the European Cooperation Administration set up to run the Marshall Plan." ECA Administrator Paul G. Hoffman and Secretary of State Marshall are to testify before the Appropriations commitee Friday.

Reich Plan Accepted Here

Marshall Announces U. S. Approval—Bevin Hopes for Accord With Soviet.

Washington, June 9 (A. P.).—Secretary of State Marshall announced today American acceptance of the London conference proposals for western Germany, calling the plan a major step toward the solution of the problems of Germany.

The United States believes the "London program will stand the test of experience" and will contribute substantially to economic recovery and political stability on the Continent, he declared.

Although Marshall announced American acceptance, some members of Congress questioned whether such a step can be taken without congressional approval.

Marshall sought in his news conference remarks to reassure the French. He said in reply to questions that the United States approves and accepts the London decisions precisely because they do provide sufficient guaranties against a military resurgence of Germany. The German problem, Marshall said, involves a careful balance between the needs of European reconstruction and the dangers of restoring her military power by rebuilding some of Germany's basic industries. He thought that the London conference had found such a balance, he said, but the feeling of the French people is very understandable because they have suffered terribly as a result of German military action.

Blames Soviet Russia.

Marshall blamed the need for independent action by the Western Powers upon the Soviet Union. He said those Powers had tried without success to obtain acceptance of just and fair principles for the unification of all Germany.

He then emphasized that the agreements, mainly that on international control of the Ruhr, would allow Germany to contribute to European recovery.

Marshall also said:

He does not know of any impending developments which would reinstate normal reparations deliveries from the western zones of Germany to the Soviet Union. Negotiations have been under way for a considerable time without decisions.

His acceptance of the London decisions assumes that they do not need congressional approval. He said he hadn't consulted any lawyers on that point.

He could not say specifically what strategic areas of Germany will continue in occupation after the initial stage of complete German occupation ends some time in the indefinite future.

Eugene Meyer Heads Polk Death Probe Fund

Washington, June 9 (AP)—Eugene Meyer, board chairman of the Washington Post, today accepted chairmanship of a finance committee to provide funds for an inquiry into the slaying of George Polk.

Polk, and American news correspondent, was found slain in Greece under mysterious circumstances.

HOUSE URGED TO SUPPORT END OF IRISH SPLIT

Plea Signed by 300,000 Sent to President and Congress Leaders

Washington, June 9—(AP)—Representative Lynch (D-N.Y.) today urged the House to back the plea of Irish-Americans that England be called upon to end the partition of Ireland.

The Emerald Isle, Lynch explained in a prepared speech, was partitioned by Great Britain after World War One. The action placed six of the nine counties of the province of Ulster under British domination and control.

Spokesmen from New York and Philadelphia for the American League for an Undivided Ireland, prior to the delivery of Lynch's speech, presented to Speaker Martin (R-Mass.) a petition urging that the Congress and the President make "representations to England such as will bring about the end of the partition."

The petition, Lynch said, was signed by 300,000 Americans of Irish descent. He added it could well have borne the signatures of three million Americans with "equal ease."

Imposed By Force

"The right of Ireland to freedom and independence," he said, "has been denied through the centuries by the imposition of the force of British arms.

"Yet, despite this armed subjugation, the Irish have remained a nation distinct and separate and not one of the efforts of their English conquerors has been able to change the character and nature of the Irish."

He said that the friction which exists between England and Ireland can be "readily" eliminated and "spirit of friendship and goodwill created... If the English will but put an end to the forced occupancy of a part of Ireland and return to that nation the complete freedom and independence to which all of Ireland, not just a part, is entitled."

"I am sure," Lynch continued, "that a suggestion by our State Department to the British Government would bear great weight in bringing about an end to partition and a withdrawal of British troops from Ireland.

"With all the aid which this country is giving the British, they would undoubtedly be in a receptive mood for any overture which the United States might properly take in this regard."

HOUSE APPROVES 501 MILLION FOR ATOMIC BOARD USE

WASHINGTON, June 9 — (AP) The House passed and sent to the Senate today a $5,795,048,931 appropriation bill. It finances the Atomic Energy commission, the Veterans Administration and several other agencies, and it abolishes the War Assets Administration.

The House followed generally the recommendations of its Appropriations committee, which had ordered an aggregate cut of $504,570,069 from the amounts President Truman had requested.

These cuts included $48,150,000 in Atomic Energy commission funds and $354,600,000 in the Veterans' Administration budget for the fiscal year starting July 1.

As passed, the bill carries these allotments:

Atomic Energy commission, $501,850,000 in cash and authority to contract up to $400,000,000 more against funds to be supplied later.

Veterans' administration, $5,125,309,000 in cash and $43,000,000 in contract authority.

Maritime commission, $102,377,831 in cash and $75,000,000 in contract authority, a cut of $24,678,169.

Office of Defense Transportation, $340,000, to run until next Feb. 28 when the ODT goes out of business. This is a cut of $105,000.

Office of Housing Expediter, $15,172,100, a cut of $5,327,900.

War Assets Administration, $50,000,000 to be administered by the budget bureau, with the WAA to go out of business by Aug. 31 and its unsold inventories to be transferred to the Air Forces, the Bureau of Federal Supply and the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

The bill prohibits the use of Veterans' Administration funds to finance "hobby" training for veterans under the GI Bill of Rights. The ban is aimed at courses in dancing and pleasure flying.

BYRNES DENIES WAR WITH REDS IS INEVITABLE

Cautions Against Building U. S. Strength on Theory of Such a Desire.

Philadelphia, June 9 (A. P.).—Former Secretary of State James F. Byrnes cautioned today against building America's strength "on the theory that we want to fight Soviet Communism."

While he declared "the greatest danger in the world today is the danger of continued aggression on the part of the Soviet Union," Byrnes insisted that war is far from inevitable, and added:

"Ideologiees militantly conflicting and logically irreconcilable will choose the right to survive on the basis of mutual tolerance, in preference to the right to die on the basis of mutual extinction."

In a speech at University of Pennsylvania commencement exercises, the former Secretary described as unfortunate any reference to United States foreign policy aims as containment of Soviet Russia.

Can Live With Russia.

"It does not distinguish our foreign policy from what unfortunately appears to be the foreign policy of the Soviet Union," he said, "namely, the containment of the United States of America."

Byrnes called for renewed efforts to demonstrate that this country is at all times willing to live at peace with Russia on the basis of mutual respect and tolerance.

"Some of our people," he said, "have the mistaken idea that no agreement has been made or can be made with the Russians that is not a surrender. That is a dangerous idea."

To suport that idea, Byrnes said such people charge "that we were hornswoggled and overreached in nearly every agreement President Roosevelt made with the Soviet Union during the war." That viewpoint, he stated, "is a grotesque distortion."

He defended the provisions of the much-criticized Yalta Big Three agreement as made necessary by wartime circumstances. "There was nothing wrong with this Yalta agreement," he said. "The trouble was that the Soviet Union later made a mockery of it.

"A realistic conclusion is that the war agreements gave the Soviet Union very little that they were not in a position to take without agreement."

U.N. SEEKS SIX PATROL CRAFT

Asks 3 Nations To Send 63 Palestine Observers

Lake Success, N.Y., June 9 (AP)—The United Nations has asked the United States, France and Belgium for six coastal patrol vessels and 63 military observers to check on the Arab-Jewish truce.

Trygve Lie, secretary-general, said tonight negotiations were under way for three American ships, two French and one Belgian. He said each power had been asked to send 21 military men and he understood the American personnel already was there.

Lie summoned newsmen to a special news conference shortly after the announcement was made here that the Jews and Arabs had accepted unconditionally a four-week armistice which starts with a cease-fire at 1 A.M. (E.S.T.) Friday.

Cautiously Optimistic

United Nations delegates and officials generally were cautiously optimistic over the cease-fire and truce. Elation was followed by some pessimism over the possibilities of reaching a permanent solution for Palestine during the four-week period.

30.24- 18383

It was learned here that Moshe Shertok, Israeli Foreign Minister, had objected to the mediator's interpretation of immigration conditions for the truce period. While agreeing to the cease-fire unconditionally, Shertok was understood to have told Bernadotte he thought the interpretations departed from the Security Council resolution. He added that he hoped Bernadotte would exercise discretion on these clauses.

Seeks Road Assurance

Shertok took the view that the United Nations plan put no restriction of any kind on Jewish immigration during the period except that new arrivals would not be mobilized or trained. In his interjretation, Bernadotte reserved the right to suht off Jewish immigration completely for at least the first week.

Shertok also sought assurance that Jews would be permitted to use any road reopened into Jerusalem. He said Israel would regard any blockade of the Jewish state as a warlike act.

The United Nations din not release the replies of the Jews and Arabs to Bernadotte.

9 More U.N. Personnel

In addition to the military observers, Lie said the United Nations was sending nine more persons to Palestine Friday to bring its total to 31.

He said France and Belgium have joined with the United States in agreeing to supply military observers but there was some question whether Belgium would be willing to send 21.

Russian Offer

Negotiations with the three governments over use of the patrol vessels are still under way, he said. Lie said he did not know how large or well gunned the craft would be. He added that it had not been decided whether the ships would fly the United Nations flag.

In connection with the offer of the Soviet Union to send military observers to the Holy Land to aid Bernadotte and the American-French-Belgium consular truce commission, Lie said:

"It is quite natural that the three members of the truce commission should ask for officers from their own countries. The request to the three governments is a quite natural matter.

"If Bernadotte needs more and the Security Council so decides, that is a matter for the Council. If I had been on the spot I would have taken the same decision."

Council To Consider It

The Council will meet tomorrow to hear officially the announcement of the truce and to consider the Russian offer to send Soviet army observers.

Bernadotte's message to Israel and the Arab governments was made public here by Lie. It said in part:

"I have the honor to inform you that in response to my note of 7 June setting forth my proposal as United Nations mediator for the truce in Palestine, I have today, 9 June, received unconditional acceptances of my proposal from all of the interested parties. The cease-fire and truce, therefore, will be effective Friday, 11 June, 1948, at 6 o'clock in the morning, G.M.T. (1 A.M. E.S.T., Friday)."

Lie summed up the United Nations feeling this way:

"When the cease-fire goes into effect it is the hope of all that it will not be a temporary respite from conflict, but that it will be sustained and will endure."

LONDON, JUNE 9-(AP)-FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN SAID TODAY RUSSIAN COL.J.D.TASSOJEW WHO TURNED UP HERE MYSTERIOUSLY LAST MONTH WAS A CASE OF A MAN WHO CHANGED HIS MIND.

TASSOJEW DISAPPEARED FROM HIS POST AS RUSSIAN REPARATIONS OFFICER IN BREMEN, AND THE RUSSIANS CHARGED HE HAD BEEN KIDNAPED BY THE AMERICANS. THIS WAS DENIED, AND SHORTLY AFTERWARD THE FOREIGN OFFICE SAID TASSOJEW HAD APPEARED IN LONDON ASKING POLITICAL ASYLUM. NOBODY SEEMED TO KNOW JUST HOW HE GOT TO LONDON.

ON MAY 27 RESPONSIBLE BRITISH SOURCES SAID TASSOJEW HAD BEEN RETURNED TO THE RUSSIANS, PROBABLY AT HIS OWN REQUEST.

BACK WITH THE RUSSIANS TASSOJEW WAS SAID BY TASS, SOVIET NEWS AGENCY, TO HAVE MADE A STATEMENT THAT HE HAD BEEN KIDNAPED IN BREMEN, TAKEN TO BRITAIN, AND THAT HE RETURNED TO GERMANY ONLY AFTER HE HAD ESCAPED FROM A LONDON INTELLIGENCE SERVICE APARTMENT. TASS QUOTED HIM AS SAYING HE WAS BEATEN AND FORCED TO SIGN A POLITICAL STATEMENT.

BEVIN SAID IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS TODAY HE WAS SATISFIED THAT TASSOJEW WAS NOT BEATEN, "OR ANYTHING OF THE KIND." BEVIN SAID TASSOJEW WAS PERMITTED TO LEAVE ENGLAND VOLUNTARILY, JUST AS HE HAD COME TO ENGLAND.

"YOU MUST UNDERSTAND WHEN A GENTLEMAN HAS AN ABBERATION OF THIS KIND, AND HIS CONSCIENCE HAS TOLD HIM TO GO BACK, THERE MUST BE A GOOD STORY WHEN HE GETS BACK," BEVIN ADDED.

BULLETIN LEAD

LONDON, JUNE 9-(AP)-FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN TOLD THE HOUSE OF COMMONS TODAY BRITAIN STILL HOPES TO BEING RUSSIA INTO THE FOUR-POWER AGREEMENT ON THE FUTURE OF GERMANY.

BEVIN SAID BRITAIN HAS APPROVED RECOMMENDATIONS FOR A FEDERAL GOVERNMENT IN WESTERN GERMANY, WESTERN POWER OCCUPATION FOR AN INDEFINITE PERIOD, AND INTERNATIONAL CONTROL OF THE INDUSTRIAL RUHR VALLEY.

THE RECOMMENDATIONS WERE PUT FORWARD BY A CONFERENCE AMONG THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN, FRANCE AND THE BENELUX COUNTRIES--BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG. THE RECOMMENDATIONS WERE MADE PUBLIC MONDAY.

A141 JUN 1948

A MOSCOW RADIO COMMENTATOR CHARGED TODAY THAT THE RECOMMENDATIONS MEANT THE WEST WAS CONVERTING WESTERN GERMANY INTO "A PERMANENT ANGLO-AMERICAN MILITARY BASE." IN BERLIN RUSSIANS AND COMMUNISTS URGED THE GERMANS TO RESIST THE PLAN, SAYING "THEY'RE TAKING AWAY THE RUHR."

EARLIER, OFFICIAL BRITISH SOURCES SAID THEY EXPECTED A THREE-POWER AGREEMENT SOON OPENING THE WAY FOR THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND FRANCE TO RESUME ALLOCATING WAR REPARATIONS TO RUSSIA FROM WESTERN GERMANY.

BEVIN SAID ACCEPTANCE OF THE SIX-NATION RECOMMENDATIONS "DOES NOT MEAN THAT WE HAVE EVEN NOW ABANDONED HOPE OF A FOUR-POWER AGREEMENT."

"WE ARE STILL IN FAVOR OF ECONOMIC AND POLITICAL UNITY OF GERMANY, BUT THAT MUST BE ESTABLISHED ON PROPER PRINCIPLES," THE FOREIGN SECRETARY SAID.

RUSSIA, MEANWHILE, APPARENTLY IS PREPARING AN ECONOMIC COUNTER-OFFENSIVE IN EUROPE WITH SOMETHING IN THE SHAPE OF A MARSHALL PLAN OF HER OWN. THIS WAS INDICATED IN A MOSCOW DISPATCH QUOTING THE RUSSIAN PRESS AS SAYING THE SOVIET UNION IS READY TO GRANT INCREASED ECONOMIC AID TO COUNTRIES FRIENDLY TO THE RUSSIANS.

BEVIN, IN HIS TALK TO THE HOUSE, REFERRED TO DIFFERENCES BETWEEN RUSSIA AND THE WEST AND ADDED THAT "WE MUST GO ON WITH OUR PROGRAM WITHOUT INTERRUPTION." HE SAID THAT WHEN THE WESTERN POWERS DREW UP THEIR PROGRAM FOR GERMANY, "WE HAD REGARD TO SECURITY."

"THE WORLD SUFFERED TWO TERRIBLE WARS AS A RESULT OF GERMAN POLICY AND WE HAVE MADE PROVISION AGAINST A RECURRENCE," HE SAID.

"WE INVITE THE GERMANS TO WORK OUT THE DEVELOPMENT OF DEMOCRATIC POLITICAL INSTITUTIONS."

NO ALLOCATIONS TO RUSSIA OF DISMANTLED WAR PLANTS--OF WHICH SHE GETS 25 PERCENT UNDER THE POTSDAM AGREEMENT--HAVE BEEN MADE FROM THE THREE WESTERN ZONES SINCE MID-1946.

THE FRENCH AND BRITISH HAVE CONTINUED DELIVERIES UNDER ALLOCATIONS MADE BEFORE THAT TIME, BUT THE UNITED STATES HAS MADE NONE SINCE LAST DECEMBER, WHEN THE BIG FOUR FOREIGN MINISTERS' LONDON CONFERENCE ON GERMANY AND AUSTRIA COLLAPSED.

THE UNITED STATES HAS [illegible] APPROVAL. BRITISH SOURCES SAID IF THE U.S. APPROVES, A CONTROVERSY PROTRACTED FOR MONTHS BETWEEN THE U.S. ON ONE HAND AND FRANCE AND BRITAIN ON THE OTHER WILL BE ENDED.

THE BRITISH INFORMANTS SAID THAT DURING DIPLOMATIC EXCHANGES, AMBASSADOR LEWIS DOUGLAS EXPRESSED STRONG AMERICAN OPPOSITION TO ANY MORE EARMARKING OF DISMANTLED PLANTS IN WESTERN GERMANY FOR RUSSIA.

AN UNAUTHORIZED AMERICAN SOURCE DENIED THIS. HE SAID THAT, WHILE ALLOCATIONS HAVE BEEN SUSPENDED SINCE MID-1946, THERE HAVE BEEN NO DISCUSSIONS ABOUT PERMANENTLY "ENDING THE DIRECTION OF CAPITAL EQUIPMENT FOR REPARATIONS PUPROSES TO THE SOVIET UNION."

THE EXTENT AND SCOPE OF THE DISAGREEMENT BETWEEN THE POWERS WAS NOT CLEAR. IN ANY CASE, WHITEHALL (GOVERNMENT) SOURCES SAID MATTERS HAVE BEEN IRONED OUT AND AGREEMENT IS NEAR ON THE NEW ARRANGEMENT.

BRITISH GOVERNMENT SOURCES SAID THE NEW PLAN WILL ALLOW EACH COMMANDER IN THE WESTERN OCCUPATION ZONES TO ALLOCATE DISMANTLED PLANTS FROM HIS OWN ZONE. THE NEW SYSTEM WOULD REPLACE THE FOU-POWER ECONOMIC DIRECTORATE WHICH WORKED UNDER THE ALLIED CONTROL COUNCIL IN BERLIN.

WHITEHALL OFFICIALS SAID THE DECISION OF THE THREE POWERS AND THE THREE BENELUX COUNTRIES TO SET UP A FEDERAL GOVERNMENT IN WESTERN GERMANY MADE A NEW REPARATIONS SYSTEM IMPERATIVE.

BULLETIN

PARIS, JUNE 9-(AP)-DR. CHAIM WEIZMANN, PRESIDENT OF ISRAEL, TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE TODAY "WE ARE IN GENERAL DISPOSED TO ACCEPT A TRUCE" IN PALESTINE.

MEETING THE FRENCH AND FOREIGN PRESS HERE FOR THE FIRST TIME IN HIS NEW POSITION, THE 74-YEAR OLD CHIEF OF THE JEWISH STATE ADDED THAT ISRAEL WOULD NOT ACCEPT ANY SOLUTIONS "ABSORBING PART OF ITS SOVEREIGNTY."

A82

WEIZMANN SAID, HOWEVER: "WE ARE READY TO ESTABLISH AN ECONOMIC UNION BETWEEN THE STATE OF ISRAEL AND THE REST OF PALESTINE. THAT CAN BE A BEGINNING."

ASKED IF ISRAEL WOULD AGREE TO BE PART OF A PALESTINIAN FEDERATION, HE REPLIED "I MUST ANSWER 'NO'".

WEIZMANN SAID ISRAEL CAN ABSORB ALL THE 1,000,000 TO 1,250,000 ZIONIST IMMIGRANTS EXPECTED FOR THE NEXT 10 YEARS. THE PRESIDENT SAID 250,000 OF THESE ARE JEWISH DISPLACED PERSONS IN EUROPE. ANOTHER 300,000 TO 400,000 EUROPEAN JEWS IN POLAND, GERMANY, ROMANIA AND HUNGARY "STAND IN NEED OF IMMEDIATE IMMIGRATION," HE SAID. THE REST ARE EXPECTED MAINLY FROM MOSLEM AREAS, SUCH AS FRENCH NORTH AFRICA.

"THE JEWS IN THE ARAB COUNTRIES ARE IN IMMEDIATE DANGER," WEIZMANN SAID.

ISRAEL DEPENDS ON IRRIGATION DEVELOPMENTS IN THE NEGEB, OR SOUTHERN DESERT, TO ABSORB NEW POPULATION. FOR THIS REASON, WEIZMANN SAID ISRAEL COULD NOT CONSIDER PROPOSALS TO EXCHANGE THE NEGEB FOR WESTERN GALILEE--A MOVE WHICH MIGHT ALSO GIVE THE ARABS A MAJORITY IN ISRAEL.

"I CANNOT AGREE THAT THE BOUNDARIES OF ISRAEL ARE NOT FIXED," HE WENT ON. "UP TO NOW THE ARABS HAVE NOT CROSSED THE LIMITS OF THE STATE OF ISRAEL, EXCEPT FOR THE EGYPTIANS IN A SMALL CORNER OF THE NEGEB, AND I DO NOT THINK THEY WILL STAY VERY LONG."

ISRAEL WILL DEFEND THE INTERESTS OF CHRISTIANITY IN THE INTERNATIONAL CITY OF JERUSALEM, HE SAID.

"I DO NOT THINK BRITISH RECOGNITION WILL COME VERY FAST, THOUGH IT WILL NOT TAKE MORE THAN A MONTH OR TWO," HE SAID.

WEIZMANN SAID ISRAEL WAS NOT HURRYING THE FRENCH, BECAUSE OF FRENCH CONCERN OVER THE ARAB REACTION IN NORTH AFRICA.

"THE VATICAN HAS SOME HESITATION, BUT I THINK WE WILL COME TO AN UNDERSTANDING WITH THE VATICAN AND VERY SOON," HE SAID.

SECOND LEAD FRENCH

BY LOUIS NEVIN

PARIS, JUNE 9-(AP)-THE SIX-NATION ACCORD ON WESTERN GERMANY WAS APPROVED WITH RESERVATIONS BY THE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE OF FRANCE'S PARLIAMENT TODAY, BUT CAME UNDER IMMEDIATE ATTACK FROM GEN.CHARLES DE GAULLE.

GEN.DE GAULLE DENOUNCED THE ACCORD AS PREPARING THE WAY FOR SOVIET DOMINATION OF ALL GERMANY.

THE STATEMENT OF DE GAULLE, WARTIME RESISTANCE LEADER, FORMER PROVISIONAL PRESIDENT AND LEADER OF THE NEW RIGHTIST RALLY OF THE FRENCH PEOPLE (RPF), WAS HANDED NEWSMEN JUST A FEW MINUTES AFTER THE COMMITTEE ACTED.

HE SAID THE AGREEMENT WOULD RESULT IN THE CREATION OF TWO RIVAL GERMANYS--ONE WITH FRANKFURT AS THE CAPITAL AND THE OTHER CENTERED AT BERLIN.

"IT IS EASY TO SEE WHICH OF THESE TWO GERMAN CAMPS WOULD BE STRONG ENOUGH WITHIN AND FORCEFULLY ENOUGH SUPPORTED FROM ABROAD TO WIN THE STRUGGLE," DE GAULLE SAID.

THE APPROVAL WAS BY A NARROW MARGIN. IT CAME AFTER FOREIGN MINISTER GEORGES BIDAULT ASKED THE COMMITTEE TO BACK THE AGREEMENT SETTING UP A SEPARATE STATE IN WESTERN GERMANY.

A SPOKESMAN SAID YESTERDAY THE CABINET HAD APPROVED THE AGREEMENT.

THE COMMITTEE'S VOTE WAS 22 TO 21, BUT IT FORESHADOWED FINAL APPROVAL BY THE FULL NATIONAL ASSEMBLY, SINCE ALL POLITICAL PARTIES ARE REPRESENTED ON THE COMMITTEE IN PROPORTION TO THEIR STRENGTH.

THE RESOLUTION WAS PRESENTED JOINTLY BY THE SOCIALISTS, POPULAR REPUBLICANS AND RADICAL SOCIALISTS OF PREMIER ROBERT SCHUMAN'S COALITION GOVERNMENT.

THE PRINCIPAL RESERVATION, WRITTEN INTO THE RESOLUTION BY THE COMMITTEE, SAID IT APPROVED THE PACT ON CONDITION THAT A POWERFUL, CENTRALIZED GERMAN GOVERNMENT WOULD NOT BE CREATED. THE COMMITTEE SAID IT FAVORED A FEDERAL REGIME FOR THE GERMANS.

BIDAULT LEFT A SESSION OF THE CABINET WHICH IS STILL DISCUSSING THE ACCORD. A SPOKESMAN SAID YESTERDAY THE CABINET HAD APPROVED IT.

BIDAULT DENIED REPORTS THAT THE FRENCH GOVERNMENT HAD SENT A NOTE TO WASHINGTON OUTLINING THE DIFFICULTY OF GETTING ASSEMBLY APPROVAL FOR THE ACCORD, ANNOUNCED MONDAY BY THE UNITED STATES, FRANCE, BRITAIN, AND THE BENELUX COUNTRIES--BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG.

IN MAKING THE DENIAL BIDAULT SAID: "THE INTERESTED GOVERNMENTS HAVE ALREADY BEEN AMPLY CLARIFIED IN THIS REGARD. THE ASSEMBLY WILL APPROVE THE ACCORD OR IT WON'T, ONCE IT IS INFORMED OF THE DIFFERENT CONDITIONS IN WHICH THE ACCORD WILL BE CARRIED OUT."

THIS WAS THE FIRST INTIMATION THAT FRANCE'S INTERNAL DIFFICULTIES ON THE ACCORD HAD BEEN COMMUNICATED TO THE U.S. AND BRITAIN.

THE STATEMENT IMPLIED BIDAULT MIGHT MAKE SOME REVELATIONS BEFORE THE ASSEMBLY THAT MIGHT PUT THE FRENCH IN A BETTER MOOD ABOUT THE ACCORD.

THE ASSEMBLY TAKES UP THE ACCORD FRIDAY AND IS EXPECTED TO DELIBERATE TWO DAYS.

THE NEWSPAPER PARISIEN LIBERE, WHICH HAS OPPOSED THE ACCORD, DENIED AN OFFICIAL STATEMENT THAT YESTERDAY'S CABINET APPROVAL WAS UNANIMOUS. IT SAID SOME MINISTERS BALKED ON THE QUESTION OF SETTING UP A SEVEN-NATION CONTROL AUTHORITY FOR THE RUHR.

THE FRENCH TRADITIONALLY FEAR A STRONG GERMANY AND OBJECT TO ANY CONCESSIONS WHICH MIGHT LEAD TO SUCH AN EVENT.

PARISIEN LIBERE DECLARED THE OFFICIAL COMMUNIQUE MERELY SAID THE CABINET "APPROVED SUBMITTING THE ACCORD" TO THE ASSEMBLY. APPROVAL OF THE ACCORD ITSELF WAS CLAIMED ONLY VERBALLY BY A GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN, IT SAID.

AT THE SAME TIME THE SOCIALIST PARTY NEWSPAPER LE POPULAIRE, SAID THE SOCIALISTS IN THE CABINET HAD MADE "RESERVATIONS."

OTHERS WHO HAD LIKEWISE MADE RESERVATIONS, THE PAPER SAID, INCLUDED PREMIER ROBERT SCHUMAN HIMSELF AND DEFENSE MINISTER PIERRE HENRI TEITGEN, BOTH MEMBERS OF BIDAULT'S POPULAR REPUBLICAN PARTY, AND RADICAL SOCIALIST FINANCE MINISTER RENE MAYER, WHO HAS BEEN MENTIONED AS A POSSIBLE SUCCESSOR TO BIDAULT.

TEITGEN, MAYER AND THE SOCIALISTS, IT SAID, OBJECTED TO POSSIBLE REPERCUSSIONS OF THE ACCORD ON EAST-WEST RELATIONS IN EUROPE.

LE POPULAIRE SAID SOCIALIST MINISTERS JULES MOCH OF THE INTERIOR AND DANIEL MAYER OF LABOR, RAISED FURTHER OBJECTIONS.

BERLIN, JUNE 9-(AP)-THE RUSSIANS REFUSED TODAY THE BRITISH REQUEST THAT THEY EVACUATE THE BERLIN RADIO STATION, IN THE BRITISH SECTOR OF THE CITY.

THE REFUSAL WAS COMMUNICATED TO THE BRITISH IN A LETTER BY SOVIET LT.GEN.M.I.DRATVIN. HE SAID THAT ANY MEASURES OF FORCE AGAINST SOVIET EMPLOYEES "WILL LEAD TO UNDESIRABLE CONSEQUENCES."

THE HEAD OF SOVIET COMMUNICATIONS IN GERMANY, LT.GEN.VORSOV, INDICATED EARLIER THE RUSSIANS HAD NO INTENTION OF YIELDING TO THE BRITISH REQUEST. THE BRITISH ASKED FOR THE BUILDING "AS SOON AS POSSIBLE."

THE DISPUTE BETWEEN THE BRITISH AND THE RUSSIANS OVER THE BERLIN RADIO STATION STARTED TWO YEARS AGO. IT CAME TO A HEAD THIS WEEK WHEN THE BRITISH ASKED THE SOVIETS "TO ACCELERATE THEIR VACATION OF THE PREMISES" BECAUSE THE BRITISH INTEND TO MOVE IN.

THE SOVIET NEWS BUREAU ANSWERED BY POINTING OUT THE COMMUNICATION LINES FROM WESTERN GERMANY TO BERLIN RUN THROUGH THE SOVIET ZONE AND "COUNTERMEASURES ARE LIKELY."

"I DO NOT BELIEVE ANY CONFLICT BETWEEN THE OCCUPATION POWERS WILL ARISE OVER THE QUESTION OF THE BERLIN RADIO HOUSE," GEN. VORSOV TOLD THE SOVIET MILITARY ADMINISTRATION NEWSPAPER "TAEGLICHE RUNDSCHAU" IN AN INTERVIEW.

"I DO NOT BELIEVE THE SOVIET AUTHORITIES WILL BE FORCED TO TAKE COUNTER MEASURES."

THE GENERAL CLAIMED SOVIET USE OF THE BERLIN RADIO BUILDING WAS SETTLED BY A "GENTLEMEN'S AGREEMENT" REACHED BY THE HEADS OF THE MILITARY GOVERNMENTS IN 1945.

HE DESCRIBED THE BRITISH DEMANDS AS "ILLOGICAL" BECAUSE THEY "IGNORE THE FACT THE BERLIN RADIO HOUSE BROADCASTS FOR THE SOVIET OCCUPATION ZONE."

THE BERLIN STATION IS THE MOST POWERFUL IN GERMANY. ANGLO-AMERICAN AUTHORITIES CLAIM IT IS USED AS A KEY STATION FOR SPREADING ANTI-WESTERN PROPAGANDA THROUGHOUT GERMANY.

BERLIN, JUNE 9-(AP)-BRITISH AND AMERICAN AUTHORITIES TODAY DENIED RUSSIAN ALLEGATIONS THAT THE GERMAN REPORTER DIETER FRIEDE HAD SERVED AS A SPY FOR THE WESTERN POWERS IN THE SOVIET OCCUPATION ZONE.

AFTER DENYING FOR SEVEN MONTHS THEY KNEW HIS WHEREABOUTS, THE RUSSIANS ANNOUNCED LAST NIGHT THEY HELD FRIEDE CAPTIVE. RUSSIAN-CONTROLLED NEWSPAPERS PRINTED FACSIMILES OF A STATEMENT ATTRIBUTED TO FRIEDE SAYING HE WAS ARRESTED FOR ESPIONAGE WHILE GATHERING REPORTS ON THE SOVIET ZONE FOR HIS NEWSPAPER, THE AMERICAN-LICENSED BERLIN DER ABEND, AND FOR BRITISH AND AMERICAN AGENCIES.

AN OFFICIAL BRITISH SPOKESMAN SAID THE BRITISH NEVER HAD ENGAGED FRIEDE. AN AMERICAN MILITARY GOVERNMENT POLITICAL INTELLIGENCE SPOKESMAN SAID HE NEVER HAD MET FRIEDE NOR HAD ANY DEALINGS WITH HIM.

THE AMERICAN OFFICIAL ADDED: "IT TOOK THE RUSSIANS SINCE LAST NOVEMBER TO GET THAT ONE OUT OF HIM. FRIEDE MUST BE A TOUGH FELLOW."

U.S. AND BRITISH OFFICIALS RECALLED THAT THE SOVIET COMMANDANT, GEN.ALEXANDER KOTIKOV, HAD REPEATEDLY DENIED ANY KNOWLEDGE OF THE WHEREABOUTS OF FRIEDE, WHO WAS SEIZED LAST NOVEMBER AFTER HE WAS LURED TO THE SOVIET SECTOR OF BERLIN BY A FAKE TELEPHONE CALL.

FRANZ NEUMANN, CHAIRMAN OF BERLIN'S SOCIAL DEMOCRATS, AND CARL HUBERT SCHWENNICKE, LEADER OF THE INDEPENDENT LIBERAL DEMOCRATS, DENOUNCED THE SOVIET ALLEGATIONS ABOUT FRIEDE AS "LIES." THEY JOINTLY TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE: "IF FRIEDE ACTUALLY SIGNED THE CONFESSION ATTRIBUTED TO HIM, WE ARE CONVINCED HE COULD HAVE DONE SO ONLY UNDER THE PRESSURE OF THE WORST GESTAPO METHODS."

BERLIN, JUNE 9-(AP)-THE RUSSIANS AND GERMAN COMMUNISTS URGED THE GERMAN PEOPLE TODAY TO RESIST THE LONDON CONFERENCE RECOMMENDATIONS ON WESTERN GERMANY, DECLARING "THEY'RE TAKING AWAY THE RUHR."

SIMILAR APPEALS TO GERMAN NATIONALISM WERE MADE BY THE RUSSIAN-CONTROLLED PRESS ON THE ISSUE OF MINOR PROVISIONAL TERRITORIAL ADJUSTMENTS ON GERMANY'S WESTERN FRONTIER WHICH WERE RECOMMENDED BY THE SIX-POWER CONFERENCE.

THE COMMUNISTS ARRANGED "MASS PROTEST MEETINGS" TO WHICH THEY ESPECIALLY INVITED GERMANS FROM THE WESTERN-OCCUPIED SECTORS OF BERLIN.

THE SOVIET MILITARY ADMINISTRATION INDICATED IT MIGHT BE READY TO ATTEND A SESSION OF THE LONG DORMANT ALLIED CONTROL COUNCIL TOMORROW IF IT WAS CALLED TOGETHER TO DISCUSS WESTERN GERMANY.

THE AMERICAN AND BRITISH MILITARY GOVERNORS, GENERALS LUCIUS D. CLAY AND SIR BRIAN ROBERTSON, ADVISED THE FRENCH, WHO HOLD THE CHAIRMANSHIP THIS MONTH, THAT THEY HAD NO QUESTIONS FOR DISCUSSION BY THE CONTROL COUNCIL.

TODAY'S OFFICIAL RUSSIAN STATEMENT SAID IT WAS "NO SURPRISE" THAT THE WESTERN ALLIES HAD NO REASON TO CALL THE CONTROL COUNCIL TOGETHER JUNE 10.

"FROM THE PRESS, IT IS KNOWN THE U.S.A., GREAT BRITAIN AND FRANCE HAVE GONE FARTHER ON THE ROAD OF SPLITTING GERMANY AND CREATING A SEPARATE WESTERN GERMANY PUPPET STATE AT THE LAST CONFERENCE OF THE THREE WESTERN POWERS IN LONDON," THE SOVIET STATEMENT CONTINUED. "CONSEQUENTLY, THEY ALSO HAVE GONE FARTHER ON THE ROAD TOWARD DESTRUCTION OF THE ALLIED CONTROL MECHANISM IN GERMANY."

THE DECLARATION CONCLUDED THE SOVIETS "WILL SUPPORT THE CONTROL COUNCIL IN EVERY WAY IN SO FAR AS ITS ACTIVITY IS BASED ON THE POTSDAM CONFERENCE DECISIONS."

THE OFFICIAL SOVIET ARMY NEWSPAPER "TAEGLICHE RUNDSCHAU" TOLD ITS GERMAN READERS THE LONDON CONFERENCE PROVIDED FOR "HIDDEN ANNEXATION" OF THE RUHR TO PUT THAT RICH INDUSTRIAL AREA UNDER THE CONTROL OF "ANGLO-AMERICAN MONO-CAPITALISM."

THE NEW CONSTITUTION, WHICH BENES REFUSED TO SIGN, BECAME THE LAW OF CZECHOSLOVAKIA TODAY.

A GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCEMENT TO THIS EFFECT DID NOT SAY BY WHAT EXECUTIVE SIGNATURE THE DOCUMENT WAS MADE VALID.

THE PRESUMPTION IS THAT COMMUNIST PREMIER KLEMENT GOTTWALD SIGNED IT AFTER BENES HANDED IN HIS RESIGNATION MONDAY. GOTTWALD IS CONSIDERED THE LEADING CANDIDATE TO SUCCEED BENES. PARLIAMENT WILL CHOOSE THE NEW PRESIDENT MONDAY.

THE NEW CONSTITUTION, ADOPTED UNANIMOUSLY BY PARLIAMENT A MONTH AGO TODAY, PROCLAIMS CZECHOSLOVAKIA A PEOPLE'S DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC IN "THE GREAT FAMILY OF SLAV NATIONS."

BY THE CONSTITUTION, PARLIAMENT CONSISTS OF A SINGLE HOUSE OF 300 MEMBERS. THE DEPUTIES WERE CHOSEN AT A SINGLE-TICKET ELECTION MAY 30.

THE VOTING AGE IS FIXED AT 18, AND THE MINIMUM AGE FOR HOLDING PUBLIC OFFICE AT 21. WOMEN HAVE EQUAL RIGHTS WITH MEN.

THE PREAMBLE SAYS:

"WE NOW RESOLVE THAT OUR LIBERATED STATE SHALL BECOME A NATIONAL STATE WITHOUT ANY ENEMY ELEMENTS, A STATE WHICH WILL LIVE FRATERNALLY

IN THE GREAT FAMILY OF SLAV NATIONS AND IN FRIENDSHIP WITH ALL THE PEACE LOVING NATIONS OF THE WORLD. X X X

"WE WANT THE STATE ECONOMY TO BE USEFUL TO THE PEOPLE SO THAT COMMON LIVING STANDARDS WILL RISE. IT WILL BE A STATE IN WHICH THERE WILL BE NO ECONOMIC CRISES AND THE NATIONAL INCOME WILL BE JUSTIFIABLY DIVIDED. WE WANT TO GO ON THE ROAD TOWARDS SOCIALISM, WHERE THERE WILL BE NO EXPLOITATION OF MEN.

"WE ARE RESOLVED TO DEFEND WITH ALL OUR STRENGTH THE GAINS OF OUR NATIONAL AND DEMOCRATIC REVOLUTION AGAINST ALL EFFORTS OF HOME AND FOREIGN REACTIONS AS WE DID X X X IN FEBRUARY, 1948"--WHEN THE COMMUNISTS SEIZED POWER.

WELL INFORMED PERSONS SAID THE PRAGUE GOVERNMENT WOULD SWING EVEN SHARPER TO THE EXTREME COMMUNIST LEFT SHORTLY BY DROPPING MINISTER OF INTERIOR VACLAV NOSEK. WHEN THE GERMANS OCCUPIED THE COUNTRY, HE ESCAPED TO BRITAIN INSTEAD OF TO RUSSIA AND ACCEPTED A POST IN THE EXILE GOVERNMENT THERE. HE IS EXPECTED TO BE SUCCEEDED BY MINISTER OF JUSTICE ALEXEJ CEPICKA, A COMMUNIST SINCE STUDENT DAYS. THE INTERIOR MINISTRY CONTROLS THE SECURITY POLICE WHO FURNISHED THE GUNS AND BAYONETS FOR THE COMMUNIST COUP IN FEBRUARY.

COMMUNIST PREMIER KLEMENT GOTTWALD IS EXPECTED TO GO ON THE SHELF BY BECOMING PRESIDENT MONDAY. DEPUTY PREMIER ANTONIN ZAPOTOCKY, COMMUNIST HEAD OF THE TRADE UNIONS, IS EXPECTED TO SUCCEED HIM. ZAPOTOCKY ALREADY HAS PROVED HE IS READY TO GO ALL THE WAY FOR COMMUNIZING EVERY BRANCH OF CZECHOSLOVAK LIFE.

THE WRITER SAID CONGRESS WOULD POSSIBLY FIND OUT "WHY IMMENSE SUMS ARE LITERALLY BEING THROWN AWAY ON THE WIND."

"WHY IS AMERICAN ANTI-SOVIET PROPAGANDA IN THE RUSSIAN LANGUAGE SO INEFFECTIVE?" HE ASKED. HE SUPPLIED HIS OWN ANSWER BY SAYING THAT AMERICAN PROGRAM EDITORS AND BROADCASTERS "DO NOT KNOW THE CONTEMPORARY NEW SOVIET RUSSIAN LANGUAGE."

NANKING, JUNE 9-(AP)-A VICTORY OVER THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS ON THE BROAD HONAN PLAINS IN CENTRAL CHINA WAS REPORTED BY THE GOVERNMENT TODAY. NEUTRAL SOURCES SAID THE BATTLE IS INDECISIVE.

ONE OBSERVER DESCRIBED THE FIGHTING 190 MILES NORTHWEST OF THE BIG GOVERNMENT BASE OF HANKOW AS RESEMBLING "A DOG CHASING ITS TAIL." HE ADDED THAT THE REDS APPEAR TO HAVE RETAINED THE INITIATIVE.

EARLY ACCOUNTS OF THE BATTLE ESTIMATED THE CONTENDING FORCES AT 100,000 COMMUNISTS AND FIVE GOVERNMENT DIVISIONS, OR APPROXIMATELY THE SAME STRENGTH IF CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S DIVISIONS ARE NOT DEPLETED.

MEANWHILE, TO THE NORTHEAST IN SHANTUNG PROVINCE, THE COMMUNISTS ATTACKED TZEYANG IN THE FACE OF GOVERNMENT AERIAL AND ARTILLERY BOMBARDMENT. PRO-GOVERNMENT REPORTS SAID CHIANG'S TROOPS WERE OUTNUMBERED.

TZEYANG IS 80 MILES SOUTH OF BESIEGED TSINAN, CAPITAL OF SHANTUNG.

NANKING SOURCES SAID CHIANG PROBABLY WOULD FLY TO TSINAN SOON FOR CONFERENCES WITH HIS HARD-PRESSED MILITARY LEADERS. IT WAS INDICATED HE ALSO WOULD GO TO PEIPING TO CONFER WITH GEN.FU TSO-YI, WHOSE AUTHORITY OVER NORTH CHINA AREAS WAS BROADENED RECENTLY.

SYDNEY, AUSTRALIA, JUNE 9-(AP)-NEWSPAPERS AND POLITICIANS WERE STIRRED TODAY BY REPORTS THAT AUSTRALIA'S GOODWILL MISSION TO SOUTHEAST ASIA HAS BOOMERANGED.

THE MISSION, LED BY W.MACMAHON BALL, WENT NORTH TO OFFER SCHOLARSHIPS AND TO ARRANGE POST-UNRRA RELIEF. BUT BALL HAS BEEN PEPPERED WITH QUESTIONS ABOUT THE SO-CALLED WHITE AUSTRALIA POLICY.

AS A RESULT, THIS BASIC PRINCIPLE OF AUSTRALIA'S IMMIGRATION LAWS IS RECEIVING A PUBLIC AIRING. SOME LEADING NEWSPAPERS ARE OPENLY QUESTIONING THE WIDSOM OF THE POLICY. THE MELBOURNE ARGUS ADVOCATED SCRAPPING IT.

THE SYDNEY DAILY TELEGRAPH SAID: "IF WE MAINTAIN THIS POLICY WE MUST DO SO IN DEFIANCE OF ASIATIC RESENTMENT AND HOSTILITY, CONSCIOUS OF THE FACT THAT THIS HOSTILITY WILL ONE DAY HAVE THE POWER TO EXPRESS ITSELF IN FORCE." THE DAILY MIRROR DEMANDED THE RECALL OF BALL.

QUESTIONED IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, H.V.EVATT, MINISTER OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS, SAID "BALL IS CARRYING OUT DUTIES ON BEHALF OF THE GOVERNMENT AND I DON'T WISH TO SAY MORE THAN THAT THEY ARE LIMITED TO THE MATTERS MENTIONED."

PRIME MINISTER JOSEPH CHIFLEY WAS ASKED AT A NEWS CONFERENCE IF THE GOVERNMENT MAY CHANGE ITS IMMIGRATION POLICY. HE REPLIED THAT EVERY COUNTRY HAS THE SOVEREIGN RIGHT TO DETERMINE WHO SHOULD BE ADMITTED.

THE MELBOURNE SUN PICTORIAL, CRITICIZING IMMIGRATION MINISTER ARTHUR CALWELL, CITED DEPORTATIONS WHICH IT SAID COULD HAVE BEEN HANDLED WITHOUT CAUSING UNDUE BITTERNESS ABROAD: AN AMERICAN NEGRO BOXER AND HIS AUSTRALIAN WIFE, THE CHINESE WIFE OF AN ENGLISH ENGINEER, THE TONGA-BORN WIFE OF A BRITISH-BORN RESIDENT, AND THE FORCED REPATRIATION OF MALAYAN SEAMEN.

CAIRO, JUNE 9-(AP)-ARABS AND JEWS ANNOUNCED TODAY UNCONDITIONAL ACCEPTANCE OF A FOUR-WEEK TRUCE IN THE PALESTINE WAR.

THE GOVERNMENT OF ISRAEL IN TEL AVIV ISSUED A COMMUNIQUE SAYING IT ACCEPTED THE NINE-POINT PROPOSAL OF THE UNITED NATIONS MEDIATOR, COUNT FOLKE BERNADOTTE.

IN AMMAN, A KEY CAPITAL OF THE ARAB WAR, TRANS-JORDAN FOREIGN MINISTER FAWZI PASHA MULKI ANNOUNCED ALL ARAB STATES ACCEPTED THE PROPOSAL TO CEASE FIRING AT 1 A.M., EASTERN STANDARD TIME, FRIDAY. NO STRINGS WERE ATTACHED TO THE ACCEPTANCE, HE SAID.

UNITED NATIONS OFFICIALS AT LAKE SUCCESS WERE ELATED AT THE SUCCESS OF THE MEDIATION EFFORTS, BUT DELEGATES STILL URGED CAUTION. THEY POINTED OUT THAT ANY INCIDENT BETWEEN NOW AND THE CEASE FIRE HOUR MIGHT UPSET THE APPLE-CART.

A180

THERE HAS BEEN NO OFFICIAL WORD FROM COUNT BERNADOTTE HIMSELF. BUT HE ARRANGED A NEWS CONFERENCE FOR 10 P.M. (3 P.M. EST) TO ANNOUNCE THE REPLIES OF BOTH SIDES. RALPHE BUNCHE OF THE U.N.SECRETARIAT SAID THE REPLIES WOULD BE MADE PUBLIC SIMULTANEOUSLY IN CAIRO AND LAKE SUCCESS.

NEUTRAL OBSERVERS HERE SAID EVEN UNDER AN ARMISTICE THERE MIGHT BE MANY ISOLATED INSTANCES OF SNIPING OR SMALL-SCALE GUERRILLA WARFARE. THEY SAID THIS HAS BEEN THE NORMAL SITUATION IN THE HOLY LAND FOR A LONG TIME. WHETHER SUCH FLAREUPS MIGHT BECOME INCIDENTS ENDING THE ARMISTICE WOULD DEPEND UPON THE WILL OF THE LEADERS OF BOTH SIDES TO MAINTAIN PEACE.

FOREIGN MINISTER MOSHE SHERTOK'S ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE ISRAELI ACCEPTANCE SAID NO CONDITIONS WERE ATTACHED, BUT ISRAEL ASKED CERTAIN TECHNICAL MODIFICATIONS IN THE MEDIATOR'S PROPOSAL WITH REGARD TO IMMIGRATION, WAR MATERIEL AND SUPPLIES TO BESIEGED JERUSALEM'S JEWS.

IN THE TWILIGHT PERIOD BETWEEN ACCEPTANCE AND EFFECTIVENESS OF THE TRUCE, FIGHTING CONTINUED IN THE HOLY LAND.

A TRANS-JORDAN ARAB LEGION COMMUNIQUE SAID JEWS, 1,000 STRONG, ATTACKED AT BAB EL WAD GORGE LAST NIGHT. THE GORGE IS ASTRIDE THE SUPPLY ROAD FROM TEL AVIV TO JERUSALEM. THE BULLETIN SAID THE JEWS WERE REPULSED, LEAVING 56 KILLED AND A LARGE QUANTITY OF AMMUNITION ON THE FIELD. THE FIGHTING CONTINUED UNTIL JUST BEFORE DAWN TODAY.

"OUR FORCES CONTINUED SHELLING AND FIRING AT THE RETREATING JEWS, CAUSING ADDITIONAL CASUALTIES," THE ARAB LEGION BULLETIN SAID.

JEWS STILL BATTLED EGYPTIANS IN THE ISDUD AREA ON THE COASTAL ROUTE TO TEL AVIV, AND JEWS AND ARABS FOUGHT IN THE NORTHERN

NABLUS-TUKLARM-JENIN TRIANGLE, HELD BY THE ARABS. SOME EGYPTIANS STILL ARE ENCIRCLED AT ISDUD, WHERE THE EGYPTIANS HAVE LANDED TROOPS FROM THE SEA IN RESCUE ATTEMPTS.

ARTILLERY FIRE CONTINUED IN JERUSALEM ITSELF. A POOLED DISPATCH FROM THE HOLY CITY SAID JEWISH-HELD AREAS OF THE NEW CITY WERE HIT WITH ANTI-PERSONNEL SHELLING LATE YESTERDAY, AND THAT LAST NIGHT THE JEWS STAGED A SWIFT COUNTERATTACK AGAINST WHAT LOOKED LIKE THE BEGINNING OF AN ARAB OFFENSIVE DRIVE FROM THE DAMASCUS GATE OF ARAB-HELD OLD JERUSALEM.

THE JEWISH AGENCY SAID THE JEWS DROVE OFF ATTACKING ARAB LEGION CARS WITH HEAVY CASUALTIES TO THE ARABS, AND THAT THE JEWS' LINES NOW EXTEND TO THE MEA SHEARIM POLICE STATION.

THE JEWS SAID THEIR PLANES BOMBED ARAB LEGION INSTALLATIONS AT BIDU AND NEBI SAMWIL NEAR JERUSALEM.

THE ARABS REPLIED X X X AS BEFORE.

ALREADY PLANS WERE BEING LAID TO USE THE TEMPORARY PEACE FOR NEGOTIATIONS OF THE DEEP-SEATED DIFFERENCES THAT HAVE MADE PALESTINE A LAND OF BLOODSHED FOR TWO YEARS AND AN OPEN BATTLEGROUND BETWEEN ARAB ARMIES AND ISRAEL'S TROOPS SINCE MAY 15. THESE NEGOTIATIONS FOR A PERMANENT SETTLEMENT MAY TAKE PLACE AT SOME NEUTRAL SPOT, SUCH AS THE BRITISH ISLAND OF RHODES OR THE TURKISH CITY OF ISTANBUL.

NEUTRAL OBSERVERS RECOGNIZED, HOWEVER, THE SITUATION WOULD BE FRAUGHT WITH DANGER EVEN IF THERE IS NO SLIP BETWEEN NOW AND THE TRUCE HOUR. EVEN IF THE TRUCE GOES INTO EFFECT, THEY SAID, THERE MAY BE FREQUENT OUTBREAKS OF SNIPING AND SMALL-SCALE GUERRILLA WARFARE WHICH MAY THREATEN A MAJOR INCIDENT.

OFFICERS FROM THE ARMED SERVICES OF THE UNITED STATES, SWEDEN AND OTHER COUNTRIES WERE REPORTED ENROUTE, HOWEVER, TO SERVE AS INSPECTORS AND CONTROLLERS TO ENFORCE IF POSSIBLE THE CONDITIONS OF THE TRUCE.

WHILE BOTH SIDES ANNOUNCED ACCEPTANCE OF CEASE-FIRE TERMS, FIGHTING CONTINUED ON SCATTERED FRONTS.

EGYPTIAN FIGHTER BOMBERS AGAIN RAIDED TEL AVIV, DROPPING STICKS OF BOMBS ACROSS THE TOWN. THE ISRAELI AIR FORCE SAID IT BOMBED ARAB ARTILLERY POSTS AT KFAR BIDDU AND NEBI SAMWIL OVERLOOKING THE JEWISH PART OF JERUSALEM.

A COMMUNIQUE FROM AMMAN SAID AN ALL-NIGHT BATTLE WAS FOUGHT WITH A FORCE OF 1,000 JEWS ATTEMPTING TO FORCE OPEN THE ROAD TO JERUSALEM AT BAB EL WAD. THE ARAB LEGION SAID 56 JEWS WERE KILLED AND THE REST FORCED TO RETREAT.

TEL AVIV DISPATCHES SAID THE JEWS WERE STILL GETTING SMALL QUANTITIES OF SUPPLIES THROUGH TO JERUSALEM BY SECRET ROADS WHICH SKIRT AN ARAB BLOCK AT LATRUN NEAR BAB EL WAD.

THE JEWS STILL CLAIMED TO HAVE THE EGYPTIAN SPEARHEAD AT ISDUD, 23 MILES SOUTH OF TEL AVIV, SURROUNDED.

(THE TRUCE TERMS CALLING FOR A STAND-STILL IN THE FRONT LINES PRESUMABLY WOULD LEAVE THIS EGYPTIAN FORCE OF ABOUT 1,000 SURROUNDED IF IT DOES NOT BREAK OUT BEFORE THE TRUCE BEGINS.) more

THE FIRST ANNOUNCEMENT OF ACCEPTANCE OF TRUCE TERMS WAS MADE IN AMMAN BY FAWZI MULKI PASHA, TRANS-JORDAN FOREIGN MINISTER, WHO SAID THE ARAB AGREEMENT WAS WITHOUT ANY CONDITION.

ISRAEL'S ANNOUNCEMENT AT TEL AVIV SAID THE JEWISH ACCEPTANCE ALSO WAS WITHOUT CONDITION, BUT THAT THE JEWISH GOVERNMENT HAD REQUESTED CERTAIN TECHNICAL MODIFICATIONS IN SOME

JUN 1948

TECHNICAL MODIFICATIONS IN SOME OF BERNADOTTE'S NINE TERMS.

THE TEXTS OF THE TWO REPLIES WERE NOT MADE PUBLIC HERE AT ONCE.

THE ARAB REPLY WAS DELIVERED TO COUNT BERNADOTTE AT 10:30 A.M., GREENWICH MEAN TIME (5:30 A.M., EASTERN STANDARD TIME). THE JEWISH ANSWER WAS HANDED IN 30 MINUTES AFTER THE NOON DEADLINE SET BY BERNADOTTE.

RALPH BUNCHE, U.N. OFFICIAL, SAID THE MATTER WAS TOO IMPORTANT, HOWEVER TO WORRY ABOUT THE TARDINESS. BERNADOTTE PREVIOUSLY HAD INDICATED HE WOULD RECEIVE THE ANSWERS EVEN IF THEY WERE HOURS LATE BECAUSE HE RECOGNIZED THAT COMMUNICATIONS IN THE MIDDLE EAST WERE DIFFICULT.

DISPATCHES FROM NICOSIA, CYPRUS, SAID LIGHT BRITISH TANKS AND PLANES WERE PATROLLING ABOUT DETENTION CAMPS THERE WHERE ABOUT 24,000 JEWS HAVE BEEN DETAINED FOR MONTHS FOLLOWING THEIR ATTEMPTS TO IMMIGRATE TO PALESTINE.

THE DISPATCHES SAID A HUNGER STRIKE WAS IN PROGRESS AND JEWISH AUTHORITIES WERE EXPECTING A DEMONSTRATION ON FRIDAY, THE DAY THE TRUCE IS TO BEGIN. THE BRITISH HAVE ANNOUNCED THEY WILL NOT ALLOW ANY FIT JEWS OF MILITARY AGE TO LEAVE THE ISLAND FOR PALESTINE DURING THE TRUCE.

DURING HIS PRESS CONFERENCE, COUNT BERNADOTTE WAS ASKED IF JEWISH WOMEN IMMIGRANTS BETWEEN THE AGES OF 15 AND 50 WOULD BE ALLOWED TO ENTER PALESTINE AND HE SAID THEY WOULD BE. THE U.N. SECURITY COUNCIL'S RESOLUTION REFERRED TO MEN OF MILITARY AGE, HE ADDED.

ASKED WHETHER RUSSIA HAD ASKED HIM FOR PERMISSION TO SEND OBSERVERS, BERNADOTTE SAID SHE HAD NOT.

CONSIDERATION ALREADY IS BEING GIVEN TO SELECTION OF A NEUTRAL SPOT FOR MEDIATION IN CASE THE TRUCE IS ACCEPTED. THE ISLAND OF RHODES HAS BEEN MENTIONED AS A POSSIBILITY; ALSO ISTANBUL IN TURKEY.

IN WASHINGTON, THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID IT IS SENDING 21 MILITARY MEN AS TRUCE OBSERVERS IN PALESTINE IMMEDIATELY. SOME AMERICANS ALREADY ARE THERE, BUT NOT AS OBSERVERS.

TEL AVIV, JUNE 9-(AP)-THE GOVERNMENT OF ISRAEL ANNOUNCED TODAY IT ACCEPTED COUNT BERNADOTTE'S FOUR-WEEK TRUCE PROPOSAL.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT WAS MADE BY FOREIGN MINISTER MOSHE SHERTOK. IT SAID NO CONDITIONS WERE ATTACHED TO JEWISH ACCEPTANCE.

AT THE SAME TIME THE ANNOUNCEMENT SAID ISRAEL REQUESTED CERTAIN TECHNICAL MODIFICATIONS IN THE NINE-POINT PROPOSAL OF THE U.N.MEDIATOR, COUNT BERNADOTTE, ON IMMIGRATION, WAR MATERIEL AND SUPPLIES TO JERUSALEM.

THE ISRAELI ACCEPTANCE WAS TELEGRAPHED TO BERNADOTTE AT CAIRO.

BY JAMES M.LONG

TEL AVIV, ISRAEL, JUNE 9-(AP)-FOREIGN MINISTER MOSHE SHERTOK DECLARED TONIGHT THAT ISRAEL'S ACCEPTANCE OF THE FOUR-WEEK TRUCE PROPOSED BY THE UNITED NATIONS "IS NOT A MATTER OF MILITARY NECESSITY FOR US."

"TO THE CONTRARY," HE ADDED, "RECENT CLAIMS OF ARAB VICTORIES IN PALESTINE HAVE BEEN BASED ON PROVERBIAL ARAB IMAGINATION AND INCURABLE BRITISH WISHFUL THINKING."

HE TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE THE NEWBORN STATE OF ISRAEL IS "BURSTING ITS BOUNDS" UNDER THE IMPACT OF ATTACK--"SPREADING ITS ROOTS FAST AND DEEP."

SINCE THE FIGHTING BEGAN, SHERTOK SAID, NEARLY 200 ARAB VILLAGES HAVE FALLEN INTO JEWISH HANDS, JAFFA, HAIFA, TIBERIAS AND SAFAD ARE DESERTED BY THEIR ARAB POPULATION, ALMOST ALL MODERN JERUSALEM OUTSIDE THE OLD CITY WALLS IS NOW HELD BY THE JEWS, AND FINALLY, JENIN HAS BEEN ABANDONED BY ITS RESIDENTS AND ITS DEFENDERS.

SHERTOK SPOKE BITTERLY OF THE FATE OF JERUSALEM.

"AT LAKE SUCCESS WE AGREED THAT ALL OF JERUSALEM SHOULD BE

INTERNATIONALIZED. IN THIS WE BOWED TO THE EXPRESSED WILL OF ALL THE CHRISTIAN COUNTRIES THAT THE INTERNATIONAL CHARACTER OF THE CITY SHOULD BE SAFEGUARDED.

"WE DID NOT AGREE TO THIS IN ORDER THAT JERUSALEM SHOULD BECOME THE SEAT OF AN ARAB KING.

"THE CHRISTIAN WORLD NOT ONLY HAS PROVED POWERLESS TO SAVE JERUSALEM, BUT IT HAS BEEN UNDER THE COMMAND OF A CHRISTIAN GENERAL AND UNDER CHRISTIAN OFFICERS--NEEDLESS TO SAY, EUROPEAN--THAT SHELLING IS PROCEEDING."

HE DECLARED THE JEWS WOULD REOPEN THE BATTLE, IF NECESSARY, TO SAVE JERUSALEM FROM ARAB DOMINATION.

JERUSALEM, JUNE 9-(AP)-AS IF BESIEGED JERUSALEM HADN'T TROUBLE ENOUGH -- NOW IT HAS A BAD CASE OF SPY JITTERS.

ANYONE ON THE STREET WHO CANNOT ANSWER QUESTIONS OF GUARDS IN HEBREW PROMPTLY BECOMES "A SPY FOR THE ARABS" AND USUALLY IS HUSTLED OFF FOR QUESTIONING.

THE SITUATION GOT WORSE AS THE SHELLING WENT ON. NOW, IN THE 26TH DAY, ARAB ARTILLERY FIRE IS BEGINNING TO GET ON THE PEOPLE'S NERVES.

EACH ONE OF 90,000 JEWS THINKS MOST OF THE REST PROBABLY ARE SHELL-FIRE SPOTTERS.

YESTERDAY HAGANAH SECURITY POLICE RAN UP TO AN APARTMENT HOUSE ROOF BECAUSE A HOUSEWIFE WAS HANGING OUT LAUNDRY. IT COULD HAVE BEEN FLAG SIGNALS, THEY SAID.

ASSOCIATED PRESS PHOTOGRAPHER JAMES PRINGLE WAS ARRESTED AND HELD FOR 45 MINUTES IN THE JEWISH AGENCY BUILDING LAST NIGHT BECAUSE HE ANSWERED IN ENGLISH, TINGED WITH IRISH BROGUE, WHEN A GUARD ASKED HIM THE TIME.

JOHN DONOVAN OF THE NATIONAL BROADCASTING COMPANY HAS BEEN ARRESTED TWICE, JUST FOR APPEARING AT THE GATE TO THE HAGANAH COMPOUND. HE WAS HELD THREE HOURS THE FIRST TIME AND AN HOUR THE SECOND.

PUBLIC MORALE IS GETTING TO BE A PROBLEM. NEW CENSORSHIP RULES EFFECTIVE TODAY BAN FROM PRINT ALL ARAB COMMUNIQUES. COMMUNIQUES FROM CAIRO, AMMAN AND DAMASCAUS --- WHICH REPORT TWO ARABS CAPTURING ZION SQUARE, DRIVING JEWS INTO THE SEA, KILLING ISRAELI SOLDIERS BY THE THOUSANDS --- HAVE BEEN A SOURCE OF AMUSEMENT TO THE JEWS. BUT THE SHELLING AND FOOD SHORTAGES GOT WORSE AND THINGS LIKE THAT JUST AREN'T FUNNY ANY MORE.

(a pooled dispatch from american correspondents in jerusalem).

jerusalem, june 9-(ap)-the jewish agency claimed a victory today over [redacted] arab legion forces in jerusalem.

late last night jewish forces observed one arab legion armored car advancing from the damascus gate of the old city in the direction of the former italian hospital, which is a forward jewish position.

other arab legion armored cars were seen preparing to move, so the jews expected a full-scale attack on jewish positions.

the jews opened a counterattack on the arab legion and fighting continued most of the night. the fighting was from house to house, in close quarters.

the jews drove off the arab legion armored cars and advanced into parts of the former musrarrah quarter, which formerly was held by arabs. the jewish lines now include an important corner of jerusalem up to the mea shearim police station.

JUN 1948

the jews suffered eight casualties, five of which were slightly wounded. the arab casualties were unknown but reported by jews to be heavy.

jewish planes bombed arab legion installations at bidu and nebi samvil and returned safely to their bases.

fighting continued near lydd (on the coast) and a jewish agency spokesman said "there is no doubt that a section of egyptian forces are cut off at lydd.

JUN 1948

late yesterday jerusalem was shelled with anti-personnel shells, a number of which exploded a few hundred feet in the air, as pedestrians ran for shelter. it was the first time this type of projectile was used in jerusalem and also the first time that flash from the guns could be seen in jerusalem from firing positions near the beit jalla village.

jerusalem, monday, june 7-(ap)-jacques de reynier, chief red cross delegate in palestine, said today the arab shelling of jewish jerusalem did not concern the red cross because the jews had refused to make jerusalem an open city.

"we have taken some steps to prevent shelling of hospitals, convents and red cross neutral zones," de reynier told a news conference, "but otherwise we take no steps because jerusalem is an armed camp. if women and children are hurt it is because they are on a battlefield. the jews have made no effort to evacuate their women and children and other non-combatants to red cross neutral zones."

RUSSIAN TRADE

BY CHARLES MOLONY

WASHINGTON, JUNE 9-(AP)-UNITED STATES POLICY ON TRADE WITH RUSSIA SETTLED INTO A "KEEP 'EM GUESSING" PHASE TODAY UNDER STRANGE CIRCUMSTANCES.

TO THE SECRECY OVER WHAT GOODS THE SOVIET UNION WILL BE LICENSED TO BUY HERE WAS ADDED ANOTHER PUZZLER: WHAT SHE ACTUALLY HAS BEEN ALLOWED TO GET SINCE THE U.S. CLAMPED DOWN ON EXPORT LICENSES MARCH 1.

PLANS FOR SECRETARY OF COMMERCE SAWYER TO TELL WHAT AMERICAN GOODS RUSSIA HAS BEEN GETTING RECENTLY--AS A ROUGH GUIDE TO WHAT SHE CAN HAVE IN THE FUTURE--WERE CANCELLED ABRUPTLY YESTERDAY.

NO REASON WAS GIVEN FOR THE CANCELLATION, BUT IT WAS LEARNED AUTHORITATIVELY THAT SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL MADE A PERSONAL CALL ON SAWYER SHORTLY BEFORE THE PLANS WERE CHANGED.

AT A NEWS CONFERENCE A LITTLE LATER, MICROPHONES WHICH HAD BEEN SET UP TO RECORD FOR RADIO USE AN EXPECTED STATEMENT BY SAWYER, WERE REQUESTED REMOVED BECAUSE "NO STATEMENT WILL BE READ."

SPECULATION OVER WHY THE STATE DEPARTMENT MIGHT OBJECT TO DISCLOSURE OF BUYING AUTHORIZATIONS ALREADY GIVEN RUSSIA CENTERED ON POSSIBLE FEAR OF ITS EFFECT ON THE CURRENT BATTLE IN CONGRESS OVER FUNDS TO AID WESTERN EUROPE.

THE HOUSE VOTED A $1,000,000,000 SLASH IN THE GLOBAL AID PROGRAM AND SECRETARY MARSHALL HAS URGED THE SENATE TO RESTORE THE REDUCTION. OTHERWISE, HE SAID, THE SOVIET-OPPOSED EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM WILL BE TURNED INTO A "MERE RELIEF PROJECT."

SAWYER TOLD REPORTERS HE WILL RELEASE DATA LATER--HE DID NOT SAY WHEN--ON TYPES AND VALUE OF GOODS SHIPPED TO RUSSIA, AFTER THE SHIPMENTS HAVE BEEN CLEARED.

HE DECLINED TO GO BEYOND THAT EXCEPT TO SAY THAT "SOME" INDUSTRIAL GOODS HAVE BEEN CLEARED TO RUSSIA SINCE MARCH 1. HE ADDED:

"THERE IS NO AGREEMENT OR POLICY THAT WILL PREVENT SHIPMENTS OF INDUSTRIAL GOODS TO EASTERN EUROPE IN THE FUTURE."

A27WX

BUT SAWYER, WHO TOOK OVER THE COMMERCE POST ONLY A FEW WEEKS AGO, DECLARED FLATLY THAT NO ADVANCE WORD WILL BE GIVEN ON WHAT GOODS THE RUSSIANS CAN COUNT ON GETTING FROM THIS COUNTRY.

THE COMMERCE CHIEF DECLINED TO ANSWER A NUMBER OF REQUESTS FOR CLARIFICATION OF THE RUSSIAN-TRADE SITUATION, OBSERVING THAT "FOREIGN POLICY" IS AMONG CONSIDERATIONS AFFECTING IT.

AT ONE POINT, HE SAID ANY FURTHER COMMENT WOULD HAVE TO COME FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

AT ANOTHER, HE SAID HE KNEW NOTHING ABOUT U.S. MILITARY AUTHORITIES HOLDING ANY VETO OVER SHIPMENTS THAT MIGHT CONTRIBUTE TO THE SOVIET BLOC'S "WAR POTENTIAL."

HOWEVER, SAWYER'S PREDECESSOR AS COMMERCE SECRETARY, W.AVERELL HARRIMAN, ANNOUNCED DURING MARCH THAT SUCH VETO POWER HAD BEEN GIVEN THE MILITARY. HARRIMAN AT THE TIME WAS UNDER FIRE FROM SOME CONGRESSMEN FOR LETTING RUSSIA BUY U.S. INDUSTRIAL GOODS.

HARRIMAN IS NOW ROVING AMBASSADOR FOR THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION.

SAWYER HINTED THAT AMERICAN FOREIGN POLICY--AND RUSSIA'S OWN ATTITUDES AND ACTIONS--WILL HAVE A PART IN DETERMINING FROM TIME TO TIME WHETHER THE SOVIETS WILL FIND IT HARD OR EASY TO BUY FROM THE U.S.

NIGHT LEAD FOREIGN AID

BY ED CREAGH

WASHINGTON, JUNE 9-(AP)-SENATOR VANDENBERG (R-MICH) BITTERLY ASSAILED HOUSE CUTS IN FOREIGN AID SPENDING TODAY AS A "CYNICAL" ATTEMPT TO REVERSE CONGRESS' OWN POLICY AND TO GUT THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM.

THE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE CHAIRMAN, WHOSE NAME LOOMS LARGE IN "DARK HORSE" SPECULATION OVER THE REPUBLICAN PRESIDENTIAL RACE, PLEADED FOR RESTORATION OF THE CUTS "FOR THE SAKE OF THE HOPES BY WHICH FREE MEN LIVE" AND TO FORESTALL "THE WAR WE DO NOT WANT."

VANDENBERG SPOKE AT HIS OWN REQUEST TO THE SENATE APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE AS IT OPENED HEARINGS ON THE HOUSE BILL, WHICH CUTS THIS COUNTRY'S FOREIGN SPENDING PROGRAM FROM $6,533,000,000 (B) TO $5,980,-000,000 (B) AND SPREADS IT OVER 15 MONTHS INSTEAD OF THE PLANNED 12.

"I RESPECTFULLY SUBMIT THAT ANY SUCH ACTION IS CALCULATED TO CHANGE THE CHARACTER OF ECA FROM 'RECOVERY' TO 'RELIEF' ALONE--THUS PLUNGING US BACK INTO THE DREARY, HOPELESS, STERILE AND UTTERLY COSTLY ROUTINES FROM WHICH WE MUST ESCAPE," SAID VANDENBERG.

ECA IS THE EUROPEAN COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION SET UP TO RUN THE "MARSHALL PLAN." ECA ADMINISTRATOR PAUL G.HOFFMAN AND SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL ARE TO TESTIFY BEFORE THE FINANCE COMMITTEE FRIDAY.

MARSHALL SAID AT HIS NEWS CONFERENCE TODAY THAT, WITH AMERICAN PRESTIGE AND INTERESTS DEEPLY INVOLVED, IT WOULD BE MOST UNFORTUNATE TO LIMIT ECA FUNDS TO A DEGREE THAT MIGHT IMPERIL THE SUCCESS OF THE WHOLE PROGRAM.

VANDENBERG'S STATEMENT, ONE OF THE MOST FORCEFUL HE HAS EVER MADE, BROUGHT HIM INTO OPEN LEGISLATIVE WARFARE WITH CHAIRMAN TABER (R-NY) OF THE HOUSE APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE AND OTHER GOP LEADERS WHO BACKED THE FOREIGN SPENDING SLASHES IN THE HOUSE.

A217WX

WITHOUT NAMING ANY INDIVIDUALS, VANDENBERG ACCUSED THEM OF SEEKING, THROUGH THE "BACK DOOR" AND WITH A "MEAT AXE TECHNIQUE," TO VETO "THE DECLARED POLICIES OF CONGRESS AND THUS TO BRAND THOSE POLICIES BEFORE THE WORLD AS CAPRICIOUS, UNRELIABLE AND IMPOTENT."

TABER COUNTERED IMMEDIATELY: "I WILL FIGHT TO THE END TO RETAIN THIS REDUCTION IN THE BILL AND RESIST ALL THE SPECIAL PRESSURES WHICH ARE BEING MUSTERED TO MAKE A TREACHEROUS RAID ON THE AMERICAN TAXPAYER."

HE ADDED IN A STATEMENT THAT THE AID BILL HAS BECOME A TEST "WHETHER THE AMERICAN PEOPLE WILL SUPPORT LEGISLATION BASED ON FACTS AND CONSTITUTIONAL GOVERNMENT OR WHETHER THEY WANT BILLIONS OF DOLLARS OF TAX MONEY APPROPRIATED BY HEARSAY AND EMOTION."

WITH THESE STATEMENTS, THE REPUBLICAN SPLIT ON FOREIGN SPENDING APPEARED WIDE AND DEEP. IT ALSO STRETCHED BEYOND CONGRESS. GOV. THOMAS E.DEWEY OF NEW YORK AND HAROLD E.STASSEN, LEADING CANDIDATES FOR THE PARTY'S PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATION, ALREADY HAVE LINED UP ON VANDENBERG'S SIDE.

AND TODAY GOV.EARL WARREN OF CALIFORNIA TELEGRAPHED VANDENBERG "MORE POWER TO YOU" IN THE MICHIGAN SENATOR'S FIGHT FOR BOTH THE FULL RECOVERY PROGRAM AND FOR RENEWAL OF THE RECIPROCAL TRADE AGREEMENTS PROGRAM.

"A REPUDIATION OF EITHER AT THIS TIME WOULD BE A SEVERE SETBACK TO WORLD RECOVERY," WARREN SAID, ADDING THAT ECA IS "A DEFINITE PART OF THE BIPARTISAN FOREIGN POLICY TO WHICH OUR PARTY IS COMMITTED, LARGELY AS A RESULT OF YOUR OWN FINE EFFORTS."

THE CONTROVERSY UNDOUBTEDLY WILL HAVE REPERCUSSIONS IN PLATFORM DRAFTING, IF NOT IN THE CHOICE OF A PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE, AT THE REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION OPENING AT PHILADELPHIA IN LESS THAN TWO

30.24- 18399

WEEKS.
WHAT HAS HAPPENED IS THIS, SO FAR AS ECA IS CONCERNED:
CONGRESS SET UP THE PROGRAM TWO MONTHS AGO, VOTING $1,000,000,000(B) TO GET IT STARTED AND "AUTHORIZING" UP TO $4,300,000,000 (B) MORE FOR THE FIRST YEAR OF THE 16-NATION MUTUAL HELP PROGRAM(OTHER SUMS WERE AUTHORIZED FOR OTHER AREAS OF THE WORLD.)
BUT TABER'S COMMITTEE HELD THAT THIS WAS MORE THAN THE COUNTRY COULD WISELY SPEND. ALONG WITH OTHER FOREIGN SPENDING CUTS, IT VOTED ONLY $4,000,000,000(B) FOR EUROPE AND SAID IT MUST LAST 15 MONTHS. THE HOUSE FOLLOWED THE COMMITTEE'S RECOMMENDATION.

A218WX

NOW THE SENATE APPROPRIATION COMMITTEE MUST DECIDE WHETHER TO ACCEPT THE CUTS OR TRY TO RESTORE THEM. IN EITHER CASE, THE COMMITTEE'S BILL MUST GO BEFORE THE FULL SENATE. ANY DIFFERENCES BETWEEN SENATE AND HOUSE BILLS MAY BE IRONED OUT IN CONFERENCE.
VANDENBERG SAID TODAY THAT THE WESTERN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES, ASSUMING THAT CONGRESS "MEANT BUSINESS" WHEN IT SET UP A $5,300,000,000 PROGRAM, BEGAN DOING THEIR PART "AT THE HAZARD OF SERIOUS REPRISALS WHEN COMMUNISM DECLARED BITTER WAR ON THE ENTERPRISE."
"MORE PROGRESS HAS BEEN MADE TOWARD (EUROPEAN) UNIFICATION IN A FEW MONTHS THAN IN CENTURIES PRECEDING," VANDENBERG SAID.
"AS A MATTER OF INTELLIGENT SELF-INTEREST," HE DECLARED, "THIS CONGRESS CANNOT AFFORD TO THROW OUR ATTITUDES INTO DOUBT AND THUS TO MULTIPLY THE TERRIFIED CONFUSION OF A WORLD IN WHICH THE FORCES OF AGGRESSION AND SUBVERSION THRIVE UPON CONFUSION."
VANDENBERG ESTIMATED THAT THE EFFECT OF THE HOUSE CUTS WOULD BE TO REDUCE ERP'S FIRST-YEAR BUDGET BY AT LEAST $1,000,000,000 (B) "WITHOUT A SCINTILLA OF REGARD FOR ALL OF THE CAREFULLY SCREENED FIGURES" ALREADY LAID BEFORE CONGRESS.
"I RESPECTFULLY SUBMIT," VANDENBERG TOLD CHAIRMAN BRIDGES (R-NH), "THAT FOR OUR OWN SAKES WE DARE NOT DEAL WITH THIS VITAL PROBLEM IN THE LIFE OF THE WORLD, INCLUDING US, IN ANY SUCH CAVALIER FASHION."

NIGHT LEAD MARSHALL-GERMAN

BY JOHN M.HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON,JUNE 9-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT ACCEPTS PROPOSALS OF THE LONDON CONFERENCE FOR UNIFYING WESTERN GERMANY, SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL ANNOUNCED TODAY. HE SAID THEY SHOULD PROVIDE A BASIS FOR BRINGING ALL GERMANY TOGETHER.
THE PROPOSALS, WHICH NOW BECOME BASIC AMERICAN FOREIGN POLICY, CALL FOR (1) CREATION OF A SEPARATE WESTERN GERMAN GOVERNMENT, (2) INTERNATIONAL CONTROL OF RUHR STEEL, COAL AND COKE PRODUCTION AND (3) CONTINUED OCCUPATION OF THE REICH UNTIL THE PEACE OF EUROPE "IS SECURE."
APPROVAL OF CONGRESS WAS NOT SOUGHT ALTHOUGH SOME MEMBERS INFORMALLY CONTEND THAT AT LEAST PART OF THE PROGRAM SHOULD GO BEFORE THE SENATE AS A TREATY.
MARSHALL ANNOUNCED AMERICAN ACCEPTANCE AT A NEWS CONFERENCE AT WHICH HE ALSO SOUGHT TO REASSURE THE FRENCH THAT THE PROJECTED STEPS FOR THE FUTURE OF WESTERN GERMANY CONTAIN ADEQUATE SAFEGUARDS AGAINST GERMAN MILITARY REVIVAL.
THE QUESTION OF SECURITY HAS BEEN UPPERMOST IN FRENCH CONCERN OVER GERMANY'S FUTURE. THE FRENCH CABINET APPROVED THE LONDON CONFERENCE PROPOSALS YESTERDAY BUT ITS POSITION HAS STILL TO BE DEBATED IN THE FRENCH ASSEMBLY. THE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE OF THE ASSEMBLY APPROVED THE PROPOSAL TODAY BUT ACTED WITH A NARROW MARGIN OF VOTES WHICH INDICATES A SHARP FIGHT IN THE DEBATE OPENING FRIDAY.
ON THE QUESTION OF SECURITY AGAINST POSSIBLE FUTURE GERMAN AGGRESSION, MARSHALL SAID THAT THE FEARS OF THE FRENCH WERE EASILY UNDERSTANDABLE AND MOREOVER IT IS HARDLY TO BE EXPECTED THAT THE GENERAL PUBLIC WILL UNDERSTAND COMPLICATED ECONOMIC ARRANGEMENTS.
THE PROBLEM OF GERMANY'S FUTURE, HE DECLARED, INVOLVES A CAREFUL BALANCE BETWEEN (1) THE REQUIREMENTS OF REBUILDING EUROPE WITH GERMAN INDUSTRIAL HELP AND (2) DANGER THAT REVIVAL OF CERTAIN TYPES OF GERMAN INDUSTRY MIGHT BE A FUTURE THREAT TO PEACE.
HE SAID THAT HE CONSIDERED THAT THE DECISIONS OF THE LONDON CONFERENCE STRUCK A BALANCE BETWEEN THOSE TWO EXTREMES.
THE LONDON MEETING WAS ATTENDED BY REPRESENTATIVES OF THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN, FRANCE, EACH OF WHICH HAS OCCUPATION ZONES IN WESTERN GERMANY, AND BY BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG, NEIGHBORS OF THE WESTERN ZONES. THE CONFERENCE DECISIONS HAVE NO POWER AS POLICY UNTIL FORMALLY ACCEPTED BY ALL SIX GOVERNMENTS.

A236WX

MARSHALL OPENED HIS NEWS CONFERENCE WITH A STATEMENT BEGINNING: "I WISH TO ANNOUNCE THAT THE U.S.GOVERNMENT APPROVES AND ACCEPTS THE RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE LONDON CONFERENCE OF THE WESTERN POWERS RESPECTING GERMANY."
AS EXPECTED HE ACTED WITHOUT ANY FORMAL APPROVAL FROM CONGRESS ALTHOUGH SOME CONGRESSIONAL LEADERS, INCLUDING SENATORS TAFT (R-OHIO), HAD ARGUED THAT AT LEAST THE SECTION OF THE AGREEMENT SETTING UP SEVEN-NATION CONTROL OF RUHR PRODUCTION SHOULD BE HANDLED AS A TREATY, SUBJECT TO SENATE RATIFICATION.
ON THAT POINT, MARSHALL TOLD THE QUESTIONERS SIMPLY THAT HE HAD NOT CONSULTED ANY LAWYERS ABOUT THE QUESTION OF CONGRESSIONAL ACTION.
THROUGHOUT HIS STATEMENT HE REFERRED TO AMERICAN DESIRES FOR UNIFICATION OF ALL GERMANY, INCLUDING THE EASTERN ZONE OCCUPIED BY RUSSIA. BUT HE SAID THAT "THE THREE WESTERN POWERS TRIED WITHOUT SUCCESS TO OBTAIN SOVIET ACCEPTANCE" OF PRINCIPLES OF ECONOMIC UNITY.
HE STRESSED PARTICULARLY THOSE DECISIONS OF THE LONDON CONFERENCE PROVIDING FOR COOPERATIVE ECONOMIC OPERATION OF THE WESTERN ZONE AND FOR A SERIES OF POLITICAL STEPS BY WHICH THE PEOPLE OF WESTERN GERMANY WILL DRAW UP A CONSTITUTION AND ORGANIZE A FEDERAL GOVERNMENT FOR THEMSELVES.
"THIS CONSTITUTION," MARSHALL SAID, "SHOULD INSURE THE NORMAL FUNCTIONING OF FREE POLITICAL INSTITUTIONS, SHOULD GUARANTEE BASIC CIVIL LIBERTIES FOR THE INDIVIDUAL, AND SHOULD PROVIDE FOR THE ULTIMATE ADHERENCE OF ALL THE GERMAN STATES AS SOON AS CIRCUMSTANCES PERMIT."
HE ALSO REFERRED TO THE POSSIBILITY OF UNIFYING EASTERN AND WESTERN GERMANY ON THE BASIS OF THE WESTERN POWER AGREEMENTS IN A SUMMARY SENTENCE DECLARING:
"THE UNITED STATES BELIEVES THAT THE LONDON PROGRAM WILL STAND THE TEST OF EXPERIENCE AND THAT IF CONDITIONS CAN BE DEVELOPED FOR ITS APPLICATION TO GERMANY AS A WHOLE IT WOULD RESOLVE THE ISSUES WHICH HAVE THUS FAR DIVIDED GERMANY UNDER THE OCCUPATION POWERS AND WOULD THEREBY REMOVE THE PRINCIPAL OBSTACLE TO THE DEVELOPMENT OF A PEACEFUL EUROPE."
NOTICE OF MARSHALL'S ACTION IN ACCEPTING THE RECOMMENDATIONS WAS DISPATCHED TO THE OTHER FIVE MEMBERS OF THE LONDON CONFERENCE.

MARSHALL TEXT

WASHINGTON,JUNE 9-(AP)-THE TEXT OF SECRETARY MARSHALL'S ANNOUNCEMENT OF UNITED STATES' ACCEPTANCE OF THE LONDON PROGRAM FOR WESTERN GERMANY FOLLOWS (ABOUT 500)

I WISH TO ANNOUNCE THAT THE U.S. GOVERNMENT APPROVES AND ACCEPTS THE RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE LONDON CONFERENCE OF THE WESTERN POWERS RESPECTING GERMANY.

THE U.S. GOVERNMENT BELIEVES THAT THE LONDON RECOMMENDATIONS, WHICH AT THE OUTSET WILL APPLY TO THE LARGER PART OF GERMANY, REPRESENT A MAJOR STEP TOWARD A COMPREHENSIVE SOLUTION OF GERMAN PROBLEMS. THE RECOMMENDATIONS ARE THE PRODUCE OF INTENSIVE STUDY AND PROLONGED NEGOTIATION IN THE COURSE OF WHICH MUTUALLY BENEFICIAL AGREEMENTS WERE REACHED.

THESE AGREEMENTS, INCLUDING THAT RELATING TO THE RUHR, CONSTITUTE A PROGRAM WHICH, WHILE CONTINUING ADEQUATE SECURITY SAFEGUARDS AND RE-ENFORCING CONTROLS OVER DEMILITARIZATION, OFFER THE GERMANS THE OPPORTUNITY OF PEACEFUL RECONSTRUCTION AND SELF-GOVERNMENT IN KEEPING WITH THE PRINCIPLES OF THE POTSDAM AGREEMENT.

THE U.S. FAVORS A UNITED GERMANY BUT HAS CONSISTENTLY STRESSED THAT POLITICAL UNITY MUST PROCEED FROM ECONOMIC UNITY AND THAT BOTH MUST BE BASED ON A RECOGNITION OF INDIVIDUAL LIBERTIES. ECONOMIC UNITY EMBRACES THE FREE MOVEMENT OF PERSONS THROUGHOUT ALL OF GERMANY, THE FREE MOVEMENT OF TRADE, A COMMON EXPORT-IMPORT PROGRAM AND THE CESSATION BY THE SOVIETS OF REPARATION REMOVALS FROM CURRENT PRODUCTION.

THE THREE WESTERN POWERS TRIED WITHOUT SUCCESS TO OBTAIN SOVIET ACCEPTANCE OF THESE PRINCIPLES, WHICH ARE FAIR AND JUST AND OFFER THE ONLY MEANS FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF GERMAN UNITY.

THE GOVERNMENTS REPRESENTED AT LONDON CONSIDER THAT TO THE GREATEST EXTENT POSSIBLE GERMANY SHOULD BE UNITED ECONOMICALLY AND BE PERMITTED TO CONTRIBUTE TO, AND SHARE IN THE WELFARE OF THOSE COUNTRIES OF EUROPE WHICH ARE COOPERATING IN THE COMMON ECONOMIC GOOD. IT WAS LIKEWISE AGREED THAT THE GERMANS IN THE WESTERN AREA SHOULD NOW BE FREE TO PROCEED WITH THE ASSUMPTION OF GOVERNMENTAL RESPONSIBILITIES WHICH WOULD ENABLE THEM TO GIVE EFFECTIVE ASSISTANCE TOWARD THESE ENDS AND TOWARD THE EVOLUTION OF THEIR OWN POLITICAL FUTURE ALONG PEACEFUL LINES.

JUN 1948

B118WX

IT IS ENVISAGED THAT A CONSTITUTION FOR A FEDERAL GOVERNMENT WILL BE DRAWN UP BY THE GERMANS THEMSELVES THROUGH DELEGATES FROM THE PARTICIPATING STATES. THIS CONSTITUTION SHOULD INSURE THE NORMAL FUNCTIONING OF FREE POLITICAL INSTITUTIONS, SHOULD GUARANTEE BASIC CIVIL LIBERTIES FOR THE INDIVIDUAL AND SHOULD PROVIDE FOR THE ULTIMATE ADHERENCE OF ALL THE GERMAN STATES AS SOON AS CIRCUMSTANCES PERMIT.

THE UNITED STATES BELIEVES THAT THE LONDON PROGRAM WILL STAND THE TEST OF EXPERIENCE AND THAT IF CONDITIONS CAN BE DEVELOPED FOR ITS APPLICATION TO GERMANY AS A WHOLE IT WOULD RESOLVE THE ISSUES WHICH HAVE THUS FAR DIVIDED GERMANY UNDER THE OCCUPATION POWERS AND WOULD THEREBY REMOVE THE PRINCIPAL OBSTACLES TO THE DEVELOPMENT OF A PEACEFUL EUROPE. LATER THE RUSSIAN EMBASSY SAID WITHOUT DETAILS THAT SUCH A COMMUNICATION WAS DELIVERED ABOUT 8 P.M. EST.

IT WAS EXPLAINED BY AMERICAN OFFICIALS THAT ANY RUSSIAN DOCUMENT WHICH MIGHT HAVE REACHED THE DEPARTMENT AFTER RESPONSIBLE DIPLOMATS LEFT FOR THE DAY WOULD NOT BE TRANSLATED AND IDENTIFIED AS TO CONTENTS UNTIL TOMORROW.

JUN 1948

THE RUSSIAN ANNOUNCEMENT OF SUCH A COMPLAINT CAME AS NO PARTICULAR SURPRISE HERE. SOVIET ATTACKS ON ALLEGED AMERICAN WARMONGERING WHICH WERE MADE AT THE UNITED NATIONS LAST FALL WERE REGARDED AS PROPAGANDA MOVES DESIGNED PRIMARILY TO BOLSTER THE RUSSIAN CLAIM THAT THE UNITED STATES IS FOLLOWING WARLIKE POLICIES.

THIS ARGUMENT HAS BEEN USED FOR MONTHS BY THE RUSSIANS IN EFFORTS TO DISCREDIT AND DESTROY THIS GOVERNMENT'S STOP-RUSSIAN PROGRAM.

ANOTHER ASPECT OF THE RUSSIAN WARMONGERING CHARGES WHICH RECEIVED CONSIDERABLE STUDY FROM AMERICAN OFFICIALS WAS THE POSSIBILITY THAT THE SOVIETS HOPED TO FORCE THE UNITED STATES TO RESTRICT THE FREEDOM OF THE AMERICAN PRESS AND RADIO AND PREVENT THE AIRING OF CRITICISM OF THE SOVIET UNION.

LAKE SUCCESS, JUNE 9-(AP)-UNITED NATIONS OFFICIALS WERE ELATED TODAY OVER JEWISH-ARAB ACCEPTANCE OF PALESTINE CEASE-FIRE TERMS.

SOME DELEGATES AND SECRETARIAT MEMBERS, HOWEVER, CAUTIONED AGAINST PREMATURE CELEBRATION OF THE U.N. ACHIEVEMENT.

IT WAS POINTED OUT THAT ANY NUMBER OF SITUATIONS MIGHT DEVELOP BETWEEN NOW AND 1 A.M. (EST) FRIDAY-- THE ZERO HOUR FOR THE CEASE-FIRE.

IT ALSO WAS STRESSED BY SOME THAT THE SITUATION IN PALESTINE WAS SO EXPLOSIVE THAT EVEN A SMALL INCIDENT MIGHT WRECK THE ENTIRE TRUCE PLAN.

THE CAUTIOUS ATTITUDE OF TOP U.N. OFFICIALS WAS REFLECTED IN

THE FACT THAT SECRETARY-GENERAL TRYGVE LIE POSTPONED HIS WEEKLY NEWS CONFERENCE, SCHEDULED FOR TODAY, BECAUSE OF THE UNCERTAINTY HERE THIS FORENOON. IT WILL BE HELD LATER WHEN HE HAS WORD.

NO OFFICIAL WORD HAD BEEN RECEIVED FROM COUNT FOLKE BERNADOTTE, U.N. PALESTINE MEDIATOR, UP TO NOON (EST).

AFTER THE TRUCE BECOMES EFFECTIVE, THE U.N. FACES THE TASK OF TRYING TO WORK OUT A PERMANENT SETTLEMENT IN FOUR WEEKS.

CONSIDERATION ALREADY IS BEING GIVEN TO SELECTION OF A NEUTRAL SPOT FOR MEDIATION TALKS UNDER THE DIRECTION OF SWEDISH COUNT FOLKE BERNADOTTE. POSSIBILITIES INCLUDE THE ISLAND OF RHODES AND ISTANBUL.

TEL AVIV, CAIRO AND OTHER ARAB CAPITALS ARE BELIEVED OUT OF THE QUESTION, SINCE JEWISH AND ARAB REPRESENTATIVES WILL BE SITTING FOR THE TALKS. THE PRESENCE OF JEWISH IMMIGRANTS IN CYPRUS DETENTION CAMPS PROBABLY WILL RULE OUT THAT ISLAND.

LULL IN FIGHTING PRECEDES TRUCE IN PALESTINE WAR

Both Sides Make Late Moves to Improve Strategic Positions.

WARNINGS ARE GIVEN

Irgunists Charge Acceptance of Armistice Is 'Great Blunder.'

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Israeli and Arab troops made late attempts to improve their strategic positions in Palestine and then slowed the pace of the fighting yesterday as the deadline for the four-week truce approached.

The truce was to become effective early today. There were discordant notes as a lull settled over the fighting fronts.

Lebanon's government authorized the seizure of all Israel-bound shipments touching Beirut. In accepting the truce, Israel declared any Arab attempt to confiscate or hold up cargoes would be regarded as a "war-like act."

"Great Blunder," Irgun Says

Irgun Zvai Leumi, the former Jewish underground organization, said the Israeli government's acceptance of the truce was a "great blunder."

Abdel Rahman Azzam Pasha, secretary general of the Arab League, said the truce did not mean war would not be resumed if the Jews "insist on creation of a Zionist state."

Egypt announced last night, on the eve of the four-week United Nations truce in Palestine, that Egyptian troops had killed 300 Jewish fighters at Nitsanim, on the coastal plain south of Tel Aviv.

A defense ministry communique reported the action without saying when it occurred. It said also Egyptian planes had caused damage and started fires in attacks on Tel Aviv and other Jewish settlements.

There was considerable fighting in the Holy Land Wednesday night. Delayed accounts gave this picture of the operations then:

Clash at Latrun

Approximately 6,000 Arabs and Jews clashed at Latrun where the battle for the Jerusalem-Tel Aviv road has been going on almost steadily for three weeks. Israeli units have cleared Bab El Wad gorge to the east and won the highlands south of the road. Arab Legionnaires were on the defensive on a mountain-top position north of the highway.

Egyptian commanders reportedly threw irregular volunteers into a flanking attack aimed at freeing the 1,000 or more Egyptian troops who spearheaded the Arab drive on Tel Aviv and became trapped at Isdud, 23 miles south of the Israeli capital. The Egyptians said they drove the Jews out of two villages about 18 miles east of Isdud.

Iraqui units continued their efforts to push back the Israeli forces menacing Jenin, the northern anchor of the Arab triangle in central Palestine. In Jerusalem Jewish fighters drove the Arab Legion out of a strip 200 yards deep and a half-mile long in the northern part of the modern city.

300 ARE SLAIN, EGYPT CLAIMS

Jewish Fighters Reported Killed South Of Tel Aviv

Cairo, June 10 (AP)—Egypt said tonight on the eve of a United Nations truce in the Holy Land that 300 Jewish fighters were killed by Egyptian troops at Nitsanim, on the coastal plain south of Tel Aviv. Nitsanim is between Majdal and Isdud.

A Defense Ministry communiqué issued a matter of hours before the cease-fire deadline in the Arab-Jewish war, also said Egyptian planes had caused damage and started fires in raids on Tel Aviv and other Jewish settlements.

The communiqué did not say when the raids or the action at Nitsanim occurred. But another Egptian announcement tonight said Mohammed Haidar Pasha, Defense Minister, would broadcast the cease-fire order to Egyptian Troops shortly before the 6 A.M., G.M.T., (1 A.M. E.S.T.) deadline tomorrow.

Offensives On Four Fronts

After 26 days of fighting there was a jarring approach to the Friday truce hour. It was provided by discordant notes and belated offensives on four fronts. Both sides were trying to improve their strategic positions before the deadline for a four-week standstill period.

The Lebanese Government authorized the seizure of all Israel-bound shipments touching Beirut. Israel, in accepting the truce, already had declared any Arab attempt to confiscate or hold up cargoes would be regarded as a "war-like act."

Irgun Calls It Blunder

Igun Zvai Leumi, which already has threatened to disregard any truce in Jerusalem, broadcast that the Israel Government's acceptance of the truce was a "great blunder." Irgun said the agreement was as bad as the 1939 British White Paper limiting Jewish immigration.

Abdel Rahman Azzam Pasha, secretary general of the Arab League, declared the truce did not mean war would not be resumed if the Jews "insist on creation of a Zionist state."

Dispatches from Amman, the Trans-Jordan capital, said the Arab people appeared puzzled by their leaders' acceptance of the truce which they regarded as a Jewish strategem to gain time and throw the Arab military machine off stride.

Order From Ben-Gurion

At Tel Aviv Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion appealed to Jewish soldiers and civilians throughout the Holy Land to obey strictly the United Nations truce.

Ben-Gurion said Jewish troops on all fronts already had been instructed to cease fire at 10 A.M. Israeli time tomorrow.

The Israeli army said tonight that Syrian troops crossed the River Jordan again today and attacked Mishmar Hayarden, south of Lake Hula.

A communiqué said other enemy forces were shelling Ein Geb, on the eastern shore of the Sea of Galilee, and Samakh, a town recaptured by the Jews May 21. Arab mobile forces attacked Geser, a small Jewish settlement near Ramle, captured it and then lost it again to the Jews, the communiqué said.

An army spokesman, summing up Jewish-Arab air battles since Israel's air force came into being, said the Jews had lost only two planes and had shot down 20 enemy planes.

An officer in charge of war prisoners said 1,200 Arab prisoners now are in Jewish hands. About 625 Jews are being held as war prisoners in a camp at Mafrak, Trans-Jordan, he said.

An Israeli spokesman indicated the most important front in the war was quieting down without a decisive result. This was at Latrun where the battle for the road to Jerusalem has been going on with little intermission for three weeks.

An Associated Press dispatch, dated last night, from the Jewish side of the lines there said at least 6,000 Arabs and Jews were arrayed in fierce combat but that the truce was about to ring the bell on the battle.

5-Mile No-Man's Land

This only eyewitness account of fighting in the sector said a brigade, or about 3,000 men, of the Arab Legion was on the defensive on a mountain-top position north of the road. An equal or larger force of Haganah, the dispatch said, had won the highlands south of the road and cleared bloody Bab el Wad gorge to the east in the three weeks battle.

But a 5-mile stretch of the highway east of the Latrun Monastery was described as a no-man's land, swept by the guns of both sides. Haganah was reported driving hard with artillery and night assault to secure the remaining link of road. But their only path to Jerusalem was a circuitous and gun-swept back-mountain trail which could be traversed only by jeep, mule or on foot.

Truce "Observation"

That Israel hoped to the last to open the road before the truce was indicated by one of the "observations" made in her acceptance of the truce that there should be no interference with passage to Jerusalem to the extent it "may have been secured by the operations of Jewish forces at the time of the commencement of the cease-fire."

Palestine Notes Truce Eve Lull

Tel Aviv, June 10 (AP)—Palestine's battlefronts reflected a pre-truce lull today.

Several minor encounters were reported, but there appeared to be no major military activity.

Tel Aviv, bombed daily since the beginning of the Palestine war, was quiet.

Jerusalem also had a respite, but not for long. Arab commanders in the Old City agreed to a six-hour lull this morning to permit the International Red Cross delegation to leave the city for Amman, Trans-Jordan. Shortly thereafter shells began falling into the Jewish-held areas again.

Strategic Spot Sought

From the north there were some indications that Iraqi troops were maneuvering to hold the best possible strategic position when the truce becomes effective, and this was believed to be true of Egyptian troops in the south also.

Irgun Zvai Leumi, now a part of the Jewish Army, assailed the Israeli Government last night for its unconditional acceptance of the truce. Irgun called Count Folke Bernadotte, the United Nations mediator, a British servant.

Irgun—former Jewish underground organization—charged the Government blundered in not demanding withdrawal of Arab invaders from Palestine soil. It also criticized acceptance of immigration restrictions.

Irgun claimed a truce under such conditions would mean the deterioration of Israel's political and military status and said that while control with British participation will be effective against the Jews it will not have any effect against the Arabs.

TRUCE ORDERS BEING ISSUED IN PALESTINE

Arabs and Jews Informing Troops to Cease Fire at 2 A. M. Friday.

IRGUN ASSAILS ISRAEL ACTION

Former Underground Body Voices Criticism of the Unconditional Acceptance of Armistice.

Cairo, June 10 (A. P.).—Cease-fire orders are going out today to Arab and Jewish troops in the field. They are being told to stop shooting at 2 A. M. tomorrow, Eastern daylight time, for four weeks, during which efforts will be made to settle the month-old Palestine war peaceably.

Premier Tewfik Abu Alhuda announced in Amman, Trans-Jordan, last night that Trans-Jordan forces in Palestine already have been ordered to cease fire at the appointed deadline. This would include the Arab Legion, one of the Arabs' main striking forces.

In Tel Aviv, Foreign Minister Moshe Shertok said that Israel was ready to issue a cease-fire order to Jewish troops.

Bernadotte said he would call a peace conference as soon as possible on the neutral Mediterranean Island of Rhodes.

"We have achieved only the first step," Bernadotte told newsmen. "I assure you we are going to work with the same energy for the big result we hope to get—peace in Palestine."

United Nations Secretary-General Trygve Lie said at Lake Success that Bernadotte was asking for six coastal vessels and sixty-three military officers to supervise compliance with the truce terms. Under present plans, Lie said, the United States, France and Belgium will supply the ships and military observers. The mediator said that these officers will be under the supervision of a group of Swedish colonels who arrived in Cairo yesterday to be his aids.

Roads to Be Watched.

During the truce, Bernadotte said, military observers will be stationed at all Palestine ports and airfields and all main roads will be watched. If immigrant men of military age arrive in small numbers, they will be placed in detention camps, he said.

The mediator said that he will fly to Amman tomorrow and then proceed to Jerusalem on the first day of the truce. On Saturday, he will leave for Rhodes, where he will establish his headquarters.

The Lebanese Government today authorized the requisition of all goods destined for Zionists in Palestine aboard ships touching Beirut. No exceptions were made for the nationality of the ship owners.

Meanwhile, Palestine's battlefronts reflected a pre-truce lull. Several minor encounters were reported, but there appeared to be no major military activity. Tel Aviv, bombed daily since the beginning of the Palestine war, was quiet.

Shelling Resumed.

Jerusalem also had a pre-truce respite, but not for long. Arab commanders in the Old City agreed to a six-hour lull this morning to permit the International Red Cross delegation to leave the city for Amman, Trans-Jordan. Shortly thereafter shells began falling inside the Jewish-held areas again.

From the north there were some indications that Iraqi troops were maneuvering to hold the best possible strategic position when the truce becomes effective and this was believed to be true of Egyptian troops in the south, also.

In Nicosia, Cyprus, British planes and light ta[illegible]pt watch today on Jewish internment camps where inmates are on a hunger strike. About 24,000 Jews are being held in Cyprus, where they were taken after trying to enter Palestine without visas. The strike resulted when the British ruled that Jews of military age would not be allowed to go to Israel while truce negotiations were in progress.

BERNADOTTE GIVES CREDIT TO GOD

Cairo, June 10 (A. P.).—Count Folke Bernadotte United Nations mediator, told newsmen that if he had not received help from God, co-operation from both Jews and Arabs, and fine assistance from his staff, the Palestine truce could not have been achieved.

Britain Offers Coastal Watch

LONDON, June 10 (AP).—A Foreign Office spokesman said today Great Britain may offer the United Nations "an air and sea watch over the coast of Palestine to insure that truce terms will be observed."

The spokesman would not say whether there had been any United Nations request for this. The U. N. has asked a patrol by vessels of the United States, Belgium and France, which are represented on the Consular Truce Commission in Jerusalem.

If such a British offer should be accepted, it would be the first British commitment in Palestine since Britain gave up the League of Nations mandate May 15. Britain for two years blockaded the Palestine coast against visaless Jewish immigrants.

MOSCOW ACCUSES U. S. OF UNBRIDLED WAR PROPAGANDA

Washington Studies Note of Protest—Copy Is Sent to U. N.

London, June 10 (A. P.).—Russia has complained to the American Government and the United Nations that "unbridled propaganda for a new war is being carried on in the United States," the Moscow radio said today.

An official note protesting that the United States is violating a United Nations resolution condemning warmongering was handed to American officials in Washington yesterday, the broadcast said, and a copy was presented to Trygve Lie, secretary-general of the U. N.

A similar complaint was voiced about the Netherlands.

Moscow quoted the Russian note as saying: "Despite the resolution of the second session of the United Nations General Assembly on 'measures to be adopted against war propaganda and warmongers,' adopted unanimously by States which are members of the United Nations, unbridled propaganda for a new war is being carried on in the United States."

The U. N. Assembly adopted last fall a toned down version of a Soviet proposal to prosecute warmongers. The resolution called on members to encourage dissemination of information designed to "give expression to the undoubted desire of all peoples for peace." It also condemned all forms of propaganda designed or likely to provoke or encourage a breach of peace or aggression. A separate resolution was passed asking nations to study measures for combatting false or distorted reports likely to injure friendly relations between nations.

News Magazine Article.

The specific Russian complaint was against an article in Newsweek. It said "that this contains slanderous inventions directed against the Soviet Union and depicting the Soviet Union as an aggressor allegedly preparing to attack the United States." It added: "This article also expounds a plan for utilization of the American Air Force, air bases and atom bombs against the Soviet Union, in particular for the destruction of such Soviet towns as Moscow, Leningrad, Kiev, Kharkov and Odessa."

The complaints accused Newsweek and the Dutch labor party organ, Het Vrije Volk of "slanderous inventions, alleging Soviet plans against the security of other countries and discussing military actions against the Russians."

Complained to MacArthur.

Major-Gen. A. P. Kislenko, acting Soviet member of the Allied Council for Japan, wrote Gen. Douglas MacArthur last week that "insolent slander" about Russia had appeared in publications there. He cited an article, "White War Versus Red," in the May 17 Pacific edition of Newsweek. Newsweek said then that the article simply reported the military thinking at the time in both Washington and Moscow.

"The whole article," Newsweek said, "was written around the fact that, in any nation, the military must always be prepared for any contingency. Thus, the key sentence of the article, not mentioned by Kislenko, and placed near the beginning of the article, reads: '. . . Even the Army and Navy long ago agreed that, if the Russians suddenly went berserk and swept into Western Europe, the Air Force would have to bear the brunt of the war for the first months at least. . . .'

"The story then described how the United States Air Force would probably operate and how the Russians would operate."

Newsweek's domestic issue of May 17, which carried the same article as the Pacific edition, began its article with an account of Gen. George C. Kenney's speech in Bangor, Me. Kenney is commander of the United States Strategic Air Force.

The Russian protest today said that Newsweek's article was "in connection with" a speech by the chief of the United States Strategic Air Force in Bangor—a general identified by the Moscow radio as a man named Koenig.

Received in Washington.

Washington, June 10 (A. P..).—The State Department said today it is studying a Russian complaint charging that "unbridled propaganda for a new war is being carried on in the United States." The press officer Michael J. McDermott declined to forecast what the American response will be.

The note was delivered last night by the Soviet Embassy on instructions from Moscow.

BRITISH VIEW MALAYA DRIVE

Communists Blamed For Unrest And Violence In Colony

London, June 10 (AP)—An authoritative Whitehall source said today Communists have organized "a highly-sustained and well-directed campaign of violence in Malaya which has assumed the scale of a resistance movement."

He said the Malayan Communists are seeking "to oust British rule" from the colony.

Sir Edward Gent high commissioner of the Pacific territory, has called on Arthur Creech Jones, Colonial Secretary, for increased powers to restore law and order and to combat the movement, he said.

"The British Government is taking a serious view of the situation and will accede to this request," he added.

To Re-Establish Singapore

The Whitehall official declared the British had evidence that Communists in northern Malay were crossing the frontier into Siam "more or less at random and at will."

The British Cabinet's concern over the matter was underlined by the decision—announced yesterday—to re-establish the neighboring colony of Singapore as the Commonwealth's main naval bastion in the Pacific.

The source said adequate forces are on the spot for military duties, but that the police force in Malaya may be reinforced.

Mainly Chinese

Communist activities and influences in Malaya formed the subject of a recent cabinet discussion.

In its heels came an appeal from Malcolm McDonald, commissioner general of Southeast Asia, to the more moderate elements of Malaya to help the Government stamp out Communist influences.

The Whitehall source said the Communists were mainly Chinese. He charged them with "banditry and armed violence, attacks on European estate managers and virtual guerrilla activity."

He said they had penterated the trades unions movements not only in Malaya but also in Singapore, where industrial unrest has been expressed in a large number of strikes.

Smuts Advises Guard Against Fifth Column

Cambridge, England, June 10 (AP)—Field Marshal Jan Christiaan Smuts declared today that the "fifth column technique" is the greatest menace to the Western world.

Smuts, who recently was defeated as Prime Minister of South Africa, said the technique was the modern substitute for war and served the aggressor as well as war itself.

The white-bearded statesman spoke at ceremonies at which he was proclaimed chancellor of Cambridge, an honorary academic post.

Smuts contended that, while the fifth column menaced western civilization, preparedness for war was insurance against it.

Substitute For War.

"It is a fair inference that if we are reasonably prepared and our house from the defense point of view is in good order, we have nothing to fear," he said.

"This new technique of conquest without war has proved so successful that it has become all but a substitute for war itself, as the recent record of all eastern Europe has proved," Smuts continued.

"The advance is resolutely continued, as the martyrdom of Greece shows. The silent, grim battlefront is moving westward in central Europe. . . .

"Nothing in our age has been more significant than this new technique of aggression and of pacific conquest, which has taken the place of orthodox war, and renders it all but unnecessary and obsolete except as a very last resort."

Firmness Is Solution

The correct countermeasure, Smuts declared, is firmness.

"For those who treasure the western heritage, the hour has struck to call a halt to this fifth column and its advance to the west, and to say to the great power behind it in clear terms: Thus far and no further. The hand of friendship is offered in all sincerity, but only on that irrevocable condition."

Fifth-column aggression, Smuts contends, does not envisage a shooting war and its makers will not lightly risk one.

"The sick family of western Europe is slowly convalescing from the pestilence of war," he said. "In America vast financial resources are being mobilized for the purpose.

"One can but express deep gratitude to the statesmen who are moving in this great cause of a resurgent Europe.

tion, which has been a bitter issue in French politics for 50 years and a continuing problem long before that.

Education Decree Hit

Dispute over the present bill began May 26 when Mme. Germaine Poinsochapuis, Schuman's Minister of Public Health, and the Premier issued a decree authorizing family associations, which are partly supported by state funds, to assist needy children obtain an education.

The Socialists, Communists and Radical-Socialists immediately objected. Schuman countered by sending the decree to the Council of State, which corresponds to the American Supreme Court, for an opinion as to its constitutionality.

Decree Called Valid

The Council of State said it was valid but declared the Government should clarify it by stating that the decree was directed only at regions where there were no public schools.

The Popular Republican and Socialist Cabinet members drew up such a clarifying circular, but Radical-Socialist deputies refused to accept it, on the ground that the principle of a nonreligious state was being violated anyway.

The Radical-Socialists brought the issue to a head by teaming with the Communists in the Assembly Education Committee to demand repeal of the decree.

French Crisis On Pact Eases As Debate Nears

Paris, June 10 (AP)—The French Cabinet crisis eased today.

Observers expressed belief the National Assembly would have a noisy debate tomorrow and Saturday over the plan for a federal government in western Germany but that Premier Schuman would not be defeated.

A reported agreement on the religious school issue was said to have placed the Cabinet in a less precarious position. The compromise was reported based on an agreement that religious welfare association funds could be spent on food and clothing but not on educational costs.

The school issue was more pressing than the German controversy.

Attack From Right, Left

Supporters of Gen. Charles de Gaulle on the Right and Communist Leader Maurice Thorez on the Left were expected to attack Schuman's Centrist Government on the German pact.

Cheered by yesterday's favorable (22 to 21) vote of the National Assembly Foreign Affairs Committee on the unpopular six-power London accord for the future of Western Germany, Schuman negotiated with parliamentary leaders to assure his Government a solid vote when the agreement comes before the full Assembly for approval tomorrow.

Approval Is Foreseen

De Gaulle's declaration undoubtedly will influence some Radical Socialist votes, since the Right wing of that party frequently is sympathetic to the general. The Russians also are opposed to the London accord and French Communists will vote against it. The committee vote, however, seemed to foreshadow approval, since the party divisions on the committee match those of the full Assembly.

In any event, political observers agreed the Schuman Cabinet would stand or fall on the religious question, which has been a bitter issue in French politics for 50 years and a continuing problem long before that.

Russ Say Berlin Spies For West To Be Curbed

Berlin, June 10 (AP)—The official Russian military newspaper said today that the Russians will end what it called a western spy center in Berlin.

The accusation and threat came soon after the Russians had imposed new travel bans between their zone of Germany and the American-British areas. Both appeared to be moves in the long cold war against the Western powers, in an effort to force them from this island city occupied by all four powers in the heart of the Russian zone.

The newspaper, Taegliche Rundschau, asserted:

"We must emphasize that no (four-power) agreement on Berlin foresaw the transformation of Berlin into an espionage and sabotage center against the Soviet occupation zone."

Had Denied Holding Man

The comment was on a Russian charge that a German reporter, Deiter Friede, had served the Americans and British as a spy in the Russian zone. The charges were denied. The Russians announced that they were holding Friede after denying for seven months that they knew where he was.

The same newspaper said the six-power recommendations for a federal government in western Germany "can never be internationally recognized and can never become law."

Communist newspapers took the same line, calling on Germans to resist the plan. The Taegliche Rundschau said the Western powers' objective is to create a new German state and separate the Ruhr for "American exploitation."

The new travel restrictions affected interzonal travel but did not hinder Allied motor travel between Berlin and the West. American Military Government officials said the rules violated interzonal travel agreements. They prepared to protest.

Bavarians speculated that the border tightening might be connected with expected currency changes in western Germany. These quarters said the Russians might be trying to check a flight of marks from the United States to the Russian zone.

It was rumored that large sums of marks were concentrated along the border by persons who have more money than they would be able to redeem in new currency in the United States zone. They hoped to dump the funds in the Russian area, the Bavarians guessed.

United States and British authorities said no Russian border crossing points were completely closed to travelers, but numerous new hindrances to interzonal travel had been imposed.

Linked To Politics

Some Allied observers believe one purpose of the Russian move is to further seal off their zone from the west. Another likely objective, they said, is to exert pressure in the inter-Allied political jockeying in Berlin.

The American-licensed German press here speculated whether the Soviet move might be related to the British demand that the Russians get out of Radio Berlin, which is in the British sector of the city. The Russians have refused, and warned that any British attempt to force evacuation would lead to "undesirable consequences."

Some wondered whether the travel bans constituted a foretaste of these "consequences."

U.S. Prosecutor Asserts Guilt Of Farben Men

Asks Nuernberg Court to Convict 23 of Plotting to Wage Aggressive War

NUERNBERG, June 10 (AP).—The prosecution asked an American war crimes court today to protect the peace of the future by convicting twenty-three I. G. Farben officials of plotting aggressive war.

Their guilt "has been proved a hundred times over," declared Brigadier General Telford Taylor, American chief counsel, in his final argument against the heads of Germany's big munitions-making chemicals combine.

The Farben officials are charged with plundering occupied countries, the use of slave labor and mass murder, as well as helping Adolf Hitler plan war.

The verdict in this case, General Taylor warned, "will be felt thousands of miles away and for many years to come."

He pointed to the "cold war" and "real wars" raging in the world today to show that war is still a menace. "Is it small wonder," he observed, "that some are moved to ask: 'Is there alaw and, if so, where is it?'"

However, he added: "Disheartening as these circumstances are, they present the shortcomings of the police force, but not of the law. There is no longer and real doubt about the law against aggression."

Nor can there be any doubt, he argued, that "these defendants knew that the military machine which they helped to build would be used to launch a German program of military conquest."

General Taylor scoffed at the defendants' assertions that they did not know what was going on in Hitler's inner counsels and in the concentration camps. At Auschwitz (Oswiecim), where Farben had a big plant using prisoners as workers, "more human beings were put to death than were killed in World War I—literally millions," he said. Farben supplied the gas to kill them, he reminded the court.

General Taylor also ridiculed the defense contention that the Farben heads were forced to go along with Hitler. The records showed that they not only went willingly but took the initiative, he argued.

Tomorrow the defense will make its final plea, and the accused will make statements. Then the court will recess for several weeks.

Army Ends Its Social Bar For Germans and D. P.s

FRANKFURT, June 10 (AP).—Germans and displaced persons henceforth may be entertained in American officers' and civilian messes, the United States Army said today in a sudden change of policy.

Germans and displaced persons also may be entertained by all members of the occupation forces in clubs and snack bars.

Social screening of Germans was wiped out in the new policy, which will take effect immediately—less than a week after the third anniversary of V-E Day.

German girls hitherto have been required to possess "social passes" certifying to their health and character before being permitted to attend a limited number of Army social affairs.

In abolishing screening, the Army announcement expressed confidence that "American standards of sociability and conduct will be observed."

Hungarian Lists Church Terms

Budapest, Hungary, June 10 (AP). Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, Roman Catholic Primate of Hungary, today laid down the conditions under which he would be willing to discuss differences between the church and the Communist-dominated Government.

The Cardinal replied in the name of Hungary's bishops to a Government invitation to such talks. He said the church conditions are that:

"The Government shall declare that they take the nationalization of church-sponsored schools off the program; the dissolved Bishops Society shall be granted the right to exist and their property returned; a Catholic daily newspaper shall be permitted."

Called An "Enemy"

An editorial in the Socialist newspaper Nepsava accused the Cardinal of being a "deadly enemy of the Hungarian people," and said he could not be "considered as a partner in the negotiations."

The Cardinal in a pastoral letter Sunday told Hungarian Catholics to stop reading newspapers of Government parties or listening to Hungarian broadcasts. He has threatened to excommunicate any Catholic supporting the Government plan to take over church schools.

A court-martial declared guilty today the village priest and parish clerk in the killing of a policeman at Pocspetri on June 3. Sentences will be passed Friday on both and five others accused of helping hide the gun and helping the priest escape. The Ministry of Interior at the time said 500 villagers, angered by the plan to take over the schools, attacked the police station. Education Minister Gyula Ortutay sent the Cardinal a letter blaming the Catholic Church for nation-wide agitation.

The priest, the Rev. Janos Ostonos, was accused of inciting the clerk, Miklos Kurelyselvi, to kill the policeman. On crossexamination, the priest acknowledged he organized the crowd. He said the throng was not alone responsible because "instructions came from a higher authority." He added:

"I regret very much what happened. I admit I went beyond my instructions and wish only that my fellow priests would know that they have to premeditate seriously before they make a decision."

Greek Reservoir Dynamited.

Athens, June 10 (A. P.).—Press dispatches said today guerrillas had cut off the water supply of Ioannina in North Greece by dynamiting a reservoir on nearby Mount Mitsikeli last night.

Hirohito's Daughter Learning Housekeeping

Tokyo, June 10 (AP) — Emperor Hirohito's second daughter is learning to keep house.

Princess Taka, 19, moved in with the family of the former Grand Chamberlain, Admiral Saburo Hyakutake, three weeks ago. She does all the chores of an ordinary housewife.

18-YEAR-OLDS COULD ENLIST FOR 12 MONTHS

Two of Every Three Single, Non-Veterans Would Be Drafted, Is Claim.

VOTE IS 78 TO 10

Pre-Adjournment Rush May Delay House Action on Plan.

WASHINGTON, June 10 (AP)—Tired and almost talked-out, the senate today passed a bill to draft men 19 through 25 into military service. The vote was 78 to 10.

Day and night since Monday, talking in relays, the senators had debated the bill which would:

1. Require all men 18 through 25 to register with a local draft board.

2. Permit the drafting of those 19 through 25 for two years in the armed services, here or abroad.

3. Let 18-year-olds volunteer for one year's service, thus avoiding a two-year draft when they reached 19

4. Require a special registration for doctors and dentists up to 45 although—to avoid stripping communities of medical service—they could not be drafted without special action of their draft boards.

House Must Approve

Military leaders figure two out of every three single, non-veterans in the 19 through 25 age group would be drafted under the senate bill.

But this senate passed bill is not law and won't be unless, and until, the house also approves.

The house may act next week, and it seems sure to but—

There's an outside chance that, in the rush to finish the year's work by next weekend, the house may skip the draft bill altogether.

That would kill the draft for 1948 unless congress came back after the political conventions this summer and the house acted then.

Shortly before the final vote today, the senate turned back, 66 to 22, a renewed attempt by Senator Morse (R-Ore) to cut the service period for draftees from two years to 18 months.

Morse's proposal was beaten last night on a voice vote. He pressed it again today and was beaten on a rollcall.

Also defeated, 81 to 8 was an amendment by Senator O'Daniel (D-Tex) to delay the draft until congress sets up a plan to "draft dollars." O'Daniel proposed a 100 per cent tax on profits of all individuals and corporations above the average of the last three years.

Volunteer Plan Defeated

The senate then knocked down 69 to 20, a proposal by Senator Revercomb (R-W Va) and others to delay operation of the draft for six months while efforts are made to enlist enough men.

Under the Revercomb plan the President would have to find that there were not enough voluntary enlistments before he could order selective service started. Opponents called it an effort to "scuttle" the draft bill.

The amendment also would have required the army to admit all volunteers who could get a grade of 59 or better on an intelligence test. The present passing grade, Revercomb said, is 80.

The draft is part of the broad program President Truman handed to Congress as a plan for maintaining world peace. This embraced:

1. Strengthening western European nations so they can stand against communism. Congress has voted for the idea, but there is a quarrel now over how much money should go into the project.

2. Keep America strong. Congress has voted funds for a bigger air force and stronger navy. Mr. Truman asked both a draft law to get manpower for the regular services, and military training for all young men. Congressional leaders have turned thumbs down on the idea of universal military training.

Bill's Major Provisions

The Senate bill would keep the draft for two years. Its major provisions include:

1. Registration of all men from 18 through 25 years with a special registration of doctors, dentists and medical experts through 44 years.

2. Induction of men from 19 through 25 years for two years service with the regular armed services. Married men, most veterans and certain others would be exempt or deferred. (The Senate was advised that the armed services will need 1,669,000 "new men" during the next year. Volunteers and reenlistments are expected to supply many thousands of them.)

3. Up to 161,000 18-year olds could volunteer for one year of training during the next year. They then must serve in reserves—the same as draftees are required to do after completion of two years duty.

4. The wartime selective service or draft organization would be revived on a smaller scale with local boards and state directors under a national headquarters here.

5. Up to 25,000 aliens could be recruited by the army for five-year enlistments that would lead to citizenship if service is satisfactory.

6. Authorized strength of the regular army, air force, navy and marines would be boosted to 1,795,000 men and officers. This is 349,000 above present limits.

7. Reserve units, such as the national guard, also would expand to 1,520,000 men or 454,000 more than current strength.

8. President Truman or any future president would be authorized to seize and operate any plant, industry or business which failed to accept or promptly fill a contract or order for the armed services. This is similar to a provision in the wartime draft act.

9. The entire court martial system of the army and air forces would be revised and a separate judge advocate general corps set up to administer military justice.

How Exemptions Work

World War II veterans exempt from the draft are those with more than 18 months service since 1940, or those with more than 90 days active duty during the "shooting war." This is defined as the time between Pearl Harbor, December 7, 1941, and the Japanese surrender, September 2, 1945.

Also exempt from draft are members of active reserve units, state and national officials, foreign diplomats, men with dependents, including wives and children, ordained ministers and ministry students.

The president is granted authority to defer "individuals" such as science students, students for the ministry, or those specially needed in industry, agriculture or other fields.

Doctors or dentists could not be drafted without approval of their local boards. This is to avoid stripping cities or areas of medical services and protection.

High school students would be deferred until they graduate as long as they are doing satisfactory full-time class work, or until they reach 20.

College students would be deferred until the end of a school year.

Conscientious objectors to combat or non-combat service could be placed in any special work "of national importance" under direction of a civilian.

Hopkins And Stalin

Washington, June 10 (AP)—The Russian Government, fighting for its life in 1941, appeared more interested in talking power politics than about aid from America, Robert E. Sherwood said today.

This impression comes from a record made by the late Harry Hopkins of two wartime meetings in Moscow with Premier Stalin. Sherwood, Hopkins's biographer, has access to the notes.

Hopkins was sent as President Roosevelt's representative to find out what military supplies the Russians needed to halt the Germans. This was six weeks after the Germans attacked.

Stalin And German "Morals"

Writing in Collier's magazine, Sherwood says:

"Even with its very life in peril the Soviet Government appeared to be more anxious to discuss future frontiers and spheres of influence than to negotiate for military supplies."

Stalin also criticized Germany as a nation lacking in "morals." In its international relationships, acording to this report by Hopkins to Roosevelt:

"Describing Hitler and Germany, Mr. Stalin spoke of the necessity of there being a minimum moral standard between all nations and without such a minimum moral standard nations could not coexist. He stated that the present leaders of Germany knew no such minimum moral standard and that, therefore, they represented an anti-social force in the present world.

F.D.R.'s Offer To Aid Russia

"The Germans were a people, he said, who without a second's thought would sign a treaty today, break it tomorrow and sign a second one the following day. Nations must fulfill their treaty obligations, he said, or international society could not exist."

Hopkins told Stalin that Roosevelt "considered Hitler the enemy of mankind and that he, therefore, wanted to aid the Soviet Union in its fight against Germany."

Hopkins quotes Stalin as saying: "Therefore, our views coincide."

While the British and American officials feared Russia might be defeated in a short time, Stalin told Hopkins:

"Give us anti-aircraft guns and the aluminum (for planes) and we can fight for three or four years."

Hopkins said no mention was made of Russia's need for tanks at his first meeting with Stalin.

No Mention Of Tanks At First

The next day he asked Russian General Yakoklev if the Russians needed tanks. The General was reluctant to say. Hopkins inquired what was the heaviest tank the Russians had. The General's reply was that "it is a good tank."

That night Stalin told Hopkins he needed steel for tanks and urged that orders for it be placed at once.

"He later said it would be much better if his tanks could be manufactured in the United States," Hopkins wrote.

Raids On Romanian Oil Fields

Stalin said he thought the Germans had a good supply of oil. Hopkins wrote:

"He expressed an urgent desire that the British send large planes as soon as possible to bomb the Romanian oil fields. . . ."

These raids got under way in 1942 and were capped by the huge attacks that knocked out the fields in 1943.

Sherwood says Hopkins, frequently ill, became short-tempered at times because of the way he worked himself unsparingly in the war effort.

Hopkins Irked By New Dealers

He had been a spark plug of New Deal forces and the WPA, of which he was administrator. But nonwar business in the midst of war frequently irked him.

Sherwood says:

"In a moment of extreme irritability at this time Hopkins said to me, 'I'm getting sick and tired of having to listen to complaints from those New Dealers!' I could hardly believe my ears."

2 U.S. RESEARCH PLANES EXCEED SPEED OF SOUND

Supersonic Flights With XS-1's Announced By Air Authorities

JUN 1948

Washington, June 10 (AP) — Two American experimental planes have repeatedly flown faster than sound, aviation authorities announced today.

W. Stuart Symington, Secretary of the Air Force, said that the supersonic feat has been performed "many times" by Air Force Captain Charles E. Yeager, 25, a World War II ace. And he said Yeager had reached a speed "much faster" than sound.

The National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics followed Symington's announcement with a disclosure that two of its pilots, flying another of the planes alternately, have exceeded the speed of sound several times. The NACA, Government research agency, identified its pilots as Herbert H. Hoover and the late Howard Lilly. Lilly was killed while testing another type of plane.

Plane Is XS-1

The faster-than-sound plane is the XS-1. Only two of them are in existence at this time—one being used by the Air Force, the other by the NACA.

The XS-1 has a wing span of 28 feet, a length of 31 feet and is 11 feet high. It carries 8,000 pounds of fuel for its rocket motor. It does not take off from the ground, but is taken aloft in the belly of a B-29 bomber and released at high altitude.

The supersonic performances were made at the Muroc Air Force base in California.

Speed Of Sound Varies

The speed of sound varies from 763 miles an hour at sea level to 660 miles at 40,000 feet, depending to some extent on variations in air temperature.

Symington's announcement contained a hint that the XS-1 flew at high altitudes. He said the Air Force "will not claim altitude or speed records in connection with these flights." (The official speed record, with a prescribed number of runs over a measured course at low altitude is held by a navy jet plane, a D-558 Skystreak, with a mark of 650.8 miles an hour.)

Symington's comment that the XS-1 has flown "much faster" than sound indicated that even if flown at high altitudes the speed exceeded the 763-mile figure for sound at sea level. There have been reports, not confirmed, that an XS-1 has exceeded 1,000 miles an hour.

"Interesting Figure".

Symington said, "We'd like to say what the speed was but feel that would be against security—but it was an interesting figure."

His reference to security recalled that last December the Air Force asked the Justice Department to say whether national security had been violated by the publication Aviation Week. The magazine had printed a story saying the XS-1 had flown at supersonic speed.

Tom C. Clark, Attorney General, said recently the magazine had violated no Federal law.

Capt. Charles E. Yeager, World War II ace, piloted the XS-1 on its flights over the desert-testing center at Muroc.

Only two XS-1 planes have been completed, an unspecified number of others have been ordered from the Bell Aircraft Company.

Issues Air Program Details

The two N.A.C.A. test pilots who have flown an XS-1 past the sound speed are Herbert H. Moover and the late Howard Lilly, killed in the crash of a D-558 he was testing. The N.A.C.A.'s XS-1 was slightly damaged about six weeks ago, but has since returned to the air.

Symington also issued the details of the flying program to equip the Air Force with more planes in building up toward its 70-group strength goal. With the $1,345,165,000 recently allotted the Air Force it will:

Buy a total of 2,201 planes, including 243 bombers, 1,405 fighters, all of them jets; 533 transports, trainers and amphibian rescue planes.

Of the bombers, 162 will be long-range B-50's. This is an improved version of the B-29 which devastated Japan. Thirty other bombers will be B-49's—the Flying Wing, powered by eight jet engines.

Navy Orders 600 Jet Fighters

The Navy also announced today that it has ordered nearly 600 jet fighters, most of them capable of better than 600 miles an hour. In all the Navy will buy 1,165 planes with $653,635,000 allotted it under the enlarged aircraft program.

The Navy's buying program includes 179 McDonnell Banshee F2H jet fighters and 317 Grumman Panther F9F jets. These two models are the fastest planes the Navy has yet acknowledged having in operation.

In addition, the Navy is buying three other types of fighters about which almost no information is available. Two of them are unnamed and designated only by numbers. They are the F3D, built by Douglas (28 are being ordered) and the F7U, built by Chance Vought (19 are being ordered).

The Navy is also buying 33 Chance Vought Pirate F6U fighters, about which little more than the name is known.

In addition, the Navy is buying 426 attack fighters, most of them Douglas Sky-Raiders; 82 long-range Lockheed Neptune P2V patrol planes; 16 transports; 37 helicopters and 28 "undetermined."

U. S. AIR FORCE WILL BUY 2201 NEW WARCRAFT

First Step Toward 70-Group Program—Money to Come From Defense Grant.

NO DELIVERIES FOR A YEAR

Orders Include 243 Bombers and 1405 Jet Planes—Navy to Make Purchases.

Washington, June 10 (A. P.).—The Air Force said today it will buy 2,201 new planes as a step toward building up a seventy-group force.

The money will come from the $1,345,165,000 which the Department of Defense earmarked for the purpose from recent defense appropriations.

The program will include 243 bombers, of which 162 are heavy long-range types, and 1,405 jet fighters.

The long-range B-50 type bombers will have conventional reciprocating engines. But the bomber program also will include eighty-one jet bombers, of which thirty will be the high-speed "flying wing" jet version.

In addition to the combat craft, 553 transport and similar planes will be purchased.

The actual cost of the planes was not given.

Listed in Program.

The buying program was announced by Secretary of the Air Symington at a news conference. It calls for:

Bombers—Boeing B-50B, 132; B-50C, 30; North American B-45C jet four-engine, 51; Northrop B-49, eight-engine jet flying wing, 30.

Fighters—Republic F-84C, 409; Lockheed F-80C, 457; North American F-86A, 333; North American F-86C, 118; Curtis F-87, and all-weather fighter with four engines, 58; Curtiss RF-87A, a photo reconnaisance version of the fighter, 30.

The 553 transport trainers and rescue planes include: Fairchild C-119B, 99; Douglas C-124A, 28; Grumman SA-16A, an amphibian rescue plane, 32; North American T-28, a small standard engine trainer, 266; Lockheed TF-80, a two-place jet trainer, 128.

The Air Force had previous orders for some of these aircraft. It has ordered 162 B-50s, ninety-six B-45s, two B-49s, about 560 F-84s, and has ordered or has already in operation about 1,000 F-80s. Approximately 225 F-86 fighters already are on order.

Orders Might Be Changed.

Symington did not give a breakdown on the number of engines and spare parts included in the new buying program. He cautioned that the orders might be changed as the Air Force found the need for more planes of one type and less of another.

He said it would be a year before delivery of the planes begin. Most of them, he added, won't be ready until after mid-year 1950.

Some of the planes will be used as replacement for existing craft. Others will go toward building up the seventy-group force approved by Congress.

Aside from the Air Force program, Secretary of Defense Forrestal has assigned $653,635,000 for buying navy aircraft.

Symington was asked why the giant, six-engine B-36 Consolidated Vultee aircraft was not included in the new program. He replied that money for the plane had been appropriated previously.

When pressed as to whether the Air Force intended to go through with the existing order for 100 B-36s, Symington said: "I don't know as we will go through with 100. I think the number is ninety-four now and that might be cut some more. But we are going through with the B-36s, how many I don't know now."

Symington hinted that some of the B-36s might be converted into tanker planes for refueling bombers in midair. In discsussing the B-36 buying program, he commented that there might be changes because of "the refueling aspect of the B-29" bomber. He previously had reported that the Air Force would be equipped to refuel B-29s by next year.

Lockheed Gets Orders.

Burbank, Cal., June 10.—New contracts under the first phase of the nation's long-range airpower program were made known here today by Lockheed Aircraft Corporation, the world's largest builder of jet airplanes.

These new orders call for Lockheed to build 457 of its improved Shooting Stars, designated as F-80Cs, and 128 of the new two-place trainers, known as TF 80Cs, introduced two months ago to speed instruction of new pilots on jet craft for the United States Air Force.

Lockheed has built more than 1,000 F-80 jet fighters in the last three years. The new orders will be filled with the present working force of 12,000 employees.

U. S. MAKING TESTS OF ARCTIC FLIGHTS

JUN 19

Washington, June 10 (A. P.).—The Strategic Air Command is emphasizing Arctic operations in two new series of long-range training flights. Most planes in the nation's heavy striking arm will make special missions to Goose Bay, Labrador, and Shemya Island in the Aleutians this summer.

This was learned today after a squadron of B-29s of the Ninety-eighth Group, based at Spokane, Wash., had gone to Goose Bay to make three long-range missions, using a navigational method developed especially for Arctic flying. About a dozen squadrons—heavy bomber squadrons usually include ten planes—will make Spokane-Goose Bay runs before September.

The mission to Shemya, a huge air center near Adak, will be flown by single B-29s from Castle air base at Merced, Cal. Four planes will go each week until the entire Eighth and Fifteenth Air Forces have made the trip.

The flights to Shemya are significant, in that planes will travel alone. Single bomber missions have been described as possible tactics in any future war by Gen. George C. Kenney and other air experts.

Export Bank Lends To Swedish Air Firms

Washington, June 10 (A. P.).—The Government-owned Export-Import Bank announced today it will join in granting $3,330,000 in credit to two Swedish air transport concerns to buy six DC-6 transport aircraft here.

The bank will provide $2,155,000 of the credit. The Douglas Aircraft Company, seller of the planes, and a private bank, not identified, will provide the rest of the credit, the Export-Import Bank said.

The notes of the Swedish borrowers will bear interest at 3½ per cent a year, mature half-yearly over a four-year period, and be guaranteed unconditionally by the Sveriges Riksbank.

D. P. Bill Heavily Attacked

Some in House See 'Bums' and 'Subversives' Crowding Nation With Most Aliens

Washington, June 10 (A. P.).—A bill to let 200,000 European refugees into this country came under heavy attack as the House opened debate on the measure today.

Representative Gossett (D.-Tex.) said that many displaced persons seeking to come here "are bums, criminals, subversives, revolutionists, crackpots and human wreckage. Why, he asked, should we "inject more poison into the national bloodstream?"

And Representative Cox (D.-Ga.) said if the refugees are let in, "they will gnaw like termites at our constitutional form of government," He said he had visited displaced person camps in occupied Germany and found they were "hotbeds of revolutionists."

Should Fight at Home.

Representative Walter (D.-Pa.) took another tack in criticizing the measure. He said this country "shouldn't encourage people who don't for the moment agree with their governments to believe they can find a haven in the United States." "It is more important," Walter said, "for them to remain to combat the totalitarian governments in their countries."

Representative Stefan (R.-Neb.) said he would propose an amendment to include "those who have fled their country because their government has been overthrown." Stefan said he had the support of the State Department for his amendment, which would bring the bill closer into line with a similar measure already approved by the Senate.

Gossett told the House this country already has the largest alien population of any nation in the world.

"Our assimilation machinery is already clogged," he said. "The melting pot has not melted."

Gossett said many D. P.'s in camps came from behind the "iron curtain."

"There can be no doubt," he continued, "that many of those registered as D. P.'s awaiting passage to America have been schooled in subversive activities, and seek entry here to serve foreign ideologies. If we are to add to our tide of immigration, let's get the best—not the worst."

Leper Heroine Coming to U. S.

Filipino Who Ministered to Men of Bataan Will Take Treatments in Louisiana.

Washington, June 10 (A. P.).—Attorney-General Clark today granted special authority for Mrs. Josefina Guerrero, Filipino war heroine, to come to this country for leprosy treatments.

Mrs. Guerrero was decorated by the United States recently for her work in behalf of American and Philippine soldiers on Bataan in the darkest days of the war. She contracted leprosy after the war while engaged in humanitarian work and has been commended by Cardinal Spellman for Christian fortitude and concern for fellow sufferers.

Attorney-General Clark announced that he had authorized her entry into the United States under special provisions of the immigration laws which permit temporary admission of persons who otherwise would be inadmissible.

In this case, Mrs. Guerrero's malady ordinarily would act to exclude her.

Immigration Commissioner Watson B. Miller said this was the first time that the authority has been exercised to admit a person suffering from Hansen's disease, commonly known as leprosy.

Arrangements have been completed for Mrs. Guerrero to enter the United States Leprosarium at Carville, La. Reports from Manila said she had expressed a willingness to permit special experiments to be made in the treatment of her case.

She will leave Manila next Monday aboard the hospital ship Hope, scheduled to arrive in San Francisco on July 8. The Attorney-General has suggested that she be flown direct from San Francisco to Carville. His announcement noted, however, that the United States Public Health Service, which co-operated with the Department of Justice in investigtaing the case, had advised him that chances of infection from the disease were negligible.

Among those who requested her admission were Manuel Roxas, late President of the Philippines, and Dr. Jose N. Rodriguez of the Philippine Department of Health.

The Department of Justice emphasized that the admission was temporary.

Small Guard To Apply U.N. Decisions Urged

Cambridge, Mass., June 10 (AP)—Trygve Lie, United Nations Secretary General today called for a small United Nations "guard force" to back up Security Council decisions until the great powers agree on the makeup of an international army.

Such a "guard force," Lie said, would strengthen the United Nations and serve notice on the world that member governments are "determined to make a beginning at least toward putting into effect the provisions of the charter for the enforcement of peace."

Lie spoke at Harvard University's two hundred and ninety-seventh commencement—from the same platform where Gen. George Marshall, Secretary of State, launched the proposal for the European Recovery Program just one year ago.

American Approval Doubted

At Lake Success, an American spokesman said Lie's suggestion would be studied carefully—but he indicated it was doubtful the United States would favor any force which would be expected to take the place, even temporarily, of the proposed United Nations army.

Lie did not elaborate on his proposed "guard force"—other than to say it could be "comparatively small" and "distinct from a striking force."

Informed sources at Lake Success said the secretary general was thinking in terms of about 1,000 men recruited by him from several countries.

Would Have Been Adequate

More than 6,000 Harvard graduates and alumni cheered Lie's proposal as he asserted a small "guard force" would have been adequate to handle any case that has come before the United Nations Security Council so far.

"And," he added, "I include Palestine."

The five great powers came out in favor of a United Nations army more than a year ago, Lie said, but they ran into disagreements about where it would be based, its size and strength and its exact makeup.

Tension over the "cold war" hung over the commencement exercises—and the crowd cheered wildly every denunciation of attempts in Congress to cut the appropriation for carrying out the Marshall plan.

Called Moderating Influence

Lie—one of thirteen awarded honorary degrees—referred at the outset to the "conflict between the great powers."

While asserting the United Nations, of itself, could not bring about a settlement of the East-West conflict, Lie said:

"The United Nations can, however, exert strong, moderating influence on this conflict in the direction of ultimate conciliation—and, indeed, it is already doing so."

"Furthermore," he said, "the other nations and all the peoples of the world can make it clear that they regard this conflict as one that must be settled peacefully in accordance with the United Nations Charter."

Hoffman Warns On Cut

Among those honored with Lie was Paul G. Hoffman, director of the United States Economic Cooperation Administration, who warned Congress against cutting the appropriation for carrying out the Marshall plan.

"Any material reduction now," he declared, "might cause great damage to the spirit of confidence and hopefulness among the peoples of western Europe which is so vital to the success of our efforts."

Hoffman heralded the Marshall plan as an instrument toward world peace.

Norman Thomas Urges End of Armaments Race

GRINNELL, Iowa, June 10 (AP).—The immediate price of peace is the rapid ending of the armament race, Norman Thomas, candidate for President on the Socialist ticket, declared here tonight.

"A terrible danger lies in the tension of a cold war and armament race in the near certainty that sooner or later some incident in Europe or Asia will precipitate total war," Mr. Thomas said at the National Conference for the Prevention of World War III, being held at Grinnell College here.

Chester S. Williams, public liaison officer of the United States mission to the United Nations, upheld the progress the U. N. has made and decried what he termed paper formulas for changing it.

U.N. IGNORES RUSSIAN BID ON PALESTINE

Refuses Action On Offer Of Observers For Holy Land Truce

Lake Success, N.Y., June 10 (AP). The Security Council today refused to act on a Russian offer to send military observers into Palestine.

Instead, the delegates generally gave the Soviet suggestion a silent treatment. After a 90-minute meeting—most of it taken up with Soviet speeches—Andrei A. Gromyko, Deputy Foreign Minister, reluctantly agreed to adjournment.

However, Gromyko hinted he would make a formal proposal Tuesday at the next meeting on Palestine and force the Council to vote to accept or reject the Soviet military men.

Denies Authority

Under a Council resolution which led to tomorrow's cease-fire in the Holy Land, Count Folke Bernadotte and the American-French-Belgian consular truce commission asked the United States, France and Belgium to supply 63 military observers and six patrol craft to watch over conditions of the four-week armistice. All three nations agreed.

Gromyko made no mention today of the ships, but he said Bernadotte and the truce commission had no authority to limit the military observers to three nations.

"The United States wants to send its own observers, but does not want Soviet observers," Gromyko said.

Ukraine Backs Russia

Philip C. Jessup, United States deputy delegate, said the question was in the hands of Bernadotte and the commission, which had full authority under the Council resolution. He said the United States would, of course, abide by any new Council decision.

It was understood that if a vote came Jessup would abstain.

Vassily A. Tarasenko, of the Ukraine, supported Gromyko warmly. Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton, of Canada, said Bernadotte, the United Nations mediator, acted correctly in getting the military observers from the United States, France and Belgium.

The other members of the elevennation Council said nothing.

Recognition Only Beginning

An Israeli spokesman said recognition of Israel is only the starting point in negotiations for permanent peace in Palestine.

Aubrey S. Eban, acting representative of the new Jewish state, issued that statement on the eve of the Palestine cease-fire.

The Arabs have said they cannot accept the existence of the new Jewish state.

30.24- 18411

Soviet May Insist On Observers

Lake Success, June 10 (AP)—Russia is expected to insist today that Soviet military observers be sent to Palestine to help check on the Jewish-Arab truce.

Some circles even expect Moscow to broaden the plan by including units of the Soviet fleet—now that the United Nations has decided to use patrol craft in watching over the four-week armistice.

The Security Council is meeting to officially hear Count Folke Bernadotte's announcement that the Jews and Arabs have accepted the cease-fire.

Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko raised the military issue at the last Council meeting by offering Soviet army men as observers. When his plan got a cool reception, he insisted that it be discussed at the next session.

Natural Step, Lie Says

Secretary General Trygve Lie said yesterday that the United Nations had asked the United States, France and Belgium—the members of the Palestine Consular Truce Commission—each to supply 21 military observers and six patrol craft—the United States three, France two and Belgium one.

Lie said the action was taken by Bernadotte and the Truce Commission and he considered it a natural step. He added that if more help is needed, that is a matter for the Council to decide.

No one here expected Gromyko to be satisfied with that statement or to allow the Council to forget the issue.

It was understood that the American delegation would not directly oppose any move to send Russian military personnel into the Holy Land. If Gromyko forces a vote, the United States was considered likely to abstain.

U.N. Is Weighing Indonesia Row

Lake Success, June 10 (AP)—The Indonesian Republic asked the United Nations today to act quickly to prevent a breakdown of Dutch-Indonesian peace negotiations.

Indonesian Representative L. N. Palar told the Security Council that a solution of the Indonesian problem is endangered by what he called Dutch efforts to set up separate states in West Java and Madoera.

Palar said his contentions were borne out by the special reports of the Council's good offices committee. These reports, he said, showed that Netherlands Representative Dr. Eelco N. van Kleffens had given the Council false information.

"On behalf of the Republic of Indonesia," he said, "my delegation asks that the Security Council pass judgment."

Suppression Charged

Palar charged that the Dutch had violated an agreement with the Indonesian Republic by suppressing freedom of political expression in Madoera and West Java. The plebiscite held in Madoera last January, he said, was a farce on the level of a comic opera."

Paalr criticized the Security Council for its slowness in considering reports from the good offices committee and from the Indonesian Republic. He said these delays involve great danger in view of the speed with which events are moving in Indonesia.

The case, originally filed by India, has been before the Council for approximately a year. A good-offices committee of the United States, Australia and Belgium has been in the area for months attempting to iron out differences between the Dutch and the Indonesian Republic.

ROME, JUNE 10-(AP)-PALMIRO TOGLIATTI, LEADER OF ITALY'S COMMUNISTS ASSAILED TODAY THE MARSHALL PLAN, THE CATHOLIC CHURCH AND THE UNITED STATES.

IN A SPEECH IN THE CHAMBER OF DEPUTIES HE SAID THE PRESENT AMERICAN ADMINISTRATION "IS BENT UPON A POLICY OF SPLITTING EUROPE IN TWO."

THE MARSHALL PLAN HE ADDED, "HAS TIED ITALY TO UNITED STATES POLICIES." HE SAID IT PRESENTED "THE GRAVE DANGER OF FOREIGN INTERVENTION, OF FOREIGN CONTROL OF OUR DEVELOPMENT."

HE ALSO ATTACKED THE RECONSTRUCTION PROGRAM OF PREMIER ALCIDE DE GASPERI AND SAID HIS PARTY'S TASK WOULD BE ONE OF OPPOSITION TO THE GOVERNMENT.

THE COMMUNIST LEADER CHARGED THAT THE CATHOLIC CHURCH HAD INTERVENED IN POLITICS AND THAT $4,000,000--PROCEEDS FROM THE SALE OF UNRRA GOODS--HAD BEEN USED IN THE ELECTIONS TO DEFEAT THE COMMUNIST-LED POPULAR FRONT.

TOGLIATTI SAID HIS PARTY WAS INCREASING IN ITALY. HE CLAIMED THE PARTY'S MEMBERSHIP ON APRIL 30 OF THIS YEAR WAS 2,158,191--DOUBLE WHAT IT WAS AT THE END OF THE WAR.

claimed unemployment had reached a new all-time high in the history of Italy. The number of unemployed in April, he said, was 2,390,000 --- more than during the crisis of 1933.

De Gasperi sat quietly during the Togliatti speech. Members

--- notably socialist leader Giuseppe of his [redacted] cabinet, however, --- Saragat and interior minister Mario Scelba --- occasionally challenged the communist's statement.

Scelba, who directed Italy's police forces in dealing with the round-up of hidden arms and communist demonstrations in public squares, has been a prime target for leftist attacks.

Togliatti accused the Catholic Church of having intervened in the elections by threatening excommunications, refusal of the sacraments and warning catholics who did not vote, especially those who did not vote for the Christian Democrat party.

Then, pointing at de Gasperi, Togliatti said:

1948

30.24- 18413

"You have accepted a heavy burden from the ecclesiastical organization that assured your victory."

JUN 1948

The communist chief accused the government of having NO plan for social or agrarian reforms. He charged that the government "could never break the monopoly of the capitalists."

The Marshall Plan, Togliatti said, "has tied Italy to United States policies." He said it presented "the grave danger of foreign intervention, of foreign control of our development."

Turning to the government bench where de Gasperi sat, Togliatti said: "Your Europe will forever grow smaller for you."

Again there were hisses from the center and right.

He said his party's task would be one of opposition to the government, but its greater task would be that of continuing to lead the masses toward social, economic and agrarian reforms.

"With us tomorrow," he concluded amidst cheers and jeers "will be all Italy."

Nuernberg, Germany, June 10--(ap)--The United States prosecution made its final attempt today to convict a German industrialist of plotting aggressive war.

JUN 1948

Winding up the case against 23 officials of the I. G. Farben Chemical combine, Brig. Gen. Telford Taylor urged the American war crimes court to judge the defendants by "civilized" standards outlawing wars of conquest.

"Under such standards," the chief U. S. prosecutor added, "their guilt has been established beyond a reasonable doubt." Taylor scoffed at the defendants' assertions that they did not know what was going on in Hitler's inner counsels and in the concentration camps.

At Auschwitz (Oswiecim), where Farben had a bit plant using prisoners as workers, "More human beings were put to death than were killed in the first world war--literally millions," Taylor said. Farben supplied the gas to kill them, he told the court.

The court's verdict could set a legal precedent of major importance. If the tribunal convicts the defendants it will be the first time in history that a business man ever was held criminally guilty for their helping arm country for war.

Taylor argued that business men as well as soldiers and diplomats must bear their share of the blame. He said: "In Hitler's plans to conquer Europe the military men, the diplomats and the business men all had their roles to perform."

The war crimes prosecution failed in its first case against German industrialists. Twelve officials of the gun making Krupp concern were acquitted recently on two charges of plotting against peace.

IT APPROVED A RESOLUTION WHICH POTENTIALLY WILL COST THE GOVERNMENT BILLIONS OF YEN IN FARMER BONUSES.
THE GOVERNMENT IS DUE TO ANNOUNCE IN A FEW DAYS AN INCREASE OF ABOUT 70 PER CENT IN PRICES OF 12 VITAL INDUSTRIAL RAW MATERIALS. THESE INCLUDE COAL, BIG IRON, STEEL, CAUSTIC SODA, SODA ASH, AMMONIUM SULPHATE, CALCIUM CYANAMIDE, SUPERPHOSPHATE, COPPER, LEAD, ZINC AND TIN.
THE PROGRAM, MARKING THE FIRST BREAK IN THE OFFICIAL PRICE STRUCTURE SINCE JULY, 1947, IS EXPECTED TO RESULT IN AN OVERALL OFFICIAL PRICE RISE OF 100 PER CENT. THE HIGHER PRICES ON RAW MATERIALS ARE INTENDED TO STIMULATE PRODUCTION.
FOR THE LITTLE MAN, IT WILL MEAN A COST OF LIVING INCREASE OF ABOUT 20 PERCENT. RECENT WAGE INCREASES HAVE PUSHED WORKERS' THEORETICAL AVERAGE EARNINGS TO 3,700 YEN PER MONTH ($74) COMPARED WITH 1,800 LAST YEAR.
THE DIET RESOLUTION APPROVED AN UNSPECIFIED BONUS TO FARMERS FOR RICE THEY ALREADY HAVE DELIVERED TO OFFICIAL CHANNELS. ALLIED HEADQUARTERS' OFFICIALS BEFOREHAND HAD TOLD KEY JAPANESE LEGISLATORS IT SHOULD NOT BE ADOPTED; IT DID NOT FIT IN WITH THEIR ECONOMIC RECOVERY PLANS.

CAIRO, JUNE 10-(AP)-AN EGYPTIAN DEFENSE MINISTRY COMMUNIQUE REPORTED TONIGHT THAT 300 JEWISH FIGHTERS WERE KILLED BY EGYPTIAN TROOPS AT NITSANIM, ON THE SOUTHERN PALESTINE COASTAL PLAIN BETWEEN MAJDAL AND ISDUD.
THE COMMUNIQUE ADDED THAT EGYPTIAN PLANES RAIDED TEL AVIV AND A NUMBER OF JEWISH SETTLEMENTS, CAUSING DAMAGE AND STARTING FIRES.
THE COMMUNIQUE DID NOT SAY WHEN THE ACTION AT NITSANIM OCCURRED. THE COMMUNIQUE ITSELF WAS ISSUED IN CAIRO A MATTER OF HOURS BEFORE THE UNITED NATIONS CEASE FIRE ORDER WAS TO BECOME EFFECTIVE.

Cairo, June 10--(AP)--The reaction of Cairo's man in the street to the Palestine truce which goes into effect tomorrow generally was: "Why a truce?"

JUN 1948

Mohamed Rizk, a private chauffeur, said:

"By consenting to a truce we recognize the Jewish state which is not a state at all. It's made of a band of criminals and vagabonds.

"People say this is just a fight between Arabs and Jews. But there are other things behind it --- Britain is playing her role. She is indebted to everybody. She wants to create trouble throughout the world.

"As for the Jews," Rizk concluded, "nobody objected when Hitler massacred them but everybody objects to us fighting them."

One of the policemen guarding the room in Shepheard's hotel occupied by Count Folke Bernadotte, the United Nations Palestine mediator, said:

"I think the truce is a harmful thing for the Arabs, but God shall not permit that the Jews gain any advantage during the truce period. God has always been on the Arabs' side."

Hussein Abdalla, a mechanic, said:

"Why should we stop now when we were very near the Zionists' capital? We should have continued to give the Jews one final blow. Anyhow, they will get it when the fighting resumes."

There was little editorial comment on the truce in Egyptian newspapers.

Al Misri, which supports the Wafdist party in opposition to the Saadist party of Prime Minister Mahmoud Fahmy Nokrasky Pasha, said if the security council's intentions are really NOT to confer any advantage to either party during the truce period, "it should prevent U.N.O. member nations from recognizing Israel during the armistice and consider any recognition a violation of the spirit of the conditions laid down by the U.N.O. mediator."

Al Siassa, the organ of the liberal constitutional party which supports the government of Nokrashy Pasha, said acceptance of the truce by the Arabs and Jews is NOT a success for the security council.

"If it wants to obtain success," Al Siassa added, "the security council should come back on the right track. We have accepted the truce at a time when we hold the political and military initiative in Palestine. Our generosity should be appreciated by the council which now has a chance for correcting its wrong stand."

TEL AVIV, ISRAEL, JUNE 10-(AP)-PRIME MINISTER DAVID BEN-GURION APPEALED TO JEWISH SOLDIERS AND CIVILIANS THROUGHOUT THE HOLY LAND TONIGHT TO OBEY STRICTLY THE UNITED NATIONS TRUCE.

BEN-GURION SAID JEWISH TROOPS ON ALL FRONTS ALREADY HAD BEEN INSTRUCTED TO CEASE FIRE AT 10 A.M. ISRAEL TIME (1 A.M., EASTERN STANDARD TIME) TOMORROW.

THE ISRAELI ARMY SAID TONIGHT THAT SYRIAN TROOPS CROSSED THE RIVER JORDAN AGAIN TODAY AND ATTACKED MISHMAR HAYARDEN, SOUTH OF LAKE HULA.

A COMMUNIQUE SAID OTHER ENEMY FORCES WERE SHELLING EIN GEB, ON THE EASTERN SHORE OF THE SEA OF GALILEE, AND SAMAKH, A TOWN RECAPTURED BY THE JEWS MAY 21. ARAB MOBILE FORCES ATTACKED GESER, A SMALL JEWISH SETTLEMENT NEAR RAMLE, CAPTURED IT AND THEN LOST IT AGAIN TO THE JEWS, THE COMMUNIQUE SAID.

AN ARMY SPOKESMAN, SUMMING UP JEWISH-ARAB AIR BATTLES SINCE ISRAEL'S AIR FORCE CAME INTO BEING, SAID THE JEWS HAD LOST ONLY TWO PLANES AND HAD SHOT DOWN 20 ENEMY PLANES.

AN OFFICER IN CHARGE OF WAR PRISONERS SAID 1,200 ARAB PRISONERS NOW ARE IN JEWISH HANDS. ABOUT 625 JEWS ARE BEING HELD AS WAR PRISONERS IN A CAMP AT MAFRAK, TRANS-JORDAN, HE SAID.

AMMAN, TRANS-JORDAN, JUNE 10-(AP)-MANY ARABS APPEAR CONVINCED THAT, ALTHOUGH THEIR GOVERNMENTS ACCEPTED, THE PALESTINE TRUCE IS A JEWISH-INSPIRED PLOT TO GAIN TIME AND THROW THE ARAB MILITARY MACHINE OUT OF GEAR.

"THE JEWS REALIZED WE ARE NOW IN A POSITION TO CRUSH THEM," SAID AN ARAB LEGION COMMANDER IN JERUSALEM. "THEREFORE THEY ENGINEERED THE TRUCE, DURING WHICH THEY HOPE TO IMPORT MEN AND MATERIALS FROM ABROAD."

AN EGYPTIAN OFFICER AT BETHLEHEM SAID HE SAW THE FOUR-WEEK ARMISTICE AS A "DESPERATE JEWISH MANEUVER TO STAVE OFF OUR INEVITABLE STARVATION OF JERUSALEM AND THREE-PRONGED ATTACK ON TEL AVIV."

THE MAN IN THE STREET IS PUZZLED BY THE ARAB GOVERNMENTS' ACCEPTANCE OF THE TRUCE, BUT THEORIZED IT WAS BROUGHT ABOUT BY "AMERICAN DOLLAR PRESSURE" APPLIED INDIRECTLY THROUGH THE BRITISH, WHO HAVE FINANCIAL TIES WITH TRANS-JORDAN, EGYPT AND IRAQ.

A YOUNG COMBAT SERGEANT SAID:

"THE TRUCE ONLY SLOWS US DOWN AND GIVES JEWS A BREATHER. THAT MEANS MORE PEOPLW ILL BE KILLED."

"THE WHOLE OBJECT IS JEWISH REINFORCEMENT BY IMMIGRATION AND BOLSTERING THE MORALE OF JERUSALEM JEWS," SAID ONE GOVERNMENT OFFICIAIL. "THEY ARE ALREADY MOBILIZING MATA HARIS IN TEL AVIV TO WORK ON THE MEN CHARGED WITH EXERCISING CONTROLS."

AND, WHETHER THE TRUCE IS KEPT OR BROKEN, THE ARABS APPEAR DETERMINED TO HOLD THE POSITIONS THEY HAVE OCCUPIED AND KEEP THEIR POWDER DRY FOR THE RESUMPTION OF HOSTILITIES.

JUN 1948

"COUNT FOLKE BERNADOTTE, U.N. NEGOTIATOR OF THE CEASE-FIRE, POSTPONED HIS VISIT TO AMMAN AND JERUSALEM FROM TOMORROW, THE FIRST DAY OF THE TRUCE, UNTIL SATURDAY. HE PLANNED A VISIT TO RHODES, THE GREEK ISLAND 550 MILES FROM PALESTINE, WHERE HE WILL SET UP HEADQUARTERS IN AN EFFORT TO CONCLUDE A PERMANENT PEACE, AND RETURN HERE TUESDAY."

SEVEN AMERICAN NAVY AND MARINE OFFICERS ARRIVED IN CAIRO AS THE VANGUARD OF AMERICAN, FRENCH AND BELGIAN OBSERVERS AND CONTROLLERS WHO WILL ATTEMPT TO ENFORCE THE TERMS OF THE TRUCE ON THE SPOT. A STAFF OF SWEDISH COLONELS ALREADY WAS ON HAND TO SUPERVISE THE WORK OF THE OBSERVERS.

A BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN IN LONDON SAID BRITAIN, WHO BLOCKADED THE PALESTINE COAST AGAINST JEWISH IMMIGRATION FOR TWO YEARS, MAY OFFER TO RESUME AN AIR AND SEA WATCH TO ENFORCE THE TRUCE TERMS FOR THE U.N. HE SAID BRITAIN WOULD RECONSIDER HER BAN ON IMMIGRATION OF FIT MILITARY AGE JEWS FROM CYPRUS ONLY IF COUNT BERNADOTTE REQUESTS IT.

THE ITALIAN GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCED IT WAS BACKING UP THE TRUCE BY PREVENTING ANY DEPARTURE OF COMBATANTS AND ARMS SHIPMENTS FOR PALESTINE.

AZZAM PASHA SAID THE ARAB LEAGUE WOULD "USE EVERY METHOD IN ORDER TO COLLECT INFORMATION AS TO ANY VIOLATION OF THE TRUCE CONDITIONS" AND ANY SUCH VIOLATIONS WOULD LEAD "TO BREAKING THE TRUCE AT ONCE."

A GOVERNMENT OFFICIAL AT AMMAN SAID "NOT EVEN A KING SOLOMON COULD CONVINCE THE ARABS THAT THE JEWS WILL OBSERVE THE TRUCE FAIRLY." HE DECLARED ALREADY THE JEWS IN TEL AVIV WERE "MOBILIZING MATI HARI'S (WOMAN AGENTS) TO WORK ON THE MEN CHARGED WITH EXERCISING THE CONTROLS."

Cairo add'x cease-fire

ACTIVE OPERATIONS CONTINUED ON THREE OTHER FRONTS THROUGH WEDNESDAY NIGHT AT LEAST.

THE EGYPTIANS WERE REPORTED TO HAVE THROWN A STRONG FORCE OF IRREGULAR VOLUNTEERS INTO A FLANKING ATTACK AIMED AT FREEING THE 1,000 OR MORE EGYPTIANS WHO SPEARHEADED THE ARAB DRIVE ON TEL AVIV AND BECAME TRAPPED AT ISDUD, 23 MILES SOUTH OF THE JEWISH CAPITAL. THE EGYPTIANS MAY BE HELD IN THE TRAP FOR FOUR WEEKS IF THEY FAIL TO GETHMUT BEFORE THE TRUCE FREEZES THE BATTLELINES.

THE EGYPTIANS SAID THEY DROVE THE JEWS OUT OF DEIR NAKHAS (DEIR NAKH KHAS) AND TARKOUMIAH (TARQUMIYA), POINTS ABOUT 18 MILES EAST OF ISDUD.

DISPATCHES FROM ANNA SAID BATTLE-TRIED IRAQUIS ALSO CONTINUED EFFORTS TO BEAT BACK THE THREAT TO JENIN, NORTHERN KEY TO ARAB POSITIONS IN CENTRAL PALESTINE. THEY WERE REPORTED MASSING MEN AND GUNS FOR A POSSIBLE JUMP-OFF AGAINST MISHMAR HAEMEKE OR AFULA, NORTHWEST AND NORTH OF JENIN.

DELAYED DISPATCHES FROM JERUSALEM SAID JEWISH FIGHTERS JUMPED OFF UNEXPECTEDLY AND DROVE THE ARAB LEGION OUT OF A STRIP 200 YARDS DEEP AND HALF A MILE LONG IN THE NORTHERN PART OF THE MODERN CITY IN FOUR HOURS OF BITTER HOUSE TO HOUSE FIGHTING. THE ATTACK PUSHED THE ARABS BACK FROM ST. PAUL'S ROAD AT THE NEW GATE ON THE OLD CITY'S NORTHWEST CORNER, TO GODFREY DE BOUILLON STREET, CLOSE TO THE DAMASCUS GATE ON THE NORTH SIDE OF THE OLD CITY.

Cairo add'x progress.

COUNT FOLKE BERNADOTTE, UNITED NATIONS MEDIATOR, WHO ANNOUNCED THE CEASE FIRE, TOLD BOTH THE ARABS AND JEWS LAST NIGHT HE HOPED THEY WOULD NOTIFY EVERY COMMANDER ON THE PALESTINE BATTLEFIELD OF THE DATE AND HOUR OF THE CEASE FIRE IN ORDER TO AVOID MISUNDERSTANDINGS.

SHERTOK DECLARED THAT ISRAEL'S ACCEPTANCE OF THE TRUCE "IS NOT A MATTER OF MILITARY NECESSITY TO US."

"TO THE CONTRARY," HE ADDED, "RECENT CLAIMS OF ARAB VICTORIES IN PALESTINE HAVE BEEN BASED ON PROVERBIAL ARAB IMAGINATION AND INCURABLE BRITISH WISHFUL THINKING."

DURING THE TRUCE, BERNADOTTE SAID, MILITARY OBSERVERS WILL BE STATIONED AT ALL PALESTINE PORTS AND AIRFIELDS AND ALL MAIN ROADS WILL BE WATCHED. IF IMMIGRANT MEN OF MILITARY AGE ARRIVE IN SMALL NUMBERS, THEY WILL BE PLACED IN DETENTION CAMPS, HE SAID.

THE MEDIATOR SAID HE WILL FLY TO AMMAN TOMORROW AND THEN PROCEED TO JERUSALEM ON THE FIRST DAY OF THE TRUCE.

ON SATURDAY HE WILL LEAVE FOR RHODES, WHERE HE WILL ESTABLISH HIS HEADQUARTERS. THE ISLAND IS ABOUT 550 AIRLINE MILES WEST AND NORTH FROM JERUSALEM.

ALTHOUGH AGREEING TO THE CEASE FIRE UNCONDITIONALLY SHERTOK WAS UNDERSTOOD TO HAVE TOLD BERNADOTTE HE REGARDED SOME BERNADOTTE INTERPRETATIONS AS DEPARTURES FROM THE SECURITY COUNCIL RESOLUTION.

more

HE ADDED HE HOPED BERNADOTTE WOULD EXERCISE DISCRETION ON THESE CLAUSES.

SHERTOK SAID HE WAS ASKING CERTAIN TECHNICAL MODIFICATIONS RELATING TO IMMIGRATION, WAR MATERIALS AND NECESSARY SUPPLIES FOR JERUSALEM.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE TRUCE RAISED HOPES THAT, AFTER SIX ATTEMPTS, THE UNITED NATIONS MIGHT FINALLY SUCCEED IN BRINGING AT LEAST A TEMPORARY PEACE TO THE HOLY LAND, TORN BY STRIFE FOR TWO YEARS AND OPEN WAR SINCE MAY 15.

OBSERVERS EMPHASIZED, HOWEVER, THAT THERE COULD BE MANY A SLIP-UP BEFORE THE CEASE FIRE DEADLINE AND THAT EVEN AFTER IT GOES INTO EFFECT, THERE MAY BE MANY OUTBREAKS.

DESPITE ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE TRUCE AGREEMENT LAST NIGHT, SCATTERED FIGHTING CONTINUED.

THE EGYPTIAN DEFENSE MINISTRY ANNOUNCED THAT EGYPTIAN NAVAL UNITS SHELLED AND DESTROYED PORT INSTALLATIONS AT NAHARIYA YESTERDAY. NAHARIYA IS 15 MILES NORTH OF HAIFA AND IS BELIEVED TO BE THE NORTHERNMOST SPOT ATTACKED BY ANY EGYPTIAN FORCE TO DATE.

THE COMMUNIQUE ALSO SAID EGYPTIAN LAND FORCES ATTACKED ZIONIST STRONGHOLDS AT THE SETTLEMENTS OF DEIR NAKHAS AND TARKHOUNINA (TARQUMIYA) IN SOUTH-CENTRAL PALESTINE, INFLICTING HEAVY LOSSES. TARQUININA IS FIVE MILES NORTHWEST OF HEBRON.

THE EGYPTIAN AIRFORCE BOMBED REHOVOT, 12 MILES SOUTHEAST OF TEL AVIV, THE COMMUNIQUE SAID.

IN OLD JERUSALEM THE ARAB COMMANDER SAID HIS ARTILLERY SHELLED THE JEWISH AGENCY BUILDING, NERVE CENTER OF PALESTINE JEWRY, AND SCORED 15 DIRECT HITS.

THE ISRAELI COMMAND SAID EGYPTIAN ARTILLERY ALSO SHELLED WESTERN PARTS OF THE CITY FROM THE SOUTH AND THAT ARAB LEGION ARMORED VEHICLES TRIED TO PENETRATE JEWISH POSITIONS IN THE MUSRARA QUARTER OF THE CITY.

JACQUES DE REYNIER, CHIEF RED CROSS DELEGATE IN PALESTINE SAID YESTERDAY THE ARAB SHELLING OF JEWISH JERUSALEM DID NOT CONCERN THE RED CROSS, BECAUSE THE JEWS HAD REFUSED TO MAKE JERUSALEM AN OPEN CITY.

HE ADDED, HOWEVER, THAT HIS ORGANIZATION HAD TAKEN STEPS TO PREVENT THE SHELLING OF HOSPITALS, CONVENTS AND RED CROSS NEUTRAL ZONES.

AN IRAQI COMMUNIQUE ISSUED FROM BAGHDAD SAID A THREE-HOUR BATTLE WAS FOUGHT IN THE JENIN AREA OF CENTRAL PALESTINE AND THAT ANOTHER JEWISH ATTACK ON THE NORTHERN OUTPOST OF THE ARAB TRIANGLE WAS REPELLED

THE IRAQIS SAID THEY HAD RE-TAKEN LAJJUN, 11 MILES NORTHWEST OF JENIN.

A SYRIAN COMMUNIQUE SAID JEWISH CONCENTRATIONS BETWEEN TIBERIAS AND NAZARETH WERE SHELLED FROM THE AIR.

AN ISRAELI COMMUNIQUE FROM TEL AVIV SAID LAST NIGHT THAT JEWISH PLANES BOMBED AN ENEMY CONCENTRATION AT BENNT JBAIL, IN LEBANON, FIVE MILES FROM THE ISRAELI BORDER.

A48

THE COMMUNIQUE SAID JEWISH FORCES CARRIED OUT MOPPING UP OPERATIONS AROUND SEVERAL VILLAGES IN GALILEE. IT ADDED THAT A NUMBER OF VILLAGES IN THE GILBOA AREA HAVE BEEN DESERTED BY THEIR ARAB INHABITANTS.

IN NICOSIA, CYPRUS, BRITISH PLANES AND LIGHT TANKS KEPT WATCH TODAY ON JEWISH INTERNMENT CAMPS WHERE INMATES ARE ON A HUNGER STRIKE.

ABOUT 24,000 JEWS ARE BEING HELD IN CYPRUS, WHERE THEY WERE TAKEN AFTER TRYING TO ENTER PALESTINE WITHOUT VISAS DURING THE BRITISH MANDATE.

THE STRIKE RESULTED WHEN THE BRITISH RULED JEWS OF MILITARY AGE WOULD NOT BE ALLOWED TO GO TO ISRAEL WHILE TRUCE NEGOTIATIONS WERE IN PROGRESS.

A HIGH GOVERNMENT SOURCE IN LONDON SAID BRITAIN'S EVACUATION OF PALESTINE MIGHT BE COMPLETED BY THE END OF JUNE OR IN EARLY JULY. HE SAID ONLY 5,000 OR 6,000 TROOPS REMAIN IN HAIFA, BRITAIN'S CHIEF REMAINING OCCUPATION POINT IN THE HOLY LAND.

JUN 1948

BY JAMES M. LONG

WITH THE JEWISH ARMY ON THE LATRUN FRONT, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 9-(AP)-TRUCE IS ABOUT TO RING THE BELL ON WHAT WAS SHAPING UP INTO A DECISIVE TEST OF STRENGTH BETWEEN TWO OF THE MOST COLORFUL ARMIES IN THE MID-EAST.

THEY ARE THE KHAKI-CLAD ARMY OF ISRAEL AND THE RED AND WHITE HEAD-DRESS ADORNED ARAB LEGION. THESE TWO FORCES ARE LINED UP HERE ON THE ONLY FORMAL TRENCHLINE AND GUN-POST FRONT IN PALESTINE WHICH IS COMPARABLE TO THE TRADITIONAL BATTLEFIELDS OF EUROPE.

THE CRACK MECHANIZED LEGION, PRODUCT OF A BRITISH EXPERIMENT WITH MODERNIZING BEDOUIN FIGHTING MEN, IS ON THE DEFENSIVE ON THE TEST. IT HAS BECOME SO AFTER THREE WEEKS OF ALMOST CEASELESS ASSAULT.

THE NEW ISRAELI ARMY, BORN OUT OF GHETTO DEFENSE AND UNDERGROUND STRIKING FORCES, IS ON THE OFFENSIVE. IT HAS BEEN DRIVING UP INTO THE JUDEAN HILLS FROM THE PLAIN WHERE ITS FOREFATHERS IN OLD TESTAMENT DAYS CAME DOWN FROM THE OPPOSITE DIRECTION TO BATTLE THE PHILISTINES.

"NO-MAN'S LAND" IS THE FIVE-MILE STRETCH OF THE VITAL TEL AVIV--JERUSALEM CONVOY ROAD WHERE IT FORKS AT LATRUN, THE HALFWAY POINT.

THE JEWS HAVE WON AND HELD THE ROCKY HIGHLANDS SOUTH OF THE ROAD WHERE RICHARD THE LION-HEARTED CLIMBED FOR ONE LAST LOOK AT THE HOLY CITY, THEN TURNED BACK IN THE FAILURE OF HIS CRUSADE.

THE LEGION IS DUG IN ON LATRUN HILL ON THE OPPOSITE SIDE OF THE ROAD, RISING UP FROM THE FAMOUS FRENCH MONASTERY OF THE MONKS, PLEDGED TO LIFELONG SILENCE.

BY DAY THE FRONT IS STIFLING HOT, AND GENERALLY QUIET. EVERY VEHICLE MOVEMENT ON THE DIRT ROADS RAISES DUST CLOUDS WHICH ATTRACT HEAVY SHELLING.

BY NIGHT THE WAR FLAMES TO FULL FURY IN A THUNDER OF ARTILLERY, MORTAR AND SMALL ARMS FIRE WHOSE GUNFLASHES AND STARSHELL BURSTS COLOR THE JAGGED HORIZON FOR MILES, WHILE THE GROUND TREMBLES WITH THE EXPLOSIONS.

A75

THE ARMY OF ISRAEL TONIGHT IS PRESSING THE ISSUE HARD. ITS GUNS ARE HAMMERING HOME THE BLOWS OF A LAST FIERCE OFFENSIVE DRIVE TO SECURE THE LOST LINK IN THE JERUSALEM ROAD AS WELL AS POSSIBLE BEFORE THE CEASE FIRE.

THE LEGION IS HOLDING GRIMLY AND FIRING BACK WITH EVERYTHING IN ITS ARSENAL.

IN THE THICK, MOONLESS DARK OF THIS NIGHT THERE WAS NO INDICATION WHETHER TIME ENOUGH REMAINED OR FORCE ENOUGH HAD BEEN GATHERED FOR THE JEWS TO WIN FURTHER SUBSTANTIAL IMPROVEMENT IN THEIR POSITION.

IN THREE WEEKS THEY ALREADY HAD SECURED BAB EL WAD GORGE AND BEATEN

THE LEGION BACK FROM THE PLAIN IN OPEN TANK BATTLE. BUT IN THE REPEATED ASSAULTS WHICH CARRIED INTO LATRUN VILLAGE AND THE POLICE STATION THEY WITHDREW BECAUSE THEY WERE UNDER THE GUNS OF THE LEGION'S HEAVY ARTILLERY CONCENTRATIONS ON THE RIDGETOP ABOVE.

AT THE PRESENT PHASE OF THE FIGHT THE LEGION IS ESTIMATED--UNOFFICIALLY--TO HAVE A FULL BRIGADE CONCENTRATED ON THAT HILL. THAT IS JUST UNDER 3,000 MEN, ALL THE AREA WOULD HOLD EFFICIENTLY. THE WHOLE ARAB LEGION IS ONLY 10,000 TO 12,000 STRONG, ACCORDING TO THE BEST INFORMATION HERE.

THE SIZE OF THE JEWISH ASSAULT FORCE CANNOT BE DISCLOSED. BUT IT IS SAFE TO ASSUME THEY HAVE AT LEAST AS MANY MEN IN THE FIGHT AS THE LEGION HAS.

THE LEGION IS STRONG ON ARMOR AND ARTILLERY, USING GUNS UP TO FRENCH 75'S AND BRITISH 25-POUNDERS.

THE JEWS ARE STILL RELYING PRIMARILY ON MORTARS WHICH THEY MANUFACTURE THEMSELVES, BUT NOW THEY HAVE THEM IN BATTERIES AND IN THE LARGEST SIZES. THEY ARE USING ARTILLERY TOO, AND ALTHOUGH IT CANNOT BE DESCRIBED, IT IS NOT KNOWN BY CORRESPONDENTS TO INCLUDE ANY GUNS AS LARGE AS THE LEGION IS USING.

BOTH SIDES ARE USING PLANES. THE JEWS ARE USING THEIR OWN, CORRELATING THEM WITH THE ATTACK. THE LEGION HAS NONE. IRAQI AND EGYPTIAN PLANES COME OVER INSTEAD. THERE IS NO INDICATION OF COORDINATION OF THESE ARAB AIR ASSAULTS WITH THE LEGION'S GROUND FORCES.

COMMUNIQUE

CAIRO, JUNE 10 - (AP) - THE EGYPTIAN DEFENSE MINISTRY ISSUED THIS COMMUNIQUE TONIGHT ON EGYPTIAN FORCES' OPERATIONS TODAY IN PALESTINE:

JUN 1948

"1. THE ENEMY LAUNCHED A SHAM ATTACK ON ISDUD IN ORDER TO DIVERT OUR ATTENTION FROM NITSANIM SETTLEMENT. PICKED ZIONIST TROOPS BROUGHT SPECIALLY FROM TEL AVIV THEN BESEIGED NITSANIM. OUR FORCE OUTGUESSED THE ENEMY AND LET THE ZIONISTS START SHELLING NITSANIM, THEN SURROUNDED THEM. THEY WERE CAUGHT UNDER OUR ARTILLERY FIRE AND FIRE FROM OUR FORCES INSIDE THE SETTLEMENT. THE ENEMY WAS COMPLETELY WIPED OUT WITH THE EXCEPTION OF 10 SURVIVORS WHO WERE TAKEN PRISONER. AMONG THEM WAS THEIR ARTILLERY COMMANDER. OUR SOLDIERS COUNTED 300 ENEMY BODIES ON THE BATTLEFIELD AND CAPTURED A CONSIDERABLE QUANTITY OF GUNS, AUTOMATIC WEAPONS, RADIO SETS, AMMUNITION AND MINES. WE LOST A LIMITED NUMBER OF MEN.

"2. BRION, ITS HEADQUARTERS SETTLEMENT, WAS SUBJECTED TO THE HEAVIEST ARTILLERY SHELLING YET EXPERIENCED BY ANY ENEMY SETTLEMENT.

JUN 1948

"3. OUR ADVANCING FORCES THRUSTING NORTHWARDS OCCUPIED AGUR AND ARTUF, SOUTH OF JERUSALEM ON THE RAMLE ROAD.

"4. OUR MOBILE FORCES UNDERTOOK A SURPRISE RAID ON EIN JURION SETTLEMENT BETWEEN JERUSALEM AND HEBRON, STARTING FIRES, DESTROYING TWO AMMUNITION AND FUEL DUMPS AND OTHER INSTALLATIONS.

"5. OUR PLANES BOMBED OIL DUMPS IN THE TEL AVIV REGION, STARTING FIRES 700 FEET HIGH, AND DROPPED BOMBS ON THE CITY'S PORT AND WAREHOUSES.

more

"6. OUR FIGHTER-BOMBERS BOMBED YASUR, ALKIBAB AND GAT SETTLEMENTS, DESTROYING DUMPS, STRAFING ENEMY CONCENTRATIONS AND INFLICTING CONSIDERABLE CASUALTIES. JUN 1948

"7. OUR PLANES ATTACKED ENEMY STRONGHOLDS ON THE ROAD FROM JERUSALEM TO LATRUN AND IN THE REGION OF BEIT NAHASIR, CAUSING SEVERE DAMAGE.

"8. ALL OUR PLANES RETURNED SAFELY TO THEIR BASES."#

Baghdad, June 10--(ap)--A communique issued by the Iraqi Ministry of Defense for June 10, said:

Our heavy artillery shelled the Qamat Shaoul settlement and Akarim in the new city (Jerusalem) causing damages in buildings and establishments.

Our air force bombed Beit Muhaiser and Abu Shusha villages and plants east of Afula where buildings were destroyed. Enemy armored cars advancing toward Lajjun, which our forces occupied yesterday, were bombed. Other enemy columns in the Afula area were bombed and a large number of their units were destroyed. JUN 1948

All our planes returned safely.

Since the Jenin disaster the enemy continued revenging attempts making new attacks, but with more failure and losses. The enemy suffered great losses in last night's attack after which our forces counterattacked and expelled the enemy from his positions and inflicted heavy losses.

OOTACAMUND, INDIA, JUNE 10-(AP)-THE SOVIET UNION PROTESTED IN THE ECONOMIC COMMISSION FOR ASIA AND THE FAR EAST TODAY AGAINST A DRAFT RESOLUTION ON THE PROMOTION OF TRADE IN THE ECAFE REGION.

SOVIET DELEGATE NOVIKOV INSISTED THAT SUCH A RESOLUTION SHOULD HAVE PROVIDED A REPORT ON CONDITIONS WHICH COULD CONTRIBUTE TO DEVELOPMENT OF TRADE WITH COUNTRIES OUTSIDE ASIA; THAT CONDITIONS OF LOANS IN THE PROMOTION OF TRADE FULLY RESPECT NATIONAL SOVEREIGNTIES, AND THAT THE TRADE PROMOTION SHOULD CONTRIBUTE TO ECONOMIC RECONSTRUCTION OF WAR-RAVAGED AREAS.

THE DRAFT RESOLUTION SOUGHT THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A TRADE PROMOTION SECTION WHICH WOULD PROMOTE COLLABORATION AMONG NATIONS AND SERVE AS A CLEARING HOUSE FOR COMMERCIAL INFORMATION.

DISCUSSING THE MATTER OF TRADE BETWEEN THE ECAFE REGION AND JAPAN, THE UNITED KINGDOM, WITH CHINA AND AUSTRALIA CONCURRING, CONTENDED THAT ANY STEPS TAKEN BE IN CONFORMITY WITH PRINCIPLES LAID DOWN BY THE FAR EASTERN COMMISSION. HOWEVER, THE PHILIPPINES AND NEW ZEALAND CONTENDED THE AREA COULD NOT AFFORD TO WAIT UNTIL THE FAR EASTERN COMMISSION REPORTED.

NOVIKOV SUCCEEDED IN GETTING ONE AMENDMENT ADOPTED TO A RESOLUTION ON FLOOD CONTROL. IT SUGGESTED THAT ONLY NATIONALS OF THE ECAFE REGION SHOULD BE TRAINED AS SPECIALISTS.

THE AMENDMENT WAS THE SUBJECT OF MORE THAN AN HOUR'S DEBATE DURING WHICH BRITAIN CHARGED THE RUSSIAN DELEGATE WITH A "NARROW NATIONALIST SPIRIT OF ISOLATIONISM."

THE UNITED STATES DELEGATE SAID HE REGARDED FLOOD CONTROL AS A "NATIONAL SUBJECT," NOT INTERNATIONAL.

New Delhi, June 10-(ap)-Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru of india charged today that "short of a declaration of war pakistan has done everything to help the invaders and insurgents in kashmir."

He issued a statement which said pakistan troops in strength recently opposed indian troops on the uri front in kashmir. The statement was issued in reply to charges by india's sister dominion of indian provocations in the big princely state. A united nations commission now is studying a complaint by india that pakistan is aiding tribal invaders of kashmir. The security council has proposed mediation and a plebiscite in kashmir to determine whether its people want to join india or pakistan.#

NEW DELHI, JUNE 10-(AP)-HYDERABAD, RICHEST AND MOST POPULOUS OF THE INDIAN STATES, WILL HOLD A PLEBISCITE NEXT YEAR TO DECIDE WHETHER TO JOIN THE DOMINION OF INDIA, A SPOKESMAN SAID LAST NIGHT.

V.P.MEMON, INDIAN SECRETARY TO THE MINISTRY OF STATES, SAID IT WOULD TAKE AT LEAST A YEAR TO SET UP SUCH A REFERENDUM. THE EXACT DATE HAS NOT BEEN DECIDED. MENON SAID ABOUT 7,000,000 OF THE STATE'S POPULATION OF 16,500,000 PROBABLY WOULD BE ELIGIBLE TO VOTE

A SPOKESMAN FOR THE HYDERABAD GOVERNMENT SAID THE STATE HAD REFUSED TO ACCEPT AN INDIAN REQUEST FOR UNCONDITIONAL ACCESSION TO INDIA.

THE INDIAN GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCED AT ABOUT THE SAME TIME THAT INDIAN SOLDIERS AND POLICE HAD BEEN AUTHORIZED TO PURSUE BORDER RAIDERS ACROSS THE HYDERABAD BOUNDARY IN THE FUTURE, IF NECESSARY. THE DOMINION ACCUSES AN ORGANIZATION OF HYDERABAD MOSLEMS--THE RAZAKARS--OF RAIDING INDIAN VILLAGES.

HYDERABAD'S RULER, THE WEALTHY NIZAM OF HYDERABAD, IS A MOSLEM. THE POPULATION OF THE STATE IS MAINLY HINDU. THE STATE LIES IN THE CENTER OF THE SUBCONTINENT OF INDIA AND IS EXCEEDED IN AREA AMONG THE INDIAN STATES ONLY BY KASHMIR.

GERMANY (480)
BY JOHN M.HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON,JUNE 10-(AP)-AMERICAN OFFICIALS VOICED HOPE TODAY THAT WESTERN GERMANY WILL SWING AROUND AND STAMP ITS EVENTUAL OKAY ON PLANS FOR A PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT.

INDICATIONS AT THE STATE DEPARTMENT ARE THAT AMERICAN AND PROBABLY OTHER WESTERN ALLIED AUTHORITIES WILL BE BUSY DURING THE NEXT FEW WEEKS TRYING TO OVERCOME THE FIRST HIGHLY CRITICAL GERMAN REACTION.

THIS HAS TAKEN THE GENERAL TONE THAT THE SYSTEM FOR SETTING UP THE GOVERNMENT WAS DEVISED WITHOUT GERMAN PARTICIPATION AND NOW IS BEING IMPOSED UPON THE GERMAN PEOPLE.

OFFICIALS HERE, HOWEVER, INSIST THIS IS A "MISUNDERSTANDING" OF THE PLAN AGREED UPON AT A LONDON CONFERENCE LAST WEEK AND FORMALLY ACCEPTED FOR THE UNITED STATES YESTERDAY BY SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL.

THE AMERICAN ATTITUDE IS THAT TWO MAIN POINTS NEED TO BE DRIVEN HOME TO THE PEOPLE IN WESTERN GERMANY:

FIRST, THAT THE GERMAN PEOPLE NOW HAVE AN EXTRAORDINARY OPPORTUNITY TO DECIDE WHETHER THEY WANT TO WORK OUT THEIR OWN GOVERNMENT.

SECOND, THAT THEY HAVE WITHIN BROAD LIMITS THE PRIVILEGE OF DETER-

MINING WHAT KIND OF GOVERNMENT THEY WANT.
IN ADDITION, OFFICIALS HERE SAID THAT IF THE GERMANS DO NOT WANT TO GO AHEAD--WORKING WITHIN THE REQUIREMENT THAT THE PROPOSED NEW GOVERNMENT MUST BE SET UP ALONG FEDERAL LINES--THEN THE ALLIED GOVERNMENTS WILL NOT IMPOSE THE SYSTEM ON THEM.
HOWEVER, IT IS NOT EXPECTED THAT EVENTS ACTUALLY WILL LEAD TO A REJECTION.
IT WAS DISCLOSED HERE THAT PRIOR TO THE SIX-NATION TALKS AT LONDON, ALLIED OFFICIALS IN GERMANY HAD SOUNDED OUT GERMAN LEADERS AND HAD DISCOVERED CONSIDERABLE BASIC SUPPORT BOTH FOR CREATING A PROVISIONAL WESTERN REGIME AND FOR SETTING IT UP AS A FEDERAL ADMINISTRATION WITH BROAD POWERS RESERVED TO THE INDIVIDUAL STATES.
AMERICAN AUTHORITIES SPECULATED THAT THIS SUPPORT WILL BECOME EVIDENT AS THE NATURE OF THE WESTERN POWER PLAN IS BETTER UNDERSTOOD.
IN HIS STATEMENT ACCEPTING THE PLAN FOR THE UNITED STATES, MARSHALL DESCRIBED THE PROPOSALS DEALING WITH CREATION OF A GERMAN GOVERNMENT IN THESE WORDS:
"IT WAS X X X AGREED THAT THE GERMANS IN THE WESTERN AREA SHOULD NOW BE FREE TO PROCEED WITH THE ASSUMPTION OF GOVERNMENTAL RESPONSIBILITIES WHICH WOULD ENABLE THEM TO GIVE EFFECTIVE ACCISTANCE X X X TOWARD THE EVOLUTION OF THEIR OWN POLITICAL FUTURE ALONG PEACEFUL LINES.

"IT IS ENVISAGED THAT A CONSTITUTION FOR A FEDERAL GOVERNMENT WILL BE DRAWN UP BY THE GERMANS THEMSELVES THROUGH DELEGATES FROM THE PARTICIPATING STATES.
"THIS CONSTITUTION SHOULD INSURE THE NORMAL FUNCTIONING OF FREE POLITICAL INSTITUTIONS, SHOULD GUARANTEE BASIC CIVIL LIBERTIES FOR THE INDIVIDUAL AND SHOULD PROVIDE FOR THE ULTIMATE ADHERENCE OF ALL THE GERMAN STATES AS SOON AS CIRCUMSTANCES PERMIT."
THE FIRST FORMAL STEP IN THE PROCEEDURE--ASSUMING THE FRENCH PARLIAMENT SUPPORTS THE SCHUMAN GOVERNMENT IN ACCEPTING THE LONDON AGREEMENTS--WILL BE FOR THE BRITISH, FRENCH AND AMERICAN MILITARY GOVERNORS TO MEET WITH THE PRESIDENTS OF THE VARIOUS GERMAN STATES.
AT THIS MEETING PLANS WILL BE WORKED OUT FOR HOLDING STATE ELECTIONS OF DELEGATES TO A CONSTITUTIONAL ASSEMBLY. BUT MORE THAN THAT, THIS MEETING WILL GIVE THE ALLIED LEADERS THEIR FIRST FORMAL OPPORTUNITY TO EXPLAIN THE DETAILS OF THE LONDON AGREEMENT AND THE OPPORTUNITIES WHICH AMERICAN OFFICIALS, AT LEAST, CONSIDER ARE BEING OFFERED TO THE GERMAN PEOPLE.

WASHINGTON,JUNE 10-(AP)-REP.STEFAN (R-NEB) SAID TODAY HE HAS HEARD ~~THAT~~ "CERTAIN INTERESTS HAVE BOUGHT UP THOUSANDS OF BALES OF COTTON" HOPING FOR A "SUBSTANTIAL" PROFIT FROM THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM.
STEFAN SAID THE HOUSE APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE, WHICH RECEIVED THAT INFORMATION, HAS CAUTIONED OFFICIALS OF THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION AGAINST PAYING INFLATED PRICES FOR COTTON AND OTHER COMMODITIES.
"IT IS ESTIMATED THAT OVER A HALF-BILLION DOLLARS' WORTH OF COTTON WILL BE PURCHASED FOR THE RELIEF PROGRAM," THE NEBRASKAN SAID IN A WEEKLY NEWSLETTER TO HIS CONSTITUENTS. "SINCE THIS INFORMATION LEAKED OUT, THE PER POUND PRICE OF COTTON HAS JUMPED SIX CENTS.
"THE COMMITTEE HAS BEEN TOLD THAT CERTAIN INTERESTS HAVE BOUGHT UP THOUSANDS OF BALES OF COTTON, PLANNING TO SELL IT UNDER ECA AT A SUBSTANTIAL INCREASE IN PRICE."
STEFAN SAID THE HOUSE GROUP IS AFRAID SIMILAR PRACTICES MIGHT BE FOLLOWED WITH WHEAT, FATS AND OILS, DRIED FRUITS, DAIRY PRODUCTS, STEEL AND OTHER ITEMS.
HE SAID HE FEARS SERIOUS MISUSE OF ECA FUNDS IN THE CHINESE PHASE OF THE FOREIGN AID PROGRAM.

IN A DIFFERENT LINE OF ARGUMENT, REP. WALTER (D-PA) SAID THIS COUNTRY "SHOULDN'T ENCOURAGE PEOPLE WHO DON'T FOR THE MOMENT AGREE WITH THEIR GOVERNMENTS TO BELIEVE THEY CAN FIND A HAVEN IN THE UNITED STATES."
"IT IS MORE IMPORTANT FOR THEM TO REMAIN TO COMBAT TOTALITARIAN GOVERNMENTS IN THEIR COUNTRIES," WALTER SAID.
THE OPPOSITION WAS NOT UNEXPECTED.
BEFORE THE HOUSE CALLED UP THE BILL FOR DEBATE FELLOWS TOLD A REPORTER THE MEASURE FACED A CROSSFIRE OF COMPLIANT FROM THOSE WHO THINK IT IS TOO GENEROUS AND THOSE WHO THINK IT ISN'T GENEROUS ENOUGH.
THE SENATE ALREADY HAS PASSED A BILL TO ADMIT 200,000 DISPLACED PERSONS FROM EUROPE. IT DIFFERS FROM THE FELLOWS BILL IN SOME IMPORTANT RESPECTS.
UNDER THE FELLOWS BILL ONLY REFUGEES NOW IN DP CAMPS IN ITALY AND THE OCCUPIED ZONES OF GERMANY AND AUSTRIA WOULD BE ADMITTED. THE SENATE BILL WOULD OPEN THE DOORS TO THOSE IN EASTERN POLAND AND THE BALTIC COUNTRIES NOW UNDER RUSSIAN CONTROL.

NEW YORK, JUNE 10-(AP)-AVIATION WEEK MAGAZINE SAYS A SECOND U.S. AIR FORCE PLANE HAS FLOWN FASTER THAN SOUND.

THE MAGAZINE SAYS THE PLANE IS THE NORTH AMERICAN XF-86 AND IS NOW IN PRODUCTION AT THE COMPANY'S PLANT IN INGLEWOOD, CALIF.

THE PUBLICATION SAYS THE AIR FORCE HAS ORDERED 675 OF THEM. THE PLANE DESCRIBED AS THE "FIRST SUPERSONIC COMBAT AIRCRAFT AND THE FIRST SUPERSONIC PLANE TO BE MANUFACTURED IN QUANTITY." IT WAS SAID ALSO TO BE THE FASTEST TURBOJET-POWERED AIRCRAFT IN THE WORLD.

THE MAGAZINE RELEASED ITS STATEMENT FOLLOWING AN ANNOUNCEMENT BY AIR SECRETARY SYMINGTON THAT THE BELL AIRCRAFT XS-1 WAS THE FIRST PLANE TO FLY FASTER THAN SOUND. AVIATION WEEK SAID THE XS-1 WAS A SPECIAL ROCKET-POWERED RESEARCH AIRPLANE WITH A POWERED FLIGHT DURATION OF ONLY TWO AND A HALF MINUTES. THE MAGAZINE SAID THE XF-86 "WILL HAVE AN ENDURANCE AT TOP SPEED OF ONE HOUR AND A RANGE AT REDUCED SPEED OF 1,800 MILES.

"THE CRAFT IS ARMED WITH SIX .50-CALIBER MACHINE GUNS AND CARRIES A VARIETY OF AIRCRAFT ROCKETS, SEVERAL LIGHT BOMBS OR TWO 1,000-POUND BOMBS, ADDITIONAL MACHINE GUN PACKAGES OR JETTISONABLE FUEL TANKS.

HE SAID THE COUNCIL DEBATE WAS BEING USED TO APPLY PRESSURE ON THE NETHERLANDS AND HIS GOVERNMENT WAS GETTING TIRED OF SENDING A DELEGATE TO LAKE SUCCESS TO DISCUSS INCIDENTAL QUESTIONS.

THE COUNCIL TOOK NO ACTION IN THE INDONESIAN CASE AND SET FURTHER DEBATE FOR NEXT THURSDAY.

ANOTHER MEETING HAS BEEN SCHEDULED FOR TOMORROW (9:30 A.M. EDT) FOR AIRING OF THE RUSSIAN-WESTERN POWER IMPASSE OVER CONTROL OF ATOMIC ENERGY. THE U.N. ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION VOTED OVER RUSSIAN OBJECTIONS MAY 17 TO SUSPEND WORK ON ATOMIC CONTROLS. INFORMED SOURCES SAID THE UNITED STATES WILL ASK THE COUNCIL TO APPROVE THE THREE REPORTS OF THE COMMISSION. RUSSIA HAS OBJECTED TO EACH REPORT. THE DECISION WHETHER TO RESUME TALKS ON ATOMIC CONTROL IS UP TO THE SECURITY COUNCIL AND THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

THE JEWS SAY THEY WILL NEGOTIATE ONLY ON THE BASIS OF THE EXISTENCE OF ISRAEL, CARVED OUT OF PALESTINE ON AUTHORITY OF THE U.N. ASSEMBLY'S 1947 PARTITION DECISION. THE ARABS CONTEND THAT PARTITION IS ILLEGAL AND DEMAND ONE STATE COVERING ALL OF PALESTINE.

Arabs And Jews Both Charge (M) Palestine Truce Violations

Cairo, June 11 (AP)—Palestine's truce brought to a sputtering stop two major battles and several other actions but produced charges of violations from both sides in its first day. M. BOYD

The Syrian chargé d'affaires here announced he had received instructions to protest against a second post-truce air attack on Damascus by Jewish planes at 6 P.M. today, and declared his country would not be bound by the truce if the violations continued.

Count Folke Bernadotte, the truce negotiator, announced he had ordered United Nations observers to investigate and report as quickly as possible on complaints alleging four separate violations by Jews.

Isdud And Latrun Battles

Up to almost the last minute Jews and Arabs fought for major decisions on the Isdud front south of Tel Aviv, and around Latrun for control of the vital Jerusalem highway. Dispatches from the fronts said today.

Jewish airmen got in a lick at an Arab capital, attacking Damascus in the last hours before the cease-fire went into effect at 1 A.M. (E.S.T.).

Then nearly six hours after cease-fire orders were issued on all fronts, authoritative Trans-Jordan sources declared the Jews were continuing to attack the Syrians east of Mishmar Hay Yarden, south of Lake Hula in northeastern Palestine which the Syrians claimed to have occupied in a last-hour offensive yesterday.

Did Not Return Fire

An official Trans-Jordan source declared the Jews also broke the truce five hours after it became effective by launching a machine-gun attack on the airport town of Lydda and Wadi el Khyar between Tel Aviv and Jerusalem. The Arab Legion said its commanders did not return the fire.

An Israel communiqué, on the other hand, charged that Arabs launched a "heavy attack" 30 minutes after the deadline on Sedjera in an effort to cut the road in northern Galilee between Jewish-held Afula and Tiberias. The communiqué said the Arabs stopped shooting in some sectors but continued to attack in others after the deadline.

An Associated Press correspondent said a salvo of twelve Egyptian shells greeted the truce seven minutes after it went into effect on the Isdud front south of Tel Aviv.

Complaint From Glubb Pasha

Count Bernadotte said in a statement that the four Arab complaints of violations by Jews were:

1. A complaint from Brigadier John Glubb Pasha, of the Arab Legion, that an Arab soldier was killed in the Sheikh Jarrah section of Jerusalem this morning, that snipers fired at a party attempting to remove the body, and other snipers fired on two Arab civilians from Hadassah Hospital.

2. Three complaints from the Syrians alleging that they had to drive off a Jewish plane trying to bomb Damascus about 10 A.M., that the Jews continued firing after the truce hour near Derdara on the Syrian border, finally ceased fire but finally resumed shooting.

In addition, Azzam Pasha, secretary general of the Arab League, declared he had information that Jewish forces attacked Beersheba in the south after the truce.

Surprise Offensives

All day yesterday and through the night Jews and Arabs fought up to the deadline in desperate efforts to gain decisive victories on two major fronts. On at least four other fronts they launched surprise offensives in an effort to gain strategic advantage in the last hours.

Egyptian tanks this morning broke through the Jewish cordon that had held about 2,000 Egyptians in a trap at Isdud, 23 miles south of Tel Aviv, for more than a week. In their last desperate thrust the Egyptians swept away the Jewish dug-in positions on a sandy hill overlooking the coastal road from Isdud to Majdal.

Two Villages Taken

The Egyptians said 300 picked Israelis were killed in one phase of the battle which swirled around Metsianin (Nitsanim), focal point of the Jewish-sprung trap. But the Jews said they had countered their setback by taking two Arab villages, Julis and Yassur, farther south which keep the Egyptian supply road under fire.

Also at Latrun, key to the Tel Aviv-Jerusalem road, the Jews fought to the last minute to wrest the last possible inch of the vital highway from the reach of Arab guns.

Israel declared "important successes" were scored in this last desperate punch but said no details could be given until later.

160 Jews Killed

It was known, however, that after two nights of terrific shelling the Jewish forces had attempted to drive home a night assault on a rocky hill held by about a brigade of the Arab Legion. The Jews were attempting to free the last 5 miles of the highway east of Latrun from Arab fire.

An Arab Legion communiqué claimed the Jews had been turned back in this last assault and that 160 Jews were killed, 100 wounded and 36 captured in a quick Arab counterattack directed at the Jewish "offensive center" at Barriya between Latrun and Ramle. One third of those captured were women, the Arabs said.

In the final hours, too, the Israel air force got in its last night raid, bombing Damascus, the Syrian capital, for fifteen minutes and dropping three tons of explosives, the Israel communiqué said. It was the second raid on an Arab capital, the first having been on Amman, Trans-Jordan capital, a little over a week ago. The Jews said they caught Damascus without a blackout.

Damascus dispatches said one plane, a Messerschmitt, dropped nine bombs, some of them incendiaries, at about 1 A. M., in various sections of the city, including areas close to two military hospitals. A Syrian communiqué said there were no casualties or damage.

Jerusalem dispatches said that city spent a fearful night in the hours preceding the armistice, with artillery and mortar fire splitting the darkness from dusk to dawn and growing particularly fierce in the last seventy minutes before the truce.

The dispatches said Israeli mortar bombs crashed into the Armenian Catholic Church and straddled the Austrian Hospice, now the largest Arab hospital in the old city. An Arab nursing orderly was killed and two Armenian worshipers were wounded. A mortar bomb also struck the roof of a refugee shelter adjoining the Mosque of Omar only a few feet from the Wailing Wall and injured members of a family.

Six minutes after the truce became effective, however, Jerusalem could look at its ruins in quiet. Rubble littered the streets, there were gaping holes in many a religious edifice, doors and windows of homes were battered in, and bare wooden frames showed where roofs had lost their red tiles.

The Premier of Lebanon said Lebanese, aided by Syrian units, swept northward out of central Palestine last night and reached the Nazareth-Afule road. The Syrians said their capture of Mishmar ha Yarden south of Lake Hule was followed by other advances yesterday that left them in control of the road to Tiberias from the north.

The Israeli forces said they turned back Syrian tank thrusts yesterday south of the Sea of Galilee.

Tel Aviv's air raid sirens sounded an hour and a half after the truce. No bombs fell.

Evans Going With Bernadotte

Harold Evans, United Nations Commissioner for Jerusalem, will accompany Count Bernadotte on his trip to Palestine and Rhodes tomorrow. Mr. Evans, a Philadelphia Quaker, and attorney, expressed the hope that the Arab states would be able to advise him upon his return to Cairo next week "as to the extent to which I may expect Arab cooperation in Jerusalem."

In a statement issued tonight, Mr. Evans said:

"I have learned that it will not be possible for representatives of the Arab States to advise me before Monday or Tuesday of next week as to the extent to which I may expect Arab cooperation in Jerusalem.

"I have, therefore, decided to go tomorrow with Count Bernadotte to Rhodes, returning with him to Cairo next Tuesday.

"My brief stay at Jerusalem will have no bearing whatever on the question of the Municipal Commissionership except so far as it will give me a first-hand impression of conditions there. I hope that on my return I may receive assurance of Arab support.

"The Municipal Commissionership of Jerusalem will be a symbol that the Holy City is one city, though temporarily divided by the exigencies of war, and that it will one day become the city of peace, as Moslems, Jews and Christians throughout the world so ardently desire." aac

U.N. Truce Is Observed By Israeli And Arabs

Tel Aviv, Israel, June 11 (AP)—Truce came to the Holy Land today after four weeks of bitter fighting.

The first word back to Hebrew headquarters here after the 10 A.M. (2 A.M., E.D.T.) deadline indicated the United Nations' cease-fire order was being generally observed well in advance of the hour fixed by the United Nations' mediator, Count Folke Bernadotte, of Sweden. J. M. LONG.

For Israel this is the first day of peace in its history. The war began the day it came into being and has continued ever since.

Patrol Off Coast

At daybreak, two light warships—corvettes or destroyers—took up positions off Tel Aviv. Their identity could not be determined, but it was presumed they are part of the international coastal patrol guarding the truce terms.

For the first time the Jews now have some hope that the truce has a chance and that a formula for permanent peace may be worked out in the forthcoming 28 days of conferences at the Island of Rhodes.

In case it should not, confidence ran just as high that the battle-tested Jewish Army not only could hold this young state but could meet and beat Arab armies beyond present frontiers.

Though two previous cease-fires have failed, officials and the public alike say they believe this one has a better-than-average chance of working. Even before dawn today, almost all fighting had stopped.

Air-Raid Alarm

Tel Aviv's air-raid sirens shrieked an alarm an hour and a half after the cease-fire deadline. The all clear sounded a half hour later. There was no explanation immediately. The drone of a plane's motor could be heard in the distance, but there was no sound of explosions.

In the last hour before the cease-fire last night Jewish Air Force planes bombed the Syrian capital of Damascus for fifteen minutes, military headquarters announced. [The Syrians said there were no casualties and little damage.]

Truce Breach Claimed

[Syria notified the United Nations at Lake Success that Israeli forces still were bombarding Syrian troops today several hours after the United Nation cease-fire deadline.

[Faris el Khouri, Syrian delegate and June president of the Security Council, said he had received two reports of Jewish firing from his Government since the deadline.

[The messages said the Jews still were firing at 5 A.M. and 7 A.M. (E.S.T.). El Khouri said the Syrian Government had notified Bernadotte and asked for an immediate inquiry.]

"Enemy Of Israel"

David Ben-Gurion, Israel's white-haired Prime Minister, broadcast an announcement last night that all Israeli forces had been ordered to quit shooting at 10 A.M., Israel time today. He told his people:

"The Government will not suffer any attempt from anyone in our midst to break the truce and bring to naught the undertaking given by the Government to the United Nations.

"Anyone who attempts to break the discipline of the State at this hour will be considered as an enemy of Israel and the Government will mete him out the treatment accorded in time of emergency to an enemy within the ranks."

Irgun Is Bitter

His statement came only a few hours after Irgun Zvai Leumi, old Jewish underground group, had issued a bitter statement which said:

"The Government had a choice between shame and war. It chose shame. But there is no assurance that war will be avoided."

On a front strengthened literally from Dan to Beersheba, Biblical limits of the Holy Land, a lull set in hours in advance of cease-fire time.

Questions Are Posed

Only at Latrun, key to five miles of the Tel Aviv-Jerusalem road, was heavy fighting continued. Jews battled there to win back their convoy lifeline through Arab territory.

For Jews the questions of these four forthcoming weeks were:

1. Whether under Count Folke Bernadotte's interpretation of the United Nations truce resolution, immigration of Jews except for men of military age would be permitted without any unforeseen barrier.

2. To what extent the Jerusalem road actually would be opened to normal traffic.

3. What changes of strategy and what further gathering of strength were possible to achieve decisive victory on the battlefield should round-table discussions fail.

Military Situation

This was the fighting-front situation just before the end of the firing:

The Jews held their whole partition state, less some unmeasured areas of the Negeb wasteland in the south, through which Egyptian forces had free passage.

Beyond their frontiers, they held Jaffa; a wedge of Arab territory from Tel Aviv to Latrun, except for an Arab ring around Er Ramle and Lydda; virtually the whole new city of Jerusalem, and 1,200 square miles of western Galilee which the United Nations had assigned to the Arabs.

According to the Jewish High Command, and to the best knowledge of correspondents here who have toured the front, the Arabs, not even in the Negeb, held a single settlement in the partition boundaries of Israel.

diately by a bullet, the account said.

The Trans-Jordan Army said it was still abiding by the cease-fire.

Earlier, random shooting continued in Jerusalem for six minutes after the truce deadline this morning, but then quiet descended on both the Jewish and Arab battle lines.

Church Damaged

A Jewish mortar barrage 70 minutes before the truce hour damaged a Christian church and an Arab hospital in the old city, killed a nursing orderly and wounded two Armenians at mass.

For half an hour after the shooting stopped there was scarcely a sound in scarred Jerusalem. Gradually, cautious frontline troops on both sides raised their heads and peered across no-man's-land.

There is no jubilation among the Arabs.

the Arab states are still unwilling to accept partition of the Holy Land. He declared that "certainly no results" can be expected from the peace discussions if the Jews persist in their demands for a Jewish state.

Tewfik said the Arabs agreed to the truce because Count Folke Bernadotte, United Nations mediator, "repeatedly said" he would not be bound by previous decisions concerning Palestine and had suggested the Rhodes discussions might lead to a solution which the Arabs could accept as "fair to both sides."

Request From Bevin

The Premier said the Arab countries had decided to accept the Bernadotte truce proposal after getting a personal request from British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin.

He denied there had been any British pressure. He termed Bevin's request a "sincere effort to help the United Nations in achieving peace in Palestine.

Until solution of the problem is reached, he said, civil administration of Palestine will go ahead on its present basis but under direction of a military governor and with "subsidization" by the occupying countries.

Need U.N. Approval

The Premier remarked that any decisions reached at Rhodes "'naturally" would have to be approved by the United Nations before becoming effective.

He said he did not think the Rhodes talks could get started for at least a week.

"We are hopeful," he said, . . . that the discussion with Count Bernadotte will reslt in a fair solution of the Palestine problem and guarantee a lasting peace."

"Sense Of Danger"

The Premier said the Arabs are still ready to accept Jews of Palestinian nationality into a unified state in which future immigration would be controlled by legislation.

The Arab fight against the proposed Jewish state, he said, is inspired by a "real sense of danger."

"The Jewish change in policy from one of industrial, economic and cultural co-operation in Palestine to one of territorial demands," he said, "indicated they might further change their political aims to seek the domination of all Arab countries. Therefore, our fight is in self-defense."

Reports from the Latrun front said the Jews had failed again in a last-minute assault on the bloody Bab El Wad Gorge straddling the Jewish supply line between Tel Aviv and Jerusalem.

Unofficial reports said the Jews lost at least 100 dead and a number of prisoners when Arab forces from Er Ramle assaulted their Bab El Wad attack base at Al Barriya. An Arab Legion officer said one legionnaire was killed and eleven wounded in the skirmish.

The Israeli air force got in its last licks by dropping three tons of expolsives on Damascus. It was the second raid on an Arab capitol, the first having been on Amman, Trans-Jordan, a little over a week ago.

Artillery and mortar fire continued in Jerusalem in the hours preceding the armistice. By last night, however, a truce prevailed in the Holy City. Silent guns remained at the ready as men on each side of the battered no-man's land peered cautiously across at enemy posts.

From Lydda, less than 10 miles from Tel Aviv, a small Arab garrison signalled that it was under automatic fire during the afternoon but still was holding its own fire.

Air raid sirens shrieked in Tel Aviv an hour and a half after the truce. The alert lasted half an hour. It was believed the alarm was sounded at the approach of a plane which later turned out to be a Red Cross-marked white aircraft of Bernadotte's truce commission.

At Lake Success, N. Y., a spokesman for the Israeli delegation issued a statement vigorously objecting to any move to bring the British into the truce supervision plans.

Bernadotte was reported ready to ignore Russia's offer to send observers unless security council gives him specific directions to invite Soviet representatives.

gration of visaless Jews to the Holy Land.

No Israel Recognition

C. P. Mayhew, assistant to Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin, told Parliament that Britain will not recognize Israel during the four-week truce.

"Recognition of Israel at this stage would be a positive act of political intervention—a positive act favoring one side," Mayhew, the Under Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, declared.

He spoke to a small, weary group of members of Parliament who, after an all-night sitting on a pending bill, stayed in the House to hear Laborite N. H. Lever attack Bevin's Palestine policy. Lever said the policy was "as immoral as it is stupid and reckless."

Mayhew contended that Britain's position had the backing of a world majority, including "most of America."

World Enmity Charged

Denying Lever's allegation that Britain's Palestine policy is creating world enmity to this country, "isolating Britain without a moral leg to stand on," Mahew declared:

"The truth is that the great numerical majority of the people of the world take the same view as ourselves in this issue—the people of China, India, the Arab countries, of western Europe, the great majority of the Commonwealth and most of America."

He said it would be "wholly inconsistent with the spirit of the truce" for Britain to recognize Israel now.

"It is capable of prejudicing the whole task and course of mediation," he said.

An Arab Point Of View

"Mr. Lever's view is that anything which encourages the Jews will help forward a peaceful settlement. Has he never heard there is an Arab point of view?

"The proper attitude during the truce," he continued, "is to observe status quo in this matter. The purpose of the truce is to obtain a standstill during which negotiations can take place.

"The purpose of the mediator is to insure that during the truce no military advantage will accrue to either side."

The half-hour debate on Palestine ensued when Lever goaded Mayhew into a reply after Mayhew had indicated that he did not want to discuss the Palestine situation.

Arabs Accuse Jews Of Breaking Truce

Jerusalem, June 11 (AP)—The Trans-Jordan Arab Legion accused the Jews today of violating the new Palestine truce. The legion said Jewish fire killed an Arab soldier an hour after the armistice began.

The legion said the Jews continued shooting in the Musrara quarter of Jerusalem and the legion trooper was wounded mortally at 3 A.M. (E.D.T.). The quarter is just north of the old walled city. It has been the legion frontline for assaults on neighboring Jewish-held areas.

Heard Burst Of Fire

The legion report, to be sent as soon as possible to Count Folke Bernadotte, United Nations mediator, said the soldier heard a burst of small-arms fire and looked over a sandbag parapet to investigate. He was struck in the head imme-

Spokesman Says Arabs May Not Talk To Jews

Amman, Trans-Jordan, June 11 (AP)—Trans-Jordan's Premier predicted today the Arabs may refuse to sit at the same conference table with the Jews at peace talks on the Island of Rhodes.

That, he said, has been the "traditional" policy of the Arabs.

Premier Tewfik Abu Alhuda said

Both Jews, Arabs Charge Violations of Truce

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Jews and Arabs accused each other last night of breaking Palestine's truce with continued fighting on all fronts. Their military leaders threatened to ignore the cease-fire and battle openly if there were more violations.

Israel's chief of operations said Arab forces breached the truce on the northern, central and southern fronts. Syrians protested especially a Jewish air attack on Damascus, their capital, after the stop-shooting deadline.

Mediator Orders Inquiry

Count Folke Bernadotte, the United Nations mediator, announced he had ordered U.N. observers to investigate complaints alleging four separate violations by Jews.

Military men in Tel Aviv, the capital of Israel, had hardly expected the cease-fire to be absolute because of the normal difficulties of disengagement in operations which continued to the last minute.

An Israeli communique said: "Reports received by noon indicate that firing has ceased on some sectors, but that the Arabs were continuing to attack Jewish positions on others after the cease-fire deadline."

The truce brought two major battles to a sputtering stop.

One was at Isdud, 23 miles south of Tel Aviv. Egyptian tanks there broke through the Israeli noose which had entrapped about 2,000 Egyptian troops for more than a week.

The Egyptians said 300 picked Israeli troops were killed in one phase of the battle which swirled around Nitsanim, focal point of the Jewish-sprung trap.

The Jews said they countered their set-back by taking the Arab villages of Julis and Yassur, farther south. From these villages Israeli units could keep the Egyptian supply road under fire.

The second big battle was at Latrun, key to the Jerusalem-Tel Aviv road. There Israeli units fought to the last minute to wrest the last possible inch of the vital highway from the reach of Arab guns.

Britain Is Asked To Guard Coast Of Palestine

London, June 11 (AP)—Count Folke Bernadotte has asked Britain informally to provide air, land and sea transportation to help supervise the Palestine truce, a Foreign Office spokesman announced today.

The spokesman said Bernadotte will be given an answer when he makes the request formally.

An authoritative source said if Britain complies it will mean, in effect, a British blockade of Palestine's coast. Britain patroled the Palestine coast the last two years of her mandate to prevent immi-

Finland Recognizes Israel

London, June 11 (AP)—The Russian news agency Tass reported from Helsinki tonight that Finland had recognized the new state of Israel. Ten other nations have done so.

MEDIATOR REFUSES AID FROM BRITAIN

Reported Ready To Turn Down Russ Observer Offer

M. HARRELSON

Lake Success, N.Y., June 11 (AP). Count Folke Bernadotte was reported ready tonight to refuse both Russian and British offers to help supervise the Palestine truce.

A United Nations spokesman said this was indicated when United Nations officials talked by telephone with the Palestine mediator's Cairo headquarters for a second time this afternoon.

In the first conversation, one of Bernadotte's aides denied the mediator had asked Britain for ships and planes to transport truce observers around the trouble zone. He said the British had offered such aid to Bernadotte, but that it had not been accepted.

From Other Quarters

Later Lake Success officials called back and were told that Bernadotte had found he could get the necessary transport equipment from other quarters—the United States and the Netherlands—and would need no British assistance.

The United Nations spokesman said Bernadotte meanwhile urgently needed six coastal patrol vessels which he had asked the United States, France and Belgium to provide. He said the mediator had formally asked the three countries for the ships, but had received no replies.

Bernadotte's position on British aid was disclosed after a spokesman for the Israeli delegation here issued a statement vigorously objecting to any move to bring the British into the truce supervision plans.

To Restrict Observers

The British and United Nations officials agreed on one thing: There was no question of Britain furnishing military observers or taking any active part in carrying out the truce.

The United Nations spokesman said Bernadotte was determined to restrict his staff of military observers to representatives of the United States, France and Belgium. These countries make up the Security Council's consular truce commission in Palestine.

He was reported ready to ignore Russia's offer to send observers unless the Council gives him specific directions to invite Soviet representatives.

Debate on Russia's offer will be resumed in the Council Tuesday.

Bernadotte's office reported the first seven American military observers arrived there today. The full contingent of 21 United States, 21 French and 21 Belgian observers was expected to be completed over the week end.

madge, who said he was foreign affairs editor of Scholastic Magazines, New York City.

Talmadge told newsmen he was "quite angered" at the state department action and termed the seizure of his passport "an infringement of the free flow of information principle of the United Nations that we are pledged to uphold."

He said he had planned to spend 10 weeks in Palestine to report on conditions there.

The 10 persons were part of a group of 31 Americans of military age, apparently bound for Palestine, where a truce has halted temporarily the Holy Land fighting. The remaining 21 were permitted to sail after "screening" of their passports by state department agents.

Bidault will be able more easily to pilot the six-power London agreement on Germany through France's Parliament if he is able to announce that allocations of war reparations are being resumed.

2. Needless Russian resentment would be avoided if means were created of alloting reparations due Russia under the Potsdam Pact.

The informant explained that Bidault, under fire for conceding "too much" at the six-power conference, could appease some of his critics by announcing reparations deliveries would be resumed to western as well as eastern countries.

Months Of Talks

The breakdown of the Allied Control Council had snarled the only procedure by which allocations could be made.

The informant said the agreement finally came after months of talks by United States Ambassador Lewis W. Douglas, French Ambassador René Massigli and Britain's Foreign Office German expert, Sir William Strang.

Douglas, talking for the State Department, at first strongly opposed resuming reparations allocations to east Europe, the British official said.

with opposition to the American loan in 1945 and so we go on building up; it is all part of our empire conception."

Of his papers' present position in international affairs, he said: "We are on exactly the same lines as we were in 1938. We do not want war, we do not think war is inevitable, we think war can be avoided if the nations will sit down together in reason.

Cites Apprehensive

"And, at the same time we are apprehensive and saying 'build up your arms' because we are apprehensive."

Commenting on the investigation, the publisher said:

"The press seems to me to emerge with extraordinary credit. If that is so I would leave the press as it is, since they are doing a good job. I would let them continue to do so."

Beaverbrook declared that political intelligence among readers has risen and that political judgments in Britain are "keener and sounder" than formerly.

Ex-N.Y. Official Killed Leading Israeli's Forces

JUN 1948

Both Arabs, Jews Charge Violations of Truce Agreement.

NEW YORK, June 11—(AP)—David Marcus, former New York City commissioner of correction and supreme commander of Israeli forces on the Jerusalem front, was killed in action in Palestine last night, an Israeli spokesman announced late today.

News of his death was received at the office of the Republic of Israel here in a cablegram from David Ben Gurion, prime minister of the new state.

The message said he died at his post "in the hills of Jerusalem." The spokesman said he was "trying to open the road to get food through to the people of Jerusalem."

Was Colonel in U. S. Army

Marcus, whose home was in Brooklyn, served as a colonel in the U. S. Army in the recent war. He was city correction commissioner under Mayor F. H. LaGuardia from 1933 to 1940.

Ben Gurion's message asked that Mrs. Emma Marcus be advised of her husband's death. The Israeli office here held up the announcement several hours so she could at the Jerusalem front and became immediately the moving spirit of that campaign, the most difficult and far-reachingly important of all those we have had to fight so far.

"His name will live forever in the annals of the Jewish people and we feel confident that American Jewry will be proud of its great and gallant son who has given his life for the liberation of Israel."

10 Americans Barred As Marine Carp Sails

NEW YORK, June 11 (AP)—The steamer Marine Carp sailed tonight for Mediterranean ports after the State Department had taken passports from 10 of her scheduled passengers, all Americans.

All those who lost their passports, and thus were forced to remain here, had booked passage to Haifa, Israel. One of the 10 was a woman, Miss Rose Nemetz of Brooklyn.

The men were identified as Joseph Marcus, Jacob Ganfor, Yale Golden, Elmer Hoffman, Daniel Nelson, Irving Pregozen, Irving De Witt Talmadge, Sidney Weibaus and Samuel Diamond.

Further identification of the 10 was not available except for Tal-

Union Plans To Lend Israel $1,000,000

New York, June 11 (AP)—A $1,000,000 loan to the new state of Israel has been authorized by the general executive board of the AFL International Ladies Garment Workers Union.

The board's action was taken yesterday on recommendation of David Dubinsky, the union's president.

Dubinsky said his union, in addition to the loan, already has turned over $220,000 in donations this year to Haganah, the Israeli militia.

Reparations Accord Seen

London, June 11 (AP)—An official British source said today the United States has accepted an Anglo-French plan to resume allocating war reparations from west Germany to Russia and Poland.

The Anglo - American - French agreement will sidestep the inactive Allied Control Council in Berlin, and create a new method of alloting plants declared surplus to the peacetime needs of west Germany. There are nearly 500 of these plants in the British and American zones, and others in the French.

His Papers Are Propaganda Organs: Beaverbrook

JUN 1948

London, June 11 (AP)—Lord Beaverbrook, British press magnate, told a royal investigating commission that he runs his newspapers purely as propaganda organs for his empire views, it was disclosed today.

The publisher's testimony, given on March 18, was published by His Majesty's Stationery Office.

Beaverbrook, who owns the Daily Express and Evening Standard, told the commission he ran the Express "purely for the purpose of making propaganda and with no other object."

"My Own Issues"

"Propaganda," he said, was on "particular issues, my own issues, issues I have advocated all these years."

He listed these as empire free trade, empire customs union, "Empire unity for the purpose of securing peace, and if necessary for making war."

The publisher said his papers opposed British participation in the Marshall plan, adding "it began

FRANCE WANTS PACT WITH U.S., BIDAULT SAYS (N)

Seeks Military Alliance, He Says In Support Of Germany Plan

L. NEVIN

Paris, June 11 (AP)—France wants a military alliance with the United States, Georges Bidault, Foreign Minister, told Parliament today.

He made the statement in a plea for approval of the six-power London agreement on establishing a western German government and an international control board for the industrial Ruhr.

The agreement is expected to received the final approval of Parliament by a narrow margin after determined opposition by both Rightists and Leftists. The Cabinet authorized Premier Robert Schuman to stake the life of his Government on a vote of confidence on the issue, if necessary.

Three Days Of Debate

Bidault said France wanted to sign a treaty with the United States similar to the military, economic and colonial alliance signed at Brussels by Great Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

"I do not know whether that is possible or under what condition," said the Foreign Minister. He made no further reference to it in his speech opening the three-day debate on Germany.

French Government sources have frequently said in the past that France wanted an American military alliance to buttress the five-power Brussels alliance and save her from the displeasure of Russia if she goes along on America's German policy.

But Bidault's was the first public statement to that effect from a Government leader.

Vote Set Tuesday

Nearly 30 speakers were listed for the debate, which was scheduled to end in a vote next Tuesday afternoon.

Bidault's speech for the most part met a stony silence from the National Assembly members.

He frankly admitted the Government had only accepted the London agreement on Germany because it was the best it could get. He said he had "no enthusiasm" for the accord but that it could "be perfected."

He added it could only be improved "if it exists" and he pleaded for the Assembly to give its approval so as "not to isolate the fatherland."

Voice On Ruhr Control

Ths principal asset of the agreement, he said, was that it gave France a voice "in the control of the former arsenal of the Reich," the Ruhr.

"We will make sure that Germany does not again become the economic arbitrator of the countries economically dependent on her," he continued, and that the Ruhr's coal will "serve the international community."

France has never been able to win separation of the Ruhr from Germany because of the opposition in London, he said, and this agreement "is better than nothing."

Just before the start of the session it was learned Premier Robert Schuman was authorized by his Cabinet to stake the life of his Government on parliamentary approval of the accord by demanding, if he finds it necessary, a vote of confidence.

The agreement on Germany won the indorsement of the Assembly's Foreign Affairs Committee, 22 to 21, Wednesday after getting a Cabinet okay. The committee made certain reservations.

The accord was worked out in a London conference of the United States, Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

The conference proposed a federal government for western Germany, international control for Ruhr coal and iron, and military safeguards against Germany.

French Communist newspapers accused Foreign Minister Georges Bidault of ditching French national interests.

Opposed By De Gaulle

Gen. Charles de Gaulle, head of the Rightist rally of the French people, said the agreement would create two rival Germanys and pave the way for Soviet domination.

He has pronounced himself ready to take over the Government should the executive be given more power.

Debate West Reich Rule

Paris, June 11 (AP)—Foreign Minister Georges Bidault told the French Parliament today he has no enthusiasm for the six-power agreement on Western Germany, but that it was the best accord France could get.

"Nothing is final," the Foreign Minister said at the start of a crucial three-day debate on foreign policy. "The agreement is not definite until it has been approved by Parliament."

The West Germany accord is under fire from both the extreme Right and the extreme Left in France. Observers forecast eventual approval, even if by a narrow margin.

Russ Deny 'Freed' Colonel Is Dead

Paris, June 11 (AP)—The newspaper France-Soir reported today that Russian Col. J. D. Tassoyev (Tasso Jew) died in Soviet hands 24 hours after his "release" by British authorities.

In Berlin, Russians at the official Soviet News Bureau said:

"That report is laughable—extremely laughable. Let France-Soir have such scoops."

The paper's Berlin correspondent said the British were compelled to turn Tassoyev over to the Russians because the Soviets were holding a former British staff member at the Allied Control Council, Igor Klein. The Soviets, he reported, initiated an exchange of Tassoyev for Klein, accompanied by threats of personal injury to the British officer if the British refused to turn over the colonel.

Asked For Asylum

Tassoyev, a Russian reparations officer, disappeared from the American port of Bremen last April. The British Foreign Office announced that he had asked the British for asylum.

Later, a day after Klein was returned to British officials in Germany, London announced that Tassoyev wes being returned to the Russian zone of Germany at his own request.

Moscow a few days later quoted him as saying he was kidnapped and was beaten while being held in London—charges which Foreign Secretary Bevin denied this week.

Currency Reform For Germany (N)

W. GALLAGHER

Berlin, June 11 (AP)—Currency reform sponsored by the United States, Britain and France appears imminent for western Germany.

It is believed to be designed to take from 70 to 90 per cent of the present inflated money out of circulation.

Although officials refuse to comment, unofficial sources gave this general picture of a plan to put the western Reich on a self-sufficient financial footing:

1. The new western German mark will not have any immediate value on international markets. The new mark will be blocked. It is hoped that eventually it will have an international value of 30 cents. Internally, the mark will be so devalued to be worth about 30 cents in services and goods by world standards. (The prewar mark was worth 40 cents.)

2. The lowest unofficial estimates say the new currency reform will take 70 per cent of the currency out of circulation. Highest estimates are 90 per cent. All savings over 3,000 marks ($1,000) probably will be wiped out or reduced to small fractions.

3. The new currency will be backed by western Germany's ability to produce. The currency issue will be limited to productive capacity.

Allies To Supervise Plan

The new plan will be put into effect by the occupation powers, for the Allies do not want German officials blamed for any resultant hardships. The new currency will be issued through the trizone state banks, a group headed by the residents of the state banks in each occupation zone.

To preserve the value of the currency, the military government will insist on strict control of credits and balanced government budgets. All large bank accounts and personal holdings are expected to be frozen. Those holding 3,000 marks or more will be asked to explain where they got their money. Sums made by black-marketeering or war profiteering will be wiped out completely. Legitimate money probably will be exchanged at a rate between 7 and 10 old marks for one new one.

Soviet Withdrawal Hinted

Meanwhile, the Soviet official press hinted today that the Russians are considering withdrawing from the four-power rule of Berlin and attempting to substitute their own control over the city.

Four-power rule over Berlin is exercised by the Allied Kommandatura but some of its committee functions have been abandoned or suspended because of Russian withdrawal.

An editorial in Taegliche Rundschau said Kommandatura efforts to solve the city's problems were seriously impeded by inter-Allied arguments. The Russians blamed the arguments on the three Western powers.

Therefore, the newspaper said, Russian authorities are weighing two courses: Whether to try to continue running Berlin on a four-power basis or to resort to "direct negotiations between German authorities and the Soviet Administration in Germany."

Moving Forbidden

The German Government of Brandenburg, in the Russian occupation zone, today forbade its residents to move into the American and British sectors. The order was the first of its kind imposed in the divided former Reich.

It was seen as the latest of a series of recent measures undertaken in the Russian sector to restrict intercourse with western Germany. No explanation was given for the ban and no mention was made as to how long it would last.

The Soviet News Agency said tonight the United States Military Government had put American soldiers on nine locomotives at Anhalter Bahnhof in Berlin and that railroad officials were being hindered in carrying out their duties. The agency said railroad authorities were demanding that the soldiers be withdrawn immediately.

Guard Increased Recently

The locomotives referred to are switch engines placed at the disposal of American authorities by the railroad, which is controlled by the Russians. United States officials said the engines always have been under American guard and that recently the guard was increased. They declined to say why it was necessary to increase the guard.

The Russian agency said two railroad officials were hindered in carrying out their duties at the station by the United States soldiers.

The agency also reported that British troops had stopped a Russian train traveling from Moscow to Paris at the zonal border in Germany.

Ask For List Of Goods

It said British military authorities ordered guards on the train to remove their uniforms and weapons during the trip through the British zone. The British also asked for a list of all goods on the train, the agency said. This is common procedure required by the Russians for British trains passing through the Russian zone.

British officials could not be reached immediately for comment on the incident.

The Soviet agency said the train was carrying Russian material for an exhibition in Paris of the International Democratic Women's Federation.

70% Devaluation Of Reich Money Believed Near (D)

W. GALLAGHER

Berlin, June 11 (AP)—A currency reform, aimed at taking from 70 to 90 per cent of the present inflated money out of circulation, appears imminent in western Germany.

Officials refuse comment, but unofficial sources give this overall picture of Franco-Anglo-American plans to put western Germany on a self-sufficient financial basis:

1. The new western German mark will not have any immediate value on international markets. The new mark will be blocked. It is hoped eventually to give it an international value of 30 cents. Internally, the mark will be devalued to be worth approximately 30 cents in services and goods by world standards. [The prewar mark was 40 cents.]

2. The new money reform will

be the most drastic taken in western Europe—much worse so than Germany's 1923 devaluation. The lowest unofficial estimates state that it will take 70 per cent of the currency out of circulation. Highest estimates are 90 per cent. All savings of more than 3,000 marks ($1,000) probably will be wiped out or reduced to small fractions.

3. The new currency will be backed by western Germany's ability to produce. The currency issue will be limited to productive capacity.

Stamp Buying Curbed

Post Office officials have issued regulations against wholesale buying of stamps to prevent speculation. Railroad officials have placed a similar stop on wholesale buying of season rail tickets.

The plan will be put into effect by the occupation powers. The Allies do not want German officials blamed for hardships which will be worked in many cases. However, German finance officials have been consulted for the last two years on their ideas.

The new currency will be issued through the trizone state banks. This group is headed by the presidents of the state banks in each occupation zone.

Profiteers Face Loss

To preserve the value of the currency, the Military Government will insist on strict control of credits and balanced government budgets.

All large bank accounts and personal holdings are expected to be frozen. Holders of 3,000 marks or more will be called on to explain where they got their money.

Those sums made by black-marketeering or war profits will be wiped out completely. Money made legitimately or legitimate savings probably will be exchanged at a rate between seven and ten old marks for one new one.

The Western Allies recently set an import-export rate for goods or services produced in Germany at 30 cents. This meant that if a toy produced in Germany sold in world markets at 90 cents, the German producer received three marks from import-export authorities.

Dollars For Foods

Similarly, if German railroads carried freight from France to Czechoslovakia and the import-export authorities received $30 for this transit service, they gave the German railroads 100 marks.

The dollars earned were put in special accounts to buy raw materials and food for the German economy. The receivers of these raw materials and food in Germany had to pay 3⅓ marks for each dollar spent from these special accounts.

Authoritative sources say this system will continue when the mark is devalued.

World Bank Takes Over

After a period of months or, perhaps, years spent in ascertaining how the mark's productive and buying value holds up in the light of world conditions, it will be up to the World Bank and other agencies to set an international value.

Military Government officials express hope that stabilization will make it possible to raise the living standard in food conditions from the present 1,550 calories daily to 1,800. The aim will be to balance German economy at this point so it can be self-supporting.

"Any rise above this level will be up to the German people themselves," one official said. "They must take over at this point and work and produce more if they want their living standard raised."

Court Backs Krupp Ruling

Nuernberg, Germany, June 11 (AP)—A United States War Crimes Court ruled today that an industrialist must have advance knowledge of invasion plans to be convicted of plotting aggressive war.

The ruling was handed down in explanation of the surprise acquittal last April 5 of twelve Krupp Gun Company officials.

"Rearmament of itself is not criminal," the court which heard the Krupp case said. It cited a ruling to that effect by the International Military Tribunal which tried top Nazi leaders in 1945-6.

"The International Military Tribunal required proof that each defendant had actual knowledge of the plans for at least one of the invasions or wars of aggression in order to find him guilty," the opinion recalled.

Blow To Prosecution

Such advance knowledge of Hitler's war plans was not proved against the Krupp officials, the court declared.

The Krupp case was the first attempt to convict an industrialist of war plotting. The acquittal was regarded as a severe blow to the United States war-crimes prosecution.

A similar charge still is pending against 23 directors of the I. G. Farben Chemical Trust. The Farben trial ended today. A verdict is expected next month.

Although cleared of two counts —initiating aggressive war and conspiracy to start aggressive war —the Krupp defendants still remain on trial on charges of plundering conquered countries and of brutalities to slave workers.

Point To Speer And Schacht

The prosecutors said they did not know yet whether they will make further arguments on the aggressive-war charges in answer to the court's ruling. When the acquittal was first announced the prosecution asked permission to make further arguments if it desired after the court handed down its detailed opinion.

The opinion in the Krupp case pointed out that the International Military Tribunal acquitted both Alfred Speer and Hjalmar Schacht on the aggressive-war counts because this was not proved against them. Yet Speer was Hitler's minister for armament and war production and Hitler appointed Schacht president of the National Bank.

Cannot Find Guilt

"If Speer's activities were found not to constitute waging aggressive war we most certainly cannot find these defendants guilty of it," the Krupp court concluded.

The aggressive wars which the Krupps were accused of planning were those against Austria, Czechoslovakia, Poland, Denmark, Norway, Belgium, the Netherlands, Luxembourg, Yugoslavia, Greece, Russia and the United States.

Trial Of Farben Industrialists Ends

Nuernberg, June 11 (AP)—The long trial of 23 directors of the Great I. G. Farben Industrie Chemical Trust as war criminals ended today.

Fourteen spoke in final pleas for acquittal. They said they were scientists working for humanity. They denied they plotted aggressive war as charged, abetted slave labor and plundered nations the Germans overran. They quoted Lincoln, Jefferson, Shakespeare and Erasmus in their summations. The other nine sat silent.

The United States War Crimes Court's verdict is expected next month. Its judgment for the first time could convict an industrialist of making war.

Reds May Seek Single Rule Of Berlin

Berlin, June 11 (AP)—The Soviet official press hinted today that the Russians are considering withdrawing from four-power rule of Berlin and attempting to substitute their own control over the city.

Four-power rule over Berlin is exercised by the Allied Kommandatura, but some of its committee functions have been abandoned or suspended because of Russian withdrawal.

A long editorial in Taegliche Rundschau asserted that Kommandatura efforts to solve Berlin's problems had been seriously impeded by inter-Allied arguments. The Russians blamed these on the three Western powers.

Study Two Courses

Consequently, the newspaper said, Russian authorities are weighing two courses: Whether to try to continue running Berlin on a four-power basis or to resort to "direct negotiations between German authorities and the Soviet Administration in Germany."

If the latter course is adopted, the Rundschau said, it would be recognized that the "influence of the Soviet administration for Germany in Berlin is indisputable, owing to the fact that Berlin lies in the Soviet occupation zone of Germany."

The Soviet newspaper said the Western powers had sabotaged the Kommandatura and converted it "more and more into an instrument for irresponsible and lying propaganda directed against the Soviet occupation zone." It said the city's German Government is increasingly bypassing the Kommandatura and appealing for help directly to the four military commandants, "especially to the Soviet commandant."

Reds Are Blamed

Col. Frank L. Howley, the American commandant, said:

"The Russians know very well that it is they who have blocked things in the Kommandatura. I regard these statements as a public admission by the Soviets that they have got themselves in an awkward position and by their attitude have inflicted unnecessary hardships on the people of Berlin. They are now trying to build up some sort of alibi.

"If the German city government is writing many letters to the Russian commandant they are to protect the many unilateral actions by which the Russians have been upsetting four-power government here. Just to mention one, there has been a protest over the Russian stoppage of German parcel post shipments to the Western zones, in violation of four-power agreements."

Reds Protest 'Arrests' That Don't Occur

Berlin, June 11 (AP)—American Military Government officials here were chuckling today over what they called "a Communist propaganda trick that misfired."

They said Russian-zone Communists had sent into the United States sector of Berlin groups of youths to "try to get themselves jailed for doing illegal promotion of the so-called People's Plebiscite for German unity."

"The Communists apparently figured we would grab these kids and throw them into dungeons," an American official said. "Then they could raise a howl about martyrdom and suppression of democracy. With this in mind, they arranged in advance to send us a flood of protest telegrams from everywhere.

"But when we just had the youngsters picked up and then freed them immediately with a warning or probation, the plan misfired. Caught flatfooted, the Communists apparently couldn't stop the telegrams. They are still coming in to protest the imprisonment of persons who were never imprisoned."

U.S. Denies It Feeds Germans Horse Meat

Berlin, June 11 (AP)—American officials believe they have solved the riddle behind reports in the Communist press that the United States is feeding Germans horse meat.

A shipment of 990 tons of high-quality Mexican canned beef bought by the United States Government for Germany arrived here today. Each can bears the picture of a horse and rider. American officials said this may be the origin of the horse-meat rumors, which they declared false.

The Mexican beef will be distributed on the regular ration.

Germans Issue Travel Ban

BERLIN, June 11 (AP)—The German Government of Brandenburg in the Soviet zone forbade its residents today to move into the United States and British sectors.

The order was the first of its kind imposed. It was seen as the latest of a series of recent measures undertaken in the Soviet zone to restrict intercourse with Western Germany.

The order closed the state of Brandenburg's three zonal crossing points. Families who already had received Government permits for a change of residence were told they were void.

The order was published by the Government-controlled German News Agency. No explanation was given for the ban and no hint as to how long it would last.

Greek War Stepped Up

Athens, June 11 (AP)—The Greek army general staff reported today a sharp increase in fighting.

The communiqué said 16 guerrillas were killed and 14 captured in "important clashes" south of the Yugoslav border on Vitsi and Kaimakchalan mountains. Clashes also were reported in Western Thessaly and three parts of Western Macedonia.

Press reports said guerrillas using bazookas, mortars and heavy machineguns wiped out a national guard unit on the southeast slope of Mount Olympus. Six guardsmen were reported killed and 33 others captured.

The communiqué said guerrillas tried to loot a police convoy west of Patras in the northern Peloponnesus and lost 22 killed and two captives.

The Greek army was said to have captured part of the Souli plateau, southwest of Ioannina.

ROMANIA TAKES SOCIALIST STEP

Nationalizes Major Industries; Foreign Concerns Affected

Bucharest, Romania, June 11 (AP). Romania's Grand National Assembly unanimously approved today legislation to nationalize virtually all the country's industries, mines, banks, insurance companies and transport.

The bill, requested by the Cabinet a few hours earlier, was the third and most important step in changing Romania's social structure into that of a Socialist (Communist) state. (Both the Cabinet and the Assembly are dominated by Communists). The first step was the installation of the present regime in March, 1945, and the second was the land "reform" measure of mid-1946.

Soviet Union Favored

The 31-article law approved today covers all middle-sized and large enterprises.

Foreign capital investment is hit by the law, but there are exceptions which seem to benefit the Soviet Union. The law foresees the nationalization of these enterprises: all metallurgical works employing more than 100 workers including iron, gold, silver and nonferrous metal mining, processing and manufacturing.

All power plants, power carrier lines and distributing companies. All coal, oil and natural gas extraction and processing.

It also covers the manufacture of refractory bricks, glass, glass bottles, crystal glass and mirrors; all construction and building firms in the housing, road and railroad construction business, and all furniture and timber processing plants using machinery having more than 50 horsepower.

Covers Toys And Textiles

The law touches the toy industry as well as the cellulose, paper and cardboard industries from at least 30 horsepower upward. It covers the whole range of textile processing and the distribution of flax, hemp, cotton, wool, rayon and pure silk from plants using at least twenty looms.

Tanneries with more than twenty horsepower and leather processing plants of more than 30 horsepower as well as the whole fur and glove manufacturing and retail trade will be nationalized.

Foreign Concerns Affected

Some of the Western investments hit by the nationalization law are:

America—Romano-Americana, a Standard Oil of New Jersey subsidiary; Socony-Vacuum; Standard Telephone Manufacturing, an International Telephone and Telegraph of New York subsidiary.

British—Astra-Romana, a Royal Dutch Shell subsidiary; Unirea, a Phoenix Transport subsidiary; Steaua Romana, an Anglo-Iranian subsidiary; Phoenix Chemical Works, a Lever Brothers subsidiary; Romanofir, a J. E. Coars subsidiary.

French—Colombia Oil Company.

Belgian—Romanian-Belgian Oil Company.

Hungarian—Solvay Chemical Industry.

Italian—Prahova Oil Company.

Romania Adopts Nationalization (2)

Bucharest, June 11 (A. P.).—The Grand National Assembly voted unanimously today to nationalize all industries, mines, banks, insurance companies and transport in Romania.

The bill, asked by the Cabinet a few hours earlier, was the third important step in changing Romania into a Socialist (Communist) State. The first act was to install the present regime three years ago. The next was the land "reform" measure of mid-1946.

Red Army Strength In North Korea Is Cut

Moscow, June 11 (AP)—A Tass dispatch from Korea said today that Russia is reducing her troop strength in northern Korea.

The Soviet news agency said "according to an order of the Soviet military command there has been proceeding a reduction in Soviet Army troops located in north Korea."

The dispatch said Lieut. Gen. C. P. Korotkov and his staff had returned to Russia, leaving the remaining Soviet armies under the command of Major General Merkulov.

FANATIC WOUNDS MOROCCO LEADER

OUJDA, French Morocco, June 11 —(AP) Mohamed Hajoui, pacha of Oujda, was stabbed here today by a fanatic Moslem after the funerals of the Jewish victims of the June 7 riots.

(The title of pacha is given to a high functionary or ruling oficial.)

Five Jews were killed and 30 other persons were injured in the riots. When the Jewish victims were buried today many persons attended, including French and Moslem authorities.

Mohamed Hajoui was among the crowd attending prayers at the great mosque of Oujda. When the Moslem priest called for the usual prayer a fanatic dashed at the pacha and stabbed him twice.

Mohamed Hajoui fell to the ground bleeding while a furious crowd stoned his assailant.

The victim's guards immediately seized a young Moslem named Meraili, brother of a man involved in the killing of A. M. Amors, a French civil servant who died in the June 7 riots.

Doctors attending Mohamed Hajoui said his condition was serious.

Theater Blast Kills Two

Saigon, Indo-China, June 11 (AP). A bomb exploded in the Majestic Film Theater here last night, killing two persons and wounding many others.

Opium Prices Fixed At $550-$750 A Pound

Saigon, Indo-China, June 11 (AP). The Indo-China Government fixed the price of opium today at between 14,000 and 20,000 piastres per kilogram. That roughly is between $550 and $750 a pound.

High Commissioner Emile Bollaert signed the decree. The Government sells opium under regulations. The revenues pay part of local government expenses.

U.N. Economic Unit To Stay In Shanghai

Qotacamund, India, June 11 (AP). The United Nations Economic Commission for Asia and the Far East decided today to keep Shanghai as temporary headquarters for its secretariat and to meet next in Australia in November.

ECAFE accepted an invitation from Australia for the next session.

India, the Philippines and Malaya each offered temporary headquarters. But China's chief delegate proposed that the headquarters stay in Shanghai and won his point.

Peace In Two Years Doubted By Wong

Nanking, June 11 (AP)—Premier Wong Wen-yao told the legislative Yuan today China could not expect peace in two years.

In his first report to the republic's legislative body, the new premier said top priority would be given efforts to defeat the Chinese Communists. The Reds' strength is gaining steadily.

"We must send larger fighting forces to Manchuria and to Central and North China, Wong said.

U. S. Admission Denied To Chilean Red Senator

MEXICO CITY, June 11 (AP).—Salvador Ocampo, a Chilean Communist Senator, has been denied admission to the United States, the American Embassy here said today.

Mr. Ocampo, who is secretary of the Latin-American Confederation of Labor (C. T. A. L.), planned to attend the International Labor Organization meeting at San Francisco as an observer. The Embassy said it told him if he were an official C. T. A. L. delegate to the I. L. O. meeting, or an official Chilean on business, he could enter the United States, otherwise not.

Mr. Ocampo has an American visa issued in Santiago, Chile, but it is good only for a trip on official Chilean government business, the Embassy said.

Vicente Lombardo Toledano, Mexican president of the C. T. A. L., went to San Francisco several days ago as official C. T. A. L. delegate to the I. L. O. conference. Mr. Ocampo had planned to accompany him.

Vandenberg's Proposal Aimed to Bolster U.N. Passed by Senate, 64-4

NO ACTION NEEDED ON RESOLUTION BY HOUSE, PRESIDENT

Holds Out Prospect, if Congress Approves, of Arms Help to Non-Red Nations.

CALLED 'PEACE AID'

Vandenberg Opposes Move to Drastically Revise UN Charter.

WASHINGTON, June 11 — (AP) The senate passed tonight the Vandenberg resolution holding out the prospect—if congress later approves—of American military aid to non-communist nations. The vote was 64 to 4.

The resolution, which requires no action by the House or President Truman, calls on the United Nations to drop the security council veto on peaceful settlement of disputes and on admission of new members.

Sponsored by Vandenberg

It was sponsored by Chairman Vandenberg (R-Mich) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. Approval came after more than seven and a half hours' debate.

The Michigan senator told his colleagues that passage of the resolution in the wake of draft law approval shows the senate is not "preoccupied with bombs and bayonets."

By its vote on the resolution, Vandenberg said the senate spelled out "America's role in collective peace."

The resolution states that this country's policy would be to join with regional groups of other nations for common defense, under the UN charter, if its security is threatened. Several senators objected that this means a "military alliance" with western Europe.

But Vandenberg said Congress

must approve in advance any action of this kind. He said the resolution does not call for revival of the "old open-end military lend-lease" but proposes aid to other countries as "a supplement, not a substitute, for self-defense."

UN Charter Revision Urged

Vandenberg offered his resolution after a group of other senators had called for drastically revising the UN charter—"with or without Russia," as a number of them said.

Both Vandenberg and Secretary of State Marshall advised against action along that line, saying Russian withdrawal from the UN would widen the breach between east and west and make negotiations even more difficult than at present.

The House has before it a bill along the lines of the Vandenberg resolution. No date has been set for a vote on it.

The Resolution was written by Vandenberg himself and approved unanimously by the Foreign Relations Committee, which he heads.

It would pave the way for U. S. participation, under the United Nations, in regional defense pacts such as the five-nation Brussels agreement. It also favors setting up the international peace-keeping force authorized by the UN charter.

Other Provisions

In addition, the resolution proposes:

1—An end to the big power veto in the security council on matters involving the peaceful settlement of international disputes or the admission of new members.

2—World-wide regulation and reduction of armaments "under adequate and dependable guaranty against aggression."

Senator Malone (R-Neb) opposed Vandenberg's resolution, calling it a "backdoor approach, or a cellar-door entry into an entangling alliance."

Vandenberg said:

"It declines automatic military alliances. It declines all peacetime renewals of the old open-ended lend-lease formula. . . It is a plan for our practical American cooperation, under specified circumstances, within the framework of the United Nations."

He added that the resolution asserts American interest, "if and when we conclude that our national interests are involved" in regional pacts which are "specifically invited" by the UN charter.

Amendment Offered

Senator Fulbright (D-Ark) introduced an amendment which would, in effect, give senate approval to a federation of Europe.

Vandenberg, while expressing "deep sympathy with the ultimate objective," asked Fulbright not to press his proposal, saying it would "fundamentally alter the nature of the resolution.

Less than a dozen senators were on the floor during the discussion.

There was no immediate indication when the senate would act on the resolution although Republican leaders said they hoped for a vote soon. Many of them, as well as a number of Democrats, have said they favor the resolution.

Thirty-two Republicans and an equal number of Democrats supported the resolution on final passage. Two Republicans—Langer of North Dakota and Watkins of Utah—opposed it, as did two Democrats—Pepper and Taylor of Idaho.

A few minutes earlier the senate defeated, 61 to 6, an amendment by Senator Pepper (D-Fla) to strike out those parts of the Vandenberg resolution referring to regional defense pacts and U. S. "association" with them.

"There must come an end sometime to the decentralization and wrecking of the United Nations," Pepper cried. "It is very clear from the history of the resolution that this is the consummation of a carefully devised plan to prepare congress and the people for a military alliance with Western Europe."

Senator George (D-Ga), a member of the Foreign Relations Committee, said he had "no doubt but what in some great crisis we would give moral and military support to western Europe."

But, like Vandenberg, George said that before taking any such step congress would have to re-examine the whole question to see what aid should be given.

Senate Is Urged To State Policy On Peace Acts

Washington, June 11 (AP)—Senator Vandenberg (R., Mich.) urged the Senate today to help "organize the peace" so this country won't have to use force to help keep the world on an even keel.

Vandenberg asked quick approval of a resolution paving the way for American political and military support to European nations joining hands against possible Communist aggression.

He is chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee which drafted the resolution calling for strengthening of United Nations procedures. He said its adoption would show that the Senate has not lost sight of the peace problem in voting to draft young men for military service.

"It is necessary to make it plain that we are not preoccupied with bombs and bayonets," Vandenberg said.

"New Hope" For Peace

He called the resolution "a sound answer to several critical necessities of foreign policy." He added that it "offers new hope for security and peace for us and for others under the United Nations."

Proclaiming that "another world war will not be our fault," Vandenberg said the resolution spells out in plain and simple manner "America's role in collective peace."

He emphatically denied that it pledges automatic military assistance, revival of the "old open-end military lend-lease," or any aid except under specific conditions of self-interest for the United States.

Must Meet Obligations

Vandenberg said the resolution "never steps outside" of the United Nations Charter, the Constitution of the United States, nor the authority of Congress.

"If I may say so, I think this (resolution) is pregnant with possibility for the peace of the world," he continued.

Vandenberg said this country must meet its obligations for world peace even if they are not put down on paper or even if Congress should reject his resolution.

But he said its passage would make it "less likely that an agressor will take the chance and pay the penalty for violation."

The United States is not seeking to remove the United Nations veto power from any situation that involves the use of armed force, he said.

No War Requirement

At the same time, he added that this country cannot enter any agreements that "would require us to go to war at the behest of others."

Up for Senate action was his far-reaching foreign policy resolution which, if adopted, would serve advance notice on the world that the treaty-making chamber favors these steps within the United Nations to safeguard world peace:

1. United States participation in regional defense pacts like the five-nation Brussels agreement.

2. Establishment of a United Nations armed force, as provided by the Charter, to back up peace orders.

3. Universal regulation and reduction of armaments "under adequate and dependable guaranty against violation." This presumably would cover the American plan for international control of atomic weapons.

4. Elimination of the Security Council veto from all questions dealing with peaceful settlements of international disputes and also from admission of new members.

Approved By Committee

The resolution, unanimously approved by the Foreign Relations Committee, would have no binding effect. But, the committee report pointed out:

"The time is opportune for the United States to contribute to the maintenance of peace by making clear now its determination to defend itself against any armed attack affecting its national security, by exercise of the right of individual and collective self-defense recognized in the Charter.

"Certainly in advance concerning this intention on the part of the United States should constitute a vital factor in deterring aggression."

Vandenberg Statement on Strengthening U. N.

WASHINGTON, June 11 (AP).—The complete text of Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg's opening statement in the Senate today on his resolution calling for strengthening of United Nations procedures follows:

Mr. President, I realize that members of the Senate are very largely engaged this morning in important committee work, speeding toward the conclusion of the session, but I think I should make a statement regarding the pending business, at least for the record, because of its importance.

Mr. President, I want to make a very brief preliminary statement which will certainly not take me more than ten minutes and then I want to go through the resolution, and when I reach a discussion of the resolution itself, I shall be glad to be interrupted at any point.

This resolution is a sound answer to several critical necessities in respect of foreign policy which America confronts. It is the unanimous answer of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. It is an answer which, after many weeks of earnest consultation, has the wholehearted approval of the State Department. It is an answer which offers new hope for security and peace for us and others, through the United Nations.

Necessities Cited

What are the necessities which this resolution is undertaking to answer? The first necessity is this: Recognizing the indispensability of the United Nations as the key to collective security, many Senators have earnestly joined in numerous Senate resolutions proposing new United Nations patterns for a surer collective warrant of just and dependable peace. It is to their everlasting credit that they have thus sought to stimulate more effective relationships in pursuit of dependable peace for free men in a free world.

The Foreign Relations Committee has been unwilling to bury these suggestions from so many of our Senators in a "deep freeze."

It has sought, instead, a simple, forthright separation to bespeak the essence of all of these varying views and to find a common denominator which can hopefully represent the united opinion and recommendation of the Senate. We believe the pending resolution is today's best answer to this need.

The second necessity which we have confronted in this connection, Mr. President, is this: Up and down this peace-loving, peace-living land, which harbors no thought of conquest against any other power on earth, our people have looked with similar anxiety upon the often uphappy vicissitudes of the scarred United Nations, too often stranded on the veto rocks. They have groped for light with a sense of frustration amid a confusion of well meaning advice. It is a tribute to their instinct that the infirmities of the United Nations have served only to intensify their zeal in its behalf. It is a tribute to their wisdom that they sense its fundamental utility as the only base upon which to build the hopes by which we live. They are entitled to the practical encouragement which this resolution provides.

Rebuilding Defense

The third necessity, Mr. President. Facing the grim reality that peace may fail through the acts of others, Congress is concurrently driven by prudence to rebuild the minimums of national armed defense in the presence of possible aggression which might sneer at any arguments have those of force. At such a moment it is necessary that the same Congress, if faithful to the spirit of America, should simultaneously renew its relentless dedication to collective peace.

We have just passed a draft law, a peace-time draft law, for the first time in the history of the nation. We have passed it in the name of peace.

It is necessary, it is indispensable, that the same body which took that action should demonstrate that it had a peaceful purpose in mind when it passed it—to demonstrate it I now turn to the problem of strengthening the one and only organized, centralized hope that there is to organized peace in a fashion which shall prevent the necessity of ever calling into actual being the resources of physical national defense which we are concurrently creating.

It is necessary to make it plain that we are not preoccupied with bombs and bayonets. It is necessary to make it plain to our own people and to the world that we continue to give unequivocal priority to peace co-operation through a peace for all of us. America in other war will never be our fault.

This resolution, Mr. President, is the sturdy answer to any misunderstandings upon this score.

The Final Necessity

There is a fourth and final necessity which we have sought to answer through this resolution. We are embarking upon tremendous efforts to help others to help themselves into economic convalescence which follows independent strength and whatever makes for healthy peace for all of up, America included.

Pending this blessed outcome, it is inevitable that related questions of physical security should arise. This results and has resulted in immediate speculation abroad and at home regarding our American role in this collective security base. The pending resolution is the responsible answer, so far as Congress can presently foresee. It declines automatically military alliances. It declines all peacetime renewals of the old open-ended lend-lease formula. It declines unilateral responsibility for the fate of western Europe. It is none of those things; it is the exact opposite. On the other hand, it is a plan for our practical American co-operation under specified circumstances, within the framework of the United Nations. It is an answer which encourages individual and collective self-defense against armed aggression within the Charter and outside the veto. It asserts our interest in regional arrangements specifically invited by the Charter as a means to renew its effectiveness for peace. It declares our willingness to consider by due constitutional process our own co-operation, in one way or another, with such regional arrangements, if and when we conclude that our own national interests are involved.

But it warns that self-help and mutual aid are prerequisites. Our co-operation must be a supplement and not a substitute for the adequate and continuous defensive activities of others. It is a paraphrase of the Rio treaty which the Senate overwhelmingly approved. It is a plan to make the Charter work in behalf of individual and collective self-defense against armed aggression. It is a potential power for peace. It is another forward move in the indispensable pattern of collective security for us and for others.

Stays Within Charter

It never steps outside the United Nations Charter. It never steps outside the Constitution of the United States. It never steps outside the final authority of this Congress. But it steps constructively and hopefully toward a better and a safe world.

I agree with those who say it is an important and significant step, but let us make no mistake about the underlying facts. This is not the recital of the acceptance of new obligations, if we meant what we said when we assumed our underlying obligations under the United Nations. This resolution merely spells out an orderly and consistent procedure to implement them. It puts them into a plan. It gives them reciprocal vitality. We cannot escape these same general obligations by declining the resolution.

But by making them more realistic and by making our interest more specific it is less likely that an aggressor will take the chance and pay the price of ignoring them.

Mr. President, I wish now briefly to run through the resolution itself. I shall be very happy to be interrupted at any time in connection with any point in the discussion.

Senators will note that the resolving clause reaffirms the policy of the United States to achieve international peace and security through the United Nations so that armed force shall not be used except in the common interest. It then advises the President of the United States that this government by constitutional process should, particularly at the moment, pursue six identified objectives for the purpose of implementing this aspiration and this dedication.

Gains for Peace

Each of these six proposals is stated in a single sentence. There is nothing devious about the resolution. It is plain and simple. It is direct. And if I may be allowed to say so, I think it is pregnant with possibilities of infinite advantages for the peace of the world, as well as our own peace.

What is the first of these objectives? "Voluntary agreement to remove the veto from all questions involving pacific settlements of international disputes and situations, and from the admission of new members."

Mr. President, I shall briefly explain the imports of this particular assertion in the resolution.

It will be noted that we are not proposing that the voice of the United States, for the time being at least, should seek to remove the veto from the use of armed sanctions. In other words we are not invading that section, that ultimate section, of the United Nations activity which could involve the use of armed force. We are not proposing to remove the veto at any point which would involve a decision that takes us into the activities of war. We are proceeding on the theory that the people of the United States and the government of the United States would not consent to any arrangement which would require us to go to war at the behest of others and without our approval.

Question by Pepper

SENATOR CLAUDE PEPPER, Democrat, of Florida: Would the Senator contemplate that the veto would be defended in case the Security Council proposed to use and employ economic sanctions?

SENATOR VANDENBERG: The removal of the veto as proposed at this point would leave the veto on economic sanctions. Let me develop that thought, because I want the Senator to have a complete answers, and I think it is very important.

The United Nations Charter was built at San Francisco on the theory that if all of the pacific arrangements for the prevention or cure of international disputes were used, it would never be necessary—except, perhaps, once out of a thousand times—to proceed to the ultimate use either of economic sanctions or armed sanctions.

It was our feeling, and it certainly is the feeling of the Senator from Michigan today, that if the pacific settlement chapter of the United Nations Charter can be effectively put into adequate operation, it will not be necessary once in a hundred times to proceed either into economic sanctions or into that chapter of the Charter which deals with armed sanctions. Therefore, Mr. President, the resolution in proposing the removal of the veto from the pacific settlement sections of the Charter proceeds on that great fundamental theory that this institution is primarily an institution to keep the peace, and not a contract to go to war. Therefore it proposes the removal of the veto at those points where pacific settlement can be pursued by pacific methods.

The Significant Point

Yet—and this is the significant point I wish to emphasize—it would have met the situation in which every veto has been applied in the life of the United Nations. If this proposal ever became effective, no veto like any veto in the entire list of vetoes up to date would be p.. missible.

SENATOR PEPPER: In Article 41 of Chapter VII of the Charter the following occurs: "The Security Council may decide what measures not involving the use of armed force are to be employed to give effect to its decisions, and it may call upon the members of the United Nations to apply such measures. These may include complete or partial interruption of economic relations——"

At that point I pause to ask the able Senator whether under Subparagraph (3) of the resolution it is intended to suggest that the veto power should not exist in case the Security Council should call upon its members, in pursuance of a possible effort to settle disputes, to interrupt economic relations with the state which might be adjudged to be guilty of aggression. Did the Senator mean to include that under "economic sanctions":

SENATOR VANDENBERG: The Senator did.

SENATOR PEPPER: And the Senator meant to say that the veto power would exist in that case?

SENATOR VANDENBERG: It would, so far as this resolution is concerned. The Senator regrets that it is not possible to go farther, but that is what this resolution does.

SENATOR PEPPER: If the Senator will further permit me, it is next provided in Article 41 —. . . "and of rail, sea, air, postal, telegraphic, radio and other means of communication."

Veto-Existence Question

In case the Security Council were to determine to recommend to its members that they sever "rail, sea, air, postal, telegraphic, radio and other means of communication" with a member state, would the veto exist or not exist, under the resolution?

SENATOR VANDENBERG: The veto would exist under all sections of Article 41.

SENATOR PEPPER: The veto would exist under all sections or Article 41?

SENATOR VANDENBERG: That is correct.

SENATOR PEPPER: Is that true with respect to Article 42 as well?

SENATOR VANDENBERG: Yes.

SENATOR PEPPER: Section 42 reads: "Should the Security Council consider that measures provided for in Article 41 would be inadequate or have proved to be inadequate, it may take such action by air, sea or land forces as may be necessary to maintain or restore international peace and security. Such action may include demonstrations, blockade and other operations by air, sea or land forces of members of the United Nations."

The veto would exist under Article 42?

SENATOR VANDENBERG: So far as the pending resolution is concerned, the Senator is correct.

Aid-Detail Negotiations Are Opened

Washington, June 11 (AP) — The United States today opened negotiations with the Marshall-plan countries on agreements to govern American-European recovery operations.

The British Ambassador, Sir Oliver Franks, spent 75 minutes in the first meeting with Assistant Secretary of State Willard Thorpe, the American negotiator.

Franks said afterward: "We had a satisfactory first session. We were actually concerned with trying to determine what differences exist between us on the points of the agreement."

Franks said that he thought that as the talks progress various differences which have been reported from London will disappear in fairly quick understandings.

But it would be surprising, he said, if one or two points do not emerge which will require serious negotiations for settlement.

French Ambassador Henri Bonnet and Danish Ambassador Henrik de Kauffman are scheduled to confer with Thorpe next. He will talk with representatives of each of the sixteen Marshall-plan countries.

MARSHALL SEES RISK OF FAILURE IN AID FUND CUT

And a 'Calculated' One at That, Secretary Tells Senate Committee.

BIG EFFECT PSYCHOLOGICAL

Hoffman Says European Industry Would Bear Brunt of Any Reduction in Outlay.

Washington, June 11 (A. P.).—Secretary of State Marshall asserted today that House cuts in funds would make the European Recovery Program a "calculated risk for failure."

He recalled that when the program was devised, he said there was no certainty that it would return Europe to economic health—that it entailed a calculated risk.

Marshall appeared before the Senate Appropriations Committee which is holding hearings on the ERP funds voted by the House. He and others are urging the Senate to increase those funds and insist that the House agree to the rise.

The House slashed heavily the money the administration says is needed for foreign aid. Exactly how much it cut is disputed, but some estimates run up to $2,000,000,000.

Hoffman's Case for Full Fund.

Before Marshall took up the battle before the Senate group, Paul G. Hoffman, economic cooperation administrator, put in some licks for the administration's figures. Hoffman, a Republican, told the Senators:

"I believe it would be most unwise and shortsighted to cut the appropriation for this year below the actual amount authorized."

He said the House cuts would virtually eliminate plans to put Europe's industry back on its feet.

"The brunt of the cut must fall on the machinery and equipment necessary to restore or increase Europe's productive capacity," he said.

Hoffman explained that he thought proposed expenditures for food could not be trimmed much, so the cuts—if they stand—will have to be absorbed by dropping proposed machinery purchases.

Marshall Envisages Failure.

When Marshall took the witness chair, he told the Senators he had no prepared statement but was at their disposal for questioning.

In earnest tones, he went on to say that to undertake a "tremendous task" such as the ERP "on a too limited basis prejudices the chances for its success." With the House reduction, he asserted, it becomes "a calculated risk for failure."

He told the Congress members he didn't think they could afford to place the United States and Administrator Hoffman in a "position of struggling with a limitation" which would lead toward failure.

Marshall then said the psychological impact which the cut would have upon Europeans is probably the most serious effect. He said the program was aimed at providing both material and spiritual rehabilitation and of the two, spiritual was the greatest.

Stresses Europe's Courage.

"I doubt," he said, "that the people of this country realize how much courage was required (by the western European nations) to go ahead in the face of formidable and threatening opposition from the strongest country in Europe."

That was an obvious reference to Russia, but he did not call the Soviet Union by name.

"If they feel they cannot depend on us, we will have left them in a perilous state of mind," Marshall added.

Senator Knowland (R.-Cal.) asked whether failure of Congress to support the full ERP appropriation would undermine the confidence of the European nations.

"I agree completely," Marshall replied. "It is the crux of the whole thing."

Support of the plan will be an "expression of integrity and leadership," he added, while "anything that raises doubts will have an adverse effect."

Hoffman's first formal appeal for restoration of the full $5,300,000,000 in recovery funds showed that machinery shipments would have to be reduced from $1,100,000,000 to $100,000,000 if the Senate upheld the House slash.

The House voted to spread the $5,300,000,000 over fifteen months instead of the twelve months authorized by Congress in setting up the ERP. This would have the effect of cutting recovery spending from $1,000,000,000 to $2,000,000,000.

In advance of Hoffman's appearance, a Republican member predicted that the committee would heed pleas of Senator Vandenberg (R.-Mich.) and others and put back most of the cuts made by the House. Vandenberg, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, had been fighting the reduction since the House acted.

WASHINGTON, June 10 (AP).—The complete text of the statement by Paul G. Hoffman, Economic Cooperation Administrator, to the Senate Appropriation Committee follows:

As Administrator for Economic Co-operation it is not my duty to tell the Congress that any specific sum of money must be appropriated for the purposes of that act. But it is undoubtedly my duty to advise the Congress as to the goals that can in my opinion be achieved by the use of any given appropriation.

It is obviously of utmost importance to have clearly in mind what those goals are. The Congress has stated the objectives of the economic co-operation act as the recovery of the agriculture, industry, commerce and finance of Europe so that individual liberty, free institutions and political independence may be maintained. It is hoped that by June 30, 1952, Europe will become self-sustaining and will need no more extraordinary outside assistance. Recovery, therefore, is the objective and all expenditures should contribute to recovery. All contemplated expenditures will contribute to recovery but some will contribute more directly and more productively than others to the long-term of freedom of Europe from dependence on assistance from the United States.

Food a Basic Item

Food, for instance, is absolutely essential if there is to be any production, so it is a basic recovery item. But food is quickly consumed and forgotten. A productive machine, on the other hand, has continuing and repeated productive value. It is a multiplier." As we get more machines into production we get more goods for consumption and for export and progressively eliminate the need for extraodinary American help. Fuel and raw materials to feed existing machines and to maintain current production hold a middle ground.

Let us consider how E. C. A. has planned to distribute the 5.3 billion dollars authorized by the European recovery act (1 billion dollars public debt funds and 4.3 billions authorized to be appropriated), and how it might be necessary to distribute a revised total of approximately 4.0 billion dollars, both for the first twelve months of operation. We are not taking into account the reductions in European recovery programs that will be necessary if E. C. A. is to be responsible for recovery in Japan, Korea and the Ryukyus.

	Public Law 472	H. R. 6801	Reduct.
Agricultural products and miscellaneous.	2.0	1.8	.2
Fuel and raw materials to keep production going	2.2	2.1	.1
Machinery and equipment	1.1	.1	1.0
Total	5.3	4.0	1.3

Brunt on Machinery

The foregoing figures are approximate, but they lead to one inevitable conclusion. Although the reduction of total money available may be less than 25 per cent, the most productive and the most far-reaching part of the recovery program would for all practical purposes be eliminated. The brunt of the cut must fall on the machinery and equipment necessary to restore or increase Europe's productive capacity. The reason for this is that the fool allocations, already severely limited, cannot be cut without impairing the effectiveness of labor in Europe. Fuel and raw materials cannot be cut without immediately reducing the present levels of production and exports. Consequently, the only thing we could do is to eliminate supplies of capital equipment from the year's program.

With a total expenditure of 4 billion dollars, little if any money will be available for "multipliers," in the E. C. A. program. It may be said that the E. C. A. program is only part of the 15 billion dollars worth of imports which are estimated for the participating countries from the outside during the year. Of that 15 billion dollars, however, only about 1.8 billion dollars represent machinery and productive equipment, including such items financed by E. C. A.

Furthermore, it is important to realize that much of the machinery, tools and similar equipment to be obtained from the United States can be obtained from no other source in Europe or in the rest of the world. Many of these are key items without which equipment produced in Europe cannot be used with full effectiveness. These items play an indispensable part in long-haul recovery.

Crop Factor Analyzed

The argument has been offered that in view of improved crops in Europe we should send less food and use the money thus saved to salvage some of the recovery program. The prospective improvement in the European bread-grain harvest is approximately 3 per cent over the optimistic estimates on which the original program was based. If this increase in European food production were used to improve the diets of the people of Europe it would increase calories available by only 2 per cent. It would mean that the Europeans would consume on the average approximately 2,700 calories per day compared with an average of 3,400 calories per day consumed by Americans. It has always been considered desirable, in order to further the recovery program, to provide at least a minimum daily diet of 2,700 calories on the average. The only reason that a lower figure was originally used was the lack of available supplies which necessitated a drastic cut in the requirements urged by the Europeans.

Last year the food supply in many areas of Europe was inadequate—in certain areas it was close to starvation levels. Nevertheless, some improvement in industrial production was acplished. It is hoped that this food-supply situation will be improved next year in view of the increased food production in prospect for Europe as well as increased availabilities in major exporting countries other than the United States. But, even if this hope materializes, the average level of diet in Europe will still be less than prewar and well below that of the United States.

Germany an Example

As an example of the effect of the proposed appropriations on programs for particular countries, let us consider Germany. We had contemplated the expenditure of 437 million dollars in Germany. It is now recognized that exports from bizonal Germany will be about a quarter of a billion dollars below the amounts previously allowed for. Unless, therefore, a correspondingly larger allotment of E. C. A. funds can be made to the bizone, important recovery projects must be abandoned. Under the appropriation proposed by the House, we would not only be unable to support these recovery projects but we would be obliged to cut substantially the $437 million originally planned for use in Germany.

It is indicated by the committee on appropriations of the House that we may return next year and ask for more money as an emergency measure. I cannot state too strongly that the emergency is here. Our rate of expenditure during the next six months will determine whether we are now launching a true recovery program.

It has been suggested that even though the money be appropriated to cover a period of fifteen months we should plan and spend the money as though the appropriation were for twelve months. But the participating countries must plan and we must screen their plans on the basis of resources which are surely available. They must be able to rely on the fulfillment of our part of the programs we approve.

Estimating Needs

The House Committee on Appropriations says that it is impossible "to state with any degree of assurance the actual needs of the participating countries within a billion dollars." Certainly it is as legitimate to conclude that the actual needs of the participating countries are a billion dollars more than the amounts authorized in Public Law 472 as it is to conclude that they are $1,400,000,000 less. Even if it were desirable to reduce expenditures for the specific commodities mentioned by the committee on appropriations, I believe it would be most unwise and short-sighted to cut the appropriation for this year below the amount originally authtorized.

Some important recovery items were omitted from the budget estimates solely for financial reasons. Such additional shipments, now, would mean more rapid recovery, and consequently savings in the four-year program. I should like to bring out at this point the fact that even with the assumptions in regard to supply and prices used in the April presentation, the authorized funds were some $350,000,000 short. Certain other factors such as a probably overly optimistic estimate of exports from bizone have increased this uncovered deficit.

That the authorization in Public Law 472 were well considered is beyond question. They were based on a great volume of statistics and research developed by competent specialists. They were reviewed by an independent committee of citizens—the President's Committee on Foreign Aid or "Harriman Committee"—which decided that $5,750,000,000 would be required for the first year of recovery effort in Europe alone. The International Bank for Reconstruction and Development surveyed all available figures and reported that the estimates were a tight fit—probably a billion dollars too low.

Assumption Refuted

The report of the House Committee on Appropriations further states as a reason for extending certain appropriations to cover fifteen months instead of the twelve months contemplated by the authorization its belief that "the programs will not permit of the expenditure of more funds than has been provided for each program on an intelligent basis." The facts of E. C. A. operation during the last two months refute this assumption. The grant-in-aid allotments for the first quarter of E. C. A. April-June, 1948, total 1.078 billion dollars.

It is true that during the first few weeks of E. C. A. operations the total of firm authorizations was low. Nevertheless, our staff by working twelve to eighteen hours a day issued in the nine weeks up to June 5 since Public Law 472 was passed 282 million dollars of firm authorizations and in addition have reviewed and processed an additional 556 million dollars worth for which authorizations are now being written. This 838 million dollars is 78 per cent of the total 1.078 billion grant program for the quarter. Most of the remainder will be processed by the end of this month and in the next quarter we expect to become completely current.

As administrator, however, I wish to state most emphatically that money will not be spent merely because it has been appropriated. No matter what appropriation the Congress decides to make, we will spend only what we believe will constructively contribute to recovery.

Efficient Operation Is Goal

It is my hope to make E. C. A. outstanding as a business-like operation, efficient and economical. But it is becoming apparent that we will require a larger staff than I originally estimated—some 1,500 people—to carry out the responsibilities placed upon us by the Congress. In my testimony before the Senate Appropriations Committee I enumerated twenty-four such responsibilities. It is now plain that at least two of these--supervision of pricing and checking commodities through to their ultimate use in eighteen countries all around the world—may call for a much larger staff than I contemplated two months ago. If we are to program properly and adequately to protect the expenditure of even the smallest appropriation contemplated, we must have a free hand with administrative expense during the first year.

In my opinion, the amounts requested by the Department of the Army to promote recovery of Japan, Korea and the Ryukyus are justified. If responsibility for this financing is placed upon the E. C. A., it should be accompanied by an additional appropriation for this purpose of 150 million dollars. Otherwise, it will involve another severe drain upon the European Recovery Program.

The administration of the E. C. A. recognizes there may be conflicts of interest between the requirements of the American consumer and European recovery in such matters as wheat, cotton, wool, coal, steel and mechanical farm equipment. In my judgment full account has been taken of these conflicts in the estimates on which the request for appropriation was based. The law enjoins me both to protect the American economy and to foster European recovery. Rather than to limit the amount of funds which can be spent on these items, I believe it better to allow the administration of E. C. A. to proceed with due care and caution along the program as it is laid out, adjusting it as between the interests of the American economy and European recovery as the situation unfolds.

Statistics on Reduction

The following tabulation shows specifically and statistically the differences between the authorizations in Public Law 472 and the appropriations in the foreign appropriation bill 1949.

BILL TO ADMIT DP'S PASSED BY HOUSE

Would Permit Entry of 202,000; Measure Now Goes to Conferees.

WASHINGTON, June 11—(AP)—A bill to admit 202,000 homeless Europeans and an unspecified number of orphan children into the United States was passed by the house today, 289 to 91.

The "displaced persons" measure contains far fewer restrictions on the proposed immigration than a bill previously passed by the senate. The bills now will go to a Senate-House conference committee, which will compromise the differences.

The house bill, sponsored by Rep. Fellows (R-Me), passed after two days of clashing debate in which the proposed future American citizens were variously described as "the best people in Europe" and "scum, subversives and crackpots."

Would Admit 200,000 DPS

The legislation would admit in the next two years 200,000 DPS who have been living in DP camps or in the occupied zones of Germany, Italy and Austria since April 1, 1947.

In addition, it would permit the entry of some 2,000 Czech refugees who fled their homeland after a communist coup overthrew the democratic government of Czechoslovakia last spring, plus several thousand "un-married minor orphan children" classified as DPS. Orphans would be admitted in the first priority group. They would also be issued special non-quota immigration visas.

Repeated efforts by house members to lower U. S. immigration bars of former Polish soldiers, who fought on the side of the allies against Germany in World War II, were beaten down by narrow margins.

Similarly, the house rejected an amendment by Rep. Vorys (R-Ohio) which would have virtually killed any chance of an early flow of DPS to this country.

Vorys sought to keep the barriers up until other nations agree to accept their proportionate share of the homeless, many of whom have been living in the DP camps since the end of the war. The Ohio lawmaker defended his proposal on the ground that is was the "only solution, the only way to clear out these DP camps once and for all."

But Fellows objected that the Vorys amendment would "destroy" the bill, and Rep. Javits (R-NY) declared it would "put off for years" the solution of the problem.

Cites Action of Other Nations

Rep. Celler (D-NY) said other nations have already welcomed many thousands of refugees since the war ended. He cited figures that Britain has taken 50,000 and is taking others at the rate of 5,000 a month, while Belgium has taken 27,000, France 16,000 and Canada 50,000. Australia, New Zealand and Switzerland have also accepted sizeable portions, he said.

The Vorys amendment lost by only four votes. The tally was 92 to 88. Other amendments to bring in groups not officially qualified as DPs met defeat by close margins.

The count was 78 to 61 against a proposal by Rep. Kersten (R-Wis) to admit 100,000 persons of German origin who fled before the march of Soviet occupation armies into Germany during or immediately after the war.

Rep. Jenkins (R-Pa) shouted that Kersten's amendment would permit "the nazis and quislings" who aided Hitler in his near-conquest of Europe.

The senate on June 2 passed a bill to admit 200,000 displaced persons in the next two years, but critics have been hammering at the restrictions it contains. Earl G. Harrison, chairman of the "Citizens Committee on Displaced Persons," declared the bill a "booby trap", loaded with discriminations against Jews and others. He said it seemed "deliberately designed to exclude DP's, not admit hem."

Whereas the house bill applies to persons who entered DP camps or occupied zones before April 1, 1947, the senate bill applies to those who entered before Dec. 22, 1945. (Harrison said most of the Jews arrived in the occupied zones a few months after December, 1945.)

The senate bill provides further that half the persons admitted to this country must have followed agricultural pursuits and follow that vocation in this country. Also, half of those admitted would have to come from countries which have been annexed by a foreign power—Estonia, Lithuania, Latavia and eastern Poland.

The senate bill made no provisions for the Czechs, whose plight arose after the bill was drafted originally.

WORLD MEETINGS OPENED TO JAPS

Washington, June 11 (A. P.).—The door was inched open another crack today toward letting Japan back into the family of nations.

The eleven-nation Far Eastern Commission yesterday authorized Gen. Douglas MacArthur to accept invitations for Japanese to go as observers to international meetings, except political conferences, to which they may be invited.

The decision was approved by all members of the commission except Russia, according to a commission spokesman here. The Russians wanted all such invitations referred to the commission for individual approval.

The matter of allowing individual Japanese business men or students to go abroad also is being considered by the commission.

In indicating that yesterday's decision did not apply to political gatherings, various commission nations said a formal peace with Japan should be concluded before Japan re-enters such discussions.

G.O.P. HEADS SEEK TO SPEED DRAFT

Rules Committee Expected to Act on Measure Monday.

WASHINGTON, June 11—(AP) House leaders have put the draft bill on the "must" list for action next week. But whether the country will have such a law this year depends on 12 men and what they do in the next few days.

The Senate yesterday passed the draft bill to call men 19 through 25 into two years service. Its vote came almost three months after President Truman asked for such a law.

It is now up to the House, but whether it acts depends on the House Rules committee, through which legislation must funnel. This committee, composed of eight Republicans and four Democrats, can clear bills to the floor or bottle them up.

A House draft bill, similar in most major points to the Senate bill, has been worked up and approved by the House Armed Services committee. But the rules committee has not given it the go ahead signal.

Unless the bill is cleared and then acted on by the House next week, or before adjournment scheduled June 19, the draft law may die this year much as a universal military training bill died last session.

However, Republican leaders have placed the selective service measure on their top priority list, and it is generally believed the House will act in time.

Over 7,783,000 men, plus their relatives and sweethearts, have their eyes focused on these 12 lawmakers. The Census Bureau says that many men are between 19 and 25, and therefore eligible for registration.

Of that total, 2,585,000 are nonveterans and eligible for two years service. Not all would be drafted, however. The armed services have said they would need 1,669,000 "new men" in the next year. Many of these would be obtained through voluntary enlistments of reenlistments.

Provisions of the Senate and House bills include:

Exemptions:—Most veterans, under both bills. Senate—men who have had 18 months' active duty in the armed services since 1940, and those on active duty 90 days or more between Dec. 7, 1941, and Sept. 2, 1945. House—men who have served a year since Sept. 16, 1940. Those with between 90 days' and a year's service would be exempt if they joined a reserve unit.

Deferments:—Both bills would authorize the President to set up deferments for occupation, dependency, and special reasons such as scientific study. Both bills would defer high school students until graduation, or reaching the age of 20, and college students until the end of the school year. The Senate bill would exempt married men. The House bill does not mention them.

Denmark Reassured By U.S.

Washington, June 11 (AP)—Denmark has asked and received assurance that the United States plans no new military bases in Greenland, diplomatic authorities said today.

U.S. To Transfer Iran Police Chief

Washington, June 11 (AP)—Brig. Gen. H. Norman Schwarzkopf soon will leave his post as chief of the Iranian military police. He will be reassigned to European headquarters of the American Army.

The Army said today Schwarzkopf will leave Tehran about June 20 for conferences in Washington before reporting in Europe. His successor at Tehran will be named later.

Schwarzkopf, a graduate of the United States Military Academy, formerly was superintendent of New Jersey State police. In 1933 he was a leading investigator of the kidnap-slaying of the infant son of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh.

The late President F. D. Roosevelt assigned Schwarzkopf to the Iran Gendarmerie Mission at the request of the Iranian Government in 1942.

HUGE CARRIER RETURNS FROM WORLD CRUISE

SAN DIEGO, Calif., June 11—(AP) The USS Valley Forge, newest of the Navy's large aircraft carriers, returned today from a world cruise. It had made timely appearances at international trouble spots.

Sailing from here Oct. 8, 1947, the Valley Forge visited China and Australia. She went through the Suez Canal to appear in the Mediterranean before the Italian election. She displayed her might off Greece. Her flight deck was outlined on the Norwegian horizon during a time Russia was reported exerting pressure on Finland. She visited the Persian Gulf as Arab-Jewish tension mounted.

From Europe, the carrier crossed to New York and then back to San Diego, via the Panama Canal.

TWO MORE PILOTS FLY FASTER THAN SOUND

WASHINGTON, June 11 (AP)—The Air Force added two more names today to the list of men known to have flown faster than sound, Maj. Gus Lundquist, whose mother lives in Chicago, and Capt. James T. Fitzgerald, whose parents reside in South Pittsburg, Tenn.

Previously the Air Force had disclosed that Capt. Charles E. Yeager was the first ever to fly faster than sound, 763 miles an hour at sea level. Two super-sonic pilots flew for the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics. They were Herbert H. Hoover and Howard C. Lilly, who was killed recently in another high-speed experimental plane.

All three military pilots were shot down over Germany during the war. Now they are test pilots for the Air Materiel Command.

2-Year Term Given For Unauthorized Flight

Dayton, Ohio, June 11 (AP)—Two years' confinement and a dishonorable discharge was the court-martial sentence for Sergt. Malcoln McCready, who made an unauthorized flight April 4 in a B-25 bomber, the Army Air Force announced today.

Air Force officials said the sentence is subject to review by the Judge Advocate General in Washington and approval by the Wright Patterson Air Force base commanding officer. Although the sentence can be lightened, it cannot be made more severe.

McCready, a crew member with no pilot training, took off from Wright-Patterson base in a B-25 bomber and successfully piloted the ship to his home at Owatonnia, Minn. Normally the ship carries a crew of three.

Cardinal Spellman Back From Far East

Says MacArthur Has Done Fine Job in Japan

LOS ANGELES, June 11 (AP)—Francis Cardinal Spellman, Archbishop of New York, and thirteen church dignitaries returned to the United States today from a 39,000-mile tour, during which the Cardinal conferred with Emperor Hirohito, of Japan.

On the same plane, arriving from Japan, was Joseph B. Keenan, chief prosecutor of the Tokyo war trials, whose return to Japan and sudden departure for this country in the space of a few hours caused conjecture in the Nipponese capital.

Mr. Keenan explained that when he arrived, he found that verdicts against Japanese warlords headed by ex-Premier Tojo were not ready, so he decided to return to Washington to take care of other details of the case. He said he expected the decision by Aug. 1.

Cardinal Spellman said he found the Communist problem "dangerous" in China, but that Japan was peaceful under General of the Army Douglas MacArthur. He said the General "has done a tremendous task." The Cardinal plans an indefinite stay here with Archbishop James F. A. McIntyre.

German Baroness Flies Over To Rewed Ex-GI

New York, June 11 (AP)—A 24-year-old German baroness arrived today to make her second trip to the altar with a former private first class in the United States Army.

When Baroness Elizabeth von Hacke stepped off a plane at La-Guardia Field, Harry C. Crawford, 25, of Rapid City, S.D., was there to meet her.

Crawford said he met the baroness in November, 1945, at Oberaudorf, near Munich. They were married the following February, but at that time the Army did not permit marriages between soldiers and German girls.

Since that marriage may be invalid, Crawford said, they will be married again in this country.

CONTROL PLAN VOTE DELAYED

Russian Veto Is Expected On Atomic Limitation Move

L. HAFER (N)

Lake Success, June 11 (AP)—The Security Council today put off a vote on the American atomic control plan until next week when a Soviet veto is expected.

Russia has fought the United States proposal in the United Nations Atomic Energy Commission for the last two years. However, there is no veto in the commission and Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko has been unable to kill the plan.

Three weeks ago the commission voted over Soviet opposition to suspend work until Russia and the majority could agree. The parent council then was called to act.

Move Formally Made

Philip Jessup, United States deputy delegate, formally moved today that the council approve the American scheme, originally laid down June 14, 1946, by Bernard M. Baruch. Gromyko blocked action by asking to speak at the next meeting, set for Wednesday.

"All governments are faced with one or the other of two alternatives," Jessup said. "Either a continuation of the race in atomic armaments or agreement on a system of international control in which all nations would have confidence because they believed it to be effective. There is no middle ground."

Britian's Sir Alexander Cadogan supported Jessup and contended that Russia has refused to consider even the essential elements of any system of international control.

Called Dominant Fact

"The concept of sovereignty embodied in the system of national states, which has been the dominant political fact in the last few hundred years of history, is already outdated," he said. "And the lesson of this newest discovery of science is that fresh inroads must be made upon absolute sovereignty if civilization is to survive."

Most of the important votes on atomic energy in the United Nations have been 9 to 2, with Russia and one of her satellites in the minority. An American spokesman predicted the same result when the Council votes. He said the United Nations delegation expects a Soviet veto, which would be the twenty-sixth for Russia in the 30-month history of the United Nations.

If Gromyko vetoes, the Council majority plans to introduce a substitute proposal noting the work of the commission and passing a report on to the fall session of the General Assembly.

The Soviet Union demands that the United States scrap its bombs before controls are set up; the United States says this should come after the control system is in effect.

U.S. Asks U.N. Test Vote On Atom Plan (3)

Lake Success, N.Y., June 11 (AP)—The United States demanded today a test vote in the United Nations Security Council on the American atomic control plan.

Action was postponed until Wednesday because Andrei A. Gromygo, chief Russian delegate, said he was not ready to speak. The issue appeared likely to provoke another Russian veto, for Russia has made clear on many occasions she would not approve the United States plan.

United States Deputy Philip C. Jessup made the surprise move and was supported by Britain and Canada. He apparently wanted to place on record a Security Council rejection of the atomic plan.

The Atomic Energy Commission has been snarled for two years by divergent Russian and Western views.

"OUR MILITARY AIMS OF HOLDING THE JEWISH STATE FRONTIERS HAVE BEEN MORE THAN ACHIEVED," THEY SAID.

ARABS REITEREATED THAT THEY WOULD NEVER AGREE TO A JEWISH STATE.

FIRST LEAD PALESTINE ROUNDUP

BY MAX BOYD

CAIRO, JUNE 11-(AP)-ARMED PEACE FOR AT LEAST FOUR WEEKS BEGAN IN PALESTINE TODAY, BRINGING WITH IT A GLIMMER OF HOPE FOR AN END TO ARAB-JEWISH WARFARE.

INDICATIONS FROM THE HOLY LAND WERE THAT THE TRUCE FIXED BY THE UNITED NATIONS MEDIATOR WAS GENERALLY OBSERVED. HOWEVER THE ARAB LEGION ACCUSED THE JEWS OF KILLING AN ARAB SOLDIER IN JERUSALEM AND JEWISH TEL AVIV HAD AN AIR RAID ALERT AFTER THE TRUCE DEADLINE, 1 A.M., EASTERN STANDARD TIME.

JEWS AND ARABS MADE LAST-MINUTE JABS TO IMPROVE THEIR MILITARY POSITIONS. THE LINES WILL REMAIN STABILIZED WHILE PEACE TALKS ARE CARRIED OUT ON THE ISLAND OF RHODES UNDER UNITED NATIONS SPONSORSHIP.

AN ISRAELI COMMUNIQUE CLAIMED IMPORTANT SUCCESSES IN A LAST-MINUTE BATTLE OF JEWS WITH THE ARAB LEGION AT LATRUN FOR CONTROL OF THE KEY ROAD FROM JERUSALEM TO TEL AVIV. IT SAID JEWS ATTACKED IN DARKNESS AFTER TWO NIGHTS OF HEAVY ARTILLERY AND MORTAR PREPARATION AGAINST A ROCKY HILL STRONGHOLD HELD BY A FULL ARAB LEGION BRIGADE. THE ARABS REPORTED IN AMMAN, TRANS-JORDAN, THAT THE JEWISH ATTACK FAILED AND THE JEWS LOST AT LEAST 100 KILLED AND A NUMBER OF PRISONERS.

THE JEWS ALSO REPORTED CAPTURE OF AN ARAB VILLAGE AND MILITARY CAMP EAST OF MAJDAL, ON THE COAST SOUTH OF TEL AVIV, IN NEW OPERATIONS AGAINST AN EGYPTIAN SPEARHEAD WHICH THEY SAID HAS BEEN CUT OFF. THE EGYPTIANS SAID THEY RAISED A SIEGE OF NITSANIM NEAR ISDUD.

IN THE NORTH THE SYRIAN ARMY ANNOUNCED THE FALL OF MISHMAR HAY YARDEN, A JEWISH SETTLEMENT IN UPPER GALILEE. THE SYRIANS PREVIOUSLY HAD REPORTED THEY HAD DESTROYED THIS SETTLEMENT. JEWISH BOMBS DROPPED ON THE SYRIAN CAPITAL OF DAMASCUS.

TRANS-JORDAN'S KING ABDULLAH ARRANGED TO VISIT THE ARAB-HELD OLD CITY OF JERUSALEM TODAY, COMING IN ALONG THE JERICHO ROAD UNDER ARCHES OF PALM LEAVES PLACED ALONG THE HIGHWAY FOR HIS PASSAGE. CHEERING CROWDS OF ARABS GATHERED TO HAIL HIM AS THE KING OF JERUSALEM.

SWEDISH COUNT FOLKE BERNADOTTE, THE U.N. MEDIATOR, WILL TRY TO NEGOTIATE A PERMANENT PEACE. HE HAS SET UP HEADQUARTERS AT RHODES. BUT IN AMMAN, TRANS-JORDAN'S PREMIER TEWFIK ABU ALHUDA PREDICTED THE ARABS MIGHT REFUSE TO SIT AT THE SAME CONFERENCE TABLE WITH THE JEWS, IN LINE WITH A "TRADITIONAL POLICY." THE ARAB STATES STILL ARE UNWILLING TO ACCEPT PARTITION, AND THE JEWS ARE JUST AS UNWILLING TO GIVE IT UP.

SEVEN U.S. NAVAL OFFICERS ARRIVED BY AIR IN CAIRO AND LEFT THREE HOURS LATER FOR HAIFA, TO TAKE UP DUTIES AS TRUCE OBSERVERS FOR BERNADOTTE. THEY WERE BRIEFED HERE BY COL. THORD BONDE OF SWEDEN, HEAD OF BERNADOTTE'S STAFF OF MILITARY OBSERVERS. THE SWEDISH COLONEL HIMSELF THEN LEFT WITH A U.N. CIVILIAN EMPLOYE FOR TRANS-JORDAN TO SERVE AS AN OBSERVER.

THE CEASE FIRE TOOK EFFECT AT 1 A.M., EASTERN STANDARD TIME--8 A.M. IN ARAB COUNTRIES, 10 A.M. IN ISRAEL, WHICH IS ON DOUBLE DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME.

AT THAT TIME, THE COMMANDER OF THE TRANS-JORDAN ARAB LEGION IN THE OLD CITY OF JERUSALEM TELEPHONED AMMAN, TRANS-JORDAN'S CAPITAL, THAT THE AREA WAS PEACEFUL.

A DISPATCH FILED FROM THE OLD CITY SAID, HOWEVER, RANDOM SHOOTING WENT ON IN JERUSALEM FOR SIX MINUTES AFTER THE TRUCE DEADLINE, BUT THEN STOPPED.

A LITTLE LATER, JEWISH ARMY HEADQUARTERS IN TEL AVIV SAID WORD FROM THE FRONTS WAS THAT THE TRUCE WAS BEING RESPECTED GENERALLY EVEN BEFORE THE CEASE-FIRE HOUR.

THE JEWS ANNOUNCED THEIR AIR FORCE BOMBED DAMASCUS LAST NIGHT, SPENDING 15 MINUTES OVER THE SYRIAN CAPITAL. A REPORT FROM DAMASCUS SAID A JEWISH PLANE DROPPED NINE BOMBS THERE, MOSTLY INCENDIARIES. NO CASUALTIES NOR HEAVY DAMAGE WERE SAID TO HAVE RESULTED.

ELSEWHERE ON THE EVE OF THE ARMISTICE, THE EGYPTIAN DEFENSE MINISTRY SAID EGYPTIAN FORCES KILLED AT LEAST 300 JEWS AND TOOK 10 SURVIVORS PRISONER IN RAISING A BRIEF ISRAELI SIEGE OF NITSANIM, THREE MILES SOUTHWEST OF ISDUD. THE ISDUD SECTOR, 23 MILES SOUTH OF TEL AVIV, IS WHERE THE JEWS CLAIM TO HAVE SURROUNDED 1,000 EGYPTIANS.

A REPORT TO AMMAN FROM THE LATRUN FRONT, SOME 15 MILES WEST OF JERUSALEM, SAID THE JEWS HAD FAILED IN A LAST-MINUTE DRIVE TO OPEN THE BAB EL WAD GORGE WHERE THE ARABS BLOCK THE SUPPLY ROAD TO COUNT FOLKE BERNADOTTE, U.N. MEDIATOR, WHO ARRANGED THE TRUCE, HAS CHOSEN RHODES, GREEK ISLAND IN THE MEDITERRANEAN, AS THE SPOT FOR PEACE TALKS. HE WILL LEAVE HERE TOMORROW ON A TOUR TAKING HIM TO AMMAN, JERUSALEM AND RHODES AND BACK TO CAIRO NEXT TUESDAY.

ABDEL RAHMAN AZZAM PASHA, SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE ARAB LEAGUE, CALLED THE LEAGUE'S POLITICAL COMMITTEE TO MEET HERE MONDAY.

THE LEAGUE INCLUDES SEVEN ARAB NATIONS. SIX OF THEM HAVE SENT TROOPS INTO PALESTINE SINCE GREAT BRITAIN GAVE UP HER HOLY-LAND MANDATE AND ISRAEL PROCLAIMED HER STATEHOOD MAY 15. THEY ARE EGYPT, TRANS-JORDAN, IRAQ, SYRIA, LEBANON AND SAUDI ARABIA.

LAST NIGHT AZZAM PASHA SAID THE TRUCE DID NOT MEAN WAR WOULD NOT BE RESUMED IF "THE ENEMY DOES NOT RESPECT THE TRUCE CONDITIONS, IF THEY INSIST ON CREATION OF A ZIONIST STATE OR IN CASE NO AGREEMENT IS REACHED BASED ON A SOLUTION SAFEGUARDING PALESTINE'S SOVEREIGNTY AND UNITY."

ISRAELI GOVERNMENT LEADERS HAVE SAID THEY WILL INSIST UPON THE SOVEREIGNTY AND INDEPENDENCE OF ISRAEL AND UPON THE PARTITION OF PALESTINE, RECOMMENDED BY THE U.N. ASSEMBLY LAST NOV.29.

IN SPITE OF THIS CONFLICT, A TEL AVIV DISPATCH SAID TODAY HOPE IS HIGH IN ISRAEL THAT A PERMANENT PEACE WILL BE WORKED OUT.

IN LONDON, C. P. MAYHEW, A TOP ASSISTANT TO FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN, TOLD THE HOUSE OF COMMONS TODAY BRITAIN WILL NOT RECOGNIZE ISRAEL DURING THE TRUCE. IN REPLY TO A LABOR MEMBER'S CRITICISM OF BEVIN'S PALESTINE POLICY, HE SAID SUCH RECOGNITION WOULD BE "A POSITIVE ACT FAVORING ONE SIDE."

ARAB FORCES OPERATING UNDER A HIGH COMMAND IN AMMAN GOT A CEASE-FIRE ORDER FROM THAT SOURCE TODAY.

EGYPTIAN TROOPS WERE ORDERED TO STOP SHOOTING IN A BROADCAST FROM CAIRO BY DEFENSE MINISTER MOHAMED HAIDAR PASHA.

"THE COMMANDERS OF LAND, SEA AND AIR FORCES SHOULD CEASE FIRE TEMPORARILY BEGINNING AT 0800 CAIRO TIME THIS MORNING, JUNE 11," HE SAID. PROMPTLY AT THAT HOUR A BUGLE SOUNDED A CEASE FIRE CALL THREE TIMES.

THEN HAIDAR PASHA BROADCAST A MESSAGE TO THE TROOPS FROM KING FAROUK, HAILING "YOUR OUTSTANDING DEEDS AND VICTORIES."

"MY DEAR OFFICERS AND SOLDIERS," SAID THE MESSAGE, "YOU HAVE RAISED THE NAME OF EGYPT VERY HIGH AMONG NATIONS AND HELPED ME TO PROVE THAT WHEN EGYPT MAKES A PLEDGE, SHE FULFILS IT, AND WHEN SHE SPEAKS, SHE ACTS."

ISRAELI PRIME MINISTER DAVID BEN-GURION ANNOUNCED OVER THE RADIO LAST NIGHT THAT JEWISH FORCES HAD BEEN GIVEN THEIR CEASE-FIRE ORDER. HE SAID ANYONE IN ISRAEL WHO BROKE THE TRUCE WOULD BE DEEMED AN ENEMY AND TREATED AS SUCH.

TEL AVIV'S AIR ALERT ENDED A HALF HOUR AFTER IT SOUNDED. THERE WAS NO EXPLANATION. THE DRONE OF A PLANE COULD BE HEARD OVER THE CITY, BUT NO SOUNDS OF EXPLOSIONS.

IN BEIRUT, LEBANON, PREMIER RIAD EL SOLH TOLD NEWSMEN HE HAD WORD FROM THE FRONT THAT LEBANESE TROOPS, AIDED BY SYRIANS AND ARAB VOLUNTEERS, "ATTACKED SUCCESSFULLY, REACHING NAZARETH AND AFULA AND THUS DOMINATING THE ROAD FROM JENIN TO HAIFA." HAIFA IS HELD BY THE JEWS. JENIN IS THE TOP OF THE ARAB TRIANGLE IN NORTH CENTRAL PALESTINE.

CAIRO, JUNE 11-(AP)-COUNT FOLKE BERNADOTTE ANNOUNCED TONIGHT HE HAS ORDERED UNITED NATIONS OBSERVERS TO INVESTIGATE AND REPORT QUICKLY ON COMPLAINTS ALLEGING FOUR VIOLATIONS OF THE PALESTINE TRUCE BY JEWISH FORCES.

A STATEMENT ISSUED BY BERNADOTTE SAID ONE OF THE COMPLAINTS WAS FILED BY MAJ. GEN. JOHN BAGOT GLUBB PASHA, COMMANDER OF THE TRANS-JORDAN ARAB LEGION.

GLUBB PASHA CHARGED THAT A LEGION SOLDIER WAS KILLED BY JEWISH SNIPERS AFTER THE CEASE-FIRE IN THE SHEIKH JARRAH SECTOR OF JERUSALEM, THE MEDIATOR'S STATEMENT SAID. THE LEGION COMMANDER ALSO COMPLAINED THAT SNIPERS HAD FIRED ON A PARTY WHICH ATTEMPTED TO REMOVE THE VICTIM'S BODY.

BERNADOTTE ALSO DISCLOSED THAT THREE SEPARATE COMPLAINTS WERE RECEIVED FROM THE SYRIAN MINISTER FOR FOREIGN AFFAIRS ALLEGING TRUCE VIOLATIONS.

BERNADOTTE'S STATEMENT ISSUED FROM HIS TEMPORARY HEADQUARTERS IN SHEPHEARD'S HOTEL FOLLOWS:-

"DURING THE COURSE OF THE FIRST DAY OF THE PALESTINE TRUCE COMPLAINTS WERE RECEIVED BY THE MEDIATOR ALLEGING FOUR SEPARATE VIOLATIONS OF THE TRUCE BY JEWISH FORCES.

"IN ALL CASES COUNT BERNADOTTE IMMEDIATELY ISSUED INSTRUCTIONS TO U.N. OBSERVERS TO INVESTIGATE THE ALLEGED INCIDENTS ON THE SPOT AND TO REPORT THEIR FINDINGS AS QUICKLY AS POSSIBLE.

"ONE OF THE INCIDENTS REPORTED TO THE MEDIATOR WAS ALLEGED TO HAVE TAKEN PLACE AT 9:30 A.M. THIS MORNING WHEN, ACCORDING TO A COMPLAINT BY GLUBB PASHA, THE ARAB LEGION COMMANDER, JEWISH SNIPERS KILLED AN ARAB LEGION SOLDIER IN THE SHEIKH JARRAH SECTION OF JERUSALEM. GLUBB PASHA STATED IN HIS COMPLAINT THAT SNIPERS ALSO FIRED AT A PARTY WHICH ATTEMPTED TO REMOVE THE BODY AND THAT TWO ARAB CIVILIANS WERE FIRED AT FROM HADASSAH HOSPITAL AT 9:45 A.M.

"THREE SEPARATE COMPLAINTS WERE RECEIVED FROM THE SYRIAN MINISTER FOR FOREIGN AFFAIRS ALLEGING TRUCE VIOLATIONS.

"A MESSAGE RECEIVED ALLEGED THAT A JEWISH PLANE HAD CIRCLED DAMASCUS SHORTLY AFTER 10 O'CLOCK THIS MORNING FOR A PERIOD OF 15 MINUTES AND ATTEMPTED TO BOMB THE CITY BEFORE BEING DRIVEN OFF BY SYRIAN FIGHTER AIRCRAFT.

"LATER TELEGRAMS STATED THAT JEWISH FORCES HAD FAILED TO CEASE FIRE WHEN THE TRUCE TOOK EFFECT AT 8 O'CLOCK, SYRIAN TIME, AND THAT FIGHTING WAS STILL GOING ON IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD OF DERDARA, ON THE SYRIAN-PALESTINE BORDER. IT WAS ALLEGED THAT THE JEWISH FORCES HAD CEASED FIRE SOMETIME LATER BUT HAD THEN RENEWED FIRE."

BERNADOTTE IS SCHEDULED TO FLY TO AMMAN, TRANS-JORDAN, TOMORROW, AND TO VISIT JERUSALEM BEFORE CONTINUING TO HIS NEW HEADQUARTERS ON THE GREEK ISLAND OF RHODES.

THE ARMY OF ISRAEL HAD SOME 200 ARAB VILLAGES, BESIDES THE BIG PORT OF JAFFA. THE ARABS HAD WITHDRAWN FROM TIBERIAS, SAFAD AND JENIN. add- Tel Aviv Truce observed - xxx Israel

THE ARMY OF LEBANON WAS QUIET, DUG IN DEFENSIVELY ON ITS SIDE OF THE FRONTIER AFTER A FEW PRELIMINARY BRUSHES WITH HAGANAH'S PALMACH STRIKING FORCE THREE TO FOUR WEEKS AGO.

THE SYRIANS, BEATEN BACK FROM THE NORTHERN AND EASTERN FRONTIERS OF NORTH GALILEE THREE TIMES, NEVER SINCE HAD MOUNTED A MAJOR INVASION DRIVE.

TRANS-JORDAN'S ARAB LEGION OCCUPIED MOST OF THE REST OF THE PROPOSED ARAB STATE EXCEPT FOR THE GAZA SOUTHERN COASTAL STRIP, HELD BY THE EGYPTIANS.

SOME IRAQI FORCES HAVE BEEN IN THE FIGHT, BUT MOST OF THESE HAVE OPERATED WITH THE ARAB LEGION.

A JEWISH ARMY SPOKESMAN SAID LAST NIGHT THE JEWS HAD SHOT DOWN 20 ENEMY PLANES AND LOST TWO OF THEIR OWN IN AIR BATTLES SINCE THE ISRAELI AIR FORCE WAS CREATED.

AN OFFICER IN CHARGE OF WAR PRISONERS REPORTED THE JEWS HELD 1,200 ARABS. HE SAID THE ARABS WERE KNOWN TO HAVE SOME 625 JEWISH PRISONERS CAMPED AT MAFRAK, TRANS-JORDAN, AND WERE BELIEVED TO HOLD OTHERS ELSEWHERE.

JERUSALEM'S OLD CITY, JUNE 11-(AP)-PEACE, TROUBLED BY SUSPICION AND THE FEAR OF SUDDEN DEATH, PREVAILED IN THE ARAB-HELD OLD CITY OF JERUSALEM TONIGHT.

ON EACH SIDE OF THE BLACKENED AND BATTERED MU-DAN'S LANDI ARMED MEN PEERED CAUTIOUSLY ACROSS AT ENEMY POSTS. SILENG TUNS REMAINED AT THE READY.

ARAB LEGION HEADQUARTERS HELD REIN ON EAGER TROOPERS ITCHING TO FIRE BACK AFTER AT LEAST TWO INCIDENTS OF ALLEGED JEWISH TRUCE-BREAKING.

ON THE ARA SIDE A DOZEN CORRESPONDENTS WERE PERMITTED TO ROAM ABOUT AT WILL. THEY DID NOT OBSERVE A SINGLE CASE OF THE ARABS BREAKING THE TRUCE.

FROM ARAB LYDDA, LESS THAN 10 MILES FROM ALL-JEWISH TEL-AVIV, A SMALL ARAB GARRISON SIGNALLED THAT IT WAS UNDER AUTOMATIC FIRE AT 1:30P.M., BUT WAS STILL HOLDING ITS OWN FIRE. LEGION HEADQUARTERS AWAITED THE EXPECTED ARRIVAL TONIGHT OF A U.N. OBSERVER TO PROTEST THE INCIDENT.

TWO JEWISH MORTAR SHELLS FELL IN THE OLD CITY DURING THE AFTERNOON AND ARAB HEADQUARTERS SAID ONE LEGION TROOPER WAS KILLED BY MACHINEGUN FIRE DIRECTED AT HIS POST IN THE MUSRARA QUARTER JUST OUTSIDE THE OLD CITY WALLS AN HOUR AFTER THE TRUCE WENT INTO EFFECT.

KING ABDULLAH OF TRANS-JORDAN WORSHIPPED TODAY AT THE OLD CITY'S FAMED MOSQUE OF OMAR AND RECEIVED A BIG ACCLAIM FROM THOUSANDS OF ARABS WHO CALLED HIM THE "SAVIOUR OF PALESTINE."

TEL AVIV, ISRAEL, JUNE 11-(AP)-THE CHIEF OF OPERATIONS OF THE JEWISH HIGH COMMAND SAID TONIGHT THAT ARAB FORCES HAD BROKEN THE TRUCE ON THE NORTHERN, CENTRAL AND SOUTHERN FRONTS OF PALESTINE. HE WARNED THAT THE ARMY OF ISRAEL MIGHT YET STRIKE BACK AGAINST ANY GROUND THUS GAINED.

TO THIS WARNING THE JEWISH CHIEF OF OPERATIONS ADDED ANOTHER:

"THE DAMASCUS RAID HAS SHOWN THAT NO ARAB CAPITALIS BEYOND THE RANGE OF OUR AIR FORCE. NO TECHNICAL HINDERANCE STANDS IN OUR WAY IF WE ARE ORDERED TO DO THE SAME AGAIN TO TWO ALREADY BOMBED ARAB CAPITALS--OR THREE."

(THE JEWISH AIR FORCE HAS CARRIED OUT BOMBING RAIDS ON DAMASCUS, THE SYRIAN CAPITAL, AND AMMAN, CAPITAL OF TRANS-JORDAN.)

THE OPERATIONS CHIEF DESCRIBED THIS FIRST DAY OF THE UNITED NATIONS CEASE-FIRE AS "JUST ANOTHER DAY" OF FIGHTING ON MOST FRONTS.

HE SAID THE JEWS STRICTLY OBEYED THE CEASE-FIRE DEADLINE BUT THE ARABS KEPT ATTACKING UNTIL NOON IN THE SOUTH, AND UNTIL STOPPED BY A UNITED NATIONS REPRESENTATIVE AT 11A.M. (EASTERN STANDARD TIME), ON THE CENTRAL FRONT. HE SAID FIGHTING STILL WAS GOING ON AT 1P.M. (EST) IN THE NORTH.

U.N. OBSERVERS WERE INFORMED BY THE JEWISH COMMAND, HE SAID, BUT "THIS MORNING AT THE CEASE-FIRE DEADLINE NONE OF THEM WAS KNOWN TO BE ON ANY OF THE FIGHTING FRONTS TO SEE WHAT HAPPENED OR TO TAKE ACTION."

THE OPERATIONS CHIEF GAVE THIS OFFICIAL ARMY OF ISRAEL APPRAISAL OF ARAB FORCES MET IN BATTLE SINCE MAY 15:

"WE OVER-ESTIMATED THE QUALITY OF THE SYRIAN AND IRAQI FORCES.

"WE OVER-ESTIMATED THE QUALITY OF THE LIBERATION ARMY, WHICH PROVED TO BE ONLY A NAME AND A COMMANDER.

"OUR ESTIMATE OF THE ARAB LEGION IS UNCHANGED. IT PROVED TO BE THE BEST OF THE FORCES OF ALL THE ARAB COUNTRIES--AND NO WONDER, AS ITS TECHNIQUE, TACTICS, WEAPONS, EQUIPMENT, SUPPLIES AND EVEN COMMAND BELONG TO ONE OF THE COUNTRIES WHICH DEFEATED HITLER.

"THE EGYPTIAN FORCES HAVE SOME OF THE QUALITIES OF THE ARAB LEGION, ESPECIALLY MATERIAL--WEAPONS, ARTILLERY AND AIR FORCE. ITS INFANTRY IS MEDIOCRE." #

JERUSALEM, JUNE 11-(AP)-FOR THE FIRST TIME IN 28 DAYS THE JEWISH RESIDENTS OF THE HOLY CITY WALKED THE STREETS TODAY WITHOUT A FEAR OF SUDDEN DEATH.
NO MORTAR SHELLS CRASHED DOWN. THE INCESSANT ARAB SNIPER FIRE HAD CEASED. THE FOUR-WEEK UNITED NATIONS TRUCE PERIOD HAD BEGUN.
BUT THERE WAS A TOTAL ABSENCE OF FAITH IN THE CEASE-FIRE ORDER.
ONE YOUNG JEWESS PUT IT THIS WAY:
"IT'S WONDERFUL TO BE ABLE TO WALK THE STREETS WITHOUT BEING AFRAID. BUT WE ALL HAVE A FEAR DEEP INSIDE US THAT THE WAR WILL START AGAIN ANY MINUTE."
SHOPKEEPERS OPENED THEIR SHUTTERS. PEOPLE LAUGHED AND JOKED. CHILDREN PLAYED ON THE SIDEWALKS. SO MANY CARS APPEARED ON THE STREETS THAT THE HAGANAH MILITARY POLICE PUT TRAFFIC OFFICERS AT THE BUSY INTERSECTIONS.
LITTLE 4-YEAR-OLD NURIT, DAUGHTER OF A COFFEE SHOP OWNER, WAS TYPICAL OF HUNDREDS OF OTHER CHILDREN. HER FATHER IS IN HAGANAH. TODAY HE CAME HOME. TODAY SHE COULD PLAY IN THE STREETS. HER MOTHER COULD WALK TO THE WATER WAGON INSTEAD OF SLINKING ALONG BESIDE A STONE WALL FOR PROTECTION FROM BULLETS AND SHELLS. FOR THE FIRST TIME IN 28 DAYS THERE WAS SUNLIGHT IN HER ROOM. THE SHUTTERS WERE RAISED FOR THERE WAS NO SHRAPNEL FLYING OUTSIDE.
IN A SIMPLE, CHILDISH WAY, NURIT ASKED: "WHY DIDN'T THEY FIGHT THE WAR THIS WAY BEFORE?"
JEWISH AUTHORITIES WERE JUST AS APPREHENSIVE AS THE MAN IN THE STREET ABOUT THE CEASE-FIRE HOLDING FOR FOUR WEEKS.

WITH THE JEWISH ARMY ON THE SOUTH PALESTINE FRONT, JUNE 11-(AP)-THE UNITED NATIONS TRUCE ENDED A 24-HOUR BATTLE IN WHICH EGYPTIAN TANKS BROKE THROUGH TO RELIEVE A TRAPPED INVASION SPEARHEAD NEAR ISRAEL'S SOUTHERN BOUNDARY, 22 MILES SOUTH OF TEL AVIV.
ABOUT 2,000 EGYPTIAN TROOPS HAD BEEN VIRTUALLY CUT OFF FROM A MAIN EGYPTIAN COLUMN ALONG THE SEACOAST ROAD FOR A WEEK. IN A LAST DESPERATE THRUST BEFORE THE CEASE FIRE ORDER, THE EGYPTIANS, WITH OVERWHELMING TANK SUPPORT, DROVE DUG-IN JEWISH FORCES OFF THE SANDY HILL CONTROLLING THE ROAD, A MILE SOUTH OF ISDUD.
"IT IS ONLY A MINOR SETBACK," A JEWISH UNIT COMMANDER DECLARED, WHILE ISRAELI MORTARS LOBBED SHELLS AT THE EGYPTIANS. "WE HAVE DRIVEN THE EGYPTIANS OFF THE SOIL OF ISRAEL AND IF THEY TRY TO INVADE AGAIN WE WILL CRUSH THEM."
CAPTURE OF THE HILL WILL PERMIT THE EGYPTIAN MAIN COLUMN, STRUNG OUT ALONG THE COAST, TO SUPPLY THE SPEARHEAD WHICH IS BOGGED DOWN AT THE BOUNDARY BETWEEN JEWISH AND ARAB AREAS AS ESTABLISHED BY THE U.N. PARTITION PLAN. THE SPEARHEAD HAD PENETRATED SEVEN MILES INTO JEWISH STATE TERRITORY AS FAR AS YIBNA, BUT WAS THROWN BACK LAST WEEK.
THE TRUCE PREVENTED THE HILL FROM BECOMING THE BLOODIEST BATTLE-GROUND OF THE SUN-BAKED SOUTHERN FRONT. ARTILLERY SHELLS WHINED BACK AND FORTH OVER THE PASTORAL TERRAIN OF A MILE-WIDE NO-MAN'S LAND UNTIL THE CEASE FIRE DEADLINE.
TRUCE HOUR PASSED. SEVEN MINUTES LATER EGYPTIAN ARTILLERY SHELLS CAME OVER AGAIN, BUT FELL IN A CORNFIELD AHEAD OF JEWISH POSITIONS. THEN THE FIRING STOPPED.
"THAT'S THEIR FAREWELL," SAID THE OFFICER.

(The following pooled dispatch was received from news correspondents with Jewish forces in Jerusalem.)

Jerusalem, June 11--(ap)--Arab forces raked the Holy City with mortars and guns until the cease-fire deadline today and [illegible] it took 15 minutes more before the firing [illegible] stopped completely.

The Arabs had shelled the city [illegible] heavily all night after the Arab Legion was beaten back in an attempt to push toward Notre Dame and the Damascus Gate of the old walled city in an afternoon battle.

Jewish forces claimed they had immobilized three legion bren carriers in yesterday's fighting.

JUN 1948

Girshon Hirsch, spokesman for the Jewish Agency, said in a press conference that Jewish planes had bombed Damascus before midnight, circling the city for 15 minutes and then returning safely.

The battle for the Jerusalem-Tel Aviv road continued until the cease-fire deadline with the Arabs capturing the Jewish settlement of Gezer, northwest of Hulda, and the Jews re-taking it early today.

The Arab Radio claimed 36 Jewish prisoners, including 14 women, were taken.

The Jewish population of new Jerusalem swarmed onto the streets immediately after the cease-fire. Shopkeepers began sweeping glass from the streets and sidewalks preparing to repair the damaged stores. Street venders took up their old stands.

The Jewish area Haganah commander issued an order of the day praising the troops and warning them to remain alert for a collapse of the cease-fire. The commander also praised the civilian population and told them the war was not yet over and would not be until Jerusalem and the young state ~~in~~ was secure.

30.24- 18445

JUN 1948

The order of the day said:

"I express admiration for the soldiers under my command ~~in~~ of all ranks in all units for their devotion, ~~and~~ courage and faith. You were able to defend the central Jewish areas. You ~~were~~ were able to re-establish contact with outlying Jewish areas and in the process widen the area of Jewish Jerusalem .... we have NO assurance that tomorrow, maybe even today, we will not have to take up arms again and hit at a dangerous enemy who does not know the meaning of the solemnly arrived at obligations."

The Haganah commander also greeted armed forces other than haganah who cooperated in the Jerusalem fight.

To the civilians he said:

"This does not end the war. It will continue until

Jerusalem and our young state is secure.

"There cannot be a return to regular life as yet. Continue your efforts in the field of labor, enlistment and military economic fortifications."

The emergency committee said there would be increased food rations when new supplies arrive but that it would not open further the reserve stocks.

The committee said:

"Arrangements for the water supply are not yet final, but the matter is in hand. We shall try to bring sufficient fuel and it will be our task generally to lighten the day to day burden of the population."

LAKE SUCCESS, JUNE 11-(AP)-THE UNITED NATIONS DENIED TODAY THAT BRITAIN HAS BEEN ASKED FOR SHIPS AND PLANES TO HELP SUPERVISE THE PALESTINE TRUCE.

A U.N. SPOKESMAN QUOTED DR. RALPH BUNCHE, CHIEF SECRETARY OF COUNT FOLKE BERNADOTTE'S MEDIATION GROUP, AS SAYING BRITISH AUTHORITIES IN CAIRO HAD MENTIONED THE POSSIBILITY BRITAIN MIGHT SUPPLY SOME AID IF THE MEDIATOR NEEDED IT.

BUNCHE STRESSED THAT BERNADOTTE HAD NOT ACCEPTED THE BRITISH SUGGESTION. HE INDICATED, HOWEVER, THE MEDIATOR MIGHT TRY TO ARRANGE FOR SOME CARS AND SMALL BRITISH PLANES TO TRANSPORT TRUCE OBSERVERS AROUND PALESTINE. IN THIS EVENT, IT WAS SAID, THE PLANES AND CARS WOULD BE ENTIRELY UNDER U.N. CONTROL.

JUN 1948

BERNADOTTE'S HEADQUARTERS ALSO SAID:

1. THE TRUCE IS GOING VERY WELL.
2. BERNADOTTE HAS RECEIVED A FEW COMPLAINTS OF TRUCE VIOLATIONS.
3. HE WILL TRANSFER HIS HEADQUARTERS TO THE GREEK ISLAND OF RHODES TOMORROW.
4. SEVEN U.S. MILITARY OBSERVERS ARRIVED IN CAIRO TODAY. SEVEN MORE ARE EXPECTED TOMORROW, ALONG WITH A GROUP OF BELGIAN OFFICERS. THE FIRST CONTINGENT OF FRENCH OBSERVERS IS DUE TO ARRIVE SUNDAY.
5. BERNADOTTE WILL NOT INVITE RUSSIA TO SEND MILITARY OBSERVERS TO PALESTINE UNLESS THE SECURITY COUNCIL DIRECTS HIM TO DO SO.

A TRUCE TOOK EFFECT IN THE ARAB-JEWISH WAR FOR PALESTINE EARLY TODAY, TO LAST FOUR WEEKS WHILE UNITED NATIONS NEGOTIATORS SEEK PERMANENT PEACE.

THE CEASE FIRE WAS ORDERED FOR 1 A.M., EASTERN STANDARD TIME--8 A.M. IN ARAB NATIONS, 10 A.M. BY THE DOUBLE DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME USED IN THE JEWISH STATE OF ISRAEL.

THERE WAS NO IMMEDIATE SIGN OF ANY TRUCE VIOLATIONS BY ANY OF THE PARTIES TO THE ARMISTICE AGREEMENT. THE BREADTH OF THE FRONT AND THE COMMUNICATIONS PROBLEM MADE A QUICK CHECK DIFFICULT.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

UNEASY PEACE CAME TO PALESTINE TODAY TO THE ACCOMPANIMENT OF WAILING AIR RAID SIRENS IN TEL AVIV AND GUN BURSTS IN JERUSALEM.

THE FOUR-WEEK ARMISTICE AND ARMS EMBARGO BECAME EFFECTIVE AT 1 A.M. EST. DURING THE TRUCE, COUNT FOLKE BERNADOTTE, U.N. MEDIATOR, WILL SEEK TO RESOLVE THE GREAT ISSUE OF PARTITION.

THE JEWS SAID THE CEASE FIRE GENERALLY WAS OBSERVED SEVERAL HOURS BEFORE THE DEADLINE. THEY ANNOUNCED A LAST MINUTE BOMBING OF DAMASCUS. THE SYRIANS SAID NINE BOMBS, MOSTLY INCENDIARY, WERE DROPPED, CAUSING NO CASUALTIES AND LITTLE DAMAGE.

THE HEAVIEST LAST MINUTE FIGHTING WAS AROUND LATRUN, WHERE THE ARABS BLOCK THE MAIN TEL AVIV-JERUSALEM SUPPLY ROAD. THE ISRAELIS CLAIMED "IMPORTANT SUCCESSES" THERE.

THE ARAB LEGION OF TRANS-JORDAN SAID THE JEWS BROKE THE TRUCE IN JERUSALEM WITHIN AN HOUR, KILLING AN ARAB SOLDIER. RANDOM SHOOTING ECHOED IN THE HOLY CITY FOR SIX MINUTES AFTER THE ARMISTICE HOUR. JEWISH MORTARS DRUMMED THE ARABS THERE FOR 70 MINUTES BEFORE THE TRUCE. A JERUSALEM DISPATCH SAID A CHRISTIAN CHURCH AND ARAB HOSPITAL WERE DAMAGED.

AN HOUR AND A HALF AFTER THE ARMISTICE WAS EFFECTIVE, SIRENS STARTED AN EERIE WAIL IN MUCH-BOMBED TEL AVIV. THERE WAS NO REPORT OF ARAB PLANES SIGHTED. TWO WARSHIPS APPEARED IN TEL AVIV WATERS, PROBABLY U.N. TRUCE PATROLS.

JUN 1948

GREAT BRITAIN ANNOUNCED SHE WOULD NOT RECOGNIZE ISRAEL DURING THE TRUCE. A SPOKESMAN SAID SUCH RECOGNITION WOULD BE "A POSITIVE ACT OF INTERVENTION" FAVORING ONE SIDE.

BORN IN WAR, THE FIRST JEWISH NATION SINCE BEFORE THE DAYS OF CHRIST HAD ITS FIRST DAY OF PEACE. BOTH SIDES WERE FROZEN IN THEIR MILITARY POSITIONS. IT WAS A DAY OF BURIALS OF THE SLAIN, TENDING FOR THE WOUNDED AND REPAIRING OF THE HAVOC OF WAR.

HOPE WAS HIGH IN ISRAEL THAT PERMANENT PEACE MIGHT COME FROM THE IMPENDING TALKS ON THE GREEK ISLAND OF RHODES BETWEEN NOW AND JULY 2. CONFIDENCE WAS JUST AS HIGH THAT THE JEWISH ARMY--IN WHICH 20 OR MORE FORMER U.S. MAJORS, CAPTAINS AND PERHAPS ONE GENERAL SERVE--COULD HOLD THE YOUNG STATE AND BEAT BACK ARAB ARMIES.

THE ARABS HELD LITTLE HOPE FOR A LASTING PEACE.

PREMIER TEWFIK ABU ALHUDA OF TRANS-JORDAN SAID THE ARABS MAY REFUSE EVEN TO SIT AT THE SAME TABLE WITH THE JEWS AT RHODES. HE SAID CERTAINLY NO PEACE CAN COME IF THE JEWS PERSIST IN THEIR DEMANDS FOR A JEWISH STATE. HE SAID THE JEWISH POLICY IS "ONE OF TERRITORIAL DEMANDS X X X INDICATING THEY MIGHT FURTHER CHANGE THEIR POLITICAL AIMS TO SEEK DOMINATION OF ALL ARAB COUNTRIES." THUS, HE SAID, THE ARAB POLICY IS ONE OF SELF DEFENSE.

HE SAID THE ARABS ACCEPTED THE ARMISTICE AT THE PERSONAL REQUEST OF BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN, BUT THAT THERE HAD BEEN NO BRITISH PRESSURE.

PREMIER DAVID BEN-GURION OF ISRAEL WARNED THE JEWISH IRGUN ZVAI LEUMI AND THE STERN GROUP, THOUGH NOT BY NAME, THAT ISRAEL WOULD NOT TOLERATE ANYONE BREAKING THE TRUCE. HE INSISTED ON SOVEREIGNTY. IRGUN DENOUNCED GEN-GURION'S REGIME FOR ACCEPTING THE TRUCE, SAYING:

"THE GOVERNMENT HAD A CHOICE BETWEEN SHAME AND WAR. IT CHOSE SHAME. BUT THERE IS NO ASSURANCE X X WAR WILL BE AVOIDED."

REPORTING ON ACTIONS BEFORE THE TRUCE, THE EGYPTIANS SAID THEY KILLED 300 OR MORE JEWS THREE MILES FROM ISDUD, BELOW TEL AVIV. THE ARAB LEGION SAID IT KILLED AT LEAST 100 AT BAB EL WAD GORGE NEAR LATRUN. THE SYRIANS SAID THEY TOOK MISHMAR HAY YARDEN, IN UPPER GALILEE.

AS PEACE DESCENDED, THE JEWS HELD THEIR WHOLE PARTITION STATE EXCEPT PARTS OF THE NEGEB DESERT IN THE SOUTH. IN ARAB PALESTINE, THEY HAD JAFFA, A WEDGE BETWEEN TEL AVIV AND LATRUN, NEARLY ALL OF MODERN JERUSALEM AND 1,200 SQUARE MILES OF WESTERN GALILEE. THEY CLAIMED 200 ARAB VILLAGES. THE ARABS HAD QUIT SAFAD AND TIBERIAS.

THE JEWS SAID THEY HELD 1,200 ARAB PRISONERS AND THAT THE ARABS HAD 625 OF THEIR MEN. THEY SAY THEY HAVE DESTROYED 20 ARAB PLANES IN THE FOUR WEEKS OF FIGHTING AT THE LOSS OF TWO.

THE ARAB LEAGUE WILL MEET MONDAY. ARAB LEADERS SAID THEY DID NOT EXPECT PEACE TALKS ON RHODES TO START BEFORE A WEEK.

A CRUCIAL DEBATE WAS ON IN THE FRENCH NATIONAL ASSEMBLY OVER ACCEPTANCE OF THE SIX-POWER PLAN TO ESTABLISH A FEDERAL GOVERNMENT IN WESTERN GERMANY. THE EXTREME RIGHT AND COMMUNISTS ASSAILED THE PLAN. OBSERVERS FORECAST PASSAGE BY A NARROW MARGIN WHEN THE TALK DIES DOWN LATE TOMORROW.

THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG ALREADY HAVE APPROVED. THE RUSSIANS AND GERMAN COMMUNISTS KEPT UP A STEADY BARRAGE AGAINST THE PROPOSAL.

THE DANISH PASSENGER SHIP KJOEBENHAVN STRUCK A MINE AND SANK IN THE KATTEGAT. HOURS LATER, 150 OF THE 400 ABOARD WERE STILL MISSING.

SEN. VANDENBERG, THE MICHIGAN REPUBLICAN, SOUGHT IN THE SENATE TO PAVE THE WAY FOR U.S. MILITARY AND POLITICAL SUPPORT TO NON-COMMUNIST EUROPE. A RESOLUTION HE PRESENTED PROPOSED U.S. PARTICIPATION IN DEFENSE PACTS SUCH AS THE FIVE-POWER BRUSSELS ACCORD, CREATION OF AN ARMED U.N. FORCE, UNIVERSAL REGULATION AND REDUCTION OF ARMS, AND ELIMINATION OF THE VETO IN THE U.N.

THE U.N. ITSELF REFUSED TO ACT ON RUSSIA'S OFFER TO SEND SOVIET ARMY OBSERVERS INTO PALESTINE. THE DUTCH HINTED THEY WOULD BOYCOTT DEBATE ON INDONESIA. THE SECURITY COUNCIL TACKLED ATOMIC ENERGY CONTROL, BLOCKED FOR MANY MONTHS BY RUSSIAN-U.S. DIFFERENCES.

WASHINGTON,JUNE 11-(AP)-AN ISRAEL SPOKESMAN SAID TODAY HIS COUNTRYMEN WILL REJECT THE NEW TRUCE WITH THE ARABS IF IT IS CARRIED OUT SO AS "TO APPEASE THE ARAB AGGRESSORS."

ELIAHU EPSTEIN, SPECIAL REPRESENTATIVE HERE OF THE ISRAELI PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT, SAID IN A STATEMENT:

"COUNT FOLKE BERNADOTTE, THE UNITED NATIONS MEDIATOR, UNQUESTIONABLY EXCEEDED THE AUTHORITY GIVEN TO HIM BY THE SECURITY COUNCIL WHEN HE LAID DOWN A SERIES OF UNAUTHORIZED RESTRICTIONS ON THE IMMIGRATION TO ISRAEL OF MEN OF MILITARY AGE.

"IN THE INTERESTS OF PEACE ISRAEL ACCEPTED THESE RESTRICTIONS JUST AS IT HAS COOPERATED IN EVERY OTHER EFFORT OF THE UNITED NATIONS TO SETTLE EXISTING DIFFERENCES AMICABLY.

"BUT IF THE TRUCE TERMS ARE ADMINISTERED IN SUCH A WAY AS TO APPEASE THE ARAB AGGRESSORS AND DISCRIMINATE AGAINST THE JEWISH DEFENDERS, THERE CAN BE NO DOUBT THAT PUBLIC OPINION IN ISRAEL WILL REJECT THE TRUCE."

GRINNELL, IA., JUNE 11-(AP)-A ZIONIST LEADER TONIGHT PREDICTED THAT A CAMPAIGN WILL BE LAUNCHED IN THE NEXT FEW WEEKS TO INDUCE THE NEW STATE OF ISRAEL" TO GIVE UP THE NEGEV WITH THE PART OF AKABA ON THE RED SEA."

ELIAHU BEN-HORIN, ADVISER ON MIDDLE EASTERN AFFAIRS FOR THE AMERICAN ZIONIST EMERGENCY COUNNCIL, SAID IN AN ADDRESS PREPARED FOR DELIVERY AT AN EVENING SESSION OF THE NATIONAL CONFERENCE FOR THE PREVENTION OF WORLD WAR 3 THAT THE MOVE WILL BE "LAUNCHED BY GREAT BRITAIN AND SUPPORTED ON THE QUIET BY THE ("UNITED STATES) STATE DEPARTMENT."

"THIS CAMPAIGN IS DOOMED TO FAILURE," HE SAID. "ISRAEL CANNOT AGREE TO SUCH A DEAL FOR THE SIMPLE REASON THAT THE NEGEV IS THE ONLY WIDE UNDEVELOPMENT AREA THERE IS FOR COLONIZATION. NOR COULD ISRAEL BE FORCED AGAINST ITS WILL TO ACCEPT SUUCH A DEAL."

BEN-HORIN FURTHER PREDICTED THAT "WHETHER THE ONE MONTH TRUCE WILL END IN AN AGREEMENT AND SETTLEMENT OF THE PALESTINE PROBLEM OR NOT," THE ARAB LEAGUE WILL BE SPLIT UP WITHIN SIX MONTHS BY THE ARAB-JEWISH WAR.

THE LEBANON, HE SAID, WOULD BE THE FIRST TO GO. "THEN THE OLD RIVALRY BETWEEN IBN SAUD AND ABDULLAH WILL COME TO A HEAD. THE JERUSALEM EX-MUFTI, BY THE WAY, HAS LOST THROUGH THIS WAR ALL HIS POSITIONS," HE DECLARED.

OMAR AZOUNI, REPRESENTATIVE OF THE ARAB HIGHER COMMITTEE, WHO SHARED THE PLATFORM WITH BEN-HORIN, OUTLINED THE ARAB STAND ON PALESTINE, AND SAID:

"ANY ATTEMPT, NO MATTER BY WHOM, TO BRING ABOUT A CHANGE CONTRARY TO THE WISHES AND NATIONAL ASPIRATIONS OF THE ARAB MAJORITY X X X IS X X X AN ACT OF AGGR

TO THE WISHES AND NATIONAL ASPIRATIONS OF THE ARAB MAJORITY X X X IS X X X AN ACT OF AGGRESSION, INTERVENTION OR ARMED REBELLION THAT SHOULD BE CONDEMNED BY THE WHOLE WORLD AND STAMPED OUT BY FORCE OF ARMS."

HE URGED THAT THE UNITED NATIONS "MAKE A SINCERE ATTEMPT TO FIND WHAT THE INDIGENOUS POPULATION OF PALESTINE ACTUALLY WANTS, BY HOLDING A PLEBISCITE."

Night Lead Bevin

By Glenn Williams JUN 1948

London, June 11--(ap)--Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin will not seek re-election from his present district in 1950, his office said today. A spokesman added that he doubtless will run in some other district.

The statement revived speculation that Bevin is about to retire from active politics. Bevin, one time strong man of British labor unions, will be 69 years old at the next election, tentatively set for May, 1950.

The [redacted] however, that spokesman said "there is no question [redacted] of Bevin retiring or even of being moved to the House of Lords where he would be available to the government for lighter work.

Boundary changes have been made in Bevin's present district, the London working class area of Wandsworth. Parts have gone to adjoining districts held by Labor members of Parliament. Bevin "does not wish to compete" with junior members of his party, the foreign office said.

Rumors that the foreign secretary was planning to retire have been current since the recent return to the cabinet of Hugh Dalton, long Bevin's rival for high Labor Party posts. 'Dalton was named chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster.

When Prime Minister Attlee was forming his government three years ago, most political observers in London believed Dalton was slated for the foreign office. Instead, in a reported last minute switch, he was given the treasury.

Some observers looked askance at the foreign office's explanation of Bevin's plans, particularly after the Labor Party headquarters said the announcement "is a mystery to us."

Those observers reasoned that Bevin, as a member of the 30.24- 18451

the government, would stand in a district known to be safe for his re-election if he was a candidate in 1950.

JUN 1948

Such a district would have an existing labor member who would have to sacrifice his seat for Bevin, working on that member the same hardship which Bevin is said to want to avoid. In Britain a candidate for parliament does not have to live in the district from which he seeks election.

LONDON, JUNE 11-(AP)-DAVID REES-WILLIAMS, UNDER SECRETARY FOR THE COLONIES, TODAY BLAMED A RECENT WAVE OF VIOLENCE IN MALAYA UPON EXTREMIST ELEMENTS CHALLENGING THE AUTHORITY OF THE GOVERNMENT.

HE TOLD THE HOUSE OF COMMONS THAT THOSE RESPONSIBLE ARE "ATTEMPTING TO UPSET THE ECONOMY OF THE COUNTRY BY FOMENTING LABOR DISPUTES, BY INTIMIDATION AND THE REPUDIATION OF CONCILIATION AND THE ORDERLY PROCESS OF INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS."

A RESPONSIBLE WHITEHALL OFFICIAL SAID EARLIER THAT COMMUNISTS IN MALAYA HAVE ORGANIZED A "CAMPAIGN OF VIOLENCE" WHICH HAS REACHED THE SCALE OF A "RESISTANCE MOVEMENT." QUESTIONED IN THE HOUSE, REES-WILLIAMS DECLINED TO SAY WHETHER THE VIOLENCE WAS COMMUNIST-INSPIRED.

REES-WILLIAMS REPORTED THAT IN RECENT WEEKS "THERE HAVE BEEN AT LEAST 13 SERIOUS INCIDENTS IN MALAYA, INCLUDING 10 MURDERS AND THREE ATTACKS ON EUROPEAN MANAGERS OF ESTATES."

"ENERGETIC STEPS HAVE BEEN TAKEN TO INTENSIFY EXISTING POLICE MOBILE CONTROLS AND ROAD BLOCKS IN THE AFFECTED DISTRICTS AND FURTHER STRENGTHEN POLICE RESERVES IN THE STRATEGIC AREAS," HE SAID.

HE ADDED THAT COLONIAL SECRETARY ARTHUR CREECH JONES IS CONSIDERING ADDITIONAL MEASURES "FOR DEALING WITH THOSE RESPONSIBLE FOR CRIMINAL INTIMIDATION."

ALES, FRANCE, JUNE 11-(AP)-AN INTERNATIONAL LIAISON BODY FOR THE SILK TRADE WAS CREATED HERE TODAY AT THE END OF AN INTERNATIONAL SILK CONGRESS, BUT WITHOUT JAPAN'S PARTICIPATION.
R.HICKERSON, AMERICAN SUPERVISOR TO THE JAPANESE DELEGATION, SAID THAT JAPAN'S PARTICIPATION COULD NOT BE CONSIDERED AT PRESENT.
THE NEW BODY, CALLED THE "PROVISIONAL PERMANENT COMMISSION OF INTERNATIONAL SILK CONGRESSES" WOULD CONSIST OF ALL CHIEFS OF DELEGATIONS. ITS MAIN OBJECT WILL BE:
1. TO PURSUE ACTIVELY WAYS AND MEANS TO IMPROVE PRODUCTION AND QUALITY.
2. TO MAINTAIN WHEREVER NECESSARY "ECONOMIC EXPEDIENTS" TO SUPPORT THE INDUSTRY UNTIL TECHNICAL IMPROVEMENTS ENABLE IT TO COMPETE SUCCESSFULLY WITH ARTIFICIAL TEXTILES.
TO THAT END DELEGATES ASKED THE CREATION OF AN INTERNATIONAL BODY IMMEDIATELY. THE FRENCH DELEGATE PROPOSED THAT THE NEW BODY BE IN CLOSE CONTACT WITH THE UNITED NATIONS FOOD AND AGRICULTURE ORGANIZATION. THIS WAS UNANIMOUSLY ADOPTED, AND THE SITE OF THE PROVISIONAL PERMANENT COMMISSION OF INTERNATIONAL SILK CONGRESSES WAS FIXED HERE.

The Hague, The Netherlands, June 11--(ap)--Erwine Van Meeverden, pretty 24-year-old private secretary in the Dutch ministry of economic affairs, got one cable and four letters from citizens of Hartford, Conn., on a plea for help she sent to the Mayor of Hartford.

JUN 1948

Following the advice of a her Dutch boyfriend, she asked the Mayor for help in finding a sponsor who could arrange to have her enter the United States.

"Since the day I was freed after three years from a Japanese concentration camp in Batavia," Miss Van Meverden said, "I vainly tried to get immigration certificates for the United States, a country which I admire for its splendid behavior in the second world war."

When no one could help her in Java, she left her parents and sister there and went alone to the Hague. She was born in Holland The Netherlands but had never seen the [illegible] country before.

PROUDLY SHE SHOWED A CABLE AND A LETTER. THE CABLE SHE SAID WAS FROM A MR. BURLINGAME OF HARTFORD. THE LETTER SHE SAID WAS WAS FROM 21-YEAR-OLD "SINGLE AND NOT MARRIED" TREE SURGEON WILLIAM R. CREWFORD WHO PROMISED HIS HELP.

ONE OF THE OTHER LETTERS, THE GIRL SAID, CAME FROM THE STOVE PIPES AND ELBOWS FIRM OF ARTHUR HAHN.

NIGHT LEAD CHINESE

BY HAROLD K. MILKS

NANKING, JUNE 11-(AP)-PREMIER WONG WEN-HAO SAID TODAY SOUTH CHINA IS BEING CONVERTED INTO A VAST ARSENAL "TO CARRY THE FIGHT BACK INTO NORTH CHINA AND MANCHURIA."

THE LITTLE SCIENTIST BROUGHT APPLAUSE FROM A HOSTILE LEGISLATURE WHEN, IN HIS FIRST FORMAL POLICY REPORT, HE DECLARED:

"DURING THE WAR AGAINST JAPAN WE MADE WEST CHINA OUR BASE FROM WHICH TO FIGHT EASTWARD.

"IN THE SAME WAY WE ARE RECONSTRUCTING SOUTH CHINA IN ORDER TO PROVIDE STRONG RESERVES OF MATERIALS, FOOD AND MANPOWER WITH WHICH TO CARRY THE FIGHT BACK INTO NORTH CHINA AND MANCHURIA."

WONG DID NOT WIN HIS OPPONENTS OVER ENTIRELY, HOWEVER. LEGISLATORS BEGAN ASSAILING PARTS OF HIS STATEMENT AS SOON AS HE LEFT THE ROSTRUM.

SOME WERE UNEASY OVER WONG'S ANNOUNCEMENT EARLIER THIS WEEK THAT MANY FACTORIES WOULD BE MOVED FROM NORTH CHINA TO THE SOUTH.

WONG EMPHASIZED AT THE OUTSET THAT THE GOVERNMENT HAD NO IDEA OF ABANDONING NORTH CHINA TO THE COMMUNISTS. HE SAID, HOWEVER, THAT IT WOULD TAKE TWO YEARS OR MORE TO ACHIEVE VICTORY.

OTHER POINTS OF HIS PROGRAM WERE LAND REFORM, MODERN FARMING, CURRENCY REFORM, CAREFUL ADMINISTRATION OF U. S. AID, AND A FOREIGN POLICY BASED ON FRIENDSHIP WITH THE UNITED STATES, SUPPORT OF THE UNITED NATIONS AND OPPOSITION TO ANY REBUILDING OF JAPAN'S AGGRESSIVE POWERS.

ONE LEGISLATOR, FOLLOWING WONG TO THE SPEAKER'S STAND, ATTACKED CHINA'S "WEAK FOREIGN POLICY". HE SAID IT WAS TIME "WE DISOWN SOVIET RUSSIA'S FRIENDSHIP."

ANOTHER DECLARED THE FOREIGN MINISTRY "MUST MAKE A NEW STATEMENT AGAINST (U. S. AMBASSADOR) STUART'S MEDDLING IN OUR INTERNAL AFFAIRS (REFERRING TO THE STUART STATEMENT AGAINST CHINESE STUDENT AGITATION.)"

A THIRD CRITICIZED WONG FOR SAYING NOTHING ABOUT "ENDING CORRUPTION IN OUR ARMIES." THE LAWMAKER SAID ONE FIELD ARMY WAS "SO BAD IT IS LITTLE MORE THAN A TRANSPORT UNIT CARRYING AMERICAN ARMS TO THE REDS."

EJ832PCS

WONG PREVIOUSLY ANNOUNCED PLANS TO TRANSFER UNSPECIFIED FACTORIES FROM NORTH TO SOUTH CHINA OUT OF COMMUNIST REACH.

ONE HUNDRED THIRTY-TWO LEGISLATORS REQUESTED OPPORTUNITY TO CRITICIZE THE PREMIER'S REPORT, WHICH ALSO SET FORTH THESE NEW POINTS OF HIS PROGRAM:

SUPPORT OF THE UNITED NATIONS, FRIENDSHIP WITH THE UNITED STATES, CLOSER TIES WITH INDIA, AND OPPOSITION OF ANY EFFORT TO REBUILD JAPAN'S AGGRESSIVE POWERS.

YOKOHAMA,JUNE 11-(AP)-U.S. ARMY AGENTS RECENTLY BROKE UP THREE ATTEMPTS TO SMUGGLE $35,000 WORTH OF GOODS INTO JAPAN, THE PROVOST MARSHAL'S OFFICE REPORTED TODAY.

THE ILLICIT SHIPMENTS WERE TRACED TO AN INTERNATIONAL SMUGGLING RING OPERATING OUT OF HONG KONG.

THE PROVOST MARSHAL SAID ROBERT MAULDIN, MASTER OF THE AMERICAN FREIGHTER FLYING ARROW, WAS FINED $1,000 IN THE YOKOHAMA PROVOST COURT MAY 30 IN A SMUGGLING CASE. THE STATEMENT SAID AGENTS FOUND 10,095 VIALS OF PENICILLIN WHEN MAULDIN'S SHIP ARRIVED FROM HONG KONG.

ON MAY 26, CRIMINAL INVESTIGATION DIVISION AGENTS BOARDED THE FOOTCHOW, MANNED BY BRITISH OFFICERS WITH A CHINESE CREW. THEY SEIZED 450 POUNDS OF SACCHARINE AND A LARGE QUANTITY OF PENICILLIN. THE FOOTCHOW ALSO CAME HERE FROM HONG KONG.

A JAPANESE FISHING VESSEL WAS INVOLVED IN THE THIRD SMUGGLING CASE.

ALTOGETHER, THE PROVOST MARSHAL SAID, INVESTIGATORS RECOVERED 14,734 VIALS OF PENICILLIN, 809 VIALS OF STREPTOMYCIN, 2,209 POUNDS OF SACCHARINE, 35 POUNDS OF LIGHTER FLINTS, TWO CASES OF CIGARETTES AND HUNDREDS OF DOLLARS WORTH OF AMERICAN-MADE PLASTIC GOODS.

SANTIAGO, CHILE, JUNE 11-(AP)-U.S.AMBASSADOR CLAUDE BOWERS SAID TODAY ECONOMIC ADVANCEMENT IN LATIN AMERICA REQUIRES A MAXIMUM EFFORT FROM EVERY NATION.

HE SPOKE AS THE CHIEF U.S.DELEGATE AT A MEETING OF THE ECONOMIC COMMISSION FOR LATIN AMERICA.

BOWERS JOINED BRITISH AND FRENCH SPOKESMEN IN DENYING THAT THE LARGE INDUSTRIAL COUNTRIES ARE OPPOSED TO THE INDUSTRIALIZATION OF THE LATIN AMERICAN NATIONS.

"IN OUR OPINION," BOWERS SAID, "THE INDUSTRIALIZATION OF THE LATIN AMERICAN NATIONS AND THE MECHANIZATION OF THEIR AGRICULTURE WILL ENHANCE THE PROSPERITY OF ALL OTHER NATIONS OF THE WORLD."

NIGHT LEAD FOREIGN (630)
BY ED CREAGH
WASHINGTON, JUNE 11-(AP)-THE "FATHER" AND THE "BOSS" OF THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM SAID TODAY THAT THE PROGRAM FACES RUIN IF SPENDING CUTS VOTED BY THE HOUSE ARE ALLOWED TO STAND.

SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL SAID THE 16-NATION RECOVERY EFFORT WILL BE A "CALCULATED RISK FOR FAILURE" UNLESS THE SENATE SUCCEEDS IN RESTORING MOST OF THE HOUSE CUTS.

AND PAUL G.HOFFMAN, ADMINISTRATOR OF THE PROGRAM, SAID THE CUTS WOULD PRACTICALLY WIPE OUT "THE MOST PRODUCTIVE AND THE MOST FAR-REACHING PART"--PUTTING EUROPEAN INDUSTRY BACK ON ITS FEET.

MARSHALL, WHO FIRST PROPOSED THE RECOVERY PLAN A YEAR AGO THIS MONTH, AND HOFFMAN APPEARED BEFORE THE SENATE APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE.

SEVERAL REPUBLICAN AND DEMOCRATIC MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE SAID THE GROUP WILL VOTE TO PUT BACK MOST OF THE MONEY WHICH THE HOUSE TOOK OUT OF THE FIRST-YEAR BUDGET FOR THE "MARSHALL PLAN," NOW KNOWN AS THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION (ECA).

HOFFMAN TOLD THE SENATORS THIS CUT AMOUNTED TO $1,433,000,000 (B). HE AND MARSHALL WERE AMONG THE LAST TO TESTIFY BEFORE THE SENATE GROUP ENDED PUBLIC HEARINGS ON THE QUESTION.

EARLIER WITNESSES INCLUDED SENATOR VANDENBERG (R-MICH), WHO IS LEADING THE FIGHT TO GET THE FULL ASSISTANCE PROGRAM VOTED, AND HAROLD E.STASSEN, A CANDIDATE FOR THE REPUBLICAN PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATION. STASSEN BACKED VANDENBERG'S STAND.

WITH THE FUNDS FIGHT APPROACHING A CLIMAX, THE STATE DEPARTMENT OPENED NEGOTIATIONS WITH THE MARSHALL PLAN COUNTRIES ON AGREEMENTS COVERING (1) WHAT THE U.S.WILL GIVE OR LOAN THE EUROPEAN COUNTRIES, AND (2) WHAT THOSE COUNTRIES WILL DO FOR THEMSELVES AND FOR EACH OTHER.

SIR OLIVER FRANKS, THE NEW BRITISH AMBASSADOR, AND WILLARD THORPE, ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE, TOOK PART IN THE FIRST SUCH SESSION. FRANKS DESCRIBED THE 75-MINUTE MEETING AS "SATISFACTORY." HE TOLD NEWSMEN HE EXPECTED MOST DIFFERENCES OF OPINION TO BE SETTLED QUICKLY. BUT HE ADDED THAT IT WOULD BE SURPRISING IF ONE OR TWO POINTS DO NOT REQUIRE SERIOUS NEGOTIATION.

MARSHALL ADDRESSED THE SENATE GROUP TODAY WITHOUT A PREPARED STATEMENT.

SENATOR KNOWLAND (R-CALIF) ASKED THE SECRETARY IF THE FAILURE OF CONGRESS TO SUPPLY FULL FUNDS TO ECA WOULD UNDERMINE THE CONFIDENCE OF EUROPEAN COUNTRIES IN U.S.GOOD INTENTIONS.

MARSHALL QUICKLY SAID YES. "IT IS THE CRUX OF THE WHOLE THING," HE SAID. "IF THEY FEEL THEY CANNOT DEPEND ON US, WE WILL HAVE LEFT THEM IN A PERILOUS STATE OF MIND."

AND MARSHALL ADDED, IN OBVIOUS REFERENCE TO THE SOVIET UNION, THAT FEW AMERICANS REALIZE WHAT COURAGE THE WESTERN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES SHOWED BY GOING AHEAD WITH ECA "IN THE FACE OF FORMIDABLE AND THREATENING OPPOSITION FROM THE STRONGEST COUNTRY IN EUROPE."

SUMMING UP THEIR VIEWS, MARSHALL CALLED THE HOUSE CUTS "WASTEFUL, UNJUSTIFIED AND DANGEROUS" WHILE HOFFMAN SAID THEY WERE "UNWISE AND SHORTSIGHTED."

HOFFMAN TOLD THE SENATORS THE HOUSE-APPROVED APPROPRIATION WOULD MEAN SLASHING MACHINERY SHIPMENTS FROM $1,100,000,000 (B) TO $100,000,000(M). AND LARGE-SCALE SHIPMENTS ARE NEEDED NOW, THE ECA HEAD SAID, ADDING:

"THE EMERGENCY IS HERE. OUR RATE OF EXPENDITURE DURING THE NEXT SIX MONTHS WILL DETERMINE WHETHER WE ARE NOW LAUNCHING A TRUE RECOVERY PROGRAM."

THE APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE CALLED HOFFMAN, ALONG WITH SEVERAL MILITARY LEADERS, FOR FURTHER TESTIMONY TOMORROW--IN PRIVATE. CHAIRMAN BRIDGES (R-NH)SAID HE HOPES THE COMMITTEE'S REPORT CAN BE COMPLETED MONDAY.

THEN THE SENATE AS A WHOLE WILL HAVE TO ACT. IF ITS APPROPRIATION BILL DIFFERS FROM THE HOUSE-APPROVED ONE, THE PROBLEM OF COMPROMISING SENATE-HOUSE DIFFERENCES WILL ARISE. THE COMMONEST GUESS ON CAPITOL HILL TODAY WAS THAT ECA WON'T GET ALL IT WANTS BUT WILL GET MUCH MORE THAN THE HOUSE VOTED.

ECA HAS BEEN GOING ON THE ASSUMPTION IT WILL GET $5,300,000,000(B) FOR THE FIRST YEAR, THE AMOUNT "AUTHORIZED" BY CONGRESS IN MARCH. THE HOUSE BILL CUTS THE TOTAL AND REQUIRES THE MONEY TO LAST THREE ADDITIONAL MONTHS. IT MAKES SIMILAR CUTS IN SEVERAL OTHER FOREIGN SPENDING PROGRAMS.

IN ANOTHER ECA DEVELOPMENT, H.STRUVE HENSEL, FORMER ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF THE NAVY, WAS NAMED CONSULTANT TO AGENCY ON "POSSIBLE FUTURE ECA ACTIVITIES" IN SOUTH AMERICA.

HENSEL WILL LEAVE SOON FOR BUENOS AIRES. HIS APPOINTMENT CAME ONLY TWO DAYS AFTER RICHARD BISSELL, ECA ASSISTANT DEPUTY ADMINISTRATOR, SAID THE UNITED STATES WILL NOT FINANCE ANY PURCHASES FOR EUROPE IN ARGENTINA "FOR SOME LITTLE TIME."

THERE WAS NO INDICATION WHETHER HENSEL'S TRIP MEANT A CHANGE IN THIS POLICY. BISSELL SAID WEDNESDAY THAT IMPROVED CROP PROSPECTS HERE AND IN EUROPE REDUCES THE NEED FOR WHEAT BUYING IN THE ARGENTINE. OFFICIALS SAID PRIVATELY THEY REGARDED ARGENTINA'S WHEAT PRICES AS TOO HIGH.

ANOTHER WITNESS, ALBERT C.GOSS, MASTER OF THE NATIONAL GRANGE, ALSO URGED A RETURN TO THE FULL ECA PROGRAM. GOSS, JUST BACK FROM EUROPE, ALSO TOLD THE SENATORS:

"WE MUST GET AN ECONOMIC BALANCE IN EUROPE BY BUILDING GERMAN PRODUCTION. IF WE MONKEY ALONG IN A HALF-HEARTED SORT OF WAY, IT WILL NOT HAVE THE EFFECT WE WANT AND RECOVERY WILL TAKE A LONG, LONG TIME."

WASHINGTON, JUNE 11-(AP)-THE 11-NATION FAR EASTERN COMMISSION WAS REPORTED INCLINED TODAY TO LIFT A POST-WAR BAN ON THE TRAVEL OF JAPANESE STUDENTS ABROAD.

WITH RUSSIA NOT VOTING, THE REST OF THE COMMISSION UNANIMOUSLY APPROVED A RESOLUTION WHICH (1) AUTHORIZES MEMBERS OF GENERAL DOUGLAS MACARTHUR'S OCCUPATION STAFF TO ATTEND INTER-GOVERNMENTAL CONFERENCES AS NON-VOTING OBSERVERS AND (2) PERMITS JAPANESE "TECHNICIANS" ALSO TO ATTEND WHEN THE ALLIED SUPREME COMMANDER APPROVES.

MEMBERS SAID THE UNITED STATES PLEDGED THAT THE COMMISSION WILL BE ADVISED OF ANY REQUEST MADE TO MACARTHUR'S HEADQUARTERS FOR DELEGATIONS

WITH VOTING POWERS.
A PROPOSAL TO AUTHORIZE JAPANESE TRAVEL ABROAD FOR EDUCATIONAL AND CULTURAL PURPOSES IS PENDING AND IS EXPECTED TO COME UP FOR CONSIDERATION NEXT WEEK. IT PROVIDES FOR SCREENING OF INDIVIDUALS AND LITTLE OPPOSITION TO IT HAS BEEN MADE EVIDENT.
ALSO PENDING IS A THIRD PROPOSAL, WHICH WOULD AUTHORIZE FOREIGN TRAVEL FOR BUSINESS PURPOSES. MEMBERS SAID OBJECTIONS TO THIS ALREADY HAVE BEEN VOICED BY REPRESENTATIVES OF SEVERAL OF THE ALLIED PACIFIC NATIONS BECAUSE OF RESTRICTIONS PUT BY MACARTHUR ON THE VISITS OF ALLIED BUSINESSMEN TO JAPAN.
CRITICS ARGUED IT WOULD BE ILLOGICAL TO GIVE PRIVILEGES TO THE JAPANESE WHICH ARE DENIED ALLIED BUSINESSMEN. ON THIS BASIS THEY FORECAST OUTSPOKEN OPPOSITION TO THE TRADE TRAVEL PROPOSAL IN ITS PRESENT FORM.
THE COMMISSION MAKES DECISIONS BY A MAJORITY VOTE BUT EACH OF THE BIG FOUR--THE UNITED STATES, RUSSIA, BRITAIN AND CHINA--HAS THE VETO POWER.

DRAFT-POOL (140)
WASHINGTON,JUNE 10-(AP)-THE CENSUS BUREAU ESTIMATED TODAY THERE ARE 2,585,000 NON-VETERANS AGED 19 THROUGH 25. THIS IS THE GROUP THAT WILL BE TAPPED FOR MILITARY SERVICE UNDER THE SENATE-PASSED DRAFT BILL.
WHITES OUTNUMBER OTHERS ABOUT 5 TO 1.
THE BUREAU DID NOT ATTEMPT TO SAY HOW MANY OF THE 2,585,000 HAVE DEPENDENTS OR TAKE INTO ACCOUNT PHYSICAL AND OTHER FACTORS WHICH MIGHT LEAD TO DEFERMENTS.
IT LISTED THE NUMBER OF WHITES AS 2,126,000 AND THE NUMBER OF NON-WHITES AS 459,000.
THE BUREAU ESTIMATED THE TOTAL MALE CIVILIAN POPULATION IN THE 19 THROUGH 25 AGE BRACKET AT 7,783,000 AS OF LAST APRIL 1, AND SAID ANOTHER 592,000 IN THIS AGE GROUP ALREADY ARE IN THE ARMED FORCES.
ABOUT TWO OUT OF EVERY THREE IN THE 19 TO 25 BRACKET ARE WORLD WAR 2 VETERANS, MAKING THE TOTAL IN THAT CLASS 5,198,000, THE BUREAU SAID.
IN THE TOTAL VETERAN AND NON-VETERAN MALE POPULATION 19 TO 25, IT SAID WHITES (7,428,000) OUTNUMBERED OTHERS (947,000) ALMOST 8 TO 1.

(ADVANCE) (WX) IOWA CITY, IOWA,JUNE 11-(AP)-AMERICA'S CONTROL OF ATOMIC ENERGY IS FORCING THIS NATION TO PIONEER POLITICALLY AS WELL AS SCIENTIFICALLY, W.W.WAYMACK OF THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION SAID TONIGHT.
THE COMMISSIONER FROM WASHINGTON, ADDRESSING A SUMMER SESSION OF THE STATE UNIVERSITY OF IOWA, SAID THE UNITED STATES IS TRYING TO ESTABLISH WORLD CONTROL OF ATOMIC ENERGY BY "CUTTING STRAIGHT ACROSS LINES OF NATIONAL SOVIEREIGNTY."
SO FAR, HE SAID, THE EFFORTS HAVE MET WITH "COMPLETE NON-SUCCESS."
"CONTROL INCLUDES GOVERNMENT MONOPOLY AND QUEER 'COMPANY TOWNS' AND AN 'IRON CURTAIN' OF SECRECY OVER PART OF THE OPERATION," HE SAID. "THERE ARE PROBLEMS OF DEMOCRACY ITSELF IN THIS, PROBLEMS OF THE 'LIBERTIES WE PRIZE', PROBLEMS THAT GO INDEED TO THE HEART OF THE AMERICAN WAY.
"AS A NATION WE ARE PIONEERING POLITICALLY AS WELL AS SCIENTIFICALLY AND TECHNICALLY, BECAUSE THERE IS NO CHOICE--WE HAVE TO PIONEER."
TODAY, HE SAID, INDUSTRY IS BEGINNING TO USE ATOMIC ENERGY OR ITS PRODUCTS IN MANY WAYS.
HE WARNED THAT MUCH REMAINS TO BE DONE, AND SAID WE ARE "PAST THE STAGE AT WHICH REALLY SIGNIFICANT DISCOVERIES CAN BE MADE BY LUCK OR ACCIDENT."
HE SAID ATOMIC ENERGY IS A WEAPON, AN INDUSTRY, A SOURCE OF POWER AND MAN'S "NEW TOOL" THAT MAY COMPLETELY CHANGE CIVILIZATION.
"CLEARLY IT IS POSSIBLE TO PUT NUCLEAR ENERGY, AS HEAT, IN HARNESS AND MAKE IT A GIGANTIC WORK-HORSE."
SO FAR, HE SAID USES HAVE BEEN FOUND FOR BY-PRODUCTS OF ATOMIC ENERGY BY THE RAYON INDUSTRY, THE PETROLEUM INDUSTRY, THE SOAP INDUSTRY, AND SCORES OF OTHERS. AGRICULTURE HAS BEEN AIDED, HE SAID.
"YOU SEE, WE ARE ALREADY IN THE ATOMIC AGE, IN THE SENSE THAT MANY APPLICATIONS ARE BEING MADE ALL AROUND US. EVERY MONTH BRINGS NEW ONES."

DUNKIRK, N.Y., JUNE 11-(AP)-A GRASS ROOTS PROGRAM FOR PROMOTING GOOD WILL AMONG THE WORLD'S "LITTLE PEOPLE" WAS SOUGHT TODAY AT A "NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF TOWN AFFILIATION" (CAPS).

HOST FOR THE THREE-DAY CONFERENCE WAS THE DUNKIRK SOCIETY, WHICH RAISED $425,000 WORTH OF SUPPLIES FOR THE PEOPLE OF POLAND; DUNQUERQUE, FRANCE, AND ANZIO, ITALY.

PRESENT AT THE OPENING SESSION WERE 60 DELEGATES OF OTHER COMMUNITIES AND RELIEF AGENCIES INTERESTED IN SIMILAR "TOWN AFFILIATION" PROJECTS.

THE VERY REV.LESLIE F.CHARD, PRESIDENT OF THE DUNKIRK SOCIETY, TOLD THE DELEGATES:

"THE PURPOSE OF OUR CONFERENCE IS TO SHARE OUR EXPERIENCES, ANALYZE ONE ANOTHER'S METHODS, POOL IDEAS AND TECHNIQUES AND PERHAPS EFFECT A NATIONAL ORGANIZATION OF THE VARIOUS CIVIC GROUPS INTERESTED IN THE CAUSE OF INTERNATIONAL UNDERSTANDING AND UNIVERSAL BROTHERHOOD."

FATHER CHARD ACKNOWLEDGED THAT "THIS MAY SEEM AN AMBITIOUS UNDERTAKING," BUT DECLARED:

"THE EVENTS OF THE PAST 18 MONTHS HAVE DEMONSTRATED CONCLUSIVELY THAT PEOPLE-TO-PEOPLE FRIENDLINESS IS A WORKABLE IDEAL, THAT THE LITTLE PEOPLE OF THE WORLD, UNFETTERED BY THE DEVIOUS WORKINGS OF OFFICIAL DIPLOMACY AND STATE-CRAFT, CAN LEARN TO UNDERSTAND AND APPRECIATE ONE ANOTHER."

CHARLES L.TODD, NEW YORK CITY, EXECUTIVE SECRETARY OF OPERATION DEMOCRACY, INC., CO-SPONSORS OF THE CONFERENCE, NOTED THAT ABOUT "200 OR MORE AMERICAN COMMUNITIS" HAVE EITHER "ADOPTED" FOREIGN CITIES OR WERE CONTEMPLATING SUCH TOWN AFFILIATION PROJECTS.

"A WONDERFUL IDEA HAS COME ALONG," SAID TODD.

"TOWN AFFILIATION RUNS INTO A LOT OF PROBLEMS. WE FEEL THAT 200 OR MORE AMERICAN COMMUNITIES CAN'T BE WRONG AND THEY CAN FOSTER A HOPE FOR PEACE THROUGH REHABILITATION."

WALLACE A.BRENNAN, EDITOR OF THE DUNKIRK EVENING OBSERVER AND ORIGINATOR OF THE "DUNKIRK TO DUNKERQUE" PLAN, SUGGESTED A NATIONWIDE ORGANIZATION TO "CONSOLIDATE OUR EFFORTS."

"WHERE WHOLE NATIONS NEED HELP, WHY SINGLE OUT THE FEW FORTUNATE COMMUNITIES WHICH CAN ESTABLISH AN OVERSEAS ALLIANCE?" SAID BRENNAN.

"IT IS ALSO A FACT THAT THESE CITY RELIEF GESTURES HAVE PRODUCED USED CLOTHING AND FOODSTUFFS AND RELATIVELY LITTLE CASH. THE NEED FOR THE IMMEDIATE RELIEF IN THINGS IS PASSING, WHEREAS THE NEED FOR MONEY TO PURCHASE THE TOOLS OF REHABILITATION IS GREAT INDEED.

"IS IT NOT MORE SCIENTIFIC AND FRUITFUL X X X TO CONSOLIDATE OUR EFFORTS IN NATIONAL MONEY DRIVES?"

CHICAGO, JUNE 11-(AP)-A JEWISH DOCTOR HAD THE CIRCUIT COURT SET ASIDE TODAY A WARTIME DIVORCE HE OBTAINED FROM HIS ARYAN WIFE TO SAVE HER FROM HARM IN GERMANY.

DR. ALFRED PETER EISENSTAEDT, 60,A PEDIATRICIAN, OBTAINED THE DIVORCE IN BREMEN, GERMANY, JUNE 4, 1941, WHILE HE WAS LIVING IN CUBA.

HE SAID REINSTATEMENT OF HIS MARRIAGE BY JUDGE WILLIAM V.BROTHERS WILL ENABLE HIM TO BRING HIS WIFE, TONI, 50, AND A SON, DIETER, 23 TO THE UNITED STATES.

THE DOCTOR WAS SENT TO THE SACHSENHUSEN CONCENTRATION CAMP JAN. 25, 1939, BECAUSE OF HIS JEWISH ANCESTRY. HE WAS RELEASED AFTER SEVERAL MONTHS BECAUSE HE HAD WON THE IRON CROSS, FIRST CLASS, IN WORLD WAR ONE.

HE FLED TO CUBA, HE RELATED. THROUGH THE UNDERGROUND HE LEARNED THE NAZIS HAD THREATENED TO PLACE HIS WIFE AND CHILDREN IN A CONCENTRATION CAMP UNLESS MRS.EISENSTAEDT DIVORCED HIM. SHE REFUSED AND THEIR DAUGHTER, GISELLE, NOW 24, WAS IMPRISONED FOR NINE MONTHS.

THE DOCTOR SAID HE THEN ARRANGED FOR THE BREMEN DIVORCE ON GROUND OF DESERTION. THEN HE CAME TO THE UNITED STATES AND BECAME A CITIZEN IN 1946.

JUDGE BROTHERS RULED THE DIVORCE WAS FRAUDULENT BECAUSE IT WAS OBTAINED UNDER DURESS AND THE DOCTOR DID NOT DESERT HIS WIFE BUT WAS FORCED TO FLEE HIS HOMELAND.

THE UNITED NATIONS ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION VOTED 9 TO 2 ON MAY 17 TO SUSPEND WORK ON ATOMIC CONTROLS. IN EFFECT IT ASKED THE SECURITY COUNCIL AND THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY WHAT TO DO NEXT.

THE COMMISSION'S REPORT RECOMMENDED THAT IN VIEW OF ITS FAILURE TO AGREE ON CONTROLS NEGOTIATIONS SHOULD BE SUSPENDED UNTIL THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY FINDS THERE NO LONGER IS A DEADLOCK OR UNTIL THE SIX PERMANENT MEMBERS OF THE COMMISSION DECIDE THEY CAN AGREE.

THE SIX PERMANENT MEMBERS ARE FRANCE, CHINA, BRITAIN, RUSSIA, THE UNITED STATES AND CANADA.

THE FIRST REPORT OF THE COMMISSION, ADOPTED ON DEC.30, 1946, PROPOSED THE FRAMEWORK FOR AN INTERNATIONAL CONTROL AUTHORITY WHICH WOULD SUPERVISE ATOMIC ENERGY EVERYWHERE. IT PROPOSED THAT THE NATIONS WAIVE THE VETO RIGHT ON PUNISHMENT OF ATOMIC OFFENDERS. RUSSIA DISAPPROVED THIS REPORT BUT THE MAJORITY FAVORED IT. IT WAS BASED PRINCIPALLY ON THE CONTROL PLAN PUT UP ON JUNE 14, 1946, BY BERNARD M.BARUCH, UNITED STATES DELEGATE AT THAT TIME.

A SECOND REPORT WAS APPROVED, AGAIN OVER RUSSIAN OPPOSITION IN SEPT.1947. THIS DEALT WITH DETAILS OF SETTING UP AN INTERNATIONAL CONTROL AGENCY AND THE PROBLEM OF CONTROLS FROM THE MINE TO FINAL USE.

THE THIRD, AND LATEST, REPORT POINTED OUT THAT RUSSIA HAD NOT AGREED WITH THE MAJORITY EVEN ON TECHNICAL MATTERS. IT SAID THAT UNTIL THERE IS A CHANGE OF POSITIONS THERE IS NO USE CONTINUING.

INFORMED SOURCES SAID IF THE RUSSIANS SUCCEEDED IN KILLING THE THIRD REPORT IN THE SECURITY COUNCIL BY A VETO, THE UNITED STATES PLANS TO PUT THE WHOLE ISSUE BEFORE THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

UNITED NATIONS INTERPRETIVE (350)

BY LARRY HAUCK

LAKE SUCCESS, JUNE 11-(AP)-TRYGVE LIE'S CALL FOR VOLUNTEER INTERNATIONAL POLICE IS AN OFFICIAL ADMISSION THAT THE UNITED NATIONS CAN'T SUCCEED WITHOUT FORCE.

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL'S PROPOSAL, MADE YESTERDAY IN A SPEECH AT HARVARD UNIVERSITY, SPOTLIGHTS THE WEAKEST COG IN THE 58-NATION PEACE MACHINE--THE ABSENCE OF ARMED STRENGTH TO BACK UP DECISIONS.

THE U.N. CHARTER PROVIDES FOR INTERNATIONAL BIG-POWER CONTINGENTS TO DO SUCH A JOB. WHEN THE U.N. WAS FOUNDED THIS PROVISION WAS SINGLED OUT AS THE FACTOR WHICH WOULD MAKE THE U.N. WORK WHERE THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS FAILED.

BUT AFTER TWO AND A HALF YEARS OF BICKERING, MILITARY EXPERTS OF THE UNITED NATIONS, BRITAIN, RUSSIA, CHINA AND FRANCE HAVE BEEN UNABLE TO AGREE EVEN ON BASICC PRINCIPLES FOR ESTABLISHING THE FORCE. WITH THIS DEADLOCK CONFRONTING THE U.N., AND NO BREAK IN SIGHT, LIE TOLD HIS HARVARD AUDIENCE YESTERDAY THAT A SMALL STOP-GAP FORCE SHOULD BE CREATED TO BOLSTER THE U.N.

"I DO NOT THINK THERE CAN BE ANY DISPUTE ABOUT THE FACT THAT THE SECURITY COUNCIL MUST HAVE A FORCE TO BACK UP ITS DECISIONS," LIE SAID.

IT WAS UNDERSTOOD HERE THAT THE SECRETARY-GENERAL IS THINKING OF ABOUT 1,000 MEN RECRUITED FROM SMALL NATIONS AND PAID OUT OF THE U.N. TREASURY.

THE FIRST REACTION TO LIE'S IDEA WAS NOT VERY ENCOURAGING. THE UNITED STATES IS GIVING THE PLAN CAREFUL STUDY BUT A SPOKESMAN SAID IT WAS DOUBTFUL IF WASHINGTON WOULD AGREE TO ANY FORCE WHICH MIGHT BE CONSTRUED AS A SUBSTITUTE FOR THE UNITS CALLED FOR IN THE CHARTER AND NOW BURIED IN DEBATE. INFORMED CIRCLES EXPECT RUSSIA TO OPPOSE LIE'S PLAN.

PRELIMINARY REACTION AMONG THE SMALL COUNTRIES WAS SURPRISINGLY CHILLY. THESE DELEGATES ARE USUALLY THE ONES CLAMORING THE LOUDEST FOR ACTION.

IN THIS CASE THEIR OBJECTIONS CENTER AROUND A FEAR THAT ASSIGNMENT OF FORCE TO THE COUNCIL WOULD TOUCH OFF A SERIES OF TOUGH DECISIONS TO BE BACKED UP WITH MILITARY MIGHT. SUCH STEPS, THEY FEAR, WOULD BE MORE CONDUCIVE TO WAR THAN PEACE.

ONE IMMEDIATE ADVANTAGE WAS SIGHTED IN THE LIE PLAN. IT MAY PROD THE ADMIRALS AND THE GENERALS OF THE BIG FIVE INTO ACTION.

OPERATING UNDER THE COUNCIL AS THE MILITARY STAFF COMMITTEE, THESE MILITARY EXPERTS MEET UNDER CONDITIONS OF THE HIGHEST SECRECY. MOST COUNCIL DELEGATES SAY THEY DON'T KNOW WHAT THE COMMITTEE IS DOING. LIE HAS SAID SEVERAL TIMES THAT HE DOESN'T.

THE COMMITTEE'S ONLY CONTACT WITH THE OUTSIDE WORLD IS A MONTHLY COMMUNIQUE. USUALLY ABOUT SIX LINES LONG, IT GIVES THE NAME OF THE CURRENT CHAIRMAN AND NOTES THAT MEETINGS ARE BEING HELD.

Churchill Asks Labor's Ouster

Sees No Recovery Under Socialists Who Assail Capitalism, Then Seek U. S. Aid.

London, June 12 (A. P.).—Winston Churchill said today that British recovery never can be attained under a Socialist Labor government "dependent of the generosity of the capitalist system of America."

"We are not earning our own living or paying our own way and the Government do not hold prospects of our doing so in the immediate future," Churchill told a Conservative party rally.

"Unless we free our country while the time remains from the perverse doctrines of socialism, there can be no hope of recovery. This grotesque idea of managing vast commercial enterprises by centralized State direction can lead only to bankruptcy and ruin."

He said higher costs of Government operation of the coal mines, transport and electricity, all nationalized since Labor came to power in 1945, are penalizing "all other industries by which we earn our livelihood."

"I warn you once more this small island with its large population cannot earn its livelihood under such conditions," Churchill said. "The crucial test will be steel. The Government have declared their intention to nationalize the most efficient, bread-winning, export conquering industry in Britain. This reckless act of partisanship will carry them into deep waters. They are not even agreed among themselves upon the policy.

"No one thinking to revive British national industry would strike at the iron and steel trade now."

Churchill asked "how Socialist Ministers can go about bragging of their social program and of the nationalization of industry on party grounds, how they can deride the system of free enterprise and capitalism which makes America great and wealthy and then at the same time eagerly seek the aid which has hitherto been so generously granted across the Atlantic."

"That," he said, "is a grimace which baffles the limitations of our language to explain."

Bevin Sees Funds Pooled in War

Sheffield, England, June 12 (A. P.).—Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin chided Winston Churchill in an address today for a recent remark that Marshall Plan aid is charity. He called this remark a great blunder.

"If war comes again," he said, "there will be no sterling debts, no war debts. Defenders of the faith must throw their all into the pool from the first day to the last."

Red Army Coup Held Possible

London, June 12 (AP)—The International Committee for the Study of European Questions expressed belief tonight that Russia's army could sweep to the Atlantic and the Mediterranean "in a fairly short space of time.

The committee discussed the possibility of an East-West war and decided it was not inevitable. On the contrary, it said it is probable Russia will bring strong pressure in coming months on the other powers to get maximum political advantages.

The committee is a privately-financed organization which claims it has its own agents throughout Europe. It numbers among its membership some statesmen, scientists and educators. These include Lord Brabazon, former British minister of aircraf production, Edouard Bonnefous, chairman of the French National Assembly's Foreign Affairs Committee, and Armand Dutry, who was secretary to the Belgian Parliamentary Office in London during the war. The office no longer exists.

Reports Suspicious

"For over three or more months," the Committee said, "the various governments and general staffs of the western nations have, through their information services, been receiving reports which appear somewhat disturbing.

"Some of these reports mention the concentration of Soviet forces in the East, which are true. . . . Others report the existence of Soviet plans to invade Europe, Italy and Scandinavia, and even indicate the probable dates as to when these invasions will take place."

It cautioned that these reports "undoubtedly demand vigilance," and added: "Some of them are accurate, but perhaps they are too accurate and must be regarded with some suspicion. These are the usual elements of the war of nerves."

Prefers Political Means

The organization asserted that Russia "has every interest in achieving her aims through political pressure rather than through war," and noted that "the same succession of proposals for peace and alarming reports characterized the period preceding Munich."

"It would appear that in such circumstances, calm and objective consideration can avoid many mistakes."

In reviewing Soviet military power, the committee said Russia:

1. Has a peace-time army of about 3,000,000 men, approximately half of them in eastern Europe—Russia, Germany and the Danube Plains—with World War II equipment.

2. Now has mass production of bomber and fighter planes in addition to having perfected a four-engined bomber of the American B-29 type, and developed jet-propelled planes.

3. Has developed a submarine fleet which probably is by far the largest in the world and includes the latest type built from German models. She has experimented in launching V-2 rockets from submarines.

4. Could count upon the armies of the satellite nations for support.

Western Armies Weak

"The Anglo-American forces of occupation are comparatively unimportant," the committee said. "Great Britain has demobilized to a great exten, and what remains of her Army and her Navy is at present undergoing a phase of transformation. The French Army is likewise being reorganized.

"It appears, therefore, that if, in the present state of affairs, Russia decided with the aid of her satellites suddenly to invade western, northern or southern Europe, she could do so and reach the Atlantic and Mediterranean in a farily short space of time."

Against Soviet power and potentialities, the committee listed several deterrents as "elements of peace."

U.S. Arms Superior

It said a Russian attempt to invade western Germany would reican-French occupation forces, auquire pushing back the British-American-French occupation forces, automatically bringing on war.

War also would result, the committee said, if Russia attempted to dominate Scandinavia, Italy or Turkey, either through political or military actions.

It further argued that the quality of United States armament is greatly superior to that of Russia.

"She (the United States) not only has the atom bomb, but other atomic weapons, the action of which can probably cover far greater areas than the atom bomb itself.

"She also has got well ahead with her studies of bacteriological warfare and meteorolical warfare. The latter is likely to become the most destructive of all."

Expects Uprisings

Despite the numerical superiority of Russia's armed forces in Europe now, atomic bombing probably would destroy most of her industrial areas, the committee said. In addition, the committee continued, the United States would have a great superiority over Russia in oil resources because these resources are far less vulnerable to attack from the air.

The committee contended that an outbreak of war would bring an uprising by many people in the countries now dominated by Russia.

"Thus," it said, "military action would perhaps make the U.S.S.R. lose what four years of political action have gained for her.

Reports 760 M. P. H. Soviet Plane

British Daily Says Russians Have Experimental Jet Craft With Speed Near That of Sound.

London, June 12 (A. P.).—The Daily Mail said today that the Russians have developed an experimental jet plane with a "top speed approaching 760 miles an hour."

That is only three miles below the speed of sound under standard conditions—at sea level and 59 degrees Fahrenheit. It is above the speed of sound at high altitudes and lower temperatures.

"Intelligence reports," the Mail said, show "Russia's jet-propelled warplanes already number several hundreds, and that the rate of production is being stepped up."

The newspaper said Russia has about a dozen different types of jet planes in squadron or experimental use, including a four-jet heavy bomber. It said this bomber has been flying for more than a year and "probably has a cruising speed of 450 miles per hour, a range of 1,500 miles and can carry two tons of bombs."

"Russia's high-speed research plane," the paper added, "was first revealed last month when it flashed over Moscow during the May Day parade."

Air Marshal Fears Reds

Edinburgh, Scotland, June 12 (AP). Air Marshal Sir Hugh Walmsley, deputy chief of the British air staff, said today: "We have to get the Air Force cracking, and cracking pretty quickly, to stop our potential enemy, Soviet Russia, from getting the upper hand."

Speaking at an aviation display, he said: "The Air Force is definitely our first line of defense, and our first aim and effort is to stop war by being strong enough to make any aggressors think twice before starting anything. If he does start, then we must have the strength to see him off quickly."

British Warn U.S. On 'Foreign Legion'

London, June 12 (AP)—The Manchester Guardian said today that "no move could cause more bad feeling to less purpose" than the United States Senate bill to recruit a "foreign legion."

"The intrigues of the Allied secret services with individual malcontents, including alleged war criminals, are already enough to make the Western powers distrusted in eastern Europe, and this will simply widen the gap," a Guardian editorial declared.

"Can the Americans not understand that it is equivalent to the formation by the Russians of a Negro division for the liberation of the deep south, or a huge Stern Gang for the struggle against imperialism?"

Since Thursday, when the Senate passed the draft law amendment providing for recruitment of 25,000 aliens, diplomatic and military establishments in Europe have been flooded with inquiries.

Don't Lean Too Hard On Aid, Europe Told

London, June 12 (AP)—The Financial Times warned today appropriations committees in the United States Congress will have several opportunities to cut Marshall-plan aid in the next four years.

"Europe would do well not to lean too heavily on a prop that may suddenly crack," the paper said. "The greater her success in achieving economic recovery by her own efforts, the readier, paradoxically, will Americans be to lend their assistance."

The conservative Daily Telegraph said of the cuts the United States House of Representatives made in European Recovery Program funds:

"There can be no doubt that, for instance, in France, political instability has been intensified by uncertainty about American intentions. This is a point upon which French sentiment is particularly tender. In French eyes, American policy is bound up not only with the economic stability but with the security of their country."

Western Powers Take Offensive Against Russia In The Cold War

Berlin, June 12 (AP)—The Western powers have taken the political offensive against Russia in Germany on a large scale for the first time since the end of the war.

This offensive is aimed at winning not only western Germany politically but all of Germany including the Soviet-controlled eastern zone.

Soviet reaction to this offensive may tell whether the East and West are in danger of blundering into war in the near future.

Significance Of Parley

This, in brief, is the significance in Germay of the recent six-nation conference in London. The conference laid down a blueprint for Germay's political and economic reconstruction.

It proposed the creation of a constitution and government on federal lines. It has been generally supposed this government was designed for the Anglo-American-French zones of Germany only.

But authoritative sources reveal no such limitation is intended. On the contrary the Germans will be encouraged to set up a government which can lay claim to representing all of Germany.

For As Much As Possible

Gen. Lucius D. Clay, American military governor, said in answer to questions today that the Frankfurt government was intended to "take in as much of Germany as possible."

"I see no reason why it can't take in representation from eastern Germany," he said.

Because the Soviet Union was not present at London it was assumed the decisions there were intended only for western Germany.

The communiqué itself makes no such limitation, but stresses the constitution to be set up shall be designed to bring "an end to the present division of Germany."

"To End Present Division"

It reads:

"This constitution should be such to enable the Germans to play their part in bringing to an end the present division of Germany not by reconstitution of a centralized Reich but by means of a federal form of government which adequately protects the rights of the respective states, and which, at the same time, provides for adequate central authority and which guarantees the rights and freedoms of the individual."

At a meeting soon to be held German political leaders will be told they are free to set up a government within this broad basis.

Almost every one of the German political leaders has voiced objections to setting up a government for western Germany only.

Suggest Cabinet Posts

Some have suggested taking "eastern zone" representatives into the Cabinet of any such government.

They will be encouraged to take this and other steps to infiltrate western political principles into the eastern zone of Germany.

Thus the western political forces will try to "invade" the Soviet-dominated eastern Europe.

It is significant in that it marks the first "offensive" waged by the West. The recent election successes in Italy were more in the nature of a defensive political battle than an attempt to regain territory already lost politically.

Seek To Steal Soviet Thunder

The Western offensive is designed to steal the Soviet's political thunder in Germany and fight the Communists with their own weapons.

The Soviet press in Berlin and Moscow has claimed the London conference partitioned Germany. This has been the main Soviet charge against Britain and the United States during the last two Foreign Ministers' conferences.

With Soviet blessing the Communist-controlled Social Unity party launched a "People's Congress" claiming to represent all of Germany. Petitions have been circulated for "German unity."

These steps have been looked upon as preliminaries to setting up a German Government in the East claiming to represent all of Germany.

Russian Reaction Awaited

The West is now in a position to set up a German Government of their own for all of Germany. What the Russians' reaction to this will be remains to be seen. They already have indicated, however, that they will make every effort to sabotage western Germany and smash its political structure.

If they should go further and try to use force to oust the Western allies from Berlin it could bring Europe to the point of armed conflict quickly.

Would Bring Peace Hope

However, should the Soviet decision be to combat the West with purely political weapons for German control this paradoxically would bring a certain hope for peace to Europe.

It would be taken as an indication the Soviets do not want to risk a war at least for the present to achieve their political ends.

While the West, largely on Anglo-American initiative, has launched its bid for a Germany re-created along Western lines, it does not mean the London conference has blueprinted any utopia.

On the contrary, it has introduced many new problems.

Georges Bidault, France's Foreign Minister, told Parliament he viewed the conference results with "no enthusiasm." He felt they did not go far enough with controls over Germany.

The Germans likewise viewed the London results with less than enthusiasm. They felt they went too far. Too many controls.

Two Governments Probable

The British would have liked more socialism.

The Americans would like more freedom for enterprise.

Germany probably will have two "governments," both claiming to represent all of Germany.

She will have four political ideologies struggling for supremacy—communism, socialism, capitalism and German nationalism.

She will have seven nations besides herself mixing in her internal problems—the four occupation powers plus the three Benelux countries.

It was summed up this way by one weary correspondent who had just come from covering Italy's none-too-simple election:

"There is no denying the problem of Germany is vastly important. But it's so complicated. It takes thousands of words to try and explain. It's a headache."

Despite the complications, headaches, and protests, the Western powers believe German politicians will participate in trying to rebuild along western lines.

Their attitude fundamentally is the same as that expressed by Bidault in his speech to the French Parliament when he said that, while he did not approve them, the London decisions were the "best that could be obtained" at present.

Bidault Expected To Resign In Row

Paris, June 12 (AP)—Premier Robert Schuman probably will win Parliament's approval for the six-nation accord in Germany, but it may cost his middle-of-the-road Government the services of Foreign Minister Georges Bidault.

Most political observers agreed today that Schuman will win when the National Assembly votes on the accord, probably on Tuesday, although his majority is expected to be small.

But there are persistent rumors that Bidault will resign the Foreign Ministry and take an ambassadorship. Bidault, who has directed French foreign policy abroad almost uninterruptedly since the liberation, obviously was exhausted by this latest battle against the combined bitter opposition of the Communists and the de Gaullists.

Bidault Cool Toward Accord

The Foreign Minister was called upon to defend an accord for which he, himself, expressed little enthusiasm. The accord, reached by representatives of France, the United States, Britain, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg, calls for a West German federal government, international control of Ruhr coal and iron, and safeguards against future German aggression. Its French critics say it is against the country's national interests and security.

The debate in the National Assembly began yesterday and lasted until near midnight. Beset by critics, Bidault came back to the fray today and snapped:

"I have already explained yesterday what the London conversations and recommendations were like. I said that only one part was fully drafted—the part about the Ruhr. Everything essential has been told to you."

Hopes For U.S. Alliance

He had told the Assembly earlier that the agreement was the best France could get. He held out a hope that it could be perfected. He added that France was hoping to get a military alliance with the United States.

The response to his speech was cool. Deputies complained that Bidault has not been generous with vital information, not only for the deputies but for the members of his Cabinet.

The Assembly will be in recess tomorrow, but the argument will go on. Gen. Charles de Gaulle, head of the Rightist Rally of the French People, is to speak at Nevers in central France. He opposed the London accord vigorously.

Socialist President Vincent Auriol is due to speak tomorrow in Bordeaux. There is little doubt that the President favors the Government coalition under Schuman, a Popular Republican.

Schuman May Ask Confidence Vote

Paris, June 12 (AP)—Premier Robert Schuman's government may ask today for a formal vote of confidence in its foreign policy, criticized by both Communists and de Gaullists.

Informed sources so indicated as the National Assembly prepared to resume debate this afternoon on whether to approve a six-nation agreement on western Germany.

The vote on the agreement is set for Tuesday. Most political observers say they think a slim favorable majority is probable. Any test of confidence would be put to a vote the same day.

Bidault Gets Cool Reception

The debate began yesterday. In a session that lasted until near midnight, the Assembly heard the first of a scheduled 30 speakers.

In a speech received coolly by most deputies, Foreign Minister Georges Bidault defended the six-nation plan, worked out in a London conference recently ended.

The accord was reached by representatives of France, the United States, Great Britain, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg. It was made subject to approval by home governments.

"Best France Can Expect"

It calls for a West German federal government, international control of Ruhr coal and iron, and safeguards against future German aggression. French critics say it works against their country's national interest and security.

Bidault told the assembly it was the best agreement France could have expected. He held out a promise it could be "perfected." He said France is trying to get a military alliance with the United States.

BERLIN'S RAIL EMBARGO ENDS

Russians Lift Ban On Freight Traffic From West

Berlin, June 12 (AP)—The Russians did an abrupt about-face today and called off an hours-old rail-traffic block which would have cut off food and coal from 2,000,000 Germans in Berlin's western sector.

The end of the crisis came when the Russians advised American and British authorities that freight trains could move normally again from western Germany to Berlin. The first freight train from the American zone moved into the Russian zone from Helmstedt on the British zone border an hour later.

By late tonight, two trains, one British and the other American, had arrived in Berlin.

The Russians gave no explanation of their order or its withdrawal, and gave no assurances for the future.

Hope For Reparations Cut

British and American transport officials are scheduled to meet with Soviet transport officers next week. Observers believe the Russians then will raise again their demands for "rail reforms."

Meanwhile, the German Communist press beat the propaganda drum and hinted Germany could hope for a reduction in Russian reparations demands. Russia already has cut demands from Finland, Hungary and Romania. It was Russian demands for reparations from Germany which proved the initial hurdle in attempts of the foreign ministers to reach agreement on Germany.

Allied observers interpreted today's hints as another step in trying to create counterpropaganda against the Marshall-aid plan for western Germany.

U.S. Troops Alerted

Today's crisis came to a boil shortly after noon. The Russians had refused to permit the Americans to move a freight train in the American sector freight yard at Anhalter. Railway officials had alerted American troops to move the train with their own switch engines and to take over the necessary signal towers, if needed, to accomplish it. An order was sent out to the United States Army Constabulary to seize the signal equipment if no settlement was reached.

30.24- 18463

Soon afterward the Russians issued the order to free the train.

The Russians insist it is inefficient to send trains from western Germany to British and American marshalling yards in Berlin for breaking up and consignment to their destinations in Berlin.

Seek Reduced Congestion

They contend it would reduce "congestion" to break up the trains in the Soviet zone and switch them directly to their final destination at Berlin. The Western Allies dispute this contention.

Last Wednesday, the Russians ordered switch engines used by the Americans in Berlin sent to different stations in an effort to remove them from American control. This order was countermanded by the Americans and military policemen were put on the engines to guard them.

These guards were removed this afternoon after the Russians had given assurances that no attempt would be made to remove the engines.

The Russians, in attempts to tighten restrictions, have demanded that all freight from western Germany, including that destined for the Western powers, be completely documented and itemized.

Accord Restores Rail Service To Berlin

Berlin, June 12 (AP)—The Russians blocked freight shipments from the western occupation zones of Germany last night, but agreed today to restore the traffic to Berlin, United States and British officials announced.

An American official said the Russians consented to discuss the whole question of Berlin freight at a special meeting of Russian, American, British and French transport officials Monday.

Gen. Lucius D. Clay, United States military governor, said earlier he would reinstate the Frankfurt-Berlin air ferry if necessary to get supplies to the Germans and Americans in the United States sector of the city. The air lift was used in the April transportation crisis.

Trains from the western zones must pass through the Soviet zone of occupation west of Berlin in order to reach this city. The Soviet check point is at the border of the Russian and British zones. American and French traffic, as well as British, bound for Berlin passes that check point.

Awaiting Locomotives

Six British trains which were held up in the Soviet zone after the new order became effective last night will be released and sent to Berlin as soon as locomotives can be provided for them, the British said.

The Russians also agreed to permit normal traffic over the route through the Russian zone by eighteen daily trains. There is a heavy backlog because of trains held up by the Soviet order, however.

There are 2,000,000 Germans and 25,000 Americans, French and British in the western sectors of the city who would be seriously affected by a stoppage of freight shipments.

No Warning Given

Clay said the Soviet suspension of traffic came without warning. He told a news conference a freight train from the American zone was stalled this afternoon at the Anhalter railway station in Berlin.

Later, Col. H. W. Holmer, United States transportation chief, said the Anhalter train had been cleared. It was understood that American switch engines, guarded by GI's, broke up the stalled freight and switched it to the proper points when the Soviet-controlled rail officials refused to act.

The only other American train stopped up to this afternoon was a supply train destined for the German population of the United States sector.

Doesn't Know Intentions

"I don't know the full Russian intentions," General Clay said. "I intend to find out the facts before deciding what action to take."

Full terms of the British-Russian agreements were not made known immediately. The British said earlier the Russians were "not unreasonable" in requesting that shipments for Berlin be labeled with their exact destinations. They had been addressed simply to the Berlin Kommandatura.

Stopping the traffic on a permanent basis would be much more serious than the Soviet restrictive measures in Berlin which raised a crisis last April. The Western powers circumvented that by flying in passengers and supplies, but it would be impossible to fly in enough supplies to meet the needs of 2,000,000 Germans dependent on the Western powers for food and heat.

Soviet Cut Is Hinted In German Reparations

Berlin, June 12 (AP)—The Soviet-licensed newspaper Berliner Zeitung said today that "although Germany's position is not exactly similar to that of Finland, Hungary and Romania, there is hope that Germany and Russia might get together for an adjustment of repara

"It is necessary, however, for Germany to conduct an honest policy of peace and friendship toward the Soviet Union," the newspaper said.

Russia recently reduced the reparations still due her from Finland, Hungary and Romania by about 50 per cent. The Russian controlled press in Germany played this up as an example of Soviet generosity.

Bill May Be Key To Problem Of D.P.'s: Clay

Berlin, June 12 (AP)—United State congressional passage of a bill to admit 202,000 displaced persons into the United States may provide the key in solving western Germany's displaced persons problem, Gen. Lucius Clay said today.

The American military commander in Germany said he believed similar action would follow in other nations.

"Passage of the D.P. bill, together with the opening of Palestine to immigration, should in the course of a few years pretty well clear out the D.P. population," he said.

At present there are approximately 400,000 displaced persons in the United States occupation zone.

The United States House of Representatives has approved entry of 202,000 D.P.'s into the United States in the next two years. The bill has been sent to the Senate.

Baltic Fish And War Gas

Frankfurt, Germany, June 12 (AP). A number of Danish and German fishermen have become ill from eating Baltic Sea fish, apparently contaminated by war-type poison gas, a United States Army spokesman said today. Some of the fishermen were in serious condition. The spokesman said the gas apparently had been dumped into the Baltic near where the fish were caught.

Counterfeiting Ring Seized in Germany

Frankfurt, June 12 (A. P.).—A German counterfeiting ring possessing $45,000 in American military scrip has been arrested, the Army announced today. This was the first report of counterfeiting of the so-called "new" military scrip.

The "new" scrip was introduced several months ago after discovery of counterfeiting of the old scrip.

Reich Hostels Revived

Heidelberg, June 12 (AP)—Germany's famed youth hostels, abolished by the Nazis, are being revived under United States Army auspices. Chains of hostels, a one-day's hike apart, were located throughout Germany in the pre-Hitler era. They were meeting places for the youth of Germany and other countries.

Hungarian Court Asks Life Term for Priest

Budapest, June 12 (A. P.).—A Roman Catholic priest, the Rev. Janos Aszatalos was sentenced to death yesterday but the court recommended that President Zoltan Tildy commute the sentence to life imprisonment.

The priest was convicted of inciting a villager at Pocsperi to kill a policeman on June 3. The Ministry of Interior said a crowd of 500, angered by the State's plan to nationalize church schools, attacked the police station.

The villager convicted of murder was sentenced to die, with no recommendation for mercy. Two other persons received prison terms.

2 HUNGARIAN PARTIES UNITE

Socialist, Communist Groups Decide To Merge

Budepest, June 12 (AP)—The Socialist and Communist parties of Hungary held their last independent congresses today an decided formally to merge teh two groups.

Arpad Szakasits, Socialist leader, said "we entered the path of Lenin and Stalin with pleasure." He stressed the need for "iron discipline" in the new party.

Matyas Rakosi, Communist chief the Socialist masses had accepted the policy of Lenin and the ideology of the Communist party.

Rakosi also said that before the merger of the two groups, 25,000 Socialist party members and "tens of thousands" of Communists were weeded out.

Speak Of Labor Movement

The Communist leader said some of the problems facing Hungary were: Liquidation of the national front of independence, and expansion of co-operatives.

Following the formal merger, the Party of Hungarian Workers was constituted in Budapest's Square of Heroes. Several hundred thousand party members were on hand.

Both Szakasits and Rakosi made speeches dealing with the history of the Hungarian labor movement.

Rakosi also spoke of relations between the church and the state. He declared Hungary's Catholic Chuhch was unwilling to recognize the republic and its institutions.

Calls Cardinal A Royalist

The Communist leader branded Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, primate of Hungary, as a Royalist. He said the Cardinal "had been an ardent believer in Hitler, Mussolini and Horthy in prewar times."

The crowd shouted "Down with the Cardinal."

Rakosi said the Government is determined to carry out the nationalization of church-sponsored schools "against the will of the Church if we cannot come to an agreement with them."

Earlier, Education Minister Gyula Ortutay called on the Catholic Church to recognize the Hungarian republic and "her institutions, including land reforms and nationalization."

He said this is a "preliminary condition of negotiation between church and state." He expressed hope that negotiations can start soon, but added that "the church is responsible" if they do not.

"Falsehood Never Greater"

Last Sunday Cardinal Mindszenty told Hungarian Catholics that they should stop reading newspapers of Government parties and stop listening to Hungarian broadcasts.

"Falsehood, deceit and terror were never greater" in Hungary's history, the primate said in a pastoral letter read in all Catholic churches.

The letter said that Hungarian Catholic bishops are united and that there are no negotiations between church and state.

Ortutay's reply to the Cardinal's letter came as a Catholic priest, Rev. Janos Asztalos, was sentenced to death on a charge of inciting a villager at Pocsperi to kill a policeman June 3.

Recommends Life Term

The court recommended that President Zoltan Tildy commute the sentence to life imprisonment.

The Interior Ministry said that 500 persons, angered by the plan to nationalize Church schools, attacked the police station. The villager convicted of murder was sentenced to die with no recommendation for mercy.

HUNGARY BIDS CHURCH BOW TO GOVERNMENT

BUDAPEST, Hungary, June 12 (AP)—Education Minister Gyula, Ortutay called on the Catholic Church tonight to recognize the Hungarian Republic and "her institutions, including land reforms and nationalization."

He said this was a "preliminary condition of negotiation between church and state." He expressed hope that negotiations could start soon but added that "the church is responsible" if they do not.

The church is fighting government plans to take over church-supported schools. Last Sunday

Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, Primate of Hungary, told Hungarian Catholics that they should stop reading newspapers of government parties and stop listening to Hungarian broadcasts. "Falsehood, deceit and terror were never greater" in Hungary's history, he said in a pastoral letter read in all Catholic churches.

[Foreign Ministry spokesman said last January that Cardinal Mindszenty had refused to recognize the Hungarian Republic].

The letter said that Hungarian Catholic Bishops were united and that there are no negotiations between church and state.

Minister Ortutay's reply to the Cardinal's letter came as a Catholic priest, the Rev. Janos Asztalos, was sentenced to death on a charge of inciting a villager at Pocsperi to kill a policeman in a riot on June 3. The court recommended mercy.

Flunking Greek Blasts Class Room

Athens, June 12 (A. P.).—A young student, apparently angered by failing to pass examinations, tossed a grenade into a school room today, wounding five Students, who were taking examinations, police said. The assailant escaped.

Athens-Tripolis Train Attacked By 'Bandits'

Athens, June 12 (AP)—Fifty "bandits" attacked the Athens-Tripolis train last night, killing two soldiers and one civilian, the army announced today. Four soldiers were wounded.

A communiqué said the train was forced to halt when the pilot car struck a mine.

Press reports said the Communist-led guerrillas have gained a new foothold in the foothills of Mount Olympus at the mouth of the Pinios River and are holding four villages in the Tempe valley.

Authoritative sources said 13,000 national guardsmen will be demobilized June 20 and replaced wth regular troops.

Army 'Seized' State Dept., Russ Declare

Moscow, June 12 (AP)—The Literary Gazette asserted today that American Ambassador Walter B. Smith is a member of a military clique which has taken over the United States State Department.

In a full-page spread, which included four articles, the Gazette attacked "war instigators," among whom it named United States Secretary of State George C. Marshall.

"It is now difficult in the United States to know where the State Department begins and the general staff leaves off," one article said.

The Gazette also compared Gen. George C. Kenney, chief of America's strategic air force, to the late Field Marshal Hermann Goering, and said: "The American Government answers for the offensive speeches of Kenney."

Weather Harms Crops In Russia's Volga Area

Moscow, June 12 (AP)—Izvestia reported unfavorable crop conditions today from the Volga area.

The newspaper said: "In connection with the dry and excessively hot weather, state winter crops and especially spring crops in the area of the Volga during recent days have significantly worsened."

Cardinal Backs Polish

WARSAW, June 12 (AP).—August Cardinal Hlond, Primate of Poland, expressed approval today of Poland's incorporation of former western German areas. He said statements in the government-controlled press that Pope Pius XI wants the frontier changed are "without foundation."

U.N. MEDIATOR IN JERUSALEM

Count Satisfied By Pledges Of Jewish, Arab Leaders

Jerusalem, June 12 (AP)—Count Folke Bernadotte calmed tense Jewish and Arab commanders during a five-hour visit to Jerusalem today.

The United Nations mediator listened to charges and countercharges of truce violations in the Holy City but appeared satisfied with promises of both sides to respect the cease fire. He left by air for Damascus, from where he was to fly to the Island of Rhodes. Jews and Arabs will try there to settle the Palestine problem during the four-week truce.

After establishing his Rhodes headquarters, the mediator planned to return to Cairo Tuesday to begin talks with Arab representatives in an effort to induce them to sit down at the same table with Israel representatives at Rhodes.

It was not considered likely that such a conference could get under way in less than a week.

Meets Legion Brigadier

The bronzed Swedish nobleman in shirtsleeves and desert shorts first visited Jewish leaders here today. He then went through the St. Stephens Gate to the Old City to meet Brig. Norman Lash, of the Trans-Jordan Legion.

Lash urged Bernadotte to spread out his truce observers as quickly as possible at major points of possible friction in Palestine. He particularly mentioned Latrun on the main Jerusalem-Tel Aviv highway.

Lash said he considered it likely that the Jews will attempt to slip through a large military convoy to Jerusalem with out Bernadotte's permission. He said the legion is prepared to prevent this with field artillery.

Bernadotte said he anticipates a quick decision on such matters as use of the Jerusalem supply road, water supplies for the city and other snags in the negotiations.

He explained to both Jews and the Legion that he was incorrectly informed of the arrival date of the tri-nation staff of observers when he set Friday as the truce deadline last week end.

Too Late For Change

"When I learned the observers would not "arrive as soon as expected, it was too late for me to change the truce date," he said. "However, an American staff of 21 observers has not reached Palestine, similar staffs of French and Belgians are due almost hourly and within 48 hours our controls should be in order. Five Swedish officers are here in Palestine as my personal representatives and they will be in charge while I am at Rhodes. I am very glad that both sides accepted a truce and I am relieved that such violations as may have occurred were minor."

A legion commander said a Jewish attack after the truce hour at Lydda was finally dispersed by legion counterfire.

Probes Arab Complaints

Bernadotte's special representative for Jerusalem, Swedish Col. Nils Brunsson, toured the Old City walls with a Legion officer to investigate Arab complains that Haganah men had infiltrated into no man's land in daylight today and that Jewish soldiers were at work constructing new sandbag positions there.

The legion officer pointed to the Garden of Notre Dame Hospice, to the Almasie building on Geoffrey de Bouillon street and to the rubble-strewn yard near the burned Convent of the Redemptionist Sisters, almost opposite Allenby Square.

The officer also asked Colonel Brunsson to observe Mamillah road, where young Jews could be seen looting long-deserted Arab shops.

"My men are restive when they see Jews occupying new ground. I will not answer for them until the Jews halt," the officer said.

Woman Scorns U.N. Symbol

As the legion officer escorted Colonel Brunsson along a narrow street close by the Church of the Holy Sepulcher, a woman noticed the pale blue and white armband with the inscription "United Nations" which the colonel wore.

Aparently filled with indignation over the United Nations partition vote and United Nations pressure for a cease fire which virtually all Arabs regard as favoring the Jews, the women cried "dogs, all of you. Shame on you United Nations. Dogs . . . dogs."

The colonel went on without a glance in her direction but she followed for 50 yards repeating her words.

Several members of Bernadotte's party who continued with him by plane from here indicated little or no optimism about the forthcoming Rhodes mediation talks.

ARABS, JEWS VOICE REPRISAL THREATS

Both Sides Charge Breaches Of Palestine Truce

Cairo, June 12 (AP)—Both sides charged continued violations of cease-fire orders today and threatened to blow up Palestine's two-day-old truce.

Both Arabs and Jews marked out "don't tread" front lines which appeared to criss-cross and invite dispute.

An Arab League representative routed Count Folke Bernadotte, the United Nations peacemaker, from bed at 4.30 A.M. and handed the mediator a note saying "the Arab governments reserve the right of quick action in reply to criminal Zionist attacks."

Israel Threatens Reprisals

Israel's army chief of operations already had voiced similar warnings in a statement to newspaper ment and threatened reprisal airraids on Arab capitals.

Col. Count Thord Bonde, Swedish military adviser to Count Bernadotte, said tonight he had received from the Egyptian Government four complaints in which the Egyptians alleged they were attacked by Jews. One alleged attack was northeast of Gaza. United Nations observers at Tel Aviv were ordered to investigate.

Bernadotte arrived in Damascus, the Syrian capital, this afternoon and was received by President Al Sayed Shukri Al Kuwatly. An official dinner party was given in his honor tonight.

Large Syrians Attack

Officers of Israel's forces at Haifa declared the cease-fire order was being violated the second day by Syrians firing on Ein Geb, Jewish settlement on the eastern shore of Lake Galilee. An official communiqué from Tel Aviv said the Arabs were "heavily attacking" the settlement at noon today.

Farther north, Jewish officials spokesmen said, the Arabs "still were launching heavy attacks" against Mahnayim and Kfar Szold tonight.

An Amman dispatch said joint headquarters of the Arab armies had given commanders in the field authority "to severely counterattack" in event of "organized Jewish attacks." They were instructed to ignore "individual incidents," but the orders apparently left it to the commanders to draw the line.

Attacks By Jews Reported

Copies of the order were said to have been sent to Bernadotte and the Jewish Agency.

The Amman headquarters said Jews attacked the Syrians in the Nazareth district, on the north side of the Arab triangle in central Palestine, last night, and also attempted a raid on Beersheba from near-by settlements in southern Palestine.

Muhsen Bey Berazi, acting Foreign Minister of Syria, told correspondents in Damascus that the Jews had resumed firing on the Syrian line at 2.30 o'clock this morning.

The Syrian complaints apparently arose from three thrusts which the Syrians said they made on the armistice eve in which they claimed the capture of thirteen Jewish villages and the killing of more than 260 Jews.

Settlements Captured

A Syrian communiqué said one thrust, not completed until 8 A.M. yesterday, hour of the truce, was from the eastern side of the Palestine thumb north of Lake Hula. Here they said they captured a string of eight settlements on a 5-mile front and as deep as 4 miles from the Palestine frontier.

This action, between Dan and Lake Hula, by Jewish account, was now bring extended to Kfar Szold, named for the Baltimore founder of Hadassah, Jewish hospital organization.

The Syrians named the captured villages as Dawwara, Salhiyya, Muftakhara, Sawiyya, Mansoura, Madahel, Adsiyya and Telkhanzeer.

Below Lake Hula, the Syrians said they captured five more villages in a pretruce action. The alleged truce violations here were apparently centering around Jisr Banat Yaacov (Bridge of the Daughter of Jacob).

New Danger Point

The Syrians said they also had driven through Nazareth and occupied Shajara.

Another danger point was the Jerusalem-Tel Aviv road past Arab-held Latrun, where an Israel communiqué said a new mountain road had been completed in the last hours before the truce to detour the Arab block on the main highway.

"It may now be revealed," said a Tel Aviv communiqué, "that the defense army of Israel succeeded in opening a new supply route to Jerusalem a few days before cease-fire order came into effect. Under cover of the Latrun operation, sappers and workmen laid a secondary road, over which convoys passed every night on their way to Jerusalem, unhindered by the enemy."

Truce-Aid Request Told By British

London, June 12 (AP)—The Foreign Office reported today that Count Folke Bernadotte has filed a formal request to use British ships and planes to help supervise the Palestine truce.

A spokesman said the request was made to the Embassy in Cairo. He assumed that Bernadotte, the United Nations mediator, wants the transport for use by United Nations observers. The spokesman emphasized that the transport, if lent to Bernadotte, would be operated under United Nations authority.

The request was reported earlier on an "informal" basis, and the United Nations offices at Lake Success at that time denied such a request had been made. An Israeli spokesman commented "nothing would be more fatal to the prospects of the truce than British participation, however small."

35 in Cairo on Truce Mission

CAIRO, Egypt, June 12 (AP)—Twenty-one Belgian officers and fourteen more Americans arrived here today for duty as United Nations truce observers.

Russ Truce-Unit Offer Ignored By Mediator

Lake Success, June 12 (AP)—Count Folke Bernadotte, United Nations mediator for Palestine, is ignoring Russia's offer to send military observers of the four-week truce there.

A United Nations spokesman said Bernadotte so advised United Nations headquarters yesterday from Cairo. The Swedish Count added that he is determined to restrict his staff of military observers to representatives of the United States, France and Belgium. These countries make up the Security Council's Consular Truce Commission.

Can Demand Order

Russia has one avenue open to get around the rebuff. She can demand that the Council order Bernadotte to use Soviet military personnel.

Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko may take such a step when the Council meets again Tuesday. But on the basis of the cold reception his original offer got in the Council, there appears to be little chance he will succeed.

The United Nations also announced that Bernadotte had abandoned consideration of using British ships and planes to transport observers around the trouble zone. Israel had objected to any British participation.

Bernadotte is awaiting replies to his request to the United States, France and Belgium for six patrol vessels. His 63-man team of military observers will probably be completed by tomorrow. Each of the three countries is to supply 21.

U.S. Air, Sea Craft Slated For Palestine

Washington, June 12 (AP)—American officials indicated today that the United States will supply naval patrol vessels, small aircraft and probably additional army, navy and air officers to help Count Folke Bernadotte maintain the truce in Palestine.

The State Department received a telegram from the United Nations' mediator yesterday asking for three patrol vessels and three small airplanes. Department informants said today that they favor meeting the request. The Navy and Air Force have been so advised.

The patrol vessels probably will be detached from American naval forces in the Mediterranean. The three aircraft are due to be assigned from American Air Forces based in Germany.

The State Department has received informal suggestions that Bernadotte would like to have ten additional American land, sea and air officers assigned to work with him. The State Department will approve any formal request and put the question up to the armed services. It has so informed Bernadotte.

Twenty-one American officers—seven from each of the services—were dispatched to Palestine a few days ago.

Egyptian Shells Mar Veterans' Peace Hope

New York Men and Families, Who Wanted to Farm, Have Been Making Dugouts.

Hatzor, Israel, June 12 (A. P.).—A score of former G. I.'s who hoped they were through with war in 1945 are wondering how long peace will last this time.

For nearly two weeks these men from Brooklyn and the Bronx, who came to this little settlement with their wives and families to become farmers, were shelled by Egyptian artillery. While the weeds grew in their fields and orange groves they used their picks to make their hilltop home into a strongpoint ringed with machine-gun nests and barbed wire.

"We saw the Egyptian column when it first appeared one morning," said Jack Shapiro, 27, a veteran of the Battles of the Bulge and Rhineland.

Shapiro, whose home was at 217 Bristol street, Brooklyn, pointed two miles across the valley to a tree-lined road where Egyptian tanks and cars had been seen moving.

"We had been expecting them, but it was a little funny to know an enemy was actually here. I sent my 14-month-old daughter away to Tel Aviv with the other eighty-five youngsters in the settlement right away. That afternoon the shelling began."

When the Shells Dropped.

Some dugouts already had been hacked out of the sun-baked hillside.

"But it's funny how we lost that tired feeling and really dug when shells started dropping," added Mrs. France Rifkin, formerly of 1675 Townsend avenue, the Bronx. Bronx.

The first day about a hundred shells fell and one bomb dropped. In the thirteen days before the truce, nearly 300 exploded, hitting houses, tents, the infirmary, dining hall and children's nursery.

"But the thing that really made us mad was the hit on our brand new bathhouse," declared Mrs. Shoshonna Hoffman, whose address was 763 Fox street, the Bronx. She laughed and added, "For months we had dreamed of modern plumbing, but it's back to the primitive life for us."

This collective farm was begun only a year and a half ago. There are about seventy Americans in their late twenties and early thirties here. Fourteen other countries also are represented.

"We are just a peace-loving people who want to farm our land," said Jose Neidle, formerly of 1475 Webster avenue, the Bronx, who saw action in Europe. "We always got along fine with the neighboring Arabs, but we'll fight against any invader."

Palestine Truce Releases Planes

FRANKFURT, Germany, June 12 (AP). — American aircraft which have been standing by on Cyprus Island for the last several weeks to evacuate Americans from the Middle East will be withdrawn because of the truce in Palestine, Air Force headquarters announced today.

U.S. Refuses To Let 10 Sail For Israel

New York, June 12 (AP)—State Department agents last night seized the passports of ten American citizens, and refused them permission to sail on a steamer bound for the Middle East.

The ten, including one girl, had booked passage for Haifa, Israel.

Departure of the steamer, the Mardine Carp, was delayed more than eight hours while agents "screened" 31 passengers of military age bound for Haifa, Alexandria and Beirut.

21 Allowed To Sail

Of the group, 21 were allowed to sail.

A State Department spokesman here said the action detaining the ten Americans was taken "in accord with" United Nations decisions on Palestine and the "truce agreement" between Arabs and Jews.

Those not allowed to sail were permitted to return to their homes.

Age Restrictions Cited

A Maritime Commission spokesman quoted the State Department as saying no man or woman between the ages of 18 and 48 would be allowed to sail for Haifa—and that no man between 18 and 46 would be allowed to sail for Beirut or Alexandria.

Last month, the Marine Carp was boarded by Lebanese authorities at Beirut and 69 Haifa-bound passengers, including 41 Americans, were taken off the ship.

War Hero Killed In Palestine

New York, June 12 (AP) — Col. David Marcus, an American hero of World War II and supreme commander of Israel's military forces on the Jerusalem front, has been killed in the Holy Land fighting.

The 47-year-old West Pointer fell Thursday night, a few hours before the cease-fire order became effective.

A former New York city official, he was twice decorated by the United States Government during the war. He saw service in nearly every theater of operations, helped draft the surrender terms for Italy and Germany and was a legal aide to the United States delegations at Dumbarton Oaks, Yalta, Tehran and Potsdam.

Word From Ben-Gurion

News of his death came from David Ben-Gurion, Israel Prime Minister, and was announced yesterday by New York representatives of the provisional Jewish Government.

It was the first death officially recorded by the Israeli Government of a former high-ranking United States Army officer, although several former American soldiers have died in Palestine while serving with Zionist troops.

Ben-Gurion's message said that Marcus was killed at his post "in the hills of Jerusalem" while he was "trying to open the road to get food through to the people of Jerusalem."

Cyprus Jews Hail Truce

NICOSIA, Cyprus, June 12 (AP). —Jewish internees marked the end of the Jewish Sabbath tonight with processions and singing in welcoming the Palestine truce. No disorders developed.

Romania Recognizes Israel

Bucharest, Romania, June 12 (AP). Romania recognized the State of Israel today. She is the twelfth country to do so.

Cut in Rice Price Asked

OOTACAMUND, India, June 12 (AP). — The United Nations Economic Commission for Asia and the Far East, holding its final session, called today for reduced rice prices. Burma introduced the resolution with the backing of Ceylon and Great Britain. The United States opposed it, contending it was too broad. The commission agreed to call an early meeting of experts on inland transport.

India and Vatican in Pact

NEW DELHI, June 12 (AP).—It was announced officially here today that the government of India and the Holy See have decided to exchange diplomatic missions.

Africans Protest Freeing 5 With Nazi Ties

Johannesburg, Union of South Africa, June 12 (AP)—Vigorous protest was raised today following an announcement by the new Nationalist Government it will free five men imprisoned for wartime activities.

The Nationalist party, headed by the new Premier, Daniel Malan, has among its membership many who were sympathetic to the Germans during the war.

The Government announcement said the men would be freed at once to relieve the strain of the war years and remove 'unpleasantness and rancor from it."

"People Dismayed"

But J. H. Hofmeyr, deputy premier in the former government of Premier Jan Christiaan Smuts, said the plan "is a smack in the face for the men and women who fought to free the world of Nazism."

He declared the people of South Africa "will be dismayed at the first act of the new Minister of Justice, C. R. Swart."

"This is not the way to South African unity which the Nationalist Government promised the people," he said. "It is an unforgiveable act, but in keeping with its black record during the war. The leopard does not change his spots."

Veterans Protest

Ex-servicemen's organizations added their protests.

Those to be freed:

Sidney Robey-Leibbrandt, former ex-heavyweight champion boxer who became a Nazi during a 1936 trip to the Olympics in Berlin. He was landed from a submarine on the west coast of Africa during the war. Captured, he was sentenced to life imprisonment. Leibbrandt has served five years and three months.

Julian David Visser and Hendrick Stephanus van Blerk, university students convicted of helping to blow up a postoffice in Benoni, Transvaal, in 1942. A passerby was killed. Both were sentenced to death, but later got commutations to life imprisonment.

Jan Adriaan Strauss and Michael Johannes Pienaar, who broadcast German propaganda during the war. They were convicted of treason last June and sentenced to three years in prison.

The Government said it is still considering the case of Sidney Erich Holm, known in wartime as the "Lord Haw Haw of South Africa." Holm was sentenced to ten years for broadcasting anti-British propaganda.

Nanking, June 12 (A. P.).—Gen. Pai Chung-hsi, former Minister of Defense, today turned down Chiang Kai-shek's offer to become supreme commander of Government troops against Communist forces in Central China because he felt he wouldn't have clear-cut authority over the entire central area.

A Government spokesman reported maneuvering along the West Shantung, South Honan and North Kiangsu battlefronts. Nowhere was the fighting decisive, he said. In Shantung, pro-Government dispatches told of intensified air attacks on Communists besieging Tzeyang, eighty miles south of Tsinan, provincial capital.

CHINESE REDS KILL 6 MORE TRAPPISTS

Peiping, June 12 (A. P.).—Six more Trappist priests and brothers have died in Chinese Communist hands, the Catholic authorities reported today.

Deaths of one Frenchman and five Chinese brought to thirty-one, Catholic informants said, the number of Communist victims who belonged to the famed monastery at Yangkiaping in southern Chahar province, fifty miles from Peiping.

Father Maurus Bougon, 48, a French priest taken prisoner in January, 1947, attempted to escape. As punishment, Catholic informants said, they had reports one or both of his feet were amputated.

Koreans Leave Way Open For Elections in North

SEOUL, June 12 (AP).—The Korean National Assembly formally left the door open today for Soviet-dominated North Koreans to participate in a national government.

The Assembly, elected last month in American-dominated South Korea, adopted a resolution urging North Koreans to elect assemblymen in accordance with a United Nations General Assembly resolution.

The Russians refused to permit an election in the North, and there is no indication of any change in Soviet policy, but today's Assembly action permits North Korean participation if and when the Russians change their minds.

Yanks Flew Where Shots Hit Koreans

Tokyo, June 12 (AP)—United States Far East Air Force headquarters said today American planes may have been involved in the reported bombing of Korean fishermen in the Japan Sea last Tuesday.

A press statement said there is a bomb-training range in the general area where Korean fishing craft were reported hit. A bomber mission was flown Tuesday.

[Korean police said fourteen fishermen were killed in attacks by nine unidentified planes.]

(According to a Reuter dispatch today from Seoul, South Korea, police there said nine four-engined planes marked with a star in a circle—the American marking—strafed the fishing boats for twenty minutes, sinking nine boats and wounding ten men, in addition to fatal casualties.)

GI Gets Five Years

Tokyo, June 12 (AP)—Pfc. Lonnie L. Taylor, 27, of Charleston, S.C., today was sentenced to five years at hard labor. Taylor was acquitted by a general court-martial of raping a Japanese woman but was found guilty of assaulting her husband.

New Missile On Way To Carry Atomic Bombs

Sydney, Australia, Sunday, June 13 (AP)—The Sunday Sun says Australian scientists are developing a new guided missile to carry atomic bombs long distances.

The newspaper adds the British Government is urging Australia to impose stringent security safeguards on scientists at the Mount Ebo rocket range in the central Australian desert.

Chile President Crushes Power Of Communists

Gonzalez Videla Was Once Reds' Friend; He Seeks U.N. Aid Against Moscow

SANTIAGO, Chile, June 12 (AP).—The President of a "little" South American country has made himself champion of the world's "little" countries against Russian pressure.

President Gabriel Gonzalez Videla has set out to make the Communists powerless in Chile. But he wants the United Nations to back Chile and the other smaller countries against the Communists and Moscow.

"Little countries like Chile have no economic or military strength," he said recently. "They must rely on the moral force of the United Nations." Even that, he said, is not enough. Mr. Gonzalez Videla advocates that the big powers arm the smaller ones to defend themselves against coups such as the Communists engineered in Czechoslovakia.

He once was the Communists' friend. Now he is one of their most active and outspoken foes.

He has weakened if not broken their power over Chile's copper and coal miners, nitrate workers and other labor, with extraordinary powers voted by Congress. Using those powers, he has placed mines, electric plants and any vital area where Communist labor leaders operate under military control. Communist leaders have been arrested and exiled to distant parts of Chile.

Now he proposes to ask Congress for a law barring Communists from election to public office.

Views on Communism

"The example of what has happened in other countries is sufficient proof of (the Communist party's) illicit object, under Moscow's orders," he has said. "I do not want the same fate for Chile."

Mr. Gonzalez Videla insists that he does not want to "outlaw communism," or "persecute an idea." He says he only wants to stop the party's "public activities, directed from abroad in the interests of a foreign power."

An affable yet fiery politician of restless energy, with a flashing smile for his public and sharp words for his enemies, Mr. Gonzalez Videla is dapper and short—about five feet five. He has long described himself as a "leftist."

He was born forty-nine years ago in the northern city of La Serena, second of seven sons of a produce dealer. He entered politics at fifteen as a member of the Radical party's youth movement, went to the University of Chile and became a lawyer.

At thirty he was elected to the Chamber of Deputies. There he was not only one of the ablest but also one of the stormiest members, even hurling inkwells at his opponents in the heat of debate. However, he was such a gifted politician that he made friends in all parties and rose to the leadership of his own, the Radical party.

In 1939 he was sent to France as Chile's Minister and remained there until the end of 1941. In 1942 he was sent to Rio de Janeiro as ambassador. When Brazil declared war on the Axis powers, Mr. Gonzalez Videla had not yet presented his credentials but he stood on a balcony with Foreign Minister Oswaldo Aranha and delivered an eloquent speech in Spanish praising Brazil's action to a crowd of bewildered Cariocas.

Signed U. N. Charter

In 1945 he was sent to San Francisco as one of Chile's delegates to the United Nations Conference. There he signed the United Nations Charter.

Mr. Gonzalez Videla won the Presidency in 1946 with Communist support. To repay that political debt, he took three Communists into his cabinet. After six months, he dropped both the Communist Ministers and three rightist Liberals.

He says he found that the Communists in the government were not working for a solution of Chile's national problems. He says they were only strengthening their party's power in Chile as an instrument of Soviet foreign policy.

The Communists accused him of "selling out" to the United States. They insisted on regaining Cabinet posts. When that appeared hopeless, strikes broke out in the coal fields. Mr. Gonzalez Videla called the strikes "revolutionary." He quickly asked and got extraordinary powers from Congress to put them down. Those powers were renewed last January to expire July 15.

Until recently, for relaxation, Mr. Gonzalez Videla used to jump on a bicycle and, wearing only a sports shirt and shorts, pedal for miles. Lately he has been too busy jumping into his plane to speak at provincial fairs, or sailing to the Antarctic to dramatize Chile's claims in a region where there are British claims also.

A quick-spoken antagonist, he does not nourish hatreds. Once an outspoken critic of President Juan D. Peron of Argentina, he visited Mr. Peron last July on terms of great cordiality. When he returned from the Antarctic he called in British Ambassador John Leche for a long and equally cordial talk over the Chilean-British dispute.

President's Attack on the Soviet

BERKELEY, Calif., June 12 (AP)—The text of President Truman's foreign policy address today at the University of California follows:

President Sproul, distinguished guests, ladies and gentlemen:

I deeply appreciate the privilege you have given me of taking part in these exercises at this great university.

I regret that I could not arrange my schedule to permit me to be here next week at the time for which you first invited me. Under these circumstances, I am pleased that an adjustment could be made on the part of the university so as to make it possible for me to be here today.

Three years ago this month, across the bay in San Francisco, I witnessed the signing of the Charter of the United Nations. That Charter represents man's hope for a world order based on law and of lasting peace based on justice.

Today, I have come back to the shores of San Francisco Bay to discuss with you recent world events and, in particular, to appraise the progress we are making toward world peace.

Many students here today and in colleges across the country are veterans. They fought for peace with freedom and justice. They, above all, have reason to expect a plain statement of the progress we are making in that direction.

The American people know from experience that our daily lives are affected not only by what happens in this country but also by events abroad. Most American families bear the scars and memories of a war which began thousands of miles from this nation. Every American wants to be sure that this country is doing everything in its power to build a lasting peace and just peace. We believe that such a peace can be achieved by the nations of the world.

Lists Our Peace Efforts

Anyone can talk of peace. But only the work that is done for peace really counts.

I propose to describe the specific steps the United States has taken to obtain peace in the world. I propose, also, to discuss what further measures we must take, and what measures others must take, if our hopes for peace are to be fulfilled.

I submit to you that the United States has consistently done its part in meeting the requirements for a peaceful world.

We fought through World War II with only one purpose: to destroy the tyrants who tried to impose their rule on the world and enslave its people. We sought no territories; we asked for only token reparations. At the end of the war we quickly dismantled the greatest military machine ever built by any nation. We withdrew and demobilized the American armies that had swept across Europe and the Pacific, leaving only minimum occupation forces in Germany, Austria, Japan and Korea. The nations which our Army had helped to liberate were left free to work out their post-war problems without interference from us.

This was not the course of a nation that sought to impose its will upon others. It was not the course of an aggressor.

Long before the fighting had ended our Government began planning for a world organization which could provide security for all nations. At Dumbarton Oaks, at Yalta and at San Francisco the United States led the way in preparing for a strong and useful United Nations.

Puts Blame on Soviet Union

In the past three years we have taken a leading part in establishing the United Nations and the related agencies—such as the World Bank and the Food and Agricultural Organization—which are fundamental to world peace and prosperity.

No action by the United States has revealed more clearly our sincere desire for peace than our proposal in the United Nations for the international control of atomic energy. In a step without precedent we have voluntarily offered to share with others the secrets of atomic power. We ask only for conditions that will guarantee its use for the benefit of humanity—not for its destruction.

To assist world economic recovery, we have contributed nearly $20,000,000,000 in loans and grants to other nations. American dollars have been invested generously in the cause of peace because we know what peace is worth.

This is a record of action in behalf of peace without parallel in world history.

Many other nations have joined wholeheartedly with us in our work for peace. They share our desire for international control of atomic energy; for the early conclusion of peace treaties; for world economic recovery, and for the effective development of the United Nations.

Why, then, after such great exertions and huge expenditures, do we live today in a twilight period—between a war so dearly won and a peace that still eludes our grasp?

The answer is not hard to find. It lies largely in the attitude of one nation—the Soviet Union.

Long before the war, we worked with the Soviet Union wholeheartedly in defeating the common enemy.

Details Soviet Opposition

In every way we could we tried to convince the Soviet Government that it was possible and necessary for allied unity to continue in the great task of establishing the peace. We hoped that the Soviet Union, secure in her own strength and doubly secure in the respect of her allies, would accept full partnership in a peaceful world community.

The record, however, is clear for all to read. The Soviet Government has rejected the invitation to participate, freely and on equal terms, in a great cooperative program for the reconstruction of Europe. It has constantly maneuvered for delay and for propaganda effect in every international conference. It has used the veto excessively and unreasonably in the Security Council of the United Nations. It has boycotted the "Little Assembly" and several special United Nations commissions. It has used indirect aggression against a number of nations in Eastern Europe and extreme pressure against others in the Middle East. It has intervened in the internal affairs of many other countries by means of Communist parties directed from Moscow.

The refusal of the Soviet Union to work with its wartime allies for world recovery and world peace is the most bitter disappointment of our time.

The great issues of world peace and world recovery are sometimes portrayed as disputes solely between the United States and the Soviet Union. This is not the case. The fact is that not a single one of the major unsettled questions of the post-war world is primarily a disagreement between this country and the Soviet Union.

Sees Soviet Against World

We are not engaged in a struggle with the Soviet Union for any territory or for economic gain. We have no hostile or aggressive designs against the Soviet Union or any other country. We are not waging a "cold war."

The cleavage that exists is not between the Soviet Union and the United States. It is between the Soviet Union and the rest of the world.

The great questions at stake today affect not only the United States and the Soviet Union; they affect all nations.

Whether it be control of atomic energy, aggression against small nations, the German or the Austrian peace settlements, or any of the other questions, the majority of nations concerned have found a common basis for action. But in every case the majority agreement has been rejected, denounced and openly attacked by the Soviet Union and the satellites whose policies it controls.

Let me repeat: The division has not been between the United States and the Soviet Union but between the Soviet Union and the free nations of the world.

The United States is strongly devoted to the principle of discussion and negotiation in settling international differences. We do not believe in settling international differences by force. There are certain types of disputes in international affairs which can and must be settled by negotiation and agreement.

But there are others which are not susceptible to negotiation.

There is nothing to negotiate when one nation disregards the principles of international conduct to which all members of the United Nations subscribe and habitually uses coercion or open aggression in international affairs.

Outlines Situation in Greece

What the world needs in order to regain a sense of security is an end to Soviet obstruction and aggression. I will give you two clear illustrations of what I have in mind.

The situation in Greece has caused great unrest throughout the world. It has been the subject of a series of investigations on the part of commissions of the United Nations. The facts have been established over and over again by these investigations. They are clear beyond dispute. Some 20,000 Greek guerrillas have been able to keep Greece in a state of unrest and to disrupt Greek recovery, primarily because of the aid and comfort they have been receiving from the neighborhing countries of Bulgaria, Yugoslavia and Albania.

Last October the United Nations General Assembly adopted a resolution calling upon Bulgaria, Yugoslavia and Albania to stop their illegal aid and comfort to the Greek rebels. This resolution was agreed to by more than two-thirds of the membership of the United Nations. But it has been boycotted by Russia.

The situation in Greece requires no special negotiation, or discussion, or conference.

On its own initiative the Soviet Government can cease its boycott of the United Nations recommendation. It can join with other nations in stopping illegal foreign support of the Greek guerrillas so that Greece may have an opportunity for peaceful reconstruction.

If the Soviet Union genuinely desires to make a contribution to peace and recovery in the world, it can prove it in Greece.

Holds Need Is Will for Peace

The situation in Korea is also disturbing. There the Soviet Government has defied the clearly expressed will of an overwhelming majority of the United Nations by boycotting the United Nations Temporary Commission on Korea. This commission was created last fall by the General Assembly to help set up a Korean national government based on free and democratic elections.

The Soviet boycott has prevented the residents of the northern zone of Korea from electing representatives to establish a unified national government for Korea.

The situation in Korea requires no special negotiation or discussion or conference.

On its own initiative the Soviet Government can abandon its boycott of the United Nations Commission. It can permit the people of North Korea to work with their compatriots in the south in creating an independent and democratic nation.

If the Soviet Union genuinely desires to make a contribution to peace and recovery in the world, it can prove it in Korea.

In these questions, as in all others, there are practical ways for the Soviet Union to show its good faith by proper action.

The United States will always respond to an honest move by any nation to further the principles and purposes of the Charter of the United Nations.

But no nation has the right to exact a price for good behavior.

What is needed is a will for peace. What is needed is the abandonment of the absurd idea that the capitalistic nations will collapse and that instability in international affairs will hasten their collapse, leaving the world free for communism.

Restates Our Peace Policy

It is possible for different economic systems to live side by side and in peace, one with the other, provided one of these systems is not determined to destroy the other by force.

I have said before and I repeat now: The door is always open for honest negotiations looking toward genuine settlements.

The door is not open, however, for deals between great powers to the detriment of other nations or at the expense of principle. We refuse to play fast and loose with man's hope for peace. That hope for peace is too sacred to be trifled with for propaganda purposes, or selfish advantage, by an individual or nation. We are interested in peace—not, in propaganda.

We shall judge the policy of every nation by whether it advances or obstructs world progress toward peace and we wish our own policy to be judged by the same standard.

I stated our American policy for peace at the end of the war. It has been restated many times, but I shall repeat essential elements of our policy again so that there can be no misunderstanding anywhere by anyone:

"We seek no territorial expansion or selfish advantage.

"We have no plans for aggression against any other State, large or small.

"We have no objective which need clash with the peaceful aims of any other nation."

The United States has been conscientious and consistent in its devotion to those principles.

We have sought to assist free nations in creating economic conditions under which free institutions can survive and flourish.

Says We Will Keep Strong

We have sought through the United Nations the development of a world order in which each nation feels secure under law and can make its contribution to world civilization in accordance with its own means and national tradition.

We have sought to help free nations protect themselves against aggression. We know that peace through weakness has proved to be a dangerous illusion. We are determined, therefore, to keep strong for the sake of peace.

This course is not an easy one but it is the practical, realistic path to peace. It has required, and will continue to require, hard work and some sacrifice by the people of the United States. But from many quarters there is tangible evidence that it is succeeding.

This is the course we must follow. I do not propose that we shall be turned aside by those who want to see us fail.

Our policy will continue to be a policy of recovery, reconstruction, prosperity—and peace with freedom and justice. In its furtherance, we gladly join with all those of like purpose.

The only expansion we are interested in is the expansion of human freedom and the wider enjoyment of the good things of the earth in all countries.

The only prize we covet is the respect and good will of our fellow members of the family of nations.

The only realm in which we aspire to eminence exists in the minds of men, where authority is exercised through the qualities of sincerity, compassion and right conduct.

Abiding devotion to these ideals and profound faith in their ultimate triumph sustain and guide the American people in the service of the most compelling cause of our time—the crusade for peace.

I believe the men and women of every part of the globe intensely desire peace and freedom. I believe good people everywhere will not permit their rulers, no matter how powerful they may have made themselves, to lead them to destruction. America has faith in people. It knows that rulers rise and fall, but people live on.

The American people, from the mighty rostrum of the United Nations, call out to all peoples of the world to join them to preserve the peace.

Truman's View Of Stalin News To Washington

Diplomats in Capital Think Politburo Runs Russia, but Stalin RunsPolitburo

WASHINGTON, June 12 (AP).—President Truman's remark about Prime Minister Stalin being a prisoner of his own Politburo took diplomatic Washington—including many of the President's own experts—by complete surprise today.

The diplomats' view has been roughly the opposite of the one expressed by Mr. Truman. And questions about the President's comment brought a restatement of the idea that the fourteen-man Politburo certainly does run Russia—but that Mr. Stalin runs the Politburo.

Mr. Truman said at Eugene, Ore., last night that "Old Joe," as he called Mr. Stalin, is "a decent fellow" who would keep agreements if he could. "But Joe is a prisoner of the Politburo," Mr. Truman confided in a rear-platform talk.

Tex tof Comment

[Mr. Truman's complete remarks were: "I want peace in the world just as badly as anybody in the world. I went to Potsdam in 1945 with that in view. I went there with the kindliest feelings in the world toward Russia, and we made certain agreements, specific agreements I got very well acquainted with Joe Stalin, and I like old Joe—He is a decent fellow. But Joe is a prisoner of the Politburo. He can't do what he wants to. He makes agreements and, if he could, he would keep them, but the people who run the government are very specific in saying that he cannot keep them. Now some time or other that great country and this great country are going to understand that their mutual interest means the welfare and peace of the world as a whole."]

State Department authorities trying to figure out just what Russia is up to are known to have been operating on the basic theory that Mr. Stalin is captain of the Soviet high command, not its prisoner.

This does not rule out the effect of possible rivalries among the Soviet leaders, however, nor does it suggest what might happen should Mr. Stalin vacate the No. 1 post.

Part of Team Play

Mr. Stalin's role in the recent "peace offensive" is regarded at the State Department as part of a team play, with Foreign Minister Viachislav M. Molotov, Politburo member Anorei A. Zhdanov and other high Soviet officials also playing leading roles.

The Politburo, including Mr. Stalin, is privately described by foreign diplomats here, and by many of the American State Department's own Russian experts, as being engaged in a global campaign to discredit the United States government as being intent on war. The object is to upset American plans for rebuilding Western Europe and preventing the continued spread of Communism in the world.

Into this picture, according to the government's experts, can be fitted the magazine attack published in Moscow today on Secretary of State George C. Marshall and American Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith. They were assailed as part of a military, war-seeking clique which the article said has captured control of the State Department.

Politburo Foils Stalin, President Comments

Aboard Truman Train En Route To Berkeley, Cal., June 12 (AP)—President Truman contended today that Russian forces stronger than "Old Joe" Stalin are preventing the Soviet Premier from keeping agreements vital to world peace.

In the chatty tone of a man passing the time of day with neighbors at the corner drug store, the President said he liked "Old Joe" and gave this personal view of the Russian Premier:

"He is a decent fellow. But Joe is a prisoner of the Politburo. He can't do what he want to. He makes agreements. And if he could, he would keep them; but the people who run the government are very specific in saying that he can't keep them."

Plans Major Speech

The President said he would elaborate in a major foreign-policy speech at the University of California at Berkeley this afternoon on his hopes for eventual understanding between Russia and the United States.

He speaks at commencement exercises at 7.08 P.M. (E.D.T.).

The setting for the President's most intimate public appraisal of Stalin was Eugene, Ore. His audience was a group of townspeople clustered about the back platform of his private car along the railroad tracks.

Speaks Casually

In casual tones, he talked to them through the loud speaker.

He was bareheaded. His voice had a trace of huskiness. His aides said he was a bit tired from days of strenuous travel.

He didn't mention Congress when he got around to the international situation. His attacks on the legislators have been confined to domestic issues.

He called the foreign policy a United States policy and said, "We will have peace in the world" if it is carried out.

"Likes Old Joe"

"I want peace in the world just as badly as anybody in the world," he went on. "I went to Potsdam in 1945 with that in view. I went there with the kindliest feelings in the world toward Russia, and we made certain agreements, specific agreements."

"I got very well acquainted with old Joe Stalin, and I like old Joe," he confided.

Of the future, he said:

"Now some time or other that great country, and this great country, are going to understand that their mutual interests mean the welfare and peace of the world as a whole. I am going to tell you about that tomorrow at the University of California."

The sixteen-car presidential special moved into California after the President spent an active day in Oregon, looking over some of the flood damage and promising all Federal aid possible.

Sees Flood Damage

He is due in Berkeley at 3.15 P.M. (E.D.T.), for the first of three scheduled talks. He addresses Elks Flag Day exercises in San Francisco tomorrow and the Greater Los Angeles Press Club Monday.

Mr. Truman will be met by a reception committee at the Berkeley station of the Southern Pacific Railroad and drive with its members to the university for luncheon.

He will spend tonight at the Fairmont Hotel in San Francisco. The speech in that city will be delivered in Golden Gate Park.

EUROPE-AID FUND RAISED BY SENATORS

Committee Votes Total Of $4,000,000,000 House Cuts Restored

Washington, June 12 (AP)—The Senate Appropriations Committee voted $4,000,000,000 for the European Recovery Program late today—restoring most of the slashes made by the House.

The committee voted unanimously to put the vast aid program on a twelve-month basis instead of the fifteen months approved by the House.

The effect of the action is to give the Economic Co-operation Administration a total of $5,055,000,000 instead of the $5,300,000,000 asked by the Administration.

Effect Is Cited

Senator Bridges (R., N.H.), chairman, said the committee's decision represented an increase of $950,000,000 over the House-approved figures for ECA.

While the committee was unanimous on shifting the program from fifteen back to a twelve-month basis, there was strong disagreement over the total amount to be given ECA.

Reporters outside the committee room could hear angry voices. Bridges said later some committee members wanted more money for the European aid program—others wanted less. But he declined to discuss what had gone on in the dispute.

Vandenberg Led Appeal

Senator Vandenberg (R., Mich.), chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, had led the appeal for restoring the House cuts. He appeared personally before the appropriations group to plead for carrying out the full program authorized by Congress.

In cutting the foreign-aid appropriation and spreading it from twelve to fifteen months, Bridges said the House actually allowed ECA $3,200,000,000 on a twelve-month basis. Included in this figure was $150,000,000 for aid to Japan and Korea.

The Senate committee lifted this $150,000,000 out of the ECA funds and placed it in the program for government and relief in occupied areas.

Shipments To Be Followed

A pattern of followup activity, including the tracing of sample lots of goods landed in the seventeen European countries and China, was disclosed today by Eric L. Kohler, comptroller of the Economic Co-Operation Administration.

Assuming that the Senate restores at least part of the funds stricken from ECA's administrative budget by the House, Kohler said a chief comptroller for Europe will be re-inforced with deputies in each of the foreign missions and a corps of investigators.

European Comptroller Chosen

The European comptroller has been chosen, it was learned. ECA withheld his name, however, pending final approval of the appointment. He will leave for the Paris headquarters of ECA Ambassador-at-large W. Averell Harriman in a week or so.

Kohler, who will direct the activity from Washington, said ECA hopes to "follow up the shipments until we are satisfied they are going into the end-uses that Congress intended."

ECA Administrator Paul G. Hoffman is especially concerned, Kohler said, to see that no sales of so-called "contraband" take place—the diversion of industrial equipment to Russia and her satellites which might build up the Soviet capacity for waging war.

The movement of machinery will be traced until it is installed, to make sure it goes to the approved place and is used for the recovery goods intended, Kohler reported.

"We would consider it an improper use, for instance, if factory equipment were put to making armaments."

Raw materials will be followed to the factory, to make sure they are processed into specified recovery items, he said, and food will be checked to learn whether it is switched into black markets or speculative channels.

Leads furnished by the European governments or private citizens will be followed up by the investigators, most of whom will be accountants or auditors.

Prices To Be Checked

At this end of the recovery plan pipeline, Kohler's staff will check the prices paid by European buyers. The aim will be to see that no price above the current market level is paid.

Scores of investigators "at least" will be needed, Kohler said. The actual number may depend, however, on the outcome of the congressional battle over the 26 per cent cut in ECA funds voted by the House.

The slash would leave $10,000,000 for administrative costs. This compares with ECA's rule-of-thumb estimate that about $53,000,000, or one per cent of total operations, will be needed. Out of this would come the enforcement money.

Hoffman, Kenneth C. Royall, Secretary of the Army, and Lieut. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer asked the Senate Appropriations Committee today to give both military and economic aid to China.

Senator Bridges (R., N.H.), chairman of the committee, said they made a strong case for a $463,000,000 China aid program. The House voted $400,000,000.

U.S. Military Aid To West Bloc Expected

Washington, June 12 (AP)—The American Government was expected today to expand its foreign aid objectives to include military aid to a western European defense organization which this country might eventually join.

That appeared to be the first major product likely to come from the Senate's overwhelming 64-to-4 approval yesterday of a far-reaching foreign policy resolution offered by Senator Vandenberg (R., Michigan).

Passage of that resolution served notice on the world that the treaty-making chamber favors United States participation in regional defense organizations set up to carry out the peace aims of the United Nations.

Role In Peace

By its vote, Vandenberg said, the Senate clearly set forth "America's role in collective peace."

It offers "new hope for peace and security," he said, not by "automatic military alliances," but by a "plan for our practical American co-operation, under specified circumstances, within the framework of the United Nations."

Stressing the peace objectives of the policy statement, Vandenberg said the Senate action would serve as a warning to any "possible aggressor who might sneer at any arguments save those of force."

Vandenberg's resolution, drafted with State Department approval, has no binding effect. A somewhat similar measure has been introduced in the House which would be law if passed by both houses and signed by the President.

Regional Pacts

But the Senate action was expected to have direct effect on European efforts to work out a regional defense organization based on the five-nation pact signed recently at Brussels.

State Department officials have indicated their hope of furthering that project. Coupled with Vandenberg's drive to restore House cuts in funds for the European Recovery Program, the Senate action may set to rest openly expressed fears abroad that this country might not live up to pledged commitments.

On that score, Vandenberg said the United States must meet its obligations for world peace even if they are not put down on paper.

In addition to the defense pact provision, the document put the Senate on record as favoring:

1. Establishment of the international peace-keeping force authorized by the United Nations Charter.
2. Elimination of the big power Security Council veto on matters involving peaceful settlement of international disputes or the admission of new members.
3. World-wide reduction and regulation of armaments.

Regional Pacts

Senate passage came after a 61-to-6 rejection of a move by Senator Pepper (D., Fla.) to strike out the sections dealing with United States participation in regional defense pacts.

Pepper said the resolution was an opening move to wreck the United Nations with a return to the "iniquitous and odious balance of power that has never kept the world in peace."

"It's very clear from the history of the resolution," Pepper said, "that this is the consummation of a carefully devised plan to prepare the Congress and the people for a military alliance with western Europe."

U. S. TO TRACE PATH OF AID-SHIPMENTS

Scores to Investigate Usage of Goods to Prevent Missale or Diversion for War

WASHINGTON, June 12 (AP)—Scores of investigators will follow foreign-aid shipments through Europe to check on (1) improper or black market sales and (2) the possible disappearance of "war po-Curtain."

A pattern of follow-up activity, including the tracing of sample lots of goods landed in the seventeen participating European countries and China, was disclosed today by Eric L. Kohler, Controller of the Economic Cooperation Administration.

Assuming that the Senate restores at least part of the funds stricken from the ECA's administrative budget by the House, Mr. Kohler said a chief controller for Europe would be re-inforced with deputies in each of the foreign missions and a corps of investigators.

The European controller has been chosen, it was learned, the ECA withheld his name, however, pending final approval of the appointment. He will leave for the Paris headquarters of ECA Ambassador-at-Large W. Averell Harrimann in a week or so.

Hoffman on the Alert

Mr. Kohler, who will direct the activity from Washington, said the ECA hoped to "follow up the shipments until we are satisfied they are going into the end-uses that Congress intended."

ECA Administrator Paul G. Hoffman is especially concerned, Mr. Kohler said, to see that no sales of so-called "contraband"—the diversion of industrial equipment to Russia and her satellites which might build up the Soviet capacity for waging war — take place.

The movement of machinery will be traced until it is installed, to make sure that it goes to the approved place and is used for the recovery purposes intended, Mr. Kohler reported.

"We would consider it an improper use, for instance, if factory equipment were put to making armaments," he said.

Raw materials will be followed to the factory, to make sure they are processed into the specified recovery items, he said, and food will be checked to learn whether it is switched into black markets or speculative channels.

Leads furnished by the European governments or private citizens will be followed up by the investigators, most of whom will be accountants or auditors.

Prices Based on Market

At this end of the recovery plan pipeline Mr. Kohler's staff will check the prices paid by European buyers. The aim will be to see that no price above the current market level is paid.

"At least" scores of investigators will be needed, the ECA official said. The actual number may depend, however, on the outcome of the Congressional battle over the 26 per cent cut in ECA funds voted by the House.

The slash would leave $10,000,000 for administrative costs. This compares with ECA's rule-of-thumb estimate that about $53,000,000, or 1 per cent of total operations, will be needed. Out of this would come the enforcement money.

Mr. Hoffman, Secretary of the Army Kenneth C. Royall and Lieut. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer asked the Senate Appropriations Committee today to give both military and economic aid to China.

Senator Styles Bridges, Republican, of New Hampshire, chairman of the committee, said they made a strong case for a $463,000,000 aid program for China. The House voted $400,000,000.

Hoffman, Royall Urge Full Aid For Chinese

Washington, June 12 (AP)—Economic Co-Operation Administrator Paul G. Hoffman and Army Secretary Kenneth Royall urged the Senate Appropriations Committee today to give both economic and military aid to China.

Senator Bridges (R., N.H.), committee chairman, said the two had made a "strong case" for a $463,000,000 aid program designed to halt Communism in China.

Lieut. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer, the Army's chief of plans and operations also backed the China-aid program as the committee went into a closed-door huddle on the multi-million-dollar foreign-aid program.

Aid To China "Necessary"

Bridges said Wedemeyer told the committee that both economic and military aid will be necessary "if Communism is to be retarded."

Hoffman testified exclusively on the China situation, Bridges said. The ECA chief urged "full restoration" of China aid. The House has loped approximately $143,000,000 off the amount asked by the Administration.

Hoffman assured Bridges and other committee members that he "will select the best and most competent people" he can find for the China program.

Bridges quoted Hoffman as saying the United States must "maintain our operations there to prevent the situation from becoming much more serious."

The committee had before it a House cut of between one and two billion dollars in the foreign-aid program designed to help friendly countries halt the spread of communism. The slash was expected to be considerably smaller by the time the Senate gets through with the measure.

The Administration asked a total of $6,533,710,228 for a twelve-month aid program, including assistance to Greece, Turkey and China. But the House voted $5,980,710,228 to be spread over fifteen months.

Secretary of State Marshall said yesterday if the cut stands it will change the entire aid program from "a calculated risk for success" to one of "a calculated risk for failure."

HOUSE GROUP SPLIT ON DRAFT

One Rules Committee Member May Decide Fate Of Bill

Washington, June 12 (AP)—The fate of draft legislation in this session of Congress hinges on a House Rules Committee vote expected Monday. One man may swing it.

If that committee decides to give the bill the legislative right of way, Congress still may be able to complete action on it before the scheduled recess next Saturday.

A poll today showed the twelve Rules Committee members to be split this way on the issue:

Six in favor of sending the bill to the floor, five opposed and one, Representative Harness, (R., Ind.), not committed.

Tie Would Stop Bill

A tie vote would keep the bill in the Rules Committee.

Harness, a one-time Infantry lieutenant and Purple Heart veteran of World War I, repeatedly has opposed both the draft and Universal Military Training.

Harness was in Indiana, where he declined to say how he would vote. An associate here said he might vote to clear the draft bill through the Rules Committee, with the reservation that he could talk and vote against it during floor debate.

The House draft bill, approved 28 to 5 by the House Armed Services Committee has been held up by Rules Committee opposition since May 7.

Six Favor Measure

The six on that committee favoring the bill are Representatives Cox (D., Ga.), Smith (D., Va.), Clark (D., N.C.), Wadsworth (R., N.Y.), Herter (R., Mass.), and Rizley (R., Okla.). The five opposed are Representative Leo E. Allen, chairman of the groups and Representatives Sabath (D., Ill.), Chenoweth (D., Colo.), Rich (R., Pa.), and Brown (R., Ohio).

The Senate's draft bill, passed by a towering 78-to-10 majority Thursday, formally reached the House today. If the House passes its own bill, as leaders presently plan, the two measures will go into conference for differences to be settled.

Into the week-end draft debate lull, Representative Hoffman (R., Mich.) flung a statement calling consideration of a draft in peacetime "a sorry sight."

Will Force Race Issue

Representative Powell (D., N.Y.) served notice today that he will demand a House vote on wiping out racial segregation in the armed forces.

He said in a statment he will offer 31 amendments when House debate begins next week, and unless given full time to discuss them "will stage a one-man strike against conducting any other business in the House."

Under House rules, Powell could take five minutes to debate each amendment, and members opposing or supporting his proposals could have five minutes on each one.

Powell said his amendments will include the six civil-rights proposals advanced in the Senate by Senator Langer (R., N.D.), but laid aside after lengthy debate.

Would ExemptGuardsmen

National Guardsmen of draft age would be exempt from active military service under both the House and Senate draft bills—if they join before the draft law goes into effect.

The language of the two measures is almost identical.

They provide that members of the National Guard and the Air National Guard would be exempt as long as they performed assigned duties. However, those within the registration ages would have to register with their draft boards.

The same exemption would apply to members of the various reserve organizations.

Both bills provide that 18-year-olds, who would be subject to registration but not the draft, could escape the draft by joining the Guard or any of the organized reserves before reaching the age of 18½.

SOVIET JET PLANES FAST

Films Smuggled Out Show Them Built To Exceed Sound

New York, June 12 (AP)—Aviation Week says that motion-picture film smuggled out from behind the iron curtain shows the Soviet has jet planes designed for faster than sound flight.

These include Russian versions of the Nazi DFS 346 which reportedly reached a speed of 748 miles per hour, the current issue of the magazine says.

"The whole aeronautical world has been wondering whether Russia has been able to exceed the speed of sound," the magazine says. "These reports indicate this ship has."

Drawings Of Planes Shown

Drawings of Soviet planes shown in the magazine, it adds, are based on film made "from the ground with a camera equipped with a telescopic lens as the planes were tested."

Aviation Week says the photographs did not originate with McGraw-Hill's Moscow bureau but "arrived in this contry by a circuitous route." No other details are given.

The magazine says the Russians took over the German's unfinished DFS 346 along with its engineers at the end of the war. Both Soviet versions are described as research fighters.

Last Thursday, W. Stuart Symington, Secretary of the Air Force, said the Force's experimental Bell XC-1 "haw flown much faster than the speed of sound many times."

Various Speeds Of Sound

Sound travels at about 760 miles an hour at sea level and with a temperature of about 59 degrees Fahrenheit. At higher altitudes and under other temperatures, humidity and conditions, it moves slower. Thus, at 40,000 feet and with subzero temperatures it has a rate of about 660 miles an hour.

Aviation Week also reports three other Russian planes:

An Ilyushin Four jet high speed bomber in many respects similar to the Boeing jet bomber, XB-47. One novel feature of the Soviet plane is a tail gunner's compartment.

A twin-engine jet bomber designed by Andrei Tupelov, based on, but larger than, the reciprocating engine attack bomber TU-2.

A turbo-jet fighter reportedly the work of Artem L. Mikoyan.

Monetary Fund Defied Again

Washington, June 12. — The International Monetary Fund's authority over changes in currency rates by member governments was defied for a second time yesterday.

This became clear when fund officials withheld public approval of a rate change decreed yesterday by the Government of Colombia. The Bogota announcement recalled the French Government's recent establishment of multiple exchange rates for the franc which the fund said was in violation of its articles of agreement.

Officials of the fund were closemouthed when news reached here of the Colombian move. They said the fund had been discussing Colombia's monetary problems and had sent a mission—since returned—to Bogota several months ago.

WOMAN'S UNITS MADE PART OF MILITARY

WASHINGTON, June 12 (AP)—Women got a permanent place today in the Army, Navy and Marine Corps.

The White House announced that President Truman signed on his western trip legislation giving it to them.

Under the bill's terms, the Wacs will have a maximum strength of 1,000 officers and 17,500 enlisted women. The Waves and Marines will have 1,000 officers and 10,000 in the ranks.

This compares with a peak of 100,400 women in the Wacs and 97,800 in the Waves and Marines during the war. They were enlisted then under wartime authority which will expire six months after the official end of hostilities.

A joint Army-Navy-Air Force announcement said it is planned to build up to the following strengths at the end of two years:

Army—500 officers, 75 warrant officers, 7,500 enlisted women (present strength 875 officers and 6,000 enlisted).

Navy—500 officers, 20 warrant officers, 6,000 enlisted women.

Marines—100 officers, 10 warrant officers, 1,000 enlisted. (The present Navy and Marine components together total about 425 officers and 1,800 enlisted women).

At the outset, the women will be enlisted in the Navy and Marine Corps from among those who served during World War II. Enlisted women for the Wacs and Wafs (women's air force service) will come first from among present members and later from former service women or women with no previous service.

The present directors of the Army, Navy and Marine women's groups are expected to remain in those posts. A director of the Wafs will be named later.

Hiring of Aliens For Army Has A Long History

Senate Proposal Granting Them Citizenship After 5-Year Service Not New

WASHINGTON, June 12 (AP).—In 407 B. C., the city state of Athens let the slaves enlist in the army with the promise of making them citizens.

The United States Senate, working on a draft law, has just voted to let 25,000 anti-Communist aliens enlist in the United States armed forces with the promise of making them American citizens after five years' service.

History is full of the story of nations hiring aliens to fight for them.

Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, Republican, of Massachusetts, offered the alien volunteers idea to the Senate, which accepted it, but not without some protest.

Substitutes in Civil War

Senator Lodge said that every alien—such an anti-Communist Poles and Czechs in Europe—who enlisted, would mean one less American to be drafted.

A soldier hired to fight for a country which is not his own is called a mercenary. Senator Lodge said the 25,000 aliens he has in mind should not be called mercenaries.

But Senator Spessard L. Holland, Democrat, of Florida, said this country just the same would be accused of doing that, hiring mercenaries.

And Senator Chan Gurney, Republican, of South Dakota, fighting Senator Lodge's idea, said: "Many people feel that such a move would subject our nation to the criticism that our own people are not willing to bear arms in the defense of the nation."

During the Civil War in this country men facing the draft for the Union Army could hire substitutes by paying them $300. In the South, too, would-be draftees in the Confederate Army could hire substitutes.

Rich Hired the Poor

In their "Growth of the American Republic," the historians Morison and Commager have a note on what happened in the North in Civil War days: "As recruits were credited to the district where they enlisted, and not to that of their residence, several wealthy communities escaped the draft altogether by purchasing cannon-fodder in the poorer country districts."

In short, the rich could hire the poor to do their fighting.

Hired alien soldiers have a long history.

In 401 B. C., for instance, Cyrus the Persian hired Xenophon and 10,000 Greeks to fight for him in Persia. When Cyrus was killed the Greeks had a terrible time getting back home.

Then there were the Carthaginians, when they were fighting Rome in the western Mediterranean.

The business men of Carthage didn't want to fight. They hired outsiders to do it for them.

Carthage was defeated by the Romans and faded out of history.

Warning by Machiavelli

The Romans themselves, while they depended on the citizens of Rome and the empire to do the empire's fighting, were good for centuries.

As the Roman Empire started to decay, barbarian mercenaries were hired to do the fighting. That empire, too, fell.

Machiavelli had a horror of mercenaries.

He wrote a chapter on them, in which he said: "The mercenaries and auxiliaries are useless and dangerous, and if any one supports his state by the arms of mercenaries he will never stand firm or sure, as they are disunited, ambitious, without discipline . . . and keep no faith with men.

There were so many mercenaries fighting in Italy in the Machiavellian period—from the middle of the thirteenth to the middle of the fifteenth centuries—that they never knew from one day to the next for whom they were fighting.

So when they met in battle, knowing they all might be on the same side the next day, they showed each other so much professional courtesy that sometimes mercenary armies fought for a day at a time with hardly the loss of a single man.

In this country the British brought over 30,000 German mercenaries—the Hessians— to fight us in the Revolutionary War.

Only about 17,000 of them got back home. The rest were killed or settled here.

CONDON HEARING DUE IN AUGUST

Washington, June 12 (A. P.).—The House Committee on Un-American Activities is planning a series of hearings, beginning with the Condon case, that may keep it active through the late summer and early fall.

Acting Chairman McDowell (R.-Pa.) told newspaper men today it is very probable the committee will start hearings about August 1 in its investigation of Dr. Edward U. Condon, head of the Bureau of Standards. They may be followed, he said, by a resumption of the Communism-in-Hollywood inquiry and hearings on immigration and alleged Communist infiltration of Negro groups.

For more than a month a subcommittee headed by McDowell has been holding secret hearings in the Condon case. The Pennsylvanian said there are only a few more loose ends to be cleaned up.

DIVORCE SET ASIDE

Chicago, June 12 (A. P.).—A Jewish doctor had the Circuit Court set aside today a wartime divorce he obtained from his Aryan wife to save her from harm in Germany. Dr. Alfred Peter Eisenstaedt, 60, a pediatrician, obtained the divorce in Bremen, Germany, on June 4, 1941, while he was living in Cuba.

He said reinstatement of his marriage by Judge William V. Brothers will enable him to bring his wife, Toni, 50, and a son, Dieter, 23, to the United States.

The doctor was sent to the Sachsenhusen concentration camp on January 25, 1939, because of his Jewish ancestry. He later was released and fled to Cuba, where he learned the Nazis had threatened his wife unless Mrs. Eisenstaedt divorced him. She refused, but the doctor said he arranged for the divorce on grounds of desertion, and came to the United States, becoming a citizen in 1946.

Brothers ruled the divorce was fraudulent because it was obtained under duress.

State Dept. Has Outside Statue On Its Hands

Congress Lags on Accepting Uruguay'sGift,Sculpture of Its Hero, Gen. Artigas

WASHINGTON, June 12 (AP).—As if it didn't have troubles enough already, the State Department has come up with another problem. It has a homeless, bigger-than-life statue, and doesn't know what to do with it.

The statue is of General Gervasio Artigas, the hero of Uruguay.

The general got here in one of the nicest possible ways.

The good people of Uruguay longed to give something to the good people of the United States. And what could be more fitting than a statue of their beloved hero, General Artigas, the George Washington of Uruguay?

So they saved their pesos. The statue was carefully chipped out, crated and shipped here.

Then up popped trouble. For not just any one, not even the good people of Uruguay can give this country a statue. No, it first must be accepted by Congress.

It was Senator Harry P. Cain, Republican, of Washington, who called attention to the general's plight. Some time ago Senator Cain introduced a bill for the United States to accept the gift, but somehow Congress never has found time.

Senator Cain became so interested that he paid a special visit to the statue. He said he found it slowly sinking into the mud, with the general wading up to his shins.

"How would the people of the United States like it," Senator Cain asked a reporter, "if the people of Uruguay let George Washington sink into the mud?"

But Bill Cody, a State Department man, said he has visited the general more recently and found him high and dry. The statue now has been installed in a State Department warehouse.

"He was in splendid shape," Mr. Cody said, reassuringly. "But I do wish Congress would accept the gift and take him off our hands."

U.S. Aide Named Head By World Labor Group

San Francisco, June 12(AP)—David A. Moore, Under Secretary of Labor, today was elected director-general of theInternational Labor Organization.

He declined comment on whether he would resign his Labor Department post, but noted: "this is a full-time job which I have accepted."

The world organization's goveming body, which chose Morse to succeed Ireland's Edward Phelan, is made up of 16 government, eight employer and eight worker representatives. Phelan is retiring; he becomes 60 next month. The post pays $20,000 annually—non-taxable —plus expenses.

Bullet Wound Fatal To Navy Engineman

Norfolk, Va., June 12 (AP)—Grant William Clem, engineman-fireman, USN, died at a hospital at Chincoteague Naval Air Station today of a pistol shot wound, Fifth Naval district spokesmen reported.

Clem, who was attached to a plane squadron at the naval aviation ordance test station at Chincoteague, was found at 12.50 A.M. at his sentry post, a bullet wound in the abdomen. He died at 1.15 A.M. A board of investigation has been appointed.

Clem was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin G. Clem, Bloomington, Ill.

LONDON,JUNE 12-(AP)-WINSTON CHURCHILL CALLED ON BRITAIN'S YOUTH TODAY TO GIVE UP DREAMS OF EMIGRATING AND REMAIN AT HOME TO HELP IN THE MOTHER COUNTRY'S FIGHT FOR ECONOMIC RECOVERY.

THAT FIGHT, HE SAID IN A VIGOROUS ADDRESS TO 8,000 MEMBERS OF YOUNG CONSERVATIVE CLUBS, WILL REQUIRE THE PROMPT ENDING OF THE LABOR GOVERNMENT'S PROGRAM OF NATIONALIZATION, AND A DEFEAT OF SOCIALISTS IN AN EARLY ELECTION.

"UNLESS WE FREE OUR COUNTRY, WHILE TIME REMAINS, FROM THE PERVERSE DOCTRINES OF SOCIALISM THERE CAN BE NO HOPE OF RECOVERY," HE SAID. "THIS ISLAND CANNOT MAINTAIN ITS POPULATION AS A GREAT POWER UNDER A SOCIALIST OR COLLECTIVIST SYSTEM. THE MOST ENERGETIC AND THE NIMBLEST WILL EMIGRATE, AND WE SHOULD BE LEFT WITH A HOARD OF SAFE OFFICIALS BROODING OVER A VAST MASS OF WORRIED, HUNGRY AND BROKEN HUMAN BEINGS."

THEN HE ADVISED THE YOUTHS TO REMAIN.

AT THE SAME TIME, THE JEWS CHARGED SYRIANS BROKE THE CEASE FIRE ORDER BY FIRING ON EIN GEB, JEWISH SETTLEMENT ON THE EAST SHORE OF THE SEA OF GALILEE.

MUHSEN BEY BERAZI, ACTING FOREIGN MINISTER OF SYRIA, TOLD NEWSMEN IN DAMASCUS THAT THE JEWS HAD RESUMED FIRING ON THE SYRIAN LINE EARLY SATURDAY.

U.N. MILITARY OBSERVERS WERE RUSHED TO THE NORTHERN FRONTS WHERE BOTH SIDES WERE COMPLAINING OF TRUCE VIOLATIONS, AND TO RAMLE, EAST OF TEL AVIV, WHERE A DANGEROUS SITUATION CONTINUED AFTER A MEDIATOR CARRIED A WHITE FLAG ACROSS THE LINES AND ARRANGED AN EXCHANGE OF DEAD.

BERNADOTTE SAID HE HOPED TO SOLVE SOON THE SITUATION CONCERNING THE ROAD TO JERUSALEM. THE JEWS SAID THEY HAD BLASTED OPEN A CONVOY PATH TO JERUSALEM IN THE LAST PRE-TRUCE HOURS, BUT ARAB COMMANDERS THREATENED TO USE ARTILLERY IF NECESSARY TO MAINTAIN THEIR BLOCKADE ON MILITARY SUPPLIES TO THE CITY.

IN GERMANY THE WESTERN ALLIES WEATHERED ANOTHER CRISIS WHEN THE RUSSIANS DID A QUICK TURNABOUT AFTER CLAMPING AN HOURS-LONG RESTRICTION ON RAIL TRAFFIC INTO BERLIN FROM THE WESTERN ZONES.

AFTER BLOCKING RAIL SHIPMENTS FROM THE WESTERN OCCUPATION ZONE TO BERLIN THROUGHOUT FRIDAY NIGHT, THE RUSSIANS SUDDENLY CHANGED THEIR TUNE SATURDAY AND LIFTED THE BAN.

THEIR ACTION WOULD HAVE CUT OFF FOOD AND FUEL FROM BERLIN'S 2,000,-000 GERMANS. GEN.LUCIUS D.CLAY, U.S. MILITARY GOVERNOR, SAID HE WAS PREPARED TO FLY FOOD INTO BERLIN'S AMERICAN COMMUNITY. IT WOULD NOT HAVE BEEN POSSIBLE TO SUPPLY BERLIN'S GERMANS WITH FOOD BY AIRPLANE.

THE RUSSIANS GAVE NO EXPLANATION OF THEIR ORDER OR ITS WITHDRAWAL. AMERICAN OFFICIALS LOOKED ON THE RUSSIAN MOVE AS JUST ANOTHER ATTEMPT TO ANNOY THE WESTERN ALLIES.

IN PARIS MOST POLITICAL OBSERVERS SAID THEY BELIEVED PREMIER ROBERT SCHUMAN WILL WIN PARLIAMENTARY APPROVAL OF THE LONDON SIX-POWER AGREEMENT TO SET UP A SEPARATE WESTERN GERMAN STATE, BUT IT MAY COST FOREIGN MINISTER GEORGES BIDAULT HIS JOB.

DEGAULLISTS AND COMMUNISTS HAVE ATTACKED THE AGREEMENT. GEN.CHARLES DE GAULLE CONTENDS IT WOULD OPEN THE PATH FOR EVENTUAL RUSSIAN DOMINATION OF ALL GERMANY. THE ASSEMBLY IS SCHEDULED TO VOTE ON THE ACCORD ON TUESDAY.

THE NEW NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT IN JOHANNESBURG, UNION OF SOUTH AFRICA, CAME IN FOR CRITICISM AT HOME WHEN IT ANNOUNCED IT WOULD FREE IMMEDIATELY FIVE MEN CONVICTED OF WAR-TIME ACTIVITIES, INCLUDING BROADCASTING GERMAN PROPAGANDA. J.H.HOFMEYR, DEPUTY PREMIER IN THE FORMER GOVERNMENT OF PREMIER JAN CHRISTIAAN SMUTS, TERMED THE PLAN, "A SMACH IN THE FACE FOR THE MEN AND WOMEN WHO FOUGHT TO FREE THE WORLD OF NAZISM."

PALESTINE'S TRUCE TEETERED UNCERTAINLY TODAY UNDER CHARGES OF VIOLATIONS BY ARABS AND JEWS. IN GERMANY, THE RUSSIANS CLAMPED ANOTHER BLOCKADE ON RAIL SHIPMENTS FROM WESTERN OCCUPATION ZONES TO BERLIN BUT LATER AGREED TO LET FREIGHT TRAFFIC RESUME.

AN ARAB LEAGUE NOTE TO COUNT FOLKE BERNADOTTE, UNITED NATIONS MEDIATOR FOR PALESTINE, WARNED THAT THE ARAB GOVERNMENT "RESERVE THE RIGHT OF QUICK ACTION IN REPLY TO CRIMINAL ZIONIST ATTACKS."

THE JEWS ALSO WARNED THAT THE TRUCE, WHICH BEGAN FRIDAY, HAS BEEN VIOLATED. THEY SAID INFRACTIONS WOULD PROVOKE JEWISH COUNTERATTACK.

BERNADOTTE LEFT CAIRO FOR HIS NEW HEADQUARTERS ON THE ISLE OF RHODES. THERE HE WILL NEGOTIATE FOR PERMANENT PEACE IN THE HOLY LAND.

THROUGHOUT LAST NIGHT THE RUSSIANS BLOCKED BERLIN-BOUND FREIGHT TRAFFIC FROM WESTERN GERMANY. BUT TODAY, U.S.AND BRITISH OFFICIALS ANNOUNCED, THEY SAID THE TRAINS COULD MOVE AGAIN. A CONFERENCE WAS ARRANGED FOR MONDAY.

GEN.LUCIUS D.CLAY, AMERICAN COMMANDER IN GERMANY, SAID HE WOULD SHUTTLE SUPPLIES BY AIR TO THE GERMANS AND AMERICANS IN THE U.S. SECTOR OF BERLIN IF NECESSARY. THIS WAS DONE LAST APRIL WHEN THE SOVIETS TEMPORARILY RESTRICTED TRAFFIC BETWEEN BERLIN AND THE WEST.

CLAY SAID THE SOVIET MOVE CAME WITHOUT WARNING. BRITISH OFFICIALS SAID THE RUSSIANS SAID THE EMBARGO WAS NECESSARY BECAUSE THE CITY WAS CONGESTED. THE BRITISH SAID THEY WERE NOT AWARE OF CONGESTION.

TEL AVIV, ISRAEL, JUNE 12-(AP)-ALL ISRAEL MOURNED TODAY THE DATH OF COL.DAVID MARCUS, THE BROOKLYN-BORN WEST POINTER WHO RECENTLY WAS NAMED SUPREME COMMANDER OF JEWISH FORCES IN THE JERUSALEM AREA.

HE WAS KILLED THURSDAY NIGHT BY A STRAY RIFLE BULLET DURING AN ARAB-JEWISH CLASH IN THE HILLS NEAR THE HOLY CITY.

EVEN BEFORE HIS DEATH, MARCUS HAD BECOME SOMEWHAT OF A LEGEND TO THE JEWS IN PALESTINE. BEFORE THE STATE OF ISRAEL WAS PROCLAIMED ALL THE NAMES OF HAGANAH LEADERS WERE KEPT STRICTLY SECRET. EVEN AFTER HAGANAH BECAME THE LEGAL ARMY OF THE NEW STATE AND ENGAGED IN OPEN WAR WITH THE ARABS, THE NAMES OF OFFICERS WERE NOT MADE PUBLIC.

BUT ALMOST EVERYONE HAD HEARD TALK OF "THE AMERICAN" WHO WAS ONE OF HAGANAH'S TOP-RANK FIGURES. WHEN ISRAELI PREMIER, DAVID BEN-GURION, ANNOUNCED THE DEATH OF MARCUS HE SAID THE AMERICAN OFFICER'S COURAGE AND MILITARY SKILL "SECURED FOR HIM A PLACE OF HONOR IN THIS MOMENTOUS PHASE OF OUR HISTORY."

MARCUS' AIDE, A YOUNG, MUSTACHED PALESTINAIAN OFFICER, SAID HIS

COMMANDER WAS KILLED "BY A STRAY SHOT IN THE NIGHT" WHILE WATCHING A BATTLE IN THE HILLS WEST OF JERUSALEM ONLY A FEW HOURS BEFORE THE FOUR-WEEK TRUCE WENT INTO EFFECT. MARCUS DIED INSTANTLY, THE AIDE SAID.

"HE WAS A VERY GREITMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMM

"HE WAS A VERY GREAT LOSS TO US," THE OFFICER SAID. "HE HAD BECOME ALMOST A LEGEND. VERY MANY OF OUR PEOPLE KNEW HIM. HE WAS A RARE COMBINATION OF A PROFESSIONAL SOLDIER WHO KNEW HIS STUFF, AND AT THE SAME TIME HE WAS SO SIMPLE AND FRIENDLY THAT HE WAS LOVED BY ALL OUR SOLDIERS.

"MOST OF US DIDN'T KNOW HIS NAME," THE OFFICER CONTINUED. "WE CALLED HIM ONLY 'THE AMERICAN'. TO HIS FRIENDS HE WAS JUST 'MICKEY'."

THE AIDE SAID MARCUS JOINED HAGANAH AS AN "ADVISOR" ABOUT THREE MONTHS AGO. HE SPENT TWO WEEKS IN THE UNITED STATES BUT RETURNED ABOUT THE TIME BRITAIN GAVE UP THE MANDATE ON MAY 15.

WHILE ACTING AS AN ADVISOR HE VISITED ALMOST ALL THE FRONTS DURING THE FIGHTING, THE OFFICER SAID.

BEN-GURION'S ANNOUNCEMENT OF HIS DEATH INDICATED THAT MARCUS HAD ONLY RECENTLY TAKEN OVER AN ACTIVE COMMAND POST.

TEL AVIV, ISRAEL, JUNE 12-(AP)-THE FIRST UNITED NATIONS TRUCE OBSERVERS--FOUR UNITED STATES NAVY AND MARINE OFFICERS--ARRIVED HERE FROM CAIRO TODAY TO CARRY OUT THE ARMISTICE PROVISIONS.

COMMANDER H.D.HUXLEY OF SAN FRANCISCO SAID THE GROUP WOULD ENFORCE TRUCE RESTRICTIONS ON IMMIGRATION AND MOVEMENT OF WAR MATERIALS.

ALTHOUGH ISRAEL OFFICIALS REPORTED ARAB VIOLATIONS OF THE TRUCE IN THE NORTH AT EIN GEB KFAR SZOLD, AND MISHMAR HAY YARDEN, OTHER SECTORS APPARENTLY WERE QUIET.

FIGHTING AT THE ARAB-HELD TOWN OF RAMLE, 10 MILES SOUTHEAST OF TEL AVIV, WHERE CLASHES CONTINUED UNTIL LATE AFTERNOON YESTERDAY, HAD STOPPED TODAY.

JOHN REEDMAN, SOUTH AFRICAN REPRESENTATIVE OF U.N. SECRETARY GENERAL TRYGVE LIE, SAID HE CARRIED A WHITE FLAG FROM THE JEWISH TO THE ARAB LINES AT RAMLE TO STOP THE FIGHTING.

"WHEN I ARRIVED ABOUT 4 P.M. YESTERDAY THE JEWISH COMMANDER WAS PREPARING TO COUNTERATTACK POSITIONS AT YEHUDIA NEAR RAMLE WHICH HE SAID HAD BEEN SEIZED BY THE ARABS AFTER THE 10 O'CLOCK DEADLINE," REEDMAN SAID. "HE AGREED TO SUSPEND THE ATTACK WHILE I WALKED OVER TO THE ARAB LINES WITH A WHITE FLAG. THE ARAB COMMANDER AGREED TO WITHDRAW FROM THE POSITION AND MADE ARRANGEMENTS FOR AN EXCHANGE OF DEAD."

THE U.N. SPOKESMAN QUIETED THIS "POTENTIALLY EXPLOSIVE" DISPUTE WITH AN AGREEMENT FOR A SEVEN-DAY "SPECIAL TRUCE." HE SAID BOTH SIDES AGREED TO MAINTAIN THEIR PRESENT POSITIONS WITHOUT FURTHER FIGHTING PENDING MEDIATION BY THE U.N. MEDIATOR, COUNT FOLKE BERNADOTTE, DURING THE NEXT WEEK.

WILLIAM IVERSEN, NORWEGIAN U.N. REPRESENTATIVE, STAYED BEHIND IN THE ARAB LINES FOR A FEW HOURS AFTER THE EXCHANGE OF DEAD BECAUSE OF THE TENSENESS OVER CONFLICTING JEWISH-ARAB CLAIMS ABOUT TRUCE VIOLATIONS.

MARINE MAJOR ROY D.MILLER OF DRESDEN, OHIO, LEFT WITH REEDMAN TO OBSERVE THE SITUATION TODAY.

JERUSALEM, JUNE 12-(AP)-COUNT FOLKE BERNADOTTE MADE A FLYING VISIT TO JERUSALEM TODAY, EN ROUTE TO THE ISLAND OF RHODES WHERE HE WILL PREPARE FOR TALKS ON THE PALESTINE CONFLICT.

THE UNITED NATIONS MEDIATOR, ACCOMPANIED BY A LARGE STAFF OF ADVISERS, CAME HERE FROM CAIRO AND AMMAN, TRANS-JORDAN, BY PLANE.

WEARING A TROPICAL VERSION OF A SWEDISH GENERAL'S UNIFORM, BERNADOTTE VISITED THE JEWISH AGENCY, AND CONFERRED WITH THE UNITED NATIONS CONSULAR TRUCE COMMISSION AT THE UNITED STATES CONSULATE. THEN HE WENT INTO THE ARAB-HELD WALLED CITY TO CONFER WITH BRIG. NORMAN LASH AND MAJ.ABDULLAH TEL OF THE TRANS-JORDAN ARAB LEGION.

BERNADOTTE LAID A WREATH ON THE GRAVE OF U.S. CONSUL GENERAL THOMAS C.WASSON, WHO WAS KILLED BY SNIPER FIRE.

BERNADOTTE TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE AT THE U.S. CONSULATE THAT THE TRUCE COMMISSION, MADE UP OF THE AMERICAN, FRENCH AND BELGIAN CONSULS, REMAINS THE HIGHEST AUTHORITY TRYING TO NEGOTIATE PEACE IN THE JERUSALEM AREA.

THE COMMISSION NOW IS SERVING AS OBSERVER OF THE CEASE FIRE.

SHEFFIELD, ENGLAND, JUNE 12-(AP)-FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN SAID TODAY IT SHOULD BE POSSIBLE FOR JEWS AND ARABS TO SOLVE THE PALESTINE PROBLEM AND LIVE IN PEACE.

"I HOPE A SETTLEMENT BETWEEN JEWS AND ARABS IN PALESTINE WILL BE POSSIBLE," HE SAID IN AN ADDRESS. "THEY ARE BOTH SEMITIC: ONLY THEIR RELIGION DIFFERS. THEREFORE, IT OUGHT TO BE POSSIBLE FOR THEM TO FIND A SOLUTION AND LIVE IN PEACE."

BEVIN CHIDED WINSTON CHURCHILL FOR A RECENT REMARK THAT MARSHALL PLAN AID IS CHARITY. HE CALLED THIS REMARK A "GREAT BLUNDER."

"IF WAR COMES AGAIN," HE SAID, "THERE WILL BE NO STERLING DEBTS, NO WAR DEBTS. DEFENDERS OF THE FAITH MUST THROW THEIR ALL INTO THE POOL FROM THE FIRST DAY TO THE LAST."

NEW YORK, JUNE 12-(AP)-AUBREY S. EBAN, ISRAELI U.N. REPRESENTATIVE, SAID TODAY THAT THE NEW STATE "CAN BE THE ALLY AND EQUAL PARTNER OF THE ARAB WORLD; IT WILL NEVER BE ITS SUBJECT."

IN A BROADCAST OVER THE NBC NETWORK, EBAN SAID THE U.N. CHARTER "WITH ITS INSISTENCE ON THE INDEPENDENCE AND INTEGRITY OF ALL STATES, IS THE ONLY BASIS UPON WHICH ISRAEL'S RELATIONS WITH ITS NEIGHBORS CAN BE LAID."

EBAN SAID IT WAS "THE DUTY OF THE WORLD COMMUNITY TO SUMMON THE ARABIC-SPEAKING WORLD, THE FREEDOM OF WHICH IS AMPLY SECURED, TO WAYS OF COOPERATION WITH AN INDEPENDENT ISRAEL."

HE ADDED: "IF IT IS LEFT TO US, THE PRESENT TRUCE MAY WELL MERGE INTO A LASTING ACCORD BETWEEN A SOVEREIGN ISRAEL AND ITS NEIGHBORS."

BUT, HE SAID, WHEN "AGGRESSION IS COMMITTED, ISRAEL WILL RESIST IT, AND THE RESISTANCE WILL BE NO LESS DETERMINED OR SUCCESSFUL THAN IT HAS BEEN IN THE RECENT INSPIRING WEEKS, WHEN THE BELEAGUERED LITTLE REPUBLIC SWEPT THE INVADER BEYOND ITS FRONTIERS AND TOOK THE WAR INTO THE VERY TERRITORY FROM WHICH AGGRESSION WAS LAUNCHED."

LAKE SUCCESS, JUNE 12-(AP)-UNITED NATIONS OFFICIALS SAID TODAY THEY EXPECTED DETAILED INFORMATION ON REPORTED PALESTINE TRUCE VIOLATIONS BEFORE TUESDAY'S SECURITY COUNCIL MEETING.

MEANWHILE, SECRETARIAT OFFICIALS AND COUNCIL DELEGATES MAINTAINED A HANDS-OFF ATTITUDE. THEY AGREED THAT NOTHING COULD OR SHOULD BE DONE HERE UNTIL THE CONFLICTING ARAB AND JEWISH CHARGES WERE INVESTIGATED.

THE GENERAL FEELING WAS THAT COUNT FOLKE BERNADOTTE, U.N. MEDIATOR, HAD DONE A GOOD JOB IN BRINGING ABOUT THE TRUCE AND HE SHOULD BE GIVEN A FREE HAND TO MAKE IT WORK.

ANDREW CORDIER, EXECUTIVE ASSISTANT TO SECRETARY-GENERAL TRYGVE LIE, SAID HE HAD RECEIVED NO WORD FROM BERNADOTTE SINCE HE TALKED WITH THE MEDIATOR'S CAIRO HEADQUARTERS BY TELEPHONE LATE YESTERDAY.

HE SAID HE PROBABLY WOULD NOT BE ABLE TO GET IN TOUCH WITH BERNADOTTE UNTIL MONDAY, WHEN HIS MEDIATION HEADQUARTERS ARE OPENED ON THE ISLAND OF RHODES. BERNADOTTE AND HIS STAFF WERE ENROUTE TO RHODES TODAY BY WAY OF AMMAN, JERUSALEM AND DAMASCUS.

THE SECURITY COUNCIL IS SCHEDULED TO MEET AT 1:30 P.M. (EST) TUESDAY TO HEAR WHATEVER REPORTS HAVE BEEN RECEIVED ON THE TRUCE. THE COUNCIL ALSO IS EXPECTED TO RECEIVE AND TURN DOWN A FORMAL PROPOSAL FROM RUSSIA THAT SOVIET MILITARY OBSERVERS BE SENT TO PALESTINE.

THE U.S. DELEGATION ANNOUNCED THREE AMERICAN TRANSPORT PLANES HAD BEEN ASSIGNED TO SHUTTLE BERNADOTTE'S MILITARY OBSERVERS AROUND THE MIDDLE EAST.

THESE PLANES -- ONE ALREADY IN CAIRO AND TWO TO BE FLOWN FROM GERMANY -- WILL BE PILOTED BY U.S. PILOTS BUT WILL BEAR U.N. MARKINGS.

A SPOKESMAN FOR THE AMERICAN DELEGATION SAID DEFINITE ARRANGEMENTS HAD NOT YET BEEN MADE FOR THE TRANSFER OF THREE COASTAL PATROL VESSELS WHICH BERNADOTTE HAD ASKED THE U.S. TO PROVIDE.

A COLONEL IN THE U.S. ARMY IN WORLD WAR II, MARCUS WON THE DISTINGUISHED SERVICE MEDAL AND THE BRONZE STAR.

IN THE INVASION OF FRANCE, HE PARACHUTED INTO NORMANDY.

HE WAS WITH A U.S. TANK COLUMN THAT ENTERED THE DACHAU CONCENTRATIONAL CAMP IN 1945.

THE HORROR HE SAW THERE, FRIENDS SAID YESTERDAY, CONFIRMED HIS BELIEF IN THE NEED FOR A JEWISH HOMELAND.

BORN IN BROOKLYN, MARCUS WAS GRADUATED FROM WEST POINT AND COMMISSIONED IN THE INFANTRY. HE RESIGNED FROM THE ARMY IN 1926.

A41

UNDER MAYOR F.H.LA GUARDIA FROM 1933 TO 1940, MARCUS SERVED AS NEW YORK CITY COMMISSIONER OF CORRECTION. HE WAS AN ASSISTANT U.S. ATTORNEY IN NEW YORK CITY FROM 1929 TO 1933.

THE OUTBREAK OF WAR, HOWEVER, BROUGHT HIM BACK TO UNIFORM. BESIDES HIS SERVICE IN THE FIELD, MARCUS SERVED IN THE WAR DEPARTMENT'S CIVIL AFFAIRS AND WAR CRIMES DIVISIONS.

THE BRITISH EMBASSY IN 1946 DECORATED HIM WITH THE ORDER OF THE BRITISH EMPIRE "IN RECOGNITION OF THE DISTINGUISHED SERVICE PERFORMED X X X IN COOPERATION WITH BRITISH ARMED FORCES DURING THE WAR."

MARCUS RESIGNED FROM THE ARMY EARLY LAST YEAR. AFTER PRACTICING LAW A SHORT TIME, HE WENT TO PALESTINE LAST JANUARY TO SERVE WITH JEWISH FORCES.

DURING A BRIEF RETURN TRIP TO THIS COUNTRY LAST APRIL, HE TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE THAT THE MORALE OF THE HAGANAH, THE JEWISH ARMED FORCE, WAS THE "BEST OF ANY TROOPS IN THE WORLD--BAR NONE."

GIVEN ADEQUATE ARMS, HE SAID, THEY COULD EASILY DEFEAT THE ARAB NATIONS.

THE ISRAELI GOVERNMENT'S TRIBUTE SAID, IN PART:

"DURING THE SHORT TIME OF HIS BEING WITH US--TOO SHORT, ALAS--HE SUCCEEDED IN MAKING OUTSTANDING CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE BUILDING UP AND PERFECTING OF OUR WAR MACHINE WHICH HAS SECURED FOR HIM A PLACE OF HONOR IN THE MOMENTOUS PHASE OF OUR HISTORY X X X.

"AS A MAN AND A COMMANDER HE ENDEARED HIMSELF TO ALL THOSE WHO CAME INTO PERSONAL CONTACT WITH HIM X X X.

"HIS NAME WILL LIVE FOREVER IN THE ANNALS OF THE JEWISH PEOPLE AND WE FEEL CONFIDENT THAT AMERICAN JEWRY WILL BE PROUD OF ITS GREAT AND GALLANT SON WHO HAS GIVEN HIS LIFE FOR THE LIBERATION OF ISRAEL."

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS PEACE WITH JUSTICE AND THE DEFENSE OF HUMAN RIGHTS AND FUNDAMENTAL FREEDOMS REQUIRE INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION THROUGH MORE EFFECTIVE USE OF THE UNITED NATIONS: THEREFORE BE IT

RESOLVED, THAT THE SENATE REAFFIRM THE POLICY OF THE UNITED STATES TO ACHIEVE INTERNATIONAL PEACE AND SECURITY THROUGH THE UNITED NATIONS SO THAT ARMED FORCE SHALL NOT BE USED EXCEPT IN THE COMMON INTEREST, AND THAT THE PRESIDENT BE ADVISED OF THE SENSE OF THE SENATE THAT THIS GOVERNMENT, BY CONSTITUTIONAL PROCESS, SHOULD PARTICULARLY PURSUE THE FOLLOWING OBJECTIVES WITHIN THE UNITED NATIONS CHARTER:

(1) VOLUNTARY AGREEMENT TO REMOVE THE VETO FROM ALL QUESTIONS INVOLVING PACIFIC SETTLEMENTS OF INTERNATIONAL DISPUTES AND SITUATIONS, AND FROM THE ADMISSION OF NEW MEMBERS.

(2) PROGRESSIVE DEVELOPMENT OF REGIONAL AND OTHER COLLECTIVE ARRANGEMENTS FOR INDIVIDUAL AND COLLECTIVE SELF-DEFENSE IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE PURPOSES, PRINCIPLES, AND PROVISIONS OF THE CHARTER.

(3) ASSOCIATION OF THE UNITED STATES, BY CONSTITUTIONAL PROCESS, WITH SUCH REGIONAL AND OTHER COLLECTIVE ARRANGEMENTS AS ARE BASED ON CONTINUOUS AND EFFECTIVE SELF-HELP AND MUTUAL AID, AND AS AFFECT ITS NATIONAL SECURITY.

(4) CONTRIBUTING TO THE MAINTENANCE OF PEACE BY MAKING CLEAR ITS DETERMINATION TO EXERCISE THE RIGHT OF INDIVIDUAL OR COLLECTIVE SELF-DEFENSE UNDER ARTICLE 51 SHOULD ANY ARMED ATTACK OCCUR AFFECTING ITS NATIONAL SECURITY.

(5) MAXIMUM EFFORTS TO OBTAIN AGREEMENTS TO PROVIDE THE UNITED NATIONS WITH ARMED FORCES AS PROVIDED BY THE CHARTER, AND TO OBTAIN AGREEMENT AMONG MEMBER NATIONS UPON UNIVERSAL REGULATION AND REDUCTION OF ARMAMENTS UNDER ADEQUATE AND DEPENDABLE GUARANTY AGAINST VIOLATION.

(6) IF NECESSARY, AFTER ADEQUATE EFFORT TOWARD STRENGTHENING THE UNITED NATIONS, REVIEW OF THE CHARTER AT AN APPROPRIATE TIME BY A GENERAL CONFERENCE CALLED UNDER ARTICLE 109 OR BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

'All Quiet' in Palestine As Post-Truce Fighting Ends in Northern Area

U. S. OBSERVERS REPORT ON TOUR OF TROUBLE ZONE

UN Mediator Establishes His Headquarters on Greek Isle of Rhodes.

VOICES PEACE HOPES

Food Convoy Reaches 90,000 Jews in Modern City of Jerusalem.

CAIRO, June 13 — (AP) United States military observers and the Israeli government said tonight that post-truce fighting had ended in the Galilee area of northern Palestine.

The truce in the Arab-Jewish fighting effected by the United Nations had been threatened by heavy infantry and artillery clashes in that region.

Two U. S. naval officers, acting as truce observers, returned to Tel Aviv tonight from trouble spots in northern Palestine and reported that all was quiet. An Israeli communique said the fighting ended this morning.

Jewish forces, the communique added, repulsed "all enemy attacks" before the fighting halted.

Situation Calms Down

In Rhodes, Count Folke Bernadotte, the UN mediator, said the latest reports he received today from Palestine indicated the situation there had "calmed down."

Since the three-day-old truce began, Arabs and Jews accused each other of violating the cease-fire.

Both said they would defend themselves, regardless of the armistice, unless the fighting ceased at once. Two United Nations truce observers went to the front in northeastern Palestine, where the sound of shelling was heard all day yesterday.

For the first time in over seven weeks a food convoy reached the 90,000 Jews in the modern sections of Jerusalem. The trucks rolled into the Holy City after traveling over an alternate route through the Judean hills which Jewish engineers quickly built to bypass the Arab blockade, of the Jerusalem-Tel Aviv highway in the Latrun area.

A Jewish spokesman said the convoy was fired upon by Arab Legion troops yesterday afternoon but no hits were scored. Legion military commanders in Jersualem objected to the arrival of the unchecked convoy, charging the cease-fire arrangement had been breached.

U. S. Consul General William Burdett of the truce commission went to the area immediately west of Jerusalem to prevent fighting. The Jewish Agency was asked not to bring in unchecked convoys.

Israel's government accused the Syrians of several truce violations in Galilee and notified a UN representative it "would have to reserve the right" to protect itself against aggressive action there.

"The Isareli army was under a strict order to observe the truce, but has been compelled to renew its activities in self defense," Jewish authorities said in a letter to John Reedman, a member of the UN staff in Tel Aviv.

Syrians Charge Violations

Simultaneously Syrian Premier Jamil Mardam Bey said the Jews were continuing operations in the same general region. He told a reporter in Damascus that an Israeli attack this morning inflicted some casualties at Tel Khenzir in the Baniyas area. Baniyas, a Syrian town, is half a mile from the northeastern corner of Palestine.

The Syrian government declared its army would take the field again if the Jews did not halt their "aggressions."

After conferring with Jewish and Arab leaders Count Folke Bernadotte, the UN mediator, flew to Rhodes today, the Greek island where he will set up headquarters for conducting peace negotiations during the four-week truce period. On his arrival in Rhodes, Bernadotte said it was impossible to say anything now about future negotiations.

"I hope," he said, "the first part of my mission. namely bringing about a truce in Palestine between the Arabs and Jews, has been successful."

The second part of his mission is to attempt to settle permanently the Holy Land problem.

Voices Peace Hopes

At Damascus he expressed the hope that a solution of the Holy Land conflict can be found before the armistice expires. He said there will be no roundtable conferences of Arabs and Jews on Rhodes.

Subsequently Bernadotte stopped at Tel Aviv and then met briefly with his staff at Haifa before departing for Rhodes.

Arab sources in Amman said Damascus underwent an air raid last night while Bernadotte was in the Syrian capital.

King Abdullah of Trans-Jordan said the Arabs' acceptance of the Palestine truce "does not mean in any way that our determination to fight Zionism was weakened."

"But we have wished," he added, "to give the United Nations a proof of our sincerity in seeking peace in Palestine and to show it is the Jews who have caused the trouble there.

"The world will be able to see for itself with what strict discipline the Arabs observe the Palestine truce and in what manner the Jews violate it during this period."

"I hope the first part of my mission. namely bringing about a truce in Palestine between the Arabs and Jews, has been successful," the U. N. mediator said.

The second part of his mission is to attempt to settle permanently the Palestine problem.

Count Bernadotte plans to depart Tuesday for Cairo, continuing on to Tel Aviv Thursday and then return here Friday or Saturday.

John Reedman, personal representative here of U. N. Secretary General Trygve Lie, said the liner, the Kedmah, arrived from Marseille. It was not known how many men of military age were aboard.

Tripoli Curfew Set To Breakup Rioting

Tripoli, Libia, June 13 (AP).—A state of emergency was declared in Tripoli today because fo continuing riots between Jews and Arabs. The British military administration had troops take over security. A 7 p. m. curfew was imposed.

[The United Press said hospital officials reported 12 Jews and five Arabs were killed and 33 Jews and 17 Arabs were injured.]

Police said three Jews and four Arabs were killed and 11 Jews injured when fighting started after an argument yesterday between two Tunisian Arabs and a Jew. A crowd gathered and quickly got out of hand. It roamed the city, looting and burning shops. Five fires were still smouldering today.

Rioting is continuing in the Old City. Entrances to the Old City are guarded by British troops.

Police said 46 Arabs were arrested. Shelter at the police station was given to 250 Jews.

A police report said 50 Arabs gathered today at Suk el Telat but were dispersed. Later another mob formed and police opened fire, "causing a gap between opposing forces."

Jews threw an Italian hand grenade at a police truck. Arab groups were attacked in several instances by Jews who threw cans of gasoline on them from rooftops.

Bernadotte Reaches Rhodes

RHODES, June 13 (AP).—Count Bernadotte arrived here by plane today to set up his headquarters for his Palestine peace mission. He left Damascus. Syria, this morning for this island, which once lay athwart the route of European pilgrims to the Holy Land.

"The political committee of the Arab League is meeting then (Wednesday) in Cairo and I hope to gather further information there," He said. "I also hope to obtain more information in my visit to Tel Aviv. It is impossible to say anything now about future negotiations."

He said the latest reports he received today from Palestine indicated the situation there had "calmed down." Jews and Arabs had asserted that the opposing side was violating the cease-fire terms.

Count Bernadotte, accompanied by his staff of twelve and members of his party, said the permament staff probably would number twenty-five. They are lodged in the spacious hotel des Roses on the Mediterranean shore, twelve miles from the coast of Turkey.

Liner Brings 420 to Tel Aviv

TEL AVIV, June 13 (AP).—A liner carrying 420 persons to Israel anchored in Tel Aviv harbor tonight, confronting Count Bernadotte with his first immigration problem under the Jewish-Arab truce.

Late tonight, lighters began bringing immigrants ashore under supervision of U. N. observers. Jewish officials barred the port area to reporters.

American Navy Captain S. D. Willingham, senior member of the U. N. truce observing team here, said all men of military age on board would be interned in a Jewish refugee camp. Under the truce terms, all men between eighteen and forty-five will be interned if they immigrate to Israel during the four-week truce period.

ABDULLAH DISAVOWS GRAB

Denies Unilateral Aim to Link Palestine to Trans-Jordan

TEL AVIV, June 13 (AP)—King Abdullah of Trans-Jordan angrily denied reports that have pictured him as causing uneasiness in other Arab countries by favoring a future union of Palestine and Trans-Jordan. He told an interviewer in Amman:

"I have never said anything of the sort, and it must be clear to all that I will follow the decisions of all the Arab countries for Palestine's political future. I will not take any decision concerning the future of Palestine which will not be in complete agreement with all the Arab states.

Arabs Define Positions

AMMAN, Trans-Jordan, June 12 (Delayed) (AP)—Joint headquarters of the Arab armies in Palestine released today their official front-line positions, which, headquarters said, would be effective during the cease-fire.

The positions were outlined as follows:

Egyptians—Beginning at Gaza and running northward to El Majdal and Isdud, southeastward to Iraq Suweidan and Faluja, eastward to Beit Jibrin and Deir Nakh Khas, northwestward to Aijur, Hartuv on the Jerusalem-Lydda Road, and Tarqumiya, thence southeastward to Hebron and Beersheba.

Arab Legion — Bethlehem, Jerusalem, Ramallah, Latrun, Ramleh, Lydda, Beit Nabala and Wilhelma.

Iraqi Army—A line from Jisr el Majami below the Sea of Galilee, to Lajjun, northwest of Jenin and near Meggido, southeast of Haifa, down to Tulkarm and Qalqiliya and Kafr Qasim, between Tulkarm and Tel Aviv.

Syrians—Mishmar hay Yarden and Malikia.

Lebanese—Ras el Naqura.

IRAN NAMES PREMIER

TEHRAN, Iran, June 13 — (AP) Abdul Hussein Hazhir today was named Iranian premier by the Majlis (parliament) to succeed Premier Ibrahim Hakimi.

Hakimi's government fell June 8 when it failed to get a vote of confidence.

The 52-year-old Hazhir got a majority of 68 votes.

Notification of the Majlis approval went to Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlevi, who nominated him. Under Iranian government the Shah names a premier for acceptance by the Majlis. The new premier then forms a government.

Hazhir was minister without portfolio in the past cabinet of Haklmi, and Finance Minister under former Premier Ahmed Qavam.

Qavam resigned and went into exile in Switzerland last December. He resigned when parliament refused to ratify an oil agreement with Russia. He returned recently.

Political circles regard Hazhir as a "caretaker' for Qavam, who they think ultimately will head a new government.

First Atlantic Crossing By Jet Planes Planned

LONDON, June 13 (AP)—The first Atlantic crossing by jet aircraft is due within a few weeks, the air ministry said today. Six Royal Air Force planes, Haviland Empire III's, are due to fly to Canada and the United States.

The air ministry reported the planes will take part in United States air force air support and interception exercises under field conditions at the ninth tactical air force base at Greenville, S. C.

The six jet planes will fly in two formations, each led by a Mosquito to assist in navigation. A third Mosquito will fly ahead to investigate weather conditions along the route.

The flight will take the planes from their base at Odiham to Iceland, over Greenland to Labrador. They are expected to reach Montreal two days after taking off.

Harriman Flies to Paris

ROME, June 13 (AP).—W. Averell Harriman, roving ambassador for the European Recovery Program, left today in a United States military plane for his Paris headquarters. Mr. Harriman discussed recovery plans with Italian leaders during his visit here.

Murder of Greek Children Laid to U. S. Aide by Tass

London, June 13 (AP).—The Soviet news agency Tass accused a United States military official today of ordering a reign of terror in Greece which resulted in the killing of a number of children by Greek troops.

Tass, quoting the Communist "Free Greece" radio, said Greek government troops killed all but a "small number" of Stromni's 120 children when they captured the Rumelian Mountain village last month from leftist guerillas.

The Communist radio claimed, according to Tass, that "thoroughly verified data" proved that child killings were part of a terror campaign ordered by American Lieut. Gen. James A. Van Fleet, head of the United States military mission to Greece, against the "peaceful population" of guerilla areas in the Greek civil war.

GERMAN PARLEYS FACE NEW DELAY

French Assembly's Vote Waited on Proposed Regime for Western Zones.

BERLIN, June 13 (AP)—The western allies' talks with German leaders to lay the groundwork for a new government in western Germany, were postponed today at French request.

The talks were scheduled to begin Tuesday, but the French National Assembly has not approved the London conference decisions which are the basis of the scheduled discussions. The French vote may come Tuesday. If Premier Robert Schuman's government succeeds in getting approval for the plan, and Paris observers think he will squeeze out a narrow victory, the talks can be rescheduled for later in the week.

Reds Fight Plan

Gen. Lucius D. Clay, U.S. military governor, announced the postponement at Frankfurt, just as communists who oppose the western Germany plan were concluding here their three week campaign of collecting signatures in a "people's plebiscite for Germany unity." There has been speculation the communists will seek to form a government represented as being for all Germany, in opposition to the western powers' plan.

The London conference—attended by representatives of the United States, Britain, France and the Benelux countries—called for formation of a federal government unifying the American, British and French zones.

Clay expressed confidence German political leaders will accept the western allies' proposals. There has been German criticism of it in Frankfurt, the bizonal capital of the U.S. and British zones. The bizonal economic council, probable base of the Frankfurt government, will meet tomorrow. There German politicians likely will vote protests against plans to internationalize the Ruhr.

Clay and Sir Brian Robertson, the British governor, will meet with British and American officials tomorrow. French Gen. Pierre Koenig will be in Frankfurt Tuesday, Clay said, but only on a "courtesy visit" pending action by the assembly in Paris.

The windup of the communist plebiscite came with the party press pleading that 'every signature counts." Signature forays were made into the U.S. and Franch sectors of Berlin, where the referendum was prohibited as a "communist front maneuver."

Apathetic" Response

American military government observers say public reaction to the communist campaign has been "generally apathetic." However, they predict the Russian zone communists will claim many millions of signatures and may use these to claim a Germany-wide following and possibly even a "mandate" to form a government asserting jurisdiction for all Germany.

Meanwhile British and U.S. military authorities said rail freight traffic into Berlin was back to normal. The Russians put on a one-day blackade in a dispute about itemizing shipments. British transport officers said that since last night the Russians have let all trains from the west go through their zone border stations normally.

Allied officials said the Russians imposed the stoppage "arbitrarily and without advance notice" Friday evening. The Russians complained that four freight cars on a British operated train which contained military supplies lacked sufficiently detailed listings of their contents.

54 Paintings Back For German Public

Most Fragile of 200 Stored in U. S. Hung in Munich

MUNICH, Germany, June 13 (AP).—Fifty-four paintings brought back from the United States went on display here today with a promise that 146 more will be returned soon. The 200 paintings, worth millions of dollars, were seized by American forces in 1945 and taken to the United States for safekeeping.

"I am proud to be able to keep my pledge that they would be returned safely to the German people," General Lucius D. Clay, American Military Governer, said at the display. "I hope that our mutual appreciation of these works of art will help toward mutual understanding between our nations."

Hans Ehard, Minister-President of Bavaria, responded: "Only a great democratic nation could have made such a beautiful gesture."

The pictures shown today were too fragile for an American exhibition tour. They include works of Rubens, Raphael, Botticelli, Duerer, Holbein and Rembrandt.

AUSTRIA CONDEMNS GUARD

Asks That Armed Communist Force Be Dissolved

VIENNA, June 13 (AP)—Ferdinand Graf, Secretary of State, today demanded that Communist Werkschutz brigades in Austria be dissolved.

In the Werkschutz are armed brigades formed by the Soviet occupation authorities to guard Russian-controlled factories. Though their exact strength has been kept secret, realiable sources estimate that they include more than 12,000 communists.

Herr Graf, addressing a People's party rally at Leoben in the British zone, said a four-power agreement prohibited the arming of Austrian civilians.

CHURCH RECOGNITION SOUGHT BY HUNGARY

BUDAPEST, Hungary, June 13—(AP) Education Minister Gyula Ortutay called on the Catholic church tonight to recognize the Hungarian republic and "her institutions, including land reforms and nationalization."

He said this is a "preliminary condition of negotiation between church and state." He expressed hope that negotiations can start soon but added that "the church is responsible if they do not."

He was hailed in a radio statement by Zdenek Fierlinger, leader of the vanishing Social-Democrats, as a "great statesman who will make Czechoslovakia an island of peace." Mr. Fierlinger and his Social Democrats will be absorbed by the Communists on June 27.

The new Premier is Antonin Zapotocky, a Communist labor leader, who was Deputy Premier.

Czech Reds to Name Gottwald President in Ceremony Today

Premier Who Staged February Coup To Be Put in Office by Acclamation; Te Deum Mass To Be Given for Man Who Joined Reds in '21

By The Associated Press

PRAGUE, June 13.—Klement Gottwald, a Communist since 1921, becomes President of Czechoslovakia tomorrow in an elaborate day of ceremonies. Parliament, with 214 Communists among its 300 members, will gather in Vladislavsky Hall, adjoining the Presidential Palace, and name Mr. Gottwald by acclamation to succeed Eduard Benes, who resigned on June 7.

His selection as President became certain three days ago when the country's Central Action Committee decided he would be considered the only candidate.

A twenty-one-gun salute will sound as the new President enters the hall. The city's church bells will toll. Catholic Archbishop Josef Beran will celebrate a Te Deum mass of thanksgiving.

As Premier, Mr. Gottwald engineered the coup which put the Communists in power last February and led to Mr. Benes's decision to resign. He is fifty-one, a native of Moravia who started work as a carpenter. He joined the Social Democratic party in Vienna when he was sixteen, returned to Prague when the Czechoslovak Republic was born and soon became a Communist editor. He entered Parliament in 1929, attended Moscow congresses and broadcast from the Russian capital during World War II.

Japan Bans Electricity for Ads

TOKYO, June 13 (AP).—Use of electricity for advertising signs was banned today by the Ministry of Commerce and Industry as a conservation measure. A recent dry spell has reduced production of water-powered electricity. Industrial "electricity holidays" are planned for the future.

MACHINERY READY TO START DRAFT IF LAW IS PASSED

Inductees Would Be Sent to Camps Within 60 Days After Bill Is Approved.

HOUSE YET TO ACT

21-Year-Olds May Be Called First, Selective Service Office Says.

WASHINGTON, June 13—(AP) Machinery to start up another peacetime draft is pretty well set.

So much spadework has been done on the new plan—the other was in 1940—that the office of selective service records estimated today that it can have inductees on the way in 60 to 90 days after the draft law becomes effective.

Some details can't be ironed out until the act is passed, if it is passed. All the preliminaries, however, are out of the way.

Draft Now Up to House

The Senate has passed a draft bill by a vote of 78 to 10 but the House Rules committee is yet to say whether a similar bill can get to the House floor. The 12-man committee is divided: Six for sending the bill on to the floor, five against it and one—Rep. Harness (R-Ind.) — uncommitted. Harness, who has spoken against the draft, refuses to say how he will vote on the issue of turning the bill loose. A tie vote in the committee would mean retaining it in committee. The committee will vote on the matter tomorrow.

The projected peacetime draft wouldn't be much different than the wartime draft except that it would begin with less fanfare. Missing will be the old goldfish bowl drawing.

Instead of a lottery to determine the order of induction, it would be done by age groups.

Currently the finger seems to be pointing at the 21-year-olds to start it off. If this age group is finally decided upon, as seems probable, here is how officials say it will work:

After the registration all men over 21 and under 22 will be classified. Those not eliminated by exemptions will go into Class 1-A as eligible for immediate induction.

Those to Go First

How will it be decided which of the 1-A's go first? That's easy. Those who turned 21 on Jan. 1 will be first, Jan. 2 next and so on until December 31.

Whether the first age group selected would be exhausted before another is called up has not been decided. Mostly it depends upon the size of the calls by the armed services which in turn depends upon the number of voluntary enlistments.

Military authorities estimate that about two out of every three men in the 19-through-25 age bracket who are single and non-veterans will have to serve in the army, navy, air force or marines, either as draftees or volunteers. There are roughly 1,552,000 single, non-veterans in that age group.

Hershey Again Head Man

Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, director of the Office of Selective Service records and director of the wartime draft, presumably would be the head man again.

The Office of Selective Service Records (OSSR), incidentally, will disappear. It will be merged into the new selective service system.

About half of the state directors of OSSR were wartime draft directors. Presumably many of them again would head the state draft organziations.

To be ready to put the draft law into operation quickly, OSSR has been training reserve and National Guard officers. The present plan is to call some of the trained reserves to national headquarters, leaving the guard officers for duty in the States.

There will be about 4,000 local draft boards, This compares with 6,442 for the wartime draft. The reduction is made possible by the fact that peacetime draft law, as it now stands, does not require at least one board for each county. In some counties with small population would be combined under a single board.

OSSR thinks it would cost about $40,000,000 to administer the peacetime draft during the first year. Of this $5,000,000 is for such things as office equipment, called a "non-recurring expense." Another $5,000,000 is tabbed for traveling expenses of inductees.

State directors, local boards—and the national director, for that matter—cannot be appointed until the act is signed into law. That's one of the reasons actual inductions could not begin for 60 or 90 days.

Senator Tydings (D-Md) said today that if peace treaties can be agreed upon for Europe and Asia, the draft will be halted or sharply reduced.

"Until peace comes, there is a general feeling that the United States must be pretty well prepared for unforeseen emergencies," he said in a Baltimore broadcast.

Tydings said Congress reluctantly is adopting selective military service after voluntary methods failed to produce required manpower for the armed services.

ARCTIC DEFENSES HELD INADEQUATE BY STUDY GROUP

WASHINGTON, June 13—(AP)—The United States is poorly prepared in the Arctic if that is its first line of defense, a foreign policy association said today.

His report cited: (1) diplomatic rebuffs in seeking stronger military footholds, (2) cold weather discouragements in military exercises, (3) lack of population there to support defenses, and (4) weak garrisons. The association is a private research organization with headquarters in New York.

The writer, Blair Bolles, said the country ought to find out whether the Arctic is of as strategic importance as military men believe it to be in case of war with Russia.

Calls Defenses "Weak"

If it is, he said, we ought to develop our defenses there adequately. He called them "dangerously weak" in that area if it is the strategic center of a great war.

But if it is over-rated as "the first outpost of defense of the continent," Bolles said, then "This should become known so that the country can focus its attention on areas of greater importance."

Bolles, who is director of the association's Washington office, declared that any study should look into the striking power of modern weapons. He indicated doubt of their trans-polar danger.

"So far as is publicly known the United States has not been able to send guided missles far enough to span the Arctic," Bolles said. "And intense cold creates new problems for the launching of such weapons that have not yet been solved, so far as the public knows.

"Russia's opportunity to experiment with guided missles has not been greater than ours."

It is still a question, he said, whether bomb-laden planes with adequate gasoline "could regularly attack the United States across the pole and return to its base." Even with transpolar range the problem of supplying their bases is formidable, he noted.

Even if combat planes can carry out regular combat missions from northern Europe and northern Asia against the United States, the center of the United States is much farther from Moscow than the Russian capitol is from our Key Alaskan points, Bolles observed.

At present, our Arctic policy only adds to world tension without promising us adequate safeguards in event of war, the report said. It called for a "thoroughgoing inquiry" into the best means of developing it.

ECA CHIEFS ALLOT BIGGEST FOREIGN RECOVERY GRANT

Action Taken Although Funds Are Still Snarled in Congress Battle.

95 MILLION APPROVED

Much of Relief Goods Will Be Purchased from Other Nations.

WASHINGTON, June 13—(AP) With its funds still snarled in a congressional battle, the Economic Cooperation Administration today handed out its biggest foreign recovery package so far—$95,610,605 for eleven countries.

American cotton valued at $27,000,000 and tobacco worth $7,427,000 were authorized for purchase and shipment in the batch of approvals announced by Paul G. Hoffman, ECA administrator.

'Off-Shore' Buying

ECA's "off-shore" purchasing program—a ticklish point with some legislators who believe the bulk of U. S. financed goods should come from this country—was pushed forward by Hoffman's action.

Canada will furnish more than $14,000,000 worth of aluminum, copper, lead and linseed oil to European industry; Venezuela and other Latin American countries will supply oil. Potash from Poland, copra from the Philippines and coal from Germany are included.

The action brought total Marshall Plan authorizations from available funds to $393,737,029. A fast spending rate for the rest of this month was indicated by Hoffman in his senate appeal on Friday for restoration of the house-approved cut of 26 per cent in foreign aid funds.

The Senate Appropriations Committee voted last night to restore most of the cuts voted by the house for European recovery. The committee recommended $5,055,000,000 for the first 12 months in the European phase. Chairman Bridges (R-NH) estimated this would give ECA $950,000,000 more than the house approved. If the senate agrees with its appropriations committee, there still would have to be an adjustment of senate-house differences.

Buying approvals worth close to half a billion dollars, Hoffman revealed, are now in process. These and past authorizations add up to 78 per cent of ECA's scheduled grants for the quarter ending June 30, totaling $1,078,000,000.

Share in New Approvals

These countries share in new approvals: Britain $36,300,000; The Netherlands, $4,183,905; France, $21,749,879; French zone of Germany, $941,320; Austria, $2,488,210; Denmark, $810,400; Italy, $5,967,000; Norway, $1,427,000; Greece, $8,164,000. In addition, China got a go-ahead to buy $13,000,000 worth of cotton in the United States and Trieste was granted supplies totaling $578,891. These include dry beans worth $206,931, evaporated milk valued at $353,960 and medical supplies worth $18,000.

REDS' STRENGTH WANING IN ITALY, ENVOY REPORTS

WASHINGTON, June 13—(AP) Italian Ambassador Alberto Tarchiani today reported communist strength in his country is falling off steadily.

Tarchiani, who returned last week from a visit to Rome, sad he found many Italians are deserting the communists in the wake of their resounding election defeats by the Christian Democrats.

"The people now have proof the communists are not nearly as strong as they had been claiming," Tarchiani told a reporter.

Red Bosses Ignored

The Italian envoy said in addition many workers are now ignoring the pleas of their communist political bosses and are switching to the parties that favor close cooperation with the United States instead of Moscow.

If the communists try to "cause trouble," Tarchiani said, they will find the broadened government of Premier Alcide De Gasperi "more capable than ever of keeping order throughout the country."

The ambassador said his two week stay in his homeland convinced him the Italian government intends to do everything possible to fulfill its campaign promises of greater social reforms in Italy.

The development of agricultural southern Italy, where the communists picked up considerable strength recently, ranks high among the plans taking shape, he said. The government hopes to begin industrial and irrigation projects in this region to improve living conditions and thus cut down on communist strength.

Tarchiani said he was most impressed with the "great pulse of life" he found in his homeland.

Finds Morale High

"There is great hope for the future," he said, "because the people are working hard. Our industries are now nearing their pre-war production."

The Italians are even optimistic about the future of political relations between Russia and the United States "even though they are sitting at the border of the iron curtain," Tarchiani said.

Some sort of agreement ending the political tension between Moscow and the United States will be found, in their view, thus avoiding any threat of war, he said.

Tarchiani said "one of the very brightest signs in Europe" is the plan being drawn up by Italy and France for a joint customs union which would coordinate their two economies for the good of the entire continent.

SEN. TOBEY BACKS DEMOCRAT STAND ON TRADE PACTS

WASHINGTON, June 13—(AP) Republican Senator Tobey of New Hampshire lined up today with the Democrats in favor of extending the reciprocal trade agreements act without change.

But the New Hampshire lawmaker's backing did not cause Democratic leaders to revise their conclusion that they are fighting for a lost cause. Privately, they concede the Republicans have the votes to revise the trade program, under which the administration has been negotiating reciprocal tariff cuts with other nations.

First Chink in GOP Wall

Tobey's decision to plug for an 'as is" continuance put the first apparent chink in a wall of GOP support the Senate Republican leadership is building for its bill to change the tariff law.

Actually the foreign trade pacts law expired last midnight. But the act will be revived in some form unless President Truman vetoes—and Congress sustains him—a bill which he felt would not warrant continuing the program.

The senate has agreed to start voting at 4 p. m. (EST) tomorrow on all pending amendments to the Republican-backed bill, and then on the extension measure itself.

The bill, approved by the Republican-dominated Senate Finance Committee would extend the act one year beyond last Saturday, with changes.

The proposed revision would require the federal tariff commission to investigate and hold hearings on all commodities to be covered in tariff negotiations. If the President diregarded the commission's recommendations, he would have to notify Congress within 30 days and explain why.

The house has passed a bill which would let Congress veto presidential decisions in cases where he set aside the commission's findings. The senate committee scrapped the veto provision and adopted instead the notice-to-Congress compromise.

DEMOCRACY CAN MEET TEST, EISENHOWER SAYS

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., June 13—(AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower said today "democracy as we know it is facing its decade, probably its quarter century of greatest trial."

"But," he added, "that in itself is nothing to discourage or alarm you."

The general, now president of Columbia University, spoke at Rutgers University's 132nd commencement where he was awarded an honorary doctor of laws degree.

He told the graduates "every generation has its problems. Without problems, it is my own opinion all of us would be so tired of life that it would soon cease to be upon this planet."

Eisenhower urged his listeners "to remember the might and power that 140,000,000 united Americans can generate."

"The generation of that power," he said "comes out of the world unite or unity which means common understanding of basic issues."

Center, general manager of Carbide and Carbon Chemicals Corporation, which had been in dispute with the Atomic Trades and Labor Council, an American Federation of Labor affiliate.

"I am happy that we have reached an agreement," Mr. Center said. "The contract will be formally signed tomorrow."

The agreement covers some 875 production workers in the Oak Ridge national laboratory. Mr. Center said he could not release details of the agreement.

Also without giving full details, the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service in Washington announced that the settlement involved a wage increase of about 15½ cents an hour, with vacation and other benefits.

Cyrus S. Ching, Director of the service, said the agreement was reached at 4:30 a. m. today. Continuous negotiating sessions arranged by his office had been going on since Friday morning, he said.

In a statement, Mr. Ching added:

"Great credit is due to all of the parties involved in the settlement of this dispute: It is unthinkable that a stoppage of operations due to the failure to reach agreement on a collective-bargaining contract should occur in our important atomic installations.

"The desire of the parties to avoid injuring the public welfare and safety by such a stoppage is evidenced by the fact that they were in continuous and uninterrupted conference with Commissioner Clyde Mills of the service from 9 a. m. on Friday, June 11, to 4:30 a. m. on Sunday, June 13, when agreement was finally reached.

UN SEEN READY TO SHELVE REDS' ARMS CUT PLAN

Larry Rauch

LAKE SUCCESS, June 13—(AP) The United Nations is about ready to give up on V. M. Molotov's scheme to slash the world's armaments.

The Soviet Foreign minister offered the plan before the general assembly in a surprise move in the fall of 1946. Nothing has been accomplished.

Officials close to the situation said today that the 11-nation commission on conventional armaments, charged with drafting an arms reduction program, would go through the motions for a couple more months. Then the deadlocked issue will be tossed to the fall meeting of the assembly along with the atomic energy question, where U.N. discussions have broken down.

Police Force Issue Stalemated

The U.N.'s third major military project also is stalemated. That has to do with creation of an international police force to back up security council decisions. A five-nation military staff committee has met two years without getting agreement on basic principles.

Some countries are understood to be ready to shut off the arms reduction debate immediately and put the question in moth balls alongside the atomic problem. However, the commission majority is reported to feel that a complete breakdown at this time on all three fronts would be too serious a blow to U.N. prestige.

There has been no word from the secret session of the military staff committee but it is presumed the admirals and the generals will continue to meet. The security council told the committee last week not to switch its session to Paris along with the assembly and council. This was taken as a sign that the council expects no agreement in the near future, if ever.

Under Molotov's arms slashing plan, which was approved in revised form, the security council was to work out a program for presentation to a special session of the assembly. The final result then would be ratified by the 58 U.N. nations individually.

The council handed the job to the armaments commission and it has been there since. At the core of the stalemate are the basic political disagreements between Russia and the western powers. For one thing the Soviet Union insists that scrapping of the atomic bomb should be tied in with the program of conventional armaments.

LONDON, JUNE 12-(AP)-MRS. BRIDGET WATERS JUST WANTS TO "SETTLE DOWN AND FORGET" THE 17 MONTHS SHE SPENT IN THE NEVADA STATE PENITENTIARY FOR FATALLY SHOOTING HER HUSBAND, FRANK.

RESTING IN SUSSEX WITH RELATIVES TODAY, THE 28-YEAR-OLD IRISH WAR BRIDE SAID SHE SOON WOULD SEEK A JOB TO KEEP HERSELF AND HER 3-YEAR-OLD SON, FRANK.

"I HAVE HAD HUNDREDS OF LETTERS," SHE SAID. "SOME OFFER JOBS, OTHERS MARRIAGE. BUT I HAVE NO PLANS, NONE AT ALL, OTHER THAN TO FIND WORK LATER. I USED TO BE A NURSE AND HAVE THOUGHT I MIGHT LIKE TO LOOK AFTER PEOPLE."

MRS. WATERS SAID SHE WAS TREATED WELL IN PRISON AND ADDED: "I HAVE NO COMPLAINT AT ALL ABOUT HOW I WAS TREATED THERE."

SHE IS WORRIED ATOUT TELLING HER SON OF THE SHOOTING OF HIS FATHER AND HER SUBSEQUENT IMPRISONMENT.

"SOME DAY I'LL HAVE TO TELL HIM," SHE SAID, "BUT NOT YET. I JUST WANT TO KEEP HIM OUT OF ALL THIS."

CANTERBURY, ENGLAND, JUNE 13-(AP)-DR. HEWLETT JOHNSON, THE "RED DEAN" OF CANTERBURY CATHEDRAL, CHIDED RELIGIOUS LEADERS TODAY FOR BEING "MORALLY BEHIND SCIENTISTS" IN THINKING ABOUT ATOMIC BOMBS.

THE ANGLICAN DEAN TOOK SHARP ISSUE IN A SERMON WITH AN ARCHBISHOPS' COMMISSION WHICH EXPRESSED AN OPINION RECENTLY THAT THE USE OF ATOMIC BOMBS MIGHT BE JUSTIFIABLE IN CERTAIN CIRCUMSTANCES, AND THAT COUNTRIES WHICH POSSESSED THEM OUT NOT TO DESTROY THEM.

"SURELY IT IS A MATTER OF SHAME THAT A RESPONSIBLE BODY IN THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH SHOULD URGE RETENTION OF THE BOMB EVEN FOR DEFENSIVE PURPOSES," THE DEAN SAID.

"IS THIS NOT ANOTHER CASE OF THE FACT THAT THE CONSCIENCE OF THE WORLD AND THE ETHICAL INSIGHT OF THE SCIENTIST THREATEN TO BE AHEAD IN THOUGHT AND ACTION OF ORGANIZED RELIGION?"

OXFORD, ENGLAND, JUNE 13-(AP)-MRS. ORDE CHARLES WINGATE, WIDOW OF BRITAIN'S HERO OF THE BURMESE CAMPAIGN, SAID TONIGHT THE ISRAELIS ARE "INVINCIBLE AND INDOMITABLE."

THE LATE GENERAL'S WIDOW, WHO RECENTLY RETURNED FROM A TRIP TO PALESTINE, SPOKE BEFORE THE OXFORD UNIVERSITY LABOR CLUB. WHILE IN THE HOLY LAND SHE TOLD ISRAELI OFFICIALS SHE WOULD SEND HER FOUR-YEAR-OLD SON, ORDE JONATHAN, TO BE EDUCATED IN A ZIONIST SETTLEMENT. SHE SAID HE WOULD BECOME "A LOYAL SON OF BOTH ISRAEL AND BRITAIN."

EXPLAINING HER DECISION, MRS. WINGATE SAID: "THE WHOLE OF PALESTINE FROM NORTH TO SOUTH RINGS WITH MY HUSBAND'S NAME AND I FELT I HAD TO DO SOMETHING ABOUT IT. I HAVE DEDICATED MY SON TO AN UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN THE BRITISH AND THE JEWS."

SHE SAID THERE WAS NO OPPOSITION TO HER PLAN FROM HER HUSBAND'S PEOPLE.

"I KNOW PEOPLE HAVE BEEN SAYING MY HUSBAND IS A JEW OR HAD JEWISH BLOOD, BUT IT IS JUST NOT TRUE," MRS. WINGATE ADDED. "HE LOVED THE COUNTRY (PALESTINE) AND LOVED THE PEOPLE AS OTHER GREAT ENGLISHMEN HAVE DONE BEFORE."

WINGATE WAS KILLED IN 1944 IN A BOMBER CRASH NEAR IMPHAL, IN EASTERN INDIA.

PARIS, JUNE 13-(AP)-THE PARIS FRENCH MORNING PRESS IS DOWN TO A RECORD POSTWAR LOW OF THIRTEEN NEWSPAPERS. THE AFTERNOONERS ARE DOWN TO SIX.

ALMOST HALF OF THOSE LEFT HAVE SHOWN SIGNS OF BEING IN TIGHT STRAITS. THEY INCLUDE PRACTICALLY THE WHOLE POLITICAL MORNING PRESS SUPPORTING THE MIDDLE OF THE ROAD GOVERNMENT.

THE GOVERNMENT IS WORKING ON THE MUDDLE AS ONE PAPER AFTER ANOTHER FOLDS UP IN A LAND WHERE NEWSSTANDS ARE TRADITIONALLY AS CLUTTERED AS BARGAIN BASEMENT COUNTERS. IT IS CONSULTING OVER WAYS AND MEANS TO REDUCE COSTS -- NEWSPRINT, POSTAGE, DELIVERIES.

A RECENT ISSUE OF THE SOCIALIST ORGAN, LE POPULAIRE, ANNOUNCED IT HAD ALMOST FAILED TO COME OUT THAT MORNING. THE POPULAR REPUBLICAN (MRP) ORGAN, L'AUBE, AND THE HIGHBROW LEFT SOCIALIST COMBAT BOTH GAVE THEIR EMPLOYES THE LEGALLY REQUIRED MONTH'S NOTICE IN MAY BUT CONTINUE WITH REDUCED STAFFS.

THREE OTHER MODERATELY LEFT OR RIGHT NEWSPAPERS HAVE HAD DIFFICULTIES.

ONE REASON EVERYTHING WILL BE DONE TO KEEP THEM FROM GOING UNDER IS THAT THIS WOULD LEAVE ONLY ONE PAPER REALLY BACKING THE THE GOVERNMENT IN THE MORNING FIELD, THE MASS CIRCULATION PARISIEN LIBERE.

THERE WOULD REMAIN THE COMMUNIST ORGAN L'HUMANITE AND ITS POLITICAL NEIGHBOR, FRANC-TIREUR, ON THE LEFT, AND FIVE PAPERS ON THE RIGHT.

IN THE AFTERNOON FIELD THE RIGHT OF CENTER PARIS-PRESSE AND THE LEFT OF CENTER FRANCE-SOIR NOW ARE REPORTED PARTLY UNDER THE SAME OWNERSHIP AND MAY BE COMBINED UNDER THE LATTER'S NAME AND NEUTRAL POLITICAL COLORING BY OCTOBER, THOUGH THIS HAS BEEN DENIED BY THE FORMER.

IF THE MERGER GOES THROUGH IT MAY LEAVE SOME BREATHING SPACE FOR THE REVIVED PREWAR RIGHTIST L'INTRANSIGEANT, WHICH HAS HAD FINANCIAL TROUBLES.

PREWAR NEWSPAPERS WERE MOSTLY SMALL AND UNPROFITABLE BECAUSE FRENCH BUSINESSMEN--NEVER VERY PUBLICITY-MINDED -- TRADITIONALLY HUSBAND THEIR CAPITAL AND BECAUSE OF MONOPOLIES IN FARMING OUT ADVERTISING. SINCE THEY COULD NOT BE INDEPENDENT THEY WERE MAINLY CONTROLLED AND SUPPORTED BY THE COUNTRY'S MYRIAD POLITICAL AND OTHER SPECIAL GROUPS. EACH WOULD PUT OUT A PAPER WITH LIMITED CIRCULATION, EXPRESSING ITS VIEWS AND WITHOUT TOO MUCH ROOM TO EXPRESS MUCH ELSE.

JUN 1948

USED TO THE IDEA OF CONTROLLED NEWSPAPERS WITH EDITORIALIZED REPORTING, THE MAN IN THE STREET DOES NOT THINK OF AN INDEPENDENT PRESS IN TERMS OF A FEW PAPERS STRONG ENOUGH TO SUPPORT THEMSELVES AND OF OBJECTIVE REPORTING. HE THINKS OF IT AS REQUIRING AS MANY PAPERS AS POSSIBLE EXPRESSING AS MANY VIEWS AS POSSIBLE.

SERIOUS MINDED FRENCHMEN STILL BUY TWO OR MORE NEWSPAPERS WITHOUT FAIL EVERY MORNING.

ONE SCHOOL WANTS THE PRESS TO AIM AT FINANCIAL INDEPENDENCE IN REDUCED NUMBERS, THROUGH SURVIVAL OF THE FITTEST. OTHERS ADVOCATE EDITORIAL INDEPENDENT--IN THE FRENCH SENSE OF A VARIETY OF VIEW-POINTS--BY DIRECT AND INDIRECT GOVERNMENT SUBSIDIES IN NEWSPRINT, POSTAGE, DELIVERY CHARES AND TAX ADJUSTMENTS.

ITS FUTURE PROBABLY LIES ON SOME MIDDLE GROUND THAT WILL NOT QUITE ACHIEVE EITHER OF THESE AIMS.

FIRST LEAD DE GAULLE (350)

BY CARL HARTMAN

NEVERS, FRANCE, JUNE 13-(AP)-THOUSANDS OF GEN. CHARLES DE GAULLE'S FOLLOWERS AFTERING HEARING THEIR LEADER SPEAK TODAY DEMANDED THE RESIGNATION OF THE NATIONAL GOVERNMENT REPRESENTATIVE HERE.

DE GAULLE, SPEAKING AT THE MUNICIPAL PARK, SAID FRANCE MUST PROVIDE GERMANY WITH FOOD TO KEEP WESTERN EUROPE FROM BEING SUBMERGED BY ANOTHER POWER, OBVIOUSLY RUSSIA. HE CRITICIZED AS FEEBLE, THE COALITION GOVERNMENT OF PREMIER ROBERT SCHUMAN.

SHOUTS OF "DE GAULLE TO POWER" HAD HARDLY DIED AWAY WHEN JEAN NOCHER, A NEWSPAPER DIRECTOR AND ARDENT DE GAULLIST, TOOK THE MICROPHONE. HE TOLD THE CROWD THAT PREFECT MAURICE ROLLAND HAD ORDERED POLICE TO STOP BUSLOADS OF DE GAULLISTS ON THEIR WAY TO HEAR THE SPEECH.

THE PREFECT, CHIEF ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICER OF THE DEPARTMENT, IS NAMED BY THE INTERIOR MINISTER.

THE CROWD BEGAN SHOUTING "HE SHOULD RESIGN", AND "TO THE PREFECTURE." MOST OF THE CROWD SHOWED LITTLE INTEREST. BUT REGULAR DE GAULLE FOLLOWERS MARCHED A HALF MILE TO THE PREFECTURE AND RAISED THEIR SHOUTS AGAIN.

A FEW VETERANS OF THE FRENCH PARACHUTE CORPS WEARING KHAKI UNIFORMS AND RED BERETS STARTED CLIMBING OVER A 15-FOOT IRON GRILL BEFORE THE BUILDING. POLICEMEN STANDING NEARBY DID NOTHING. SEVERAL HUNDRED RIFLE-CARRYING POLICE STOOD AT EASE BEHIND THE GRILL.

THEN NOCHER CLIMBED THE GRILL, CLUNG TO IT WITH ONE HAND AND SHOUTED: "HE STILL OUGHT TO QUIT, BUT WE MUST HAVE ORDERS."

THE CROWD DISPERSED AND A DELEGATION WENT TO SEE THE PREFECT. HE TOLD THEM HE WAS INVESTIGATING THE ALLEGED POLICE INTERFERENCE.

NOCHER SAID LATER DE GAULLE PLANNED TO ISSUE A STATEMENT BARRING FOREVER FROM HIS ORGANIZATION ANY DEPUTY WHO VOTED FOR THE SIX-POWER PLAN ON A GOVERNMENT FOR WESTERN GERMANY. THIS, NOCHER CLAIMED, MIGHT BRING THE RESIGNATION OF THE CABINET WHICH SUPPORTS THE SIX-POWER RECOMMENDATIONS. DE GAULLE ASSAILED THE LONDON AGREEMENT ON WESTERN GERMANY THREE DAYS AGO.

TODAY HE HARDLY MENTIONED IT, STRESSING INSTEAD, FRENCH FARM PROBLEMS. HIS STATEMENT THAT FRANCE MUST PROVIDE GERMANY WITH FOOD SEEMED MORE CONCILIATORY TOWARD THE REICH THAN ANY DE GAULLIST STATEMENT SINCE THE SIX-POWER ACCORD WAS REACHED.

HE SAID: "IN ORDER TO BUILD AND GIVE LIFE TO THE WESTERN EUROPEAN GROUP -- WITHOUT WHICH WE WOULD SOONER OR LATER BE SUBMERGED BY YOU KNOW WHOM -- FRANCE MUST BE ABLE TO SELL THE FOOD PRODUCTS SHE ALONE PRODUCES TO HER NEIGHBORS WHO LK THEM AND NOTABLY TO TH

SHE ALONE PRODUCES TO HER NEIGHBORS WHO LACK THEM AND NOTABLY TO THE GERMAN COUNTRIES."

DE GAULLE'S REFERENCE TO "THE GERMAN COUNTRIES" WAS TAKEN TO MEAN A REFUSAL ON HIS PART TO RECOGNIZE A UNIFIED GERMANY.

NEVERS, FRANCE, JUNE 13-(AP)-GEN. CHARLES DE GAULLE SAID TODAY THAT FRANCE MUST PROVIDE GERMANY WITH FOOD TO KEEP WESTERN EUROPE FROM BEING SUBMERGED BY ANOTHER POWER, OBVIOUSLY RUSSIA.

THE STATEMENT, IN A SPEECH IN THIS FARMING CENTER, SEEMED MORE CONCILIATORY TOWARD GERMANY THAN ANY FROM THE DE GAULLE PARTY SINCE THE SIX-POWER LONDON ACCORD.

AFTER THE SPEECH, JEAN NOCHER, DIRECTOR OF A ST. ETIENNE NEWSPAPER, TOOK THE STAND AND ACCUSED THE PREFECT, MAURICE ROLLAND, OF PLACING POLICE LINES ACROSS ROADS LEADING TO NEVERS TO PREVENT DE GAULLE SUPPORTERS FROM ATTENDING. NOCHER URGED THE CROWD OF 15,000 TO 20,000 TO MARCH ON THE PREFECTURE AND DEMAND ROLLAND'S RESIGNATION. PERHAPS 5,000 YOUTHS SET OUT FOR THE PREFECTURE. SOME BEGAN CLIMBING THE 15-FOOT GRILL IN FRONT OF THE BUILDING.

POLICE WATCHED. THEN NOCHER ANNOUNCED ROLLAND HAD AGREED TO RECEIVE A DELEGATION. THE YOUNG DE GAULLISTS WITHDREW. ROLLAND DENIED ORDERING POLICE TO BLOCK THE HIGHWAYS.

MOST OF DE GAULLE'S TALK WAS DEVOTED TO FARM QUESTIONS. THE REFERENCE TO GERMANY CAME WHEN HE CITED INCREASED FARM PRODUCTION AS "FRANCE'S NUMBER ONE OBJECTIVE." HE SAID:

"IN ORDER TO BUILD AND GIVE LIFE TO THE WESTERN EUROPEAN GROUP--WITHOUT WHICH WE WOULD SOONER OR LATER BE SUBMERGED BY YOU KNOW WHOM--FRANCE MUST BE ABLE TO SELL THE FOOD PRODUCTS SHE ALONE PRODUCES TO HER NEIGHBORS WHO LACK THEM AND NOTABLY TO THE GERMAN COUNTRIES."

DE GAULLE'S REFERENCE TO "THE GERMAN COUNTRIES" WAS TAKEN TO MEAN A REFUSAL ON HIS PART TO RECOGNIZE A UNIFIED GERMANY.

THREE DAYS AGO DE GAULLE ASSAILED THE LONDON AGREEMENT ON WESTERN GERMANY BUT TODAY HE HARDLY MENTIONED IT. HE CRITICIZED, AS FEEBLE, THE COALITION GOVERNMENT HEADED BY PREMIER ROBERT SCHUMAN AND SAID:

"EVERY ONE SEES THE CONTRAST WHICH EXISTS BETWEEN THE SERIOUSNESS OF OUR PROBLEMS AND THE WEAKNESS OF OUR REGIME X X X. THE DECISIVE EPISODE OF THE COMMUNIQUE OF LONDON HAS JUST WARNED FRENCHMEN AGAIN."

BERLIN, JUNE 13-(AP)-BRITISH AND U.S. MILITARY GOVERNMENTS REPORTED THEIR RAIL FREIGHT TRAFFIC INTO BERLIN BACK TO NORMAL TODAY AFTER A ONE-DAY STOPPAGE IMPOSED BY THE RUSSIANS IN A DISPUTE OVER DETAILED LISTING OF CARGOES.

DURING THE NIGHT EIGHT TRAINS FROM THE AMERICAN AND BRITISH ZONES OF WESTERN GERMANY, WHICH HAD BEEN HELD UP BY THE RUSSIANS IN THEIR ZONE, WERE ALLOWED TO COME THROUGH TO BERLIN AND UNLOAD. THEY CONTAINED MOSTLY FOOD AND COAL FOR THE BERLIN POPULATION, BUT TWO ALSO CARRIED SUPPLIES FOR BRITISH AND AMERICAN OCCUPATION FORCES.

BRITISH TRANSPORT OFFICIALS SAID THAT SINCE 6 P.M. YESTERDAY THE RUSSIANS HAD ACCEPTED ALL TRAINS FROM THE WEST THROUGH THEIR ZONAL BORDER STATION "IN THE NORMAL WAY." THEY SAID THAT "FOR THE PRESENT AT LEAST," DIFFERENCES WITH THE SOVIETS WHICH PRECIPITATED THE FREIGHT STOPPAGE APPEARED TO BE SETTLED.

ALLIED OFFICIALS SAID THE RUSSIANS IMPOSED THE STOPPAGE "ARBITRARILY AND WITHOUT ADVANCE NOTICE" FRIDAY EVENING.

THE RUSSIANS COMPLAINED THAT FOUR FREIGHT CARS ON A BRITISH OPERATED TRAIN WHICH CONTAINED MILITARY SUPPLIES LACKED SUFFICIENTLY DETAILED LISTINGS OF THEIR CONTENTS.

THE BRITISH PROPOSED THAT THESE FOUR CARS BE DETACHED FROM THE TRAIN AND THE REST ALLOWED TO PROCEED. THE RUSSIANS REFUSED AND FOLLOWED THIS WITH AN EMBARGO ON ALL FREIGHT.

A DAY OF NEGOTIATING BETWEEN THE BRITISH AND SOVIETS AT THE HELMSTEDT MARIENBORN BORDER CONTROL POINTS BROUGHT A SETTLEMENT, IF NOT FULL AGREEMENT. THE RUSSIANS INSISTED THAT THEIR NEW RULES FOR DESIGNATION OF FREIGHT BE OBSERVED. THESE REQUIRE AN ITEMIZED LISTING OF CONTENTS, DESIGNATION OF THE SPECIFIC CONSIGNEE AND OF THE UNLOADING STATION.

THE BRITISH, THOUGH CONTENDING THESE DEMANDS ARE UNREASONABLE AND CREATE EXTRA WORK, AGREED TO DO THEIR BEST TO COMPLY. THEY BALKED ON ONE POINT -- ITEMIZING SHIPMENTS FOR OCCUPATION FORCES. SINCE THE RUSSIANS PERMITTED A BRITISH MILITARY FREIGHT TRAIN TO PASS DURING THE NIGHT, THEY ALSO MAY HAVE BEEN SATISFIED ON THIS POINT. AMERICAN OFFICIALS SAID THEY WOULD SEND THEIR MILITARY FREIGHT THROUGH "AS IN THE PAST." THIS MEANS WITH ONLY A GENERAL DESIGNATION OF CONTENTS.

ALLIED OUTGOING RAIL FREIGHT HAS BEEN STOPPED SINCE APRIL 1, WHEN THE RUSSIANS IMPOSED A RULE THAT NOTHING COULD BE SHIPPED OUT TO THE WEST WITHOUT THEIR PRIOR APPROVAL.

THE RUSSIAN CONTROLLED BERLINER ZEITUNG SAID THE WESTERN ALLIES WERE "SENSATIONALIZING" THE ISSUE "IN ORDER TO CONFUSE THE BERLIN POPULATION." THIS PAPER SAID THE RUSSIANS WERE ONLY INSISTING UPON COMPLIANCE WITH "ZONAL BORDER CONTROLS WHICH HAVE EXISTED FOR MONTHS."

THE COMMUNIST NEWSPAPER NEUES DEUTSCHLAND GAVE BIG HEADLINES TO A STATEMENT BY U.S. COMMANDER GEN. LUCIUS D.CLAY EXPRESSING DOUBT THAT THE MILLION GERMANS LIVING IN THE AMERICAN SECTOR OF BERLIN COULD BE SUPPLIED BY AIR IF RAIL FREIGHT STOPPED.

THE RUSSIAN CONTROLLED GERMAN NEWS AGENCY SAYS THE BRIDGE OVER THE ELBE, ON THE HIGHWAY LINKING BERLIN WITH THE WESTERN ZONES, WILL BE CLOSED FOR REPAIRS TUESDAY BUT DETOURS WILL BE ARRANGED FOR MOTOR TRAFFIC INTO AND OUT OF BERLIN.

THE RUSSIANS ORDERED THAT ALL GERMAN PASSENGER TRAINS COMING INTO BERLIN FROM WESTERN GERMANY MUST STOP AT THE FRIEDRICHSTRASSE STATION IN THE RUSSIAN SECTOR. HERETOFORE PASSENGERS COULD ALIGHT AT TWO STATIONS IN THE BRITISH SECTOR.

ML1127AED

ALTHOUGH THE PLEBISCITE WAS BANNED IN WESTERN GERMANY, THE RUSSIAN CONTROLLED PRESS REPORTS 750,000 SIGNATURES IN THE RUHR PROVINCE OF NORTH RHINE-WESTPHALIA ALONE. THE SAME NEWSPAPERS SAY UP TO 94 PERCENT OF THE POPULATION SIGNED PETITIONS IN THE RUSSIAN OCCUPATION ZONE.

BERLIN'S SOCIALIST PRESS CHARGED THE COMMUNISTS PADDED THEIR SIGNATURE LIST WITH THE NAMES OF GERMAN CHILDREN 14 AND YOUNGER AND THAT EVEN RUSSIANS SIGNED.

1948

THE COMMUNISTS SAID RESPONSE TO THEIR CAMPAIGN INCREASED AFTER PUBLICATION OF THE LONDON CONFERENCE RECOMMENDATIONS FOR UNIFICATION OF WESTERN GERMANY. THE COMMUNISTS PICTURE THESE RECOMMENDATIONS AS MEANING THE PERMANENT PARTITION OF GERMANY AND ESTABLISHMENT OF A SEPARATE WEST GERMAN STATE.

A DAY OF NEGOTIATING AT THE HELMSTEDT-MARIENBORN BORDER CONTROL POINTS BROUGHT A SETTLEMENT, IF NOT FULL AGREEMENT. THE RUSSIANS INSISTED THEIR NEW RULES FOR DESIGNATION OF FREIGHT BE OBSERVED. THESE REQUIRE AN ITEMIZED LISTING OF CONTENTS, DESIGNATION OF THE SPECIFIC CONSIGNEE AND OF THE UNLOADING STATION.

THE BRITISH, THOUGH CONTENDING THESE DEMANDS ARE UNREASONABLE AND CREATE EXTRA WORK, AGREED TO DO THEIR BEST TO COMPLY. THEY BALKED ON ONE POINT -- ITEMIZING SHIPMENTS FOR OCCUPATION FORCES. PRECED NANKING MILITARY (260)

BY TOM MASTERSON

SHANGHAI, MONDAY, JUNE 14-(AP)-TEMPO OF THE CHINESE COMMUNIST ASSAULT ON THE SHANTUNG PROVINCIAL CAPITAL OF TSINAN WAS REPORTED INCREASING TODAY.

TSINAN IS ONE OF THE FEW CITIES ON THE STRATEGIC PENINSULAR PROVINCE REMAINING IN GOVERNMENT HANDS. THE GOVERNMENT HAS SAID THE DEFENDERS ARE OUTNUMBERED CONSIDERABLY BY REDS RINGING THE CITY.

"THE FIGHTING AROUND TSINAN HAS CHANGED FROM SKIRMISHES TO FURIOUS BATTLES," SAID ONE PRO-GOVERNMENT DISPATCH.

ATTACKS AGAINST RAILWAY AND HIGHWAY TOWNS IN THE TSINAN AREA -- LUNGSHAN, 20 MILES EAST; AND TZEYANG, 80 MILES SOUTH--ALSO WERE CONTINUING. PLANES WERE SUPPORTING THE TSEYANG GARRISON OVER THE WEEK END.

IN NORTH CHINA, COMMUNIST CAVALRY WAS REPORTED TO HAVE DISRUPTED RAIL TRAFFIC BETWEEN PEIPING AND TIENTSIN BY TEARING UP TRACK AT EIGHT POINTS.

RED HORSEMEN OVERWHELMED GUARDS AT A RAIL BRIDGE ONLY SEVEN MILES NORTHWEST OF TIENTSIN AND DESTROYED THE SPAN WITH EXPLOSIVES. THE DISPATCHES SAID A PATROL TRAIN SPEEDING TOWARD THE BRIDGE ALSO WAS BLOWN UP BY MINES.

THE COMMUNISTS ALSO CUT THE RAIL LINE FROM TIENTSIN TO MANCHURIA AT A POINT BETWEEN THAT CITY AND TANGSHAN, 60 MILES TO THE NORTHEAST.

NATIONALIST HEADQUARTERS AT PEIPING ANNOUNCED, MEANWHILE, THAT LUNGHWA WAS RECAPTURED BY RELIEF COLUMNS WHICH RECENTLY LIFTED THE RED SIEGE OF CHENGTEH, CAPITAL OF JEHOL PROVINCE. LUNGHWA IS A HIGHWAY CITY 25 MILES NORTHWEST OF CHENGTEH.

EARLIER, THE OFFICIAL CHINESE CENTRAL NEWS AGENCY SAID THE COMMUNISTS WERE FIRING AT GOVERNMENT SUPPLY PLANES IN MANCHURIA WITH JAPANESE ANTI-AIRCRAFT WEAPONS. THE AGENCY SAID THE GUNS WERE SUPPLIED BY THE RUSSIANS.

THE AGENCY FAILED TO CONFIRM REPORTS THAT AT LEAST ONE PLANE BOUND FOR CHANGCHUN HAD BEEN SHOT DOWN, BUT IT IS KNOWN THAT MOST OF THE CHANGCHUN SHUTTLE PLANES NOW ARE DROPPING THEIR LOADS OVER THAT ISOLATED CITY RATHER THAN RISK LANDING UNDER FIRE.

(THROUGHOUT THE CIVIL WAR, COMMUNIST LACK OF ANTIAIRCRAFT WEAPONS HAS BEEN A MARKED ADVANTAGE TO THE GOVERNMENT IN AIR SUPPLYING BELEAGUERED CITIES.)

ADDITIONAL PRECAUTIONS WERE TAKEN TO PREVENT COMMUNISTS CROSSING TO THE SOUTH BANK OF THE YANGTZE AS THE INDEPENDENT PAPER HSIN MIN PAO SAID TWO RED ARMY COLUMNS WERE ONLY 40 MILES NORTHEAST OF NANKING.

INTERPRETING THE NEWS

BY FRED HAMPSON

(CHIEF OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS STAFF IN CHINA).

SHANGHAI, JUNE 13-(AP)-WHAT'S IT LIKE TO BE AN AMERICAN IN A NATION WHERE SIX BITS MAKES YOU A MILLIONAIRE AND WHERE SUMMER'S DOLLAR IS AUTUMN'S DIME?

NOT TOO BAD IF YOUR INCOME IS IN AMERICAN DOLLARS. BUT EVEN SO YOU HAVE TO SPEND AN AWFUL LOT OF TIME ON MONEY MATTERS TO PROTECT THE DOLLARS AND MAKE THEM STRETCH.

CHINA'S INFLATED CURRENCY LOSES VALUE EVERY DAY, BOTH IN RELATION TO PRICES AND IN RELATION TO THE MONEY OF OTHER COUNTRIES.

WORKERS PAID IN CHINESE DOLLARS ARE WORSE OFF THAN AMERICANS. THEY ARE PAID ON A COST OF LIVING INDEX WHICH ALWAYS LAGS BEHIND THE GROWING WORTHLESSNESS OF THE MONEY PAID THEM IN WAGES.

30.24- 18487

AN AMERICAN LIVING ON AMERICAN DOLLARS IS IN A CLASS BY HIMSELF. HIS MONEY GOES UP FASTER THAN THE COST OF LIVING. AT FIRST PRICES SEEM LOW TO HIM. THIS IS AN ILLUSION.

THERE ARE MANY REASONS WHY IT IS AN ILLUSION. FIRST, HE HAS TO BUY HIS CHINESE CURRENCY FROM A MONEY CHANGER. THE MONEY CHANGER WON'T GIVE YOU A GOOD RATE UNLESS YOU SPEND AT LEAST $10 U.S. IN HIS SHOP.

SINCE HE DOESN'T LIKE THAT $10 BITE, THE AMERICAN BUYS MORE CURRENCY THAN HE NEEDS FOR THAT ONE DAY.

SAY HE BUYS 1,000,000 CHINESE DOLLARS TO $1. AT THAT RATE HIS RICKSHA RIDE COSTS A NICKLE AND LUNCH 40 CENTS. FINE.

NEXT DAY THE RATE GOES UP TO 1,200,000 TO $1. PRICES GO UP TOO. BUT THE AMERICAN STILL HAS THE CURRENCY HE BOUGHT THE DAY BEFORE. SO THE RICKSHA RIDE IS 6 CENTS AND LUNCH IS 45. HAD HE BOUGHT CURRENCY TODAY HIS RICKSHA RIDE STILL WOULD FIGURE OUT A NICKLE AND HIS LUNCH 40 CENTS.

IF THE AMERICAN HAS BOUGHT ENOUGH CURRENCY FOR SEVERAL DAYS HE FINDS AT THE END OF THEM THAT HE IS PAYING THROUGH THE NOSE.

STILL HE CAN'T AFFORD TO BUY TOO LITTLE CURRENCY. SUPPOSE HE SHOPS AND DOESN'T HAVE ENOUGH CHINESE DOLLARS TO PAY THE BILL.

HE HAS TO FETCH OUT HIS GOOD U.S. DOLLARS AND BARGAIN WITH THE SHOP KEEPER. SHOP KEEPERS DRIVE HARD BARGAINS.

THEY AREN'T MONEY CHANGERS. THEY SAY THEY DON'T KNOW WHAT THE RATE IS AT THE MOMENT, AND BESIDES IT'S TOO RISKY. THE POLICE MAY PICK THEM UP FOR ILLEGAL MONEY TRANSACTIONS.

THE AMERICAN ENDS UP BY SETTLING AT AN UNFAVORABLE RATE. WHAT LOOKS LIKE A BARGAIN IS NO BARGAIN AT ALL.

IF IT WERE POSSIBLE TO GET THE FULL VALUE FOR AN AMERICAN DOLLAR ON EVERY TRANSACTION, A PLACE LIKE SHANGHAI WOULD OFFER ABSURDLY CHEAP LIVING.

YOU COULD DO IT--IF YOU SPENT 12 HOURS A DAY CHANGING MONEY.

BY ROBERT HEWETT (350)

GELIL, ISRAEL, JUNE 13-(AP)-A NEPHEW OF HAJ AMIN EL HUSSEINI, THE MUFTI OF JERUSALEM, IS VERY UNHAPPY ABOUT BEING A PRISONER OF WAR OF THE JEWS. HE HAS TO SLEEP IN A DONKEY STABLE.

THAT WAS THE COMPLAINT VOICED TODAY BY BEARDED, 40-YEAR-OLD RASSEM YOUNESS HUSSEINI, WHO SAYS HE IS A NEPHEW OF THE SPIRITUAL LEADER OF THE PALESTINE ARABS.

HUSSEINI HAD NO GRIEVANCE ABOUT THE CLEANLINESS OF THE MODEL PRISONER OF WAR CAMP NOR HIS TREATMENT. BUT HE WAS SADDENED BY THE DONKEY STABLE, EVEN THOUGH IT HAD BEEN CLEANED AND SPRAYED WITH DDT (CAPS).

"IT'S CLEAN ALL RIGHT, HE SAID. THEN, WITH AN EXPRESSIVE SHRUG, HE ADDED: "BUT AFTER ALL, IT'S A DONKEY'S HOME."

TO HORSE-LOVING ARABS A DONKEY IS REGARDED AS A LOWLY ANIMAL.

UNDER TURKISH RULE THE JEWS OF PALESTINE BY LAW COULD RIDE ONLY DONKEYS. EVEN TODAY SOME OF THE BEDOUIN (NOMAD) ARAB TRIBES REGARD THE DONKEY AS SO DEGRADING THAT TRIBESMEN MUST WASH THEIR HANDS SEVEN TIMES WITH SAND AND WATER IF THEY TOUCH ONE.

GELIL IS A LITTLE ARAB VILLAGE OF SOME 30 MUD HOUSES WHICH HAS BEEN CLEANED UP AND SURROUNDED WITH BARBED WIRE. IT CAN ACCOMMODATE 420 ARAB PRISONERS. OTHER INTERNEES WHO TALKED WITH NEWSMEN HAD NO COMPLAINTS ABOUT THEIR QUARTERS.

MOST OF THE PRISONERS ARE PALESTINIAN ARABS WHO WERE CAPTURED DURING THE HIT-AND-RUN WARFARE THAT PRECEDED THE FORMAL WAR WHEN THE BRITISH GAVE UP THE MANDATE ON MAY 15.

HUSSEINI, A WELL-TO-DO JERUSALEM MERCHANT IN NORMAL TIMES, SAID HE WAS ARRESTED EARLY IN MAY WHILE DRIVING FROM ER RAMLE TO JAFFA.

LIKE MOST OF THE PRISONERS, HE WAS GIVEN CLEAN KHAKI OVERALLS WITH BLUE, DIAMOND-SHAPED PRISONER OF WAR PATCHES ON THE FRONT AND BACK.

MANY OF THE INTERNEES SAID THE FOOD WAS ADEQUATE BUT SOME COMPLAINED ABOUT THE SALTED FISH, A STAPLE IN THE JEWISH DIET WHICH THE ARABS DETEST.

JEWISH OFFICIALS WHO PERMITTED NEWSMEN TO CIRCULATE FREELY WITH THE PRISONERS, SAID EFFORTS WERE BEING MADE TO GET MORE ARAB-TYPE FOOD. THEY SAID THE ARAB PRISONERS WERE GETTING THE SAME FOOD AS THE JEWISH TROOPS ON GUARD DUTY.

THE MUFTI'S NEPHEW REFUSED TO COMMENT ON DEVELOPMENTS IN THE MONTH-OLD ARAB-JEWISH WAR WHICH TODAY IS AT A STANDSTILL DUE TO A FOUR-WEEK UNITED NATIONS TRUCE. ALL HE WOULD SAY WAS:

"THE WAR IS NOT OVER YET."

TEL AVIV, ISRAEL, JUNE 13-(AP)-THE ISRAELI GOVERNMENT SAID TODAY IT INTENDS TO OBSERVE THE PALESTINE TRUCE BUT "WOULD HAVE TO RESERVE THE RIGHT TO PROTECT ITSELF AGAINST AGGRESSIVE ACTION BY THE ENEMY IN THE NORTH."

IN A LETTER TO JOHN REEDMAN, OF THE UNITED NATIONS STAFF IN TEL AVIV, ISRAELI AUTHORITIES CHARGED THE SYRIAN ARMY WAS CONTINUING OPERATIONS IN GALILEE.

THE JEWS SAID THE SYRIANS VIOLATED THE TRUCE WITH AN ATTACK ON MISHMAR HEY YARDEN, TWO MILES SOUTH OF HULA LAKE, AND BY SHELLING KFAR SZOLD, SEVEN MILES NORTH OF THE LAKE, AND EIN GEB, AN ISOLATED JEWISH SETTLEMENT ON THE EASTERN SHORE OF THE SEA OF GALILEE.

REEDMAN WAS ASKED TO INFORM COUNT FOLKE BERNADOTTE, THE U.N. MEDIATOR, OF ISRAEL'S DECISION. THE LETTER SAID:

"THE ISRAELI ARMY WAS UNDER A STRICT ORDER TO OBSERVE THE TRUCE BUT HAS BEEN COMPELLED TO RENEW ITS ACTIVITIES IN SELF DEFENSE."

A JEWISH COMMUNIQUE TONIGHT SAID CLASHES INTHE GALILEE AREA, WHICH BROKE THE TRUCE YESTERDAY, STOPPED THIS MORNING. TWO AMERICAN NAVAL OFFICERS WHO VISITED TROUBLE SPOTS IN NORTHERN PALESTINE AS U.N. TRUCE OBSERVERS REPORTED ALL QUIET THERE WHEN THEY RETURNED HERE TONIGHT.

THE JEWISH COMMUNIQUE SAID "ALL ENEMY ATTACKS WERE REPULSED" BEFORE THE CLASHES STOPPED THIS MORNING, AND ADDED:

"ATTEMPTS BY SYRIAN ARMY UNITS TO ADVANCE IN THE DIRECTION OF MAHANYIM AND AYELETH HASHAHAR WERE PREVENTED AND THE ENEMY SUFFERED HEAVY CASUALTIES AT ALL FRONTS, THE HEAVIEST IN THE SEDJERE SECTOR."

"IF IT IS NECESSARY TO THINK ABOUT THE POSSIBILITIES OF PALESTINE'S REORGANIZATION I WOULD SAY THE BEST SOLUTION WOULD BE TO HAVE IT AS A UNITARY ARAB STATE IN WHICH THE JEWS HAVE FULL CITIZENSHIP RIGHTS AND LOCAL INDEPENDENCE IN DISTRICTS WHERE THEY ARE IN THE MAJORITY. X X X BUT THIS IS NOT YET THE TIME FOR DISCUSSING THESE POLITICAL MATTERS, AND WE ARE NOW CONCERNED WITH THE GREATEST TASK OF FIGHTING ZIONISM AND UNIFYING PALESTINE."

AT ROSH PINNA, FIVE MILES FROM THE SYRIAN BORDER, THE ISRAELI COMMANDER TOLD AN ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORTER THAT SYRIAN ATTACKS ON THREE GALILEE SETTLEMENTS WERE THROWN BACK AFTER 24 HOURS OF POST-TRUCE FIGHTING.

ALL DAY YESTERDAY, THE SECOND DAY OF THE TRUCE, SYRIAN ARTILLERY AND INFANTRY HEAVILY ATTACKED MISHMAR HAY YARDEN, MAHANAYIM AND KFAR SZOLD, THE JEWISH OFFICER SAID. THE ISRAELI GOVERNMENT ASSERTED EIN GEB, AN ISOLATED JEWISH SETTLEMENT ON THE EASTERN SHORE OF THE SEA OF GALILEE, ALSO WAS SHELLED.

TWO AMERICAN NAVAL OFFICERS SERVING AS U.N. OBSERVERS REACHED ROSH PINNA AND BEGAN STUDYING MAPS OF THE SECTOR AND FRONT REPORTS.

MISHMAR HAY YARDEN AND MAHANAYIM ARE JUST SOUTH OF HULA LAKE. KFAR SZOLD IS SEVEN MILES NORTH OF THE LAKE. THE SYRIANS HAVE CLAIMED THEY CAPTURED MISHMAR HAY YARDEN IN THE LAST HOURS BEFORE THE TRUCE WENT INTO EFFECT.

IF IT IS POSSIBLE TO BRING ARAB AND JEWISH LEADERS FOR NEGOTIATIONS TO WHAT BERNADOTTE DESCRIBED AS "THIS NEUTRAL GROUND," THE TALKS WILL BE HELD IN THE HOTEL'S CONFERENCE ROOMS OR IN THE CASTLE OF THE KNIGHTS OF ST.JOHN OF JERUSALEM.

THE CASTLE, NOW A MUSEUM, CONTAINS MOSAICS FROM THE ISLAND OF COS (COO) DATING BACK TO THE FIFTH CENTURY BEFORE CHRIST.

DURING HIS FLIGHT FROM DAMASCUS, BERNADOTTE MADE BRIEF STOPS AT TEL AVIV AND HAIFA.

AMMAN, TRANS-JORDAN, JUNE 13-(AP)-KING ABDULLAH SAID TODAY THE ARABS' ACCEPTANCE OF THE PALESTINE TRUCE "DOES NOT MEAN IN ANY WAY THAT OUR DETERMINATION TO FIGHT ZIONISM HAS WEAKENED."

"BUT WE HAVE WISHED," HE ADDED, "TO GIVE THE UNITED NATIONS A PROOF OF OUR SINCERITY IN SEEKING PEACE IN PALESTINE AND SHOW IT IS THE JEWS WHO HAVE CAUSED THE TROUBLE THERE."

THE KING TOLD AN INTERVIEWER THE BEST SOLUTION WOULD BE TO MAKE THE HOLY LAND "A UNITARY ARAB STATE IN WHICH THE JEWS WOULD HAVE FULL CITIZENSHIP RIGHTS AND LOCAL INDEPENDENCE IN THE DISTRICT WHERE THEY ARE A MAJORITY."

"BUT THIS IS NOT YET THE TIME FOR DISCUSSING THESE POLITICAL MATTERS," HE SAID, "AND WE ARE NOW CONCERNED WITH THE GREATEST TASK--FIGHTING ZIONISM AND UNIFYING PALESTINE."

BUENOS AIRES, JUNE 12-(AP)-MIGUEL MIRANDA, PRESIDENT OF THE NATIONAL ECONOMIC COUNCIL, SAID TODAY HE AGREES WITH THE UNITED STATES THAT ARGENTINA SHOULD SELL ITS PRODUCTS UNDER THE MARSHALL PLAN AT PREVAILING WORLD PRICES.

HE SAID HE WOULD COLLABORATE CLOSELY WITH THE U.S. "BECAUSE WE RECOGNIZE THAT THE MARSHALL PLAN IS THE SALVATION OF THE WORLD."

MIRANDA ESTIMATED IT WOULD TAKE ABOUT $200,000,000 TO COVER ALL LETTERS OF CREDIT HELD BY NORTH AMERICAN BANKS ON ARGENTINE PURCHASES. HE SAID THERE WAS NO QUESTION BUT THAT ARGENTINA WOULD MEET ITS OBLIGATIONS.

"WE ALREADY HAVE THE MONEY AND IT IS JUST A QUESTION OF DETERMINING HOW WE ARE GOING TO RELEASE IT," MIRANDA SAID.

DAMASCUS, SYRIA, JUNE 13-(AP)-COUNT FOLKE BERNADOTTE, UNITED NATIONS MEDIATOR FOR PALESTINE, LEFT HERE TODAY FOR THE GREEK ISLAND OF RHODES. HE PLANNED TO TRAVEL BY WAY OF TEL AVIV.

HE EXPRESSED THE HOPE HE WOULD FIND A SOLUTION OF THE PALESTINE WAR BEFORE EXPIRATION OF THE FOUR-WEEK TRUCE BEGUN FRIDAY. BUT HE SAID THERE WILL BE NO ROUNDTABLE CONFERENCE OF ARABS AND JEWS ON RHODES, WHERE HE WILL MAKE HIS HEADQUARTERS.

THE COUNT TOLD REPORTERS HE DID NOT WANT TO TALK ABOUT ARAB AND JEWISH CHARGES OF TRUCE VIOLATIONS BEFORE HE HAD HEARD THE ISRAELI SIDE IN TEL AVIV.

HE BEGAN HIS ROUNDABOUT FLIGHT TO RHODES IN CAIRO YESTERDAY. HE STOPPED DURING THE DAY IN AMMAN, TRANS-JORDAN, AND JERUSALEM AND REACHED DAMASCUS IN THE AFTERNOON.

SYRIAN PREMIER AND DEFENSE MINISTER JAMIL MARDAM BEY TOLD A NEWSMAN THE JEWS RESUMED ATTACK THIS MORNING IN THE BANIYAS AREA, INFLICTING SLIGHT CASUALTIES AT TEL KHENZIR.

THE GOVERNMENT ADVISED BERNADOTTE. IT TOLD HIM THE SYRIAN ARMY WOULD REOPEN FIGHTING IF THE JEWS DID NOT STOP WHAT IT CALLED AGGRESSIONS. A TRUCE OBSERVER WENT TO THE FRONT.

MONTREAL, JUNE 13-(AP)-THE GENERAL CONFERENCE OF THE INTERNATIONAL LABOR ORGANIZATION OPENING JUNE 17 AT SAN FRANCISCO WILL CONSIDER INTERNATIONAL REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE WHOLE FIELD OF INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS.

THE DELEGATES WILL DECIDE WHETHER CERTAIN ASPECTS OF THE SUBJECT ARE SUITABLE FOR INTERNATIONAL REGULATIONS. IF THEY AGREE THAT THEY ARE, THEY WILL ADOPT CONCLUSIONS ON THE BASIS OF WHICH THE DRAFTS OF INTERNATIONAL LABOR CONVENTIONS OR RECOMMENDATIONS WILL BE PREPARED IN CONSULTATION WITH GOVERNMENTS. THOSE DRAFT TEXTS WILL THEN GO BEFORE THE 1949 SESSION OF THE CONFERENCE FOR FINAL DECISION.

IN A REPORT PREPARED BY THE INTERNATIONAL LABOR OFFICE, THE ORGANIZATION'S SECRETARIAT, AND MADE PUBLIC AT ILO HEADQUARTERS HERE TODAY, IT WAS SUGGESTED THAT THE CONFERENCE MAY WISH TO LIMIT ITS DISCUSSION OF INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS AT THE SAN FRANCISCO SESSION TO THE PROBLEMS OF PROTECTING THE RIGHT TO ORGANIZE AND THE QUESTION OF COLLECTIVE AGREEMENTS.

IF IT IS DECIDED TO ADOPT THIS COURSE, OTHER ASPECTS OF THE QUESTION WOULD BE LEFT FOR DISCUSSION AT SUCCEEDING SESSIONS. THESE OTHERS ARE THE QUESTIONS OF CONCILIATION AND ARBITRATION AND CO-OPERATION BETWEEN PUBLIC AUTHORITIES AND EMPLOYERS' AND WORKERS' ORGANIZATIONS.

THE QUESTION OF PROTECTING THE RIGHT TO ORGANIZE IS COMPLEMENTARY TO ANOTHER ITEM ON THE AGENDA OF THE SESSION--THE QUESTION OF FREEDOM OF ASSOCIATION. UNDER THIS ITEM, THE CONFERENCE WILL HAVE BEFORE IT THE DRAFT OF AN INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION REQUIRING GOVERNMENTS TO MAKE EFFECTIVE THE "INALIENABLE RIGHT" OF WORKERS AND EMPLOYERS TO JOIN ORGANIZATIONS OF THEIR OWN CHOICE WITHOUT PREVIOUS AUTHORIZATION.

HE SAID THE GREAT POLITICAL DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THE WESTERN DEMOCRACIES AND THE COMMUNIST STATES IS THAT THE DEMOCRACIES HAVE "DEVELOPED INTERNALLY, PROCESSES FOR PEACEFUL CHANGE WHEREAS COMMUNISM RELIES UPON VIOLENT METHODS."

"TO OPPOSE COMMUNISM MERELY BECAUSE IT IS DYNAMIC AND SEEKS CHANGE IS BOTH WRONG AND STUPID," DULLES SAID.

"THE FREE SOCIETIES HAVE, IN SHORT, DEMONSTRATED THAT IT IS POSSIBLE TO BRING ABOUT CHANGE IN ACCORDANCE WITH 'REFLECTION AND CHOICE' RATHER THAN 'ACCIDENT AND FORCE' AND THEY HAVE SHOWN THAT SUCH PEACEFUL AND SELECTIVE CHANGE IS GOOD."

DULLES SAID THAT "UTOPIAS ARE NOT ACHIEVED BY METHODS OF VIOLENCE AND COERCION."

"THE QUALITY OF OUR INSTITUTIONS ONCE CAUGHT THE IMAGINATION OF PEOPLES EVERYWHERE. X X X THAT SEEMS TO HAVE CHANGED," HE DECLARED.

PEACE REIGNS IN PALESTINE

All Fronts Quiet First Time In Six And A Half Months

Cairo, June 14 (AP) — All Palestine's scattered fronts were quiet today as the Holy Land experienced its first peaceful day in six and a half months.

The Israeli Government announced it was complying with the immigration terms of the four-week armistice. Disagreement developed, however, over the question of food convoys for Jerusalem's 90,000 Jews. The Truce Commission met in the Holy City to frame a report to Count Folke Bernadotte, the United Nations mediator, on the Jewish refusal to permit a check of convoys at Bab El Wad.

Bernadotte himself was on Rhodes setting up headquarters for negotiations designed to turn the present armistice into lasting peace.

The Cairo newspaper, Egyptian Mail, quoted Prime Minister Mahmoud Fahmy Nokrashy Pasha as saying he had sent a note to Bernadotte concerning more than seven alleged truce violations by the Jews on the southern Palestine front.

Arab Leaders Meet In Cairo

Bernadotte himself was scheduled to fly to Cairo tomorrow for talks with Arab leaders and to go to Tel Aviv, the capital of Israel, on Thursday. Arab political and military leaders gathered in Cairo today to decide on their position in the forthcoming negotiations.

One of the first things Bernadotte will have to determine is whether Arab and Jewish leaders will agree to go to Rhodes for negotiations through him. It is not expected that an attempt will be made to have a round-table meeting of representatives of both sides.

Neither the Arabs nor the Jews have shown any sign of changing their positions on the basic issues in dispute—the continued existence of the Jewish state and control of future Jewish immigration.

Bernadotte's headquarters on Rhodes said no reports of Arab or Jewish truce violations were received during the day. A staff member said: "This was the first day we have heard nothing since the truce began."

Meeting In No-Man's Land

A no-man's-land meeting of nine American and British correspondents served to demonstrate the peace that prevailed in Jerusalem on this fourth day of the truce. Five of the newsmen are attached to Trans-Jordan's Arab Legion. The other four had been covering the fighting from the Jewish side. They met for more than 15 minutes in the middle of Suleiman street just outside the walls of the Old City.

Two United States naval officers serving as truce observers reported that Galilee, where fighting had continued until yesterday morning, was quiet. The officers reached Tel Aviv from that northern front last night.

Interpretations Clash

The convoy dispute apparently centers on conflicting interpretations of the truce terms. Truce Commission members asked the Jewish Agency to stop a convoy last night when the Arabs said inspection at Jerusalem's city limits was unacceptable.

Despite the request, the trucks came on into Jerusalem with their loads of flour, canned fish and other staples. A second food convoy brought a party of newsmen from Tel Aviv this morning.

Arab Legion commanders asserted that the bringing in of unchecked convoys constitutes a violation of the truce terms. This was denied by the Jews, who said the Arabs shot at a convoy Saturday.

Jewish Immigrants Seized

Truce terms made public by Bernadotte do not mention convoys to Jerusalem but forbid the movement of war materials and put relief to the residents of the Holy City in the hands of the International Red Cross.

The first test of immigration control under the armistice came last night, when 420 Jews from Marseille arrived at Tel Aviv aboard the liner Kedmah.

The Israeli Government said 128 men of military age in the group were taken to a detainment camp near Hadera. Thirty-seven women and children who did not want their families separated accompanied the men. The rest of the passengers were free to go wherever they pleased.

Arab Passage Forbidden

Truce terms provide that Jewish men of military age must be kept out of training or army service during the cease-fire.

A Tripoli dispatch said the passage of Tunisian Arabs through Tripolitania was banned last week by the British Military Administration there.

Normalcy returned to Tripoli's old city, where Arabs and Jews had been rioting for two days. Tripoli newspapers contained statements by local Arab leaders deploring the attacks on the Jews by irresponsible elements.

All Zion Fronts Quiet, Israeli Command Says

Jerusalem, June 14 (AP)—The Truce Commission framed a report today to Count Folke Bernadotte about refusal of the Jews to permit a check at Bab el Wad on incoming convoys.

Bernadotte is United Nations mediator in charge of the four-week armistice.

The commission asked the Jewish Agency to stop a convoy last night when the Arabs said inspection at the city limits of Jerusalem was not acceptable. The convoy came in, regardless. It brought flour, canned fish and other staples.

All Palestine "Quiet"

Cairo, June 14 (AP)—The Arab-Jewish truce was reported to have brought quiet to Palestine at last today. The United Nations' mediator was on Rhodes setting up headquarters for negotiations toward lasting peace.

The Israeli high command in Tel Aviv said in a communiqué: "All fronts are quiet."

Both Jews and Syrians charged new violations in northern Palestine yesterday of the four-week armistice that began Friday morning under United Nations sponsorship. The Jews said they had been forced to fight back. The Syrians threatened to do so.

But two truce observers, United States naval officers, got back to Tel Aviv from the northern front last night and reported all quiet there. A Jewish communiqué said the fighting stopped yesterday morning.

Food Convoy Succeeds

The Jews welcomed 420 immigrants to Tel Aviv last night. They got their first food convoy in over seven weeks through from there to Jerusalem yesterday, using a by-pass built around Arab roadblocks. Both moves created problems for United Nations truce checkers.

The United Nations mediator, Count Folke Bernadotte, flew into Rhodes, Greek Mediterranean island off Turkey, and said he had word the Holy Land had "calmed down." He arrived from Cairo by way of Trans-Jordan, Palestine and Syria.

He would say nothing about future negotiations. He planned to go back to Cairo tomorrow to see the Arab League Political Committee and then to Tel Aviv Thursday to meet Israeli leaders.

"Unitary Arab State"

King Abdullah of Trans-Jordan said in Amman Arab acceptance of the truce "does not mean in any way that our determination to fight Zionism has weakened."

Israel has insisted upon statehood in a partitioned Palestine. Abdullah called for "a unitary Arab state in which the Jews would have full citizenship and local independence."

"But this is not yet the time for discussing these political matters," he said, "and we are now concerned with the greatest task—fighting Zionism and unifying Palestine."

He denied reports he favored a union of Palestine and Trans-Jordan. He said he would follow the decisions of all Arab countries on Palestine's political future.

The Israeli Government wrote John Reedman of the United Nations staff in Tel Aviv the Syrian army had broken the truce with attacks on three Jewish settlements in Galilee and said Israel's army had had "to renew its activities in self-defense."

The letter said the Syrians attacked Mishmar Hay Yarden, two miles south of Lake Hule, and shelled Kefar Szold, seven miles north of the lake, and Ein Geb, just east of the Sea of Galilee.

In Damascus, Syrian Premier Jamil Mardam Bey said the Jews attacked yesterday morning in the Baniyas area and inflicted some casualties at Tel Khenzir. Baniyas is in Syria a half mile from Palestine and about five miles northeast of Kefar Szold. Syria warned she would send her troops back into action unless Jewish "aggressions" stopped.

Blockade Is Avoided

The Jewish truck convoy from Tel Aviv took food into Jerusalem for 90,000 Jews there. It avoided the Arab blockade of the Tel Aviv-Jerusalem road by going over a detour Jewish engineers had built through the Judean hills. The blockade is east of Latrun, which is 15 miles west of Jerusalem.

Commanders of the Trans-Jordan Arab Legion in the Holy City said the Israelis had broken the truce by bringing the convoy in unchecked. United States Consul General William Burdett, of the United Nations Truce Commission, asked the Jewish Agency not to send through unchecked convoys.

An Israeli spokesman said the legion had shot at the convoy Saturday but hadn't hit it. Burdett went out to forestall fighting.

Truce terms made public by Bernadotte Tuesday do not mention convoys to Jerusalem, but forbid movement of war materials and put relief to Jerusalem people in the hands of the International Red Cross.

The Jewish immigrants arrived off Tel Aviv last night aboard the liner Kedmah from Marseille and began going ashore in lighters under United Nations supervision.

United States Navy Captain S. D. Willingham, senior truce observer there, said all men of military age aboard would be sent to a refugee camp.

The truce agreement calls for internment of men between 18 and 45 who reach Israel during the armistice.

Jew-Arab Riots End

Tripoli, Libya, June 14 (AP)—Normalcy returned today to Tripoli's old city, where Jews and Arabs had been rioting for two days, British military authorities announced.

However, fires were still burning in some Jewish-owned shops.

Casualties include 12 Jews and 4 Arabs killed, 21 Jews and 29 Arabs injured. Arrests on various charges, including rioting and curfew violations, totaled 144.

For several months Tunisian Arabs have passed through Tripolitania en route to Palestine. British authorities, who are administering this former Italian colony pending its final disposition by the major powers, placed a ban on this traffic.

WEST GERMAN PLAN BACKED BY 3 NATIONS

Benelux Countries Indorse Creation Of Separate State

London, June 14 (AP)—Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg indorsed today the plan to create a separate western German state.

This leaves France as the lone holdout among the six countries which just a week ago completed an accord to shape Germany's political and economic future.

Representatives of the Benelux countries informed Ernest Bevin, British Foreign Secretary, that their Governments have "willingly approved the agreed recommendations" reached during the London conference.

Rough Opposition Met

France's course remains uncertain. The accord has met rough opposition in the French National Assembly.

In diplomatic quarters here, however, there was guarded optimism that Georges Bidault, French Foreign Minister, would win approval for the accord by a slim majority.

The London accord calls for creation of a separate federal government in western Germany, control over the German Ruhr valley's steel, coke and iron ore, and a long-range system to prevent Germany's industrial machine from becoming again a menace to world peace.

Based On Three Factors

Qualified confidence here that the French Assembly will approve the accord rests upon three major factors:

1. Belief that attacks upon the plan by extreme Left (Communists) and Right Wing elements courage middle-of-the-road groups to pull together behind Bidault.

2. An opinion that France, if forced to a showdown, would accept a plan with features to which it objects rather than risk an independent course involving exclusion from any voice in managing the Ruhr and possible isolation between the East and the West.

3. Formal approval of the Benelux countries which—although not required for the plan's operation—may serve to sway some French votes in view of close relation and mutual problems of selfprotection.

May Proceed Independently

The United States and Britain are taking no chances on the possibility of French rejection. Responsible Whitehall officials reported the United States and Britain may proceed independently to organize western Germany even if the French refuse to participate.

They said such a move would be taken reluctantly and discounted the likelihood of British-American agreement to any French request for reopening talks on Germany.

British officials in close touch with the Foreign Office said that "obviously, we'll have to do something in West Germany, with or without the French."

Meanwhile, Leslie Hore-Belisha, former British War Secretary, declared that Russia "will continue to win bloodless victories in the cold war" so long as the Western powers, including Germany, fail to set up an organization to give expression to their corporate interests.

Britons Propose Big Four Parley

London, June 14 (AP) — Seven Labor members of Parliament want Britain to invite Russia to a Big Four conference for a general settlement of the German question.

They proposed this tonight in a resolution introduced in the House of Commons. The seven members said the recent six-power draft agreement on Germany was all right, but did not go far enough.

"It makes no provision," the resolution said, "for international public ownership and control of the economic resources of the Ruhr area, with participation of the Soviet Union, as well as of an eventual German government."

The resolution was sponsored by William Warbey and Sydney Silverman, Leftists, and Dr. B. Stross, A. J. Champion, Charles Royle, Harold Davies and Anthony Greenwood.

Russia Softening Tactics, London 'Times' Reports

LONDON, June 14 (AP).—The London "Times" said today that Russia is softening its political tactics in Europe. An editorial warned that because of this change "there is real danger" that the Soviets "may cause mystification and divided counsels in the West.

The Russians are seeking to relax current tension, "The Times" said, "first of all in the interest of their own security, having come genuinely to fear the spread of American military and economic influence, which they themselves largely raised up; and secondly in the hope of taking the main driving force out of the Western European Union."

"The Times" said that Russia "has shown before now that it knows when . . . to make a tactical retreat."

At added, "There is little doubt that the Kremlin has been surprised at the determination with which traditionally isolationist America has supported the free countries of Europe; and it has probably been no less surprised at the strength and speed of the movement for millitary and economic partnership in Western Europe."

London Hears Burma Plans Link To Reds

London, June 14 (AP)—The British Foreign Office said today it lacks official confirmation of a Reuters report from Rangoon, saying Premier Thakin Nu announced his intention to lead Burma into Communist domination and close relationship with Russia.

The Foreign Office said the report is under close consideration.

Privately, responsible Whitehall officials expressed "grave concern" over the reported development. Burma cut her ties with the British Commonwealth a little more than five months ago.

"It's difficult to believe that the Burmese people would really approve an action of this kind if they understood what communism stands for," one informant said.

Thakin Nu, leader of the anti-Fascist People's League for Freedom, has presided over a moderate Socialist Government since last July.

Britain still has a big economic stake in Burma, which is rich in oil, silver and lead mines.

Ex-Nazi Aid To Arabs Is Charged To Britain

London, June 14 (AP)—The Moscow Radio accused Britain tonight of condoning the recruitment of ex-Nazis in Austria for service with the Arabs in Palestine.

A broadcast heard in London said men being recruited in Austria were "expert killers of the SS (Hitler's Elite Guard)."

A Foreign Office spokesman said the accusation was "something dredged up from someone's fertile imagination and holds no iota of truth. It's fantastic that Britain would serve as a recruiting agent for the Arab Legion."

The Russian commentator said: "How far the British authorities go in their sympathy for ex-Nazis in Egypt may be judged by the fact that they recently freed 48 officers so that these could join the Arab armies."

'Loyal Order Of Labor Rebels' Holds Dinner

London, June 14 (AP)—"The Loyal Order of Labor Rebels" was organized at a House of Commons dinner tonight—with Prime Minister Clement Attlee as one of the speakers.

About 40 members of Parliament gave the dinner. Many of them incurred the Government's displeasure by signing a telegram of encouragement to the Communist-linked Socialists in the recent Italian elections.

Polish Paper Reports Repatriates' Mutiny

London, June 14 (AP)—A Russian news agency dispatch from Warsaw tonight quoted a Polish newspaper story claiming that Polish soldiers being taken home from England mutinied "when one of the British officers struck an expectant mother, the wife of a repatriated Pole."

An informed Whitehall source said that so far as he knows there is no truth to the charges in the newspaper Weczer. He added:

"It seems strange that if the accusations are true, Poland has not complained officially. Poland has not made such a complaint."

Two Economic Advances Are Announced In France

Paris, June 14 (AP)—France announced today two steps toward economic recovery.

Felix Gaillard, Under Secretary of State for Economic Affairs disclosed in a radio speech that French steel prices would be lowered from two to ten per cent.

Yvon Coude du Foresto, Under Secretary of State for Food Supplies, told the National Federation of French Butchers that beginning next week meat markets could remain open five days a week instead of three. Meat is not rationed in France.

World Silk Talks Open

Gerli Heads U. S. Delegation at Sessions in Lyons, France

LYONS, France, June 14 (AP).—The International Silk Manufacturers' Congress opened here today with 200 delegates representing thirty nations. A twenty-six-member delegation from the United States is headed by Paolino Gerli, member of the International Silk Guild.

A Japanese delegation, accompanied by two United States delegates, also is present. It is headed by Rinichi Hatano, silk company executive. The two Americans are Robert A. Hickerson and E. Baruch, both of S. C. A. P. (Supreme Command Allied Powers).

ONE DAY FOOD STRIKE HITS MILAN AND TURIN

ROME, June 14 — (AP) Strikes flared today in Milan and Turin.

Food workers of Milan, excepting those in bakeries, staged a one-day strike in sympathy with employes of the Motta Baking establishment, some of whom face dismissal.

In Turin, a general strike of one hour was called in protest against occupation by police of the Lancia Automobile Works.

Police were called in by the management as a precaution after it had cut working hours of its 18,000 to 20,000 employees.

Milan's Corriere Lombardo reported the 48-hour weekly shift had been cut to 40 and, in some units, to 32 hours. Lancia workers continued to stay away from their jobs after the general strike ended.

France's Action On Reich Rule Is Awaited

Richard C Regan

JUN 1948

Frankfurt, Germany, June 14 (AP)—By request of the French, the American and British military governors have postponed talks with German leaders here on a West-German federal government.

They did so because the French National Assembly has not yet approved a six-nation agreement to set up a government. The Assembly ends debate tomorrow. Paris observers predict approval.

The Allied-German talks had been set for tomorrow. Gen. Lucius D. Clay, United States military governor, announced the indefinite postponement last night.
